Genesis 1:1–2:3 (NRSV)

Six Days of Creation and the Sabbath

(Gen 2:4b–9; Job 38:4–11; Jn 1:1–5)

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, <sup>2</sup> the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters.

<sup>3</sup> Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.

<sup>4</sup> And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.

<sup>5</sup> God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

<sup>6</sup> And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” <sup>7</sup> So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. <sup>8</sup> God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

<sup>9</sup> And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. <sup>10</sup> God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup> Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. <sup>12</sup> The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup> And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

<sup>14</sup> And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, <sup>15</sup> and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. <sup>16</sup> God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars.

<sup>17</sup> God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, <sup>18</sup> to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup> And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

<sup>20</sup> And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” <sup>21</sup> So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>22</sup> God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.”

<sup>24</sup> And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. <sup>25</sup> God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup> Then God said, “Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.”

in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

<sup>28</sup> God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”<sup>29</sup> God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food.<sup>30</sup> And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so.<sup>31</sup> God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude.<sup>2</sup> And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done.<sup>3</sup> So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

Matthew 1:1–17 (NRSV)

The Genealogy of Jesus the Messiah
(Ruth 4:18–22; 1 Chr 2:1–15;
Lk 3:23–38)

<sup>2</sup> Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,<sup>3</sup> and Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Aram,<sup>4</sup> and Aram the father of Aminadab, and Aminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon,<sup>5</sup> and Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse,<sup>6</sup> and Jesse the father of King David.

And David was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah,<sup>7</sup> and Solomon the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asaph,<sup>8</sup> and Asaph the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah,<sup>9</sup> and Uzziah the father of Jotham, and Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah, <sup>10</sup> and Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh the father of Amos, and Amos the father of Josiah, <sup>11</sup> and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup> And after the deportation to Babylon: Jechoniah was the father of Salathiel, and Salathiel the father of Zerubbabel, <sup>13</sup> and Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, and Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor, <sup>14</sup> and Azor the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud, <sup>15</sup> and Eliud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob, <sup>16</sup> and Jacob the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah.

deportation to Babylon to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

The Two Ways

- <sup>1</sup> Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked,
or take the path that sinners tread,
or sit in the seat of
scoffers;
- <sup>2</sup> but their delight is in the law of the LORD,
and on his law they meditate day and night.
- <sup>3</sup> They are like trees planted by streams of water,
which yield their fruit in its season,
and their leaves do not wither.
In all that they do, they prosper.
- <sup>4</sup> The wicked are not so,
but are like chaff that the wind drives away.
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,

nor sinners in the congregation of the
righteous;

Proverbs 1:1–6 (NRSV)

The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

Prologue

- <sup>2</sup> For learning about wisdom
and instruction,
for understanding words
of insight, <sup>3</sup> for gaining instruction in wise dealing,
righteousness, justice,
and equity;
<sup>4</sup> to teach shrewdness to the simple,
knowledge and prudence
to the young—<sup>5</sup> let the wise also hear and gain in learning,
and the discerning
acquire skill, <sup>6</sup> to understand a proverb
and a figure,
the words of the wise
and their riddles.

Genesis 2:4–25 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> These are the generations of the heavens and the earth
when they were created.

Another Account of the Creation (Gen 1:26–30)

In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, <sup>5</sup> when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up—for the LORD God had not caused it to rain
upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground; <sup>6</sup> but a stream would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground— <sup>7</sup> then the LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being. <sup>8</sup> And the LORD God planted a garden
in Eden, in the east; and there
he put the man whom he had formed. <sup>9</sup> Out of the ground
the LORD God made to grow
every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>10</sup> A river flows out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it divides and becomes four branches. <sup>11</sup> The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one that flows around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; <sup>12</sup> and the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are there. <sup>13</sup> The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one that flows around the whole land of Cush. <sup>14</sup> The name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

<sup>16</sup> And the LORD God commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; <sup>17</sup> but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die."

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner."

<sup>19</sup> So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.

<sup>20</sup> The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. <sup>21</sup> So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. <sup>22</sup> And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man.

<sup>23</sup> Then the man said,
"This at last is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
this one shall be called Woman,
for out of Man this one was taken."

become one flesh. <sup>25</sup> And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

Matthew 1:18–25 (NRSV)

The Birth of Jesus the Messiah
(Lk 2:1–7)

<sup>18</sup> Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup> Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly. <sup>20</sup> But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>21</sup> She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” <sup>22</sup> All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

and they shall name him Emmanuel,”

which means, “God is with us.” <sup>24</sup> When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took her as his wife, <sup>25</sup> but had no marital relations with her until she had borne a son; and he named him Jesus.

Psalms 1:6 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> for the LORD watches over the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked will perish.

<sup>7</sup> The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge;
fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Warnings against Evil Companions

<sup>8</sup> Hear, my child, your father’s instruction,
and do not reject your mother’s teaching;
<sup>9</sup> for they are a fair garland for your head,
and pendants for your neck.

The First Sin and Its Punishment (Rom 5:12–21)

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God say, ‘You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?’”<sup>2</sup> The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden;<sup>3</sup> but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.’”<sup>4</sup> But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not die;<sup>5</sup> for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”<sup>6</sup> So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate.<sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

<sup>8</sup> They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.<sup>9</sup> But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, “Where are you?”<sup>10</sup> He said, “I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.”<sup>11</sup> He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?”<sup>12</sup> The man said, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.”<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent tricked me, and I ate.”<sup>14</sup> The LORD God said to the serpent,

“Because you have done
this,
cursed are you among all animals
and among all wild creatures;
upon your belly you shall go,
and dust you shall eat
all the days of your life.

<sup>15</sup> I will put enmity between you and the woman,
and between your offspring and hers;
he will strike your head,
and you will strike his heel.”

<sup>16</sup> To the woman he said,
“I will greatly increase your pangs in childbearing;
in pain you shall bring forth children,
yet your desire shall be for
your husband,
and he shall rule over
you.”

<sup>17</sup> And to the man he said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife,
and have eaten of the tree
about which I commanded
you,
‘You shall not eat of it,’

cursed is the ground
because of you;
in toil you shall eat of it
all the days of your life;
<sup>18</sup> thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you;
and you shall eat the plants of the field.

<sup>19</sup> By the sweat of your face
you shall eat bread
until you return to the ground,
for out of it you were taken;
you are dust,
and to dust you shall return.”

<sup>20</sup> The man named his wife
Eve, because she was the mother of all living. <sup>21</sup> And the LORD God made garments of skins for the man and for his wife, and clothed them.

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD God said, “See, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil; and now, he might reach out his hand and take also
from the tree of life, and eat,
and live forever”—

<sup>23</sup> therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup> He drove out the man; and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the cherubim, and a sword flaming and turning to guard the way to the tree of life.

Matthew 2:1–12 (NRSV)

The Visit of the Wise Men

<sup>1</sup> In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.” <sup>3</sup> When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; <sup>4</sup> and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. <sup>5</sup> They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

<sup>6</sup> ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler

who is to shepherd my people Israel.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. <sup>8</sup> Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”

<sup>9</sup> When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. <sup>10</sup> When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. <sup>11</sup> On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Psalms 2:1-6 (NRSV)

God’s Promise to His Anointed
(Acts 4:23–31)

1 Why do the nations
conspire,
and the peoples plot in vain?
2 The kings of the earth set
themselves,
and the rulers take counsel together,
against the LORD and his anointed, saying,
3 “Let us burst their bonds
asunder,
and cast their cords from
us.”
4 He who sits in the heavens
laughs;
the LORD has them in derision.
5 Then he will speak to them
in his wrath,
and terrify them in his
fury, saying,
6 “I have set my king on Zion, my holy hill.”

Proverbs 1:10–19 (NRSV)

10 My child, if sinners entice
you,
do not consent.
11 If they say, “Come with us, let us lie in wait for
blood;
let us wantonly ambush
the innocent;

12 like Sheol let us swallow them alive
and whole, like those who go down to the Pit.
13 We shall find all kinds of costly things;
we shall fill our houses
with booty.
14 Throw in your lot among
us;
we will all have one purse”— 15 my child, do not walk in their way,
keep your foot from their
paths;
16 for their feet run to evil,
and they hurry to shed
blood.
17 For in vain is the net baited
while the bird is looking on;
18 yet they lie in wait—to kill
themselves!
and set an ambush—for their own lives!
19 Such is the end of all who are greedy for gain; it takes away the life of its possessors.

Genesis 4:1–26 (NRSV)

Cain Murders Abel

(Lk 11:51; Heb 11:4; 12:24)

Now the man knew his wife Eve, and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, “I have produced a man with the help of the LORD.”<sup>2</sup> Next she bore his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain a tiller of the ground.<sup>3</sup> In the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground,<sup>4</sup> and Abel for his part brought of the firstlings of his flock, their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and his offering,<sup>5</sup> but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.<sup>6</sup> The LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen?<sup>7</sup> If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is lurking at the door; its desire is for you, but you must master it.”

<sup>8</sup> Cain said to his brother Abel, “Let us go out to the field.” And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel, and killed him.<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?” He said, “I do not know; am I my brother’s keeper?”<sup>10</sup> And the LORD said, “What have you done? Listen; your brother’s blood is crying out to me from the ground!<sup>11</sup> And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.<sup>12</sup> When you till the ground, it will no longer yield to you its strength; you will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth.”<sup>13</sup> Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is greater than I can bear!<sup>14</sup> Today you have driven me away from the soil, and I shall be hidden from your face; I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and anyone who meets me may kill me.”<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD said to him, “Not so! Whoever kills Cain will suffer a sevenfold vengeance.” And the LORD put a mark on Cain, so that no one who came upon him would kill him. <sup>16</sup> Then Cain went away from the presence of the LORD, and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Beginnings of Civilization

<sup>17</sup> Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch; and he built a city, and named it Enoch after his son Enoch. <sup>18</sup> To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael the father of Methushael, and Methushael the father of Lamech. <sup>19</sup> Lamech took two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. <sup>20</sup> Adah bore Jabal; he was the ancestor of those who live in tents and have livestock. <sup>21</sup> His brother's name was Jubal; he was the ancestor of all those who play the lyre and pipe. <sup>22</sup> Zillah bore Tubal-cain, who made all kinds of bronze and iron tools. The sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

<sup>23</sup> Lamech said to his wives:
"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
you wives of Lamech,
listen to what I say:

I have killed a man for wounding me,
a young man for striking me.

truly Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

<sup>25</sup> Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, for she said, "God has appointed for me another child instead of Abel, because Cain killed him." <sup>26</sup> To Seth also a son was born, and he named him Enosh. At that time people began to invoke the name of the LORD.

Matthew 2:13–23 (NRSV)

The Escape to Egypt

<sup>13</sup> Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him."

<sup>14</sup> Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt, <sup>15</sup> and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my son.”

The Massacre of the Infants

<sup>16</sup>When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men.

wailing and loud lamentation,
Rachel weeping for her children;
she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.”

The Return from Egypt

(Lk 2:39)

<sup>19</sup>When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, <sup>20</sup>“Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.” <sup>21</sup>Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup>But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee. <sup>23</sup>There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, “He will be called a Nazorean.”

Psalm 2:7-12 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> I will tell of the decree of the LORD:
He said to me, “You are my son;
today I have begotten you.
<sup>8</sup> Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage,
and the ends of the earth your possession.
<sup>9</sup> You shall break them with a rod of iron,
and dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.”

10 Now therefore, O kings, be wise;
be warned, O rulers of
the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear, with trembling <sup>12</sup> kiss his feet,
or he will be angry, and you will perish in the
way;
for his wrath is quickly
kindled.
Happy are all who take refuge in him.

Proverbs 1:20–23 (NRSV)

The Call of Wisdom

20 Wisdom cries out in the street;
in the squares she raises
her voice.
21 At the busiest corner she cries out;
at the entrance of the
city gates she speaks:
22 “How long, O simple ones,
will you love being
simple?
How long will scoffers
delight in their scoffing
and fools hate
knowledge?
23 Give heed to my reproof;
I will pour out my thoughts
to you;

I will make my words
known to you.

January 5

Genesis 5:1–32 (NRSV)

*Adam’s Descendants to Noah
and His Sons
(1 Chr 1:1–4; Lk 3:36–38)*

This is the list of the descendants of Adam. When God created humankind, he made them in the likeness of God. <sup>2</sup> Male and female he created them, and he blessed them and named them “Humankind” when they were created.

<sup>3</sup> When Adam had lived
one hundred thirty years, he became the father of a son in his likeness, according to his image, and named him Seth.
<sup>4</sup> The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth
were eight hundred years; and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> Thus all the days
that Adam lived were nine hundred thirty years; and he died.

<sup>6</sup> When Seth had lived one hundred five years, he became the father of Enosh. <sup>7</sup> Seth lived after the birth of Enosh eight hundred seven years, and had other sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup> Thus all the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years; and he died.

<sup>9</sup> When Enosh had lived ninety years, he became the father of Kenan. <sup>10</sup> Enosh lived after the birth of Kenan eight hundred fifteen years, and had other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup> Thus all the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years; and he died.

<sup>12</sup> When Kenan had lived seventy years, he became the father of Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup> Kenan lived after the birth of Mahalalel eight hundred and forty years, and had other sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup> Thus all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

thirty years, and had other sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup> Thus all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years; and he died.

<sup>18</sup> When Jared had lived one hundred sixty-two years he became the father of Enoch. <sup>19</sup> Jared lived after the birth of Enoch eight hundred years, and had other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup> Thus all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years; and he died.

<sup>21</sup> When Enoch had lived sixty-five years, he became the father of Methuselah. <sup>22</sup> Enoch walked with God after the birth of Methuselah three hundred years, and had other sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup> Thus all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years.

Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years; and he died.

<sup>28</sup> When Lamech had lived one hundred eighty-two years, he became the father of a son; <sup>29</sup> he named him Noah, saying, “Out of the ground that the LORD has cursed this one shall bring us relief from our work and from the toil of our hands.” <sup>30</sup> Lamech lived after the birth of Noah five hundred ninety-five years, and had other sons and daughters.

The Proclamation of John the Baptist

(Mk 1:2–8; Lk 3:1–20)

“The voice of one crying
out in the wilderness:
‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.’”

<sup>5</sup> Then the people of Jerusalem and all Judea were going out to him, and all the region along the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Proverbs 1:24–28 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> Because I have called and you refused,
have stretched out my hand and no one heeded,

<sup>25</sup> and because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof,

<sup>26</sup> I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when panic strikes you,

<sup>27</sup> when panic strikes you like a storm,
and your calamity comes like a whirlwind,

when distress and anguish come upon
you.

<sup>28</sup> Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer;
they will seek me
diligently, but will not find me.

Genesis 6:1–22 (NRSV)

The Wickedness of Humankind

<sup>1</sup> When people began to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup> the sons of God saw that they were fair; and they took wives for themselves of all that they chose. <sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said, “My spirit shall not abide in mortals forever, for they are flesh; their days shall be one hundred twenty years.” <sup>4</sup> The Nephilim [giants] were on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God went in to the daughters of humans, who bore children to them. These were the heroes that were of old, warriors of renown.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD saw that the wickedness of humankind was great in the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually. <sup>6</sup> And the LORD was sorry that he had made humankind on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart. <sup>7</sup> So the LORD said, “I will blot out from the earth the human beings I have created—people together with animals and creeping things and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them.” <sup>8</sup> But Noah found favor in the sight of the LORD.

Noah Pleases God

(Heb 11:7; 1 Pet 3:20)

<sup>12</sup> And God saw that the earth was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its ways upon the earth. <sup>13</sup> And God said to Noah, "I have determined to make an end of all flesh, for the earth is filled with violence because of them; now I am going to destroy them along with the earth. <sup>14</sup> Make yourself an ark of cypress wood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and out with pitch. <sup>15</sup> This is how you are to make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>16</sup> Make a roof for the ark, and finish it to a cubit above; and put the door of the ark in its side; make it with lower, second, and third decks. <sup>17</sup> For my part, I am going to bring a flood of waters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die. <sup>18</sup> But I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>19</sup> And of every living thing, of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup> Of the birds according to their kinds, and of the animals according to their kinds, of every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every kind shall come in to you, to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup> Also take with you every kind of food that is eaten, and store it up; and it shall serve as food for you and for them." <sup>22</sup> Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.

Matthew 3:7–17 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup> Bear fruit worthy of repentance. <sup>9</sup> Do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. <sup>10</sup> Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>11</sup> “I baptize you with water for repentance, but one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” <sup>12</sup> His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and will gather his wheat into the granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

The Baptism of Jesus

(Mk 1:9–11; Lk 3:21–22; Jn 1:29–34)

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup> John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?” <sup>15</sup> But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented. <sup>16</sup> And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him.

<sup>17</sup> And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Psalm 3:6-8 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> I am not afraid of ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around.
<sup>7</sup> Rise up, O LORD!
Deliver me, O my God!
For you strike all my enemies on the cheek; you break the teeth of the wicked.
<sup>8</sup> Deliverance belongs to the LORD;
may your blessing be on your people! Selah

Proverbs 1:29–33 (NRSV)

<sup>29</sup> Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, <sup>30</sup> would have none of my counsel, and despised all my reproof, <sup>31</sup> therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way and be sated with their own devices.

<sup>32</sup> For waywardness kills the simple,
and the complacency of fools destroys them;
<sup>33</sup> but those who listen to me will be secure and will live at ease, without dread of disaster.”

The Great Flood (Lk 17:26–27)

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Noah, “Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before me in this generation. <sup>2</sup> Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and its mate; and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and its mate; <sup>3</sup> and seven pairs of the birds of the air also, male and female, to keep their kind alive on the face of all the earth. <sup>4</sup> For in seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights; and every living thing that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground.”

day Noah with his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons entered the ark, <sup>14</sup> they and every wild animal of every kind, and all domestic animals of every kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every bird of every kind—every bird, every winged creature. <sup>15</sup> They went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life. <sup>16</sup> And those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

moved on the earth, birds, domestic animals, wild animals, all swarming creatures that swarm on the earth, and all human beings; <sup>22</sup> everything on dry land in whose nostrils was the breath of life died. <sup>23</sup> He blotted out every living thing that was on the face of the ground, human beings and animals and creeping things and birds of the air; they were blotted out from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those that were with him in the ark. <sup>24</sup> And the waters swelled on the earth for one hundred fifty days.

Matthew 4:1-11 (NRSV)

The Temptation of Jesus
(Mk 1:12–13; Lk 4:1–13)

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. <sup>2</sup> He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. <sup>3</sup> The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." <sup>4</sup> But he answered, "It is written,

'One does not live by bread alone,

but by every word that comes from the mouth
of God.' ”

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him
on the pinnacle of the temple, <sup>6</sup> saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself
down; for it is written,

‘He will command his angels concerning you,’
and ‘On their hands they will bear you up,
so that you will not dash
your foot against a
stone.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms
of the world and their splendor; <sup>9</sup> and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship
me.” <sup>10</sup> Jesus said to him,

“Away with you, Satan! for it is written,

‘Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.’ ”

<sup>11</sup> Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Psalm 4:1-3 (NRSV)

Confident Plea for Deliverance from Enemies

To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Answer me when I call, O
God of my right!

You gave me room when I was in distress.

Be gracious to me, and hear my prayer.

<sup>2</sup> How long, you people,
shall my honor suffer
shame?

How long will you love vain words, and seek
after lies? Selah

<sup>3</sup> But know that the LORD has set apart the faithful
for himself;
the LORD hears when I
call to him.

Proverbs 2:1–5 (NRSV)

The Value of Wisdom

<sup>1</sup> My child, if you accept my words

and treasure up my commandments within
you,

<sup>2</sup> making your ear attentive to wisdom

and inclining your heart
to understanding;

<sup>3</sup> if you indeed cry out for insight,

and raise your voice for understanding;
<sup>4</sup> if you seek it like silver, and search for it as for hidden treasures—
<sup>5</sup> then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.

January 8

Genesis 8:1–9:19 (NRSV)

The Flood Subsides

<sup>1</sup> But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and all the domestic animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind blow over the earth, and the waters subsided; <sup>2</sup> the fountains of the deep and the windows of the heavens were closed, the rain from the heavens was restrained, <sup>3</sup> and the waters gradually receded from the earth. At the end of one hundred fifty days the waters had abated; <sup>4</sup> and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup> The waters continued to abate until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.

<sup>6</sup> At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made <sup>7</sup> and sent out the raven; and it went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup> Then he sent out the dove from him, to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground; <sup>9</sup> but the dove found no place to set its foot, and it returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took it and brought it into the ark with him. <sup>10</sup> He waited another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark; <sup>11</sup> and the dove came back to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf; so Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth. <sup>12</sup> Then he waited another seven days, and sent out the dove; and it did not return to him anymore.

<sup>13</sup> In the six hundred first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and saw that the face of the ground was drying. <sup>14</sup> In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

<sup>16</sup> “Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons’ wives with you.

<sup>17</sup> Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh—birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth—so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.” <sup>18</sup> So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives. <sup>19</sup> And every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the ark by families.

God’s Promise to Noah

<sup>20</sup> Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup> And when the LORD smelled the pleasing odor, the LORD said in his heart, “I will never again curse the ground because of humankind, for the inclination of the human heart is evil from youth; nor will I ever again destroy every living creature as I have done.

The Covenant with Noah

9 God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth. <sup>2</sup> The fear and dread of you shall rest on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the air, on everything that creeps on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea; into your hand they are delivered. <sup>3</sup> Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; and just as I gave you the green plants, I give you everything. <sup>4</sup> Only, you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood. <sup>5</sup> For your own lifeblood I will surely require a reckoning: from every animal I will require it and from human beings, each one for the blood of another, I will require a reckoning for human life.

by a human shall that person's blood be shed;
for in his own image
God made humankind.

<sup>8</sup> Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, <sup>9</sup> "As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, <sup>10</sup> and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. <sup>11</sup> I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth." <sup>12</sup> God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: <sup>13</sup> I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. <sup>14</sup> When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, <sup>15</sup> I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup> When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." <sup>17</sup> God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

Noah and His Sons

<sup>18</sup> The sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan.

<sup>19</sup> These three were the sons of Noah; and from these the whole earth was peopled.

Matthew 4:12-22 (NRSV)

*Jesus Begins His Ministry in Galilee
(Mk 1:14–15; Lk 4:14–15)*

<sup>12</sup> Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. <sup>13</sup> He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>14</sup> so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

on the road by the sea,
across the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles—<sup>16</sup> the people who sat in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those who sat in the region and shadow
of death
light has dawned.”

<sup>17</sup> From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

*Jesus Calls the First Disciples
(Mk 1:16–20; Lk 5:1–11)*

<sup>18</sup> As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup> And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” <sup>20</sup> Immediately they left their nets and followed him. <sup>21</sup> As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. <sup>22</sup> Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

<sup>4</sup> When you are disturbed,
do not sin;
ponder it on your beds,
and be silent. Selah <sup>5</sup> Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the
LORD.
<sup>6</sup> There are many who say,
“O that we might see some good!
Let the light of your face
shine on us, O LORD!”

7 You have put gladness in my heart
more than when their grain and wine abound.

8 I will both lie down and sleep in peace;
for you alone, O LORD,
make me lie down in safety.

Proverbs 2:6–15 (NRSV)

6 For the LORD gives wisdom;
from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;

7 he stores up sound wisdom for the upright;

he is a shield to those who walk blamelessly,

8 guarding the paths of justice

and preserving the way
of his faithful ones.

9 Then you will understand righteousness and
justice

and equity, every good path;

10 for wisdom will come into
your heart,

and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul;

11 prudence will watch over
you;

and understanding will
guard you.

12 It will save you from the way of evil,

from those who speak
perversely,

13 who forsake the paths of uprightness

to walk in the ways of
darkness,

14 who rejoice in doing evil and delight in the perverseness of evil;

15 those whose paths are crooked,

and who are devious in their
ways.

January 9

Genesis 9:20–10:32 (NRSV)

<sup>20</sup>Noah, a man of the soil,
was the first to plant a vineyard. <sup>21</sup>He drank some of the wine and became drunk,
and he lay uncovered in his tent. <sup>22</sup>And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside. <sup>23</sup> Then Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness. <sup>24</sup> When Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his youngest son had done to him, <sup>25</sup> he said, “Cursed be Canaan;

lowest of slaves shall he be to his brothers.”

<sup>26</sup> He also said,

“Blessed by the LORD my God be Shem;
and let Canaan be his
slave.

<sup>27</sup> May God make space for Japheth,
and let him live in the tents of Shem;
and let Canaan be his

<sup>28</sup> After the flood Noah
lived three hundred fifty years.

<sup>29</sup> All the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years; and he died.

Nations Descended from Noah
(1 Chr 1:5–27)

10 These are the descendants of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth;
children were born to them
after the flood.

<sup>2</sup> The descendants of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech,
and Tiras. <sup>3</sup> The descendants of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. <sup>4</sup> The descendants of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim.
<sup>5</sup> From these the coastland peoples spread. These are the descendants of Japheth in their lands, with their own language, by their families, in their nations.

Cush, Egypt, Put, and Canaan.

<sup>7</sup> The descendants of Cush:
Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The descendants of Raamah:
Sheba and Dedan. <sup>8</sup> Cush
became the father of Nimrod;
he was the first on earth to become a mighty warrior. <sup>9</sup> He was a mighty hunter before
the LORD; therefore it is said, “Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD.” <sup>10</sup> The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, and Accad, all of them in the land of Shinar.

children were born. <sup>22</sup> The descendants of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram. <sup>23</sup> The descendants of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. <sup>24</sup> Arpachshad became the father of Shelah; and Shelah became the father of Eber. <sup>25</sup> To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Joktan. <sup>26</sup> Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, <sup>27</sup> Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>28</sup> Obal, Abimael, Sheba, <sup>29</sup> Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the descendants of Joktan. <sup>30</sup> The territory in which they lived extended from Mesha in the direction of Sephar, the hill country of the east. <sup>31</sup> These are the descendants of Shem, by their families, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

<sup>32</sup> These are the families of Noah's sons, according to their genealogies, in their nations; and from these the nations spread abroad on the earth after the flood.

Jesus Ministers to Crowds of People
(Mk 1:35–39; Lk 4:44; 6:17–19)

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>24</sup> So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought to him all the sick, those who were afflicted with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, and paralytics, and he cured them.

*Trust in God for Deliverance
from Enemies*

To the leader: for the flutes. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Give ear to my words, O LORD;
give heed to my sighing.
<sup>2</sup> Listen to the sound of my cry,
my King and my God,
for to you I pray.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice;
in the morning I plead my case to you, and watch.

evil will not sojourn with you.

<sup>5</sup> The boastful will not stand before your eyes;
you hate all evildoers.

<sup>6</sup> You destroy those who speak lies;
the LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful.

Proverbs 2:16–22 (NRSV)

<sup>16</sup> You will be saved from the loose woman,
from the adulteress with her smooth words,

<sup>17</sup> who forsakes the partner of her youth
and forgets her sacred covenant;

<sup>18</sup> for her way leads down to death,
and her paths to the shades;

<sup>19</sup> those who go to her never come back,
nor do they regain the paths of life.

<sup>20</sup> Therefore walk in the way
of the good,
and keep to the paths of
the just.
<sup>21</sup> For the upright will abide
in the land,
and the innocent will remain in it;
<sup>22</sup> but the wicked will be cut off from the land,
and the treacherous will be rooted out of it.

Genesis 11:1–26 (NRSV)

The Tower of Babel

Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. <sup>2</sup> And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. <sup>3</sup> And they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.” And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. <sup>4</sup> Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.” <sup>5</sup> The LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. <sup>6</sup> And the LORD said, “Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. <sup>7</sup> Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another’s speech.” <sup>8</sup> So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. <sup>9</sup> Therefore it was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Descendants of Shem

old, he became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood; <sup>11</sup> and Shem lived after the birth of Arpachshad five hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup> When Arpachshad had lived thirty-five years, he became the father of Shelah; <sup>13</sup> and Arpachshad lived after the birth of Shelah four hundred three years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup> When Shelah had lived thirty years, he became the father of Eber; <sup>15</sup> and Shelah lived after the birth of Eber four hundred three years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup> When Eber had lived thirty-four years, he became the father of Peleg; <sup>17</sup> and Eber lived after the birth of Peleg four hundred thirty years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup> When Peleg had lived thirty years, he became the father of Reu; <sup>19</sup> and Peleg lived after the birth of Reu two hundred nine years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> When Reu had lived thirty-two years, he became the father of Serug; <sup>21</sup> and Reu lived after the birth of Serug

two hundred seven years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup> When Serug had lived thirty years, he became the father of Nahor; <sup>23</sup> and Serug lived after the birth of Nahor two hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>24</sup> When Nahor had lived twenty-nine years, he became the father of Terah; <sup>25</sup> and Nahor lived after the birth of Terah one hundred nineteen years, and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>26</sup> When Terah had lived seventy years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

The Beatitudes

(Lk 6:20-26)

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. <sup>2</sup> Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

for they will inherit the earth.

hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

for they will receive mercy.

<sup>8</sup> “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup> “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs
is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> “Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before
you.

<sup>7</sup> But I, through the abundance of your
steadfast love,
will enter your house,
I will bow down toward your holy temple

in awe of you.

<sup>8</sup> Lead me, O LORD, in your
righteousness
because of my enemies;
make your way straight
before me.

<sup>9</sup> For there is no truth in
their mouths;
their hearts are
destruction;
their throats are open
graves;
they flatter with their tongues.

<sup>10</sup> Make them bear their guilt, O God;
let them fall by their own counsels;
because of their many transgressions cast
them out,
for they have rebelled
against you.

<sup>11</sup> But let all who take refuge
in you rejoice;
let them ever sing for
joy.

Spread your protection
over them,
so that those who love
your name may exult in
you.

<sup>12</sup> For you bless the righteous, O LORD;

you cover them with favor as with a shield.

Proverbs 3:1–6 (NRSV)
Admonition to Trust and Honor God

- 1 My child, do not forget
my teaching,
but let your heart keep
my commandments;
2 for length of days and years of life
and abundant welfare
they will give you.
3 Do not let loyalty and faithfulness forsake
you;
bind them around your
neck,
write them on the tablet
of your heart.
4 So you will find favor and good repute
in the sight of God and of
people.
5 Trust in the LORD with all
your heart,
and do not rely on your own insight.
6 In all your ways
acknowledge him,
and he will make straight
your paths.

January 11

Genesis 11:27–13:4 (NRSV)

Descendants of Terah

<sup>27</sup> Now these are the descendants of Terah. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran was the father of Lot. <sup>28</sup> Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans. <sup>29</sup> Abram and Nahor took wives; the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah. She was the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and Iscah. <sup>30</sup> Now Sarai was barren; she had no child.

<sup>31</sup> Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they went out together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Canaan; but when they came to Haran, they settled there. <sup>32</sup> The days of Terah were two hundred five years; and Terah died in Haran.

The Call of Abram

12 Now the LORD said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. <sup>2</sup> I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. <sup>3</sup> I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

<sup>4</sup> So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup> Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother’s son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, <sup>6</sup> Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD appeared to Abram, and said, “To your offspring I will give this land.” So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup> From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and invoked the name of the LORD. <sup>9</sup> And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

Abram and Sarai in Egypt

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a famine in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to reside there as an alien, for the famine was severe in the land. <sup>11</sup> When he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “I know well that you are a woman beautiful in appearance; <sup>12</sup> and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife’; then they will kill me, but they will let you live. <sup>13</sup> Say you are my sister, so that it may go well with me because of you, and that my life may be spared on your account.” <sup>14</sup> When Abram entered Egypt the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup> When the officials of Pharaoh saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

<sup>16</sup> And for her sake he dealt well with Abram; and he had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female slaves, female donkeys, and camels.

<sup>17</sup> But the LORD afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. <sup>18</sup> So Pharaoh called Abram, and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?" <sup>19</sup> Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her for my wife? Now then, here is your wife, take her, and be gone." <sup>20</sup> And Pharaoh gave his men orders concerning him; and they set him on the way, with his wife and all that he had.

Abram and Lot Separate

13 So Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the Negeb.

<sup>2</sup> Now Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. <sup>3</sup> He journeyed on by stages from the Negeb as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>4</sup> to the place where he had made an altar at the first; and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Matthew 5:13-26 (NRSV) Salt Salt and Light (Mk 9:50; Lk 14:34-35)

<sup>13</sup> "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot.

The Law and the Prophets

<sup>17</sup> "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup> For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>20</sup> For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Concerning Anger

<sup>21</sup> “You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not murder’; and ‘whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.’ <sup>22</sup> But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, ‘You fool,’ you will be liable to the hell of fire. <sup>23</sup> So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, <sup>24</sup> leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. <sup>25</sup> Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. <sup>26</sup> Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.

Psalm 6:1-5 (NRSV)

Prayer for Recovery from Grave Illness

To the leader: with stringed instruments; according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger, or discipline me in your wrath.
- <sup>2</sup> Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am languishing; O LORD, heal me, for my bones are shaking with terror.
- <sup>3</sup> My soul also is struck with terror, while you, O LORD—how long?

<sup>4</sup> Turn, O LORD, save my life;
deliver me for the sake
of your steadfast love.
<sup>5</sup> For in death there is no
remembrance of you;
in Sheol who can give you praise?

<sup>7</sup> Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear the LORD, and turn
away from evil.
<sup>8</sup> It will be a healing for your flesh
and a refreshment for your body.

January 12

Genesis 13:5–14:16 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> Now Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents, <sup>6</sup>so that the land could not support both of them living together; for their possessions were so great that they could not live together, <sup>7</sup>and there was strife between the herders of Abram’s livestock and the herders of Lot’s livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites lived in the land.

<sup>8</sup> Then Abram said to Lot, “Let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herders and my herders; for we are kindred.
<sup>9</sup> Is not the whole land before you? Separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left.” <sup>10</sup> Lot looked about him, and saw that the plain of the Jordan
was well watered everywhere
like the garden of the LORD,
like the land of Egypt, in the direction of Zoar; this was before the LORD had destroyed
Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>11</sup> So Lot chose for himself all the plain of the Jordan, and Lot journeyed eastward; thus they separated from each other.
<sup>12</sup> Abram settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot settled
among the cities of the Plain and moved his tent as far as Sodom. <sup>13</sup> Now the people of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, "Raise your eyes now, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward; <sup>15</sup> for all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever. <sup>16</sup> I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth; so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your offspring also can be counted. <sup>17</sup> Rise up, walk through the length and the breadth of the land, for I will give it to you." <sup>18</sup> So Abram moved his tent, and came and settled by the oaks of Mamre, which are at Hebron; and there he built an altar to the LORD.

Lot's Captivity and Rescue

14 In the days of King Amraphel of Shinar, King Arioch of Ellasar, King Chedorlaomer of Elam, and King Tidal of Goiim, <sup>2</sup> these kings made war with King Bera of Sodom, King Birsha of Gomorrah, King Shinab of Admah, King Shemeber of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar). <sup>3</sup> All these joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Dead Sea). <sup>4</sup> Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled. <sup>5</sup> In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and subdued the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim, <sup>6</sup> and the Horites in the hill country of Seir as far as El-paran on the edge of the wilderness; <sup>7</sup> then they turned back and came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and subdued all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar. <sup>8</sup> Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out, and they joined battle in the Valley of Siddim <sup>9</sup> with King Chedorlaomer of Elam, King Tidal of Goiim, King Amraphel of Shinar, and King Arioch of Ellasar, four kings against five. <sup>10</sup> Now the Valley of Siddim was full of bitumen pits; and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into them, and the rest fled to the hill country.

<sup>11</sup> So the enemy took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way; <sup>12</sup> they also took Lot, the son of Abram's brother, who lived in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

<sup>13</sup> Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, who was living by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and of Aner; these were allies of Abram. <sup>14</sup> When Abram heard that his nephew had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, three hundred eighteen of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. <sup>15</sup> He divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and routed them and pursued them to Hobah, north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup> Then he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his nephew Lot with his goods, and the women and the people.

Concerning Adultery

<sup>27</sup> "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.'<sup>28</sup> But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29</sup> If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. <sup>30</sup> And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell.

Concerning Divorce
(Mt 19:9; Mk 10:11–12; Lk 16:18)

<sup>31</sup> "It was also said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'<sup>32</sup> But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Concerning Oaths
<sup>33</sup> "Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.' <sup>34</sup> But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, <sup>35</sup> or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup> And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. <sup>37</sup> Let your word be 'Yes, Yes' or 'No, No'; anything more than this comes from the evil one.

<sup>6</sup> I am weary with my moaning;
every night I flood my bed with tears;
I drench my couch with my weeping.
<sup>7</sup> My eyes waste away because of grief;
they grow weak because of all my foes.
<sup>8</sup> Depart from me, all you workers of evil,
for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.
<sup>9</sup> The LORD has heard my supplication;

the LORD accepts my prayer.

<sup>10</sup> All my enemies shall be ashamed and struck with terror;
they shall turn back, and in a moment be put to shame.

<sup>9</sup> Honor the LORD with your substance
and with the first fruits of all your produce; <sup>10</sup> then your barns will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will be bursting with wine.

January 13

Genesis 14:17-15:21 (NRSV)

Abram Blessed by Melchizedek
(Heb 7:1-2)

<sup>17</sup> After his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of

Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).<sup>18</sup> And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High.<sup>19</sup> He blessed him and said,
    "Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
    maker of heaven and earth;
<sup>20</sup> and blessed be God Most High,
    who has delivered your enemies into your hand!"

And Abram gave him one-tenth of everything.<sup>21</sup> Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, but take the goods for yourself."<sup>22</sup> But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have sworn to the LORD, God Most High, maker of heaven and earth,<sup>23</sup> that I would not take a thread or a sandal-thong or anything that is yours, so that you might not say, 'I have made Abram rich.'<sup>24</sup> I will take nothing but what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their share."

(Heb 11:8–10)

15 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great."<sup>2</sup> But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?"<sup>3</sup> And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir."<sup>4</sup> But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir."<sup>5</sup> He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be."<sup>6</sup> And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.
<sup>7</sup> Then he said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess."<sup>8</sup> But he said, "O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?" <sup>9</sup> He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." <sup>10</sup> He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. <sup>11</sup> And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup> As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him. <sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to Abram, "Know this for certain, that your offspring shall be aliens in a land that is not theirs, and shall be slaves there, and they shall be oppressed for four hundred years; <sup>14</sup> but I will bring judgment on the nation that they serve, and afterward they shall come out with great possessions. <sup>15</sup> As for yourself, you shall go to your ancestors in peace; you shall be buried in a good old age. <sup>16</sup> And they shall come back here in the fourth generation; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete."

<sup>17</sup> When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. <sup>18</sup> On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates, <sup>19</sup> the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, <sup>20</sup> the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, <sup>21</sup> the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girdashites, and the Jebusites."

Concerning Retaliation (Lk 6:29-31)

<sup>38</sup> "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' <sup>39</sup> But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also; <sup>40</sup> and if anyone wants to sue you and take your coat, give your cloak as well; <sup>41</sup> and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile. <sup>42</sup> Give to everyone who begs from you, and do not refuse anyone who wants to borrow from you.

<sup>43</sup> “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ <sup>44</sup> But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, <sup>45</sup> so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. <sup>46</sup> For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? <sup>47</sup> And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? <sup>48</sup> Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Plea for Help against Persecutors

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjaminite.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD my God, in you I take refuge;
save me from all my pursuers, and deliver me, <sup>2</sup> or like a lion they will tear me apart;
they will drag me away, with no one to rescue.
<sup>3</sup> O LORD my God, if I have done this,
if there is wrong in my hands,
<sup>4</sup> if I have repaid my ally with harm
or plundered my foe without cause, <sup>5</sup> then let the enemy pursue and overtake me,
trample my life to the ground,
and lay my soul in the dust. Selah <sup>6</sup> Rise up, O LORD, in your anger;
lift yourself up against the fury of my enemies;
awake, O my God; you have appointed a judgment.
<sup>7</sup> Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered around you,

and over it take your seat on high.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD judges the
peoples;
judge me, O LORD,
according to my
righteousness
and according to the integrity that is in me.
<sup>9</sup> O let the evil of the wicked
come to an end,
but establish the
righteous,
you who test the minds
and hearts,
O righteous God.

<sup>11</sup> My child, do not despise
the LORD'S discipline or be weary of his reproof,
<sup>12</sup> *for the LORD reproves the
one he loves,
as a father the son in whom he delights.*

Genesis 16:1–17:14 (NRSV)

The Birth of Ishmael

<sup>1</sup> Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had an Egyptian slave-girl whose name was Hagar, <sup>2</sup> and Sarai said to Abram, "You see that the LORD has prevented me
from bearing children; go in to my slave-girl; it may be that I shall obtain children by her."
And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. <sup>3</sup> So, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her slave-girl, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife. <sup>4</sup> He went in to Hagar, and she conceived;
and when she saw that she
had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress. <sup>5</sup> Then Sarai said to Abram, "May the wrong done to me be on you! I gave my slave-girl to your embrace,
and when she saw that she
had conceived, she looked on me with contempt. May the LORD judge between you and me!" <sup>6</sup> But Abram said to Sarai,
"Your slave-girl is in your power; do to her as you please." Then Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she ran away from her.

<sup>7</sup>The angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur. <sup>8</sup>And he said, "Hagar, slave-girl of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?" She said, "I am running away from my mistress Sarai." <sup>9</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit to her." <sup>10</sup>The angel of the LORD also said to her, "I will so greatly multiply your offspring that they cannot be counted for multitude." <sup>11</sup>And the angel of the LORD said to her,

"Now you have conceived and shall bear a son; you shall call him Ishmael, for the LORD has given heed to your affliction.

<sup>13</sup> So she named the LORD who spoke to her, "You are El-roi"; for she said, "Have I really seen God and remained alive after seeing him?" <sup>14</sup> Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; it lies between Kadesh and Bered.

*The Sign of the Covenant

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. <sup>2</sup> And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous." <sup>3</sup> Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, <sup>4</sup> "As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. <sup>5</sup> No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. <sup>6</sup> I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. <sup>7</sup> I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. <sup>8</sup> And I will give to you, and to your offspring after you, the land where you are now an alien, all the land of Canaan, for a perpetual holding; and I will be their God.”

<sup>9</sup> God said to Abraham, “As for you, you shall keep my covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations. <sup>10</sup> This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your offspring after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised. <sup>11</sup> You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you. <sup>12</sup> Throughout your generations every male among you shall be circumcised when he is eight days old, including the slave born in your house and the one bought with your money from any foreigner who is not of your offspring.

<sup>13</sup> Both the slave born in your house and the one bought with your money must be circumcised. So shall my covenant be in your flesh an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup> Any uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant.”

Matthew 6:1-13 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> “Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

<sup>2</sup> “So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>3</sup> But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, <sup>4</sup> so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Concerning Prayer

(Lk 11:2–4)

<sup>5</sup> “And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>6</sup> But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>7</sup> “When you are praying, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard because of their many words. <sup>8</sup> Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

<sup>9</sup> “Pray then in this way:
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
<sup>10</sup> Your kingdom come.
Your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
<sup>11</sup> Give us this day our daily bread.
<sup>12</sup> And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven
our debtors.
<sup>13</sup> And do not bring us to
the time of trial,

but rescue us from the evil one.

Psalm 7:10-17 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> God is my shield, who saves the upright in
heart.
<sup>11</sup> God is a righteous judge,
and a God who has indignation every day.
<sup>12</sup> If one does not repent, God will whet his
sword;
he has bent and strung
his bow;
<sup>13</sup> he has prepared his deadly weapons,
making his arrows fiery
shafts.
<sup>14</sup> See how they conceive
evil,
and are pregnant with
mischief,
and bring forth lies.
<sup>15</sup> They make a pit, digging it
out,
and fall into the hole that
they have made.
<sup>16</sup> Their mischief returns
upon their own heads,
and on their own heads
their violence
descends.

<sup>17</sup> I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High.

The True Wealth

<sup>13</sup> Happy are those who find wisdom,
and those who get understanding, <sup>14</sup> for her income is better than silver,
and her revenue better than gold.
<sup>15</sup> She is more precious than jewels,
and nothing you desire can compare with her.

January

Genesis 17:15–18:15 (NRSV)

<sup>15</sup> God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. <sup>16</sup> I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.”

<sup>18</sup> And Abraham said to God, “O that Ishmael might live in your sight!” <sup>19</sup> God said, “No, but your wife Sarah shall bear you a son, and you shall name him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his offspring after him. <sup>20</sup> As for Ishmael, I have heard you; I will bless him and make him fruitful and exceedingly numerous; he shall be the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

<sup>23</sup> Then Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the slaves born in his house or bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very day, as God had said to him. <sup>24</sup> Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>25</sup> And his son Ishmael was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

<sup>26</sup> That very day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised; <sup>27</sup> and all the men of his house, slaves born in the house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

*A Son Promised to Abraham and Sarah
(Heb 13:2)*

18 The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup> He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. <sup>3</sup> He said, "My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. <sup>4</sup> Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. <sup>5</sup> Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." <sup>6</sup> And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes." <sup>7</sup> Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. <sup>8</sup> Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

<sup>10</sup> Then one said, "I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him. <sup>11</sup> Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. <sup>12</sup> So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?"

<sup>13</sup> The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, and say, 'Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?' <sup>14</sup> Is anything too wonderful for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son."

<sup>15</sup> But Sarah denied, saying, "I did not laugh"; for she was afraid. He said, "Oh yes, you did laugh."

Matthew 6:14-24 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; <sup>15</sup> but if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Concerning Fasting

<sup>16</sup> "And whenever you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so as to show

others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>17</sup> But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup> so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Concerning Treasures

(Lk 12:33-34)

The Sound Eye

(Lk 11:34-36)

<sup>22</sup> "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light; <sup>23</sup> but if your eye is unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the

darkness!

Serving Two Masters

<sup>24</sup> “No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other.
You cannot serve God and wealth.

Psalm 8:1 (NRSV)

Divine Majesty and Human Dignity

To the leader: according to The Gittith. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your
name in all the earth!
You have set your glory
above the heavens.

<sup>16</sup> Long life is in her right
hand;
in her left hand are riches and honor.
<sup>17</sup> Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
and all her paths are peace.
<sup>18</sup> She is a tree of life to those

those who hold her fast are called happy.

January 16

Genesis 18:16–19:26 (NRSV)

Judgment Pronounced on Sodom

<sup>16</sup> Then the men set out from there, and they looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to set them
on their way. <sup>17</sup> The LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham
what I am about to do, <sup>18</sup> seeing that Abraham shall become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? <sup>19</sup> No, for I have chosen him, that he may charge his children and his household
after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice; so that the LORD may bring about for Abraham what he has promised him.” <sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said, “How great is the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah and how very grave
their sin! <sup>21</sup> I must go down and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me; and if not, I will know.”

<sup>22</sup> So the men turned from there, and went toward Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the LORD. <sup>23</sup> Then Abraham came near and said, "Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked?" <sup>24</sup> Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will you then sweep away the place and not forgive it for the fifty righteous who are in it? <sup>25</sup> Far be it from you to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?" <sup>26</sup> And the LORD said, "If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will forgive the whole place for their sake." <sup>27</sup> Abraham answered, "Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. <sup>28</sup> Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?" And he said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there." <sup>29</sup> Again he spoke to him, "Suppose forty are found there." He answered, "For the sake of forty I will not do it." <sup>30</sup> Then he said, "Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak. Suppose thirty are found there." He answered, "I will not do it, if I find thirty there." <sup>31</sup> He said, "Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there." He answered, "For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it." <sup>32</sup> Then he said, "Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak just once more. Suppose ten are found there." He answered, "For the sake of ten I will not destroy it." <sup>33</sup> And the LORD went his way, when he had finished speaking to Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

The Depravity of Sodom

19 The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and bowed down with his face to the ground. <sup>2</sup> He said, "Please, my lords, turn aside to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet;

then you can rise early and go on your way.” They said, “No; we will spend the night in the square.”<sup>3</sup> But he urged them strongly; so they turned aside to him and entered his house; and he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.<sup>4</sup> But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house;<sup>5</sup> and they called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, so that we may know them.”<sup>6</sup> Lot went out of the door to the men, shut the door after him,<sup>7</sup> and said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly.<sup>8</sup> Look, I have two daughters who have not known a man; let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please; only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof.”<sup>9</sup> But they replied, “Stand back!” And they said, “This fellow came here as an alien, and he would play the judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them.” Then they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near the door to break it down.<sup>10</sup> But the men inside reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.<sup>11</sup> And they struck with blindness the men who were at the door of the house, both small and great, so that they were unable to find the door.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

(Mt 11:23–24; Lk 17:28–32)

<sup>12</sup> Then the men said to Lot, “Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you have in the city—bring them out of the place.”<sup>13</sup> For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”<sup>14</sup> So Lot went out and said to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, “Up, get out of this place; for the LORD is about to destroy the city.” But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be jesting.

your two daughters who are here, or else you will be consumed in the punishment of the city.”<sup>16</sup> But he lingered; so the men seized him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him out and left him outside the city.<sup>17</sup> When they had brought them outside, they said, “Flee for your life; do not look back or stop anywhere in the Plain; flee to the hills, or else you will be consumed.”<sup>18</sup> And Lot said to them, “Oh, no, my lords;<sup>19</sup> your servant has found favor with you, and you have shown me great kindness in saving my life; but I cannot flee to the hills, for fear the disaster will overtake me and I die.”<sup>20</sup> Look, that city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me escape there—is it not a little one?—and my life will be saved!”<sup>21</sup> He said to him, “Very well, I grant you this favor too, and will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken.”<sup>22</sup> Hurry, escape there, for I can do nothing until you arrive there.” Therefore the city was called Zoar.<sup>23</sup> The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

<sup>24</sup> Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven;<sup>25</sup> and he overthrew those cities, and all the Plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.<sup>26</sup> But Lot’s wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

Matthew 6:25-7:6 (NRSV)

Do Not Worry
(Lk 12:22–31)

<sup>25</sup> “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing?<sup>26</sup> Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?<sup>27</sup> And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life?<sup>28</sup> And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin,<sup>29</sup> yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

<sup>30</sup> But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? <sup>31</sup> Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?' <sup>32</sup> For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. <sup>33</sup> But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Judging Others

7 "Do not judge, so that you may not be judged. <sup>2</sup> For with the judgment you make you will be judged, and the measure you give will be the measure you get. <sup>3</sup> Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye? <sup>4</sup> Or how can you say to your neighbor, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' while the log is in your own eye? <sup>5</sup> You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye.

Profaning the Holy

<sup>6</sup> "Do not give what is holy to dogs; and do not throw your pearls before swine, or they will trample them under foot and turn and maul you.

Psalm 8:2-9 (NRSV)

<sup>2</sup> Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>3</sup> When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,

the moon and the stars
that you have established;
4 what are human beings
that you are mindful of
them,
mortals that you care for
them?
5 Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honor.
6 You have given them
dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things
under their feet,
7 all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of
the field,
8 the birds of the air, and
the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along
the paths of the seas.
9 O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your
name in all the earth!

Proverbs 3:19–20 (NRSV)

God's Wisdom in Creation

19 The LORD by wisdom
founded the earth;
by understanding he established the heavens;

20 by his knowledge the deeps broke open,
and the clouds drop
down the dew.

January 17

Genesis 19:27–38 (NRSV)

27 Abraham went early in the morning to the place
where he had stood before the LORD; 28 and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the Plain and saw the smoke of the land going up like the smoke of a furnace.

29 So it was that, when God destroyed the cities of the Plain, God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow,
when he overthrew the cities
in which Lot had settled.

The Shameful Origin of Moab and Ammon

30 Now Lot went up out of Zoar and settled in the hills

with his two daughters, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar; so he lived in a cave with his two daughters.<sup>31</sup> And the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is not a man on earth to come in to us after the manner of all the world.<sup>32</sup> Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, so that we may preserve offspring through our father.”<sup>33</sup> So they made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; he did not know when she lay down or when she rose.<sup>34</sup> On the next day, the firstborn said to the younger, “Look, I lay last night with my father; let us make him drink wine tonight also; then you go in and lie with him, so that we may preserve offspring through our father.”<sup>35</sup> So they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger rose, and lay with him; and he did not know when she lay down or when she rose.<sup>36</sup> Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father.

and named him Moab; he is the ancestor of the Moabites to this day.<sup>38</sup> The younger also bore a son and named him Ben-ammi; he is the ancestor of the Ammonites to this day.

Ask, Search, Knock
(Lk 11:9–13)

<sup>7</sup> “Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.<sup>8</sup> For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.<sup>9</sup> Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for bread, will give a stone?<sup>10</sup> Or if the child asks for a fish, will give a snake?<sup>11</sup> If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

God’s Power and Justice

To the leader: according to Muthlabben. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart;
I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.
<sup>2</sup> I will be glad and exult in you;
I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.
<sup>3</sup> When my enemies turned back,
they stumbled and perished before you.
<sup>4</sup> For you have maintained my just cause;
you have sat on the throne giving righteous judgment.
<sup>5</sup> You have rebuked the nations, you have destroyed the wicked;

you have blotted out their name forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup> The enemies have vanished in everlasting ruins;
their cities you have rooted out;
the very memory of them has perished.
<sup>7</sup> But the LORD sits enthroned forever,
he has established his throne for judgment.
<sup>8</sup> He judges the world with righteousness;
he judges the peoples with equity.

The True Security

<sup>21</sup> My child, do not let these escape from your sight:
keep sound wisdom and prudence, <sup>22</sup> and they will be life for your soul
and adornment for your neck.
<sup>23</sup> Then you will walk on your way securely and your foot will not stumble.
<sup>24</sup> If you sit down, you will not be afraid;

when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
<sup>25</sup> Do not be afraid of sudden panic,
or of the storm that strikes the wicked;

Genesis 20:1–21:21 (NRSV)

Abraham and Sarah at Gerar

taken; for she is a married woman.” <sup>4</sup> Now Abimelech had not approached her; so he said, “Lord, will you destroy an innocent people?” <sup>5</sup> Did he not himself say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ I did this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands.” <sup>6</sup> Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart; furthermore it was I who kept you from sinning against me. Therefore I did not let you touch her.” <sup>7</sup> Now then, return the man’s wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all that are yours.”

<sup>8</sup> So Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants and told them all these things; and the men were very much afraid. <sup>9</sup> Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, “What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought such great guilt on me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that ought not to be done.”<sup>10</sup> And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What were you thinking of, that you did this thing?”

<sup>11</sup> Abraham said, “I did it because I thought, There is no fear of God at all in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.”<sup>12</sup> Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.<sup>13</sup> And when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, I said to her, ‘This is the kindness you must do me: at every place to which we come, say of me, He is my brother.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and male and female slaves, and gave them to Abraham, and restored his wife Sarah to him.

<sup>15</sup> Abimelech said, “My land is before you; settle where it pleases you.”<sup>16</sup> To Sarah he said, “Look, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; it is your exoneration before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated.”<sup>17</sup> Then Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, and also healed his wife and female slaves so that they bore children.<sup>18</sup> For the LORD had closed fast all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

(Heb 11:11)

21 The LORD dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as he had promised.<sup>2</sup> Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him.<sup>3</sup> Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him.<sup>4</sup> And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.<sup>5</sup> Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.<sup>6</sup> Now Sarah said, “God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me.”<sup>7</sup> And she said, “Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.”

Hagar and Ishmael Sent Away

(Gal 4:21–30)

<sup>8</sup>The child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. <sup>9</sup>But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. <sup>10</sup>So she said to Abraham, “Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.” <sup>11</sup>The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. <sup>12</sup>But God said to Abraham, “Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named for you. <sup>13</sup>As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.” <sup>14</sup>So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

<sup>15</sup>When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. <sup>16</sup>Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, “Do not let me look on the death of the child.” And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. <sup>17</sup>And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, “What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. <sup>18</sup>Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.” <sup>19</sup>Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

<sup>20</sup>God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow. <sup>21</sup>He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

A Tree and Its Fruit

(Mt 12:33; Lk 6:43-45)

<sup>15</sup> “Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. <sup>16</sup> You will know them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles? <sup>17</sup> In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit. <sup>18</sup> A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. <sup>19</sup> Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup> Thus you will know them by their fruits.

Concerning Self-Deception

(Lk 6:46; 13:26-27)

<sup>21</sup> “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven. <sup>22</sup> On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many deeds of power in your name?’ <sup>23</sup> Then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; go away from me, you evildoers.’

Psalms 9:9-12 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> The LORD is a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. <sup>10</sup> And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you. <sup>11</sup> Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion. Declare his deeds among the peoples. <sup>12</sup> For he who avenges blood is mindful of them; he does not forget the cry of the afflicted.

Proverbs 3:27-32 (NRSV)

<sup>27</sup> Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. <sup>28</sup> Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it”—when you have it with you.

your neighbor
who lives trustingly
beside you.

<sup>30</sup> Do not quarrel with anyone without cause,
when no harm has been done to you.

<sup>31</sup> Do not envy the violent and do not choose any of their ways;

abomination to the
LORD,
but the upright are in his confidence.

not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my posterity, but as I have dealt loyally with you, you will deal with me and with the land
where you have resided as an alien.” <sup>24</sup> And Abraham said, “I swear it.”

<sup>25</sup> When Abraham complained to Abimelech
about a well of water that Abimelech’s servants had seized, <sup>26</sup> Abimelech said, “I do not know who has done this;
you did not tell me, and I have not heard of it until today.”

<sup>27</sup> So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men
made a covenant. <sup>28</sup> Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs of the flock. <sup>29</sup> And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs that you have set apart?” <sup>30</sup> He said, “These seven ewe lambs you shall accept from my hand, in order that you may be a witness for me that I dug this well.”

<sup>31</sup> Therefore that place was called Beer-sheba; because there both of them swore an oath. <sup>32</sup> When they had made a covenant at Beer-sheba,

Genesis 21:22–22:24 (NRSV)

Abraham and Abimelech Make a Covenant

<sup>22</sup> At that time Abimelech, with Phicol the commander of his army, said to Abraham, “God is with you in all that you do; <sup>23</sup> now therefore swear to me here by God that you will

Abimelech, with Phicol the commander of his army, left and returned to the land of the Philistines.<sup>33</sup> Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God.<sup>34</sup> And Abraham resided as an alien many days in the land of the Philistines.

*The Command to Sacrifice Isaac
(Heb 11:17–19)*

22 After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”<sup>2</sup> He said, “Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.”<sup>3</sup> So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him.<sup>4</sup> On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away.

<sup>5</sup> Then Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.”<sup>6</sup> Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together.<sup>7</sup> Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” He said, “The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?”<sup>8</sup> Abraham said, “God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them walked on together.

<sup>9</sup> When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.<sup>10</sup> Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son.<sup>11</sup> But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”<sup>12</sup> He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.”

<sup>13</sup> And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup> So Abraham called that place “The LORD will provide”; as it is said to this day, “On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

<sup>15</sup> The angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven, <sup>16</sup> and said, “By myself I have sworn, says the LORD: Because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son, <sup>17</sup> I will indeed bless you, and I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of their enemies, <sup>18</sup> and by your offspring shall all the nations of the earth gain blessing for themselves, because you have obeyed my voice.” <sup>19</sup> So Abraham returned to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham lived at Beer-sheba.

The Children of Nahor

Matthew 7:24-29 (NRSV) Hearers and Doers (Lk 6:47-49)

<sup>24</sup> “Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock. <sup>25</sup> The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on rock.<sup>26</sup> And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand.<sup>27</sup> The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell—and great was its fall!”

<sup>28</sup> Now when Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astounded at his teaching,<sup>29</sup> for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

Genesis 23:1–20 (NRSV)

Sarah's Death and Burial

<sup>1</sup> Sarah lived one hundred twenty-seven years; this was the length of Sarah's life. <sup>2</sup> And Sarah died at Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan; and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her. <sup>3</sup> Abraham rose up from beside his dead, and said to the Hittites, <sup>4</sup> "I am a stranger and an alien residing among you; give me property among you for a burying place, so that I may bury my dead out of my sight." <sup>5</sup> The Hittites answered Abraham, <sup>6</sup> "Hear us, my lord; you are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places; none of us will withhold from you any burial ground for burying your dead." <sup>7</sup> Abraham rose and bowed to the Hittites, the people of the land. <sup>8</sup> He said to them, "If you are willing that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me Ephron son of Zohar, <sup>9</sup> so that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns; it is at the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me in your presence as a possession for a burying place." <sup>10</sup> Now Ephron was sitting among the Hittites; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the Hittites, of all who went in at the gate of his city, <sup>11</sup> "No, my lord, hear me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it; in the presence of my people I give it to you; bury your dead." <sup>12</sup> Then Abraham bowed down before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup> He said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, "If you only will listen to me! I will give the price of the field; accept it from me, so that I may bury my dead there." <sup>14</sup> Ephron answered Abraham, <sup>15</sup> "My lord, listen to me; a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver—what is that between you and me? Bury your dead." <sup>16</sup> Abraham agreed with Ephron; and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver that he had named in the hearing of the Hittites, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weights current among the merchants.

<sup>17</sup> So the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was to the east of Mamre, the field with the cave that was in it and all the trees that were in the field, throughout its whole area, passed <sup>18</sup> to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the Hittites, in the presence of all who went in at the gate of his city. <sup>19</sup> After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah facing Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup> The field and the cave that is in it passed from the Hittites into Abraham's possession as a burying place.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him; <sup>2</sup> and there was a leper who came to him and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if you choose, you can make me clean." <sup>3</sup> He stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I do choose. Be made clean!"

Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

<sup>19</sup> Rise up, O LORD! Do not let mortals prevail;
let the nations be judged before you.
<sup>20</sup> Put them in fear, O LORD;
let the nations know that they are only human.

Parental Advice

<sup>1</sup> Listen, children, to a father's instruction,
and be attentive, that you may gain insight;
<sup>2</sup> for I give you good precepts:
do not forsake my teaching.
<sup>3</sup> When I was a son with my father,
tender, and my mother's favorite,
<sup>4</sup> he taught me, and said to me,

“Let your heart hold fast
my words;
keep my commandments, and
live.

<sup>5</sup> Get wisdom; get insight:
do not forget, nor turn away
from the words of my mouth.

she will keep you;
love her, and she will
guard you.

The Marriage of Isaac and Rebekah

<sup>1</sup> Now Abraham was old, well advanced in years; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. <sup>2</sup> Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his house, who had charge of all that he had, “Put your hand under my thigh <sup>3</sup> and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live, <sup>4</sup> but will go to my country and to my kindred and get a wife for my son Isaac.”

<sup>5</sup> The servant said to him, “Perhaps the woman may not be willing to follow me to this land; must I then take your son back to the land from which you came?” <sup>6</sup> Abraham said to him, “See to it that you do not take my son back there. <sup>7</sup> The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me and swore to me, ‘To your offspring I will give this land,’ he will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup> But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this oath of mine; only you must not take my son back there.” <sup>9</sup> So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

choice gifts from his master; and he set out and went to Aram-naharaim, to the city of Nahor. <sup>11</sup> He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water; it was toward evening, the time when women go out to draw water. <sup>12</sup> And he said, "O LORD, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today and show steadfast love to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup> I am standing here by the spring of water, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup> Let the girl to whom I shall say, 'Please offer your jar that I may drink,' and who shall say, 'Drink, and I will water your camels'—let her be the one whom you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I shall know that you have shown steadfast love to my master."

whom no man had known. She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and came up. <sup>17</sup> Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me sip a little water from your jar." <sup>18</sup> "Drink, my lord," she said, and quickly lowered her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink. <sup>19</sup> When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw for your camels also, until they have finished drinking." <sup>20</sup> So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough and ran again to the well to draw, and she drew for all his camels. <sup>21</sup> The man gazed at her in silence to learn whether or not the LORD had made his journey successful.

<sup>22</sup> When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold nose-ring weighing a half shekel, and two bracelets for her arms weighing ten gold shekels, <sup>23</sup> and said, "Tell me whose daughter you are. Is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?" <sup>24</sup> She said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor." <sup>25</sup> She added, "We have plenty of straw and fodder and a place to spend the night.”<sup>26</sup> The man bowed his head and worshiped the LORD<sup>27</sup> and said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his steadfast love and his faithfulness toward my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the way to the house of my master’s kin.”

<sup>28</sup> Then the girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things.<sup>29</sup> Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.<sup>30</sup> As soon as he had seen the nose-ring, and the bracelets on his sister’s arms, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, “Thus the man spoke to me,” he went to the man; and there he was, standing by the camels at the spring.<sup>31</sup> He said, “Come in, O blessed of the LORD. Why do you stand outside when I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?”<sup>32</sup> So the man came into the house; and Laban unloaded the camels, and gave him straw and fodder for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.<sup>33</sup> Then food was set before him to eat; but he said, “I will not eat until I have told my errand.” He said, “Speak on.”

<sup>34</sup> So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant.”<sup>35</sup> The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy; he has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female slaves, camels and donkeys.<sup>36</sup> And Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and he has given him all that he has.<sup>37</sup> My master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live;’<sup>38</sup> but you shall go to my father’s house, to my kindred, and get a wife for my son.’<sup>39</sup> I said to my master, ‘Perhaps the woman will not follow me.’<sup>40</sup> But he said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you and make your way successful. You shall get a wife for my son from my kindred, from my father’s house.’<sup>41</sup> Then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my kindred; even if they will not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.'

<sup>42</sup> "I came today to the spring, and said, 'O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now you will only make successful the way I am going!

<sup>43</sup> I am standing here by the spring of water; let the young woman who comes out to draw, to whom I shall say, "Please give me a little water from your jar to drink," <sup>44</sup> and who will say to me, "Drink, and I will draw for your camels also"—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'

<sup>45</sup> "Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her water jar on her shoulder; and she went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, 'Please let me drink.'<sup>46</sup> She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will also water your camels.' So I drank, and she also watered the camels.

<sup>47</sup> Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' So I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her arms. <sup>48</sup> Then I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way to obtain the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son. <sup>49</sup> Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so that I may turn either to the right hand or to the left."

<sup>50</sup> Then Laban and Bethuel answered, "The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you anything bad or good. <sup>51</sup> Look, Rebekah is before you, take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has spoken."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

<sup>5</sup> When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, appealing to him <sup>6</sup> and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible distress."<sup>7</sup> And he said to him, "I will come and cure him.” <sup>8</sup> The centurion answered, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only speak the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup> For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this,’ and the slave does it.”

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard him, he was amazed and said to those who followed him, “Truly I tell you, in no one in Israel have I found such faith. <sup>11</sup> I tell you,

many will come from east and west and will eat with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, <sup>12</sup> while the heirs of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” <sup>13</sup> And to the centurion Jesus said, “Go; let it be done for you according to your faith.” And the servant was healed in that hour.

Jesus Heals Many at Peter’s House

<sup>14</sup> When Jesus entered Peter’s house, he saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever;

<sup>15</sup> he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him.

<sup>16</sup> That evening they brought to him many who were possessed with demons; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and cured all who were sick. <sup>17</sup> This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah, “He took our infirmities and bore our diseases.”

Prayer for Deliverance from Enemies

- <sup>1</sup> Why, O LORD, do you stand far off?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
- <sup>2</sup> In arrogance the wicked persecute the poor—
let them be caught in the schemes they have devised.
- <sup>3</sup> For the wicked boast of the desires of their heart,

those greedy for gain
curse and renounce
the LORD.

4 In the pride of their countenance the wicked say, "God will not seek it out";
all their thoughts are,
"There is no God."

5 Their ways prosper at all times;
your judgments are on high, out of their sight;
as for their foes, they scoff at them.

6 They think in their heart,
"We shall not be moved;
throughout all generations we shall not meet adversity."

Proverbs 4:7–10 (NRSV)

7 The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom,
and whatever else you
get, get insight.

8 Prize her highly, and she will exalt you;
she will honor you if you
embrace her.

9 She will place on your head a fair garland;
she will bestow on you a beautiful crown."

that the years of your life
may be many.

Genesis 24:52–25:28 (NRSV)

<sup>52</sup>When Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself to the ground
before the LORD. <sup>53</sup>And the servant brought out jewelry of silver and of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave to her brother and to her mother costly ornaments. <sup>54</sup>Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank, and they spent the night there. When they rose in the morning, he said, "Send me back to my master." <sup>55</sup>Her brother and her mother said, "Let the girl remain with us a while, at least ten days; after that she may go." <sup>56</sup>But he said to them, "Do not delay me, since the LORD has made my journey successful; let me go that I may go to my master." <sup>57</sup> They said, "We will call the girl, and ask her." <sup>58</sup> And they called Rebekah, and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" She said, "I will." <sup>59</sup> So they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse along with Abraham's servant and his men. <sup>60</sup> And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

"May you, our sister, become
thousands of myriads;
may your offspring gain
possession
of the gates of their foes."

<sup>61</sup> Then Rebekah and her maids rose up, mounted the camels, and followed the man; thus the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

<sup>62</sup> Now Isaac had come from Beer-lahai-roi, and was settled in the Negeb. <sup>63</sup> Isaac went out in the evening to walk in the field; and looking up, he saw camels coming.

camel, <sup>65</sup> and said to the servant, "Who is the man over there, walking in the field to meet us?" The servant said, "It is my master." So she took her veil and covered herself.

<sup>67</sup> Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent. He took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Abraham Marries Keturah
(1 Chr 1:32–33)

25 Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah. <sup>2</sup> She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. <sup>3</sup> Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. <sup>4</sup> The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. <sup>5</sup> Abraham gave all he had to Isaac. <sup>6</sup> But to the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts, while he was still living, and he sent them away from his son Isaac, eastward to the east country.

The Death of Abraham

Ishmael's Descendants

<sup>18</sup>They settled from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt in the direction of Assyria; he settled down alongside of all his people.

The Birth and Youth of Esau and Jacob

(Rom 9:10–12)

and she said, "If it is to be this way, why do I live?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> And the LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples born of you shall be divided; the one shall be stronger than the other, the elder shall serve the younger."

<sup>27</sup> When the boys grew up, Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents. <sup>28</sup> Isaac loved Esau, because he was fond of game; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Matthew 8:18-27 (NRSV)

Would-Be Followers of Jesus

orders to go over to the other side. <sup>19</sup> A scribe then approached and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." <sup>20</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

<sup>21</sup> Another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." <sup>22</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Jesus Stills the Storm

<sup>23</sup> And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. <sup>24</sup> A windstorm arose on the sea, so great that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep.

<sup>25</sup> And they went and woke him up, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!" <sup>26</sup> And he said to them, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a dead calm. <sup>27</sup> They were amazed, saying, "What sort of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

Psalm 10:7-15 (NRSV)

7 Their mouths are filled with cursing and deceit
and oppression;
under their tongues are mischief and iniquity.

8 They sit in ambush in the villages;
in hiding places they
murder the innocent.
Their eyes stealthily watch
for the helpless;
9 they lurk in secret like a lion in its covert;
they lurk that they may seize the poor;
they seize the poor and drag them off in their
net.

10 They stoop, they crouch,
and the helpless fall by their might.

11 They think in their heart,
“God has forgotten,
he has hidden his face,
he will never see it.”

12 Rise up, O LORD; O God, lift
up your hand;
do not forget the oppressed.

13 Why do the wicked
renounce God,
and say in their hearts,
“You will not call us to account”?

14 But you do see! Indeed you note trouble and grief,
that you may take it into your hands;
the helpless commit
themselves to you;
you have been the
helper of the orphan.

15 Break the arm of the wicked and evildoers;
seek out their wickedness until you find none.

Proverbs 4:11–13 (NRSV)

11 I have taught you the way
of wisdom;
I have led you in the paths of uprightness.

12 When you walk, your step will not be hampered;
and if you run, you will not stumble.

13 Keep hold of instruction;
do not let go;
guard her, for she is your life.

Esau Sells His Birthright
(Heb 12:16)

<sup>29</sup> Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. <sup>30</sup> Esau said to Jacob, “Let me eat some of that red stuff, for I am famished!” (Therefore he was called Edom.) <sup>31</sup> Jacob said, “First sell me your birthright.” <sup>32</sup> Esau said, “I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?” <sup>33</sup> Jacob said, “Swear to me first.” So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup> Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Isaac and Abimelech

26 Now there was a famine in the land, besides the former famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Gerar, to King Abimelech of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup> The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; settle in the land that I shall show you. <sup>3</sup> Reside in this land as an alien, and I will be with you, and will bless you; for to you and to your descendants I will give all these lands, and I will fulfill the oath that I swore to your father Abraham. <sup>4</sup> I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven, and will give to your offspring all these lands; and all the nations of the earth shall gain blessing for themselves through your offspring, <sup>5</sup> because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.”

<sup>6</sup> So Isaac settled in Gerar. <sup>7</sup> When the men of the place asked him about his wife, he said, “She is my sister”; for he was afraid to say, “My wife,” thinking, “or else the men of the place might kill me for the sake of Rebekah, because she is attractive in appearance.” <sup>8</sup> When Isaac had been there a long time, King Abimelech of the Philistines looked out of a window and saw him fondling his wife Rebekah. <sup>9</sup> So Abimelech called for Isaac, and said, “So she is your wife! Why then did you say, ‘She is my sister?’” Isaac said to him, “Because I thought I might die because of her.”<sup>10</sup> Abimelech said, “What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”<sup>11</sup> So Abimelech warned all the people, saying, “Whoever touches this man or his wife shall be put to death.”

<sup>12</sup> Isaac sowed seed in that land, and in the same year reaped a hundredfold. The LORD blessed him,<sup>13</sup> and the man became rich; he prospered more and more until he became very wealthy.<sup>14</sup> He had possessions of flocks and herds, and a great household, so that the Philistines envied him.<sup>15</sup> (Now the Philistines had stopped up and filled with earth all the wells that his father’s servants had dug in the days of his father Abraham.)<sup>16</sup> And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Go away from us; you have become too powerful for us.”

Matthew 8:28-34 (NRSV)

Jesus Heals the Gadarene Demoniacs

<sup>28</sup> When he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two demoniacs coming out of the tombs met him. They were so fierce that no one could pass that way.<sup>29</sup> Suddenly they shouted, “What have you to do with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?”<sup>30</sup> Now a large herd of swine was feeding at some distance from them.<sup>31</sup> The demons begged him, “If you cast us out, send us into the herd of swine.”<sup>32</sup> And he said to them, “Go!” So they came out and entered the swine; and suddenly, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the water.<sup>33</sup> The swineherds ran off, and on going into the town, they told the whole story about what had happened to the demoniacs.<sup>34</sup> Then the whole town came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighborhood.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD is king forever
and ever;
the nations shall perish
from his land.

<sup>14</sup> Do not enter the path of
the wicked,
and do not walk in the way of evildoers.
<sup>15</sup> Avoid it; do not go on it;
turn away from it and pass on.
<sup>16</sup> For they cannot sleep
unless they have done wrong;
they are robbed of sleep
unless they have made someone stumble.
<sup>17</sup> For they eat the bread of wickedness
and drink the wine of violence.

<sup>18</sup> But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn,
which shines brighter
and brighter until full
day.

<sup>19</sup> The way of the wicked is like deep darkness;
they do not know what they stumble over.

January 24

<sup>17</sup> So Isaac departed from there and camped in the valley of Gerar and settled there.

<sup>18</sup> Isaac dug again the wells of water that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham; for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham; and he gave them the names that his father had given them. <sup>19</sup> But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found there a well of spring water, <sup>20</sup> the herders of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herders, saying,
"The water is ours." So he called the well Esek, because they contended with him.

<sup>21</sup> Then they dug another well,
and they quarreled over that one also; so he called it Sitnah.

<sup>22</sup> He moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it; so he called it Rehoboth, saying,
"Now the LORD has made room
for us, and we shall be fruitful
in the land."

<sup>23</sup> From there he went up to Beer-sheba. <sup>24</sup> And that very night the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham; do not be afraid, for I am with you and will bless you and make your offspring numerous for my servant Abraham's sake."

<sup>25</sup> So he built an altar there, called on the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. And there Isaac's servants dug a well.

<sup>27</sup> Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, seeing that you hate me and have sent me away from you?"

<sup>28</sup> They said, "We see plainly that the LORD has been with you; so we say, let there be an oath between you and us, and let us make a covenant with you <sup>29</sup> so that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done to you nothing but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD." <sup>30</sup> So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

<sup>31</sup> In the morning they rose early and exchanged oaths; and Isaac set them on their way, and they departed from him in peace. <sup>32</sup> That same day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well that they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water!" <sup>33</sup> He called it Shibah; therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba to this day.

Esau's Hittite Wives

<sup>34</sup> When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith daughter of Beerli the Hittite, and Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite; <sup>35</sup> and they made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.

And after getting into a boat he crossed the sea and came to his own town.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

(Mk 2:1-12; Lk 5:17-26)

<sup>2</sup> And just then some people were carrying a paralyzed man lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven." <sup>3</sup> Then some of the scribes said to themselves, “This man is blaspheming.” <sup>4</sup> But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?”<sup>5</sup> For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Stand up and walk’?<sup>6</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he then said to the paralytic—“Stand up, take your bed and go to your home.”<sup>7</sup> And he stood up and went to his home.<sup>8</sup> When the crowds saw it, they were filled with awe, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to human beings.

Psalms 10:17-18 (NRSV)

<sup>17</sup> O LORD, you will hear the desire of the meek; you will strengthen their heart, you will incline your ear <sup>18</sup> to do justice for the orphan and the oppressed, so that those from earth may strike terror no more.

Proverbs 4:20–27 (NRSV)

<sup>20</sup> My child, be attentive to my words; incline your ear to my sayings.
<sup>21</sup> Do not let them escape from your sight; keep them within your heart.
<sup>22</sup> For they are life to those who find them, and healing to all their flesh.
<sup>25</sup> Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you.
<sup>26</sup> Keep straight the path of your feet, and all your ways will be sure.
<sup>27</sup> Do not swerve to the right or to the left; turn your foot away from evil.

Genesis 27:1–45 (NRSV)

Isaac Blesses Jacob

When Isaac was old and his eyes were dim so that he could not see, he called his elder son Esau and said to him, “My son”; and he answered, “Here I am.”<sup>2</sup> He said, “See, I am old; I do not know the day of my death.<sup>3</sup> Now then, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt game for me.<sup>4</sup> Then prepare for me savory food, such as I like, and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die.”

<sup>5</sup> Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game and bring it,<sup>6</sup> Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “I heard your father say to your brother Esau,<sup>7</sup> ‘Bring me game, and prepare for me savory food to eat, that I may bless you before the LORD before I die.’<sup>8</sup> Now therefore, my son, obey my word as I command you.<sup>9</sup> Go to the flock, and get me two choice kids, so that I may prepare from them savory food for your father, such as he likes;<sup>10</sup> and you shall take it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before he dies.”

<sup>12</sup> Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be mocking him, and bring a curse on myself and not a blessing.”<sup>13</sup> His mother said to him, “Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my word, and go, get them for me.”<sup>14</sup> So he went and got them and brought them to his mother; and his mother prepared savory food, such as his father loved.<sup>15</sup> Then Rebekah took the best garments of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob;<sup>16</sup> and she put the skins of the kids on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.<sup>17</sup> Then she handed the savory food, and the bread that she had prepared, to her son Jacob.

<sup>18</sup> So he went in to his father, and said, "My father"; and he said, "Here I am; who are you, my son?" <sup>19</sup> Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me; now sit up and eat of my game, so that you may bless me." <sup>20</sup> But Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?" He answered, "Because the LORD your God granted me success." <sup>21</sup> Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not." <sup>22</sup> So Jacob went up to his father Isaac, who felt him and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." <sup>23</sup> He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him. <sup>24</sup> He said, "Are you really my son Esau?" He answered, "I am." <sup>25</sup> Then he said, "Bring it to me, that I may eat of my son's game and bless you." So he brought it to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup> Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come near and kiss me, my son." <sup>27</sup> So he came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his garments, and blessed him, and said,

"Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> May God give you of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine.

<sup>29</sup> Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you!"

Esau's Lost Blessing
(Heb 12:17)

brought it to his father. And he said to his father, "Let my father sit up and eat of his son's game, so that you may bless me." <sup>32</sup> His father Isaac said to him, "Who are you?" He answered, "I am your firstborn son, Esau." <sup>33</sup> Then Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who was it then that hunted game and brought it to me, and I ate it all before you came, and I have blessed him?—yes, and blessed he shall be!" <sup>34</sup> When Esau heard his father's words, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, me also, father!" <sup>35</sup> But he said, "Your brother came deceitfully, and he has taken away your blessing." <sup>36</sup> Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright; and look, now he has taken away my blessing." Then he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" <sup>37</sup> Isaac answered Esau, "I have already made him your lord, and I have given him all his brothers as servants, and with grain and wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?" <sup>38</sup> Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, father? Bless me, me also, father!" And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

"See, away from the fatness of the earth shall your home be, and away from the dew of heaven on high.

<sup>40</sup> By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother; but when you break loose, you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Jacob Escapes Esau's Fury

<sup>41</sup> Now Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and Esau said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

<sup>42</sup> But the words of her elder son Esau were told to Rebekah; so she sent and called her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother

Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you.<sup>43</sup> Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran,<sup>44</sup> and stay with him a while, until your brother's fury turns away—<sup>45</sup> until your brother's anger against you turns away, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send, and bring you back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

Matthew 9:9-17 (NRSV)

The Call of Matthew
(Mk 2:13–17; Lk 5:27–32)

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

<sup>10</sup> And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples.<sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"<sup>12</sup> But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.<sup>13</sup> Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

The Question about Fasting
(Mk 2:18–22; Lk 5:33–39)

<sup>14</sup> Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?"<sup>15</sup> And Jesus said to them, "The wedding guests cannot mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them, can they? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.<sup>16</sup> No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old cloak, for the patch pulls away from the cloak, and a worse tear is made.<sup>17</sup> Neither is new wine put into old wineskins; otherwise, the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins are destroyed; but new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved."

Psalm 11:1-6 (NRSV)

Song of Trust in God
To the leader. Of David.

1 In the LORD I take refuge;
how can you say to me, “Flee like a bird to the mountains;
2 for look, the wicked bend
the bow,
they have fitted their
arrow to the string,
to shoot in the dark at
the upright in heart.
3 If the foundations are
destroyed,
what can the righteous
do?”
4 The LORD is in his holy temple;
the LORD’s throne is in
heaven.
His eyes behold, his gaze
examines humankind.
5 The LORD tests the righteous and the wicked,
and his soul hates the lover of violence.
6 On the wicked he will rain
coals of fire and sulfur;
a scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.

Proverbs 5:1–6 (NRSV)
Warning against Impurity and Infidelity

5 My child, be attentive to my wisdom;
incline your ear to my
understanding,
2 so that you may hold on to prudence,
and your lips may guard
knowledge.
3 For the lips of a loose
woman drip honey,
and her speech is
smoother than oil;
4 but in the end she is bitter
as wormwood,
sharp as a two-edged
sword.
5 Her feet go down to death;
her steps follow the path
to Sheol.
6 She does not keep straight to the path of life; her ways wander, and she does not know it.

Genesis 27:46–28:22 (NRSV)

<sup>46</sup> Then Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the Hittite women. If Jacob marries one of the Hittite women such as these, one of the women of the land, what good will my life be to me?”

28 Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, “You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women. <sup>2</sup> Go at once to Paddan-aram to the house of Bethuel, your mother’s father; and take as wife from there one of the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother. <sup>3</sup> May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and numerous, that you may become a company of peoples. <sup>4</sup> May he give to you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your offspring with you, so that you may take possession of the land where you now live as an alien—land that God gave to Abraham.” <sup>5</sup> Thus Isaac sent

Jacob away; and he went to Paddan-aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob’s and Esau’s mother.

Esau Marries Ishmael’s Daughter

<sup>6</sup> Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram to take a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he charged him, “You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women,” <sup>7</sup> and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and gone to Paddan-aram. <sup>8</sup> So when Esau saw that the Canaanite women did not please his father Isaac, <sup>9</sup> Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath daughter of Abraham’s son Ishmael, and sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Jacob’s Dream at Bethel

the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place.<sup>12</sup> And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.<sup>13</sup> And the LORD stood beside him and said, "I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring;<sup>14</sup> and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring.<sup>15</sup> Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."<sup>16</sup> Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place—and I did not know it!"<sup>17</sup> And he was afraid, and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

<sup>18</sup> So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it.<sup>19</sup> He called that place Bethel; but the name of the city was Luz at the first.

<sup>20</sup> Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to wear,<sup>21</sup> so that I come again to my father's house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God,<sup>22</sup> and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be God's house; and of all that you give me I will surely give one-tenth to you."

Matthew 9:18-26 (NRSV)

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

(Mk 5:21–43; Lk 8:40–56)

<sup>18</sup> While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live."

<sup>19</sup> And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. <sup>20</sup> Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, <sup>21</sup> for she said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” <sup>22</sup> Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well. <sup>23</sup> When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, <sup>24</sup> he said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. <sup>25</sup> But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. <sup>26</sup> And the report of this spread throughout that district.

<sup>7</sup> For the LORD is righteous;
he loves righteous deeds;
the upright shall behold
his face.

Proverbs 5:7–14 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> And now, my child, listen to me,
and do not depart from the words of my mouth.
<sup>8</sup> Keep your way far from her,
and do not go near the door of her house;
<sup>9</sup> or you will give your honor to others,
and your years to the merciless, <sup>10</sup> and strangers will take their fill of your wealth,
and your labors will go to the house of an alien;
<sup>11</sup> and at the end of your life you will groan,
when your flesh and body are consumed,
<sup>12</sup> and you say, “Oh, how I hated discipline,
and my heart despised reproof!
<sup>13</sup> I did not listen to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear to my instructors.
<sup>14</sup> Now I am at the point of utter ruin
in the public assembly.”

Genesis 29:1–35 (NRSV)

Jacob Meets Rachel

Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the east. <sup>2</sup> As he looked, he saw a well in the field and three flocks of sheep lying there beside it; for out of that well the flocks were watered. The stone on the well's mouth was large, <sup>3</sup> and when all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.

<sup>4</sup> Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where do you come from?" They said, "We are from Haran." <sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Do you know Laban son of Nahor?" They said, "We do." <sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Is it well with him?" "Yes," they replied, "and here is his daughter Rachel, coming with the sheep." <sup>7</sup> He said, "Look, it is still broad daylight; it is not time for the animals to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go, pasture them." <sup>8</sup> But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and the stone is rolled from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep."

<sup>9</sup> While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep; for she kept them. <sup>10</sup> Now when Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of his mother's brother Laban, and the sheep of his mother's brother Laban, Jacob went up and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of his mother's brother Laban.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and wept aloud. <sup>12</sup> And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's kinsman, and that he was Rebekah's son; and she ran and told her father.

<sup>13</sup> When Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he ran to meet him; he embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things, <sup>14</sup> and Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh!" And he stayed with him a month.

Jacob Marries Laban's Daughters

<sup>15</sup> Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?"

<sup>16</sup> Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

<sup>17</sup> Leah's eyes were lovely, and Rachel was graceful and beautiful. <sup>18</sup> Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."

<sup>19</sup> Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me." <sup>20</sup> So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her. <sup>24</sup> (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.) <sup>25</sup> When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?" <sup>26</sup> Laban said, "This is not done in our country—giving the younger before the firstborn.

<sup>28</sup> Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife. <sup>29</sup> (Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her maid.) <sup>30</sup> So Jacob went in to Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. He served Laban for another seven years.

<sup>31</sup> When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, he opened her womb; but Rachel was barren. <sup>32</sup> Leah conceived and bore a son, and she named him Reuben; for she said, "Because the LORD has looked on my affliction; surely now my husband will love me.”

<sup>33</sup> She conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, he has given me this son also”; and she named him Simeon. <sup>34</sup> Again she conceived and bore a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons”; therefore he was named Levi. <sup>35</sup> She conceived again and bore a son, and said, “This time I will praise the LORD”; therefore she named him Judah; then she ceased bearing.

Matthew 9:27-38 (NRSV)

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, crying loudly, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

<sup>28</sup> When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.” <sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes and said, “According to your faith let it be done to you.” <sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly ordered them, “See that no one knows of this.”

<sup>31</sup> But they went away and spread the news about him throughout that district.

Jesus Heals One Who Was Mute

<sup>33</sup> And when the demon had been cast out, the one who had been mute spoke; and the crowds were amazed and said, “Never has anything like this been seen in Israel.” <sup>34</sup> But the Pharisees said, “By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons.”

The Harvest Is Great, the Laborers Few
(Lk 10:2-3)

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. <sup>36</sup> When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

<sup>37</sup> Then he said to his disciples,
“The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few;
<sup>38</sup> therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers
into his harvest.”

Psalm 12:1-5 (NRSV)

Plea for Help in Evil Times

To the leader: according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Help, O LORD, for there is no longer anyone who is godly;
the faithful have disappeared from
humankind.
<sup>2</sup> They utter lies to each other;
with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.
<sup>3</sup> May the LORD cut off all flattering lips,
the tongue that makes
great boasts, <sup>4</sup> those who say, “With our tongues we will prevail;
our lips are our own—
who is our master?” <sup>5</sup> “Because the poor are despoiled, because the needy groan,
I will now rise up,” says
the LORD;

“I will place them in the safety for which they long.”

Proverbs 5:15–21 (NRSV)

<sup>15</sup> Drink water from your own cistern,
flowing water from your own well.
<sup>16</sup> Should your springs be scattered abroad,
streams of water in the streets?
<sup>17</sup> Let them be for yourself
alone,
and not for sharing with strangers.
<sup>18</sup> Let your fountain be blessed,
and rejoice in the wife of
your youth,
a lovely deer, a graceful
doe.
May her breasts satisfy
you at all times;
may you be intoxicated
always by her love.
<sup>20</sup> Why should you be intoxicated, my son, by another woman
and embrace the bosom
of an adulteress?
<sup>21</sup> For human ways are under the eyes of the LORD,

and he examines all their paths.

Genesis 30:1–24 (NRSV)

When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, she envied her sister; and she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or I shall die!”<sup>2</sup> Jacob became very angry with Rachel and said, “Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”<sup>3</sup> Then she said, “Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear upon my knees and that I too may have children through her.”<sup>4</sup> So she gave him her maid Bilhah as a wife; and Jacob went in to her.<sup>5</sup> And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.<sup>6</sup> Then Rachel said, “God has judged me, and has also heard my voice and given me a son”; therefore she named him Dan.<sup>7</sup> Rachel’s maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

<sup>8</sup> Then Rachel said, “With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, and have prevailed”; so she named him Naphtali.

<sup>9</sup> When Leah saw that she had ceased bearing children, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

<sup>10</sup> Then Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.<sup>11</sup> And Leah said, “Good fortune!” so she named him Gad.<sup>12</sup> Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.<sup>13</sup> And Leah said, “Happy am I! For the women will call me happy”; so she named him Asher.

<sup>14</sup> In the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>15</sup> But she said to her, “Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes also?” Rachel said, “Then he may lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”<sup>16</sup> When Jacob came from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him, and said, "You must come in to me; for I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her that night. <sup>17</sup> And God heeded Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son. <sup>18</sup> Leah said, "God has given me my hire because I gave my maid to my husband"; so she named him Issachar. <sup>19</sup> And Leah conceived again, and she bore Jacob a sixth son. <sup>20</sup> Then Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good dowry; now my husband will honor me, because I have borne him six sons"; so she named him Zebulun. <sup>21</sup> Afterwards she bore a daughter, and named her Dinah.

<sup>22</sup> Then God remembered Rachel, and God heeded her and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup> She conceived and bore a son, and said, "God has taken away my reproach"; <sup>24</sup> and she named him Joseph, saying, "May the LORD add to me another son!"

Matthew 10:1--4 (NRSV)

The Twelve Apostles
(Mk 3:13–19a; Lk 6:12–16)

<sup>6</sup> The promises of the LORD
are promises that are pure,
silver refined in a furnace
on the ground,
purified seven times.
<sup>7</sup> You, O LORD, will protect
us;
you will guard us from
this generation forever.
<sup>8</sup> On every side the wicked
prowl,
as vileness is exalted
among humankind.

Proverbs 5:22–23 (NRSV)

- <sup>22</sup> The iniquities of the wicked ensnare them, and they are caught in the toils of their sin.
- <sup>23</sup> They die for lack of discipline, and because of their great folly they are lost.

Jacob Prospers at Laban's Expense

<sup>25</sup> When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own home and country. <sup>26</sup> Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know very well the service I have given you." <sup>27</sup> But Laban said to him, "If you will allow me to say so, I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you; <sup>28</sup> name your wages, and I will give it." <sup>29</sup> Jacob said to him, "You yourself know how I have served you, and how your cattle have fared with me. <sup>30</sup> For you had little before I came, and it has increased abundantly; and the LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. But now when shall I provide for my own household also?" <sup>31</sup> He said, "What shall I give you?" Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything; if you will do this for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it: <sup>32</sup> let me pass through all your flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep and every black lamb, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and such shall be my wages. <sup>33</sup> So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come to look into my wages with you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and black among the lambs, if found with me, shall be counted stolen." <sup>34</sup> Laban said, "Good! Let it be as you have said." <sup>35</sup> But that day Laban removed the male goats that were striped and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white on it, and every lamb that was black, and put them in charge of his sons; <sup>36</sup> and he set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob was pasturing the rest of Laban's flock.

<sup>37</sup> Then Jacob took fresh rods of poplar and almond and plane, and peeled white streaks in them, exposing the white of the rods. <sup>38</sup> He set the rods that he had peeled in front of the flocks in the troughs, that is, the watering places, where the flocks came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink, <sup>39</sup> the flocks bred in front of the rods, and so the flocks produced young that were striped, speckled, and spotted. <sup>40</sup> Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the striped and the completely black animals in the flock of Laban; and he put his own droves apart, and did not put them with Laban's flock. <sup>41</sup> Whenever the stronger of the flock were breeding, Jacob laid the rods in the troughs before the eyes of the flock, that they might breed among the rods, <sup>42</sup> but for the feebler of the flock he did not lay them there; so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. <sup>43</sup> Thus the man grew exceedingly rich, and had large flocks, and male and female slaves, and camels and donkeys.

Jacob Flees with Family and Flocks

31 Now Jacob heard that the sons of Laban were saying, "Jacob has taken all that was our father's; he has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father." <sup>2</sup> And Jacob saw that Laban did not regard him as favorably as he did before. <sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your ancestors and to your kindred, and I will be with you." <sup>4</sup> So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah into the field where his flock was, <sup>5</sup> and said to them, "I see that your father does not regard me as favorably as he did before. But the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup> You know that I have served your father with all my strength;

<sup>7</sup> yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not permit him to harm me. <sup>8</sup> If he said, 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled; and if he said, 'The striped shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore striped. <sup>9</sup> Thus God has taken away the livestock of your father, and given them to me.

<sup>10</sup> During the mating of the flock I once had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats that leaped upon the flock were striped, speckled, and mottled. <sup>11</sup> Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am!' <sup>12</sup> And he said, 'Look up and see that all the goats that leap on the flock are striped, speckled, and mottled; for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. <sup>13</sup> I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and made a vow to me. Now leave this land at once and return to the land of your birth.' " <sup>14</sup> Then Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there any portion or inheritance left to us in our father's house?

<sup>15</sup> Are we not regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and he has been using up the money given for us. <sup>16</sup> All the property that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children; now then, do whatever God has said to you."

Matthew 10:5-23 (NRSV)

The Mission of the Twelve
(Mk 6:6b—13; Lk 9:1—6)

there until you leave. <sup>12</sup> As you enter the house, greet it. <sup>13</sup> If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. <sup>14</sup> If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. <sup>15</sup> Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

Coming Persecutions

<sup>17</sup> Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; <sup>18</sup> and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; <sup>20</sup> for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through

you. <sup>21</sup> Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; <sup>22</sup> and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup> When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

Psalm 13:1-4 (NRSV)

Prayer for Deliverance from Enemies

To the leader. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
- <sup>2</sup> How long must I bear pain in my soul,
and have sorrow in my heart all day long?
How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?
- <sup>3</sup> Consider and answer me, O LORD my God!
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death,
- <sup>4</sup> and my enemy will say, “I have prevailed”;

my foes will rejoice
because I am shaken.

Proverbs 6:1–5 (NRSV)

Practical Admonitions

- <sup>1</sup> My child, if you have given your pledge to
    your neighbor,
    if you have bound
    yourself to another, <sup>2</sup> you are snared by the utterance of your lips, caught by the words of
    your mouth.
<sup>3</sup> So do this, my child, and save yourself,
    for you have come into
    your neighbor's power:
    go, hurry, and plead with
    your neighbor.
<sup>4</sup> Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no
    slumber;
<sup>5</sup> save yourself like a gazelle
    from the hunter,
    like a bird from the hand
    of the fowler.

Genesis 31:17–55 (NRSV)

<sup>17</sup> So Jacob arose, and set his children and his wives on camels; <sup>18</sup> and he drove away all his livestock, all the property that he had gained, the livestock in his possession that he had acquired in Paddan-aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

<sup>19</sup> Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole her father's household gods. <sup>20</sup> And Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee. <sup>21</sup> So he fled with all that he had; starting out he crossed the Euphrates, and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead.

Laban Overtakes Jacob

<sup>22</sup> On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled. <sup>23</sup> So he took his kinsfolk with him and pursued him for seven days until he caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead. <sup>24</sup> But God came to

Laban the Aramean in a dream by night, and said to him, "Take heed that you say not a word to Jacob, either good or bad."

<sup>25</sup> Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his kinsfolk camped in the hill country of Gilead. <sup>26</sup> Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? You have deceived me, and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword. <sup>27</sup> Why did you flee secretly and deceive me and not tell me? I would have sent you away with mirth and songs, with tambourine and lyre. <sup>28</sup> And why did you not permit me to kiss my sons and my daughters farewell? What you have done is foolish. <sup>29</sup> It is in my power to do you harm; but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take heed that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.' <sup>30</sup> Even though you had to go because you longed greatly for your father's house, why did you steal my gods?" <sup>31</sup> Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force.

<sup>32</sup> But anyone with whom you find your gods shall not live. In the presence of our kinsfolk, point out what I have that is yours, and take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.

<sup>33</sup> So Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two maids, but he did not find them. And he went out of Leah's tent, and entered Rachel's. <sup>34</sup> Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban felt all about in the tent, but did not find them. <sup>35</sup> And she said to her father, "Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the way of women is upon me." So he searched, but did not find the household gods.

<sup>36</sup> Then Jacob became angry, and upbraided Laban. Jacob said to Laban, "What is my offense? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued me?" <sup>37</sup> Although you have felt about through all my goods, what have you found of all your household goods? Set it here before my kinsfolk and your kinsfolk, so that they may decide between us two.

<sup>38</sup> These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten the rams of your flocks.

<sup>39</sup> That which was torn by wild beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it myself; of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. <sup>40</sup> It was like this with me: by day the heat consumed me, and the cold by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>41</sup> These twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times. <sup>42</sup> If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been on my side, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God saw my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night.”

Laban and Jacob Make a Covenant

<sup>43</sup> Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about their children whom they have borne? <sup>44</sup> Come now, let us make a covenant, you and I; and let it be a witness between you and me.”

<sup>45</sup> So Jacob took a stone, and set it up as a pillar. <sup>46</sup> And Jacob said to his kinsfolk, “Gather stones,” and they took stones, and made a heap; and they ate there by the heap. <sup>47</sup> Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it Galeed. <sup>48</sup> Laban said, “This heap is a witness between you and me today.” Therefore he called it Galeed, <sup>49</sup> and the pillar Mizpah, for he said, “The LORD watch between you and me, when we are absent one from the other. <sup>50</sup> If you ill-treat my daughters, or if you take wives in addition to my daughters, though no one else is with us, remember that God is witness between you and me.”

<sup>51</sup> Then Laban said to Jacob, “See this heap and see the pillar, which I have set between you and me. <sup>52</sup> This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you, and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. <sup>53</sup> May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor”—the God of their father—“judge between us.” So Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac, <sup>54</sup> and Jacob offered a sacrifice on the height and called his kinsfolk to eat bread; and they ate bread and tarried all night in the hill country.

<sup>55</sup> Early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them; then he departed and returned home.

master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

Whom to Fear

<sup>26</sup> “So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. <sup>27</sup> What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. <sup>28</sup> Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. <sup>29</sup> Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. <sup>30</sup> And even the hairs of your head are all counted. <sup>31</sup> So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

<sup>32</sup> “Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; <sup>33</sup> but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

Not Peace, but a Sword

(Lk 12:51–53; 14:26–27)

<sup>34</sup> “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

<sup>35</sup> For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother,

and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

<sup>37</sup> Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;

<sup>38</sup> and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. <sup>39</sup> Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

Psalm 13:5-6 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> But I trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

<sup>6</sup> I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Proverbs 6:6–11 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> Go to the ant, you lazybones; consider its ways, and be wise.

<sup>8</sup> it prepares its food in summer, and gathers its sustenance in harvest.

<sup>9</sup> How long will you lie there, O lazybones?

When will you rise from your sleep?

<sup>11</sup> and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want, like an armed warrior.

Genesis 32:1–12 (NRSV)

Jacob went on his way and the angels of God met him; <sup>2</sup>and when Jacob saw them he said, “This is God’s camp!” So he called that place Mahanaim.

Jacob Sends Presents to Appease Esau

<sup>3</sup>Jacob sent messengers before him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom, <sup>4</sup>instructing them, “Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob, ‘I have lived with Laban as an alien, and stayed until now; <sup>5</sup>and I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, male and female slaves; and I have sent to tell my lord, in order that I may find favor in your sight.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”

him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies, <sup>8</sup>thinking, “If Esau comes to the one company and destroys it, then the company that is left will escape.”

<sup>9</sup>And Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will do you good,’ <sup>10</sup>I am not worthy of the least of all the steadfast love and all the faithfulness that you have shown to your servant, for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan; and now I have become two companies.

<sup>11</sup>Deliver me, please, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I am afraid of him; he may come and kill us all, the mothers with the children. <sup>12</sup>Yet you have said, ‘I will surely do you good, and make your offspring as the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted because of their number.’ ”

Matthew 10:40 – 11:6 (NRSV)

Rewards
(Mk 9:41)

<sup>40</sup> “Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. <sup>41</sup> Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; <sup>42</sup> and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.”

11 Now when Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and proclaim his message in their cities.

Messengers from John the Baptist

(Lk 7:18–23)

<sup>2</sup> When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples <sup>3</sup> and said to him, “Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?” <sup>4</sup> Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see: <sup>5</sup> the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. <sup>6</sup> And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.”

Denunciation of Godlessness (Ps 53:1–6)

To the leader. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Fools say in their hearts,
“There is no God.”
They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds;
there is no one who does good.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven on humankind to see if there are any who are wise,
who seek after God.
- <sup>3</sup> They have all gone astray,
they are all alike perverse;
there is no one who does good,
no, not one.
- <sup>4</sup> Have they no knowledge,
all the evildoers who eat up my people as they eat bread,
and do not call upon the LORD?

5 There they shall be in great terror,
for God is with the company of the
righteous.
6 You would confound the plans of the poor,
but the LORD is their
refuge.

Proverbs 6:12–15 (NRSV)

12 A scoundrel and a villain goes around with crooked speech,
13 winking the eyes, shuffling
the feet,
pointing the fingers,
14 with perverted mind
devising evil,
continually sowing discord;
15 on such a one calamity will descend suddenly;
in a moment, damage beyond repair.

Genesis 32:13-33:20 (NRSV)

13 Jacob stayed where he was for the night. Then he selected these gifts from his possessions to present to his brother, Esau: <sup>14</sup> 200 female goats, 20 male goats, 200
ewes, 20 rams, <sup>15</sup> 30 female camels with their young, 40
cows, 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys, and 10 male donkeys. <sup>16</sup> He divided these animals into herds and assigned each to different servants. Then he told his servants, “Go ahead of me with the animals, but keep some distance between the herds.”

<sup>17</sup> He gave these instructions to the men leading the first group: “When my brother, Esau, meets you,
he will ask, ‘Whose servants are you? Where are you going? Who owns these animals?’ <sup>18</sup> You must reply,
‘They belong to your servant
Jacob, but they are a gift for his master Esau. Look, he is coming right behind us.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Jacob gave the same instructions to the second and third herdsmen and to all who followed behind the herds: “You must say the same thing to Esau when you meet him.

Jacob thought, “I will try to appease him by sending gifts ahead of me. When I see him in person, perhaps he will be friendly to me.” <sup>21</sup> So the gifts were sent on ahead, while Jacob himself spent that night in the camp.

Jacob Wrestles with God

<sup>25</sup> When the man saw that he would not win the match, he touched Jacob’s hip and wrenched it out of its socket.

<sup>26</sup> Then the man said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking!”

But Jacob said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”

He replied, “Jacob.”

<sup>28</sup> “Your name will no longer be Jacob,” the man told him. “From now on you will be called <sup>a</sup>Israel, because you have fought with God and with men and have won.”

<sup>29</sup> “Please tell me your name,” Jacob said.

“Why do you want to know my name?” the man replied. Then he blessed Jacob there.

<sup>30</sup> Jacob named the place Peniel (which means “face of God”), for he said, “I have seen God face to face, yet my life has been spared.” <sup>31</sup> The sun was rising as Jacob left <sup>b</sup>Peniel, and he was limping because of the injury to his hip. <sup>32</sup> (Even today the people of Israel don't eat the tendon near the hip socket because of what happened that night when the man strained the tendon of Jacob's hip.)

Jacob and Esau Make Peace

33 Then Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming with his 400 men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and his two servant wives. <sup>2</sup> He put the servant wives and their children at the front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph last. <sup>3</sup> Then Jacob went on ahead. As he approached his brother, he bowed to the ground seven times before him. <sup>4</sup> Then Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, threw his arms around his neck, and kissed him. And they both wept.

<sup>5</sup> Then Esau looked at the women and children and asked, "Who are these people with you?"

"These are the children God has graciously given to me, your servant," Jacob replied. <sup>6</sup> Then the servant wives came forward with their children and bowed before him. <sup>7</sup> Next came Leah with her children, and they bowed before him. Finally, Joseph and Rachel came forward and bowed before him.

<sup>8</sup> "And what were all the flocks and herds I met as I came?" Esau asked.

Jacob replied, "They are a gift, my lord, to ensure your friendship."

<sup>10</sup> But Jacob insisted, "No, if I have found favor with you, please accept this gift from me. And what a relief to see your friendly smile. It is like seeing the face of God!

<sup>11</sup> Please take this gift I have brought you, for God has been very gracious to me. I have more than enough." And because Jacob insisted, Esau finally accepted the gift.

<sup>13</sup> But Jacob replied, "You can see, my lord, that some of the children are very young, and the flocks and herds have their young, too. If they are driven too hard, even for one day, all the animals could die.

your servant. We will follow slowly, at a pace that is comfortable for the livestock and the children. I will meet you at Seir.”

Jacob responded, “That’s not necessary. It’s enough that you’ve received me warmly, my lord!”

<sup>16</sup> So Esau turned around and started back to Seir that same day. <sup>17</sup> Jacob, on the other hand, traveled on to Succoth. There he built himself a house and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place was named Succoth (which means “shelters”).

<sup>19</sup> Jacob bought the plot of land where he camped from the family of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for 100 pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup> And there he built an altar and named it El-Elohe-Israel.

Matthew 11:7-19 (NRSV)

Jesus Praises John the Baptist
(Lk 7:24–35)

<sup>7</sup> As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?” <sup>8</sup> What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. <sup>9</sup> What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup> This is the one about whom it is written,

<sup>11</sup> Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force. <sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John came; <sup>14</sup> and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come. <sup>15</sup> Let anyone with ears listen!

<sup>16</sup> “But to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to one another,

<sup>17</sup> ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.’

<sup>18</sup> For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon’; <sup>19</sup> the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”

Psalms 14:7 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> O that deliverance for Israel would come from Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob will rejoice; Israel will be glad.

Proverbs 6:16–19 (NRSV)

<sup>16</sup> There are six things that the LORD hates, seven that are an abomination to him: <sup>17</sup> haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, <sup>18</sup> a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that hurry to run to evil, <sup>19</sup> a lying witness who testifies falsely, and one who sows discord in a family.

February 2

Genesis 34:1-31 (NRSV)

Revenge against Shechem
One day Dinah, the daughter of Jacob and Leah, went to visit some of the young women who lived in the area. <sup>2</sup> But when the local prince, Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, saw Dinah, he seized her and raped her. <sup>3</sup> But then he fell in love with her, and he tried to win her affection with tender words. <sup>4</sup> He said to his father, Hamor, “Get me this young girl. I want to marry her.”

<sup>5</sup> Soon Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled his daughter, Dinah. But since his sons were out in the fields herding his livestock, he said nothing until they returned.

<sup>6</sup> Hamor, Shechem’s father, came to discuss the matter with Jacob. <sup>7</sup> Meanwhile, Jacob’s sons had come in from the field as soon as they heard what had happened. They were shocked and furious that their sister had been raped. Shechem had done a disgraceful thing against Jacob’s family, something that should never be done.

<sup>8</sup> Hamor tried to speak with Jacob and his sons. “My son Shechem is truly in love with your daughter,” he said. “Please let him marry her. <sup>9</sup> In fact, let’s arrange other marriages, too. You give us your daughters for our sons, and we will give you our daughters for your sons. <sup>10</sup> And you may live among us; the land is open to you! Settle here and trade with us. And feel free to buy property in the area.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Shechem himself spoke to Dinah’s father and brothers. “Please be kind to me, and let me marry her,” he begged. “I will give you whatever you ask. <sup>12</sup> No matter what dowry or gift you demand, I will gladly pay it— just give me the girl as my wife.”

no time in acting on this request, for he wanted Jacob's daughter desperately. Shechem was a highly respected member of his family,<sup>20</sup> and he went with his father, Hamor, to present this proposal to the leaders at the town gate.

<sup>21</sup> "These men are our friends," they said. "Let's invite them to live here among us and trade freely. Look, the land is large enough to hold them. We can take their daughters as wives and let them marry ours."<sup>22</sup> But they will consider staying here and becoming one people with us only if all of our men are circumcised, just as they are.

<sup>23</sup> But if we do this, all their livestock and possessions will eventually be ours. Come, let's agree to their terms and let them settle here among us."

<sup>24</sup> So all the men in the town council agreed with Hamor and Shechem, and every male in the town was circumcised.<sup>25</sup> But three days later, when their wounds were still sore, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, who were Dinah's full brothers, took their swords and entered the town without opposition. Then they slaughtered every male there,<sup>26</sup> including Hamor and his son Shechem. They killed them with their swords, then took Dinah from Shechem's house and returned to their camp.

<sup>27</sup> Meanwhile, the rest of Jacob's sons arrived. Finding the men slaughtered, they plundered the town because their sister had been defiled there.<sup>28</sup> They seized all the flocks and herds and donkeys—everything they could lay their hands on, both inside the town and outside in the fields.<sup>29</sup> They looted all their wealth and plundered their houses. They also took all their little children and wives and led them away as captives.

<sup>30</sup> Afterward Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have ruined me! You've made me stink among all the people of this land—among all the Canaanites and Perizzites. We are so few that they will join forces and crush us. I will be ruined, and my entire household will be wiped out!"

Woes to Unrepentant Cities
(Gen 19:12–14; Lk 10:13–15)

<sup>20</sup> Then he began to reproach the cities in which most of his deeds of power had been done, because they did not repent. <sup>21</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup> But I tell you, on the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon than for you. <sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum,

will you be exalted to heaven?

No, you will be brought down to Hades.

For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. <sup>24</sup> But I tell you that on the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom than for you.”

Jesus Thanks His Father
(Lk 10:21–22)

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; <sup>26</sup> yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. <sup>27</sup> All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

<sup>28</sup> “Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Psalm 15:1-5 (NRSV)

Who Shall Abide in God’s Sanctuary?

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, who may abide in your tent?
Who may dwell on your holy hill?

2 Those who walk
blamelessly, and do
what is right,
and speak the truth from their heart;
3 who do not slander with their tongue,
and do no evil to their friends,
nor take up a reproach
against their neighbors;
4 in whose eyes the wicked
are despised,
but who honor those
who fear the LORD;
who stand by their oath
even to their hurt;
5 who do not lend money at interest,
and do not take a bribe
against the innocent.
Those who do these things shall never be moved.

Proverbs 6:20–26 (NRSV)

20 My child, keep your father's commandment,
and do not forsake your mother's teaching.
21 Bind them upon your heart
always;
tie them around your
neck.

22 When you walk, they will lead you;
when you lie down, they
will watch over you;
and when you awake,
they will talk with you.
23 For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching
a light,
and the reproofs of discipline are the way
of life,
24 to preserve you from the wife of another,
from the smooth tongue
of the adulteress.
25 Do not desire her beauty in
your heart,
and do not let her
capture you with her eyelashes;
26 for a prostitute's fee is only a loaf of bread,
but the wife of another
stalks a man's very life.

Genesis 35:1-36:8 (NRSV)

Jacob's Return to Bethel

Then God said to Jacob, "Get ready and move to Bethel and settle there. Build an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother, Esau."

<sup>2</sup> So Jacob told everyone in his household, "Get rid of all your pagan idols, purify yourselves, and put on clean clothing." <sup>3</sup> We are now going to Bethel, where I will build an altar to the God who answered my prayers when I was in distress. He has been with me wherever I have gone."

<sup>4</sup> So they gave Jacob all their pagan idols and earrings, and he buried them under the great tree near Shechem. <sup>5</sup> As they set out, a terror from God spread over the people in all the towns of that area, so no one attacked Jacob's family.

<sup>7</sup> Jacob built an altar there and named the place El-bethel (which means "God of Bethel"), because God had appeared to him there when he was fleeing from his brother, Esau.

<sup>8</sup> Soon after this, Rebekah's old nurse, Deborah, died. She was buried beneath the oak tree in the valley below Bethel. Ever since, the tree has been called Allon-bacuth (which means "oak of weeping").

<sup>9</sup> Now that Jacob had returned from Paddan-aram, God appeared to him again at Bethel. God blessed him, <sup>10</sup> saying, "Your name is Jacob, but you will not be called Jacob any longer. From now on your name will be Israel." So God renamed him Israel.

<sup>11</sup> Then God said, "I am El-Shaddai—'God Almighty.' Be fruitful and multiply. You will become a great nation, even many nations. Kings will be among your descendants!

<sup>12</sup> And I will give you the land I once gave to Abraham and Isaac. Yes, I will give it to you and your descendants after you." <sup>13</sup> Then God went up from the place where he had spoken to Jacob.

<sup>14</sup> Jacob set up a stone pillar to mark the place where God had spoken to him. Then he poured wine over it as an offering to God and anointed the pillar with olive oil. <sup>15</sup> And Jacob named the place Bethel (which means “house of God”), because God had spoken to him there.

The Deaths of Rachel and Isaac

<sup>16</sup> Leaving Bethel, Jacob and his clan moved on toward Ephrath. But Rachel went into labor while they were still some distance away. Her labor pains were intense. <sup>17</sup> After a very hard delivery, the midwife finally exclaimed, “Don’t be afraid—you have another son!” <sup>18</sup> Rachel was about to die, but with her last breath she named the baby Ben-oni (which means “son of my sorrow”). The baby’s father, however, called him Benjamin (which means “son of my right hand”). <sup>19</sup> So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). <sup>20</sup> Jacob set up a stone monument over Rachel’s grave, and it can be seen there to this day.

These are the names of the twelve sons of Jacob:

These are the names of the sons who were born to Jacob at Paddan-aram.

<sup>27</sup> So Jacob returned to his father, Isaac, in Mamre, which is near Kiriath-arba (now called Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had both lived as foreigners. <sup>28</sup> Isaac lived for 180 years. <sup>29</sup> Then he breathed his last and died at a ripe old age, joining his ancestors in death. And his sons, Esau and Jacob, buried him.

Descendants of Esau

36 This is the account of the descendants of Esau (also known as Edom). <sup>2</sup> Esau married two young women from Canaan: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite; and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite. <sup>3</sup> He also married his cousin Basemath, who was the daughter of Ishmael and the sister of Nebaioth. <sup>4</sup> Adah gave birth to a son named Eliphaz for Esau. Basemath gave birth to a son named Reuel. <sup>5</sup> Oholibamah gave birth to sons named Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. All these sons were born to Esau in the land of Canaan.

<sup>7</sup> There was not enough land to support them both because of all the livestock and possessions they had acquired. <sup>8</sup> So Esau (also known as Edom) settled in the hill country of Seir.

Matthew 12:1-8 (NRSV) Plucking Grain on the Sabbath (Mk 2:23–28; Lk 6:1–5)

<sup>1</sup> At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath; his disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. <sup>2</sup> When the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, “Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath.” <sup>3</sup> He said to them, “Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?”

<sup>4</sup> He entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him or his companions to eat, but only for the priests. <sup>5</sup> Or have you not read in the law that on the sabbath the priests in the temple break the sabbath and yet are guiltless? <sup>6</sup> I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. <sup>7</sup> But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless.<sup>8</sup> For the Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."

Genesis 36:9-43 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> This is the account of Esau's descendants, the Edomites, who lived in the hill country of Seir.

- <sup>10</sup> These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah; and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.
- <sup>11</sup> The descendants of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.
- <sup>12</sup> Timna, the concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz, gave birth to a son named Amalek. These are the descendants of Esau's wife Adah.

- <sup>13</sup> The descendants of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These are the descendants of Esau's wife Basemath.
- <sup>14</sup> Esau also had sons through Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon. Their names were Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.
- <sup>15</sup> These are the descendants of Esau who became the leaders of various clans: The descendants of Esau's oldest son, Eliphaz, became the leaders of the clans of Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, <sup>16</sup> Korah, Gatam, and Amalek. These are the clan leaders in the land of Edom who descended from Eliphaz. All these were descendants of Esau's wife Adah.
- <sup>17</sup> The descendants of Esau's son Reuel became the leaders of the clans of Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These are the clan leaders in the land of Edom who descended from Reuel. All these were descendants of Esau's wife Basemath.

Original Peoples of Edom

<sup>20</sup> These are the names of the tribes that descended from Seir the Horite. They lived in the land of Edom: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, <sup>21</sup> Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the Horite clan leaders, the descendants of Seir, who lived in the land of Edom.

<sup>29</sup> So these were the leaders of the Horite clans: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, <sup>30</sup> Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. The Horite clans are named after their clan leaders, who lived in the land of Seir.

Rulers of Edom

<sup>31</sup> These are the kings who ruled in the land of Edom before any king ruled over the Israelites:

- <sup>33</sup> When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah became king in his place.
- <sup>34</sup> When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites became king in his place.
- <sup>35</sup> When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad became king in his place and ruled from the city of Avith. He was the one who defeated the Midianites in the land of Moab.
- <sup>36</sup> When Hadad died, Samlah from the city of Masrekah became king in his place.
- <sup>37</sup> When Samlah died, Shaul from the city of Rehoboth-on-the-River became king in his place.
- <sup>38</sup> When Shaul died, Baal-hanan son of Acbor became king in his place.
- <sup>39</sup> When Baal-hanan son of Acbor died, Hadad became king in his place and ruled from the city of Pau. His wife was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred and granddaughter of Mezahab.

lived in the places named for them: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, <sup>41</sup> Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, <sup>42</sup> Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, <sup>43</sup> Magdiel, and Iram. These are the leaders of the clans of Edom, listed according to their settlements in the land they occupied. They all descended from Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites.

*The Man with
a Withered Hand*
(Mk 3:1-6; Lk 6:6-11)

<sup>9</sup> He left that place and entered their synagogue; <sup>10</sup> a man was there with a withered hand, and they asked him, "Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath?" so that they might accuse him. <sup>11</sup> He said to them, "Suppose one of you has only one sheep and it falls into a pit on the sabbath; will you not lay hold of it and lift it out?" <sup>12</sup> How much more valuable is a human being than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the sabbath." <sup>13</sup> Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and it was restored, as sound as the other. <sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him.

God's Chosen Servant

<sup>15</sup> When Jesus became aware of this, he departed. Many crowds followed him, and he cured all of them, <sup>16</sup> and he ordered them not to make him known. <sup>17</sup> This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

<sup>18</sup> "Here is my servant, whom I have chosen, my beloved, with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.

<sup>19</sup> He will not wrangle or cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

<sup>20</sup> He will not break a bruised reed or quench a smoldering wick until he brings justice to victory.

<sup>21</sup> And in his name the Gentiles will hope."

Psalm 16:5-8 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot.

<sup>6</sup> The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; I have a goodly heritage.

<sup>7</sup> I bless the LORD who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me.

<sup>8</sup> I keep the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Proverbs 7:1-5 (NRSV)

The False Attractions of Adultery

<sup>1</sup> My child, keep my words and store up my commandments with you;

<sup>2</sup> keep my commandments and live, keep my teachings as the apple of your eye;

<sup>3</sup> bind them on your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart.

and call insight your

Genesis 37:1-36 (NRSV)

Joseph's Dreams

So Jacob settled again in the land of Canaan, where his father had lived as a foreigner.

<sup>2</sup>This is the account of Jacob and his family. When Joseph was seventeen years old, he often tended his father's flocks. He worked for his half brothers, the sons of his father's wives Bilhah and Zilpah. But Joseph reported to his father some of the bad things his brothers were doing.

<sup>3</sup>Jacob loved Joseph more than any of his other children because Joseph had been born to him in his old age. So one day Jacob had a special gift made for Joseph—a beautiful robe. <sup>4</sup>But his brothers hated Joseph because their father loved him more than the rest of them. They couldn't say a kind word to him.

<sup>5</sup>One night Joseph had a dream, and when he told his brothers about it, they hated him more than ever. <sup>6</sup>"Listen to this dream," he said. <sup>7</sup>"We were out in the field, tying up bundles of grain. Suddenly my bundle stood up, and your bundles all gathered around and bowed low before mine!"

<sup>8</sup>His brothers responded, "So you think you will be our king, do you? Do you actually think you will reign over us?" And they hated him all the more because of his dreams and the way he talked about them.

<sup>9</sup>Soon Joseph had another dream, and again he told his brothers about it. "Listen, I have had another dream," he said. "The sun, moon, and eleven stars bowed low before me!"

<sup>10</sup>This time he told the dream to his father as well as to his brothers, but his father scolded him. "What kind of dream is that?" he asked. "Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow to the ground before you?"<sup>11</sup> But while his brothers were jealous of Joseph, his father wondered what the dreams meant.

<sup>13</sup> When they had been gone for some time, Jacob said to Joseph, "Your brothers are pasturing the sheep at Shechem. Get ready, and I will send you to them."

"I'm ready to go," Joseph replied.

<sup>14</sup> "Go and see how your brothers and the flocks are getting along," Jacob said. "Then come back and bring me a report." So Jacob sent him on his way, and Joseph traveled to Shechem from their home in the valley of Hebron.

<sup>15</sup> When he arrived there, a man from the area noticed him wandering around the countryside. "What are you looking for?" he asked.

<sup>16</sup> "I'm looking for my brothers," Joseph replied. "Do you know where they are pasturing their sheep?"

<sup>17</sup> "Yes," the man told him. "They have moved on from here, but I heard them say, 'Let's go on to Dothan.'" So Joseph followed his brothers to Dothan and found them there.

Joseph Sold into Slavery

<sup>18</sup> When Joseph's brothers saw him coming, they recognized him in the distance. As he approached, they made plans to kill him.<sup>19</sup> "Here comes the dreamer!" they said.<sup>20</sup> "Come on, let's kill him and throw him into one of these cisterns. We can tell our father, 'A wild animal has eaten him.' Then we'll see what becomes of his dreams!"

<sup>21</sup> But when Reuben heard of their scheme, he came to Joseph's rescue. "Let's not kill him," he said.<sup>22</sup> "Why should we shed any blood? Let's just throw him into this empty cistern here in the wilderness. Then he'll die without our laying a hand on him." Reuben was secretly planning to rescue Joseph and return him to his father.

<sup>23</sup> So when Joseph arrived, his brothers ripped off the beautiful robe he was wearing.

<sup>24</sup> Then they grabbed him and threw him into the cistern. Now the cistern was empty; there was no water in it.

<sup>25</sup> Then, just as they were sitting down to eat, they looked up and saw a caravan of camels in the distance coming toward them. It was a group of Ishmaelite traders taking a load of gum, balm, and aromatic resin from Gilead down to Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> Judah said to his brothers, “What will we gain by killing our brother? We’d have to cover up the crime.

<sup>27</sup> Instead of hurting him, let’s sell him to those Ishmaelite traders. After all, he is our brother—our own flesh and blood!” And his brothers agreed. <sup>28</sup> So when the Ishmaelites, who were Midianite traders, came by, Joseph’s brothers pulled him out of the cistern and sold him to them for twenty pieces of silver. And the traders took him to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup> Some time later, Reuben returned to get Joseph out of the cistern. When he discovered that Joseph was missing, he tore his clothes in grief. <sup>30</sup> Then he went back to his brothers and lamented, “The boy is gone! What will I do now?”

<sup>32</sup> They sent the beautiful robe to their father with this message: “Look at what we found. Doesn’t this robe belong to your son?”

<sup>33</sup> Their father recognized it immediately. “Yes,” he said, “it is my son’s robe. A wild animal must have eaten him. Joseph has clearly been torn to pieces!” <sup>34</sup> Then Jacob tore his clothes and dressed himself in burlap. He mourned deeply for his son for a long time. <sup>35</sup> His family all tried to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. “I will go to my grave mourning for my son,” he would say, and then he would weep.

to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Potiphar was captain of the palace guard.

Matthew 12:22-32 (NRSV)

Jesus and Beelzebul

(Mk 3:19b—30; Lk 11:14—23)

<sup>22</sup> Then they brought to him a demoniac who was blind and mute; and he cured him, so that the one who had been mute could speak and see.

<sup>23</sup> All the crowds were amazed and said, “Can this be the Son of David?” <sup>24</sup> But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “It is only by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons, that this fellow casts out the demons.”

<sup>25</sup> He knew what they were thinking and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. <sup>26</sup> If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand?

<sup>27</sup> If I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your own exorcists cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. <sup>28</sup> But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you. <sup>29</sup> Or how can one enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property, without first tying up the strong man? Then indeed the house can be plundered.

<sup>30</sup> Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore I tell you, people will be forgiven for every sin and blasphemy, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup> Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Psalm 16:9-11 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also rests secure.

<sup>10</sup> For you do not give me up to Sheol, or let your faithful one see the Pit.

<sup>11</sup> You show me the path of life. In your presence there is fullness of joy;

in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Proverbs 7:6–23 (NRSV)

6 For at the window of my house
I looked out through my lattice,
7 and I saw among the simple ones,
I observed among the youths,
a young man without
sense,
8 passing along the street
near her corner,
taking the road to her
house
9 in the twilight, in the evening,
at the time of night and
darkness.
10 Then a woman comes toward him,
decked out like a prostitute, wily of
heart.
11 She is loud and wayward;
her feet do not stay at home;
12 now in the street, now in the squares,
and at every corner she lies in wait.

13 She seizes him and kisses
him,
and with impudent face
she says to him:
14 “I had to offer sacrifices,
and today I have paid my vows;
15 so now I have come out to meet you,
to seek you eagerly, and I have found you!
16 I have decked my couch
with coverings,
colored spreads of Egyptian linen;
17 I have perfumed my bed
with myrrh,
aloes, and cinnamon.
18 Come, let us take our fill of love until morning;
let us delight ourselves
with love.
19 For my husband is not at
home;
he has gone on a long journey.
20 He took a bag of money
with him;
he will not come home
until full moon.”
21 With much seductive
speech she persuades
him;
with her smooth talk she compels him.

<sup>22</sup> Right away he follows her,
and goes like an ox to
the slaughter,
or bounds like a stag
toward the trap <sup>23</sup> until an arrow pierces its entrails.
He is like a bird rushing into a snare, not knowing that it will cost him his life.

Genesis 38:1-1-30 (NRSV)

Judah and Tamar

About this time, Judah left home and moved to Adullam, where he stayed with a man named Hirah. <sup>2</sup> There he saw a Canaanite woman, the daughter of Shua, and he married her. When he slept with her, <sup>3</sup> she became pregnant and gave birth to a son, and he named the boy Er. <sup>4</sup> Then she became pregnant again and gave birth to another son, and she named him Onan. <sup>5</sup> And when she gave birth to a third son, she named him Shelah. At the time of Shelah's birth, they were living at Kezib.

<sup>9</sup> But Onan was not willing to have a child who would not be his own heir. So whenever he had intercourse with his brother's wife, he spilled the semen on the ground. This prevented her from having a child who would belong to his brother. <sup>10</sup> But the LORD considered it evil for Onan to deny a child to his dead brother. So the LORD took Onan's life, too.

<sup>11</sup> Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Go back to your parents' home and remain a widow until my son Shelah is old enough to marry you.” (But Judah didn’t really intend to do this because he was afraid Shelah would also die, like his two brothers.) So Tamar went back to live in her father’s home.

<sup>2</sup> Some years later Judah’s wife died. After the time of mourning was over, Judah and his friend Hirah the Adullamite went up to Timnah to supervise the shearing of his sheep. <sup>13</sup> Someone told Tamar, “Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

<sup>14</sup> Tamar was aware that Shelah had grown up, but no arrangements had been made for her to come and marry him. So she changed out of her widow’s clothing and covered herself with a veil to disguise herself. Then she sat beside the road at the entrance to the village of Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. <sup>15</sup> Judah noticed her and thought she was a prostitute, since she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup> So he stopped and propositioned her. “Let me have sex with you,” he said, not realizing that she was his own daughter-in-law.

“How much will you pay to have sex with me?” Tamar asked.

“But what will you give me to guarantee that you will send the goat?” she asked.

She answered, “Leave me your identification seal and its cord and the walking stick you are carrying.” So Judah gave them to her. Then he had intercourse with her, and she became pregnant. <sup>19</sup> Afterward she went back home, took off her veil, and put on her widow’s clothing as usual.

<sup>20</sup> Later Judah asked his friend Hirah the Adullamite to take the young goat to the woman and to pick up the things he had given her as his guarantee. But Hirah couldn’t find her. <sup>21</sup> So he asked the men who lived there, “Where can I find the shrine prostitute who was sitting beside the road at the entrance to Enaim?”

“We’ve never had a shrine prostitute here,” they replied.

<sup>22</sup> So Hirah returned to Judah and told him, “I couldn’t find her anywhere, and the men of the village claim they’ve never had a shrine prostitute there.”

<sup>23</sup> “Then let her keep the things I gave her,” Judah said. “I sent the young goat as we agreed, but you couldn’t find her. We’d be the laughingstock of the village if we went back again to look for her.”

<sup>24</sup> About three months later, Judah was told, “Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has acted like a prostitute. And now, because of this, she’s pregnant.”

“Bring her out, and let her be burned!” Judah demanded.

<sup>25</sup> But as they were taking her out to kill her, she sent this message to her father-in-law: “The man who owns these things made me pregnant. Look closely. Whose seal and cord and walking stick are these?”

<sup>26</sup> Judah recognized them immediately and said, “She is more righteous than I am,

because I didn’t arrange for her to marry my son Shelah.” And Judah never slept with Tamar again.

<sup>27</sup> When the time came for Tamar to give birth, it was discovered that she was carrying twins. <sup>28</sup> While she was in labor, one of the babies reached out his hand. The midwife grabbed it and tied a scarlet string around the child’s wrist, announcing, “This one came out first.” <sup>29</sup> But then he pulled back his hand, and out came his brother! “What!” the midwife exclaimed. “How did you break out first?” So he was named <sup>e</sup>Perez. <sup>30</sup> Then the baby with the scarlet string on his wrist was born, and he was named Zerah.

A Tree and Its Fruit

<sup>33</sup> “Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad; for the tree is known by its fruit. <sup>34</sup> You brood of vipers! How can you speak good things, when you are

---

evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

<sup>35</sup> The good person brings good things out of a good treasure, and the evil person brings evil things out of an evil treasure. <sup>36</sup> I tell you, on the day of judgment you will have to give an account for every careless word you utter; <sup>37</sup> for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

The Sign of Jonah

(Lk 11:29–32)

<sup>38</sup> Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, “Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you.” <sup>39</sup> But he answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup> For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea monster, so for three days and three nights the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth. <sup>41</sup> The people of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and see, something greater than Jonah is here!

<sup>42</sup> The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and see, something greater than Solomon is here!

The Return of the Unclean Spirit

(Lk 11:24–26)

<sup>43</sup> “When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it wanders through waterless regions looking for a resting place, but it finds none.

<sup>44</sup> Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ When it comes, it finds it empty, swept, and put in order. <sup>45</sup> Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there; and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So will it be also with this evil generation.”

Prayer for Deliverance from Persecutors

A Prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup> Hear a just cause, O LORD;
attend to my cry;
give ear to my prayer
from lips free of deceit.
<sup>2</sup> From you let my vindication come;
let your eyes see the right.
<sup>3</sup> If you try my heart, if you visit me by night,
if you test me, you will find no wickedness in
me;
my mouth does not
transgress.
<sup>4</sup> As for what others do, by the word of your lips
I have avoided the ways
of the violent.
<sup>5</sup> My steps have held fast to
your paths;
my feet have not slipped.

<sup>24</sup> And now, my children,
listen to me,
and be attentive to the words of my mouth.
<sup>25</sup> Do not let your hearts turn aside to her ways;
do not stray into her
paths.
<sup>26</sup> for many are those she has laid low,

and numerous are her victims.

<sup>27</sup> Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the chambers of death.

Genesis 39:1-23 (NRSV)

Joseph in Potiphar's House

When Joseph was taken to Egypt by the Ishmaelite traders, he was purchased by Potiphar, an Egyptian officer.
Potiphar was captain of the guard for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD was with Joseph, so he succeeded in everything he did as he served in the home of his Egyptian master. <sup>3</sup>Potiphar noticed this and realized that the LORD was with Joseph, giving him
success in everything he did.

<sup>4</sup>This pleased Potiphar, so he soon made Joseph his personal attendant. He put him in charge of his entire household and everything he owned. <sup>5</sup> From the day Joseph was put in charge of his master's household and property, the LORD began to bless Potiphar's household for Joseph's sake. All his household affairs ran smoothly, and his crops and livestock flourished. <sup>6</sup> So Potiphar gave Joseph complete administrative responsibility over everything he owned. With Joseph there, he didn't worry about a thing—except what kind of food to eat!

Joseph was a very handsome and well-built young man, <sup>7</sup> and Potiphar's wife soon began to look at him lustfully. "Come and sleep with me," she demanded.

<sup>8</sup> But Joseph refused. "Look," he told her, "my master trusts me with everything in his entire household. <sup>9</sup> No one here has more authority than I do. He has held back nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How could I do such a wicked thing? It would be a great sin against God."

day, but he refused to sleep with her, and he kept out of her way as much as possible. <sup>11</sup> One day, however, no one else was around when he went in to do his work. <sup>12</sup> She came and grabbed him by his cloak, demanding, "Come on, sleep with me!" Joseph tore himself away, but he left his cloak in her hand as he ran from the house.

<sup>13</sup> When she saw that she was holding his cloak and he had fled, <sup>14</sup> she called out to her servants. Soon all the men came running. "Look!" she said. "My husband has brought this Hebrew slave here to make fools of us! He came into my room to rape me, but I screamed. <sup>15</sup> When he heard me scream, he ran outside and got away, but he left his cloak behind with me."

<sup>16</sup> She kept the cloak with her until her husband came home. <sup>17</sup> Then she told him her story. "That Hebrew slave you've brought into our house tried to come in and fool around with me," she said. <sup>18</sup> "But when I screamed, he ran outside, leaving his cloak with me!"

Joseph Put in Prison

<sup>19</sup> Potiphar was furious when he heard his wife's story about how Joseph had treated her.

<sup>20</sup> So he took Joseph and threw him into the prison where the king's prisoners were held, and there he remained. <sup>21</sup> But the LORD was with Joseph in the prison and showed him his faithful love. And the LORD made Joseph a favorite with the prison warden. <sup>22</sup> Before long, the warden put Joseph in charge of all the other prisoners and over everything that happened in the prison.

<sup>23</sup> The warden had no more worries, because Joseph took care of everything. The LORD was with him and caused everything he did to succeed.

The True Kindred of Jesus

(Mk 3:31–35; Lk 8:19–21)

<sup>46</sup> While he was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and his brothers were standing outside, wanting to speak to him. <sup>47</sup> Someone told him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." <sup>48</sup> But to the one who had told him this, Jesus replied, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

<sup>49</sup> And pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers!" <sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower (Mk 4:1–9, 13–20; Lk 8:4–8, 11–15)

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. <sup>2</sup> Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. <sup>3</sup> And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup> And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. <sup>5</sup> Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. <sup>6</sup> But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. <sup>7</sup> Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. <sup>8</sup> Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.<sup>9</sup> Let anyone with ears listen!”

Psalms 17:6-15 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God; incline your ear to me, hear my words.
<sup>8</sup> Guard me as the apple of the eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings, from the wicked who despoil me, my deadly enemies who surround me.
<sup>11</sup> They track me down; now they surround me; they set their eyes to cast me to the ground.

like a young lion lurking in ambush.

<sup>13</sup> Rise up, O LORD, confront them, overthrow them!

By your sword deliver my life from the wicked,

May their bellies be filled with what you have stored up for them; may their children have more than enough; may they leave something over to their little ones.

<sup>15</sup> As for me, I shall behold your face in righteousness; when I awake I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

Proverbs 8:1-11 (NRSV)

The Gifts of Wisdom

<sup>2</sup> On the heights, beside the
way,
at the crossroads she
takes her stand;
<sup>3</sup> beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the
portals she cries out:
<sup>4</sup> “To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that
live.
<sup>5</sup> O simple ones, learn
prudence;
acquire intelligence, you
who lack it.
<sup>6</sup> Hear, for I will speak noble
things,
and from my lips will
come what is right;
<sup>7</sup> for my mouth will utter truth;
wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
<sup>8</sup> All the words of my mouth
are righteous;
there is nothing twisted
or crooked in them.
<sup>9</sup> They are all straight to one who understands

and right to those who find knowledge.
<sup>10</sup> Take my instruction
instead of silver,
and knowledge rather
than choice gold;
<sup>11</sup> for wisdom is better than jewels,
and all that you may desire cannot compare with her.

Genesis 40:1-41:16 (NRSV)

Joseph Interprets Two Dreams
Sometime later, Pharaoh’s
chief cup-bearer and chief baker offended their royal master. <sup>2</sup> Pharaoh became angry with these two officials, <sup>3</sup> and he put them in the prison where Joseph was, in the palace of the captain of the guard. <sup>4</sup> They remained in prison for quite some time,
and the captain of the guard

assigned them to Joseph, who looked after them.

<sup>5</sup> While they were in prison, Pharaoh's cup-bearer and baker each had a dream one night, and each dream had its own meaning. <sup>6</sup> When Joseph saw them the next morning, he noticed that they both looked upset. <sup>7</sup> "Why do you look so worried today?" he asked them.

<sup>8</sup> And they replied, "We both had dreams last night, but no one can tell us what they mean."

"Interpreting dreams is God's business," Joseph replied. "Go ahead and tell me your dreams."

<sup>9</sup> So the chief cup-bearer told Joseph his dream first. "In my dream," he said, "I saw a grapevine in front of me.

<sup>10</sup> The vine had three branches that began to bud and blossom, and soon it produced clusters of ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup> I was holding Pharaoh's wine cup in my hand, so I took a cluster of grapes and squeezed the juice into the cup. Then I placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

three branches represent three days. <sup>13</sup> Within three days Pharaoh will lift you up and restore you to your position as his chief cup-bearer. <sup>14</sup> And please remember me and do me a favor when things go well for you. Mention me to Pharaoh, so he might let me out of this place. <sup>15</sup> For I was kidnapped from my homeland, the land of the Hebrews, and now I'm here in prison, but I did nothing to deserve it."

<sup>16</sup> When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given the first dream such a positive interpretation, he said to Joseph, "I had a dream, too. In my dream there were three baskets of white pastries stacked on my head. <sup>17</sup> The top basket contained all kinds of pastries for Pharaoh, but the birds came and ate them from the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup> "This is what the dream means," Joseph told him. "The three baskets also represent three days. <sup>19</sup> Three days from now Pharaoh will lift you up and impale your body on a pole. Then birds will come and peck away at your flesh."

<sup>20</sup> Pharaoh's birthday came three days later, and he prepared a banquet for all his officials and staff. He summoned his chief cup-bearer and chief baker to join the other officials. <sup>21</sup> He then restored the chief cup-bearer to his former position, so he could again hand Pharaoh his cup. <sup>22</sup> But Pharaoh impaled the chief baker, just as Joseph had predicted when he interpreted his dream. <sup>23</sup> Pharaoh's chief cup-bearer, however, forgot all about Joseph, never giving him another thought.

Pharaoh's Dreams

41 Two full years later, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing on the bank of the Nile River. <sup>2</sup> In his dream he saw seven fat, healthy cows come up out of the river and begin grazing in the marsh grass. <sup>3</sup> Then he saw seven more cows come up behind them from the Nile, but these were scrawny and thin. These cows stood beside the fat cows on the riverbank. <sup>4</sup> Then the scrawny, thin cows ate the seven healthy, fat cows! At this point in the dream, Pharaoh woke up.

<sup>5</sup> But he fell asleep again and had a second dream. This time he saw seven heads of grain, plump and beautiful, growing on a single stalk. <sup>6</sup> Then seven more heads of grain appeared, but these were shriveled and withered by the east wind. <sup>7</sup> And these thin heads swallowed up the seven plump, well-formed heads! Then Pharaoh woke up again and realized it was a dream.

<sup>8</sup> The next morning Pharaoh was very disturbed by the dreams. So he called for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. When Pharaoh told them his dreams, not one of them could tell him what they meant.

<sup>9</sup> Finally, the king's chief cup-bearer spoke up. "Today I have been reminded of my failure," he told Pharaoh.

<sup>10</sup> "Some time ago, you were angry with the chief baker and me, and you imprisoned us in the palace of the captain of the guard. <sup>11</sup> One night the chief baker and I each had a dream, and each dream had its own meaning. <sup>12</sup> There was a young Hebrew man with us in the prison who was a slave of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he told us what each of our dreams meant. <sup>13</sup> And everything happened just as he had predicted. I was restored to my position as cup-bearer, and the chief baker was executed and impaled on a pole.”

<sup>14</sup> Pharaoh sent for Joseph at once, and he was quickly brought from the prison. After he shaved and changed his clothes, he went in and stood before Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream last night, and no one here can tell me what it means. But I have heard that when you hear about a dream you can interpret it.”

<sup>16</sup> “It is beyond my power to do this,” Joseph replied. “But God can tell you what it means and set you at ease.”

Matthew 13:10-23 (NRSV)

The Purpose of the Parables
(Mk 4:10–12; Lk 8:9–10)

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples came and asked him, “Why do you speak to them in parables?”

<sup>11</sup> He answered, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. <sup>12</sup> For to those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. <sup>13</sup> The reason I speak to them in parables is that ‘seeing they do not perceive, and hearing they do not listen, nor do they understand.’ <sup>14</sup> With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah that says:

‘You will indeed listen, but never understand,
and you will indeed look,
but never perceive.

<sup>15</sup> For this people’s heart has grown dull,
and their ears are hard of hearing,
and they have shut their eyes;
so that they might not look
with their eyes,
and listen with their ears,
and understand with their heart and turn—
and I would heal them.’

<sup>16</sup> But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. <sup>17</sup> Truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

<sup>18</sup> “Hear then the parable of the sower. <sup>19</sup> When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. <sup>20</sup> As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; <sup>21</sup> yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. <sup>22</sup> As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. <sup>23</sup> But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.”

Psalm 18:1-3 (NRSV)

Royal Thanksgiving for Victory
(2 Sam 22:1–51)

To the leader. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:

- <sup>1</sup> I love you, O LORD, my strength.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.
- <sup>3</sup> I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, so I shall be saved from my enemies.

Proverbs 8:12–13 (NRSV)

- <sup>12</sup> I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I attain knowledge and discretion.
- <sup>13</sup> The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil.

Pride and arrogance and the way of evil
and perverted speech I hate.

February 9

Genesis 41:17--52 (NRSV)

<sup>17</sup> So Pharaoh told Joseph his dream. “In my dream,” he said, “I was standing on the bank of the Nile River, <sup>18</sup> and I saw seven fat, healthy cows come up out of the river and begin grazing in the marsh grass. <sup>19</sup> But then I saw seven sick-looking cows, scrawny and thin, come up after them. I’ve never seen such sorry-looking animals in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> These thin, scrawny cows ate the seven fat cows. <sup>21</sup> But afterward you wouldn’t have known it, for they were still as thin and scrawny as before! Then I woke up.

<sup>22</sup> “In my dream I also saw seven heads of grain, full and beautiful, growing on a single stalk. <sup>23</sup> Then seven more heads of grain appeared, but these were blighted, shriveled, and withered by the east wind. <sup>24</sup> And the shriveled heads swallowed the seven healthy heads. I told these dreams to the magicians, but no one could tell me what they mean.”

<sup>25</sup> Joseph responded, “Both of Pharaoh’s dreams mean the same thing. God is telling Pharaoh in advance what he is about to do. <sup>26</sup> The seven healthy cows and the seven healthy heads of grain both represent seven years of prosperity. <sup>27</sup> The seven thin, scrawny cows that came up later and the seven thin heads of grain, withered by the east wind, represent seven years of famine.

<sup>28</sup> “This will happen just as I have described it, for God has revealed to Pharaoh in advance what he is about to do. <sup>29</sup> The next seven years will be a period of great prosperity throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>30</sup> But afterward there will be seven years of famine so great that all the prosperity will be forgotten in Egypt. Famine will destroy the land. <sup>31</sup> This famine will be so severe that even the memory of the good years will be erased. <sup>32</sup> As for having two similar dreams, it means that these events have been decreed by God, and he will soon make them happen.

<sup>36</sup> That way there will be enough to eat when the seven years of famine come to the land of Egypt. Otherwise this famine will destroy the land.”

Joseph Made Ruler of Egypt

<sup>37</sup> Joseph’s suggestions were well received by Pharaoh and his officials. <sup>38</sup> So Pharaoh asked his officials, “Can we find anyone else like this man so obviously filled with the spirit of God?” <sup>39</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since

God has revealed the meaning of the dreams to you, clearly no one else is as intelligent or wise as you are. <sup>40</sup> You will be in charge of my court, and all my people will take orders from you. Only I, sitting on my throne, will have a rank higher than yours.”

<sup>42</sup> Then Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his hand and placed it on Joseph’s finger. He dressed him in fine linen clothing and hung a gold chain around his neck. <sup>43</sup> Then he had Joseph ride in the chariot reserved for his second-in-command. And wherever Joseph went, the command was shouted, “Kneel down!” So Pharaoh put Joseph in charge of all Egypt. <sup>44</sup> And Pharaoh said to him, “I am Pharaoh, but no one will lift a hand or foot in the entire land of Egypt without your approval.”

<sup>45</sup> Then Pharaoh gave Joseph a new Egyptian name, Zaphenath-paneah. He also gave him a wife, whose name was Asenath. She was the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On. So Joseph took charge of the entire land of Egypt. <sup>46</sup> He was thirty years old when he began serving in the court of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. And when Joseph left Pharaoh's presence, he inspected the entire land of Egypt.

<sup>49</sup> He piled up huge amounts of grain like sand on the seashore. Finally, he stopped keeping records because there was too much to measure.

<sup>50</sup> During this time, before the first of the famine years, two sons were born to Joseph and his wife, Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On. <sup>51</sup> Joseph named his older son Manasseh, for he said, "God has made me forget all my troubles and everyone in my father's family."

has made me fruitful in this land of my grief."

Matthew 13:24-33 (NRSV)

The Parable of Weeds among the Wheat

<sup>24</sup> He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field;

<sup>25</sup> but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away.

<sup>26</sup> So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well.

<sup>27</sup> And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field?

Where, then, did these weeds come from?' <sup>28</sup> He answered,

'An enemy has done this.' The slaves said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?'

<sup>29</sup> But he replied, 'No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. <sup>30</sup> Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.’ ”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

(Mk 4:30–32; Lk 13:18–19)

<sup>31</sup> He put before them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; <sup>32</sup> it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

The Parable of the Yeast

(Lk 13:20–21)

<sup>33</sup> He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”

<sup>4</sup> The cords of death encompassed me;
the torrents of perdition assailed me;
<sup>5</sup> the cords of Sheol entangled me;

the snares of death confronted me.
<sup>6</sup> In my distress I called upon the LORD;
to my God I cried for help.
From his temple he heard my voice,
and my cry to him reached his ears.
<sup>7</sup> Then the earth reeled and rocked;
the foundations also of the mountains trembled
and quaked, because he was angry.
<sup>8</sup> Smoke went up from his nostrils,
and devouring fire from his mouth;
glowing coals flamed forth from him.
<sup>9</sup> He bowed the heavens, and came down;
thick darkness was under his feet.
<sup>10</sup> He rode on a cherub, and flew;
he came swiftly upon the wings of the wind.
<sup>11</sup> He made darkness his covering around him,
his canopy thick clouds dark with water.

12 Out of the brightness
before him
there broke through his clouds
hailstones and coals of fire.
13 The LORD also thundered in
the heavens,
and the Most High
uttered his voice.
14 And he sent out his arrows, and scattered
them;
he flashed forth
lightnings, and routed
them.
15 Then the channels of the sea were seen,
and the foundations of the world were laid bare
at your rebuke, O LORD,
at the blast of the breath
of your nostrils.

Proverbs 8:14–26 (NRSV)

14 I [wisdom] have good advice and sound
wisdom;
I have insight, I have
strength.
15 By me kings reign,
and rulers decree what is just;
16 by me rulers rule,

and nobles, all who govern rightly.

17 I love those who love me,
and those who seek me
diligently find me.
18 Riches and honor are with
me,
enduring wealth and
prosperity.
19 My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold,
and my yield than choice
silver.
20 I walk in the way of
righteousness,
along the paths of
justice,
21 endowing with wealth
those who love me,
and filling their
treasuries.

Wisdom's Part in Creation

the first of his acts of long ago.
23 Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

forth,

when there were no

Genesis 41:53-42:17 (NRSV)

<sup>53</sup> At last the seven years of bumper crops throughout the land of Egypt came to an end.

<sup>54</sup> Then the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had predicted. The famine also struck all the surrounding countries, but throughout Egypt there was plenty of food. <sup>55</sup> Eventually, however, the famine spread throughout the land of Egypt as well. And when the people cried out to Pharaoh for food, he told them, “Go to Joseph, and do whatever he tells you.” <sup>56</sup> So with severe famine everywhere, Joseph opened up the storehouses and distributed grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup> And people from all around came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph because the famine was severe throughout the world.

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

42 When Jacob heard that grain was available in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why are you standing around looking at one another? <sup>2</sup> I have heard there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy enough grain to keep us alive. Otherwise we’ll die.”

<sup>3</sup> So Joseph’s ten older brothers went down to Egypt to buy grain. <sup>4</sup> But Jacob wouldn’t let Joseph’s younger brother, Benjamin, go with them, for fear some harm might come to him. <sup>5</sup> So Jacob’s sons arrived in Egypt along with others to buy food, for the famine was in Canaan as well.

charge of selling grain to all the people, it was to him that his brothers came. When they arrived, they bowed before him with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup> Joseph recognized his brothers instantly, but he pretended to be a stranger and spoke harshly to them. “Where are you from?” he demanded.

<sup>8</sup> Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they didn’t recognize him. <sup>9</sup> And he remembered the dreams he’d had about them many years before. He said to them, “You are spies! You have come to see how vulnerable our land has become.”

<sup>11</sup> We are all brothers—members of the same family. We are honest men, sir! We are not spies!”

<sup>13</sup> “Sir,” they said, “there are actually twelve of us. We, your servants, are all brothers, sons of a man living in the land of Canaan. Our youngest brother is back there with our father right now, and one of our brothers is no longer with us.”

<sup>14</sup> But Joseph insisted, “As I said, you are spies! <sup>15</sup> This is how I will test your story. I swear by the life of Pharaoh that you will never leave Egypt unless your youngest brother comes here! <sup>16</sup> One of you must go and get your brother. I’ll keep the rest of you here in prison. Then we’ll find out whether or not your story is true. By the life of Pharaoh, if it turns out that you don’t have a younger brother, then I’ll know you are spies.”

The Use of Parables

<sup>34</sup> Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables; without a parable he told them nothing. <sup>35</sup> This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet:

“I will open my mouth to speak in parables;
I will proclaim what has been hidden from the foundation of the world.”

Jesus Explains the Parable of the Weeds

<sup>36</sup> Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.” <sup>37</sup> He answered, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; <sup>38</sup> the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, <sup>39</sup> and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. <sup>40</sup> Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. <sup>41</sup> The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, <sup>42</sup> and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup> Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

Three Parables

<sup>44</sup> “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

<sup>45</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; <sup>46</sup> on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

<sup>16</sup> He reached down from on high, he took me;
he drew me out of mighty waters.

<sup>17</sup> He delivered me from my strong enemy,
and from those who
hated me;
for they were too mighty
for me.

<sup>18</sup> They confronted me in the day of my calamity;
but the LORD was my support.

19 He brought me out into a broad place;
he delivered me,
because he delighted
in me.
20 The LORD rewarded me
according to my
righteousness;
according to the
cleanness of my hands
he recompensed me.
21 For I have kept the ways of
the LORD,
and have not wickedly
departed from my God.
22 For all his ordinances were
before me,
and his statutes I did not put away from me.
23 I was blameless before
him,
and I kept myself from guilt.
24 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me
according to my
righteousness,
according to the
cleanness of my hands
in his sight.

when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, 28 when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the
fountains of the deep, 29 when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
30 then I was beside him,
like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight,
rejoicing before him
always,
31 rejoicing in his inhabited
world
and delighting in the human race.

listen to me:
happy are those who
keep my ways.

Genesis 42:18-38 (NRSV)

<sup>18</sup> On the third day Joseph said to them, “I am a God-fearing man. If you do as I say, you will live. <sup>19</sup> If you really are honest men, choose one of your brothers to remain in prison. The rest of you may go home with grain for your starving families. <sup>20</sup> But you must bring your youngest brother back to me. This will prove that you are telling the truth, and you will not die.” To this they agreed.

<sup>21</sup> Speaking among themselves, they said, “Clearly we are being punished because of what we did to Joseph long ago. We saw his anguish when he pleaded for his life, but we wouldn’t listen. That’s why we’re in this trouble.”

<sup>22</sup> “Didn’t I tell you not to sin against the boy?” Reuben asked. “But you wouldn’t listen. And now we have to answer for his blood!”

<sup>23</sup> Of course, they didn’t know that Joseph understood them, for he had been

speaking to them through an interpreter. <sup>24</sup> Now he turned away from them and began to weep. When he regained his composure, he spoke to them again. Then he chose Simeon from among them and had him tied up right before their eyes.

<sup>25</sup> Joseph then ordered his servants to fill the men’s sacks with grain, but he also gave secret instructions to return each brother’s payment at the top of his sack. He also gave them supplies for their journey home. <sup>26</sup> So the brothers loaded their donkeys with the grain and headed for home.

<sup>27</sup> But when they stopped for the night and one of them opened his sack to get grain for his donkey, he found his money in the top of his sack. <sup>28</sup> “Look!” he exclaimed to his brothers. “My money has been returned; it’s here in my sack!” Then their hearts sank. Trembling, they said to each other, “What has God done to us?”

<sup>29</sup> When the brothers came to their father, Jacob, in the land of Canaan, they told him

everything that had happened to them.<sup>30</sup> “The man who is governor of the land spoke very harshly to us,” they told him. “He accused us of being spies scouting the land.”<sup>31</sup> But we said, “We are honest men, not spies.”<sup>32</sup> We are twelve brothers, sons of one father. One brother is no longer with us, and the youngest is at home with our father in the land of Canaan.’

<sup>33</sup> “Then the man who is governor of the land told us, ‘This is how I will find out if you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take grain for your starving families and go on home.’<sup>34</sup> But you must bring your youngest brother back to me. Then I will know you are honest men and not spies. Then I will give you back your brother, and you may trade freely in the land.’ ”

<sup>35</sup> As they emptied out their sacks, there in each man’s sack was the bag of money he had paid for the grain! The brothers and their father were terrified when they saw the bags of money.

robbing me of my children! Joseph is gone! Simeon is gone! And now you want to take Benjamin, too. Everything is going against me!”

<sup>37</sup> Then Reuben said to his father, “You may kill my two sons if I don’t bring Benjamin back to you. I’ll be responsible for him, and I promise to bring him back.”

<sup>38</sup> But Jacob replied, “My son will not go down with you. His brother Joseph is dead, and he is all I have left. If anything should happen to him on your journey, you would send this grieving, white-haired man to his grave.”

<sup>47</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind;
<sup>48</sup> when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad.<sup>49</sup> So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous <sup>50</sup> and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Treasures New and Old

<sup>51</sup> “Have you understood all this?” They answered, “Yes.” <sup>52</sup> And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”

The Rejection of Jesus at Nazareth
(Mk 6:1–6; Lk 4:16–30)

<sup>54</sup> He came to his hometown and began to teach the people in their synagogue, so that they were astounded and said, “Where did this man get this wisdom and these deeds of power? <sup>55</sup> Is not this the carpenter’s son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? <sup>56</sup> And are not all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all this?” <sup>57</sup> And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, “Prophets are not without honor except in their own country and in their own house.” <sup>58</sup> And he did not do many deeds of power there, because of their unbelief.

<sup>25</sup> With the loyal you show yourself loyal;
with the blameless you show yourself blameless;
<sup>26</sup> with the pure you show yourself pure;
and with the crooked you show yourself perverse.
<sup>27</sup> For you deliver a humble people,
but the haughty eyes you bring down.
<sup>28</sup> It is you who light my lamp;
the LORD, my God, lights up my darkness.
<sup>29</sup> By you I can crush a troop,
and by my God I can leap over a wall.
<sup>30</sup> This God—his way is perfect;
the promise of the LORD proves true;
he is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

31 For who is God except the
LORD?
And who is a rock
besides our God?—
32 the God who girded me
with strength,

Genesis 43:1-34 (NRSV)

The Brothers Return to Egypt
But the famine continued to ravage the land of Canaan.

<sup>2</sup> When the grain they had brought from Egypt was almost gone, Jacob said to his sons, “Go back and buy us a little more food.”

<sup>3</sup> But Judah said, “The man was serious when he warned us, ‘You won’t see my face again unless your brother is with you.’” <sup>4</sup> If you send Benjamin with us, we will go down and buy more food.

<sup>5</sup> But if you don’t let Benjamin go, we won’t go either.

Remember, the man said, ‘You won’t see my face again unless your brother is with you.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> “Why were you so cruel to me?” Jacob moaned. “Why did you tell him you had another brother?”

<sup>7</sup> “The man kept asking us questions about our family,” they replied. “He asked, ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?’ So we answered his questions. How could we know he would say, ‘Bring your brother down here?’”

<sup>8</sup> Judah said to his father, “Send the boy with me, and we will be on our way. Otherwise we will all die of starvation—and not only we, but you and our little ones.” <sup>9</sup> I personally guarantee his safety. You may hold me responsible if I don’t bring him back to you. Then let me bear the blame forever. <sup>10</sup> If we hadn’t wasted all this time, we could have gone and returned twice by now.”

<sup>11</sup> So their father, Jacob, finally said to them, “If it can’t be avoided, then at least do this. Pack your bags with the best products of this land.

Take them down to the man as gifts—balm, honey, gum, aromatic resin, pistachio nuts, and almonds. <sup>12</sup> Also take double the money that was put back in your sacks, as it was probably someone’s mistake. <sup>13</sup> Then take your brother, and go back to the man. <sup>14</sup> May God Almighty give you mercy as you go before the man, so that he will release Simeon and let Benjamin return. But if I must lose my children, so be it.”

<sup>18</sup> The brothers were terrified when they saw that they were being taken into Joseph’s house. “It’s because of the money someone put in our sacks last time we were here,” they said. “He plans to pretend that we stole it. Then he will seize us, make us slaves, and take our donkeys.”

A Feast at Joseph’s Palace

<sup>19</sup> The brothers approached the manager of Joseph’s household and spoke to him at the entrance to the palace.

Then we discovered that each man’s money—the exact amount paid—was in the top of his sack! Here it is; we have brought it back with us. <sup>22</sup> We also have additional money to buy more food. We have no idea who put our money in our sacks.”

<sup>23</sup> “Relax. Don’t be afraid,” the household manager told them. “Your God, the God of your father, must have put this treasure into your sacks. I know I received your payment.” Then he released Simeon and brought him out to them.

<sup>24</sup> The manager then led the men into Joseph’s palace. He gave them water to wash their feet and provided food for their donkeys. <sup>25</sup> They were told they would be eating there, so they prepared their gifts for Joseph’s arrival at noon.

<sup>26</sup> When Joseph came home, they gave him the gifts they had brought him, then bowed low to the ground before him. <sup>27</sup> After greeting them, he asked, “How is your father, the old man you spoke about? Is he still alive?”

<sup>28</sup> “Yes,” they replied. “Our father, your servant, is alive and well.” And they bowed low again.

<sup>29</sup> Then Joseph looked at his brother Benjamin, the son of his own mother. “Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?”

Joseph asked. “May God be gracious to you, my son.”

<sup>30</sup> Then Joseph hurried from the room because he was overcome with emotion for his brother. He went into his private room, where he broke down and wept. <sup>31</sup> After washing his face, he came back out, keeping himself under control. Then he ordered, "Bring out the food!"

<sup>33</sup> Joseph told each of his brothers where to sit, and to their amazement, he seated them according to age, from oldest to youngest. <sup>34</sup> And Joseph filled their plates with food from his own table, giving Benjamin five times as much as he gave the others. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

Matthew 14:1-12 (NRSV)

The Death of John the Baptist
(Lk 9:7-9; Mk 6:14-29)

At that time Herod the ruler heard reports about Jesus; <sup>2</sup> and he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he has been raised from the dead, and for this reason these powers are at work in him." <sup>3</sup> For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, <sup>4</sup> because John had been telling him, "It is not lawful for you to have her."

<sup>5</sup> Though Herod wanted to put him to death, he feared the crowd, because they regarded him as a prophet. <sup>6</sup> But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the company, and she pleased Herod <sup>7</sup> so much that he promised on oath to grant her whatever she might ask. <sup>8</sup> Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter." <sup>9</sup> The king was grieved, yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he commanded it to be given; <sup>10</sup> he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. <sup>11</sup> The head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, who brought it to her mother. <sup>12</sup> His disciples came and took the body and buried it; then they went and told Jesus.

Psalm 18:37-45 (NRSV)

<sup>37</sup> I pursued my enemies and overtook them;

and did not turn back until they were consumed.

38 I struck them down, so that they were not able to rise;
they fell under my feet.

39 For you girded me with strength for the battle;
you made my assailants
sink under me.

40 You made my enemies
turn their backs to me,
and those who hated me
I destroyed.

41 They cried for help, but there was no one to save them;
they cried to the LORD,
but he did not answer
them.

42 I beat them fine, like dust
before the wind;
I cast them out like the mire of the streets.

43 You delivered me from strife with the peoples;
you made me head of
the nations;
people whom I had not known served me.

44 As soon as they heard of me they obeyed me;
foreigners came cringing
to me.

45 Foreigners lost heart,
and came trembling out
of their strongholds.

Joseph's Silver Cup

When his brothers were ready to leave, Joseph gave these instructions to his palace manager: "Fill each of their sacks with as much grain as they can carry, and put each man's money back into his sack. <sup>2</sup> Then put my personal silver cup at the top of the youngest brother's sack, along with the money for his grain." So the manager did as Joseph instructed him.

<sup>3</sup> The brothers were up at dawn and were sent on their journey with their loaded donkeys. <sup>4</sup> But when they had gone only a short distance and were barely out of the city, Joseph said to his palace manager, "Chase after them and stop them. When you catch up with them, ask them, 'Why have you repaid my kindness with such evil? <sup>5</sup> Why have you stolen my master's silver cup, which he uses to predict the future? What a wicked thing you have done!' "

<sup>6</sup> When the palace manager caught up with the men, he spoke to them as he had been instructed.

<sup>7</sup> "What are you talking about?" the brothers responded. "We are your servants and would never do such a thing! <sup>8</sup> Didn't we return the money we found in our sacks? We brought it back all the way from the land of Canaan. Why would we steal silver or gold from your master's house? <sup>9</sup> If you find his cup with any one of us, let that man die. And all the rest of us, my lord, will be your slaves."

<sup>10</sup> "That's fair," the man replied. "But only the one who stole the cup will be my slave. The rest of you may go free."

<sup>13</sup> When the brothers saw this, they tore their clothing in despair. Then they loaded their donkeys again and returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup> Joseph was still in his palace when Judah and his brothers arrived, and they fell to the ground before him.

<sup>15</sup> “What have you done?” Joseph demanded. “Don’t you know that a man like me can predict the future?”

<sup>16</sup> Judah answered, “Oh, my lord, what can we say to you? How can we explain this? How can we prove our innocence? God is punishing us for our sins. My lord, we have all returned to be your slaves—all of us, not just our brother who had your cup in his sack.”

<sup>17</sup> “No,” Joseph said. “I would never do such a thing! Only the man who stole the cup will be my slave. The rest of you may go back to your father in peace.”

Judah Speaks for His Brothers

<sup>18</sup> Then Judah stepped forward and said, “Please, my lord, let your servant say just one word to you. Please, do not be angry with me, even though you are as powerful as Pharaoh himself.

<sup>19</sup> “My lord, previously you asked us, your servants, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’” <sup>20</sup> And we responded, ‘Yes, my lord, we have a father who is an old man, and his youngest son is a child of his old age. His full brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother’s children, and his father loves him very much.’

<sup>21</sup> “And you said to us, ‘Bring him here so I can see him with my own eyes.’” <sup>22</sup> But we said to you, ‘My lord, the boy cannot leave his father, for his father would die.’” <sup>23</sup> But you told us, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes with you, you will never see my face again.’

<sup>24</sup> “So we returned to your servant, our father, and told him what you had said.

<sup>25</sup> Later, when he said, ‘Go back again and buy us more food,’” <sup>26</sup> we replied, ‘We can’t go unless you let our youngest brother go with us. We’ll never get to see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

<sup>27</sup> “Then my father said to us, ‘As you know, my wife had two sons,<sup>28</sup> and one of them went away and never returned. Doubtless he was torn to pieces by some wild animal. I have never seen him since.<sup>29</sup> Now if you take his brother away from me, and any harm comes to him, you will send this grieving, white-haired man to his grave.'

<sup>30</sup> "And now, my lord, I cannot go back to my father without the boy. Our father's life is bound up in the boy's life.<sup>31</sup> If he sees that the boy is not with us, our father will die. We, your servants, will indeed be responsible for sending that grieving, white-haired man to his grave.<sup>32</sup> My lord, I guaranteed to my father that I would take care of the boy. I told him, 'If I don't bring him back to you, I will bear the blame forever.'

<sup>33</sup> "So please, my lord, let me stay here as a slave instead of the boy, and let the boy return with his brothers.<sup>34</sup> For how can I return to my father if the boy is not with me? I couldn't bear to see the anguish this would cause my father!"

Joseph Reveals His Identity

45 Joseph could stand it no longer. There were many people in the room, and he said to his attendants, "Out, all of you!" So he was alone with his brothers when he told them who he was.<sup>2</sup> Then he broke down and wept. He wept so loudly the Egyptians could hear him, and word of it quickly carried to Pharaoh's palace.

<sup>3</sup> "I am Joseph!" he said to his brothers. "Is my father still alive?" But his brothers were speechless! They were stunned to realize that Joseph was standing there in front of them.<sup>4</sup> "Please, come closer," he said to them. So they came closer. And he said again, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into slavery in Egypt."<sup>5</sup> But don't be upset, and don't be angry with yourselves for selling me to this place. It was God who sent me here ahead of you to preserve your lives.<sup>6</sup> This famine that has ravaged the land for two years will last five more years, and there will be neither plowing nor harvesting.<sup>7</sup> God has sent me ahead of you to keep you and your families alive and to preserve many survivors.<sup>8</sup> So it was God who sent me here, not you! And he is the one who made me an adviser to Pharaoh—the manager of his entire palace and the governor of all Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> “Now hurry back to my father and tell him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me master over all the land of Egypt. So come down to me immediately!

<sup>10</sup> You can live in the region of Goshen, where you can be near me with all your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and everything you own.<sup>11</sup> I will take care of you there, for there are still five years of famine ahead of us. Otherwise you, your household, and all your animals will starve.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Then Joseph added, “Look! You can see for yourselves, and so can my brother Benjamin, that I really am Joseph!<sup>13</sup> Go tell my father of my honored position here in Egypt. Describe for him everything you have seen, and then bring my father here quickly.”<sup>14</sup> Weeping with joy, he embraced Benjamin, and Benjamin did the same.

<sup>15</sup> Then Joseph kissed each of his brothers and wept over them, and after that they began talking freely with him.

Feeding the Five Thousand
(Mk 6:30–44; Lk 9:10–17; Jn 6:1–14)

<sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns.

<sup>14</sup> When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick.<sup>15</sup> When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.”<sup>17</sup> They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.”<sup>18</sup> And he said, “Bring them here to me.”<sup>19</sup> Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

<sup>46</sup> The LORD lives! Blessed be my rock,
and exalted be the God of my salvation,

and subdued peoples under me;
<sup>48</sup> who delivered me from my enemies;
indeed, you exalted me above my adversaries;
you delivered me from the violent.

Pharaoh Invites Jacob to Egypt

<sup>16</sup> The news soon reached Pharaoh's palace: "Joseph's brothers have arrived!" Pharaoh and his officials were all delighted to hear this.

what you must do: Load your pack animals, and hurry back to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup> Then get your father and all of your families, and return here to me. I will give you the very best land in Egypt, and you will eat from the best that the land produces.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Tell your brothers, ‘Take wagons from the land of Egypt to carry your little children and your wives, and bring your father here. <sup>20</sup> Don’t worry about your personal belongings, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> So the sons of Jacob did as they were told. Joseph provided them with wagons, as Pharaoh had commanded, and he gave them supplies for the journey. <sup>22</sup> And he gave each of them new clothes—but to Benjamin he gave five changes of clothes and 300 pieces of silver. <sup>23</sup> He also sent his father ten male donkeys loaded with the finest products of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and other supplies he would need on his journey.

<sup>26</sup> “Joseph is still alive!” they told him. “And he is governor of all the land of Egypt!” Jacob was stunned at the news—he couldn’t believe it. <sup>27</sup> But when they repeated to Jacob everything Joseph had told them, and when he saw the wagons Joseph had sent to carry him, their father’s spirits revived.

<sup>28</sup> Then Jacob exclaimed, “It must be true! My son Joseph is alive! I must go and see him before I die.”

Jacob’s Journey to Egypt

46 So Jacob set out for Egypt with all his possessions. And when he came to Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father, Isaac.

<sup>2</sup> During the night God spoke to him in a vision. “Jacob! Jacob!” he called.

“Here I am,” Jacob replied.

“Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make your family into a great nation.<sup>4</sup> I will go with you down to Egypt, and I will bring you back again. You will die in Egypt, but Joseph will be with you to close your eyes.”

<sup>5</sup> So Jacob left Beersheba, and his sons took him to Egypt. They carried him and their little ones and their wives in the wagons Pharaoh had provided for them.<sup>6</sup> They also took all their livestock and all the personal belongings they had acquired in the land of Canaan. So Jacob and his entire family went to Egypt—<sup>7</sup> sons and grandsons, daughters and granddaughters—all his descendants.

Jesus Walks on the Water

(Mk 6:45–52; Jn 6:15–21)

<sup>22</sup> Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.<sup>23</sup> And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,<sup>24</sup> but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them.

<sup>25</sup> And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea.<sup>26</sup> But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear.<sup>27</sup> But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.”

<sup>28</sup> Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.”<sup>29</sup> He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus.<sup>30</sup> But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!”<sup>31</sup> Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?”<sup>32</sup> When they got into the boat, the wind ceased.<sup>33</sup> And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

Jesus Heals the Sick in Gennesaret
(Mk 6:53–56)

<sup>34</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup> After the people of that place recognized him, they sent word throughout the region and brought all who were sick to him, <sup>36</sup> and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

God's Glory in Creation and the Law

To the leader. A Psalm of David.

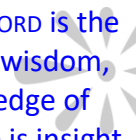

<sup>1</sup> The heavens are telling the glory of God;
and the firmament
proclaims his handiwork.
<sup>2</sup> Day to day pours forth
speech,
and night to night
declares knowledge.
<sup>3</sup> There is no speech, nor are there words;
their voice is not heard;
<sup>4</sup> yet their voice goes out
through all the earth,
and their words to the end of the world.

In the heavens he has set a tent for the sun, <sup>5</sup> which comes out like a bridegroom from his wedding canopy,
and like a strong man
runs its course with
joy.
<sup>6</sup> Its rising is from the end of
the heavens,
and its circuit to the end
of them;
and nothing is hid from
its heat.

Proverbs 9:9–10 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> Give instruction to the wise, and they will

beginning of wisdom,
and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.

Genesis 46:8-47:12

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of the descendants of Israel—the sons of Jacob—who went to Egypt:

Reuben was Jacob's oldest son. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Reuben were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (though Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

<sup>15</sup>These were the sons of Leah and Jacob who were born in Paddan-aram, in addition to their daughter, Dinah. The number of Jacob's descendants (male and female) through Leah was thirty-three.

<sup>17</sup>The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah. Their sister was Serah. Beriah's sons were Heber and Malkiel.

<sup>18</sup>These were the sons of Zilpah, the servant given to Leah by her father, Laban. The number of Jacob's descendants through Zilpah was sixteen.

<sup>20</sup>Joseph's sons, born in the land of Egypt, were Manasseh and Ephraim. Their mother was Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On.

<sup>22</sup>These were the sons of Rachel and Jacob. The number of Jacob's descendants through Rachel was fourteen.

<sup>24</sup> The sons of Naphtali were Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

<sup>25</sup> These were the sons of Bilhah, the servant given to Rachel by her father, Laban. The number of Jacob's descendants
through Bilhah was seven.

<sup>26</sup> The total number of Jacob's direct descendants who went with him to Egypt, not counting his sons' wives, was sixty-six. <sup>27</sup> In addition, Joseph had two sons who were born in Egypt. So altogether, there were seventy members of Jacob's family in the land of Egypt.

Jacob's Family Arrives in Goshen

<sup>28</sup> As they neared their destination, Jacob sent Judah ahead to meet Joseph and get directions to the region of Goshen. And when they finally arrived there, <sup>29</sup> Joseph prepared his chariot and traveled to Goshen to meet his father, Jacob. When Joseph arrived, he embraced his father and wept, holding him

for a long time. <sup>30</sup> Finally, Jacob said to Joseph, "Now I am ready to die, since I have seen your face again and know
you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup> And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's entire family, "I will go to Pharaoh and tell him, 'My brothers and my father's entire family have come to me
from the land of Canaan.

<sup>32</sup> These men are shepherds, and they raise livestock. They have brought with them their flocks and herds and everything they own.' "

<sup>33</sup> Then he said, "When Pharaoh calls for you and asks
you about your occupation, <sup>34</sup> you must tell him, 'We, your servants, have raised livestock
all our lives, as our ancestors
have always done.' When you tell him this, he will let you live
here in the region of Goshen,
for the Egyptians despise
shepherds."

Jacob Blesses Pharaoh

47 Then Joseph went to see Pharaoh and told him, "My father and my brothers have arrived from the land of Canaan. They have come with all their flocks and herds and possessions, and they are now in the region of Goshen.”

They replied, “We, your servants, are shepherds, just like our ancestors.” <sup>4</sup> We have come to live here in Egypt for a while, for there is no pasture for our flocks in Canaan. The famine is very severe there. So please, we request permission to live in the region of Goshen.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Now that your father and brothers have joined you here, <sup>6</sup> choose any place in the entire land of Egypt for them to live. Give them the best land of Egypt. Let them live in the region of Goshen. And if any of them have special skills, put them in charge of my livestock, too.”

<sup>9</sup> Jacob replied, “I have traveled this earth for 130 hard years. But my life has been short compared to the lives of my ancestors.” <sup>10</sup> Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh again before leaving his court.

<sup>11</sup> So Joseph assigned the best land of Egypt—the region of Rameses—to his father and his brothers, and he settled them there, just as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup> And Joseph provided food for his father and his brothers in amounts appropriate to the number of their dependents, including the smallest children.

Matthew 15:1-14 (NRSV)

The Tradition of the Elders (Mk 7:1–13)

and your mother,' and,
'Whoever speaks evil of father
or mother must surely die.'

<sup>5</sup> But you say that whoever tells father or mother,
'Whatever support you might have had from me is given to God,' then that person need not honor the father. <sup>6</sup> So, for the sake of your tradition, you make void the word of God.

<sup>7</sup> You hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied rightly about you
when he said:

<sup>8</sup> 'This people honors me
with their lips,
but their hearts are far
from me;
<sup>9</sup> in vain do they worship
me,
teaching human precepts
as doctrines.' "

Things That Defile

(Mk 7:14–23)

<sup>10</sup> Then he called the crowd to him and said to them, "Listen and understand: <sup>11</sup> it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles." <sup>12</sup> Then the disciples approached and said to him,
"Do you know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard what you said?"

<sup>13</sup> He answered, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted.

<sup>14</sup> Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides
another, both will fall into a
pit."

Psalm 19:7-14 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> The law of the LORD is perfect,
reviving the soul;
the decrees of the LORD are sure,
making wise the simple;
<sup>8</sup> the precepts of the LORD
are right,
rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the LORD is clear,
enlightening the eyes;
<sup>9</sup> the fear of the LORD is
pure,
enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD
are true
and righteous altogether.
<sup>10</sup> More to be desired are they than gold,
even much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey,
and drippings of the
honeycomb.

- <sup>11</sup> Moreover by them is your servant warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.
- <sup>12</sup> But who can detect their errors?
Clear me from hidden faults.
- <sup>13</sup> Keep back your servant also from the insolent;
do not let them have dominion over me.
Then I shall be blameless,
and innocent of great transgression.
- <sup>14</sup> Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be acceptable to you,
O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

Proverbs 9:11–12 (NRSV)

- <sup>11</sup> For by me your days will be multiplied,
and years will be added to your life.
- <sup>12</sup> If you are wise, you are wise for yourself;
if you scoff, you alone will bear it.

Genesis 47:13-31

Joseph's Leadership in the Famine

- <sup>13</sup> Meanwhile, the famine became so severe that all the food was used up, and people were starving throughout the lands of Egypt and Canaan.
- <sup>14</sup> By selling grain to the people, Joseph eventually collected all the money in Egypt and Canaan, and he put the money in Pharaoh's treasury. <sup>15</sup> When the people of Egypt and Canaan ran out of money, all the Egyptians came to Joseph. "Our money is gone!" they cried. "But please give us food, or we will die before your very eyes!"
- <sup>16</sup> Joseph replied, "Since your money is gone, bring me your livestock. I will give you food in exchange for your livestock." <sup>17</sup> So they brought their livestock to Joseph in exchange for food. In exchange for their horses, flocks of sheep and goats, herds of cattle, and donkeys,

Joseph provided them with food for another year.

<sup>18</sup> But that year ended, and the next year they came again and said, “We cannot hide the truth from you, my lord. Our money is gone, and all our livestock and cattle are yours. We have nothing left to give but our bodies and our land.

<sup>19</sup> Why should we die before your very eyes? Buy us and our land in exchange for food; we offer our land and ourselves as slaves for Pharaoh. Just give us grain so we may live and not die, and so the land does not become empty and desolate.”

<sup>20</sup> So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh. All the Egyptians sold him their fields because the famine was so severe, and soon all the land belonged to Pharaoh.

<sup>21</sup> As for the people, he made them all slaves, from one end of Egypt to the other. <sup>22</sup> The only land he did not buy was the land belonging to the priests. They received an allotment of food directly from Pharaoh, so they didn’t need to sell their land.

<sup>23</sup> Then Joseph said to the people, “Look, today I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. I will provide you with seed so you can plant the fields. <sup>24</sup> Then when you harvest it, one-fifth of your crop will belong to Pharaoh. You may keep the remaining four-fifths as seed for your fields and as food for you, your households, and your little ones.”

<sup>25</sup> “You have saved our lives!” they exclaimed. “May it please you, my lord, to let us be Pharaoh’s servants.”

<sup>26</sup> Joseph then issued a decree still in effect in the land of Egypt, that Pharaoh should receive one-fifth of all the crops grown on his land. Only the land belonging to the priests was not given to Pharaoh.

<sup>27</sup> Meanwhile, the people of Israel settled in the region of Goshen in Egypt. There they acquired property, and they were fruitful, and their population grew rapidly.

<sup>28</sup> Jacob lived for seventeen years after his arrival in Egypt, so he lived 147 years in all.

<sup>29</sup> As the time of his death drew near, Jacob called for his son Joseph and said to him, “Please do me this favor. Put your hand under my thigh and swear that you will treat me with unfailing love by honoring this last request: Do not bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup> When I die, please take my body out of Egypt and bury me with my ancestors.”

So Joseph promised, “I will do as you ask.”

<sup>31</sup> “Swear that you will do it,” Jacob insisted. So Joseph gave his oath, and Jacob bowed humbly at the head of his bed.

<sup>16</sup> Then he said, “Are you also still without understanding?

witness, slander. <sup>20</sup> These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile.”

The Canaanite Woman’s Faith
(Mk 7:24–30)

<sup>21</sup> Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup> Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon.” <sup>23</sup> But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, “Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us.”

<sup>24</sup> He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” <sup>25</sup> But she came and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, help me.” <sup>26</sup> He answered, “It is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.” <sup>27</sup> She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.” <sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed instantly.

Prayer for Victory

To the leader. A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD answer you in the day of trouble!
The name of the God of Jacob protect you!
2 May he send you help
from the sanctuary,
and give you support
from Zion.
3 May he remember all your offerings,
and regard with favor
your burnt sacrifices.
Selah
4 May he grant you your heart's desire,
and fulfill all your plans.
5 May we shout for joy over your victory,
and in the name of our God set up our banners.

May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

6 Now I know that the LORD
will help his anointed;
he will answer him from his holy heaven
with mighty victories by his right hand.

14 She sits at the door of her
house,
on a seat at the high places of the town,

And to those without
sense she says,

the dead are there,
that her guests are in

Manasseh and Ephraim

One day not long after this,
word came to Joseph, "Your father is failing rapidly.” So Joseph went to visit his father, and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

<sup>2</sup> When Joseph arrived, Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to see you.” So Jacob gathered his strength and sat up in his bed.

<sup>3</sup> Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me. <sup>4</sup> He said to me, ‘I will make you fruitful, and I will multiply your descendants. I will make you a multitude of nations. And I will give this land of Canaan to your descendants after you as an everlasting possession.’

<sup>5</sup> “Now I am claiming as my own sons f these two boys of yours, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born here in the land of Egypt before I arrived. They will be my sons, just as Reuben and Simeon are. <sup>6</sup> But any children born to you in the future will be your own, and they will inherit land within the territories of their brothers Ephraim and Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup> “Long ago, as I was returning from Paddan-aram, Rachel died in the land of Canaan. We were still on the way, some distance from Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). So with great sorrow I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath.”

<sup>8</sup> Then Jacob looked over at the two boys. “Are these your sons?” he asked.

<sup>9</sup> “Yes,” Joseph told him, “these are the sons God has given me here in Egypt.”

And Jacob said, “Bring them closer to me, so I can bless them.”

<sup>10</sup> Jacob was half blind because of his age and could hardly see. So Joseph brought the boys close to him, and Jacob kissed and embraced them. <sup>11</sup> Then Jacob said to Joseph, “I never thought I would see your face again, but now God has let me see your children, too!”

the boys in front of Jacob. With his right hand he directed Ephraim toward Jacob's left hand, and with his left hand he put Manasseh at Jacob's right hand. <sup>14</sup> But Jacob crossed his arms as he reached out to lay his hands on the boys' heads. He put his right hand on the head of Ephraim, though he was the younger boy, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, though he was the firstborn. <sup>15</sup> Then he blessed Joseph and said,

“May the God before whom my grandfather Abraham
and my father, Isaac, walked—

the God who has been my shepherd
all my life, to this very
day,

<sup>16</sup> the Angel who has redeemed me from all harm—
may he bless these boys.

May they preserve my name
and the names of Abraham and Isaac.
And may their descendants
multiply greatly

throughout the earth.”

<sup>17</sup> But Joseph was upset when he saw that his father placed his right hand on Ephraim's head. So Joseph lifted it to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. <sup>18</sup> “No, my father,” he said. “This one is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head.”

<sup>19</sup> But his father refused. “I know, my son; I know,” he replied. “Manasseh will also become a great people, but his younger brother will become even greater. And his descendants will become a multitude of nations.”

<sup>20</sup> So Jacob blessed the boys that day with this blessing: “The people of Israel will use your names when they give a blessing. They will say, ‘May God make you as prosperous as Ephraim and Manasseh.’” In this way, Jacob put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> Then Jacob said to Joseph, “Look, I am about to die, but God will be with you and will take you back to Canaan, the land of your ancestors. <sup>22</sup> And beyond what I have given your brothers, I am giving you an extra portion of the land that I took from the Amorites with my sword and bow.”

Jesus Cures Many People
(Mk 7:31-37)

<sup>29</sup> After Jesus had left that place, he passed along the Sea of Galilee, and he went up the mountain, where he sat down. <sup>30</sup> Great crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the maimed, the blind, the mute, and many others. They put them at his feet, and he cured them, <sup>31</sup> so that the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

(Mk 8:1-10)

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, for they might faint on the way.” <sup>33</sup> The disciples said to him, “Where are we to get enough bread in the desert to feed so great a crowd?” <sup>34</sup> Jesus asked them, “How many loaves have you?”

They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.” <sup>35</sup> Then ordering the crowd to sit down on the ground, <sup>36</sup> he took the seven loaves and the fish; and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' <sup>3</sup> And in the morning, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' <sup>5</sup> When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to bring any bread. <sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, "Watch out, and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." <sup>7</sup> They said to one another, "It is because we have brought no bread." <sup>8</sup> And becoming aware of it, Jesus said, "You of little faith, why are you talking about having no bread? <sup>9</sup> Do you still not perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? <sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? <sup>11</sup> How could you fail to perceive that I was not speaking about bread? Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!"

<sup>12</sup> Then they understood that he had not told them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Genesis 50:1-26 (NRSV)

Joseph threw himself on his father and wept over him and kissed him. <sup>2</sup> Then Joseph told the physicians who served him to embalm his father's body; so Jacob was embalmed.<sup>3</sup> The embalming process took the usual forty days. And the Egyptians mourned his death for seventy days.

<sup>4</sup> When the period of mourning was over, Joseph approached Pharaoh's advisers and said, "Please do me this favor and speak to Pharaoh on my behalf.<sup>5</sup> Tell him that my father made me swear an oath. He said to me, 'Listen, I am about to die. Take my body back to the land of Canaan, and bury me in the tomb I prepared for myself.' So please allow me to go and bury my father. After his burial, I will return without delay."

<sup>6</sup> Pharaoh agreed to Joseph's request. "Go and bury your father, as he made you promise," he said.<sup>7</sup> So Joseph went up to bury his father. He was accompanied by all of Pharaoh's officials, all the senior members of Pharaoh's household, and all the senior officers of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Joseph also took his entire household and his brothers and their households. But they left their little children and flocks and herds in the land of Goshen.<sup>9</sup> A great number of chariots and charioteers accompanied Joseph.

<sup>10</sup> When they arrived at the threshing floor of Atad, near the Jordan River, they held a very great and solemn memorial service, with a seven-day period of mourning for Joseph's father.<sup>11</sup> The local residents, the Canaanites, watched them mourning at the threshing floor of Atad. Then they renamed that place (which is near the Jordan) Abel-mizraim, for they said, "This is a place of deep mourning for these Egyptians."

<sup>12</sup> So Jacob's sons did as he had commanded them.<sup>13</sup> They carried his body to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre. This is the cave that Abraham had bought as a permanent burial site from Ephron the Hittite.

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

<sup>14</sup> After burying Jacob, Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had accompanied him to his father's burial.<sup>15</sup> But now that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers became fearful. "Now Joseph will show his anger and pay us back for all the wrong we did to him," they said.

<sup>16</sup> So they sent this message to Joseph: "Before your father died, he instructed us<sup>17</sup> to say to you: 'Please forgive your brothers for the great wrong they did to you—for their sin in treating you so cruelly.' So we, the servants of the God of your father, beg you to forgive our sin." When Joseph received the message, he broke down and wept.

<sup>18</sup> Then his brothers came and threw themselves down before Joseph. "Look, we are your slaves!" they said.

<sup>19</sup> But Joseph replied, "Don't be afraid of me. Am I God, that I can punish you?"

<sup>20</sup> You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people.<sup>21</sup> No, don't be afraid. I will continue to take care of you and your children." So he reassured them by speaking kindly to them.

The Death of Joseph

<sup>22</sup> So Joseph and his brothers and their families continued to live in Egypt. Joseph lived to the age of 110.<sup>23</sup> He lived to see three generations of descendants of his son Ephraim, and he lived to see the birth of the children of Manasseh's son Makir, whom he claimed as his own.

<sup>24</sup> "Soon I will die," Joseph told his brothers, "but God will surely come to help you and lead you out of this land of Egypt. He will bring you back to the land he solemnly promised to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath, and he said, "When God comes to help you and lead you back, you must take my bones with you."<sup>26</sup> So Joseph died at the age of 110. The Egyptians embalmed him, and his body was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Peter's Declaration about

Jesus

(Mk 8:27-30; Lk 9:18-20)

<sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” <sup>14</sup> And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” <sup>15</sup> He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” <sup>16</sup> Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” <sup>17</sup> And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. <sup>18</sup> And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. <sup>19</sup> I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” <sup>20</sup> Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

February 20

Exodus 1:1-2:10 (NRSV)

These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob, each with his household: <sup>2</sup> Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, <sup>3</sup> Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, <sup>4</sup> Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher. <sup>5</sup> The total number of people born to Jacob was seventy. Joseph was already in Egypt. <sup>6</sup> Then Joseph died, and all his brothers, and that whole generation. <sup>7</sup> But the Israelites were fruitful and prolific; they multiplied and grew exceedingly strong, so that the land was filled with them.

The Israelites Are Oppressed

<sup>8</sup> Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. <sup>9</sup> He said to his people, “Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we. <sup>10</sup> Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land.”

<sup>11</sup> Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labor. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh. <sup>12</sup> But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. <sup>13</sup> The Egyptians became ruthless in imposing tasks on the Israelites, <sup>14</sup> and made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and brick and in every kind of field labor. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them.

the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live. <sup>18</sup> So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this, and allowed the boys to live?" <sup>19</sup> The midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them." <sup>20</sup> So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong. <sup>21</sup> And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. <sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, "Every boy that is born to the Hebrews you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every girl live."

Birth and Youth of Moses
(Heb 11:23)

2 Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. <sup>2</sup> The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup> When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. <sup>4</sup> His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

<sup>5</sup> The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. <sup>6</sup> When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. "This must be one of the Hebrews' children," she said. <sup>7</sup> Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?" <sup>8</sup> Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Yes." So the girl went and called the child's mother. <sup>9</sup> Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed it. <sup>10</sup> When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him

Moses, “because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

Matthew 16:21-17:9 (NRSV)

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

(Mk 8:31–33; Lk 9:21–22)

<sup>21</sup> From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. <sup>22</sup> And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.” <sup>23</sup> But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

The Cross and Self-Denial

(Mk 8:34–9:1; Lk 9:23–27)

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus told his disciples, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.” <sup>25</sup> For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. <sup>26</sup> For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?

<sup>27</sup> “For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. <sup>28</sup> Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 17:1–20:34 (NRSV)

The Transfiguration

(Mk 9:2–13; Lk 9:28–36;

2 Pet 1:16–18)

17 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. <sup>2</sup> And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. <sup>3</sup> Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. <sup>4</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!”

<sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.

<sup>7</sup> But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.”<sup>8</sup> And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

Psalm 22:1-18 (NRSV)

Plea for Deliverance from Suffering and Hostility

To the leader: according to The Deer of the Dawn. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

Why are you so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning?

<sup>2</sup> O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer;

and by night, but find no rest.

<sup>3</sup> Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> In you our ancestors trusted; they trusted, and you delivered them.

<sup>5</sup> To you they cried, and were saved; in you they trusted, and were not put to shame.

<sup>6</sup> But I am a worm, and not human; scorned by others, and despised by the people.

<sup>7</sup> All who see me mock at me; they make mouths at me, they shake their heads;

<sup>8</sup> “Commit your cause to the LORD; let him deliver— let him rescue the one in whom he delights!”

<sup>9</sup> Yet it was you who took me from the womb; you kept me safe on my mother’s breast.

<sup>10</sup> On you I was cast from my birth,

and since my mother
bore me you have been my God.
11 Do not be far from me,
for trouble is near
and there is no one to help.
12 Many bulls encircle me,
strong bulls of Bashan
surround me;
13 they open wide their mouths at me,
like a ravening and
roaring lion.
14 I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are out
of joint;
my heart is like wax;
it is melted within my breast;
15 my mouth is dried up like a potsherd,
and my tongue sticks to
my jaws;
you lay me in the dust of
death.
16 For dogs are all around
me;
a company of evildoers
encircles me.
My hands and feet have
shriveled;
17 I can count all my bones.
They stare and gloat over
me;

18 they divide my clothes
among themselves,
and for my clothing they cast lots.

Proverbs 10:6-7 (NRSV)

of the righteous,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals
violence.
7 The memory of the righteous is a blessing,

Exodus 2:11-22 (NRSV)

Moses Flees to Midian
(Heb 11:24–25)

11 One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and saw their forced labor. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew,
one of his kinsfolk. 12 He looked this way and that, and seeing no one he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.<sup>13</sup> When he went out the next day, he saw two Hebrews fighting; and he said to the one who was in the wrong, “Why do you strike your fellow Hebrew?”<sup>14</sup> He answered, “Who made you a ruler and judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid and thought, “Surely the thing is known.”<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses.

But Moses fled from Pharaoh. He settled in the land of Midian, and sat down by a well.<sup>16</sup> The priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came to draw water, and filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.<sup>17</sup> But some shepherds came and drove them away. Moses got up and came to their defense and watered their flock.<sup>18</sup> When they returned to their father Reuel, he said, “How is it that you have come back so soon today?”<sup>19</sup> They said, “An Egyptian helped us against the shepherds; he even drew water for us and watered the flock.”<sup>20</sup> He said to his daughters, “Where is he? Why did you leave the man? Invite him to break bread.”<sup>21</sup> Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah in marriage.<sup>22</sup> She bore a son, and he named him Gershom; for he said, “I have been an alien residing in a foreign land.”

Matthew 17:10-21 (NRSV)

And the disciples asked him, “Why, then, do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”<sup>11</sup> He replied, “Elijah is indeed coming and will restore all things;<sup>12</sup> but I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but they did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands.”

<sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

Jesus Cures a Boy with a Demon

(Mk 9:14–29; Lk 9:37–43a)

<sup>14</sup> When they came to the crowd, a man came to him, knelt before him,<sup>15</sup> and said,

“Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly; he often falls into the fire and often into the water.”<sup>16</sup> And I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him.”<sup>17</sup> Jesus answered, “You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him here to me.”<sup>18</sup> And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was cured instantly.<sup>19</sup> Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?”<sup>20</sup> He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.”

<sup>19</sup> But you, O LORD, do not be far away!
 O my help, come quickly to my aid!
<sup>20</sup> Deliver my soul from the sword,

my life from the power of the dog!
<sup>21</sup> Save me from the mouth of the lion!
 From the horns of the wild oxen you have rescued me.
<sup>22</sup> I will tell of your name to my brothers and sisters;
 in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
<sup>23</sup> You who fear the LORD, praise him!
 All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him;
 stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!
<sup>24</sup> For he did not despise or abhor the affliction of the afflicted;
 he did not hide his face from me,
 but heard when I cried to him.

Proverbs 10:8-9 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> The wise of heart will heed commandments,
 but a babbling fool will come to ruin.
<sup>9</sup> Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever follows

perverse ways will be found out.

Exodus 2:23 – 3:22 (NRSV)

<sup>23</sup> After a long time the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned under their slavery, and cried out. Out of the slavery their cry for help rose up to God. <sup>24</sup> God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>25</sup> God looked upon the Israelites, and God took notice of them.

Moses at the Burning Bush
(Ex 6:2–7:7; 11:1–4; 12:35–36)

3 Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup> There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. <sup>3</sup> Then Moses said, “I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.” <sup>4</sup> When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” <sup>5</sup> Then he said, “Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” <sup>6</sup> He said further, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD said, “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, <sup>8</sup> and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. <sup>9</sup>The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. <sup>10</sup>So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

<sup>11</sup>But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” <sup>12</sup>He said, “I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.”

The Divine Name Revealed

<sup>13</sup>But Moses said to God, “If I come to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?” <sup>14</sup>God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” He said further, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’” <sup>15</sup>God also said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you’:

This is my name forever,
and this my title for all
generations.

<sup>16</sup>Go and assemble the elders of Israel, and say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying: I have given heed to you and to what has been done to you in Egypt. <sup>17</sup>I declare that I will bring you up out of the misery of Egypt, to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.’ <sup>18</sup>They will listen to your voice; and you and the elders of Israel shall go to the king of Egypt and say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us; let us now go a three days’ journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’ <sup>19</sup>I know, however, that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless compelled by a mighty hand.

and strike Egypt with all my wonders that I will perform in it; after that he will let you go.<sup>21</sup> I will bring this people into such favor with the Egyptians that, when you go, you will not go empty-handed;<sup>22</sup> each woman shall ask her neighbor and any woman living in the neighbor's house for jewelry of silver and of gold, and clothing, and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters; and so you shall plunder the Egyptians."

Matthew 17:22-27 (NRSV)

(Mk 9:30–32; Lk 9:43b–45)

<sup>22</sup> As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands,<sup>23</sup> and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised." And they were greatly distressed.

Jesus and the Temple Tax

<sup>24</sup> When they reached Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the temple tax?"<sup>25</sup> He said, "Yes, he does." And when he came home, Jesus spoke of it first, asking, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tribute? From their children or from others?"<sup>26</sup> When Peter said, "From others," Jesus said to him, "Then the children are free."<sup>27</sup> However, so that we do not give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook; take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a coin; take that and give it to them for you and me."

<sup>25</sup> From you comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will pay before those who fear him.

<sup>26</sup> The poor shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the LORD. May your hearts live forever!

<sup>10</sup> Whoever winks the eye causes trouble, but the one who rebukes boldly makes peace.

Exodus 4:1-26 (NRSV)

Moses' Miraculous Power

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses answered, "But suppose they do not believe me or listen to me, but say, 'The LORD did not appear to you.'" <sup>2</sup> The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A staff." <sup>3</sup> And he said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw the staff on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses drew back from it. <sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Reach out your hand, and seize it by the tail"—so he reached out his hand and grasped it, and it became a staff in his hand— <sup>5</sup> "so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

<sup>6</sup> Again, the LORD said to him, "Put your hand inside your cloak." He put his hand into his cloak; and when he took it out, his hand was leprous, as white as snow.

<sup>7</sup> Then God said, "Put your hand back into your cloak"—so he put his hand back into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored like the rest of his body— <sup>8</sup> "If they will not believe you or heed the first sign, they may believe the second sign. <sup>9</sup> If they will not believe even these two signs or heed you, you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water that you shall take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground."

<sup>10</sup> But Moses said to the LORD, "O my Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor even now that you have spoken to your servant; but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue." <sup>11</sup> Then the LORD said to him, "Who gives speech to mortals? Who makes them mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?" <sup>12</sup> Now go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you are to speak."

<sup>14</sup> Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses and he said, "What of your brother Aaron the Levite? I know that he can speak fluently; even now he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you his heart will be glad. <sup>15</sup> You shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. <sup>16</sup> He indeed shall speak for you to the people; he shall serve as a mouth for you, and you shall serve as God for him. <sup>17</sup> Take in your hand this staff, with which you shall perform the signs.”

Moses Returns to Egypt

<sup>18</sup> Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, “Please let me go back to my kindred in Egypt and see whether they are still living.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.” <sup>19</sup> The LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt; for all those who were seeking your life are dead.”

<sup>21</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders that I have put in your power; but I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup> Then you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD: Israel is my firstborn son. <sup>23</sup> I said to you, “Let my son go that he may worship me.” But you refused to let him go; now I will kill your firstborn son.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> On the way, at a place where they spent the night, the LORD met him and tried to kill him. <sup>25</sup> But Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son’s foreskin, and touched Moses’ feet with it, and said, “Truly you are a bridegroom of blood to me!” <sup>26</sup> So he let him alone. It was then she said, “A bridegroom of blood by circumcision.”

True Greatness

(Mk 9:33–37; Lk 9:46–48)

At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” <sup>2</sup> He called a child, whom he put among them, <sup>3</sup> and said, “Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. <sup>4</sup> Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>5</sup> Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me.

Temptations to Sin
(Mk 9:42–48; Lk 17:1–2)

<sup>6</sup> “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea. <sup>7</sup> Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks! Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to the one by whom the stumbling block comes!

<sup>8</sup> “If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life maimed or lame than to have two hands or two feet and to be thrown into the eternal fire. <sup>9</sup> And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into the hell of fire.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep
(Lk 15:1–7)

<sup>10</sup> “Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven. <sup>12</sup> What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray?

<sup>13</sup> And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. <sup>14</sup> So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

Psalm 22:27–31 (NRSV)

<sup>27</sup> All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD; and all the families of the nations shall worship before him.

<sup>28</sup> For dominion belongs to the LORD,

and he rules over the nations.

- <sup>29</sup> To him, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust,
and I shall live for him.
<sup>30</sup> Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord, <sup>31</sup> and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that he has done it.

- <sup>11</sup> The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
<sup>12</sup> Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all offenses.

February

Exodus 4:27 – 5:21 (NRSV)

<sup>27</sup> The LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.” So he went; and he met him at the mountain of God and kissed him. <sup>28</sup> Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which he had sent him, and all the signs with which he had charged him. <sup>29</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the Israelites. <sup>30</sup> Aaron spoke all the words that the LORD had spoken to Moses, and performed the signs in the sight of the people. <sup>31</sup> The people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had given heed to the Israelites and that he had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshiped.

Bricks without Straw

5 Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Let my people go, so that they may celebrate a festival to me in the wilderness.’ ” <sup>2</sup> But Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD, that I should heed him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and I will not let Israel go.”

<sup>3</sup> Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has revealed himself to us; let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to the LORD our God, or he will fall upon us with pestilence or sword.” <sup>4</sup> But the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their work? Get to your labors!” <sup>5</sup> Pharaoh continued, “Now they are more numerous than the people of the land and yet you want them to stop working!”

and offer sacrifice to our God.’ ” <sup>9</sup> Let heavier work be laid on them; then they will labor at it and pay no attention to deceptive words.”

<sup>10</sup> So the taskmasters and the supervisors of the people went out and said to the people, “Thus says Pharaoh, ‘I will not give you straw. <sup>11</sup> Go and get straw yourselves, wherever you can find it; but your work will not be lessened in the least.’ ” <sup>12</sup> So the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt, to gather stubble for straw. <sup>13</sup> The taskmasters were urgent, saying, “Complete your work, the same daily assignment as when you were given straw.” <sup>14</sup> And the supervisors of the Israelites, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and were asked, “Why did you not finish the required quantity of bricks yesterday and today, as you did before?”

<sup>15</sup> Then the Israelite supervisors came to Pharaoh and cried, “Why do you treat your servants like this? <sup>16</sup> No straw is given to your servants, yet they say to us, ‘Make bricks!’ Look how your servants are beaten! You are unjust to your own people.”

<sup>17</sup> He said, “You are lazy, lazy; that is why you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’” <sup>18</sup> Go now, and work; for no straw shall be given you, but you shall still deliver the same number of bricks.” <sup>19</sup> The Israelite supervisors saw that they were in trouble when they were told, “You shall not lessen your daily number of bricks.” <sup>20</sup> As they left Pharaoh, they came upon Moses and Aaron who were waiting to meet them. <sup>21</sup> They said to them, “The LORD look upon you and judge! You have brought us into bad odor with Pharaoh and his officials, and have put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Matthew 18:15-22 (NRSV)

Reproving Another Who Sins

<sup>15</sup> “If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one.

<sup>16</sup> But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. <sup>17</sup> If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. <sup>18</sup> Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

<sup>19</sup> Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. <sup>20</sup> For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.”

Forgiveness

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” <sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.”

Psalm 23:1-6 (NRSV)

The Divine Shepherd

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.

2 He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still
waters;
3 he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths
for his name's sake.

4 Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil;
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff—
they comfort me.

5 You prepare a table before
me
in the presence of my
enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

6 *Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
my whole life long.*

Proverbs 10:13-14 (NRSV)

13 On the lips of one who has understanding wisdom
is found,
but a rod is for the back
of one who lacks sense.

14 The wise lay up
knowledge,
but the babbling of a fool
brings ruin near.

Exodus 5:22 – 6:30 (NRSV)

22 Then Moses turned again to the LORD and said, “O LORD, why have you mistreated this people? Why did you ever send me? 23 Since I first came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has mistreated this people, and you have done nothing at all to deliver your people.”

Israel's Deliverance Assured
(Ex 3:1–4:17)

6 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh:
Indeed, by a mighty hand he will let them go; by a mighty hand he will drive them out of his land.”

<sup>2</sup> God also spoke to Moses and said to him: "I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup> I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name 'The LORD' I did not make myself known to them. <sup>4</sup> I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they resided as aliens. <sup>5</sup> I have also heard the groaning of the Israelites whom the Egyptians are holding as slaves, and I have remembered my covenant. <sup>6</sup> Say therefore to the Israelites, 'I am the LORD, and I will free you from the burdens of the Egyptians and deliver you from slavery to them. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment. <sup>7</sup> I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. You shall know that I am the LORD your God, who has freed you from the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup> I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; I will give it to you for a possession. I am the LORD.' "

listen to Moses, because of their broken spirit and their cruel slavery.

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>11</sup> "Go and tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his land." <sup>12</sup> But Moses spoke to the LORD, "The Israelites have not listened to me; how then shall Pharaoh listen to me, poor speaker that I am?" <sup>13</sup> Thus the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them orders regarding the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, charging them to free the Israelites from the land of Egypt.

*The Genealogy of Moses and Aaron
(Gen 46:8–27)*

<sup>14</sup> The following are the heads of their ancestral houses: the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman; these are the families of Simeon. <sup>16</sup> The following are the names of the sons of Levi according to their genealogies: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari, and the length of Levi's life was one hundred thirty-seven years.<sup>17</sup> The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, by their families.<sup>18</sup> The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, and the length of Kohath's life was one hundred thirty-three years.<sup>19</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their genealogies.

houses of the Levites by their families.

<sup>26</sup> It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, company by company."<sup>27</sup> It was they who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the Israelites out of Egypt, the same Moses and Aaron.

*Moses and Aaron
Obey God's Commands*

<sup>28</sup> On the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,<sup>29</sup> he said to him, "I am the LORD; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I am speaking to you."<sup>30</sup> But Moses said in the LORD's presence, "Since I am a poor speaker, why would Pharaoh listen to me?"

Matthew 18:23-35 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

<sup>23</sup> "For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves.<sup>24</sup> When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; <sup>25</sup> and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. <sup>26</sup> So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' <sup>27</sup> And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. <sup>28</sup> But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, 'Pay what you owe.' <sup>29</sup> Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' <sup>30</sup> But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. <sup>31</sup> When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. <sup>32</sup> Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. <sup>33</sup> Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?' <sup>34</sup> And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. <sup>35</sup> So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Exodus 7:1-25 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet.

<sup>2</sup> You shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his land. <sup>3</sup> But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and I will multiply my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt.

<sup>4</sup> When Pharaoh does not listen to you, I will lay my hand upon Egypt and bring my people the Israelites, company by company, out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment. <sup>5</sup> The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them.”

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron did so; they did just as the LORD commanded them. <sup>7</sup> Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron’s Miraculous Rod

(Ex 4:1–5)

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>9</sup> “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Perform a wonder,’ then you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh, and it will become a snake.’ ”

<sup>10</sup> So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did as the LORD had commanded; Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a snake. <sup>11</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers; and they also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same by their secret arts.

<sup>12</sup> Each one threw down his staff, and they became snakes; but Aaron’s staff swallowed up theirs. <sup>13</sup> Still Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

The First Plague: Water Turned to Blood

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is hardened; he refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup> Go to Pharaoh in the morning, as he is going out to the water; stand by at the river bank to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was turned into a snake.

<sup>16</sup>Say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you to say, “Let my people go, so that they may worship me in the wilderness.” But until now you have not listened. <sup>17</sup>Thus says the LORD, “By this you shall know that I am the LORD.” See, with the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water that is in the Nile, and it shall be turned to blood. <sup>18</sup>The fish in the river shall die, the river itself shall stink, and the Egyptians shall be unable to drink water from the Nile.’ ” <sup>19</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt—over its rivers, its canals, and its ponds, and all its pools of water—so that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout the whole land of Egypt, even in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.’ ”

the river, and all the water in the river was turned into blood, <sup>21</sup>and the fish in the river died. The river stank so that the Egyptians could not drink its water, and there was blood throughout the whole land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup>But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their secret arts; so Pharaoh’s heart remained hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said. <sup>23</sup>Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not take even this to heart. <sup>24</sup>And all the Egyptians had to dig along the Nile for water to drink, for they could not drink the water of the river.

Teaching about Divorce

(Mk 10:1–12)

When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.

<sup>3</sup>Some Pharisees came to him, and to test him they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?" <sup>4</sup> He answered, "Have you not read that the one who made them at the beginning 'made them male and female,' <sup>5</sup> and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? <sup>6</sup> So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate." <sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her?" <sup>8</sup> He said to them, "It was because you were so hard-hearted that Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. <sup>9</sup> And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for unchastity, and marries another commits adultery." <sup>10</sup> His disciples said to him, "If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry." <sup>11</sup> But he said to them, "Not everyone can accept this teaching, but only those to whom it is given. <sup>12</sup> For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by others, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let anyone accept this who can."

Exodus 8:1-32 (NRSV)

The Second Plague: Frogs

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: Let my people go, so that they may worship me. <sup>2</sup> If you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs. <sup>3</sup> The river shall swarm with frogs; they shall come up into your palace, into your bedchamber and your bed, and into the houses of your officials and of your people, and into your ovens and your kneading bowls. <sup>4</sup> The frogs shall come up on you and on your people and on all your officials.’ ” <sup>5</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, the canals, and the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’ ” <sup>6</sup> So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> But the magicians did the same by their secret arts, and brought frogs up on the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, “Pray to the LORD to take away the frogs from me and my people, and I will let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.” <sup>9</sup> Moses said to Pharaoh, “Kindly tell me when I am to pray for you and for your officials and for your people, that the frogs may be removed from you and your houses and be left only in the Nile.” <sup>10</sup> And he said, “Tomorrow.” Moses said, “As you say! So that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God, <sup>11</sup> the frogs shall leave you and your houses and your officials and your people; they shall be left only in the Nile.” <sup>12</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh; and Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs that he had brought upon Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup> And the LORD did as Moses requested: the frogs died in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields. <sup>14</sup> And they gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

<sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

The Third Plague: Gnats

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, so that it may become gnats throughout the whole land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> And they did so; Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, and gnats came on humans and animals alike; all the dust of the earth turned into gnats throughout the whole land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup> The magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, but they could not. There were gnats on both humans and animals. <sup>19</sup> And the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God!” But Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, as he goes out to the water, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: Let my people go, so that they may worship me. <sup>21</sup> For if you will not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you, your officials, and your people, and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be filled with swarms of flies; so also the land where they live. <sup>22</sup> But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people live, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, that you may know that I the LORD am in this land.

<sup>23</sup> Thus I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This sign shall appear tomorrow.’ ” <sup>24</sup> The LORD did so, and great swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh and into his officials’ houses; in all of Egypt the land was ruined because of the flies.

<sup>25</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron, and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God within the land.” <sup>26</sup> But Moses said, “It would not be right to do so; for the sacrifices that we offer to the LORD our God are offensive to the Egyptians. If we offer in the sight of the Egyptians sacrifices that are offensive to them, will they not stone us?

<sup>27</sup> We must go a three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as he commands us." <sup>28</sup> So Pharaoh said, "I will let you go to sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness, provided you do not go very far away. Pray for me." <sup>29</sup> Then Moses said, "As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his officials, and from his people; only do not let Pharaoh again deal falsely by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."

<sup>32</sup> But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and would not let the people go.

Jesus Blesses Little Children

(Mk 10:13-16; Lk 18:15-17)

<sup>13</sup> Then little children were being brought to him in order that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples spoke sternly to those who brought them; <sup>14</sup> but Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs." <sup>15</sup> And he laid his hands on them and went on his way.

The Fifth Plague: Livestock Diseased

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,
“Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, so that they may
worship me. <sup>2</sup> For if you refuse
to let them go and still hold them, <sup>3</sup> the hand of the LORD will strike with a deadly pestilence your livestock in the field: the horses, the donkeys,
the camels, the herds, and the flocks. <sup>4</sup> But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing shall die of all that belongs to the Israelites.’ ”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD set a time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.” <sup>6</sup> And on the next day the LORD did so; all the livestock of the Egyptians died, but of the livestock of the Israelites not one died. <sup>7</sup> Pharaoh inquired
and found that not one of the livestock of the Israelites was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he would not let the people go.

*The Sixth Plague: Boils
(Deut 28:27)*

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of soot from the kiln,
and let Moses throw it in the air in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup> It shall become fine dust all over the land of Egypt, and shall cause festering boils on humans and animals
throughout the whole land of Egypt.” <sup>10</sup> So they took soot
from the kiln, and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses threw it in the air, and it caused festering boils on humans and animals. <sup>11</sup> The magicians could not stand

before Moses because of the boils, for the boils afflicted the magicians as well as all the Egyptians.<sup>12</sup> But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

The Seventh Plague: Thunder and Hail

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise up early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.’<sup>14</sup> For this time I will send all my plagues upon you yourself, and upon your officials, and upon your people, so that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth.<sup>15</sup> For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth.<sup>16</sup> But this is why I have let you live: to show you my power, and to make my name resound through all the earth.<sup>17</sup> You are still exalting yourself against my people, and will not let them go.<sup>18</sup> Tomorrow at this time I will cause the heaviest hail to fall that has ever fallen in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.<sup>19</sup> Send, therefore, and have your livestock and everything that you have in the open field brought to a secure place; every human or animal that is in the open field and is not brought under shelter will die when the hail comes down upon them.’ ”<sup>20</sup> Those officials of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD hurried their slaves and livestock off to a secure place.<sup>21</sup> Those who did not regard the word of the LORD left their slaves and livestock in the open field.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven so that hail may fall on the whole land of Egypt, on humans and animals and all the plants of the field in the land of Egypt.”<sup>23</sup> Then Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire came down on the earth. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt;<sup>24</sup> there was hail with fire flashing continually in the midst of it, such heavy hail as had never fallen in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>25</sup> The hail struck down everything that was in the open field throughout all the land of Egypt, both human and animal; the hail also struck down all the plants of the field, and shattered every tree in the field. <sup>26</sup> Only in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites were, there was no hail.

<sup>27</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “This time I have sinned; the LORD is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong. <sup>28</sup> Pray to the LORD! Enough of God’s thunder and hail! I will let you go; you need stay no longer.” <sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will stretch out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD’s. <sup>30</sup> But as for you and your officials, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God.” <sup>31</sup> (Now the flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud. <sup>32</sup> But the wheat and the spelt were not ruined, for they are late in coming up.) <sup>33</sup> So Moses left Pharaoh, went out of the city, and stretched out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured down on the earth. <sup>34</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, he sinned once more and hardened his heart, he and his officials. <sup>35</sup> So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he would not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Matthew 19:16-30 (NRSV)

The Rich Young Man
(Mk 10:17-31; Lk 18:18-30)

<sup>16</sup> Then someone came to him and said, “Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?” <sup>17</sup> And he said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments.” <sup>18</sup> He said to him, “Which ones?” And Jesus said, “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; <sup>19</sup> Honor your father and mother; also, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” <sup>20</sup> The young man said to him, “I have kept all these; what do I still lack?”

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.”

<sup>22</sup> When the young man heard this word, he went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven. <sup>24</sup> Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>25</sup> When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astounded and said, “Then who can be saved?” <sup>26</sup> But Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible.”

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter said in reply, “Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?” <sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup> And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name’s sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup> But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Exodus 10:1-29 (NRSV)

The Eighth Plague: Locusts
(Joel 1:2–4)

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,
“Go to Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his officials, in order that I may show these signs of mine among them, <sup>2</sup> and that you may tell your children and grandchildren how I have made fools of the Egyptians and what signs I have done
among them—so that you may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh, and said to
him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may
worship me. <sup>4</sup> For if you refuse
to let my people go, tomorrow
I will bring locusts into your country. <sup>5</sup> They shall cover the surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the land. They shall devour the last remnant left you after the hail, and they shall devour

every tree of yours that grows in the field.<sup>6</sup> They shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your officials and of all the Egyptians—something that neither your parents nor your grandparents have seen, from the day they came on earth to this day.’ ” Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh’s officials said to him, “How long shall this fellow be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship the LORD their God; do you not yet understand that Egypt is ruined?”<sup>8</sup> So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, worship the LORD your God! But which ones are to go?”<sup>9</sup> Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old; we will go with our sons and daughters and with our flocks and herds, because we have the LORD’s festival to celebrate.”<sup>10</sup> He said to them, “The LORD indeed will be with you, if ever I let your little ones go with you! Plainly, you have some evil purpose in mind.”<sup>11</sup> No, never! Your men may go and worship the LORD, for that is what you are asking.” And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt, so that the locusts may come upon it and eat every plant in the land, all that the hail has left.”

<sup>13</sup> So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all that night; when morning came, the east wind had brought the locusts.<sup>14</sup> The locusts came upon all the land of Egypt and settled on the whole country of Egypt, such a dense swarm of locusts as had never been before, nor ever shall be again.<sup>15</sup> They covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was black; and they ate all the plants in the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left; nothing green was left, no tree, no plant in the field, in all the land of Egypt.<sup>16</sup> Pharaoh hurriedly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.”<sup>17</sup> Do forgive my sin just this once, and pray to the LORD your God that at the least he remove this deadly thing from me.”

<sup>18</sup> So he went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. <sup>19</sup> The LORD changed the wind into a very strong west wind, which lifted the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not a single locust was left in all the country of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness that can be felt.” <sup>22</sup> So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was dense darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup> People could not see one another, and for three days they could not move from where they were; but all the Israelites had light where they lived. <sup>24</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moses, and said, “Go, worship the LORD. Only your flocks and your herds shall remain behind. Even your children may go with you.”

<sup>25</sup> But Moses said, “You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings to sacrifice to the LORD our God. <sup>26</sup> Our livestock also must go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we must choose some of them for the worship of the LORD our God, and we will not know what to use to worship the LORD until we arrive there.” <sup>27</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was unwilling to let them go. <sup>28</sup> Then Pharaoh said to him, “Get away from me! Take care that you do not see my face again, for on the day you see my face you shall die.” <sup>29</sup> Moses said, “Just as you say! I will never see your face again.”

Matthew 20:1-16 (NRSV)

The Laborers in the Vineyard
“For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup> After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup> When he went out about nine o’clock, he saw

others standing idle in the marketplace;<sup>4</sup> and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went.<sup>5</sup> When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same.<sup>6</sup> And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?'<sup>7</sup> They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.'<sup>8</sup> When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.'<sup>9</sup> When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage.<sup>10</sup> Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage.<sup>11</sup> And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner,<sup>12</sup> saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.'<sup>13</sup> But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?'<sup>14</sup> Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you.<sup>15</sup> Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?'<sup>16</sup> So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Psalm 25:8–15 (NRSV)

- <sup>8</sup> Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore he instructs sinners in the way.
- <sup>9</sup> He leads the humble in what is right,
and teaches the humble his way.
- <sup>10</sup> All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness,
for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.
- <sup>11</sup> For your name's sake, O LORD,

pardon my guilt, for it is great.

<sup>12</sup> Who are they that fear the
LORD?

He will teach them the way that they should choose.

<sup>13</sup> They will abide in prosperity,
and their children shall
possess the land.

<sup>14</sup> The friendship of the LORD
is for those who fear
him,
and he makes his covenant known to
them.

<sup>15</sup> My eyes are ever toward
the LORD,
for he will pluck my feet
out of the net.

Proverbs 10:20–21 (NRSV)

<sup>20</sup> The tongue of the righteous is choice
silver;
the mind of the wicked is
of little worth.

<sup>21</sup> The lips of the righteous
feed many, but fools
die for lack of sense.

March 2

Exodus 11:1- 12:13 (NRSV)

Warning of the Final Plague

(Ex 3:21–22; 12:35–36)

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go from here; indeed, when he lets you go, he will drive you away. <sup>2</sup> Tell the people that every man is to ask his neighbor and every woman is to ask her neighbor for objects of silver and gold.” <sup>3</sup> The LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, Moses himself was a man of great importance in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s officials and in the sight of the people.

will be a loud cry throughout the whole land of Egypt, such as has never been or will ever be again.<sup>7</sup> But not a dog shall growl at any of the Israelites—not at people, not at animals—so that you may know that the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.<sup>8</sup> Then all these officials of yours shall come down to me, and bow low to me, saying, ‘Leave us, you and all the people who follow you.’ After that I will leave.” And in hot anger he left Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, in order that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”<sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh; but the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the people of Israel go out of his land.

The First Passover Instituted
(Num 9:1–14; Deut 16:1–8; Ezek 45:21–25)

12 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt:<sup>2</sup> This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you.<sup>3</sup> Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household.<sup>4</sup> If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it.<sup>5</sup> Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.<sup>6</sup> You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight.<sup>7</sup> They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.<sup>8</sup> They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.<sup>9</sup> Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs.<sup>10</sup> You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. <sup>11</sup> This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the Passover of the LORD. <sup>12</sup> For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

Matthew 20:17-28 (NRSV)
A Third Time Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection
(Mk 10:32-34; Lk 18:31-34)

<sup>17</sup> While Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and said to them on the way, <sup>18</sup> “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death; <sup>19</sup> then they will hand him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified; and on the third day he will be raised.”

The Request of the Mother of James and John
(Mk 10:35-45)

<sup>20</sup> Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favor of him. <sup>21</sup> And he said to her, “What do you want?” She said to him, “Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom.”

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus answered, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?” They said to him, “We are able.” <sup>23</sup> He said to them, “You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”

<sup>24</sup> When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers. <sup>25</sup> But Jesus called them to him and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.<sup>26</sup> It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant,<sup>27</sup> and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave;<sup>28</sup> just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

Psalms 25:16-22 (NRSV)

- <sup>16</sup> Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.
- <sup>17</sup> Relieve the troubles of my heart,
and bring me out of my distress.
- <sup>18</sup> Consider my affliction and my trouble,
and forgive all my sins.
- <sup>19</sup> Consider how many are my foes,
and with what violent hatred they hate me.
- <sup>20</sup> O guard my life, and deliver me;
do not let me be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.

- <sup>21</sup> May integrity and uprightness preserve me,
for I wait for you.
- <sup>22</sup> Redeem Israel, O God,
out of all its troubles.

Proverbs 10:22 (NRSV)

- <sup>22</sup> The blessing of the LORD makes rich,
and he adds no sorrow with it.

March 3

Exodus 12:14-39 (NRSV)

- <sup>14</sup> This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.
- <sup>15</sup> Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; on the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day shall be cut off from Israel.

<sup>16</sup> On the first day you shall hold a solemn assembly, and on the seventh day a solemn assembly; no work shall be done on those days; only what everyone must eat, that alone may be prepared by you.

<sup>17</sup> You shall observe the festival of unleavened bread, for on this very day I brought your companies out of the land of Egypt: you shall observe this day throughout your generations as a perpetual ordinance. <sup>18</sup> In the first month, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day, you shall eat unleavened bread. <sup>19</sup> For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses; for whoever eats what is leavened shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether an alien or a native of the land. <sup>20</sup> You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your settlements you shall eat unleavened bread.

blood that is in the basin, and touch the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood in the basin. None of you shall go outside the door of your house until morning. <sup>23</sup> For the LORD will pass through to strike down the Egyptians; when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over that door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you down.

<sup>24</sup> You shall observe this rite as a perpetual ordinance for you and your children. <sup>25</sup> When you come to the land that the LORD will give you, as he has promised, you shall keep this observance. <sup>26</sup> And when your children ask you, 'What do you mean by this observance?'

<sup>27</sup> you shall say, 'It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, for he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt, when he struck down the Egyptians but spared our houses.' " And the people bowed down and worshiped.

<sup>28</sup> The Israelites went and did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn
(Ex 11:1–10)

<sup>29</sup> At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of the livestock. <sup>30</sup> Pharaoh arose in the night, he and all his officials and all the Egyptians; and there was a loud cry in Egypt, for there was not a house without someone dead. <sup>31</sup> Then he summoned Moses and Aaron in the night, and said, “Rise up, go away from my people, both you and the Israelites! Go, worship the LORD, as you said. <sup>32</sup> Take your flocks and your herds, as you said, and be gone. And bring a blessing on me too!”

The Exodus: From Rameses to Succoth

<sup>33</sup> The Egyptians urged the people to hasten their departure from the land, for they said, “We shall all be dead.” <sup>34</sup> So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading

bowls wrapped up in their cloaks on their shoulders.

<sup>35</sup> The Israelites had done as Moses told them; they had asked the Egyptians for jewelry of silver and gold, and for clothing, <sup>36</sup> and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. And so they plundered the Egyptians.

<sup>37</sup> The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children. <sup>38</sup> A mixed crowd also went up with them, and livestock in great numbers, both flocks and herds. <sup>39</sup> They baked unleavened cakes of the dough that they had brought out of Egypt; it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves.

Matthew 20:29-21:11 (NRSV)

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men
(Mk 10:46–52; Lk 18:35–43)

<sup>29</sup> As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. <sup>30</sup> There were two blind men sitting by the roadside. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!”<sup>31</sup> The crowd sternly ordered them to be quiet; but they shouted even more loudly, “Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!”

<sup>34</sup> Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they regained their sight and followed him.

*Jesus’ Triumphant
Entry into Jerusalem
(Mk 11:1–10; Lk 19:28–40;
Jn 12:12–19)*

When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples,<sup>2</sup> saying to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup> If anyone says anything to you, just say this, ‘The Lord needs them.’ And he will send them immediately.”

<sup>4</sup> This took place to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,

<sup>5</sup> “Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king is coming
to you,
humble, and mounted on
a donkey,
and on a colt, the foal of
a donkey.”

<sup>6</sup> The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them;

<sup>7</sup> they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them.

<sup>8</sup> A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup> The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting,

“Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of
the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest
heaven!”

<sup>10</sup> When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, “Who is this?” <sup>11</sup> The crowds were saying, “This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Psalm 26:1-8 (NRSV)

Plea for Justice and Declaration of Righteousness
Of David.

- 1 Vindicate me, O LORD,
for I have walked in my
integrity,
and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
- 2 Prove me, O LORD, and try
me;
test my heart and mind.
- 3 For your steadfast love is before my eyes,
and I walk in faithfulness
to you.
- 4 I do not sit with the worthless,
nor do I consort with hypocrites;
- 5 I hate the company of
evildoers,
and will not sit with the
wicked.
- 6 I wash my hands in
innocence,
and go around your altar,
O LORD,
- 7 singing aloud a song of
thanksgiving,
and telling all your
wondrous deeds.
- 8 O LORD, I love the house in which you dwell,
and the place where
your glory abides.

Proverbs 10:23 (NRSV)

- <sup>23</sup> Doing wrong is like sport
to a fool,
but wise conduct is pleasure to a person of understanding.

March 4

Exodus 12:40 – 13:16 (NRSV)

- <sup>40</sup> The time that the Israelites had lived in Egypt
was four hundred thirty years.
- <sup>41</sup> At the end of four hundred thirty years, on that very day,
all the companies of the LORD
went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup> That was for the LORD
a night of vigil, to bring them out of the land of Egypt. That same night is a vigil to be kept for the LORD by all the Israelites throughout their
generations.

Directions for the Passover
(Gen 17:9–14; Ex 12:1–13)

- <sup>43</sup> The LORD said to Moses
and Aaron: This is the ordinance for the passover: no foreigner shall eat of it, <sup>44</sup> but any slave who has been purchased may eat of it after he has been circumcised; <sup>45</sup> no bound or hired servant may eat of it. <sup>46</sup> It shall be eaten in one house; you shall not take any of the animal outside the house, and you shall not break any of its bones. <sup>47</sup> The whole congregation of Israel shall celebrate it. <sup>48</sup> If an alien who resides with you wants to celebrate the passover to the LORD, all his males shall be circumcised; then he may draw near to celebrate it; he shall be regarded as a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it; <sup>49</sup> there shall be one law for the native and for the alien who resides among you.

<sup>50</sup> All the Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron. <sup>51</sup> That very day the LORD brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, company by company.

13 The LORD said to Moses:

<sup>2</sup> Consecrate to me all the firstborn; whatever is the first to open the womb among the Israelites, of human beings and animals, is mine.

The Festival of Unleavened Bread

(Ex 12:14–20)

<sup>3</sup> Moses said to the people, “Remember this day on which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, because the LORD brought you out from there by strength of hand; no leavened bread shall be eaten.

<sup>4</sup> Today, in the month of Abib, you are going out. <sup>5</sup> When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he swore to your ancestors to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall keep this observance in this month.

<sup>6</sup> Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a festival to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days; no leavened bread shall be seen in your possession, and no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory. <sup>8</sup> You shall tell your child on that day, ‘It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’<sup>9</sup> It shall serve for you as a sign on your hand and as a reminder on your forehead, so that the teaching of the LORD may be on your lips; for with a strong hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.<sup>10</sup> You shall keep this ordinance at its proper time from year to year.

*The Consecration
of the Firstborn*

<sup>11</sup> “When the LORD has brought you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and your ancestors, and has given it to you,<sup>12</sup> you shall set apart to the LORD all that first opens the womb. All the firstborn of your livestock that are males shall be the LORD’s.<sup>13</sup> But every firstborn donkey you shall redeem with a sheep; if you do not redeem it, you must break its neck. Every firstborn male among your children you shall redeem.<sup>14</sup> When in the future your child asks you, ‘What does this mean?’ you shall answer, ‘By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery.’<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from human firstborn to the firstborn of animals. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD every male that first opens the womb, but every firstborn of my sons I redeem.’<sup>16</sup> It shall serve as a sign on your hand and as an emblem on your forehead that by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

Matthew 21:12-22 (NRSV)

Jesus Cleanses the Temple
Jn 2:13–25)

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus entered the temple and drove out all who were selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves.<sup>13</sup> He said to them, “It is written,

‘My house shall be called a house of prayer’;
but you are making it a den of robbers.”

<sup>14</sup> The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he cured them.<sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the amazing things that he did, and heard the children crying out in the temple, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they became angry<sup>16</sup> and said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?” Jesus said to them, “Yes; have you never read,

‘Out of the mouths of infants and nursing babies you have prepared praise for yourself?’”

<sup>17</sup> He left them, went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree
(Mk 11:12–14, 20–25)

<sup>18</sup> In the morning, when he returned to the city, he was hungry. <sup>19</sup> And seeing a fig tree by the side of the road, he went to it and found nothing at all on it but leaves. Then he said to it, “May no fruit ever come from you again!” And the fig tree withered at once. <sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw it, they were amazed, saying, “How did the fig tree wither at once?” <sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ it will be done. <sup>22</sup> Whatever you ask for in prayer with faith, you will receive.”

<sup>9</sup> Do not sweep me away with sinners,
nor my life with the bloodthirsty, <sup>10</sup> those in whose hands are evil devices,
and whose right hands are full of bribes.
<sup>11</sup> But as for me, I walk in my integrity;
redeem me, and be gracious to me.
<sup>12</sup> My foot stands on level ground;
in the great congregation
I will bless the LORD.

Proverbs 10:24–25 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> What the wicked dread will come upon them,
but the desire of the righteous will be granted.
<sup>25</sup> When the tempest passes, the wicked are no more,
but the righteous are established forever.

March 5

Exodus 13:17 – 14:31 (NRSV)

The Pillars of Cloud and Fire

(Ex 40:34–38; Num 9:15–23;

1 Kings 8:10–11)

<sup>17</sup> When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was nearer; for God thought, “If the people face war, they may change their minds and return to Egypt.” <sup>18</sup> So God led the people by the roundabout way of the wilderness toward the Red Sea. The Israelites went up out of the land of Egypt prepared for battle. <sup>19</sup> And Moses took with him the bones of Joseph who had required a solemn oath of the Israelites, saying, “God will surely take notice of you, and then you must carry my bones with you from here.” <sup>20</sup> They set out from Succoth, and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup> The LORD went in front of them in a pillar of cloud by day, to lead them along the way, and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light, so that they might travel by day and by night.

Crossing the Red Sea

14 Then the LORD said to Moses: <sup>2</sup> Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baalzephon; you shall camp opposite it, by the sea.

<sup>3</sup> Pharaoh will say of the Israelites, ‘They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has closed in on them.’ <sup>4</sup> I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will pursue them, so that I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army; and the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

<sup>5</sup> When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the minds of Pharaoh and his officials were changed toward the people, and they said, “What have we done, letting Israel leave our service?” <sup>6</sup> So he had his chariot made ready, and took his army with him; <sup>7</sup> he took six hundred picked chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them. <sup>8</sup> The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt and he pursued the Israelites, who were going out boldly.

<sup>10</sup> As Pharaoh drew near, the Israelites looked back, and there were the Egyptians advancing on them. In great fear the Israelites cried out to the LORD. <sup>11</sup> They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us, bringing us out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup> Is this not the very thing we told you in Egypt, 'Let us alone and let us serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness." <sup>13</sup> But Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, stand firm, and see the deliverance that the LORD will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you see today you shall never see again. <sup>14</sup> The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to keep still."

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. <sup>16</sup> But you lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the Israelites may go into the sea on dry ground.

<sup>17</sup> Then I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and so I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots, and his chariot drivers. <sup>18</sup> And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gained glory for myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his chariot drivers."

<sup>19</sup> The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. <sup>20</sup> It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided.

<sup>23</sup> The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers.

<sup>24</sup> At the morning watch the LORD in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. <sup>25</sup> He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against Egypt."

The Pursuers Drowned

<sup>26</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers." <sup>27</sup> So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the LORD tossed the Egyptians into the sea. <sup>28</sup> The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. <sup>29</sup> But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.

<sup>30</sup> Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. <sup>31</sup> Israel saw the great work that the LORD did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the LORD and believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

Matthew 21:23-32 (NRSV)

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

(Mk 11:27-33; Lk 20:1-8)

<sup>23</sup> When he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?"

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>25</sup> Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'" <sup>26</sup> But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet."

<sup>27</sup> So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

<sup>28</sup> "What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.'

<sup>29</sup> He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went. <sup>30</sup> The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir'; but he did not go. <sup>31</sup> Which of the two did the will of his father?"

They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you.

<sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.

Exodus 15:1-18 (NRSV)

The Song of Moses

(Ex 14:13–14; Ps 78:12–14)

“I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is my strength and my might, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

<sup>6</sup> Your right hand, O LORD, glorious in power—

your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy.

<sup>7</sup> In the greatness of your majesty you overthrew your adversaries; you sent out your fury, it consumed them like stubble.

<sup>8</sup> At the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up, the floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup> The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil, my desire shall have its fill of them. I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.’

<sup>10</sup> You blew with your wind, the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>11</sup> “Who is like you, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, doing wonders?

<sup>12</sup> You stretched out your right hand,

the earth swallowed
them.
13 “In your steadfast love you led the people whom you redeemed;
you guided them by your strength to your holy
abode.
14 The peoples heard, they trembled;
pangs seized the inhabitants of Philistia.
15 Then the chiefs of Edom
were dismayed;
trembling seized the leaders of Moab;
all the inhabitants of Canaan melted away.
16 Terror and dread fell upon
them;
by the might of your arm, they became still
as a stone
until your people, O LORD,
passed by,
until the people whom
you acquired passed
by.
17 You brought them in and planted them on the mountain of your own
possession,
the place, O LORD, that
you made your abode,

the sanctuary, O LORD,
that your hands have
established.

18 The LORD will reign forever
and ever.”

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

(Mk 12:1-12; Lk 20:9-19)

33 “Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. 34 When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. 35 But the tenants seized his slaves
and beat one, killed another,
and stoned another. 36 Again
he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated
them in the same way.
37 Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ 38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.’ 39 So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

<sup>40</sup> Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" <sup>41</sup> They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures:

'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'?

<sup>43</sup> Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. <sup>44</sup> The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls."

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them.

<sup>46</sup> They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Psalm 27:2-3 (NRSV)

<sup>2</sup> When evildoers assail me to devour my flesh— my adversaries and foes— they shall stumble and fall.

Exodus 15:19 – 16:18 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> When the horses of Pharaoh with his chariots and his chariot drivers went into the sea, the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them; but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.

The Song of Miriam (Num 26:59)

“Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously;
horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.”

Bitter Water Made Sweet

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses ordered Israel to set out from the Red Sea, and they went into the wilderness of Shur. They went three days in the wilderness and found no water. <sup>23</sup> When they came to Marah, they could not drink the water of Marah because it was bitter. That is why it was called Marah. <sup>24</sup> And the people complained against Moses, saying, “What shall we drink?” <sup>25</sup> He cried out to the LORD; and the LORD showed him a piece of wood; he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet.

There the LORD made for them a statute and an ordinance and there he put them to the test. <sup>26</sup> He said, “If you will listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in his sight, and give heed to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will not bring upon you any of the diseases that I brought upon the Egyptians; for I am the LORD who heals you.”

<sup>27</sup> Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; and they camped there by the water.

Bread from Heaven

16 The whole congregation of the Israelites set out from Elim; and Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had departed from the land of Egypt.<sup>2</sup> The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.<sup>3</sup> The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not.”<sup>5</sup> On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.”<sup>6</sup> So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt,<sup>7</sup> and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaining against the LORD. For what are we, that you complain against us?”<sup>8</sup> And Moses said, “When the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the LORD has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, ‘Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.’”

<sup>10</sup> And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.<sup>11</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and said,<sup>12</sup> “I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’ ”

<sup>13</sup> In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. <sup>14</sup> When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground.

<sup>15</sup> When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Gather as much of it as each of you needs, an omer to a person according to the number of persons, all providing for those in their own tents.’ ” <sup>17</sup> The Israelites did so, some gathering more, some less. <sup>18</sup> But when they measured it with an omer, those who gathered much had nothing over, and those who gathered little had no shortage; they gathered as much as each of them needed.

Matthew 22:1-22 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet
(Lk 14:15–24)

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying:

<sup>2</sup> “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. <sup>3</sup> He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. <sup>4</sup> Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.’ <sup>5</sup> But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, <sup>6</sup> while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. <sup>7</sup> The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. <sup>8</sup> Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. <sup>9</sup> Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’ <sup>10</sup> Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup> “But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe,<sup>12</sup> and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless.<sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’<sup>14</sup> For many are called, but few are chosen.”

The Question about Paying Taxes

(Mk 12:13–17; Lk 20:20–26)

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went and plotted to entrap him in what he said.<sup>16</sup> So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality.<sup>17</sup> Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?”<sup>18</sup> But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites?

<sup>19</sup> Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius.<sup>20</sup> Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?”<sup>21</sup> They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”<sup>22</sup> When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Psalm 27:4-6 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> One thing I asked of the LORD,
that will I seek after:
to live in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the LORD,
and to inquire in his temple.

<sup>5</sup> For he will hide me in his shelter
in the day of trouble;
he will conceal me under the cover of his tent;

he will set me high on a rock.

<sup>6</sup> Now my head is lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.

Proverbs 10:29–30 (NRSV)

<sup>29</sup> The way of the LORD is a stronghold for the upright, but destruction for evildoers.

<sup>30</sup> The righteous will never be removed, but the wicked will not remain in the land.

March 8

Exodus 16:19 – 17:16 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> And Moses said to them, “Let no one leave any of it over until morning.” <sup>20</sup> But they did not listen to Moses;

some left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and became foul. And Moses was angry with them.

<sup>21</sup> Morning by morning they gathered it, as much as each needed; but when the sun grew hot, it melted.

<sup>22</sup> On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, two omers apiece. When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses, <sup>23</sup> he said to them, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Tomorrow is a day of solemn rest, a holy sabbath to the LORD; bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil, and all that is left over put aside to be kept until morning.’ ” <sup>24</sup> So they put it aside until morning, as Moses commanded them; and it did not become foul, and there were no worms in it. <sup>25</sup> Moses said, “Eat it today, for today is a sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.

<sup>26</sup> Six days you shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is a sabbath, there will be none.”

<sup>27</sup> On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, and they found none. <sup>28</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and instructions? <sup>29</sup> See! The LORD has given you the sabbath, therefore on the sixth day he gives you food for two days; each of you stay where you are; do not leave your place on the seventh day.” <sup>30</sup> So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup> The house of Israel called it manna; it was like coriander seed, white, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. <sup>32</sup> Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Let an <sup>g</sup>omer of it be kept throughout your generations, in order that they may see the food with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’ ” <sup>33</sup> And Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar, and put an omer of manna in it, and place it before the LORD, to be kept throughout your generations.” <sup>34</sup> As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the covenant, for safekeeping. <sup>35</sup> The Israelites ate manna forty years, until they came to a habitable land; they ate manna, until they came to the border of the land of Canaan. <sup>36</sup> An omer is a tenth of an ephah.

Water from the Rock
(Num 20:1–13)

17 From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup> The people quarreled with Moses, and said, “Give us water to drink.” Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?” <sup>3</sup> But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?”<sup>4</sup> So Moses cried out to the LORD, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.”<sup>5</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.”<sup>6</sup> I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.” Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel.<sup>7</sup> He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

Amalek Attacks Israel and Is Defeated

(Gen 14:7; Num 13:29; 14:25)

<sup>8</sup> Then Amalek came and fought with Israel at Rephidim.<sup>9</sup> Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some men for us and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.”<sup>10</sup> So Joshua did as Moses told him, and fought with Amalek, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.<sup>11</sup> Whenever Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed; and whenever he lowered his hand, Amalek prevailed.<sup>12</sup> But Moses’ hands grew weary; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; so his hands were steady until the sun set.<sup>13</sup> And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the sword.

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this as a reminder in a book and recite it in the hearing of Joshua: I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.”<sup>15</sup> And Moses built an altar and called it, The LORD is my banner.<sup>16</sup> He said, “A hand upon the banner of the LORD! The LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

Matthew 22:23-33 (NRSV)

*The Question about
the Resurrection*

<sup>23</sup> The same day some Sadducees came to him, saying there is no resurrection;

and they asked him a question, saying, <sup>24</sup> “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If a man dies childless, his brother shall marry the widow, and raise up children for his brother.’

<sup>25</sup> Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married, and died childless, leaving the widow to his brother. <sup>26</sup> The second did the same, so also the third, down to the seventh. <sup>27</sup> Last of all, the woman herself died. <sup>28</sup> In the resurrection, then, whose wife of the seven will she be? For all of them had married her.”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, “You are wrong, because you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God. <sup>30</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. <sup>31</sup> And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God, <sup>32</sup> ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is God not of the dead, but of the living.” <sup>33</sup> And when the crowd heard it, they were astounded at his teaching.

Psalm 27:7-10 (NRSV)

you who have been my help.
Do not cast me off, do not forsake me,

Exodus 18:1-12 (NRSV)

Jethro's Advice

(Deut 1:9-18)

<sup>1</sup> Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

<sup>3</sup> along with her two sons. The name of the one was Gershom (for he said, "I have been an alien in a foreign land"), <sup>4</sup> and the name of the other, Eliezer (for he said, "The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh"). <sup>5</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came into the wilderness where Moses was encamped at the mountain of God, bringing Moses' sons and wife to him. <sup>6</sup> He sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, with your wife and her two sons." <sup>7</sup> Moses went out to meet his father-in-law; he bowed down and kissed him; each asked after the other's welfare, and they went into the tent. <sup>8</sup> Then Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had beset them on the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

<sup>9</sup> Jethro rejoiced for all the good that the LORD had done to Israel, in delivering them from the Egyptians.

<sup>10</sup> Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you from the Egyptians and from Pharaoh. <sup>11</sup> Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, because he delivered the people from the Egyptians, when they dealt arrogantly with them." <sup>12</sup> And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God; and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God.

Matthew 22:34-46 (NRSV)

The Greatest Commandment

(Mk 12:28-34; Lk 10:25-28)

<sup>34</sup> When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, <sup>35</sup> and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. <sup>36</sup> “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” <sup>37</sup> He said to him, “ You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ <sup>38</sup> This is the greatest and first commandment. <sup>39</sup> And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ <sup>40</sup> On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

The Question about David’s Son

(Mk 12:35–37; Lk 20:41–44)

<sup>41</sup> Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: <sup>42</sup> “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.” <sup>43</sup> He said to them, “How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, <sup>44</sup> ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet”’ ?” <sup>45</sup> If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?” <sup>46</sup> No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

<sup>11</sup> Teach me your way, O LORD,
and lead me on a level path
because of my enemies.
<sup>12</sup> Do not give me up to the will of my adversaries,
for false witnesses have risen against me,
and they are breathing out violence.
<sup>13</sup> I believe that I shall see the goodness of the LORD
in the land of the living.
<sup>14</sup> Wait for the LORD;
be strong, and let your heart take courage;
wait for the LORD!

<sup>1</sup> A false balance is an abomination to the LORD,
but an accurate weight is his delight.
<sup>2</sup> When pride comes, then comes disgrace;
but wisdom is with the humble.

<sup>3</sup> The integrity of the upright guides them,
but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

March 10

Exodus 18:13 – 19:15 (NRSV)

<sup>13</sup> The next day Moses sat as judge for the people, while the people stood around him from morning until evening. <sup>14</sup> When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone, while all the people stand around you from morning until evening?" <sup>15</sup> Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup> When they have a dispute, they come to me and I decide between one person and another, and I make known to them the statutes and instructions of God."

<sup>17</sup> Moses' father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good. <sup>18</sup> You will surely wear yourself out, both you and these people with you. For the task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone. <sup>19</sup> Now listen to me. I will give you counsel, and God be with you! You should represent the people before God, and you should bring their cases before God; <sup>20</sup> teach them the statutes and instructions and make known to them the way they are to go and the things they are to do. <sup>21</sup> You should also look for able men among all the people, men who fear God, are trustworthy, and hate dishonest gain; set such men over them as officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. <sup>22</sup> Let them sit as judges for the people at all times; let them bring every important case to you, but decide every minor case themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you. <sup>23</sup> If you do this, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people will go to their home in peace.”

<sup>24</sup> So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did all that he had said. <sup>25</sup> Moses chose able men from all Israel and appointed them as heads over the people, as officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. <sup>26</sup> And they judged the people at all times; hard cases they brought to Moses, but any minor case they decided themselves. <sup>27</sup> Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went off to his own country.

The Israelites Reach Mount Sinai

19 On the third new moon after the Israelites had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day, they came into the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup> They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. <sup>3</sup> Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites:

<sup>4</sup> You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. <sup>5</sup> Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, <sup>6</sup> but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.”

<sup>7</sup> So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. <sup>8</sup> The people all answered as one: “Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do.” Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, in order that the people may hear when I speak with you and so trust you ever after.”

The People Consecrated

When Moses had told the words of the people to the LORD, <sup>10</sup> the LORD said to Moses: “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Have them wash their clothes<sup>11</sup> and prepare for the third day, because on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.”<sup>12</sup> You shall set limits for the people all around, saying, ‘Be careful not to go up the mountain or to touch the edge of it. Any who touch the mountain shall be put to death.’<sup>13</sup> No hand shall touch them, but they shall be stoned or shot with arrows; whether animal or human being, they shall not live.’ When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they may go up on the mountain.”<sup>14</sup> So Moses went down from the mountain to the people. He consecrated the people, and they washed their clothes.<sup>15</sup> And he said to the people, “Prepare for the third day; do not go near a woman.”

Matthew 23:1-12 (NRSV)

Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> To you, O LORD, I call;
my rock, do not refuse to hear me,
for if you are silent to me,
I shall be like those who go down to the Pit.
- <sup>2</sup> Hear the voice of my supplication,
as I cry to you for help,
as I lift up my hands toward your most holy sanctuary.
- <sup>3</sup> Do not drag me away with the wicked,
with those who are workers of evil,
who speak peace with their neighbors,
while mischief is in their hearts.
- <sup>4</sup> Repay them according to their work,

repay them according to the work of their hands;

March 11

Exodus 19:16 – 20:26 (NRSV)

<sup>16</sup> On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, as well as a thick cloud on the mountain, and a blast of a trumpet so loud that all the people who were in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup> Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God. They took their stand at the foot of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> Now Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke, because the LORD had descended upon it in fire; the smoke went up like the smoke of a kiln, while the whole mountain shook violently. <sup>19</sup> As the blast of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses would speak and God would answer him in thunder.

<sup>20</sup> When the LORD descended upon Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, the LORD summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. <sup>21</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people not to break through to the LORD to look; otherwise many of them will perish. <sup>22</sup> Even the priests who approach the LORD must consecrate themselves or the LORD will break out against them." <sup>23</sup> Moses said to the LORD, "The people are not permitted to come up to Mount Sinai; for you yourself warned us, saying, 'Set limits around the mountain and keep it holy.'" <sup>24</sup> The LORD said to him, "Go down, and come up bringing Aaron with you; but do not let either the priests or the people break through to come up to the LORD; otherwise he will break out against them." <sup>25</sup> So Moses went down to the people and told them.

The Ten Commandments
(Deut 5:1–22)

20 Then God spoke all these words: <sup>2</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; <sup>3</sup> you shall have no other gods before me.

<sup>4</sup> You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

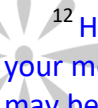

<sup>5</sup> You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, <sup>6</sup> but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>7</sup> You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

<sup>8</sup> Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. <sup>9</sup> Six days you shall labor and do all your work. <sup>10</sup> But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns.

<sup>11</sup> For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

<sup>12</sup> Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>17</sup> You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

<sup>18</sup> When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance, <sup>19</sup> and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die."

<sup>20</sup> Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid; for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin." <sup>21</sup> Then the people stood at a distance, while Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

The Law concerning the Altar

<sup>22</sup> The LORD said to Moses: Thus you shall say to the Israelites: "You have seen for yourselves that I spoke with you from heaven. <sup>23</sup> You shall not make gods of silver alongside me, nor shall you make for yourselves gods of gold. <sup>24</sup> You need make for me only an altar of earth and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your offerings of well-being, your sheep and your oxen; in every place where I cause my name to be remembered I will come to you and bless you.<sup>25</sup> But if you make for me an altar of stone, do not build it of hewn stones; for if you use a chisel upon it you profane it.<sup>26</sup> You shall not go up by steps to my altar, so that your nakedness may not be exposed on it.”

Matthew 23:13-26 (NRSV)

<sup>13</sup> “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. For you do not go in yourselves, and when others are going in, you stop them.<sup>15</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cross sea and land to make a single convert, and you make the new convert twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.

<sup>16</sup> “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears by the sanctuary is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the sanctuary is bound by the oath.’<sup>17</sup> You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the sanctuary that has made the gold sacred?<sup>18</sup> And you say, ‘Whoever swears by the altar is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is on the altar is bound by the oath.’<sup>19</sup> How blind you are! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred?<sup>20</sup> So whoever swears by the altar, swears by it and by everything on it;<sup>21</sup> and whoever swears by the sanctuary, swears by it and by the one who dwells in it;<sup>22</sup> and whoever swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by the one who is seated upon it.

<sup>23</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. It is these you ought to have practiced without neglecting the others.<sup>24</sup> You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel!

<sup>25</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.<sup>26</sup> You blind

Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may become clean.

Psalms 28:6-9 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD,
for he has heard the sound of my pleadings.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD is my strength
and my shield;
in him my heart trusts;
so I am helped, and my heart exults,
and with my song I give thanks to him.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD is the strength of his people;
he is the saving refuge of
his anointed.
<sup>9</sup> O save your people, and bless your heritage;
be their shepherd, and
carry them forever.

Proverbs 11:5-6 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> The righteousness of the blameless keeps their ways straight,
but the wicked fall by
their own wickedness.
<sup>6</sup> The righteousness of the upright saves them,
but the treacherous are taken captive by their schemes.

Exodus 21:1-21 (NRSV)

The Law concerning Slaves (Deut 15:12-18)

<sup>1</sup> These are the ordinances
that you shall set before them:
<sup>2</sup> When you buy a male Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years, but in the seventh he shall go out a free person, without debt. <sup>3</sup> If he comes in single, he shall go out single; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him. <sup>4</sup> If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's and he shall go out alone. <sup>5</sup> But if the slave declares, "I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out a free person," <sup>6</sup> then his master shall bring him before God. He shall be brought to the door or the doorpost; and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him for life.
<sup>7</sup> When a man sells his daughter as a slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves

do. <sup>8</sup> If she does not please her master, who designated her for himself, then he shall let her be redeemed; he shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt unfairly with her. <sup>9</sup> If he designates her for his son, he shall deal with her as with a daughter. <sup>10</sup> If he takes another wife to himself, he shall not diminish the food, clothing, or marital rights of the first wife. <sup>11</sup> And if he does not do these three things for her, she shall go out without debt, without payment of money.

The Law concerning Violence

<sup>12</sup> Whoever strikes a person mortally shall be put to death. <sup>13</sup> If it was not premeditated, but came about by an act of God, then I will appoint for you a place to which the killer may flee. <sup>14</sup> But if someone willfully attacks and kills another by treachery, you shall take the killer from my altar for execution.

<sup>16</sup> Whoever kidnaps a person, whether that person has been sold or is still held in possession, shall be put to death.

<sup>18</sup> When individuals quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or fist so that the injured party, though not dead, is confined to bed, <sup>19</sup> but recovers and walks around outside with the help of a staff, then the assailant shall be free of liability, except to pay for the loss of time, and to arrange for full recovery.

<sup>20</sup> When a slave owner strikes a male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies immediately, the owner shall be punished. <sup>21</sup> But if the slave survives a day or two, there is no punishment; for the slave is the owner's property.

<sup>27</sup> "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside look beautiful, but inside they are full of the bones of the dead and of all kinds of filth. <sup>28</sup> So you also on the outside look righteous to others, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous, <sup>30</sup> and you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup> Thus you testify against yourselves that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup> Fill up, then, the measure of your ancestors.

<sup>33</sup> You snakes, you brood of vipers! How can you escape being sentenced to hell?

<sup>34</sup> Therefore I send you prophets, sages, and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town, <sup>35</sup> so that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.

<sup>36</sup> Truly I tell you, all this will come upon this generation.

The Lament over Jerusalem

(Lk 13:34–35)

Psalm 29:1-2 (NRSV)

The Voice of God in a Great Storm

A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- <sup>2</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name; worship the LORD in holy splendor.

Proverbs 11:7 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> When the wicked die, their hope perishes, and the expectation of the godless comes to nothing.

March 13

Exodus 21:22 – 22:13 (NRSV)

<sup>22</sup> When people who are fighting injure a pregnant woman so that there is a miscarriage, and yet no further harm follows, the one responsible shall be fined what the woman's husband demands, paying as much as the judges determine. <sup>23</sup> If any harm follows, then you shall give life for life, <sup>24</sup> eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>25</sup> burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

<sup>26</sup> When a slaveowner strikes the eye of a male or female slave, destroying it, the owner shall let the slave go, a free person, to compensate for the eye. <sup>27</sup> If the owner knocks out a tooth of a male or female slave, the slave shall be let go, a free person, to compensate for the tooth.

Laws concerning Property

<sup>28</sup> When an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox shall be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall not be liable. <sup>29</sup> If the ox has been accustomed to gore in the past, and its owner has been warned but has not restrained it, and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death. <sup>30</sup> If a ransom is imposed on the owner, then the owner shall pay whatever is imposed for the redemption of the victim's life. <sup>31</sup> If it gores a boy or a girl, the owner shall be dealt with according to this same rule. <sup>32</sup> If the ox gores a male or female slave, the owner shall pay to the slaveowner thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

<sup>33</sup> If someone leaves a pit open, or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it, <sup>34</sup> the owner of the pit shall make restitution, giving money to its owner, but keeping the dead animal.

<sup>35</sup> If someone's ox hurts the ox of another, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the price of it; and the dead animal they shall also divide. <sup>36</sup> But if it was known that the ox was accustomed to gore in the past, and its owner has not restrained it, the owner shall restore ox for ox, but keep the dead animal.

Laws of Restitution

22 When someone steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, the thief shall pay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. The thief shall make restitution, but if unable to do so, shall be sold for the theft.

<sup>2</sup> If a thief is found breaking in, and is beaten to death, no bloodguilt is incurred; <sup>3</sup> but if it happens after sunrise, bloodguilt is incurred. <sup>4</sup> When the animal, whether ox or donkey or sheep, is found alive in the thief's possession, the thief shall pay double.

<sup>5</sup> When someone causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over, or lets livestock loose to graze in someone else's field, restitution shall be made from the best in the owner's field or vineyard.

<sup>6</sup> When fire breaks out and catches in thorns so that the stacked grain or the standing grain or the field is consumed, the one who started the fire shall make full restitution.

<sup>7</sup> When someone delivers to a neighbor money or goods for safekeeping, and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, then the thief, if caught, shall pay double. <sup>8</sup> If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house shall be brought before God, to determine whether or not the owner had laid hands on the neighbor's goods.

<sup>9</sup> In any case of disputed ownership involving ox, donkey, sheep, clothing, or any other loss, of which one party says, "This is mine," the case of both parties shall come before God; the one whom

God condemns shall pay double to the other.

<sup>10</sup>When someone delivers to another a donkey, ox, sheep, or any other animal for safekeeping, and it dies or is injured or is carried off, without anyone seeing it, <sup>11</sup>an oath before the LORD shall decide between the two of them that the one has not laid hands on the property of the other; the owner shall accept the oath, and no restitution shall be made. <sup>12</sup>But if it was stolen, restitution shall be made to its owner. <sup>13</sup>If it was mangled by beasts, let it be brought as evidence; restitution shall not be made for the mangled remains.

Matthew 24:1-14 (NRSV)

The Destruction of the Temple Foretold
(Mk 13:1-2; Lk 21:5-6)

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus came out of the temple and was going away, his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup>Then he asked them, “You see all these, do you not? Truly I tell you, not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

Signs of the End of the Age

(Mk 13:3-8; Lk 21:7-11)

<sup>3</sup>When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. <sup>5</sup>For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah!’ and they will lead many astray. <sup>6</sup>And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not alarmed; for this must take place, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places: <sup>8</sup>all this is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Persecutions Foretold

(Mk 13:9-13; Lk 21:12-19)

<sup>9</sup>“Then they will hand you over to be tortured and will put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of my name. <sup>10</sup>Then many will fall away, and they will betray one another and hate one another. <sup>11</sup> And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. <sup>12</sup> And because of the increase of lawlessness, the love of many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup> But the one who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>14</sup> And this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the world, as a testimony to all the nations; and then the end will come.

Psalms 29:3-11 (NRSV)

- <sup>3</sup> The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
the God of glory thunders,
the LORD, over mighty waters.
- <sup>4</sup> The voice of the LORD is powerful;
the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
- <sup>5</sup> The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon.
- <sup>6</sup> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
and Sirion like a young wild ox.

- <sup>7</sup> The voice of the LORD flashes forth flames of fire.
- <sup>8</sup> The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- <sup>9</sup> The voice of the LORD causes the oaks to whirl,
and strips the forest bare;
and in his temple all say,
“Glory!”
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD sits enthroned over the flood;
the LORD sits enthroned as king forever.
- <sup>11</sup> May the LORD give strength to his people!
May the LORD bless his people with peace!

Proverbs 11:8 (NRSV)

- <sup>8</sup> The righteous are delivered from trouble,
and the wicked get into it instead.

March 14

Exodus 22:14 – 23:13 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> When someone borrows an animal from another and it is injured or dies, the owner not being present, full restitution shall be made. <sup>15</sup> If the owner was present, there shall be no restitution; if it was hired, only the hiring fee is due.

Social and Religious Laws

<sup>16</sup> When a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married, and lies with her, he shall give the bride-price for her and make her his wife. <sup>17</sup> But if her father refuses to give her to him, he shall pay an amount equal to the bride-price for virgins.

<sup>21</sup> You shall not wrong or oppress a resident alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup> You shall not abuse any widow or orphan. <sup>23</sup> If you do abuse them, when they cry out to me, I will surely heed their cry; <sup>24</sup> my wrath will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children orphans.

<sup>25</sup> If you lend money to my people, to the poor among you, you shall not deal with them as a creditor; you shall not exact interest from them.

<sup>26</sup> If you take your neighbor's cloak in pawn, you shall restore it before the sun goes down; <sup>27</sup> for it may be your neighbor's only clothing to use as cover; in what else shall that person sleep? And if your neighbor cries out to me, I will listen, for I am compassionate.

<sup>29</sup> You shall not delay to make offerings from the fullness of your harvest and from the outflow of your presses.

The firstborn of your sons you shall give to me. <sup>30</sup> You shall do the same with your oxen and with your sheep: seven days it shall remain with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to me.

<sup>31</sup>You shall be people consecrated to me; therefore you shall not eat any meat that is mangled by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Justice for All

23 You shall not spread a false report. You shall not join hands with the wicked to act as a malicious witness. <sup>2</sup>You shall not follow a majority in wrongdoing; when you bear witness in a lawsuit, you shall not side with the majority so as to pervert justice; <sup>3</sup>nor shall you be partial to the poor in a lawsuit.

<sup>4</sup>When you come upon your enemy's ox or donkey going astray, you shall bring it back.

<sup>5</sup>When you see the donkey of one who hates you lying under its burden and you would hold back from setting it free, you must help to set it free.

their lawsuits. <sup>7</sup>Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent and those in the right, for I will not acquit the guilty. <sup>8</sup>You shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the officials, and subverts the cause of those who are in the right.

<sup>9</sup>You shall not oppress a resident alien; you know the heart of an alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

Sabbatical Year and Sabbath

<sup>10</sup>For six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield; <sup>11</sup>but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the wild animals may eat. You shall do the same with your vineyard, and with your olive orchard.

<sup>12</sup>Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your donkey may have relief, and your home born slave and the resident alien may be refreshed. <sup>13</sup>Be attentive to all that I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other gods; do not let them be heard on your lips.

Matthew 24:15-28 (NRSV)

The Desolating Sacrilege
21:20–24)

<sup>15</sup> “So when you see the desolating sacrilege standing in the holy place, as was spoken of by the prophet Daniel (let the reader understand), <sup>16</sup> then those in Judea must flee to the mountains; <sup>17</sup> the one on the housetop must not go down to take what is in the house; <sup>18</sup> the one in the field must not turn back to get a coat. <sup>19</sup> Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days! <sup>20</sup> Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a sabbath. <sup>21</sup> For at that time there will be great suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be. <sup>22</sup> And if those days had not been cut short, no one would be saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short. <sup>23</sup> Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look! Here is the Messiah!’ or ‘There he is!’—do not believe it.

<sup>24</sup> For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and produce great signs and omens, to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

<sup>25</sup> Take note, I have told you beforehand. <sup>26</sup> So, if they say to you, ‘Look! He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out. If they say, ‘Look! He is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it.

<sup>27</sup> For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

<sup>28</sup> Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.

Psalm 30:1-3 (NRSV)

*Thanksgiving for Recovery
from Grave Illness*

A Psalm. A Song at the dedication of the temple. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will extol you, O LORD, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me.
- <sup>2</sup> O LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.
- <sup>3</sup> O LORD, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

<sup>9</sup> With their mouths the godless would destroy
their neighbors,
but by knowledge the righteous are delivered.

<sup>10</sup> When it goes well with the righteous, the city
rejoices;
and when the wicked
perish, there is jubilation.

The Annual Festivals
(Ex 34:18–26; Deut 16:1–17)

<sup>14</sup> Three times in the year
you shall hold a festival for me. <sup>15</sup> You shall observe the festival of unleavened bread;

as I commanded you, you shall eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt.

No one shall appear before me empty-handed.

<sup>16</sup> You shall observe the festival of harvest, of the first fruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. You shall observe the festival of ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in from the field the fruit of your labor. <sup>17</sup> Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord God.

<sup>18</sup> You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with anything leavened, or let the fat of my festival remain until
the morning.

<sup>19</sup> The choicest of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God.

You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

The Conquest of Canaan Promised

<sup>20</sup> I am going to send an angel in front of you, to guard
you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared. <sup>21</sup> Be attentive to him and listen to his voice; do not rebel against him, for he will not pardon your transgression; for my name is in him.

<sup>22</sup> But if you listen attentively to his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes.

<sup>23</sup> When my angel goes in front of you, and brings you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I blot them out, <sup>24</sup> you shall not bow down to their gods, or worship them, or follow their practices, but you shall utterly demolish them and break their pillars in pieces. <sup>25</sup> You shall worship the LORD your God, and I will bless your bread and your water; and I will take sickness away from among you. <sup>26</sup> No one shall miscarry or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days. <sup>27</sup> I will send my terror in front of you, and will throw into confusion all the people against whom you shall come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. <sup>28</sup> And I will send the pestilence in front of you, which shall drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from before you.

<sup>29</sup> I will not drive them out from before you in one year, or the land would become desolate and the wild animals would multiply against you.

<sup>30</sup> Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and possess the land. <sup>31</sup> I will set your borders from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the Euphrates; for I will hand over to you the inhabitants of the land, and you shall drive them out before you. <sup>32</sup> You shall make no covenant with them and their gods. <sup>33</sup> They shall not live in your land, or they will make you sin against me; for if you worship their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.

The Blood of the Covenant

24 Then he said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship at a distance.

<sup>2</sup> Moses alone shall come near the LORD; but the others shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him.”

Matthew 24:29-36 (NRSV)

The Coming of the Son of Man

(Mk 13:24-27; Lk 21:25-28)

<sup>29</sup> “Immediately after the suffering of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven will be shaken.

<sup>30</sup> Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see ‘the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven’ with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup> And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

<sup>32</sup> “From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup> So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. <sup>34</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. <sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

The Necessity for Watchfulness

<sup>36</sup> “But about that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Psalm 30:4-12 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> Sing praises to the LORD, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

<sup>5</sup> For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

<sup>6</sup> As for me, I said in my prosperity, “I shall never be moved.”

<sup>7</sup> By your favor, O LORD,

you had established me
as a strong mountain;
you hid your face;
I was dismayed.

- 8 To you, O LORD, I cried,
and to the LORD I made
supplication:
9 “What profit is there in my
death,
if I go down to the Pit?
Will the dust praise you?
Will it tell of your faithfulness?
10 Hear, O LORD, and be
gracious to me!
O LORD, be my helper!”
11 You have turned my mourning into dancing;
you have taken off my sackcloth
and clothed me with joy, 12 so that my soul may praise
you and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you
forever.

Proverbs 11:12–13 (NRSV)

- 12 Whoever belittles another
lacks sense,
but an intelligent person
remains silent.
13 A gossip goes about telling secrets,

but one who is trustworthy in spirit
keeps a confidence.

March 16

Exodus 24:3 – 25:30 (NRSV)

<sup>3</sup> Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, “All the words that the LORD has spoken we will do.” <sup>4</sup> And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. He rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and set up twelve pillars, corresponding to the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup> He sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed oxen as offerings of well-being to the LORD. <sup>6</sup> Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he dashed against the altar.

<sup>7</sup> Then he took the book of the covenant, and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient." <sup>8</sup> Moses took the blood and dashed it on the people, and said, "See the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

On the Mountain with God

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up, <sup>10</sup> and they saw the God of Israel. Under his feet there was something like a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness. <sup>11</sup> God did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; also they beheld God, and they ate and drank.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction."

assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup> To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup> The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. <sup>17</sup> Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Offerings for the Tabernacle
(Ex 35:4–9)

25 The LORD said to Moses: <sup>2</sup> Tell the Israelites to take for me an offering; from all whose hearts prompt them to give you shall receive the offering for me. <sup>3</sup> This is the offering that you shall receive from them: gold, silver, and bronze,<sup>4</sup> blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine linen, goats' hair,<sup>5</sup> tanned rams' skins, fine leather, acacia wood,<sup>6</sup> oil for the lamps, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense,<sup>7</sup> onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and for the breastpiece.<sup>8</sup> And have them make me a sanctuary, so that I may dwell among them.<sup>9</sup> In accordance with all that I show you concerning the pattern of the tabernacle and of all its furniture, so you shall make it.

The Ark of the Covenant
(Ex 37:1–9)

<sup>10</sup>They shall make an ark of acacia wood; it shall be two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.<sup>11</sup> You shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and outside you shall overlay it, and you shall make a molding of gold upon it all around.<sup>12</sup> You shall cast four rings of gold for it and put them on its four feet, two rings on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side.<sup>13</sup> You shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay

them with gold.<sup>14</sup> And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, by which to carry the ark.<sup>15</sup> The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.<sup>16</sup> You shall put into the ark the covenant that I shall give you.

<sup>17</sup>Then you shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its width.<sup>18</sup> You shall make two cherubim of gold; you shall make them of hammered work, at the two ends of the mercy seat.<sup>19</sup> Make one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other; of one piece with the mercy seat you shall make the cherubim at its two ends.<sup>20</sup> The cherubim shall spread out their wings above, overshadowing the mercy seat with their wings. They shall face one to another; the faces of the cherubim shall be turned toward the mercy seat.<sup>21</sup> You shall put the mercy seat on the top of the ark; and in the ark you shall put the covenant that I shall give you.<sup>22</sup> There I will meet with you, and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim that are on the ark of the covenant, I will deliver to you all my commands for the Israelites.

The Table for the Bread of the Presence
(Ex 37:10–16)

Presence on the table before me always.

For as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup> For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, <sup>39</sup> and they knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away, so too will be the coming of the Son of Man.

<sup>40</sup> Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. <sup>41</sup> Two women will be grinding meal together; one will be taken and one will be left. <sup>42</sup> Keep awake therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. <sup>43</sup> But understand this: if the owner of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. <sup>44</sup> Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.

The Faithful or the Unfaithful Slave

(Lk 12:41–48)

<sup>45</sup> “Who then is the faithful and wise slave, whom his master has put in charge of his household, to give the other slaves their allowance of food at the proper time? <sup>46</sup> Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives. <sup>47</sup> Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions. <sup>48</sup> But if that wicked slave says to himself, ‘My master is delayed,’ <sup>49</sup> and he begins to beat his fellow slaves, and eats and drinks with drunkards, <sup>50</sup> the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know. <sup>51</sup> He will cut him in pieces and put him with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Psalm 31:1-2 (NRSV)

Prayer and Praise for Deliverance from Enemies

To the leader. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> In you, O LORD, I seek
refuge;
do not let me ever be put to shame;

in your righteousness
deliver me.

<sup>2</sup> Incline your ear to me;
rescue me speedily.
Be a rock of refuge for me,
a strong fortress to save
me.

Proverbs 11:14 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> Where there is no

but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

March 17

Exodus 25:31 – 26:29 (NRSV)

The Lampstand

(Ex 37:17–24)

<sup>31</sup> You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand shall be made of hammered work; its cups, its calyxes, and its petals shall be of one piece with it; <sup>32</sup> and there shall be six branches
going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it; <sup>33</sup> three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on the other branch—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand. <sup>34</sup> On the lampstand itself there shall be four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyxes and petals. <sup>35</sup> There shall be a calyx of one piece with it under the first pair of branches, a calyx of one piece with it under the next pair of branches, and a calyx of one piece with it under the last pair of branches—so for the six branches that go out of the lampstand. <sup>36</sup> Their calyxes and their branches shall be of one piece with it, the whole of it one hammered piece of pure gold. <sup>37</sup> You shall make the seven lamps for it; and the lamps shall be set up so as to give light on the space in front of it. <sup>38</sup> Its snuffers and trays shall be of pure gold. <sup>39</sup> It, and all these utensils, shall be made from a talent of pure gold. <sup>40</sup> And see that you make them according to the pattern for them, which is being shown you on the mountain.

The Tabernacle
(Ex 36:8–38)

26 Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twisted linen, and blue, purple, and crimson yarns; you shall make them with cherubim skillfully worked into them. <sup>2</sup> The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains shall be of the same size. <sup>3</sup> Five curtains shall be joined to one another; and the other five curtains shall be joined to one another. <sup>4</sup> You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set; and likewise you shall make loops on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set. <sup>5</sup> You shall make fifty loops on the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite one another.

<sup>6</sup>You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and join the curtains to one another with the clasps, so that the tabernacle may be one whole.

<sup>7</sup>You shall also make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; you shall make eleven curtains.

<sup>8</sup>The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains shall be of the same size. <sup>9</sup>You shall join five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and the sixth curtain you shall double over at the front of the tent. <sup>10</sup>You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the second set.

<sup>11</sup>You shall make fifty clasps of bronze, and put the clasps into the loops, and join the tent together, so that it may be one whole. <sup>12</sup>The part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. <sup>13</sup>The cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, of what remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and that side, to cover it. <sup>14</sup>You shall make for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

The Framework

<sup>15</sup>You shall make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle. <sup>16</sup>Ten cubits shall be the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the width of each frame. <sup>17</sup>There shall be two pegs in each frame to fit the frames together; you shall make these for all the frames of the tabernacle. <sup>18</sup>You shall make the frames for the tabernacle: twenty frames for the south side; <sup>19</sup>and you shall make forty bases of silver under the twenty frames, two bases under the first frame for its two pegs, and two bases under the next frame for its two pegs; <sup>20</sup>and for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side twenty frames, <sup>21</sup>and their forty bases of silver, two bases under the first frame, and two bases under the next frame;<sup>22</sup> and for the rear of the tabernacle westward you shall make six frames.<sup>23</sup> You shall make two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear;<sup>24</sup> they shall be separate beneath, but joined at the top, at the first ring; it shall be the same with both of them; they shall form the two corners.<sup>25</sup> And so there shall be eight frames, with their bases of silver, sixteen bases; two bases under the first frame, and two bases under the next frame.

<sup>29</sup>You shall overlay the frames with gold, and shall make their rings of gold to hold the bars; and you shall overlay the bars with gold.<sup>30</sup> Then you shall erect the tabernacle according to the plan for it that you were shown on the mountain.

Matthew 25:1-13 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Ten Bridesmaids

<sup>1</sup> “Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.<sup>2</sup> Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.<sup>3</sup> When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them;<sup>4</sup> but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps.<sup>5</sup> As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept.<sup>6</sup> But at midnight there was a shout, ‘Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.’<sup>7</sup> Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps.<sup>8</sup> The foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’<sup>9</sup> But the wise replied, ‘No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.’<sup>10</sup> And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. <sup>11</sup> Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' <sup>12</sup> But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' <sup>13</sup> Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

<sup>3</sup> You are indeed my rock and my fortress;
for your name's sake lead me and guide me, <sup>4</sup> take me out of the net that is hidden for me,
for you are my refuge.
<sup>5</sup> Into your hand I commit my spirit;
you have redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God.
<sup>6</sup> You hate those who pay regard to worthless idols,
but I trust in the LORD.
<sup>7</sup> I will exult and rejoice in your steadfast love,
because you have seen my affliction;
you have taken heed of my adversities, <sup>8</sup> and have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy;

you have set my feet in a broad place.

Proverbs 11:15 (NRSV)

<sup>15</sup> To guarantee loans for a stranger brings trouble, but there is safety in refusing to do so.

March 18

Exodus 26:30 – 27:21 (NRSV)

The Curtain

<sup>31</sup> You shall make a curtain of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen; it shall be made with cherubim skillfully worked into it. <sup>32</sup> You shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, which have hooks of gold and rest on four bases of silver. <sup>33</sup> You shall hang the curtain under the clasps, and bring the ark of the covenant in there, within the curtain; and the curtain shall separate for you the holy place from the most holy. <sup>34</sup> You shall put

the mercy seat on the ark of the covenant in the most holy place. <sup>35</sup> You shall set the table outside the curtain, and the lampstand on the south side of the tabernacle opposite the table; and you shall put the table on the north side.

<sup>36</sup> You shall make a screen for the entrance of the tent, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework. <sup>37</sup> You shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five bases of bronze for them.

The Altar of Burnt Offering
(Ex 38:1–7)

27 You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide; the altar shall be square, and it shall be three cubits high. <sup>2</sup> You shall make horns for it on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze. <sup>3</sup> You shall make pots for it to receive its ashes, and shovels and basins and forks and firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze. <sup>4</sup> You shall also make for it a grating, a network of bronze; and on the net you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners. <sup>5</sup> You shall set it under the ledge of the altar so that the net shall extend halfway down the altar. <sup>6</sup> You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze; <sup>7</sup> the poles shall be put through the rings, so that the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when it is carried. <sup>8</sup> You shall make it hollow, with boards. They shall be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

The Court and Its Hangings
(Ex 38:9–20)

<sup>9</sup> You shall make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side the court shall have hangings of fine twisted linen one hundred cubits long for that side; <sup>10</sup> its twenty pillars and their twenty bases shall be of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver. <sup>11</sup> Likewise for its length on the north side there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, their pillars twenty and their bases

twenty, of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver. <sup>12</sup> For the width of the court on the west side there shall be fifty cubits of hangings, with ten pillars and ten bases. <sup>13</sup> The width of the court on the front to the east shall be fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup> There shall be fifteen cubits of hangings on the one side, with three pillars and three bases. <sup>15</sup> There shall be fifteen cubits of hangings on the other side, with three pillars and three bases. <sup>16</sup> For the gate of the court there shall be a screen twenty cubits long, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework; it shall have four pillars and with them four bases. <sup>17</sup> All the pillars around the court shall be banded with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their bases of bronze. <sup>18</sup> The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, the width fifty, and the height five cubits, with hangings of fine twisted linen and bases of bronze. <sup>19</sup> All the utensils of the tabernacle for every use, and all its pegs and all the pegs of the court, shall be of bronze.

The Oil for the Lamp

(Lev 24:1-4)

<sup>20</sup> You shall further command the Israelites to bring you pure oil of beaten olives for the light, so that a lamp may be set up to burn regularly. <sup>21</sup> In the tent of meeting, outside the curtain that is before the covenant, Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a perpetual ordinance to be observed throughout their generations by the Israelites.

Matthew 25:14-30 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Talents

(Lk 19:11-27)

<sup>14</sup> "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; <sup>15</sup> to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. <sup>16</sup> The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. <sup>17</sup> In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents.<sup>18</sup> But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.<sup>19</sup> After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them.<sup>20</sup> Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.'<sup>21</sup> His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'<sup>22</sup> And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.'<sup>23</sup> His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'<sup>24</sup> Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed;<sup>25</sup> so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.'<sup>26</sup> But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter?'<sup>27</sup> Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest.<sup>28</sup> So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents.<sup>29</sup> For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.<sup>30</sup> As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

<sup>9</sup> Be gracious to me, O LORD,
for I am in distress;

my eye wastes away
from grief,
my soul and body also.
10 For my life is spent with sorrow,
and my years with sighing;
my strength fails because of my misery,
and my bones waste
away.
11 I am the scorn of all my adversaries,
a horror to my
neighbors,
an object of dread to my acquaintances;
those who see me in the street flee from me.
12 I have passed out of mind
like one who is dead;
I have become like a broken vessel.
13 For I hear the whispering of many—terror all around!—
as they scheme together
against me,
as they plot to take my
life.
14 But I trust in you, O LORD;
I say, “You are my God.”
15 My times are in your hand;

deliver me from the hand of my enemies
and persecutors.
16 Let your face shine upon your servant;
save me in your
steadfast love.
17 Do not let me be put to shame, O LORD,
for I call on you;
let the wicked be put to
shame;
let them go dumbfounded to Sheol.
18 Let the lying lips be stilled
that speak insolently
against the righteous
with pride and contempt.

Proverbs 11:16–17 (NRSV)
16 A gracious woman gets honor,
but she who hates virtue
is covered with shame.
The timid become destitute,
but the aggressive gain
riches.
17 Those who are kind reward
themselves,
but the cruel do
themselves harm.

Exodus 28:1-14 (NRSV)

Vestments for the Priesthood (Ex 39:1-7)

<sup>1</sup> Then bring near to you your brother Aaron, and his sons with him, from among the Israelites, to serve me as priests—Aaron and Aaron’s sons, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup> You shall make sacred vestments for the glorious adornment of your brother Aaron. <sup>3</sup> And you shall speak to all who have ability, whom I have endowed with skill, that they make Aaron’s vestments to consecrate him for my priesthood. <sup>4</sup> These are the vestments that they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a checkered tunic, a turban, and a sash. When they make these sacred vestments for your brother Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests, <sup>5</sup> they shall use gold, blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine linen.

The Ephod

<sup>6</sup> They shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, skillfully worked. <sup>7</sup> It shall have two shoulder-pieces attached to its two edges, so that it may be joined together. <sup>8</sup> The decorated band on it shall be of the same workmanship and materials, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen. <sup>9</sup> You shall take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup> six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, in the order of their birth. <sup>11</sup> As a gem-cutter engraves signets, so you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel; you shall mount them in settings of gold filigree. <sup>12</sup> You shall set the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, as stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel; and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders for remembrance. <sup>13</sup> You shall make settings of gold filigree, <sup>14</sup> and two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords; and you shall attach the corded chains to the settings.

The Judgment of the Nations

<sup>31</sup> “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. <sup>32</sup> All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, <sup>33</sup> and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. <sup>34</sup> Then the king will say to those at his right hand, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; <sup>35</sup> for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, <sup>36</sup> I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’ <sup>37</sup> Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when was

it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? <sup>38</sup> And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? <sup>39</sup> And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?’ <sup>40</sup> And the king will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’ <sup>41</sup> Then he will say to those at his left hand, ‘You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; <sup>42</sup> for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, <sup>43</sup> I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’ <sup>44</sup> Then they also will answer, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?’ <sup>45</sup> Then he will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’<sup>46</sup> And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Psalms 31:19-20 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> O how abundant is your goodness that you have laid up for those who fear you, and accomplished for those who take refuge in you, in the sight of everyone!
<sup>20</sup> In the shelter of your presence you hide them from human plots; you hold them safe under your shelter from contentious tongues.

<sup>18</sup> The wicked earn no real gain, but those who sow righteousness get a true reward.
<sup>19</sup> Whoever is steadfast in righteousness will live, but whoever pursues evil will die.

Exodus 28:15-43 (NRSV)

The Breastplate

(Ex 39:8-21)

<sup>15</sup> You shall make a breastpiece of judgment, in skilled work; you shall make it in the style of the ephod; of gold, of blue and purple and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen you shall make it.

gold, twisted like cords; <sup>23</sup> and you shall make for the breastpiece two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece. <sup>24</sup> You shall put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece; <sup>25</sup> the two ends of the two cords you shall attach to the two settings, and so attach it in front to the shoulder-pieces of the ephod. <sup>26</sup> You shall make two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod. <sup>27</sup> You shall make two rings of gold, and attach them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, at its joining above the decorated band of the ephod. <sup>28</sup> The breastpiece shall be bound by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it may lie on the decorated band of the ephod, and so that the breastpiece shall not come loose from the ephod. <sup>29</sup> So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment on his heart when he goes into the holy place, for a continual remembrance before the LORD. <sup>30</sup> In the breastpiece of judgment you shall put the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be on Aaron's heart when he goes in before the LORD; thus Aaron shall bear the judgment of the Israelites on his heart before the LORD continually.

Other Priestly Vestments
(Ex 39:22–31)

<sup>39</sup> You shall make the checkered tunic of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash embroidered with needlework.

<sup>40</sup> For Aaron's sons you shall make tunics and sashes and headdresses; you shall make them for their glorious adornment. <sup>41</sup> You shall put them on your brother Aaron, and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them and ordain them and consecrate them, so that they may serve me as priests. <sup>42</sup> You shall make for them linen undergarments to cover their naked flesh; they shall reach from the hips to the thighs; <sup>43</sup> Aaron and his sons shall wear them when they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place; or they will bring guilt on themselves and die. This shall be a perpetual ordinance for him and for his descendants after him.

Matthew 26:1-13 (NRSV)

The Plot to Kill Jesus

(Mk 14:1-2; Lk 22:1-2; Jn 11:45-53)

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples, <sup>2</sup> "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

<sup>3</sup> Then the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, <sup>4</sup> and they conspired to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him. <sup>5</sup> But they said, "Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

(Mk 14:3–9; Jn 12:1–8)

<sup>6</sup> Now while Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, <sup>7</sup> a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table. <sup>8</sup> But when the disciples saw it, they were angry and said, “Why this waste?” <sup>9</sup> For this ointment could have been sold for a large sum, and the money given to the poor.” <sup>10</sup> But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? She has performed a good service for me. <sup>11</sup> For you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me. <sup>12</sup> By pouring this ointment on my body she has prepared me for burial. <sup>13</sup> Truly I tell you, wherever this good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her.”

Psalm 31:21-22 (NRSV)

<sup>21</sup> Blessed be the LORD,
for he has wondrously
shown his steadfast love to me

when I was beset as a city under siege.

<sup>22</sup> I had said in my alarm,
“I am driven far from your sight.”
But you heard my supplications
when I cried out to you for help.

Proverbs 11:20–21 (NRSV)

<sup>20</sup> Crooked minds are an abomination to the
LORD,
but those of blameless
ways are his delight.
<sup>21</sup> Be assured, the wicked will not go unpunished,
but those who are righteous will escape.

Exodus 29:1-28 (NRSV)

The Ordination of the Priests (Lev 8:1–36)

<sup>1</sup> Now this is what you shall do
to them to consecrate them,
so that they may serve me as priests. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, <sup>2</sup> and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil. You shall make them of choice wheat flour. <sup>3</sup> You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, and bring the bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup> You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and wash them with water. <sup>5</sup> Then you shall take the vestments, and put on Aaron the tunic and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast piece, and gird him with the decorated band of the ephod; <sup>6</sup> and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy diadem on the turban. <sup>7</sup> You shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head and anoint him. <sup>8</sup> Then you shall bring his sons, and put tunics on them, <sup>9</sup> and you shall gird them with sashes and tie headdresses on them; and the priesthood shall be theirs by a perpetual ordinance. You shall then ordain Aaron and his sons.

head, <sup>18</sup> and turn the whole ram into smoke on the altar; it is a burnt offering to the LORD; it is a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> You shall also take the fat of the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the appendage of the liver, the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ordination),

<sup>23</sup> and one loaf of bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer, out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD; <sup>24</sup> and you shall place all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons, and raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup> Then you shall take them from their hands, and turn them into smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering of pleasing odor before the LORD; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> You shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's ordination and raise it as an elevation offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion. <sup>27</sup> You shall consecrate the breast that was raised as an elevation offering and the thigh that was raised as an elevation offering from the ram of ordination, from that which belonged to Aaron and his sons. <sup>28</sup> These things shall be a perpetual ordinance for Aaron and his sons from the Israelites, for this is an offering; and it shall be an offering by the Israelites from their sacrifice of offerings of well-being, their offering to the LORD.

Matthew 26:14-25 (NRSV)

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

(Mk 14:10-11; Lk 22:3-6)

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests <sup>15</sup> and said, “What will you give me if I betray him to you?” They paid him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup> And from that moment he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

The Passover with the Disciples

<sup>17</sup> On the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Where do you want us to make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?” <sup>18</sup> He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, My time is near; I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.’ ” <sup>19</sup> So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover meal.

<sup>20</sup> When it was evening, he took his place with the twelve; <sup>21</sup> and while they were eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me.” <sup>22</sup> And they became greatly distressed and began to say to him one after another, “Surely not I, Lord?” <sup>23</sup> He answered, “The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.” <sup>24</sup> The Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that one not to have been born.” <sup>25</sup> Judas, who betrayed him, said, “Surely not I, Rabbi?” He replied, “You have said so.”

<sup>23</sup> Love the LORD, all you his saints.

The LORD preserves the faithful, but abundantly repays the one who acts haughtily.

<sup>24</sup> Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> Like a gold ring in a pig’s snout

is a beautiful woman
without good sense.

March 22

Exodus 29:29 – 30:10 (NRSV)

<sup>29</sup>The sacred vestments of Aaron shall be passed on to his sons after him; they shall be anointed in them and ordained in them. <sup>30</sup>The son who is priest in his place shall wear them seven days, when he comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.

<sup>31</sup>You shall take the ram of ordination, and boil its flesh in a holy place; <sup>32</sup>and Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>33</sup>They themselves shall eat the food by which atonement is made, to ordain and consecrate them, but no one else shall eat of them, because they are holy. <sup>34</sup>If any of the flesh for the ordination, or of the bread, remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

<sup>35</sup>Thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, just as I have commanded you; through seven days you shall ordain them. <sup>36</sup>Also every day you shall offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement. Also you shall offer a sin offering for the altar, when you make atonement for it, and shall anoint it, to consecrate it.

<sup>37</sup>Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and consecrate it, and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall become holy.

The Daily Offerings (Num 28:1–8)

<sup>38</sup>Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old regularly each day. <sup>39</sup>One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer in the evening; <sup>40</sup>and with the first lamb one-tenth of a measure of choice flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering. <sup>41</sup> And the other lamb you shall offer in the evening, and shall offer with it a grain offering and its drink offering, as in the morning, for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD. <sup>42</sup> It shall be a regular burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there. <sup>43</sup> I will meet with the Israelites there, and it shall be sanctified by my glory; <sup>44</sup> I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar; Aaron also and his sons I will consecrate, to serve me as priests. <sup>45</sup> I will dwell among the Israelites, and I will be their God. <sup>46</sup> And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt that I might dwell among them; I am the LORD their God.

The Altar of Incense
(Ex 37:25–28)

30 You shall make an altar on which to offer incense; you shall make it of acacia wood.

<sup>2</sup> It shall be one cubit long, and one cubit wide; it shall be square, and shall be two cubits high; its horns shall be of one piece with it. <sup>3</sup> You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, and its sides all around and its horns; and you shall make for it a molding of gold all around. <sup>4</sup> And you shall make two golden rings for it; under its molding on two opposite sides of it you shall make them, and they shall hold the poles with which to carry it. <sup>5</sup> You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>6</sup> You shall place it in front of the curtain that is above the ark of the covenant, in front of the mercy seat that is over the covenant, where I will meet with you. <sup>7</sup> Aaron shall offer fragrant incense on it; every morning when he dresses the lamps he shall offer it, <sup>8</sup> and when Aaron sets up the lamps in the evening, he shall offer it, a regular incense offering before the LORD throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup> You shall not offer unholy incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a grain offering; and you shall not

pour a drink offering on it.

<sup>10</sup> Once a year Aaron shall perform the rite of atonement on its horns. Throughout your generations he shall perform the atonement for it once a year with the blood of the atoning sin offering. It is most holy to the LORD.

Matthew 26:26-46 (NRSV)

The Institution of the Lord's Supper

1 Cor 11:23-26)*

<sup>26</sup> While they were eating, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." <sup>27</sup> Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; <sup>28</sup> for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>29</sup> I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

<sup>30</sup> When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Peter's Denial Foretold
*(Mk 14:27-31; Lk 22:31-34;
Jn 13:36-38)*

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "You will all become deserters because of me this night; for it is written,

'I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

<sup>32</sup> But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you to Galilee." <sup>33</sup> Peter said to him, "Though all become deserters because of you, I will never desert you." <sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."

<sup>35</sup> Peter said to him, "Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you." And so said all the disciples.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane
(Mk 14:32-42; Lk 22:39-46)

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." <sup>37</sup> He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be grieved and agitated. <sup>38</sup> Then he said to them, "I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and stay awake with me.”

<sup>39</sup> And going a little farther, he threw himself on the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet not what I want but what you want.” <sup>40</sup> Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, “So, could you not stay awake with me one hour?” <sup>41</sup> Stay awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.” <sup>42</sup> Again he went away for the second time and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done.” <sup>43</sup> Again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. <sup>44</sup> So leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words. <sup>45</sup> Then he came to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup> Get up, let us be going. See, my betrayer is at hand.”

Psalm 32:1-7 (NRSV)

The Joy of Forgiveness

Of David. A Maskil.

- 1 Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
- 2 Happy are those to whom the LORD imputes no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
- 3 While I kept silence, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long.
- 4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. Selah
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not hide my iniquity; I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,” and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah
- 6 Therefore let all who are faithful offer prayer to you; at a time of distress, the rush of mighty waters

shall not reach them.
7 You are a hiding place for
me;
you preserve me from
trouble;
you surround me with glad cries of deliverance. Selah

Proverbs 11:23 (NRSV)

23 The desire of the righteous ends only in good; the expectation of the wicked in wrath.

March 23

Exodus 30:11-38 (NRSV)

The Half Shekel for the Sanctuary

11 The LORD spoke to Moses: 12 When you take a census of the Israelites to register them, at registration
all of them shall give a ransom
for their lives to the LORD, so that no plague may come upon them for being registered. 13 This is what each

one who is registered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary
(the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as an offering to the LORD. 14 Each one who is registered, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the LORD's offering. 15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when you bring this offering to the LORD to make atonement for your lives. 16 You shall take the atonement money from the Israelites and shall designate it for the service of the tent of meeting; before the LORD it will be a reminder to the Israelites of the ransom given for your lives.

The Bronze Basin

17 The LORD spoke to Moses: 18 You shall make a bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing. You shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it; 19 with the water Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet. 20 When they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to make an offering by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, so that they may not die. <sup>21</sup> They shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they may not die: it shall be a perpetual ordinance for them, for him and for his descendants throughout their generations.

The Anointing Oil and Incense
(Ex 37:29)

<sup>22</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>23</sup> Take the finest spices: of liquid myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet-smelling cinnamon half as much, that is, two hundred fifty, and two hundred fifty of aromatic cane, <sup>24</sup> and five hundred of cassia—measured by the sanctuary shekel—and a hin of olive oil; <sup>25</sup> and you shall make of these a sacred anointing oil blended as by the perfumer; it shall be a holy anointing oil. <sup>26</sup> With it you shall anoint the tent of meeting and the ark of the covenant, <sup>27</sup> and the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense, <sup>28</sup> and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its stand; <sup>29</sup> you shall consecrate them, so that they may be most holy; whatever touches them will become holy. <sup>30</sup> You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, in order that they may serve me as priests. <sup>31</sup> You shall say to the Israelites, “This shall be my holy anointing oil throughout your generations. <sup>32</sup> It shall not be used in any ordinary anointing of the body, and you shall make no other like it in composition; it is holy, and it shall be holy to you. <sup>33</sup> Whoever compounds any like it or whoever puts any of it on an unqualified person shall be cut off from the people.”

you most holy. <sup>37</sup> When you make incense according to this composition, you shall not make it for yourselves; it shall be regarded by you as holy to the LORD. <sup>38</sup> Whoever makes any like it to use as perfume shall be cut off from the people.

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

Jn 18:1-11)

to him, "Put your sword back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword." <sup>53</sup> Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>54</sup> But how then would the scriptures be fulfilled, which say it must happen in this way?" <sup>55</sup> At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as though I were a bandit? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me." <sup>56</sup> But all this has taken place, so that the scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled." Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Psalms 32:8-11 (NRSV)

I will counsel you with my eye upon you.
<sup>9</sup> Do not be like a horse or a mule, without

whose temper must be

<sup>10</sup> Many are the torments of
the wicked,
but steadfast love
surrounds those who

rejoice, O righteous,
and shout for joy, all you upright in heart.

Exodus 31:1-18 (NRSV)

Bezalel and Oholiab

(Ex 35:30–36:1)

<sup>2</sup> See, I have called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah: <sup>3</sup> and I have filled him with divine spirit, with ability, intelligence,
and knowledge in every kind of craft, <sup>4</sup> to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver,
and bronze, <sup>5</sup> in cutting stones
for setting, and in carving wood, in every kind of craft.

<sup>6</sup> Moreover, I have appointed with him Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have given skill to all the skillful, so that they may make all that I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup> the tent of meeting, and the ark of the covenant, and the mercy seat
that is on it, and all the furnishings of the tent, <sup>8</sup> the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup> and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its stand,<sup>10</sup> and the finely worked vestments, the holy vestments for the priest Aaron and the vestments of his sons, for their service as priests,<sup>11</sup> and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense for the holy place. They shall do just as I have commanded you.

The Sabbath Law

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to Moses: <sup>13</sup> You yourself are to speak to the Israelites: “You shall keep my sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, given in order that you may know that I, the LORD, sanctify you. <sup>14</sup> You shall keep the sabbath, because it is holy for you; everyone who profanes it shall be put to death; whoever does any work on it shall be cut off from among the people. <sup>15</sup> Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD; whoever does any work on the sabbath day shall be put to death. <sup>16</sup> Therefore the Israelites shall keep the sabbath, observing the sabbath throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup> It is a sign forever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.”

The Two Tablets of the Covenant

<sup>18</sup> When God finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the covenant, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

Matthew 26:57-68 (NRSV)

Jesus before the High Priest
(Mk 14:53–65; Lk 22:66–71;
Jn 18:12–14, 19–24)

<sup>57</sup> Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas the high priest, in whose house the scribes and the elders had gathered. <sup>58</sup> But Peter was following him at a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest; and going inside, he sat with the guards in order to see how this would end. <sup>59</sup> Now the chief priests and the whole council were looking for false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death,<sup>60</sup> but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward <sup>61</sup> and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.' "

<sup>62</sup> The high priest stood up and said, "Have you no answer? What is it that they testify against you?" <sup>63</sup> But Jesus was silent. Then the high priest said to him, "I put you under oath before the living God, tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God." <sup>64</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have said so. But I tell you,

From now on you will see the Son of Man
seated at the right hand
of Power
and coming on the clouds of heaven."

<sup>65</sup> Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? You have now heard his blasphemy.

<sup>66</sup> What is your verdict?" They answered, "He deserves death." <sup>67</sup> Then they spat in his face and struck him; and some slapped him, <sup>68</sup> saying,

"Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Who is it that struck you?"

*The Greatness and Goodness
of God*

- 1 Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous.
Praise befits the upright.
- 2 Praise the LORD with the lyre;
make melody to him
with the harp of ten strings.
- 3 Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts.
- 4 For the word of the LORD is upright,
and all his work is done in faithfulness.
- 5 He loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.

Exodus 32:1-30 (NRSV)

The Golden Calf

(Deut 9:6–29)

<sup>1</sup> When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.”

<sup>2</sup> Aaron said to them, “Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.” <sup>3</sup> So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup> He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!” <sup>5</sup> When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, “Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD.” <sup>6</sup> They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; <sup>8</sup> they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!’ ” <sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. <sup>10</sup> Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.”

<sup>11</sup> But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, “O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people.<sup>13</sup> Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.' "<sup>14</sup> And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain, carrying the two tablets of the covenant in his hands, tablets that were written on both sides, written on the front and on the back.<sup>16</sup> The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved upon the tablets.<sup>17</sup> When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is a noise of war in the camp."<sup>18</sup> But he said,

"It is not the sound made by victors,
or the sound made by losers;
it is the sound of revelers that I hear."

<sup>19</sup> As soon as he came near the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses' anger burned hot, and he threw the tablets from his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.<sup>20</sup> He took the calf that they had made, burned it with fire, ground it to powder, scattered it on the water, and made the Israelites drink it.

<sup>21</sup> Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?"<sup>22</sup> And Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord burn hot; you know the people, that they are bent on evil."<sup>23</sup> They said to me, 'Make us gods, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'<sup>24</sup> So I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, take it off'; so they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!”

<sup>25</sup>When Moses saw that the people were running wild (for Aaron had let them run wild, to the derision of their enemies), <sup>26</sup>then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, “Who is on the LORD’s side? Come to me!” And all the sons of Levi gathered around him. <sup>27</sup>He said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Put your sword on your side, each of you! Go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and each of you kill your brother, your friend, and your neighbor.’” <sup>28</sup>The sons of Levi did as Moses commanded, and about three thousand of the people fell on that day.

<sup>29</sup>Moses said, “Today you have ordained yourselves for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of a son or a brother, and so have brought a blessing on yourselves this day.”

<sup>30</sup>On the next day Moses said to the people, “You have sinned a great sin. But now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps

I can make atonement for your sin.”

Matthew 26:69-75 (NRSV)

Peter’s Denial of Jesus

(Mk 14:66–72; Lk 22:54–62

Jn 18:15–18, 25–27)

<sup>69</sup>Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant-girl came to him and said, “You also were with Jesus the Galilean.” <sup>70</sup>But he denied it before all of them, saying, “I do not know what you are talking about.” <sup>71</sup>When he went out to the porch, another servant-girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.” <sup>72</sup>Again he denied it with an oath, “I do not know the man.” <sup>73</sup>After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, “Certainly you are also one of them, for your accent betrays you.” <sup>74</sup>Then he began to curse, and he swore an oath, “I do not know the man!” At that moment the cock crowed. <sup>75</sup>Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said: “Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.” And he went out and wept bitterly.

<sup>6</sup> By the word of the LORD
the heavens were made,
and all their host by the breath of his mouth.
<sup>7</sup> He gathered the waters of the sea as in a bottle;
he put the deeps in storehouses.
<sup>8</sup> Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe
of him.
<sup>9</sup> For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded, and it
stood firm.
<sup>10</sup> The LORD brings the counsel of the nations
to nothing;
he frustrates the plans of
the peoples.
<sup>11</sup> The counsel of the LORD
stands forever,
the thoughts of his heart
to all generations.

Proverbs 11:28 (NRSV)

<sup>28</sup> Those who trust in their riches will wither,
but the righteous will flourish like green
leaves.

March 26

Exodus 32:31 – 33:23 (NRSV)

<sup>31</sup> So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Alas, this people has sinned a great sin; they have made for themselves gods of gold. <sup>32</sup> But now, if you will only forgive their sin—but if not, blot me out of the book that you have written.” <sup>33</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me I will blot out of my book. <sup>34</sup> But now go, lead the people to the place about which I have spoken to you; see, my angel shall go in front of you. Nevertheless, when the day comes for punishment, I will punish them for their sin.”

<sup>35</sup> Then the LORD sent a plague on the people, because they made the calf—the one that Aaron made.

The Command to Leave Sinai

33 The LORD said to Moses, “Go, leave this place, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, and go to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'To your descendants I will give it.'

<sup>2</sup> I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. <sup>3</sup> Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; but I will not go up among you, or I would consume you on the way, for you are a stiff-necked people."

<sup>4</sup> When the people heard these harsh words, they mourned, and no one put on ornaments. <sup>5</sup> For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people; if for a single moment I should go up among you, I would consume you. So now take off your ornaments, and I will decide what to do to you.' " <sup>6</sup> Therefore the Israelites stripped themselves of their ornaments, from Mount Horeb onward.

The Tent outside the Camp

<sup>7</sup> Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp; he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.

<sup>8</sup> Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise and stand, each of them, at the entrance of their tents and watch Moses until he had gone into the tent.

<sup>10</sup> When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise and bow down, all of them, at the entrance of their tent. <sup>11</sup> Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend. Then he would return to the camp; but his young assistant, Joshua son of Nun, would not leave the tent.

Moses' Intercession

<sup>12</sup> Moses said to the LORD, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people'; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.’

<sup>13</sup> Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people.” <sup>14</sup> He said, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” <sup>15</sup> And he said to him, “If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. <sup>16</sup> For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth.”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.” <sup>18</sup> Moses said, “Show me your glory, I pray.” <sup>19</sup> And he said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, ‘The LORD’; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. <sup>20</sup> But,” he said, “you cannot see my face;

for no one shall see me and live.” <sup>21</sup> And the LORD continued, “See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock; <sup>22</sup> and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; <sup>23</sup> then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen.”

Matthew 27:1-14 (NRSV)

Jesus Brought before Pilate
(Mk 15:1; Lk 23:1; Jn 18:28)

27 When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people conferred together against Jesus in order to bring about his death. <sup>2</sup> They bound him, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate the governor.

The Suicide of Judas
(Acts 1:18–19)

<sup>3</sup> When Judas, his betrayer, saw that Jesus was condemned, he repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders. <sup>4</sup> He said, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood.” But they said,

“What is that to us? See to it yourself.”<sup>5</sup> Throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he departed; and he went and hanged himself.<sup>6</sup> But the chief priests, taking the pieces of silver, said, “It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are blood money.”

<sup>7</sup> After conferring together, they used them to buy the potter’s field as a place to bury foreigners.<sup>8</sup> For this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

<sup>9</sup> Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah, “And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of the one on whom a price had been set, on whom some of the people of Israel had set a price,<sup>10</sup> and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”

Pilate Questions Jesus
(Mk 15:2–5; Lk 23:2–5
Jn 18:29–38a)

<sup>11</sup> Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus said, “You say so.”<sup>12</sup> But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he did not answer.

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear how many accusations they make against you?”<sup>14</sup> But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

<sup>12</sup> Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people whom he has
chosen as his heritage.
<sup>13</sup> The LORD looks down from
heaven;
he sees all humankind.
<sup>14</sup> From where he sits enthroned he watches
all the inhabitants of the earth—
<sup>15</sup> he who fashions the hearts
of them all,
and observes all their deeds.
<sup>16</sup> A king is not saved by his great army;
a warrior is not delivered
by his great strength.
<sup>17</sup> The war horse is a vain
hope for victory,
and by its great might it
cannot save.
<sup>18</sup> Truly the eye of the LORD is
on those who fear him,

on those who hope in his
steadfast love,

<sup>19</sup> to deliver their soul from
death,
and to keep them alive in famine.

Proverbs 11:29–31 (NRSV)

<sup>29</sup> Those who trouble their households will inherit
wind,
and the fool will be servant to the wise.
<sup>30</sup> The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
but violence takes lives
away.
<sup>31</sup> If the righteous are repaid
on earth,
how much more the
wicked and the sinner!

March 27

Exodus 34:1-14 (NRSV)

Moses Makes New Tablets
(Deut 10:1–5)

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets,

which you broke. <sup>2</sup> Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai
and present yourself there to me, on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup> No one shall come up with you, and do not let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; and do not let flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain.” <sup>4</sup> So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the former ones; and he rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. <sup>5</sup> The LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name, “The LORD.” <sup>6</sup> The LORD passed before him, and proclaimed,
“The LORD, the LORD,
a God merciful and
gracious,
slow to anger,
and abounding in steadfast
love and faithfulness, <sup>7</sup> keeping steadfast love for the thousandth
generation,

forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, yet by no means clearing the guilty, but visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation."

<sup>8</sup> And Moses quickly bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped. <sup>9</sup> He said, "If now I have found favor in your sight, O Lord, I pray, let the Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."

The Covenant Renewed

(Ex 23:14–19; Deut 7:1–6; 16:1–17)

<sup>10</sup> He said: I hereby make a covenant. Before all your people I will perform marvels, such as have not been performed in all the earth or in any nation; and all the people among whom you live shall see the work of the LORD; for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you.

<sup>11</sup> Observe what I command you today. See, I will drive out before you the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

<sup>12</sup> Take care not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land to which you are going, or it will become a snare among you. <sup>13</sup> You shall tear down their altars, break their pillars, and cut down their sacred poles <sup>14</sup> (for you shall worship no other god, because the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God).

Matthew 27:15-26 (NRSV)

Barabbas or Jesus?

(Mk 15:6–14; Lk 23:13–24;

Jn 18:39–40)

<sup>15</sup> Now at the festival the governor was accustomed to release a prisoner for the crowd, anyone whom they wanted. <sup>16</sup> At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Jesus Barabbas. <sup>17</sup> So after they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you, Jesus Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Messiah?" <sup>18</sup> For he realized that it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over. <sup>19</sup> While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him,

“Have nothing to do with that innocent man, for today I have suffered a great deal because of a dream about him.”<sup>20</sup> Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed.<sup>21</sup> The governor again said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”<sup>22</sup> Pilate said to them, “Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?” All of them said, “Let him be crucified!”<sup>23</sup> Then he asked, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Let him be crucified!”

Pilate Hands Jesus over to Be Crucified

(Mk 15:15; Lk 23:25; Jn 19:16)

<sup>24</sup> So when Pilate saw that he could do nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took some water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this man’s blood; see to it yourselves.”<sup>25</sup> Then the people as a whole answered, “His blood be on us and on our children!”<sup>26</sup> So he released Barabbas for them;

and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

- <sup>20</sup> Our soul waits for the LORD;
he is our help and shield.
<sup>21</sup> Our heart is glad in him,
because we trust in his

<sup>22</sup> Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us,
even as we hope in you.

Exodus 34:15 – 35:9 (NRSV)

- <sup>15</sup> You shall not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, for when they prostitute themselves to their

gods and sacrifice to their gods, someone among them will invite you, and you will eat of the sacrifice. <sup>16</sup> And you will take wives from among their daughters for your sons, and their daughters who prostitute themselves to their gods will make your sons also prostitute themselves to their gods.

<sup>18</sup> You shall keep the festival of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> All that first opens the womb is mine, all your male livestock, the firstborn of cow and sheep. <sup>20</sup> The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, or if you will not redeem it you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem.

No one shall appear before me empty-handed.

<sup>21</sup> Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even in plowing time and in harvest time you shall rest. <sup>22</sup> You shall observe the festival of weeks, the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the festival of ingathering at the turn of the year. <sup>23</sup> Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> For I will cast out nations before you, and enlarge your borders; no one shall covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

<sup>25</sup> You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven, and the sacrifice of the festival of the passover shall not be left until the morning.

<sup>26</sup> The best of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God.

You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD said to Moses: Write these words; in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel. <sup>28</sup> He was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And he wrote on the tablets

the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

The Shining Face of Moses

<sup>29</sup> Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. <sup>30</sup> When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup> But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. <sup>32</sup> Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

<sup>33</sup> When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; <sup>34</sup> but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, <sup>35</sup> the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Sabbath Regulations

35 Moses assembled all the congregation of the Israelites and said to them: These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do:

<sup>2</sup> Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy sabbath of solemn rest to the LORD; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death. <sup>3</sup> You shall kindle no fire in all your dwellings on the sabbath day.

Preparations for Making the Tabernacle

(Ex 25:1–9; 39:32–43)

<sup>4</sup> Moses said to all the congregation of the Israelites: This is the thing that the LORD has commanded: <sup>5</sup> Take from among you an offering to the LORD; let whoever is of a generous heart bring the LORD's offering: gold, silver, and bronze; <sup>6</sup> blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine linen;

goats' hair, <sup>7</sup> tanned rams' skins, and fine leather; acacia wood, <sup>8</sup> oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense, <sup>9</sup> and onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and the breast piece.

Matthew 27:27-31 (NRSV)

The Soldiers Mock Jesus
(Mk 15:16–20)

<sup>27</sup> Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's headquarters, and they gathered the whole cohort around him. <sup>28</sup> They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, <sup>29</sup> and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on his head. They put a reed in his right hand and knelt before him and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" <sup>30</sup> They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. <sup>31</sup> After mocking him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

Psalms 34:1-3 (NRSV)

*Praise for Deliverance
from Trouble*

Of David, when he feigned madness before Abimelech, so that he drove him out, and he went away.

- 1 I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
- 2 My soul makes its boast in the LORD;
let the humble hear and be glad.
- 3 O magnify the LORD with me,
and let us exalt his name together.

Proverbs 12:2-3 (NRSV)

- 2 The good obtain favor from the LORD,
but those who devise evil he condemns.
- 3 No one finds security by wickedness,
but the root of the righteous will never be moved.

March 29

Exodus 35:10 – 36:7 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> All who are skillful among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: the tabernacle, <sup>11</sup> its tent and its covering, its clasps and its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases; <sup>12</sup> the ark with its poles, the mercy seat, and the curtain for the screen; <sup>13</sup> the table with its poles and all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence; <sup>14</sup> the lampstand also for the light, with its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light; <sup>15</sup> and the altar of incense, with its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance, the entrance of the tabernacle; <sup>16</sup> the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin with its stand; <sup>17</sup> the hangings of the court, its pillars and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court; <sup>18</sup> the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court, and their cords; <sup>19</sup> the finely worked vestments for ministering in the holy place, the holy vestments for the priest Aaron, and the vestments of his sons, for their service as priests.

Offerings for the Tabernacle

<sup>20</sup> Then all the congregation of the Israelites withdrew from the presence of Moses. <sup>21</sup> And they came, everyone whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and brought the LORD's offering to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the sacred vestments. <sup>22</sup> So they came, both men and women; all who were of a willing heart brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and pendants, all sorts of gold objects, everyone bringing an offering of gold to the LORD. <sup>23</sup> And everyone who possessed blue or purple or crimson yarn or fine linen or goats' hair or tanned rams' skins or fine leather, brought them. <sup>24</sup> Everyone who could make an offering of silver or bronze brought it as the LORD's offering; and everyone who possessed acacia wood of any use in the work, brought it.

<sup>25</sup> All the skillful women spun with their hands, and brought what they had spun in blue and purple and crimson yarns and fine linen; <sup>26</sup> all the women whose hearts moved them to use their skill spun the goats' hair. <sup>27</sup> And the leaders brought onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and the breast piece, <sup>28</sup> and spices and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense. <sup>29</sup> All the Israelite men and women whose hearts made them willing to bring anything for the work that the LORD had commanded by Moses to be done, brought it as a freewill offering to the LORD.

Bezalel and Oholiab

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses said to the Israelites: See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; <sup>31</sup> he has filled him with divine spirit, with skill, intelligence, and knowledge in every kind of craft, <sup>32</sup> to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze, <sup>33</sup> in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, in every kind of craft. <sup>34</sup> And he has inspired him to teach, both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup> He has filled them with skill to do every kind of work done by an artisan or by a designer or by an embroiderer in blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and in fine linen, or by a weaver—by any sort of artisan or skilled designer.

36 Bezalel and Oholiab and every skillful one to whom the LORD has given skill and understanding to know how to do any work in the construction of the sanctuary shall work in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded.

<sup>2</sup> Moses then called Bezalel and Oholiab and every skillful one to whom the LORD had given skill, everyone whose heart was stirred to come to do the work; <sup>3</sup> and they received from Moses all the freewill offerings that the Israelites had brought for doing the work on the sanctuary. They still kept bringing him freewill offerings every morning,<sup>4</sup> so that all the artisans who were doing every sort of task on the sanctuary came, each from the task being performed,<sup>5</sup> and said to Moses, “The people are bringing much more than enough for doing the work that the LORD has commanded us to do.”<sup>6</sup> So Moses gave command, and word was proclaimed throughout the camp: “No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary.” So the people were restrained from bringing;<sup>7</sup> for what they had already brought was more than enough to do all the work.

Matthew 27:32-53 (NRSV)

The Crucifixion of Jesus
(Mk 15:21–32; Lk 23:26–43
Jn 19:16b–27)

<sup>33</sup> And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull),<sup>34</sup> they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it.

<sup>39</sup> Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads<sup>40</sup> and saying, “You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.”<sup>41</sup> In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders, were mocking him, saying,<sup>42</sup> “He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him.”<sup>43</sup> He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he wants to; for he said, ‘I am God’s Son.’ ”<sup>44</sup> The bandits who were crucified with him also taunted him in the same way.

The Death of Jesus

Jn 19:28–30

<sup>45</sup> From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

<sup>46</sup> And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

<sup>48</sup> At once one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink. <sup>49</sup> But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him." <sup>50</sup> Then Jesus cried again with a loud voice and breathed his last. <sup>51</sup> At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split. <sup>52</sup> The tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. <sup>53</sup> After his resurrection they came out of the tombs and entered the holy city and appeared to many.

Psalm 33:4-10 (NRSV)

- <sup>4</sup> I sought the LORD, and he answered me,
and delivered me from all my fears.
- <sup>5</sup> Look to him, and be radiant;
so your faces shall never be ashamed.
- <sup>6</sup> This poor soul cried, and was heard by the LORD,
and was saved from every trouble.
- <sup>7</sup> The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
- <sup>8</sup> O taste and see that the LORD is good;
happy are those who take refuge in him.
- <sup>9</sup> O fear the LORD, you his holy ones,
for those who fear him have no want.
- <sup>10</sup> The young lions suffer want and hunger,
but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.

Proverbs 12:4 (NRSV)

- <sup>4</sup> A good wife is the crown of her husband,

but she who brings shame is like rottenness in his bones.

March 30

Exodus 36:8-38 (NRSV)

Construction of the Tabernacle (Ex 26:1–37)

<sup>8</sup> All those with skill among the workers made the tabernacle with ten curtains; they were made of fine twisted linen, and blue, purple, and crimson yarns, with cherubim skillfully worked into them. <sup>9</sup> The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains were of the same size.

<sup>10</sup> He joined five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he joined to one another. <sup>11</sup> He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain of the first set; likewise he made them on the edge of the outermost curtain of the second set; <sup>12</sup> he made fifty loops on the one curtain, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set; the loops were opposite one another. <sup>13</sup> And he made fifty clasps of gold, and joined the curtains one to the other with clasps; so the tabernacle was one whole.

<sup>14</sup> He also made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains. <sup>15</sup> The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains were of the same size. <sup>16</sup> He joined five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. <sup>17</sup> He made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain of the one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the other connecting curtain. <sup>18</sup> He made fifty clasps of bronze to join the tent together so that it might be one whole. <sup>19</sup> And he made for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

<sup>21</sup> Ten cubits was the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the width of each frame.

<sup>22</sup> Each frame had two pegs for fitting together; he did this for all the frames of the tabernacle.

<sup>23</sup> The frames for the tabernacle he made in this way: twenty frames for the south side;

<sup>24</sup> and he made forty bases of silver under the twenty frames, two bases under the first frame for its two pegs, and two bases

under the next frame for its two pegs.

<sup>25</sup> For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty frames

<sup>26</sup> and their forty bases of silver, two bases under the first frame and two bases

under the next frame.

<sup>27</sup> For the rear of the tabernacle westward he made six frames.

<sup>28</sup> He made two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear.

<sup>29</sup> They were separate beneath, but joined at the top, at the first ring; he made two of them in this way, for the two corners.

<sup>30</sup> There were eight frames with their bases of silver: sixteen bases, under every frame two bases.

<sup>31</sup> He made bars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,

<sup>32</sup> and five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the tabernacle at the rear westward.

<sup>33</sup> He made the middle bar to pass through from end to end halfway up the frames.

<sup>34</sup> And he overlaid the frames with gold, and made rings of gold for them to hold the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

<sup>35</sup> He made the curtain of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine twisted linen, with cherubim skillfully worked into it.

<sup>36</sup> For it he made four pillars of acacia, and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold, and he cast for them four bases of silver.

<sup>37</sup> He also made a screen for the entrance to the tent, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework;

<sup>38</sup> and its five pillars with their hooks. He overlaid their capitals and their bases with gold, but their five bases were of bronze.

Matthew 27:54-66 (NRSV)

<sup>54</sup> Now when the centurion and those with him, who were keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were terrified and said, “Truly this man was God’s Son!”

<sup>55</sup> Many women were also there, looking on from a distance; they had followed Jesus from Galilee and had provided for him. <sup>56</sup> Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

The Burial of Jesus

Jn 19:38-42)

<sup>57</sup> When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Jesus. <sup>58</sup> He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus; then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. <sup>59</sup> So Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth <sup>60</sup> and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock. He then rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb and went away. <sup>61</sup> Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

The Guard at the Tomb

<sup>62</sup> The next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate <sup>63</sup> and said, “Sir, we remember what that impostor said while he was still alive, ‘After three days I will rise again.’ <sup>64</sup> Therefore command the tomb to be made secure until the third day; otherwise his disciples may go and steal him away, and tell the people, ‘He has been raised from the dead,’ and the last deception would be worse than the first.” <sup>65</sup> Pilate said to them, “You have a guard of soldiers; go, make it as secure as you can.” <sup>66</sup> So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone.

<sup>11</sup> Come, O children, listen to me;

I will teach you the fear
of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Which of you desires life,
and covets many days to enjoy good?

<sup>13</sup> Keep your tongue from
evil,
and your lips from
speaking deceit.

<sup>14</sup> Depart from evil, and do
good;
seek peace, and pursue
it.

Proverbs 12:5–7 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> The thoughts of the righteous are just;
the advice of the wicked
is treacherous.

<sup>6</sup> The words of the wicked
are a deadly ambush,
but the speech of the upright delivers them.

<sup>7</sup> The wicked are overthrown and are no
more, but the house of the righteous will stand.

March 31

Exodus 37:1 – 38:8 (NRSV)

Making the Ark of the Covenant

(Ex 25:10–22)

<sup>1</sup> Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; it was two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high. <sup>2</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside,
and made a molding of gold around it. <sup>3</sup> He cast for it four rings of gold for its four feet,
two rings on its one side and
two rings on its other side.
<sup>4</sup> He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, <sup>5</sup> and put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark. <sup>6</sup> He made a mercy seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half was its length, and a cubit and a half its width. <sup>7</sup> He made two cherubim of hammered gold;
at the two ends of the mercy seat he made them, <sup>8</sup> one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end;
of one piece with the mercy
seat he made the cherubim at its two ends. <sup>9</sup> The cherubim spread out their wings above, overshadowing the mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were turned toward the mercy seat.

Making the Table for the Bread of the Presence
(Ex 25:23–30)

<sup>10</sup> He also made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high. <sup>11</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold around it. <sup>12</sup> He made around it a rim a handbreadth wide, and made a molding of gold around the rim. <sup>13</sup> He cast for it four rings of gold, and fastened the rings to the four corners at its four legs. <sup>14</sup> The rings that held the poles used for carrying the table were close to the rim. <sup>15</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>16</sup> And he made the vessels of pure gold that were to be on the table, its plates and dishes for incense, and its bowls and flagons with which to pour drink offerings.

Making the Lampstand
(Ex 25:31–40)

<sup>17</sup> He also made the lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand were made of hammered work; its cups, its calyxes, and its petals were of one piece with it. <sup>18</sup> There were six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it; <sup>19</sup> three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on the other branch—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand. <sup>20</sup> On the lampstand itself there were four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyxes and petals. <sup>21</sup> There was a calyx of one piece with it under the first pair of branches, a calyx of one piece with it under the next pair of branches, and a calyx of one piece with it under the last pair of branches. <sup>22</sup> Their calyxes and their branches were of one piece with it, the whole of it one hammered piece of pure gold. <sup>23</sup> He made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its trays of pure gold. <sup>24</sup> He made it and all its utensils of a talent of pure gold.

Making the Altar of Incense
(Ex 30:1–5)

<sup>25</sup> He made the altar of incense of acacia wood, one cubit long, and one cubit wide; it was square, and was two cubits high; its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>26</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, and its sides all around, and its horns; and he made for it a molding of gold all around, <sup>27</sup> and made two golden rings for it under its molding, on two opposite sides of it, to hold the poles with which to carry it. <sup>28</sup> And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Making the Anointing Oil and the Incense
(Ex 30:22–38)

<sup>29</sup> He made the holy anointing oil also, and the pure fragrant incense, blended as by the perfumer.

Making the Altar of Burnt Offering
(Ex 27:1–8)

38 He made the altar of burnt offering also of acacia wood; it was five cubits long, and five cubits wide; it was square, and three cubits high. <sup>2</sup> He made horns for it on its four corners; its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze. <sup>3</sup> He made all the utensils of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans: all its utensils he made of bronze. <sup>4</sup> He made for the altar a grating, a network of bronze, under its ledge, extending halfway down. <sup>5</sup> He cast four rings on the four corners of the bronze grating to hold the poles; <sup>6</sup> he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup> And he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it with them; he made it hollow, with boards. <sup>8</sup> He made the basin of bronze with its stand of bronze, from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Matthew 28:1-10 (NRSV)

Resurrection of Jesus

(Mk 16:1-8; Lk 24:1-12;

Jn 20:1-10)

<sup>1</sup> After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. <sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. <sup>4</sup> For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. <sup>5</sup> But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. <sup>6</sup> He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. <sup>7</sup> Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.” <sup>8</sup> So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. <sup>9</sup> Suddenly Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

-
- <sup>15</sup> The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry.
- <sup>16</sup> The face of the LORD is against evildoers, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
- <sup>17</sup> When the righteous cry for help, the LORD hears, and rescues them from all their troubles.
- <sup>18</sup> The LORD is near to the brokenhearted, and saves the crushed in spirit.
- <sup>19</sup> Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD rescues them from them all.
- <sup>20</sup> He keeps all their bones; not one of them will be broken.
- <sup>21</sup> Evil brings death to the wicked,

and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Proverbs 12:8–9 (NRSV)

- <sup>8</sup> One is commended for good sense, but a perverse mind is despised.
- <sup>9</sup> Better to be despised and have a servant, than to be self-important and lack food.

April 1

Exodus 38:9-31 (NRSV)

Making the Court of the Tabernacle
(Ex 27:9–19)

<sup>9</sup> He made the court; for the south side the hangings of the court were of fine twisted linen, one hundred cubits

long; <sup>10</sup> its twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. <sup>11</sup> For the north side there were hangings one hundred cubits long; its twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. <sup>12</sup> For the west side there were hangings fifty cubits long, with ten pillars and ten bases; the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. <sup>13</sup> And for the front to the east, fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup> The hangings for one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases. <sup>15</sup> And so for the other side; on each side of the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases. <sup>16</sup> All the hangings around the court were of fine twisted linen. <sup>17</sup> The bases for the pillars were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver; the overlaying of their capitals was also of silver, and all the pillars of the court were banded with silver. <sup>18</sup> The screen for the entrance to the court was embroidered with needlework in blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine twisted linen. It was twenty cubits long and, along the width of it, five cubits high, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

<sup>19</sup> There were four pillars; their four bases were of bronze, their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their bands of silver. <sup>20</sup> All the pegs for the tabernacle and for the court all around were of bronze.

Materials of the Tabernacle

<sup>21</sup> These are the records of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the covenant, which were drawn up at the commandment of Moses, the work of the Levites being under the direction of Ithamar son of the priest Aaron.

<sup>22</sup> Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses; <sup>23</sup> and with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, engraver, designer, and embroiderer in blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and in fine linen.

<sup>24</sup> All the gold that was used for the work, in all the construction of the sanctuary, the gold from the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, measured by the sanctuary shekel. <sup>25</sup> The silver from those of the congregation who were counted was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, measured by the sanctuary shekel; <sup>26</sup> a beka a head (that is, half a shekel, measured by the sanctuary shekel), for everyone who was counted in the census, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand, five hundred fifty men. <sup>27</sup> The hundred talents of silver were for casting the bases of the sanctuary, and the bases of the curtain; one hundred bases for the hundred talents, a talent for a base. <sup>28</sup> Of the thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their capitals and made bands for them. <sup>29</sup> The bronze that was contributed was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels; <sup>30</sup> with it he made the bases for the entrance of the tent of meeting, the bronze altar and the bronze grating for it and all the utensils of the altar, <sup>31</sup> the bases all around the court, and the bases of the gate of the court, all the pegs of the tabernacle, and all the pegs around the court.

The Report of the Guard

<sup>11</sup> While they were going, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests everything that had happened. <sup>12</sup> After the priests had assembled with the elders, they devised a plan to give a large sum of money to the soldiers, <sup>13</sup> telling them, “You must say, ‘His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.’ <sup>14</sup> If this comes to the governor’s ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.” <sup>15</sup> So they took the money and did as they were directed. And this story is still told among the Jews to this day.

The Commissioning of the Disciples

(Mk 16:14–18; Lk 24:36–49; Jn 20:19–23; Acts 1:6–8)

<sup>16</sup> Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. <sup>17</sup> When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. <sup>18</sup> And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. <sup>19</sup> Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Prayer for Deliverance from Enemies

Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me!
- <sup>2</sup> Take hold of shield and buckler, and rise up to help me!

<sup>3</sup> Draw the spear and javelin
 against my pursuers;
 say to my soul,
 “I am your salvation.”
<sup>4</sup> Let them be put to shame
 and dishonor
 who seek after my life.
 Let them be turned back
 and confounded
 who devise evil against
 me.
<sup>5</sup> Let them be like chaff
 before the wind,
 with the angel of the LORD driving them on.
<sup>6</sup> Let their way be dark and slippery,
 with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
<sup>7</sup> For without cause they hid
 their net for me;
 without cause they dug a
 pit for my life.
<sup>8</sup> Let ruin come on them
 unawares.
 And let the net that they hid ensnare them;
 let them fall in it—to
 their ruin.
<sup>9</sup> Then my soul shall rejoice
 in the LORD,
 exulting in his
 deliverance.

Proverbs 12:10 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> The righteous know the needs of their animals,
 but the mercy of the wicked is cruel.

*Making the Vestments
 for the Priesthood
 (Ex 28:1–43)*

<sup>1</sup> Of the blue, purple, and crimson yarns they made finely worked vestments, for ministering in the holy place;
 they made the sacred vestments for Aaron; as the LORD had commanded Moses.
<sup>2</sup> He made the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine
 twisted linen. <sup>3</sup> Gold leaf was hammered out and cut into threads to work into the blue,
 purple, and crimson yarns and into the fine twisted linen, in skilled design. <sup>4</sup> They made for the ephod shoulder-pieces,
 joined to it at its two edges.

<sup>5</sup> The decorated band on it was of the same materials and workmanship, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup> The onyx stones were prepared, enclosed in settings of gold filigree and engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>7</sup> He set them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, to be stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>8</sup> He made the breastpiece, in skilled work, like the work of the ephod, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen. <sup>9</sup> It was square; the breastpiece was made double, a span in length and a span in width when doubled. <sup>10</sup> They set in it four rows of stones. A row of carnelian, chrysolite, and emerald was the first row; <sup>11</sup> and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and a moonstone; <sup>12</sup> and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup> and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they were enclosed in settings of gold filigree.

<sup>14</sup> There were twelve stones with names corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they were like signets, each engraved with its name, for the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup> They made on the breastpiece chains of pure gold, twisted like cords; <sup>16</sup> and they made two settings of gold filigree and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece; <sup>17</sup> and they put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece.

<sup>18</sup> Two ends of the two cords they had attached to the two settings of filigree; in this way they attached it in front to the shoulder-pieces of the ephod.

<sup>19</sup> Then they made two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.

ephod with a blue cord, so that it should lie on the decorated band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece should not come loose from the ephod; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>22</sup> He also made the robe of the ephod woven all of blue yarn; <sup>23</sup> and the opening of the robe in the middle of it was like the opening in a coat of mail, with a binding around the opening, so that it might not be torn. <sup>24</sup> On the lower hem of the robe they made pomegranates of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen. <sup>25</sup> They also made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates on the lower hem of the robe all around, between the pomegranates; <sup>26</sup> a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate all around on the lower hem of the robe for ministering; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>27</sup> They also made the tunics, woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons, <sup>28</sup> and the turban of fine linen, and the headdresses of fine linen, and the linen undergarments of fine twisted linen, <sup>29</sup> and the sash of fine twisted linen, and of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, embroidered with needlework; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup> They made the rosette of the holy diadem of pure gold, and wrote on it an inscription, like the engraving of a signet, "Holy to the LORD." <sup>31</sup> They tied to it a blue cord, to fasten it on the turban above; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Work Completed

(Ex 35:10–19)

<sup>32</sup> In this way all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished; the Israelites had done everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup> Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its utensils, its hooks, its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases; <sup>34</sup> the covering of tanned rams' skins and the covering of fine leather, and the curtain for the screen; <sup>35</sup> the ark of the covenant with its poles and the mercy seat; <sup>36</sup> the table with all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;<sup>37</sup> the pure lampstand with its lamps set on it and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;<sup>38</sup> the golden altar, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance of the tent;<sup>39</sup> the bronze altar, and its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the basin with its stand;<sup>40</sup> the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, and its pegs; and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;<sup>41</sup> the finely worked vestments for ministering in the holy place, the sacred vestments for the priest Aaron, and the vestments of his sons to serve as priests.<sup>42</sup> The Israelites had done all of the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses.<sup>43</sup> When Moses saw that they had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded, he blessed them.

Mark 1:1–15 (NRSV)

The Proclamation of John the Baptist

(Mt 3:1–12; Lk 3:1–20; Jn 1:19–28)

“See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
who will prepare your way;

<sup>3</sup> the voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight,’

<sup>4</sup> John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>5</sup> And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. <sup>6</sup> Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup> He proclaimed, “The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals.

<sup>8</sup> I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

The Baptism of Jesus

(Mt 3:13–17; Lk 3:21–22; Jn 1:29–34)

<sup>9</sup> In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. <sup>10</sup> And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. <sup>11</sup> And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.”

The Temptation of Jesus

(Mt 4:1–11; Lk 4:1–13)

<sup>12</sup> And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup> He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him.

The Beginning of the Galilean Ministry

(Mt 4:12–17; Lk 4:14–15)

news of God, <sup>15</sup> and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”

Psalm 35:10-18 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> All my bones shall say,
“O LORD, who is like you?
You deliver the weak
from those too strong for
them,
the weak and needy
from those who despoil them.”
<sup>11</sup> Malicious witnesses rise
up;
they ask me about things
I do not know.
<sup>12</sup> They repay me evil for
good;
my soul is forlorn.
<sup>13</sup> But as for me, when they were sick,
I wore sackcloth;
I afflicted myself with fasting.
I prayed with head bowed
on my bosom,
<sup>14</sup> as though I grieved for a friend or a brother;
I went about as one who laments for a mother,
bowed down and in mourning.

15 But at my stumbling they gathered in glee,
they gathered together
against me;
ruffians whom I did not know
tore at me without ceasing;
16 they impiously mocked
more and more,
gnashing at me with
their teeth.
17 How long, O LORD, will you look on?
Rescue me from their ravages,
my life from the lions!
18 Then I will thank you in the great congregation;
in the mighty throng I will praise you.

Proverbs 12:11 (NRSV)

11 Those who till their land will have plenty of food,
but those who follow
worthless pursuits
have no sense.

The Tabernacle Erected and Its Equipment Installed

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting. <sup>3</sup> You shall put in it
the ark of the covenant, and
you shall screen the ark with the curtain. <sup>4</sup> You shall bring in the table, and arrange its setting; and you shall bring in the lampstand, and set up its lamps. <sup>5</sup> You shall put the golden altar for incense before
the ark of the covenant, and
set up the screen for the entrance of the tabernacle.
<sup>6</sup> You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, <sup>7</sup> and place the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it. <sup>8</sup> You shall
set up the court all around,
and hang up the screen for the gate of the court. <sup>9</sup> Then you shall take the anointing oil,
and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and consecrate it and all its furniture, so that it shall become holy. <sup>10</sup> You shall also anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar, so that the altar shall be most holy. <sup>11</sup> You shall also anoint the basin with its stand, and consecrate it. <sup>12</sup> Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and shall wash them with water, <sup>13</sup> and put on Aaron the sacred vestments, and you shall anoint him and consecrate him, so that he may serve me as priest. <sup>14</sup> You shall bring his sons also and put tunics on them, <sup>15</sup> and anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may serve me as priests: and their anointing shall admit them to a perpetual priesthood throughout all generations to come.

<sup>16</sup> Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>17</sup> In the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was set up.

and set up its frames, and put in its poles, and raised up its pillars; <sup>19</sup> and he spread the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent over it; as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>20</sup> He took the covenant and put it into the ark, and put the poles on the ark, and set the mercy seat above the ark; <sup>21</sup> and he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the curtain for screening, and screened the ark of the covenant; as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>22</sup> He put the table in the tent of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the curtain, <sup>23</sup> and set the bread in order on it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>24</sup> He put the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle, <sup>25</sup> and set up the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>26</sup> He put the golden altar in the tent of meeting before the curtain, <sup>27</sup> and offered fragrant incense on it; as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>28</sup> He also put in place the screen for the entrance of the tabernacle.

<sup>29</sup> He set the altar of burnt offering at the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup> He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it for washing, <sup>31</sup> with which Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet. <sup>32</sup> When they went into the tent of meeting, and when they approached the altar, they washed; as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup> He set up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and put up the screen at the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

The Cloud and the Glory
(Ex 13:21–22; Num 9:15–23)

<sup>34</sup> Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>35</sup> Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud settled upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup> Whenever the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out on each stage of their journey; <sup>37</sup> but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day that it was taken up. <sup>38</sup> For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel at each stage of their journey.

Mark 1:16–28 (NRSV)

Jesus Calls the First Disciples
(Mt 4:18–22; Lk 5:1–11)

<sup>16</sup> As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup> And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.” <sup>18</sup> And immediately they left their nets and followed him. <sup>19</sup> As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. <sup>20</sup> Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

The Man with an Unclean Spirit
(Lk 4:31–37)

<sup>21</sup> They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. <sup>22</sup> They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. <sup>23</sup> Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, <sup>24</sup> and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” <sup>25</sup> But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” <sup>26</sup> And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. <sup>27</sup> They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” <sup>28</sup> At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Psalm 35:19–28 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> Do not let my treacherous enemies rejoice over me, or those who hate me without cause wink the eye.
<sup>20</sup> For they do not speak peace,
but they conceive deceitful words
against those who are quiet in the land.
<sup>21</sup> They open wide their mouths against me;
they say, “Aha, Aha, our eyes have seen it.”
<sup>22</sup> You have seen, O LORD; do not be silent!
O Lord, do not be far from me!
<sup>23</sup> Wake up! Bestir yourself for my defense,
for my cause, my God and my Lord!
<sup>24</sup> Vindicate me, O LORD, my God,
according to your righteousness,
and do not let them rejoice over me.
<sup>25</sup> Do not let them say to themselves,
“Aha, we have our heart’s desire.”

Do not let them say, “We have swallowed you
up.”

<sup>26</sup> Let all those who rejoice at my calamity
be put to shame and confusion;
let those who exalt
themselves against me
be clothed with shame
and dishonor.

<sup>27</sup> Let those who desire my vindication
shout for joy and be glad,
and say evermore, “Great is the LORD,
who delights in the welfare of his servant.”

<sup>28</sup> Then my tongue shall tell of your righteousness
and of your praise all day
long.

Proverbs 12:12–14 (NRSV)

<sup>12</sup> The wicked covet the proceeds of
wickedness,
but the root of the righteous bears fruit.

<sup>13</sup> The evil are ensnared by the transgression of
their lips,
but the righteous escape
from trouble.

<sup>14</sup> From the fruit of the mouth one is filled
with good things,
and manual labor has its reward.

The Burnt Offering

<sup>1</sup> The LORD summoned Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying:

<sup>2</sup> Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When any of you bring an offering of livestock to the LORD, you shall bring your offering from the herd or from the flock.

<sup>3</sup> If the offering is a burnt offering from the herd, you shall offer a male without blemish; you shall bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, for acceptance in your behalf before the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> You shall lay your hand on the head of the burnt offering,
and it shall be acceptable in your behalf as atonement for you. <sup>5</sup> The bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD; and Aaron's sons the priests shall offer the blood, dashing the blood against all sides of the altar that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>6</sup> The burnt offering shall be flayed and cut up into its parts. <sup>7</sup> The sons of the priest Aaron shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. <sup>8</sup> Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the parts, with the head and the suet, on the wood that is on the fire on the altar; <sup>9</sup> but its entrails and its legs shall be washed with water. Then the priest shall turn the whole into smoke on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> If your gift for a burnt offering is from the flock, from the sheep or goats, your offering shall be a male without blemish. <sup>11</sup> It shall be slaughtered on the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>12</sup> It shall be cut up into its parts, with its head and its suet, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood that is on the fire on the altar; <sup>13</sup> but the entrails and the legs shall be washed with water. Then the priest shall offer the whole and turn it into smoke on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> If your offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, you shall choose your offering from turtledoves or pigeons. <sup>15</sup> The priest shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head, and turn it into smoke on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out against the side of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> He shall remove its crop with its contents and throw it at the east side of the altar, in the place for ashes. <sup>17</sup> He shall tear it open by its wings without severing it. Then the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Mark 1:29–45 (NRSV)

Jesus Heals Many at Simon's House

(Mt. 8:14–17; Lk 4:38–41)

<sup>29</sup> As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. <sup>30</sup> Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. <sup>31</sup> He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

<sup>32</sup> That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. <sup>33</sup> And the whole city was gathered around the door. <sup>34</sup> And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

A Preaching Tour in Galilee

(Mt 4:23–25; Lk 4:42–44)

<sup>35</sup> In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. <sup>36</sup> And Simon and his companions hunted for him. <sup>37</sup> When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." <sup>38</sup> He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." <sup>39</sup> And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

(Mt 8:1–4; Lk 5:12–16)

<sup>40</sup> A leper came to him begging him, and kneeling he said to him, "If you choose, you can make me clean." <sup>41</sup> Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I do choose. Be made clean!" <sup>42</sup> Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. <sup>43</sup> After sternly warning him he sent him away at once, <sup>44</sup> saying to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." <sup>45</sup> But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

Psalms 36:1-5 (NRSV)

Human Wickedness and Divine Goodness

To the leader. Of David, the servant of the LORD.

- 1 Transgression speaks to the wicked deep in their hearts; there is no fear of God before their eyes.
- 2 For they flatter themselves in their own eyes that their iniquity cannot be found out and hated.
- 3 The words of their mouths are mischief and deceit; they have ceased to act wisely and do good.
- 4 They plot mischief while on their beds; they are set on a way that is not good; they do not reject evil.
- 5 Your steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

Proverbs 12:15–17 (NRSV)

- 15 Fools think their own way is right, but the wise listen to advice.
- 16 Fools show their anger at once, but the prudent ignore an insult.
- 17 Whoever speaks the truth gives honest evidence, but a false witness speaks deceitfully.

Grain Offerings

- 1 When anyone presents a grain offering to the LORD, the offering shall be of choice flour; the worshiper shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it, <sup>2</sup> and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. After taking from it a handful of the choice flour and oil, with all its frankincense, the priest shall turn this token portion into smoke on the altar, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD. <sup>3</sup> And what is left of the grain offering shall be for Aaron and his sons, a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> And what is left of the grain offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> No grain offering that you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you must not turn any leaven or honey into smoke as an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> You may bring them to the LORD as an offering of choice products, but they shall not be offered on the altar for a pleasing odor. <sup>13</sup> You shall not omit from your grain offerings the salt of the covenant with your God; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.

<sup>14</sup> If you bring a grain offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall bring as the grain offering of your first fruits coarse new grain from fresh ears, parched with fire. <sup>15</sup> You shall add oil to it and lay frankincense on it; it is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup> And the priest shall turn a token portion of it into smoke—some of the coarse grain and oil with all its frankincense; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

Offerings of Well-Being

3 If the offering is a sacrifice of well-being, if you offer an animal of the herd, whether male or female, you shall offer one without blemish before the LORD. <sup>2</sup>You shall lay your hand on the head of the offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons the priests shall dash the blood against all sides of the altar.

<sup>3</sup>You shall offer from the sacrifice of well-being, as an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails; <sup>4</sup>the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

<sup>5</sup>Then Aaron's sons shall turn these into smoke on the altar, with the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire, as an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>If your offering for a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD is from the flock, male or female, you shall offer one without blemish. <sup>7</sup>If you present a sheep as your offering, you shall bring it before the LORD <sup>8</sup>and lay your hand on the head of the offering. It shall be slaughtered before the tent of meeting, and Aaron's sons shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>9</sup>You shall present its fat from the sacrifice of well-being, as an offering by fire to the LORD: the whole broad tail, which shall be removed close to the backbone, the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is around the entrails; <sup>10</sup>the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys. <sup>11</sup>Then the priest shall turn these into smoke on the altar as a food offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>If your offering is a goat, you shall bring it before the LORD <sup>13</sup>and lay your hand on its head; it shall be slaughtered before the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar.

<sup>14</sup>You shall present as your offering from it, as an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is around the entrails; <sup>15</sup>the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys. <sup>16</sup> Then the priest shall turn these into smoke on the altar as a food offering by fire for a pleasing odor.

All fat is the LORD'S. <sup>17</sup> It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, in all your settlements: you must not eat any fat or any blood.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic
(Mt 9:2–8; Lk 5:17–26)

<sup>1</sup> When he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home. <sup>2</sup> So many gathered around that there was no longer room for them, not even in front of the door; and he was speaking the word to them. <sup>3</sup> Then some people came, bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them. <sup>4</sup> And when they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and after having dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic lay. <sup>5</sup> When

Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.” <sup>6</sup> Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, <sup>7</sup> “Why does this fellow speak in this way? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?” <sup>8</sup> At once Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were discussing these questions among themselves; and he said to them, “Why do you raise such questions in your hearts? <sup>9</sup> Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Stand up and take your mat and walk’? <sup>10</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralytic— <sup>11</sup> “I say to you, stand up, take your mat and go to your home.” <sup>12</sup> And he stood up, and immediately took the mat and went out before all of them; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

<sup>6</sup> Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains,
your judgments are like
the great deep;
you save humans and
animals alike, O LORD.

<sup>7</sup> How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

<sup>8</sup> They feast on the abundance of your
house,
and you give them drink
from the river of your delights.

fountain of life;
in your light we see light.

Sin Offerings

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying, <sup>2</sup> Speak to the people of Israel, saying: When anyone sins unintentionally in any of the LORD's commandments
about things not to be done,
and does any one of them:

<sup>3</sup> If it is the anointed priest who sins, thus bringing guilt
on the people, he shall offer
for the sin that he has committed a bull of the herd
without blemish as a sin offering to the LORD. <sup>4</sup> He shall bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD and lay his hand on the head of the bull; the bull
shall be slaughtered before the LORD. <sup>5</sup> The anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull and bring it into the tent of meeting. <sup>6</sup> The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the curtain of the sanctuary. <sup>7</sup> The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is in the tent of meeting before the LORD; and the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>8</sup> He shall remove all the fat from the bull of sin offering: the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails; <sup>9</sup> the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins; and the appendage of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys, <sup>10</sup> just as these are removed from the ox of the sacrifice of well-being. The priest shall turn them into smoke upon the altar of burnt offering. <sup>11</sup> But the skin of the bull and all its flesh, as well as its head, its legs, its entrails, and its dung— <sup>12</sup> all the rest of the bull—he shall carry out to a clean place outside the camp, to the ash heap, and shall burn it on a wood fire; at the ash heap it shall be burned.

<sup>13</sup> If the whole congregation of Israel errs unintentionally and the matter

escapes the notice of the assembly, and they do any one of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done and incur guilt; <sup>14</sup> when the sin that they have committed becomes known, the assembly shall offer a bull of the herd for a sin offering and bring it before the tent of meeting. <sup>15</sup> The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD. <sup>16</sup> The anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bull into the tent of meeting, <sup>17</sup> and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, in front of the curtain. <sup>18</sup> He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>19</sup> He shall remove all its fat and turn it into smoke on the altar. <sup>20</sup> He shall do with the bull just as is done with the bull of sin offering; he shall do the same with this. The priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.<sup>21</sup> He shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

<sup>22</sup>When a ruler sins, doing unintentionally any one of all the things that by commandments of the LORD his God ought not to be done and incurs guilt,<sup>23</sup> once the sin that he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a male goat without blemish.<sup>24</sup> He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat; it shall be slaughtered at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD; it is a sin offering.<sup>25</sup> The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.<sup>26</sup> All its fat he shall turn into smoke on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of well-being. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin, and he shall be forgiven.

Mark 2:13–22 (NRSV)

Jesus Calls Levi

(Mt 9:9–13; Lk 5:27–32)

<sup>13</sup>Jesus went out again beside the sea; the whole crowd gathered around him, and he taught them.<sup>14</sup> As he was walking along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he got up and followed him.

<sup>15</sup>And as he sat at dinner in Levi’s house, many tax collectors and sinners were also sitting with Jesus and his disciples—for there were many who followed him.

<sup>16</sup>When the scribes of the Pharisees saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they said to his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”<sup>17</sup> When Jesus heard this, he said to them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick; I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

The Question about Fasting

(Mt 9:14–17; Lk 5:33–39)

<sup>18</sup> Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and people came and said to him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?” <sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, “The wedding guests cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup> The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast on that day.

Psalm 36:10-12 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> O continue your steadfast love to those who know you, and your salvation to the upright of heart!

- <sup>11</sup> Do not let the foot of the arrogant tread on me, or the hand of the wicked drive me away.
- <sup>12</sup> There the evildoers lie prostrate; they are thrust down, unable to rise.

Proverbs 12:19–20 (NRSV)

- <sup>19</sup> Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue lasts only a moment.
- <sup>20</sup> Deceit is in the mind of those who plan evil, but those who counsel peace have joy.

April 7

Leviticus 4:27–5:19 (NRSV)

<sup>27</sup> If anyone of the ordinary people among you sins unintentionally in doing any one of the things that by the LORD’s commandments ought not to be done and incurs guilt,<sup>28</sup> when the sin that you have committed is made known to you, you shall bring a female goat without blemish as your offering, for the sin that you have committed.

<sup>29</sup>You shall lay your hand on the head of the sin offering; and the sin offering shall be slaughtered at the place of the burnt offering.<sup>30</sup> The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.<sup>31</sup> He shall remove all its fat, as the fat is removed from the offering of well-being, and the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar for a pleasing odor to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf, and you shall be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup>If the offering you bring as a sin offering is a sheep, you shall bring a female without blemish.<sup>33</sup> You shall lay your hand on the head of the sin offering; and it shall be slaughtered as a sin offering at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered.<sup>34</sup> The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.<sup>35</sup> You shall remove all its fat, as the fat of the sheep is removed from the sacrifice of well-being, and the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar, with the offerings by fire to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the sin that you have committed, and you shall be forgiven.

5 When any of you sin in that you have heard a public adjuration to testify and—though able to testify as one who has seen or learned of the matter—do not speak up, you are subject to punishment.<sup>2</sup> Or when any of you touch any unclean thing—whether the carcass of an unclean beast or the carcass of unclean livestock or the carcass of an unclean swarming thing—and are unaware of it, you have become unclean, and are guilty. <sup>3</sup> Or when you touch human uncleanness—any uncleanness by which one can become unclean—and are unaware of it, when you come to know it, you shall be guilty.

<sup>4</sup> Or when any of you utter aloud a rash oath for a bad or a good purpose, whatever people utter in an oath, and are unaware of it, when you come to know it, you shall in any of these be guilty. <sup>5</sup> When you realize your guilt in any of these, you shall confess the sin that you have committed.

<sup>6</sup> And you shall bring to the LORD, as your penalty for the sin that you have committed, a female from the flock, a sheep or a goat, as a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for your sin.

<sup>7</sup> But if you cannot afford a sheep, you shall bring to the LORD, as your penalty for the sin that you have committed, two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup> You shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the sin offering, wringing its head at the nape without severing it.

<sup>9</sup> He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup> And the second he shall offer for a burnt offering according to the regulation. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the sin that you have committed, and you shall be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> But if you cannot afford two turtledoves or two pigeons, you shall bring as your offering for the sin that you have committed one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour for a sin offering; you shall not put oil on it or lay frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup> You shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall scoop up a handful of it as its memorial portion, and turn this into smoke on the altar, with the offerings by fire to the LORD; it is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup> Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for whichever of these sins you have committed, and you shall be forgiven. Like the grain offering, the rest shall be for the priest.

Offerings with Restitution

<sup>14</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>15</sup>When any of you commit a trespass and sin unintentionally in any of the holy things of the LORD, you shall bring, as your guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, convertible into silver by the sanctuary shekel; it is a guilt offering. <sup>16</sup>And you shall make restitution for the holy thing in which you were remiss, and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. The priest shall make atonement on your behalf with the ram of the guilt offering, and you shall be forgiven.

<sup>17</sup>If any of you sin without knowing it, doing any of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done, you have incurred guilt, and are subject to punishment. <sup>18</sup>You shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, or the equivalent, as a guilt offering; and the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the error that you committed unintentionally, and you shall be forgiven. <sup>19</sup>It is a guilt offering; you have incurred guilt before the LORD.

Mark 2:23–3:6 (NRSV)

Pronouncement about the Sabbath

(Mt 12:1–8; Lk 6:1–5)

<sup>23</sup>One sabbath he was going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. <sup>24</sup>The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?" <sup>25</sup>And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? <sup>26</sup>He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions." <sup>27</sup>Then he said to them, "The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; <sup>28</sup>so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath."

*The Man with a Withered
Hand*

(Mt 12:9–14; Lk 6:6–11)

3 Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. <sup>2</sup> They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. <sup>3</sup> And he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Come forward.” <sup>4</sup> Then he said to them, “Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent. <sup>5</sup> He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. <sup>6</sup> The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Psalms 37:1-6 (NRSV)

Exhortation to Patience and Trust
Of David.

<sup>1</sup> Do not fret because of the wicked;

do not be envious of wrongdoers, <sup>2</sup> for they will soon fade like the grass,
and wither like the green herb.
<sup>3</sup> Trust in the LORD, and do good;
so you will live in the land, and enjoy security.
<sup>4</sup> Take delight in the LORD,
and he will give you the desires of your heart.
<sup>5</sup> Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in him, and he will act.
<sup>6</sup> He will make your vindication shine like the light,
and the justice of your cause like the noonday.

<sup>21</sup> No harm happens to the righteous,
but the wicked are filled with trouble.
<sup>22</sup> Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD,
but those who act faithfully are his delight.

<sup>23</sup> One who is clever conceals
knowledge,
but the mind of a fool
broadcasts folly.

Leviticus 6:1-23 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> When any of you sin and commit a trespass against the LORD by deceiving a neighbor in a matter of a deposit or a pledge, or by robbery, or if you have defrauded a neighbor, <sup>3</sup> or have found something lost and lied about it—if you swear falsely regarding any of the various things that one may do and sin thereby— <sup>4</sup> when you have sinned and realize your guilt, and would restore what you took by robbery or by fraud or the deposit that was committed to you, or the lost thing that you found, <sup>5</sup> or anything else about which you have sworn falsely, you shall repay the principal amount and shall add one-fifth to it. You shall pay it to its owner when you realize your guilt. <sup>6</sup> And you shall bring to the priest, as your guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, or its equivalent, for a guilt offering. <sup>7</sup> The priest shall make atonement on your behalf before the LORD, and you shall be forgiven for any of the things that one may do and incur guilt thereby.

Instructions concerning Sacrifices

<sup>8</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>9</sup> Command Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the ritual of the burnt offering. The burnt offering itself shall remain on the hearth upon the altar all night until the morning, while the fire on the altar shall be kept burning. <sup>10</sup> The priest shall put on his linen vestments after putting on his linen undergarments next to his body; and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has reduced the burnt offering on the altar, and place them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup> Then he shall take off his vestments and put on other garments, and carry the ashes out to a clean place outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> The fire on the altar shall be kept burning; it shall not go out. Every morning the priest shall add wood to it, lay out the burnt offering on it, and turn into smoke the fat pieces of the offerings of well-being.

<sup>13</sup> A perpetual fire shall be kept burning on the altar; it shall not go out.

<sup>14</sup> This is the ritual of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, in front of the altar.

<sup>15</sup> They shall take from it a handful of the choice flour and oil of the grain offering, with all the frankincense that is on the offering, and they shall turn its memorial portion into smoke on the altar as a pleasing odor to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> Aaron and his sons shall eat what is left of it; it shall be eaten as unleavened cakes in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting they shall eat it. <sup>17</sup> It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings by fire; it is most holy, like the sin

offering and the guilt offering.

<sup>18</sup> Every male among the descendants of Aaron shall eat of it, as their perpetual due throughout your generations, from the LORD's offerings by fire; anything that touches them shall become holy.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>20</sup> This is the offering that Aaron and his sons shall offer to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour as a regular offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening. <sup>21</sup> It shall be made with oil on a griddle; you shall bring it well soaked, as a grain offering of baked pieces, and you shall present it as a pleasing odor to the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> And so the priest, anointed from among Aaron's descendants as a successor, shall prepare it; it is the LORD's—a perpetual due—to be turned entirely into smoke.

<sup>23</sup> Every grain offering of a priest shall be wholly burned; it shall not be eaten.

Mark 3:7–19 (NRSV)

A Multitude at the Seaside
(Mt 12:15–21)

<sup>7</sup> Jesus departed with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed him; <sup>8</sup> hearing all that he was doing, they came to him in great numbers from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and the region around Tyre and Sidon. <sup>9</sup> He told his disciples to have a boat ready for him because of the crowd, so that they would not crush him; <sup>10</sup> for he had cured many, so that all who had diseases pressed upon him to touch him. <sup>11</sup> Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and shouted, “You are the Son of God!” <sup>12</sup> But he sternly ordered them not to make him known.

Jesus Appoints the Twelve
(Mt 10:1–4; Lk 6:12–16)

<sup>13</sup> He went up the mountain and called to him those whom he wanted, and they came to him. <sup>14</sup> And he appointed twelve, whom he also named apostles, to be with him, and to be sent out to proclaim the message,

<sup>15</sup> and to have authority to cast out demons. <sup>16</sup> So he appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter); <sup>17</sup> James son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder); <sup>18</sup> and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean, <sup>19</sup> and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

<sup>7</sup> Be still before the LORD,
and wait patiently for him;
do not fret over those who prosper in their
way,
over those who carry out
evil devices.

<sup>8</sup> Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath.
Do not fret—it leads only
to evil.

<sup>9</sup> For the wicked shall be cut off,
but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit
the land.

<sup>10</sup> Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look diligently for their place, they will not be there.

<sup>11</sup> But the meek shall inherit the land, and delight themselves in abundant prosperity.

Proverbs 12:24 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> The hand of the diligent will rule, while the lazy will be put to forced labor.

April 9

Leviticus 6:24-7:27 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>25</sup> Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the ritual of the sin offering. The sin offering shall be slaughtered before the LORD at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered;

it is most holy. <sup>26</sup> The priest who offers it as a sin offering shall eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the tent of meeting.

<sup>27</sup> Whatever touches its flesh shall become holy; and when any of its blood is spattered on a garment, you shall wash the bespattered part in a holy place. <sup>28</sup> An earthen vessel in which it was boiled shall be broken; but if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, that shall be scoured and rinsed in water.

<sup>29</sup> Every male among the priests shall eat of it; it is most holy. <sup>30</sup> But no sin offering shall be eaten from which any blood is brought into the tent of meeting for atonement in the holy place; it shall be burned with fire.

7 This is the ritual of the guilt offering. It is most holy; <sup>2</sup> at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered, they shall slaughter the guilt offering, and its blood shall be dashed against all sides of the altar. <sup>3</sup> All its fat shall be offered: the broad tail, the fat that covers the entrails, <sup>4</sup> the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which shall be removed with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup>The priest shall turn them into smoke on the altar as an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.

<sup>6</sup>Every male among the priests shall eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

<sup>7</sup>The guilt offering is like the sin offering, there is the same ritual for them; the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it. <sup>8</sup>So, too, the priest who offers anyone's burnt offering shall keep the skin of the burnt offering that he has offered. <sup>9</sup>And every grain offering baked in the oven, and all that is prepared in a pan or on a griddle, shall belong to the priest who offers it. <sup>10</sup>But every other grain offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron equally.

Further Instructions

<sup>11</sup>This is the ritual of the sacrifice of the offering of well-being that one may offer to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>If you offer it for thanksgiving, you shall offer with the thank offering unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of choice flour well soaked in oil. <sup>13</sup>With your thanksgiving sacrifice of well-being you shall bring your offering with cakes of leavened bread. <sup>14</sup>From this you shall offer one cake from each offering, as a gift to the LORD; it shall belong to the priest who dashes the blood of the offering of well-being.

<sup>15</sup>And the flesh of your thanksgiving sacrifice of well-being shall be eaten on the day it is offered; you shall not leave any of it until morning.

<sup>16</sup>But if the sacrifice you offer is a votive offering or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that you offer your sacrifice, and what is left of it shall be eaten the next day;

<sup>17</sup>but what is left of the flesh of the sacrifice shall be burned up on the third day. <sup>18</sup>If any of the flesh of your sacrifice of well-being is eaten on the third day, it shall not be acceptable, nor shall it be credited to the one who offers it; it shall be an abomination, and the one who eats of it shall incur guilt.

<sup>19</sup> Flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned up. As for other flesh, all who are clean may eat such flesh.

<sup>20</sup> But those who eat flesh from the LORD's sacrifice of well-being while in a state of uncleanness shall be cut off from their kin. <sup>21</sup> When any one of you touches any unclean thing—human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean creature—and then eats flesh from the LORD's sacrifice of well-being, you shall be cut off from your kin.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>23</sup> Speak to the people of Israel, saying: You shall eat no fat of ox or sheep or goat. <sup>24</sup> The fat of an animal that died or was torn by wild animals may be put to any other use, but you must not eat it. <sup>25</sup> If any one of you eats the fat from an animal of which an offering by fire may be made to the LORD, you who eat it shall be cut off from your kin. <sup>26</sup> You must not eat any blood whatever, either of bird or of animal, in any of your settlements. <sup>27</sup> Any one of you who eats any blood shall be cut off from your kin.

Mark 3:20–30 (NRSV)

Jesus and Beelzebul
(Mt 12:22–32; Lk 11:14–23)

Then he went home; <sup>20</sup> and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. <sup>21</sup> When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." <sup>22</sup> And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." <sup>23</sup> And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? <sup>24</sup> If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. <sup>25</sup> And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. <sup>26</sup> And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. <sup>27</sup> But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

<sup>28</sup> “Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; <sup>29</sup> but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin” — <sup>30</sup> for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.”

<sup>12</sup> The wicked plot against the righteous, and gnash their teeth at them;
<sup>13</sup> but the LORD laughs at the wicked,
for he sees that their day is coming.
<sup>14</sup> The wicked draw the sword and bend their bows
to bring down the poor and needy,
to kill those who walk uprightly;
<sup>15</sup> their sword shall enter their own heart,
and their bows shall be broken.
<sup>16</sup> Better is a little that the righteous person has
than the abundance of many wicked.

<sup>17</sup> For the arms of the wicked shall be broken,
but the LORD upholds the righteous.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD knows the days of the blameless,
and their heritage will abide forever;

<sup>19</sup> they are not put to shame in evil times,
in the days of famine they have abundance.

<sup>20</sup> But the wicked perish, and the enemies of the LORD are like the glory of the pastures;
they vanish—like smoke they vanish away.

Proverbs 12:25 (NRSV)

<sup>25</sup> Anxiety weighs down the human heart,
but a good word cheers it up.

April 10

Leviticus 7:28-8:17 (NRSV)

<sup>28</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>29</sup>Speak to the people of Israel, saying: Any one of you who would offer to the LORD your sacrifice of well-being must yourself bring to the LORD your offering from your sacrifice of well-being.

<sup>30</sup>Your own hands shall bring the LORD's offering by fire; you shall bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be raised as an elevation offering before the LORD.

well-being, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons, as a perpetual due from the people of Israel.

<sup>35</sup>This is the portion allotted to Aaron and to his sons from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, once they have been brought forward to serve the LORD as priests; <sup>36</sup>these the LORD commanded to be given them, when he anointed them, as a perpetual due from the people of Israel throughout their generations.

<sup>37</sup>This is the ritual of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the offering of ordination, and the sacrifice of well-being, <sup>38</sup>which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, when he commanded the people of Israel to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

The Rites of Ordination (Ex 29:1–37)

8 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>Take Aaron and his sons with him, the vestments, the anointing oil, the bull of sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread; <sup>3</sup> and assemble the whole congregation at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>4</sup> And Moses did as the LORD commanded him. When the congregation was assembled at the entrance of the tent of meeting, <sup>5</sup> Moses said to the congregation, "This is what the LORD has commanded to be done."

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward, and washed them with water. <sup>7</sup> He put the tunic on him, fastened the sash around him, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him. He then put the decorated band of the ephod around him, tying the ephod to him with it. <sup>8</sup> He placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim. <sup>9</sup> And he set the turban on his head, and on the turban, in front, he set the golden ornament, the holy crown, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup> Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them. <sup>11</sup> He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the basin and its base, to consecrate them.

<sup>12</sup> He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him. <sup>13</sup> And Moses brought forward Aaron's sons, and clothed them with tunics, and fastened sashes around them, and tied headdresses on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>14</sup> He led forward the bull of sin offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bull of sin offering, <sup>15</sup> and it was slaughtered. Moses took the blood and with his finger put some on each of the horns of the altar, purifying the altar; then he poured out the blood at the base of the altar. Thus he consecrated it, to make atonement for it. <sup>16</sup> Moses took all the fat that was around the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and turned them into smoke on the altar. <sup>17</sup> But the bull itself, its skin and flesh and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Mark 3:31-4:9 (NRSV)

The True Kindred of Jesus

(Mt 12:46–50; Lk 8:19–21)

<sup>31</sup> Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. <sup>32</sup> A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.” <sup>33</sup> And he replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?”

<sup>34</sup> And looking at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup> Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

The Parable of the Sower

(Mt 13:1–23; Lk 8:4–15)

4 Again he began to teach beside the sea. Such a very large crowd gathered around him that he got into a boat on the sea and sat there, while the whole crowd was beside the sea on the land. <sup>2</sup> He began to teach them many things in parables, and in his teaching he said to them:

<sup>3</sup> “Listen! A sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup> And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

<sup>5</sup> Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up quickly, since it had no depth of soil. <sup>6</sup> And when the sun rose, it was scorched; and since it had no root, it withered away. <sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain. <sup>8</sup> Other seed fell into good soil and brought forth grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirty and sixty and a hundredfold.” <sup>9</sup> And he said, “Let anyone with ears to hear listen!”

<sup>21</sup> The wicked borrow, and do not pay back,
but the righteous are generous and keep giving;

<sup>22</sup> for those blessed by the LORD shall inherit the land,
but those cursed by him shall be cut off.

<sup>23</sup> Our steps are made firm by
the LORD,
when he delights in our
way;

<sup>24</sup> though we stumble, we shall not fall headlong,
for the LORD holds us by the hand.

<sup>25</sup> I have been young, and now am old,
yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging
bread.

<sup>26</sup> They are ever giving liberally and lending,
and their children
become a blessing.

<sup>27</sup> Depart from evil, and do
good;
so you shall abide
forever.

<sup>28</sup> For the LORD loves justice;
he will not forsake his faithful ones.
The righteous shall be kept
safe forever,
but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.

<sup>29</sup> The righteous shall inherit
the land,
and live in it forever.

Proverbs 12:26 (NRSV)

<sup>26</sup> The righteous gives good advice to friends,
but the way of the
wicked leads astray.

April 11

Leviticus 8:18-9:6 (NRSV)

<sup>18</sup> Then he brought forward
the ram of burnt offering.
Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, <sup>19</sup> and it was slaughtered.
Moses dashed the blood
against all sides of the altar.
<sup>20</sup> The ram was cut into its parts, and Moses turned into smoke the head and the parts and the suet. <sup>21</sup> And after the entrails and the legs were washed with water, Moses turned into smoke the whole ram on the altar; it was a burnt offering for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>25</sup> He took the fat—the broad tail, all the fat that was around the entrails, the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat—and the right thigh. <sup>26</sup> From the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD, he took one cake of unleavened bread, one cake of bread with oil, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh.

<sup>27</sup> He placed all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons, and raised them as an elevation offering before the LORD. <sup>28</sup> Then Moses took them from their hands and turned them into smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. This was an ordination offering for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD. <sup>29</sup> Moses took the breast and raised it as an elevation offering before the LORD; it was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his vestments, and also on his sons and their vestments. Thus he consecrated Aaron and his vestments, and also his sons and their vestments.

<sup>31</sup> And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, as I was commanded, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it'; <sup>32</sup> and what remains of the flesh and the bread you shall burn with fire. <sup>33</sup> You shall not go outside the entrance of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day when your period of ordination is completed. For it will take seven days to ordain you; <sup>34</sup> as has been done today, the LORD has commanded to be done to make atonement for you. <sup>35</sup> You shall remain at the entrance of the tent of meeting day and night for seven days, keeping the LORD's charge so that you do not die; for so I am commanded." <sup>36</sup> Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD commanded through Moses.

Aaron's Priesthood Inaugurated

9 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. <sup>2</sup> He said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. <sup>3</sup> And say to the people of Israel, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering; a calf and a lamb, yearlings without blemish, for a burnt offering; <sup>4</sup> and an ox and a ram for an offering of well-being to sacrifice before the LORD; and a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.' " <sup>5</sup> They brought what Moses commanded to the front of the tent of meeting; and the whole congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. <sup>6</sup> And Moses said, "This is the thing that the LORD commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."

Mark 4:10-25 (NRSV)

The Purpose of the Parables
(Mt 13:10-17; Lk 8:9-10)

<sup>10</sup> When he was alone, those who were around him along with the twelve asked him about the parables. <sup>11</sup> And he said to them, "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside, everything comes in parables; <sup>12</sup> in order that 'they may indeed look, but not perceive,
and may indeed listen,
but not understand;
so that they may not turn
again and be forgiven.'

<sup>13</sup> And he said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables?"

<sup>15</sup> These are the ones on the path where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. <sup>16</sup> And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: when they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy. <sup>17</sup> But they have no root, and endure only for a while; then, when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away. <sup>18</sup> And others are those sown among the thorns: these are the ones who hear the word, <sup>19</sup> but the cares of the world, and the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it yields nothing. <sup>20</sup> And these are the ones sown on the good soil: they hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirty and sixty and a hundredfold.”

A Lamp under a Bushel Basket
(Lk 8:16–18)

<sup>21</sup> He said to them, “Is a lamp brought in to be put under the bushel basket, or under the bed, and not on the lampstand? <sup>22</sup> For there is nothing hidden, except to be disclosed; nor is anything secret, except to come to light. <sup>23</sup> Let anyone with ears to hear listen!” <sup>24</sup> And he said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear; the measure you give will be the measure you get, and still more will be given you. <sup>25</sup> For to those who have, more will be given; and from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.”

<sup>30</sup> The mouths of the righteous utter wisdom,
and their tongues speak justice.
<sup>31</sup> The law of their God is in their hearts;
their steps do not slip.
<sup>32</sup> The wicked watch for the righteous,
and seek to kill them.
<sup>33</sup> The LORD will not abandon them to their power, or let them be condemned when they are brought to trial.

<sup>27</sup> The lazy do not roast their game,
but the diligent obtain precious wealth.

<sup>28</sup> In the path of righteousness there is life,
in walking its path there is no death.

April 12

Leviticus 9:7-24 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron, “Draw near to the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people; and sacrifice the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as the LORD has commanded.”

<sup>8</sup> Aaron drew near to the altar, and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. <sup>9</sup> The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger

in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; and the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar. <sup>10</sup> But the fat, the kidneys, and the appendage of the liver from the sin offering he turned into smoke on the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses; <sup>11</sup> and the flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. Aaron’s sons brought him the blood, and he dashed it against all sides of the altar. <sup>13</sup> And they brought him the burnt offering piece by piece, and the head, which he turned into smoke on the altar. <sup>14</sup> He washed the entrails and the legs and, with the burnt offering, turned them into smoke on the altar.

<sup>15</sup> Next he presented the people’s offering. He took the goat of the sin offering that was for the people, and slaughtered it, and presented it as a sin offering like the first one. <sup>16</sup> He presented the burnt offering, and sacrificed it according to regulation. <sup>17</sup> He presented the grain offering, and, taking a handful of it, he turned it into smoke on the altar, in addition to the burnt offering of the morning.

<sup>18</sup> He slaughtered the ox and the ram as a sacrifice of well-being for the people. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, which he dashed against all sides of the altar, <sup>19</sup> and the fat of the ox and of the ram—the broad tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the two kidneys and the fat on them, and the appendage of the liver. <sup>20</sup> They first laid the fat on the breasts, and the fat was turned into smoke on the altar; <sup>21</sup> and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron raised as an elevation offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.

<sup>22</sup> Aaron lifted his hands toward the people and blessed them; and he came down after sacrificing the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the offering of well-being.

<sup>23</sup> Moses and Aaron entered the tent of meeting, and then came out and blessed the people; and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. <sup>24</sup> Fire came out from the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

Mark 4:26-41 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Growing Seed

<sup>26</sup> He also said, “The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, <sup>27</sup> and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. <sup>28</sup> The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. <sup>29</sup> But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

(Mt 13:31–32; Lk 13:18–19)

<sup>30</sup> He also said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? <sup>31</sup> It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; <sup>32</sup> yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.”

The Use of Parables

<sup>33</sup> With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; <sup>34</sup> he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Jesus Stills a Storm

(Mt 8:23–27; Lk 8:22–25)

<sup>35</sup> On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.” <sup>36</sup> And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. <sup>37</sup> A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. <sup>38</sup> But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” <sup>39</sup> He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm.

<sup>40</sup> He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” <sup>41</sup> And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

Psalm 37:34-40 (NRSV)

<sup>34</sup> Wait for the LORD, and keep to his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land; you will look on the destruction of the wicked.

<sup>36</sup> Again I passed by, and they were no more; though I sought them, they could not be found.

<sup>37</sup> Mark the blameless, and behold the upright, for there is posterity for the peaceable.

he is their refuge in the time of trouble.

<sup>40</sup> The LORD helps them and rescues them;
he rescues them from
the wicked, and saves
them,
because they take refuge
in him.

Proverbs 13:1 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> A wise child loves discipline,
but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

April 13

Leviticus 10:1-20 (NRSV)

Nadab and Abihu

<sup>1</sup> Now Aaron's sons, Nadab and Abihu, each took his censer, put fire in it, and laid incense on it; and they offered unholy fire before the LORD,
such as he had not commanded them. <sup>2</sup> And fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them,

and they died before the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron,
"This is what the LORD meant
when he said,

'Through those who are near me
I will show myself holy,
and before all the people
I will be glorified.' "

And Aaron was silent.

<sup>4</sup> Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Come forward,
and carry your kinsmen away
from the front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp." <sup>5</sup> They came forward and carried them by their tunics out of the camp,
as Moses had ordered. <sup>6</sup> And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not dishevel your hair, and do not tear your vestments, or you will die and wrath will strike all the congregation; but your kindred, the whole house
of Israel, may mourn the burning that the LORD has sent.
<sup>7</sup> You shall not go outside the entrance of the tent of meeting, or you will die; for the anointing oil of the LORD is on you.” And they did as Moses had ordered.

<sup>8</sup> And the LORD spoke to Aaron: <sup>9</sup> Drink no wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons, when you enter the tent of meeting, that you may not die; it is a statute forever throughout your generations.

<sup>10</sup> You are to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean; <sup>11</sup> and you are to teach the people of Israel all the statutes that the LORD has spoken to them through Moses.

<sup>12</sup> Moses spoke to Aaron and to his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar: Take the grain offering that is left from the LORD’s offerings by fire, and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy; <sup>13</sup> you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons’ due, from the offerings by fire to the LORD; for so I am commanded. <sup>14</sup> But the breast that is elevated and the thigh that is raised, you and your sons and daughters as well may eat in any clean place; for they have been assigned to you and your children from the sacrifices of the offerings of well-being of the people of Israel. <sup>15</sup> The thigh that is raised and the breast that is elevated they shall bring, together with the offerings by fire of the fat, to raise for an elevation offering before the LORD; they are to be your due and that of your children forever, as the LORD has commanded.

<sup>16</sup> Then Moses made inquiry about the goat of the sin offering, and—it had already been burned! He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s remaining sons, and said, <sup>17</sup> “Why did you not eat the sin offering in the sacred area? For it is most holy, and God has given it to you that you may remove the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement on their behalf before the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. You should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded.” <sup>19</sup> And Aaron spoke to Moses, “See, today they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and yet such things as these have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been agreeable to the LORD?" <sup>20</sup> And when Moses heard that, he agreed.

Mark 5:1–20 (NRSV)

*Jesus Heals the Gerasene Demoniac
(Mt 8:28–9:1; Lk 8:26–39)*

<sup>1</sup> They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes. <sup>2</sup> And when he had stepped out of the boat, immediately a man out of the tombs with an unclean spirit met him. <sup>3</sup> He lived among the tombs; and no one could restrain him any more, even with a chain; <sup>4</sup> for he had often been restrained with shackles and chains, but the chains he wrenched apart, and the shackles he broke in pieces; and no one had the strength to subdue him. <sup>5</sup> Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always howling and bruising himself with stones. <sup>6</sup> When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him; <sup>7</sup> and he shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me."

<sup>8</sup> For he had said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" <sup>9</sup> Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He replied, "My name is Legion; for we are many."

<sup>10</sup> He begged him earnestly not to send them out of the country. <sup>11</sup> Now there on the hillside a great herd of swine was feeding; <sup>12</sup> and the unclean spirits begged him, "Send us into the swine; let us enter them." <sup>13</sup> So he gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out and entered the swine; and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and were drowned in the sea.

<sup>14</sup> The swineherds ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came to see what it was that had happened. <sup>15</sup> They came to Jesus and saw the demoniac sitting there, clothed and in his right mind, the very man who had had the legion; and they were afraid. <sup>16</sup> Those who had seen what had happened to the demoniac and to the swine reported it. <sup>17</sup> Then they began to beg Jesus to leave their neighborhood. <sup>18</sup> As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. <sup>19</sup> But Jesus refused, and said to him, “Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy he has shown you.”

<sup>20</sup> And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed.

Psalm 38:1-18 (NRSV)

A Penitent Sufferer’s Plea for Healing

A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, do not rebuke me
in your anger,
or discipline me in your
wrath.
<sup>2</sup> For your arrows have sunk
into me,
and your hand has come down on me.
<sup>3</sup> There is no soundness in my flesh
because of your indignation;

there is no health in my bones
because of my sin.
<sup>4</sup> For my iniquities have gone over my head;
they weigh like a burden
too heavy for me.
<sup>5</sup> My wounds grow foul and fester
because of my
foolishness;
<sup>6</sup> I am utterly bowed down
and prostrate;
all day long I go around
mourning.
<sup>7</sup> For my loins are filled with burning,
and there is no
soundness in my flesh.
<sup>8</sup> I am utterly spent and crushed;
I groan because of the
tumult of my heart.
<sup>9</sup> O Lord, all my longing is
known to you;
my sighing is not hidden
from you.
<sup>10</sup> My heart throbs, my strength fails me;
as for the light of my eyes—it also has gone
from me.
<sup>11</sup> My friends and companions stand

aloof from my
affliction,
and my neighbors stand
far off.
12 Those who seek my life lay
their snares;
those who seek to hurt
me speak of ruin,
and meditate treachery
all day long.
13 But I am like the deaf, I do not hear;
like the mute, who
cannot speak.
14 Truly, I am like one who does not hear,
and in whose mouth is
no retort.
15 But it is for you, O LORD,
that I wait;
it is you, O Lord my God,
who will answer.
16 For I pray, “Only do not let them rejoice over me,
those who boast against me when my foot
slips.”
17 For I am ready to fall,
and my pain is ever with
me.
18 I confess my iniquity;
I am sorry for my sin.

Proverbs 13:2–3 (NRSV)

<sup>2</sup> From the fruit of their words good persons eat good things,
but the desire of the treacherous is for wrongdoing.
<sup>3</sup> Those who guard their mouths preserve their lives;
those who open wide
their lips come to ruin.

Clean and Unclean Foods (Deut 14:3–21)

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them: <sup>2</sup> Speak to the people of Israel, saying:
From among all the land animals, these are the creatures that you may eat.
<sup>3</sup> Any animal that has divided hoofs and is cleft-footed and chews the cud—such you may eat. <sup>4</sup> But among those that chew the cud or have divided hoofs, you shall not eat the

following: the camel, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you. <sup>5</sup> The rock badger, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you. <sup>6</sup> The hare, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you. <sup>7</sup> The pig, for even though it has divided hoofs and is cleft-footed, it does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you. <sup>8</sup> Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean for you.

<sup>9</sup> These you may eat, of all that are in the waters. Everything in the waters that has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the streams—such you may eat. <sup>10</sup> But anything in the seas or the streams that does not have fins and scales, of the swarming creatures in the waters and among all the other living creatures that are in the waters—they are detestable to you <sup>11</sup> and detestable they shall remain. Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall regard as detestable.

<sup>12</sup> Everything in the waters that does not have fins and scales is detestable to you.

<sup>13</sup> These you shall regard as detestable among the birds. They shall not be eaten; they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, <sup>14</sup> the buzzard, the kite of any kind; <sup>15</sup> every raven of any kind; <sup>16</sup> the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk of any kind; <sup>17</sup> the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl, <sup>18</sup> the water hen, the desert owl, the carrion vulture, <sup>19</sup> the stork, the heron of any kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

<sup>20</sup> All winged insects that walk upon all fours are detestable to you. <sup>21</sup> But among the winged insects that walk on all fours you may eat those that have jointed legs above their feet, with which to leap on the ground. <sup>22</sup> Of them you may eat: the locust according to its kind, the bald locust according to its kind, the cricket according to its kind, and the grasshopper according to its kind. <sup>23</sup> But all other winged insects that have four feet are detestable to you.

Unclean Animals

<sup>24</sup> By these you shall become unclean; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until the evening, <sup>25</sup> and whoever carries any part of the carcass of any of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. <sup>26</sup> Every animal that has divided hoofs but is not cleft-footed or does not chew the cud is unclean for you; everyone who touches one of them shall be unclean. <sup>27</sup> All that walk on their paws, among the animals that walk on all fours, are unclean for you; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until the evening, <sup>28</sup> and the one who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean for you.

<sup>29</sup> These are unclean for you among the creatures that swarm upon the earth: the weasel, the mouse, the great lizard according to its kind, <sup>30</sup> the gecko, the land

crocodile, the lizard, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

<sup>31</sup> These are unclean for you among all that swarm; whoever touches one of them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

<sup>32</sup> And anything upon which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether an article of wood or cloth or skin or sacking, any article that is used for any purpose; it shall be dipped into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening, and then it shall be clean. <sup>33</sup> And if any of them falls into any earthen vessel, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break the vessel. <sup>34</sup> Any food that could be eaten shall be unclean if water from any such vessel comes upon it; and any liquid that could be drunk shall be unclean if it was in any such vessel. <sup>35</sup> Everything on which any part of the carcass falls shall be unclean; whether an oven or stove, it shall be broken in pieces; they are unclean, and shall remain unclean for you. <sup>36</sup> But a spring or a cistern holding water shall be clean, while whatever touches the carcass in it shall be unclean.<sup>37</sup> If any part of their carcass falls upon any seed set aside for sowing, it is clean;<sup>38</sup> but if water is put on the seed and any part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.

<sup>39</sup> If an animal of which you may eat dies, anyone who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening.

<sup>40</sup> Those who eat of its carcass shall wash their clothes and be unclean until the evening; and those who carry the carcass shall wash their clothes and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>41</sup> All creatures that swarm upon the earth are detestable; they shall not be eaten.

<sup>42</sup> Whatever moves on its belly, and whatever moves on all fours, or whatever has many feet, all the creatures that swarm upon the earth, you shall not eat; for they are detestable.<sup>43</sup> You shall not make yourselves detestable with any creature that swarms; you shall not defile yourselves with them, and so become unclean.<sup>44</sup> For I am the LORD your God; sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming creature that moves on the earth.<sup>45</sup> For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt, to be your God; you shall be holy, for I am holy.

<sup>46</sup> This is the law pertaining to land animal and bird and every living creature that moves through the waters and every creature that swarms upon the earth,<sup>47</sup> to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living creature that may be eaten and the living creature that may not be eaten.

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

(Mt 9:18-26; Lk 8:40-56)

hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.”<sup>24</sup> So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him.<sup>25</sup> Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years.<sup>26</sup> She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse.<sup>27</sup> She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak,<sup>28</sup> for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.”<sup>29</sup> Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.<sup>30</sup> Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?”<sup>31</sup> And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’ ”<sup>32</sup> He looked all around to see who had done it.<sup>33</sup> But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth.<sup>34</sup> He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

Leviticus 12:1-8 (NRSV)

Purification of Women after Childbirth (Cp Lk 2:22-24)

If a woman conceives and bears a male child, she shall be ceremonially unclean seven days; as at the time of her menstruation, she shall be unclean. <sup>3</sup> On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>4</sup> Her time of blood purification shall be thirty-three days; she shall not touch any holy thing, or come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purification are completed. <sup>5</sup> If she bears a female child, she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation; her time of blood purification shall be sixty-six days.

<sup>6</sup> When the days of her purification are completed, whether for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting a lamb in its first year for a burnt offering, and a pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering.

<sup>7</sup> He shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement on her behalf; then she shall be clean from her flow of blood.

This is the law for her who bears a child, male or female.

<sup>8</sup> If she cannot afford a sheep, she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement on her behalf, and she shall be clean.

Mark 5:35-43 (NRSV)

<sup>35</sup> While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" <sup>36</sup> But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe."

<sup>38</sup> When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.<sup>39</sup> When he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.”<sup>40</sup> And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was.<sup>41</sup> He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!”<sup>42</sup> And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement.<sup>43</sup> He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Psalms 39:1-5 (NRSV)

Prayer for Wisdom and Forgiveness

To the leader: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

1 I said, “I will guard my ways that I may not sin with my tongue; I will keep a muzzle on my mouth

as long as the wicked are in my presence.”

2 I was silent and still; I held my peace to no avail; my distress grew worse, my heart became hot within me. While I mused, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:
 3 “LORD, let me know my end, and what is the measure of my days; let me know how fleeting my life is.
 4 You have made my days a few handbreadths, and my lifetime is as nothing in your sight. Surely everyone stands as a mere breath.

Leviticus 13:1-23 (NRSV)

Leprosy, Varieties and Symptoms

and appears no deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall confine the diseased person for seven days. <sup>5</sup> The priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if he sees that the disease is checked and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall confine him seven days more. <sup>6</sup> The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the disease has abated and the disease has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>7</sup> But if the eruption spreads in the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again before the priest. <sup>8</sup> The priest shall make an examination, and if the eruption has spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.

<sup>9</sup> When a person contracts a leprous disease, he shall be brought to the priest. <sup>10</sup> The priest shall make an examination, and if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white, and there is quick raw flesh in the swelling,<sup>11</sup> it is a chronic leprous disease in the skin of his body. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not confine him, for he is unclean.<sup>12</sup> But if the disease breaks out in the skin, so that it covers all the skin of the diseased person from head to foot, so far as the priest can see,<sup>13</sup> then the priest shall make an examination, and if the disease has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean of the disease; since it has all turned white, he is clean.<sup>14</sup> But if raw flesh ever appears on him, he shall be unclean;<sup>15</sup> the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean. Raw flesh is unclean, for it is a leprous disease.<sup>16</sup> But if the raw flesh again turns white, he shall come to the priest;<sup>17</sup> the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has turned white, the priest shall pronounce the diseased person clean. He is clean.

<sup>18</sup>When there is on the skin of one's body a boil that has healed,<sup>19</sup> and in the place of the boil there appears a white swelling or a reddish-white spot, it shall be shown to the priest.<sup>20</sup> The priest shall make an examination, and if it appears deeper than the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; this is a leprous disease, broken out in the boil.<sup>21</sup> But if the priest examines it and the hair on it is not white, nor is it deeper than the skin but has abated, the priest shall confine him seven days.<sup>22</sup> If it spreads in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is diseased.<sup>23</sup> But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread, it is the scar of the boil; the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Mark 6:1-15 (NRSV)

*The Rejection of Jesus
at Nazareth*

(Mt 13:54-58; Lk 4:16-30)

<sup>1</sup> He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.<sup>2</sup> On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! <sup>3</sup> Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. <sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." <sup>5</sup> And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. <sup>6</sup> And he was amazed at their unbelief.

The Mission of the Twelve
(Mt 10:5-15; Lk 9:1-6)

Then he went about among the villages teaching. <sup>7</sup> He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup> He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; <sup>9</sup> but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. <sup>10</sup> He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. <sup>11</sup> If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." <sup>12</sup> So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. <sup>13</sup> They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

The Death of John the Baptist
(Mt 14:1-12; Lk 9:7-9)

<sup>14</sup> King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." <sup>15</sup> But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old."

Psalm 39:6-13 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> Surely everyone goes about like a shadow. Surely for nothing they are in turmoil; they heap up, and do not know who will gather. <sup>7</sup> "And now, O Lord, what do I wait for?"

My hope is in you.
8 Deliver me from all my transgressions.
Do not make me the scorn of the fool.
9 I am silent; I do not open my mouth,
for it is you who have done it.
10 Remove your stroke from me;
I am worn down by the blows of your hand.
11 “You chastise mortals in punishment for sin,
consuming like a moth what is dear to them;
surely everyone is a mere breath. Selah 12 “Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and give ear to my cry;
do not hold your peace at my tears.
For I am your passing guest,
an alien, like all my forebears.
13 Turn your gaze away from me, that I may smile again,
before I depart and am no more.”

Proverbs 13:7–8 (NRSV)

7 Some pretend to be rich,
yet have nothing;
others pretend to be poor,
yet have great wealth.
8 Wealth is a ransom for a person’s life,
but the poor get no threats.

April 17

Leviticus 13:24-59 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> Or, when the body has a burn on the skin and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a spot, reddish-white or white, <sup>25</sup> the priest shall examine it. If the hair in the spot has turned white and it appears deeper than the skin, it is a leprous disease; it has broken out in the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. This is a leprous disease. <sup>26</sup> But if the priest examines it and the hair in the spot is not white, and it is no deeper than the skin but has abated, the priest shall confine him seven days.<sup>27</sup> The priest shall examine him the seventh day; if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. This is a leprous disease.<sup>28</sup> But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread in the skin but has abated, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar of the burn.

<sup>29</sup>When a man or woman has a disease on the head or in the beard,<sup>30</sup> the priest shall examine the disease. If it appears deeper than the skin and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an itch, a leprous disease of the head or the beard.<sup>31</sup> If the priest examines the itching disease, and it appears no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, the priest shall confine the person with the itching disease for seven days.<sup>32</sup> On the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch; if the itch has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the itch appears to be no deeper than the skin,<sup>33</sup> he shall shave, but the itch he shall not shave. The priest shall confine the person with the itch for seven days more.

<sup>34</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch; if the itch has not spread in the skin and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean.<sup>35</sup> But if the itch spreads in the skin after he was pronounced clean,<sup>36</sup> the priest shall examine him. If the itch has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean.<sup>37</sup> But if in his eyes the itch is checked, and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>38</sup>When a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots,<sup>39</sup> the priest shall make an examination, and if the spots on the skin of the body are of a dull white, it is a rash that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

<sup>40</sup>If anyone loses the hair from his head, he is bald but he is clean.<sup>41</sup> If he loses the hair from his forehead and temples, he has baldness of the forehead but he is clean.

<sup>46</sup> He shall remain unclean as long as he has the disease; he is unclean. He shall live alone; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

<sup>47</sup> Concerning clothing: when a leprous disease appears in it, in woolen or linen cloth, <sup>48</sup> in warp or woof of linen or wool, or in a skin or in anything made of skin, <sup>49</sup> if the disease shows greenish or reddish in the garment, whether in warp or woof or in skin or in anything made of skin, it is a leprous disease and shall be shown to the priest.

<sup>50</sup> The priest shall examine the disease, and put the diseased article aside for seven days.

<sup>51</sup> He shall examine the disease on the seventh day. If the disease has spread in the cloth, in warp or woof, or in the skin, whatever be the use of the skin, this is a spreading leprous disease; it is unclean.

<sup>52</sup> He shall burn the clothing, whether diseased in warp or woof, woolen or linen, or anything of skin, for it is a spreading leprous disease; it shall be burned in fire.

<sup>53</sup> If the priest makes an examination, and the disease has not spread in the clothing, in warp or woof or in anything of skin, <sup>54</sup> the priest shall command them to wash the article in which the disease appears, and he shall put it aside seven days more. <sup>55</sup> The priest shall examine the diseased article after it has been washed. If the diseased spot has not changed color, though the disease has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in fire, whether the leprous spot is on the inside or on the outside.

<sup>56</sup> If the priest makes an examination, and the disease has abated after it is washed, he shall tear the spot out of the cloth, in warp or woof, or out of skin. <sup>57</sup> If it appears again in the garment, in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading; you shall burn with fire that in which the disease appears. <sup>58</sup> But the cloth, warp or woof, or anything of skin from which the disease disappears when you have washed it, shall then be washed a second time, and it shall be clean.

<sup>59</sup> This is the ritual for a leprous disease in a cloth of wool or linen, either in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, to decide whether it is clean or unclean.

Mark 6:16-29 (NRSV)

<sup>16</sup> But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised."

<sup>17</sup> For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. <sup>18</sup> For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." <sup>19</sup> And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, <sup>20</sup> for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. <sup>21</sup> But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." <sup>23</sup> And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." <sup>24</sup> She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied,

“The head of John the baptizer.”<sup>25</sup> Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, “I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.”

<sup>26</sup>The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her.

<sup>27</sup>Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John’s head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup>brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Leviticus 14:1-32 (NRSV)

Purification of Lepers and Leprous Houses

(Cp Mt 8:1–4; Lk 5:12–14)

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying: <sup>2</sup>This shall be the ritual
for the leprous person at the time of his cleansing:

He shall be brought to the priest; <sup>3</sup> the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall make an examination. If the disease is healed in the leprous person, <sup>4</sup> the priest shall command that two living clean birds and cedarwood and crimson yarn and hyssop be brought for the one who is to be cleansed. <sup>5</sup> The priest shall command that one of the birds be slaughtered over fresh water in an earthen vessel. <sup>6</sup> He shall take the living bird with the cedarwood and the crimson yarn and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water. <sup>7</sup> He shall sprinkle it seven times upon the one who is to be cleansed of the leprous disease; then he shall pronounce him clean, and he shall let the living bird go into the open field. <sup>8</sup> The one who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water, and he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, but shall live outside his tent seven days. <sup>9</sup> On the seventh day he shall shave all his hair: of head, beard, eyebrows; he shall shave all his hair. Then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and he shall be clean.

<sup>10</sup> On the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish, and a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil, and one log of oil. <sup>11</sup> The priest who cleanses shall set the person to be cleansed, along with these things, before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>12</sup> The priest shall take one of the lambs, and offer it as a guilt offering, along with the log of oil, and raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD. <sup>13</sup> He shall slaughter the lamb in the place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered in the holy place; for the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest: it is most holy. <sup>14</sup> The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot. <sup>15</sup> The priest shall take some of the log of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand, <sup>16</sup> and dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and sprinkle some oil with his finger seven times before the LORD. <sup>17</sup> Some of the oil that remains in his hand the priest shall put on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering. <sup>18</sup> The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed. Then the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD: <sup>19</sup> the priest shall offer the sin offering, to make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall slaughter the burnt offering; <sup>20</sup> and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf and he shall be clean.

<sup>21</sup> But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be elevated, to make atonement on his behalf, and one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering and a log of oil; <sup>22</sup> also two turtledoves or two pigeons, such as he can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>23</sup> On the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, before the LORD; <sup>24</sup> and the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup> The priest shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering and shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot. <sup>26</sup> The priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand, <sup>27</sup> and shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD.

Mark 6:30-44 (NRSV)

Feeding the Five Thousand
(Mt 14:13-21; Lk 9:10-17; Jn 6:1-14)

<sup>30</sup> The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup> He said to them,

“Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.”

For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.

<sup>32</sup> And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. <sup>33</sup> Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. <sup>34</sup> As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup> When it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late;

<sup>36</sup> send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.” <sup>37</sup> But he answered them,

“You give them something to eat.” They said to him, “Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?” <sup>38</sup> And he said to them, “How many loaves have you? Go and see.” When they had found out,

they said, "Five, and two fish."

<sup>39</sup> Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass.

<sup>40</sup> So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties.

<sup>41</sup> Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup> And all ate and were filled; <sup>43</sup> and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. <sup>44</sup> Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men.

Psalm 40:4-10 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> Happy are those who make the LORD their trust, who do not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after false gods.

<sup>5</sup> You have multiplied, O LORD my God, your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us; none can compare with you.

Were I to proclaim and tell of them, they would be more than can be counted.

<sup>6</sup> Sacrifice and offering you do not desire, but you have given me an open ear.

Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, "Here I am; in the scroll of the book it is written of me.

<sup>8</sup> I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."

<sup>9</sup> I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation;

see, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O LORD.

<sup>10</sup> I have not hidden your saving help within my heart,

I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation;

I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness

from the great congregation.

Leviticus 14:33-57 (NRSV)

<sup>33</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses
and Aaron, saying:

<sup>34</sup> When you come into the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a leprous disease in a house in the land of your possession,

<sup>35</sup> the owner of the house shall come and tell the priest,
saying, "There seems to me to be some sort of disease in my house." <sup>36</sup> The priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes to examine the disease, or all that is in the house will become unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to inspect the house. <sup>37</sup> He shall examine the disease; if the disease is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, and if it appears to be deeper than the surface, <sup>38</sup> the priest shall go outside to the door of the house and shut up the house seven days.

<sup>39</sup> The priest shall come again
on the seventh day and make an inspection; if the disease has spread in the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup> the priest shall command that the stones in which the disease appears be taken out and thrown into an unclean place outside the city.

<sup>41</sup> He shall have the inside of the house scraped thoroughly,
and the plaster that is scraped off shall be dumped in an unclean place outside the city.

<sup>42</sup> They shall take other stones
and put them in the place of those stones, and take other plaster and plaster the house.

<sup>43</sup> If the disease breaks out again in the house, after he has taken out the stones and scraped the house and plastered it, <sup>44</sup> the priest shall go and make inspection; if the disease has spread in the house, it is a spreading leprous disease in the house; it is unclean. <sup>45</sup> He shall have the house torn down, its stones and timber and all the plaster of the house, and taken outside the city to an unclean place. <sup>46</sup> All who enter the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening; <sup>47</sup> and all who sleep in the house shall wash their clothes; and all who eat in the house shall wash their clothes.

<sup>48</sup> If the priest comes and makes an inspection, and the disease has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, the priest shall pronounce the house clean; the disease is healed. <sup>49</sup> For the cleansing of the house he shall take two birds, with cedarwood and crimson yarn and hyssop, <sup>50</sup> and shall slaughter one of the birds over fresh water in an earthen vessel, <sup>51</sup> and shall take the cedarwood and the hyssop and the crimson yarn, along with the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house

seven times. <sup>52</sup> Thus he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the fresh water, and with the living bird, and with the cedarwood and hyssop and crimson yarn; <sup>53</sup> and he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field; so he shall make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

<sup>54</sup> This is the ritual for any leprous disease: for an itch, <sup>55</sup> for leprous diseases in clothing and houses, <sup>56</sup> and for a swelling or an eruption or a spot, <sup>57</sup> to determine when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the ritual for leprous diseases.

Mark 6:45-56 (NRSV)

Jesus Walks on the Water
(Mt 14:22-33; Jn 6:15-21)

<sup>45</sup> Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. <sup>46</sup> After saying farewell to them, he went up on the mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup> When evening came, the boat was out on the sea, and he was alone on the land.

<sup>48</sup> When he saw that they were straining at the oars against an adverse wind, he came towards them early in the morning, walking on the sea. He intended to pass them by.<sup>49</sup> But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out;<sup>50</sup> for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.”<sup>51</sup> Then he got into the boat with them and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astounded,<sup>52</sup> for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

Healing the Sick in Gennesaret
(Mt 14:34–36)

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat.<sup>54</sup> When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him,<sup>55</sup> and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was.<sup>56</sup> And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Psalm 40:11-13 (NRSV)

- <sup>11</sup> Do not, O LORD, withhold your mercy from me; let your steadfast love and your faithfulness keep me safe forever.
- <sup>12</sup> For evils have encompassed me without number; my iniquities have overtaken me, until I cannot see; they are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me.
- <sup>13</sup> Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me; O LORD, make haste to help me.

Proverbs 13:12–14 (NRSV)

- <sup>12</sup> Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a desire fulfilled is a tree of life.
- <sup>13</sup> Those who despise the word bring destruction on themselves, but those who respect the commandment will be rewarded.

<sup>14</sup> The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life,
so that one may avoid
the snares of death.

Leviticus 15:1–33 (NRSV)

Concerning Bodily Discharges

When any man has a discharge from his member, his discharge makes him ceremonially unclean. <sup>3</sup> The uncleanness of his discharge is this: whether his member flows with his discharge, or his member is stopped from discharging, it is uncleanness for him. <sup>4</sup> Every bed on which the one with the discharge lies shall be unclean; and everything on which he sits shall be unclean. <sup>5</sup> Anyone who touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>6</sup> All who sit on anything on which the one with the discharge has sat shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>7</sup> All who touch the body of the one with the discharge shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>8</sup> If the one with the discharge spits on persons who are clean, then they shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>9</sup> Any saddle on which the one with the discharge rides shall be unclean. <sup>10</sup> All who touch anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening, and all who carry such a thing shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>11</sup> All those whom the one with the discharge touches without his having rinsed his hands in water shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>12</sup> Any earthen vessel that the one with the discharge touches shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup> When the one with a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, he shall count seven days for his cleansing; he shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in fresh water, and he shall be clean. <sup>14</sup> On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and come before the LORD to the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest. <sup>15</sup> The priest shall offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD for his discharge.

<sup>16</sup> If a man has an emission of semen, he shall bathe his whole body in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>17</sup> Everything made of cloth or of skin on which the semen falls shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>18</sup> If a man lies with a woman and has an emission of semen, both of them shall bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>19</sup> When a woman has a discharge of blood that is her regular discharge from her body, she shall be in her impurity for seven days, and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

<sup>20</sup> Everything upon which she lies during her impurity shall be unclean; everything also upon which she sits shall be unclean. <sup>21</sup> Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>22</sup> Whoever touches anything upon which she sits shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening; <sup>23</sup> whether it is the bed or anything upon which she sits, when he touches it he shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>24</sup> If any man lies with her, and her impurity falls on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

<sup>25</sup> If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the discharge she shall continue in uncleanness; as in the days of her impurity, she shall be unclean.<sup>26</sup> Every bed on which she lies during all the days of her discharge shall be treated as the bed of her impurity; and everything on which she sits shall be unclean, as in the uncleanness of her impurity.<sup>27</sup> Whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.<sup>28</sup> If she is cleansed of her discharge, she shall count seven days, and after that she shall be clean.<sup>29</sup> On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting.<sup>30</sup> The priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement on her behalf before the LORD for her unclean discharge.

<sup>31</sup> Thus you shall keep the people of Israel separate from their uncleanness, so that they do not die in their uncleanness

by defiling my tabernacle that is in their midst.

<sup>32</sup> This is the ritual for those who have a discharge: for him who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean thereby,<sup>33</sup> for her who is in the infirmity of her period, for anyone, male or female, who has a discharge, and for the man who lies with a woman who is unclean.

Mark 7:1-8 (NRSV)

The Tradition of the Elders
(Mt 15:1–20)

do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" <sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written,

'This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me;

<sup>7</sup> in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.'

<sup>8</sup> You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition."

Psalm 40:14-17 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> Let all those be put to shame and confusion who seek to snatch away my life; let those be turned back and brought to dishonor who desire my hurt.

<sup>15</sup> Let those be appalled because of their shame who say to me, "Aha, Aha!"

<sup>16</sup> But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;

may those who love your salvation say continually, "Great is the LORD!"

<sup>17</sup> As for me, I am poor and needy, but the Lord takes thought for me. You are my help and my deliverer; do not delay, O my God.

April 21

Leviticus 16:1–28 (NRSV)

The Day of Atonement

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they

drew near before the LORD and died.<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to Moses:

Tell your brother Aaron not to come just at any time into the sanctuary inside the curtain before the mercy seat that is upon the ark, or he will die; for I appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.<sup>3</sup> Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.<sup>4</sup> He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and shall have the linen undergarments next to his body, fasten the linen sash, and wear the linen turban; these are the holy vestments. He shall bathe his body in water, and then put them on.<sup>5</sup> He shall take from the congregation of the people of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

for the LORD and the other lot for Azazel.<sup>9</sup> Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the LORD, and offer it as a sin offering;<sup>10</sup> but the goat on which the lot fell for Azazel shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement over it, that it may be sent away into the wilderness to Azazel.

<sup>11</sup> Aaron shall present the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house; he shall slaughter the bull as a sin offering for himself.<sup>12</sup> He shall take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, and two handfuls of crushed sweet incense, and he shall bring it inside the curtain<sup>13</sup> and put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the covenant, or he will die.<sup>14</sup> He shall take some of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times.

<sup>15</sup> He shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering that is for the people and bring its blood inside the curtain, and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, sprinkling it upon the mercy seat and before the mercy seat. <sup>16</sup> Thus he shall make atonement for the sanctuary, because of the uncleannesses of the people of Israel, and because of their transgressions, all their sins; and so he shall do for the tent of meeting, which remains with them in the midst of their uncleannesses. <sup>17</sup> No one shall be in the tent of meeting from the time he enters to make atonement in the sanctuary until he comes out and has made atonement for himself and for his house and for all the assembly of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Then he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement on its behalf, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat, and put it on each of the horns of the altar. <sup>19</sup> He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it and hallow it from the uncleannesses of the people of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> When he has finished atoning for the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat. <sup>21</sup> Then Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the people of Israel, and all their transgressions, all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and sending it away into the wilderness by means of someone designated for the task. <sup>22</sup> The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to a barren region; and the goat shall be set free in the wilderness.

<sup>23</sup> Then Aaron shall enter the tent of meeting, and shall take off the linen vestments that he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there. <sup>24</sup> He shall bathe his body in water in a holy place, and put on his vestments; then he shall come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, making atonement for himself and for the people. <sup>25</sup> The fat of the sin offering he shall turn into smoke on the altar. <sup>26</sup> The one who sets the goat free for Azazel shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward may come into the camp. <sup>27</sup> The bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be taken outside the camp; their skin and their flesh and their dung shall be consumed in fire. <sup>28</sup> The one who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward may come into the camp.

Mark 7:9-23 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> Then he said to them, “You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition! <sup>10</sup> For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and, ‘Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must surely die.’ <sup>11</sup> But you say that if anyone tells father or mother, ‘Whatever support you might have had from me is Corban’ (that is, an offering to God)— <sup>12</sup> then you no longer permit doing anything for a father or mother, <sup>13</sup> thus making void the word of God through your tradition that you have handed on. And you do many things like this.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand: <sup>15</sup> there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile.”

<sup>17</sup> When he had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about the parable. <sup>18</sup> He said to them, “Then do you also fail to understand? Do you not see that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile, <sup>19</sup> since it enters, not the heart but the stomach, and goes out into the sewer?” (Thus he declared all foods clean.) <sup>20</sup> And he said, “It is what comes out of a person that defiles. <sup>21</sup> For it is from within, from the human heart, that evil intentions come: fornication, theft, murder, <sup>22</sup> adultery, avarice, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, folly. <sup>23</sup> All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person.”

Psalm 41:1-3 (NRSV)

Assurance of God’s Help and a Plea for Healing

To the leader. A Psalm of David.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD protects them and keeps them alive; they are called happy in the land.

You do not give them up to the will of their enemies.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD sustains them on their sickbed; in their illness you heal all their infirmities.

<sup>18</sup> Poverty and disgrace are for the one who ignores instruction, but one who heeds reproof is honored.

<sup>19</sup> A desire realized is sweet to the soul, but to turn away from evil is an abomination to fools.

Leviticus 16:29-17:16 (NRSV)

<sup>29</sup> This shall be a statute to you forever: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall deny yourselves, and shall do no work, neither the citizen nor the alien who resides among you. <sup>30</sup> For on this day atonement shall be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before the LORD. <sup>31</sup> It is a sabbath of complete rest to you, and you shall deny yourselves; it is a statute forever. <sup>32</sup> The priest who is anointed and consecrated as priest in his father’s place shall make atonement, wearing the linen vestments, the holy vestments. <sup>33</sup> He shall make atonement for the sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly. <sup>34</sup> This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the people of Israel once in the year for all their sins. And Moses did as the LORD had commanded him.

The Slaughtering of Animals

17 The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>2</sup> Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the people of Israel and say to them: This is what the LORD has commanded. <sup>3</sup> If anyone of the house of Israel slaughters an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or slaughters it outside the camp, <sup>4</sup> and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to present it as an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, he shall be held guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood, and he shall be cut off from the people. <sup>5</sup> This is in order that the people of Israel may bring their sacrifices that they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and offer them as sacrifices of well-being to the LORD. <sup>6</sup> The priest shall dash the blood against the altar of the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and turn the fat into smoke as a pleasing odor to the LORD, <sup>7</sup> so that they may no longer offer their sacrifices for goat-demons, to whom they prostitute themselves. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.

<sup>8</sup> And say to them further: Anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens who reside among them who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, <sup>9</sup> and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to sacrifice it to the LORD, shall be cut off from the people.

Eating Blood Prohibited

<sup>10</sup> If anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens who reside among them eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats blood, and will cut that person off from the people. <sup>11</sup> For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you for making atonement for your lives on the altar; for, as life, it is the blood that makes atonement. <sup>12</sup> Therefore I have said to the people of Israel: No person among you shall eat blood, nor shall any alien who resides among you eat blood. <sup>13</sup> And anyone of the people of Israel, or of the aliens who reside among them, who hunts down an animal or bird that may be eaten shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth.

<sup>14</sup> For the life of every creature—its blood is its life; therefore I have said to the people of Israel: You shall not eat the blood of any creature, for the life of every creature is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off. <sup>15</sup> All persons, citizens or aliens, who eat what dies of itself or what has been torn by wild animals, shall wash their clothes, and bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening; then they shall be clean. <sup>16</sup> But if they do not wash themselves or bathe their body, they shall bear their guilt.

Mark 7:24-8:10 (NRSV)

*The Syrophenician
Woman's Faith
(Mt 15:21–28)*

<sup>24</sup> From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, <sup>25</sup> but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. <sup>26</sup> Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup> He said to her, “Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.” <sup>28</sup> But she answered him, “Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.” <sup>29</sup> Then he said to her, “For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter.” <sup>30</sup> So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Jesus Cures a Deaf Man
(Mt 15:29–31)

<sup>31</sup> Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. <sup>32</sup> They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. <sup>33</sup> He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup> Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.” <sup>35</sup> And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. <sup>36</sup> Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. <sup>37</sup> They were astounded beyond measure, saying, “He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.”

Feeding the Four Thousand
(Mt 15:32–39)

8 In those days when there was again a great crowd without anything to eat, he called his disciples and said to them, <sup>2</sup> “I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup> If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way—and some of them have come from a great distance.” <sup>4</sup> His disciples replied, “How can one feed these people with bread here in the desert?” <sup>5</sup> He asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven.” <sup>6</sup> Then he ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves, and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to his disciples to distribute; and they distributed them to the crowd. <sup>7</sup> They had also a few small fish; and after blessing them, he ordered that these too should be distributed. <sup>8</sup> They ate and were filled; and they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full. <sup>9</sup> Now there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away.<sup>10</sup> And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

Psalms 41:4-13 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> As for me, I said, "O LORD,
be gracious to me;
heal me, for I have sinned against you."
<sup>5</sup> My enemies wonder in malice
when I will die, and my name perish.
<sup>6</sup> And when they come to see me, they utter empty words,
while their hearts gather
mischief;
when they go out, they
tell it abroad.
<sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper
together about me;
they imagine the worst
for me.
<sup>8</sup> They think that a deadly thing has fastened on
me,
that I will not rise again
from where I lie.
<sup>9</sup> Even my bosom friend in whom I trusted,

who ate of my bread, has lifted the heel against
me.

<sup>10</sup> But you, O LORD, be
gracious to me,
and raise me up, that I
may repay them.
<sup>11</sup> By this I know that you are pleased with me;
because my enemy has
not triumphed over
me.
<sup>12</sup> But you have upheld me
because of my
integrity,
and set me in your presence forever.
<sup>13</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to
everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

Proverbs 13:20-23 (NRSV)

<sup>20</sup> Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise,
but the companion of
fools suffers harm.
<sup>21</sup> Misfortune pursues
sinners,
but prosperity rewards
the righteous.
<sup>22</sup> The good leave an inheritance to their children's children,

but the sinner's wealth is laid up for the
righteous.

<sup>23</sup> The field of the poor may yield much food,
but it is swept away
through injustice.

Leviticus 18:1-30 (NRSV)

Sexual Relations

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying:

<sup>2</sup> Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: I am the LORD your God. <sup>3</sup> You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you lived, and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, to which I am bringing you. You shall not follow their statutes. <sup>4</sup> My ordinances you shall observe and my statutes you shall keep, following them: I am the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup> You shall keep my statutes and my ordinances; by doing so one shall live: I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> None of you shall approach anyone near of kin
to uncover nakedness: I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness
of your mother; she is your mother, you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>8</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife; it is the nakedness of your father.

<sup>9</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether born at home or born abroad.
<sup>10</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter, for their nakedness
is your own nakedness. <sup>11</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten by your father, since she is your sister. <sup>12</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's flesh. <sup>13</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's flesh. <sup>14</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother, that is, you shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt. <sup>15</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law: she is your son's wife; you shall not uncover her nakedness. <sup>16</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness. <sup>17</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, and you shall not take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to uncover her nakedness; they are your flesh; it is depravity. <sup>18</sup> And you shall not take a woman as a rival to her sister, uncovering her nakedness while her sister is still alive.

male as with a woman; it is an abomination. <sup>23</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with any animal and defile yourself with it, nor shall any woman give herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it: it is perversion.

<sup>24</sup> Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for by all these practices the nations I am casting out before you have defiled themselves.

<sup>25</sup> Thus the land became defiled; and I punished it for its iniquity, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

<sup>26</sup> But you shall keep my statutes and my ordinances and commit none of these abominations, either the citizen or the alien who resides among you <sup>27</sup> (for the inhabitants of the land, who were before you, committed all of these abominations, and the land became defiled); <sup>28</sup> otherwise the land will vomit you out for defiling it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you. <sup>29</sup> For whoever commits any of these abominations shall be cut off from their people. <sup>30</sup> So keep my charge not to commit any of these abominations that were done before you, and not to defile yourselves by them: I am the LORD your God.

Mark 8:11-26 (NRSV)

The Demand for a Sign
(Mt 16:1-4)

<sup>11</sup>The Pharisees came and began to argue with him, asking him for a sign from heaven, to test him. <sup>12</sup>And he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, “Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation.” <sup>13</sup>And he left them, and getting into the boat again, he went across to the other side.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod
(Mt 16:5-12)

<sup>14</sup>Now the disciples had forgotten to bring any bread; and they had only one loaf with them in the boat. <sup>15</sup>And he cautioned them, saying, “Watch out—beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod.” <sup>16</sup>They said to one another, “It is because we have no bread.” <sup>17</sup>And becoming aware of it, Jesus said to them, “Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? <sup>18</sup>Do you have eyes, and fail to see? Do you have ears, and fail to hear? And do you not remember? <sup>19</sup>When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?” They said to him, “Twelve.” <sup>20</sup>“And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?” And they said to him, “Seven.” <sup>21</sup>Then he said to them, “Do you not yet understand?”

Jesus Cures a Blind Man at Bethsaida

<sup>22</sup>They came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch him. <sup>23</sup>He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village; and when he had put saliva on his eyes and laid his hands on him, he asked him, “Can you see anything?” <sup>24</sup>And the man looked up and said, “I can see people, but they look like trees, walking.” <sup>25</sup>Then Jesus laid his hands on his eyes again; and he looked intently and his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.

<sup>26</sup> Then he sent him away to his home, saying, “Do not even go into the village.”

Psalms 42:1-8 (NRSV)

Longing for God and His Help in Distress

To the leader. A Maskil of the Korahites.

<sup>1</sup> As a deer longs for flowing streams,
so my soul longs for you,
O God.
<sup>2</sup> My soul thirsts for God,
for the living God.
When shall I come and behold
the face of God?
<sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food
day and night,
while people say to me
continually,
“Where is your God?”
<sup>4</sup> These things I remember,
as I pour out my soul:
how I went with the throng,
and led them in procession to the house of God,

with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving,
a multitude keeping festival.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you cast down, O my soul,
and why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise him,
my help<sup>6</sup> and my God.
My soul is cast down within me;
therefore I remember you
from the land of Jordan and of Hermon,
from Mount Mizar.
<sup>7</sup> Deep calls to deep at the thunder of your cataracts;
all your waves and your billows
have gone over me.
<sup>8</sup> By day the LORD commands his steadfast love,
and at night his song is with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.

Proverbs 13:24-25 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> Those who spare the rod hate their children,

but those who love them
are diligent to discipline them.

<sup>25</sup> The righteous have enough to satisfy their appetite,
but the belly of the wicked is empty.

Leviticus 19:1-34 (NRSV)

Ritual and Moral Holiness

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying:

<sup>2</sup> Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy. <sup>3</sup> You shall each revere your mother and father, and you shall keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God. <sup>4</sup> Do not turn to idols or make cast images for yourselves: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup> When you offer a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, offer it in such a way that it is acceptable in your behalf. <sup>6</sup> It shall be eaten on the same day you offer it, or on the next day; and anything left over until the third day shall be consumed in fire. <sup>7</sup> If it is eaten at all on the third day,

it is an abomination; it will not be acceptable. <sup>8</sup> All who eat it shall be subject to punishment, because they have profaned what is holy to the LORD; and any such person shall be cut off from the
people.

<sup>9</sup> When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall
not reap to the very edges of
your field, or gather the
gleanings of your harvest.

<sup>10</sup> You shall not strip your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard;
you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>11</sup> You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another.

<sup>12</sup> And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning
the name of your God: I am
the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> You shall not defraud
your neighbor; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a laborer until morning. <sup>14</sup> You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor.

<sup>16</sup> You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself. <sup>18</sup> You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let your animals breed with a different kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall you put on a garment made of two different materials.

<sup>20</sup> If a man has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave, designated for another man but not ransomed or given her freedom, an inquiry shall be held. They shall not be put to death, since she has not been freed; <sup>21</sup> but he shall bring a guilt offering for himself to the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, a ram as guilt offering. <sup>22</sup> And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of guilt offering before the LORD for his sin that he committed; and the sin he committed shall be forgiven him.

<sup>26</sup> You shall not eat anything with its blood. You shall not practice augury or witchcraft. <sup>27</sup> You shall not round off the hair on your temples or mar the edges of your beard. <sup>28</sup> You shall not make any gashes in your flesh for the dead or tattoo any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, that the land not become prostituted and full of depravity. <sup>30</sup> You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> Do not turn to mediums or wizards; do not seek them out, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>32</sup> You shall rise before the aged, and defer to the old; and you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> When an alien resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress the alien.

<sup>34</sup> The alien who resides with you shall be to you as the citizen among you; you shall love the alien as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Mark 8:27-38 (NRSV)

Peter's Declaration

about Jesus

(Mt 16:13–20; Lk 9:18–20)

<sup>27</sup> Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” <sup>28</sup> And they answered him, “John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.” <sup>29</sup> He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Messiah.” <sup>30</sup> And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

(Mt 16:21–28; Lk 9:21–27)

<sup>31</sup> Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. <sup>32</sup> He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. <sup>33</sup> But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

<sup>34</sup> He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. <sup>35</sup> For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. <sup>36</sup> For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? <sup>37</sup> Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? <sup>38</sup> Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Psalm 42:9-11 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> I say to God, my rock,
“Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I walk about mournfully
because the enemy
oppresses me?”
<sup>10</sup> As with a deadly wound in my body,

my adversaries taunt me,
while they say to me
continually,
“Where is your God?”
<sup>11</sup> Why are you cast down, O
my soul,
and why are you
disquieted within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise him,
my help and my God.

Proverbs 14:1-2 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> The wise woman builds
her house,
but the foolish tears it down with her own
hands.
<sup>2</sup> Those who walk uprightly
fear the LORD,
but one who is devious
in conduct despises
him.

April 25

Leviticus 19:35-20:21 (NRSV)

<sup>35</sup> You shall not cheat in measuring length, weight, or quantity. <sup>36</sup> You shall have honest balances, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>37</sup> You shall keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and observe them: I am the LORD.

Penalties for Violations of Holiness

20 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> Say further to the people of Israel:

Any of the people of Israel, or of the aliens who reside in Israel, who give any of their offspring to Molech shall be put to death; the people of the land shall stone them to death. <sup>3</sup> I myself will set my face against them, and will cut them off from the people, because they have given of their offspring to Molech, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name. <sup>4</sup> And if the people of the land should ever close their eyes to them, when they give of their offspring to Molech, and do not put them to death, <sup>5</sup> I myself will set my face against them and against their family, and will cut them off from among their people, them and all who follow them in prostituting themselves to Molech.

<sup>6</sup> If any turn to mediums and wizards, prostituting themselves to them, I will set my face against them, and will cut them off from the people. <sup>7</sup> Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup> Keep my statutes, and observe them; I am the LORD; I sanctify you. <sup>9</sup> All who curse father or mother shall be put to death; having cursed father or mother, their blood is upon them.

male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall be put to death; their blood is upon them. <sup>14</sup> If a man takes a wife and her mother also, it is depravity; they shall be burned to death, both he and they, that there may be no depravity among you. <sup>15</sup> If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he shall be put to death; and you shall kill the animal. <sup>16</sup> If a woman approaches any animal and has sexual relations with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

<sup>17</sup> If a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace, and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness, he shall be subject to punishment. <sup>18</sup> If a man lies with a woman having her sickness and uncovers her nakedness, he has laid bare her flow and she has laid bare her flow of blood; both of them shall be cut off from their people. <sup>19</sup> You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that is to lay bare one's own flesh; they shall be subject to punishment. <sup>20</sup> If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall be subject to punishment; they shall die childless. <sup>21</sup> If a man takes his brother's wife, it is impurity; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

Mark 9:1–13 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> And he said to them, “Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see that the kingdom of God has come with power.”

The Transfiguration

(Mt 17:1–8; Lk 9:28–36;

2 Pet 1:16–18)

<sup>2</sup> Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, <sup>3</sup> and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them.

<sup>4</sup> And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. <sup>5</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” <sup>6</sup> He did not know what to say, for they were terrified.

<sup>7</sup> Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, “This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!” <sup>8</sup> Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them anymore, but only Jesus.

The Coming of Elijah
(Mt 17:9–13)

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup> So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean. <sup>11</sup> Then they asked him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” <sup>12</sup> He said to them, “Elijah is indeed coming first to restore all things. How then is it written about the Son of Man, that he is to go through many sufferings and be treated with contempt?

<sup>13</sup> But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written about him.”

Psalm 43:1-4 (NRSV)

*Prayer to God in
Time of Trouble*

- <sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people; from those who are deceitful and unjust deliver me!
- <sup>2</sup> For you are the God in whom I take refuge; why have you cast me off? Why must I walk about mournfully because of the oppression of the enemy?
- <sup>3</sup> O send out your light and your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling.

<sup>4</sup> Then I will go to the altar
of God,
to God my exceeding joy;
and I will praise you with
the harp,
O God, my God.

Proverbs 14:3–4 (NRSV)

<sup>3</sup> The talk of fools is a rod for their backs,
but the lips of the wise
preserve them.

Leviticus 20:22-21:24 (NRSV)

<sup>22</sup> You shall keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and observe them,
so that the land to which I bring you to settle in may not vomit you out. <sup>23</sup> You shall not follow the practices of the nation that I am driving out before you. Because they did all these things, I abhorred

them. <sup>24</sup> But I have said to you:
You shall inherit their land,
and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God; I have separated
you from the peoples. <sup>25</sup> You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean; you shall not bring abomination on yourselves by animal or by bird or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have set apart for you to hold unclean. <sup>26</sup> You shall be holy to me; for I the LORD am holy, and I have separated you from the other peoples to be mine.

<sup>27</sup> A man or a woman who is a medium or a wizard shall be put to death; they shall be stoned to death, their blood is upon them.

The Holiness of Priests (Cp Ezek 44:15–31)

21 The LORD said to Moses: Speak to the priests, the sons
of Aaron, and say to them:

No one shall defile himself
for a dead person among his relatives, <sup>2</sup> except for his nearest kin: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother; <sup>3</sup> likewise, for a virgin sister, close to him because she has had no husband, he may defile himself for her. <sup>4</sup> But he shall not defile himself as a husband among his people and so profane himself. <sup>5</sup> They shall not make bald spots upon their heads, or shave off the edges of their beards, or make any gashes in their flesh. <sup>6</sup> They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the LORD's offerings by fire, the food of their God; therefore they shall be holy. <sup>7</sup> They shall not marry a prostitute or a woman who has been defiled; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband. For they are holy to their God, <sup>8</sup> and you shall treat them as holy, since they offer the food of your God; they shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, I who sanctify you, am holy. <sup>9</sup> When the daughter of a priest profanes herself through prostitution, she profanes her father; she shall be burned to death.

<sup>10</sup> The priest who is exalted above his fellows, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated to wear the vestments, shall not dishevel his hair, nor tear his vestments. <sup>11</sup> He shall not go where there is a dead body; he shall not defile himself even for his father or mother. <sup>12</sup> He shall not go outside the sanctuary and thus profane the sanctuary of his God; for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup> He shall marry only a woman who is a virgin. <sup>14</sup> A widow, or a divorced woman, or a woman who has been defiled, a prostitute, these he shall not marry. He shall marry a virgin of his own kin, <sup>15</sup> that he may not profane his offspring among his kin; for I am the LORD; I sanctify him.

food of his God. <sup>18</sup> For no one who has a blemish shall draw near, one who is blind or lame, or one who has a mutilated face or a limb too long, <sup>19</sup> or one who has a broken foot or a broken hand, <sup>20</sup> or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or a man with a blemish in his eyes or an itching disease or scabs or crushed testicles. <sup>21</sup> No descendant of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the LORD's offerings by fire; since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the food of his God. <sup>22</sup> He may eat the food of his God, of the most holy as well as of the holy. <sup>23</sup> But he shall not come near the curtain or approach the altar, because he has a blemish, that he may not profane my sanctuaries; for I am the LORD; I sanctify them. <sup>24</sup> Thus Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the people of Israel.

Mark 9:14–29 (NRSV)

The Healing of a Boy with a Spirit

(Mt 17:14–21; Lk 9:37–43a)

<sup>14</sup> When they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them.

<sup>15</sup> When the whole crowd saw him, they were immediately overcome with awe, and they ran forward to greet him. <sup>16</sup> He asked them, “What are you arguing about with them?”

<sup>17</sup> Someone from the crowd answered him, “Teacher, I brought you my son; he has a spirit that makes him unable to speak; <sup>18</sup> and whenever it seizes him, it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they could not do so.” <sup>19</sup> He answered them, “You faithless generation, how much longer must I be among you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him to me.”

<sup>20</sup> And they brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. <sup>21</sup> Jesus asked the father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood. <sup>22</sup> It has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you are able to do anything, have pity on us and help us.”<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to him, “If you are able!—All things can be done for the one who believes.”<sup>24</sup> Immediately the father of the child cried out, “I believe; help my unbelief!”

<sup>25</sup> When Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You spirit that keeps this boy from speaking and hearing, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!”<sup>26</sup> After crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, “He is dead.”<sup>27</sup> But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he was able to stand.

<sup>28</sup> When he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?”<sup>29</sup> He said to them, “This kind can come out only through prayer.”

The Use of Holy Offerings

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> Direct Aaron and his sons to deal carefully with the sacred donations of the people of Israel, which they dedicate to me, so that they may not profane my holy name; I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Say to them: If anyone among all your offspring throughout your generations comes near the sacred donations, which the people of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he is in a state of uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> No one of Aaron's offspring who has a leprous disease or suffers a discharge may eat of the sacred donations until he is clean. Whoever touches anything made unclean by a corpse or a man who has had an emission of semen, <sup>5</sup> and whoever touches any swarming thing by which he may be made unclean or any human being by whom he may be made unclean—whatever his uncleanness may be— <sup>6</sup> the person who touches any such shall be unclean until evening and shall not eat of the sacred donations unless he has washed his body in water.

<sup>7</sup> When the sun sets he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat of the sacred donations, for they are his food. <sup>8</sup> That which died or was torn by wild animals he shall not eat, becoming unclean by it: I am the LORD. <sup>9</sup> They shall keep my charge, so that they may not incur guilt and die in the sanctuary for having profaned it: I am the LORD; I sanctify them.

<sup>10</sup> No lay person shall eat of the sacred donations. No bound or hired servant of the priest shall eat of the sacred donations; <sup>11</sup> but if a priest acquires anyone by purchase, the person may eat of them; and those that are born in his house may eat of his food. <sup>12</sup> If a priest's daughter marries a layman, she shall not eat of the offering of the sacred donations; <sup>13</sup> but if a priest's daughter is widowed or divorced, without offspring, and returns to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food. No lay person shall eat of it.

<sup>14</sup> If a man eats of the sacred donation unintentionally, he shall add one-fifth of its value to it, and give the sacred donation to the priest. <sup>15</sup> No one shall profane the sacred donations of the people of Israel, which they offer to the LORD, <sup>16</sup> causing them to bear guilt requiring a guilt offering, by eating their sacred donations: for I am the LORD; I sanctify them.

Jesus Again Foretells His Death and Resurrection
(Mt 17:22-23; Lk 9:43b-45)

<sup>30</sup>They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; <sup>31</sup>for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.” <sup>32</sup>But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Who Is the Greatest?
(Mt 18:1-5; Lk 9:46-48)

<sup>33</sup>Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” <sup>34</sup>But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. <sup>35</sup>He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, “Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.” <sup>36</sup>Then he took a little child and put it

among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them,

<sup>37</sup>“Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.”

<sup>1</sup> We have heard with our ears, O God,
our ancestors have told us,
what deeds you performed in their days,
in the days of old:
<sup>2</sup> you with your own hand drove out the nations,
but them you planted;
you afflicted the peoples,
but them you set free;
<sup>3</sup> for not by their own sword did they win the land,

for you delighted in them.

Acceptable Offerings

<sup>17</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>18</sup> Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel and say to them: When anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens residing in Israel presents an offering, whether in payment of a vow or as a freewill offering that is offered to the LORD as a burnt offering, <sup>19</sup> to be acceptable in your behalf it shall be a male without blemish, of the cattle or the sheep or the goats. <sup>20</sup> You shall not offer anything that has a blemish, for it will not be acceptable in your behalf.

<sup>21</sup> When anyone offers a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, in fulfillment of a vow or as a freewill offering, from the herd or from the flock, to be acceptable it must be perfect; there shall be no blemish in it. <sup>22</sup> Anything blind, or injured, or maimed, or having a discharge or an itch or scabs—these you shall not offer to the LORD or put any of them on the altar as offerings by fire to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> An ox or a lamb that has a limb too long or too short you may present for a freewill offering; but it will not be accepted for a vow. <sup>24</sup> Any animal that has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD; such you shall not do within your land, <sup>25</sup> nor shall you accept any such animals from a foreigner to offer as food to your God; since they are mutilated, with a blemish in them, they shall not be accepted in your behalf.

<sup>26</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>27</sup> When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as the LORD's offering by fire. <sup>28</sup> But you shall not slaughter, from the herd or the flock, an animal with its young on the same day.

<sup>29</sup> When you sacrifice a thanksgiving offering to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that it may be acceptable in your behalf. <sup>30</sup> It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall not leave any of it until morning: I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> Thus you shall keep my commandments and observe them: I am the LORD. <sup>32</sup> You shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the people of Israel: I am the LORD; I sanctify you, <sup>33</sup> I who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the LORD.

Appointed Festivals

23 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: These are the appointed festivals of the LORD that you shall proclaim as holy convocations, my appointed festivals.

The Sabbath, Passover, and Unleavened Bread

(Num 28:16–25)

<sup>3</sup> Six days shall work be done; but the seventh day is a sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no work: it is a sabbath to the LORD throughout your settlements.

<sup>4</sup> These are the appointed festivals of the LORD, the holy convocations, which you shall celebrate at the time appointed for them. <sup>5</sup> In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, there shall be a passover offering to the LORD, <sup>6</sup> and on the fifteenth day of the same month is the festival of unleavened bread to the LORD; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. <sup>7</sup> On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.

<sup>8</sup> For seven days you shall present the LORD's offerings by fire; on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation: you shall not work at your occupations.

The Offering of First Fruits

<sup>9</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses:
<sup>10</sup>Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you and you reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest. <sup>11</sup>He shall raise the sheaf before the LORD, that you may find acceptance; on the day after the sabbath the priest shall raise it. <sup>12</sup>On the day when you raise the sheaf, you shall offer a lamb a year old, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD.
<sup>13</sup>And the grain offering with it shall be two-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, one-fourth of a hin. <sup>14</sup>You shall eat no bread or parched grain or fresh ears until that very day, until you have brought the offering of your God: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your settlements.

The Festival of Weeks
(Ex 34:22; Num 28:26–31;
Deut 16:9–10)

<sup>15</sup>And from the day after the sabbath, from the day on which you bring the sheaf of the elevation offering, you shall count off seven weeks; they shall be complete. <sup>16</sup>You shall count until the day after the seventh sabbath, fifty days; then you shall present an offering of new grain to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>You shall bring from your settlements two loaves of bread as an elevation offering, each made of two-tenths of an ephah; they shall be of choice flour, baked with leaven, as first fruits to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>You shall present with the bread seven lambs a year old without blemish, one young bull, and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, along with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.
<sup>19</sup>You shall also offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a sacrifice of well-being. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall raise them with the bread of the first fruits as an elevation offering before the LORD, together with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>21</sup> On that same day you shall make proclamation; you shall hold a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. This is a statute forever in all your settlements throughout your generations.

Mark 9:38-50 (NRSV)

Another Exorcist

(Mt 10:40–42; Lk 9:49–50)

“Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.” <sup>39</sup> But Jesus said,

“Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me.

<sup>40</sup> Whoever is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup> For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

Temptations to Sin

<sup>42</sup> “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea.

<sup>43</sup> If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. <sup>45</sup> And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. <sup>47</sup> And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, <sup>48</sup> where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched.

<sup>49</sup> “For everyone will be salted with fire. <sup>50</sup> Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

Psalms 44:4-8 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> You are my King and my God;
you command victories for Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> Through you we push down our foes;

through your name we tread down our assailants.

6 For not in my bow do I trust,
nor can my sword save
me.

7 But you have saved us
from our foes,
and have put to confusion those who hate us.

8 In God we have boasted
continually,
and we will give thanks
to your name forever.
Selah

Proverbs 14:9–10 (NRSV)

9 Fools mock at the guilt offering,
but the upright enjoy God's favor.

10 The heart knows its own bitterness, and no
stranger shares its joy.

April 29

Leviticus 23:22–44 (NRSV)

<sup>22</sup> When you reap the
harvest of your land, you shall
not reap to the very edges of
your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor and for the alien: I am the LORD your God.

The Festival of Trumpets (Num 29:1–6)

<sup>23</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>24</sup> Speak to the people of Israel, saying: In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of complete rest, a holy convocation commemorated with trumpet blasts. <sup>25</sup> You shall not work at your occupations; and you shall present the LORD's offering by fire.

The Day of Atonement (Num 29:7–11)

<sup>26</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>27</sup> Now, the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you: you shall deny yourselves and present
the LORD's offering by fire; <sup>28</sup> and you shall do no work during that entire day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God.<sup>29</sup> For anyone who does not practice self-denial during that entire day shall be cut off from the people.<sup>30</sup> And anyone who does any work during that entire day, such a one I will destroy from the midst of the people.<sup>31</sup> You shall do no work: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your settlements.<sup>32</sup> It shall be to you a sabbath of complete rest, and you shall deny yourselves; on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening you shall keep your sabbath.

The Festival of Booths
(Num 29:12–40; Deut 16:13–17)

<sup>33</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>34</sup> Speak to the people of Israel, saying: On the fifteenth day of this seventh month, and lasting seven days, there shall be the festival of booths to the LORD.<sup>35</sup> The first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.<sup>36</sup> Seven days you shall present the LORD's offerings by fire; on the eighth day you shall observe a holy convocation and present the LORD's offerings by fire; it is a solemn assembly; you shall not work at your occupations.

<sup>37</sup> These are the appointed festivals of the LORD, which you shall celebrate as times of holy convocation, for presenting to the LORD offerings by fire—burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its proper day—<sup>38</sup> apart from the sabbaths of the LORD, and apart from your gifts, and apart from all your votive offerings, and apart from all your freewill offerings, which you give to the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> Now, the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall keep the festival of the LORD, lasting seven days; a complete rest on the first day, and a complete rest on the eighth day.<sup>40</sup> On the first day you shall take the fruit of majestic trees, branches of palm trees, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

<sup>41</sup> You shall keep it as a festival to the LORD seven days in the year; you shall keep it in the seventh month as a statute forever throughout your generations. <sup>42</sup> You shall live in booths for seven days; all that are citizens in Israel shall live in booths, <sup>43</sup> so that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Mark 10:1-12 (NRSV)

Teaching about Divorce
(Mt 19:1-9)

<sup>2</sup> Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" <sup>3</sup> He answered them, "What did Moses command you?" <sup>4</sup> They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her." <sup>5</sup> But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you.

<sup>10</sup> Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. <sup>11</sup> He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; <sup>12</sup> and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Psalms 44:9-22 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> Yet you have rejected us and abased us, and have not gone out with our armies.

<sup>10</sup> You made us turn back from the foe, and our enemies have gotten spoil.

11 You have made us like sheep for slaughter,
and have scattered us
among the nations.
12 You have sold your people
for a trifle,
demanding no high price
for them.
13 You have made us the taunt of our neighbors,
the derision and scorn of
those around us.
14 You have made us a byword among the nations,
a laughingstock among
the peoples.
15 All day long my disgrace is
before me,
and shame has covered
my face
16 at the words of the
taunters and revilers,
at the sight of the enemy
and the avenger.
17 All this has come upon us,
yet we have not forgotten you,
or been false to your
covenant.
18 Our heart has not turned
back,
nor have our steps
departed from your
way,

19 yet you have broken us in the haunt of jackals,
and covered us with
deep darkness.
20 If we had forgotten the name of our God,
or spread out our hands
to a strange god,
21 would not God discover
this?
For he knows the secrets
of the heart.
22 Because of you we are being killed all day
long,
and accounted as sheep
for the slaughter.

Proverbs 14:11–12 (NRSV)

11 The house of the wicked is
destroyed,
but the tent of the upright flourishes.
12 There is a way that seems right to a person,
but its end is the way to
death.

Leviticus 24:1–25:13 (NRSV)

The Lamp

(Ex 27:20–21)

The Bread for the Tabernacle

<sup>5</sup> You shall take choice flour, and bake twelve loaves of it; two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each loaf. <sup>6</sup> You shall place them in two rows, six in a row, on the table of pure gold. <sup>7</sup> You shall put pure frankincense with each row, to be a token offering for the bread, as an offering by fire to the LORD. <sup>8</sup> Every sabbath day Aaron shall set them in order before the LORD regularly as a commitment of the people of Israel, as a covenant forever. <sup>9</sup> They shall be for Aaron and his descendants, who shall eat them in a holy place, for they are most holy portions for him from the offerings by fire to the LORD, a perpetual due.

Blasphemy and Its Punishment

<sup>10</sup> A man whose mother was an Israelite and whose father was an Egyptian came out among the people of Israel; and the Israelite woman's son and a certain Israelite began fighting in the camp. <sup>11</sup> The Israelite woman's son blasphemed the Name in a curse. And they brought him to Moses—now his mother's name was Shelomith, daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan— <sup>12</sup> and they put him in custody, until the decision of the LORD should be made clear to them.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD said to Moses, saying: <sup>14</sup> Take the blasphemer outside the camp; and let all who were within hearing lay their hands on his head, and let the whole congregation stone him. <sup>15</sup> And speak to the people of Israel, saying: Anyone who curses God shall bear the sin. <sup>16</sup> One who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall be put to death; the whole congregation shall stone the blasphemer. Aliens as well as citizens, when they blaspheme the Name, shall be put to death. <sup>17</sup> Anyone who kills a human being shall be put to death. <sup>18</sup> Anyone who kills an animal shall make restitution for it, life for life. <sup>19</sup> Anyone who maims another shall suffer the same injury in return: <sup>20</sup> fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; the injury inflicted is the injury to be suffered. <sup>21</sup> One who kills an animal shall make restitution for it; but one who kills a human being shall be put to death. <sup>22</sup> You shall have one law for the alien and for the citizen: for I am the LORD your God. <sup>23</sup> Moses spoke thus to the people of Israel; and they took the blasphemer outside the camp, and stoned him to death. The people of Israel did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Sabbatical Year
(Deut 15:1–11)

25 The LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying: <sup>2</sup> Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you, the land shall observe a sabbath for the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in their yield; <sup>4</sup> but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of complete rest for the land, a sabbath for the LORD: you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. <sup>5</sup> You shall not reap the aftergrowth of your harvest or gather the grapes of your unpruned vine: it shall be a year of complete rest for the land. <sup>6</sup> You may eat what the land yields during its sabbath—you, your male and female slaves, your hired and your bound laborers who live with you; <sup>7</sup> for your livestock also, and for the wild animals in your land all its yield shall be for food.

The Year of Jubilee

seven years, so that the period of seven weeks of years gives forty-nine years.<sup>9</sup> Then you shall have the trumpet sounded loud; on the tenth day of the seventh month—on the day of atonement—you shall have the trumpet sounded throughout all your land.<sup>10</sup> And you shall hallow the fiftieth year and you shall proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you: you shall return, every one of you, to your property and every one of you to your family.<sup>11</sup> That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you: you shall not sow, or reap the aftergrowth, or harvest the unpruned vines.<sup>12</sup> For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you: you shall eat only what the field itself produces.

<sup>13</sup> In this year of jubilee you shall return, every one of you, to your property.

Mark 10:13-16 (NRSV)

Jesus Blesses Little Children
(Mt 19:13-15; Lk 18:15-17)

<sup>13</sup> People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them.<sup>14</sup> But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.”<sup>15</sup> Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.”<sup>16</sup> And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

<sup>23</sup> Rouse yourself! Why do you sleep, O Lord?
Awake, do not cast us off forever!

<sup>24</sup> Why do you hide your face?
Why do you forget our affliction and oppression?

<sup>25</sup> For we sink down to the dust;
our bodies cling to the ground.

<sup>26</sup> Rise up, come to our help.
Redeem us for the sake of your steadfast love.

<sup>13</sup> Even in laughter the heart is sad,

and the end of joy is grief.

Leviticus 25:14-46 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> When you [the people of Israel] make a sale to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor, you shall not cheat one another. <sup>15</sup> When you buy from your neighbor, you shall pay only for the number of years since the jubilee; the seller shall charge you only for the remaining crop years. <sup>16</sup> If the years are more, you shall increase the price, and if the years are fewer, you shall diminish the price; for it is a certain number of harvests that are being sold to you. <sup>17</sup> You shall not cheat one another, but you shall fear

your God; for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>18</sup> You shall observe my statutes and faithfully keep my ordinances, so that you may live on the land securely.

<sup>19</sup> The land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill and live on it securely. <sup>20</sup> Should you ask, "What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we may not sow or gather in our crop?" <sup>21</sup> I will order my blessing for you in the sixth year, so that it will yield a crop for three years. <sup>22</sup> When you sow in the eighth year, you will be eating from the old crop; until the ninth year, when its produce comes in, you shall eat the old. <sup>23</sup> The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; with me you are but aliens and tenants.

<sup>25</sup> If anyone of your kin falls into difficulty and sells a piece of property, then the next of kin shall come and redeem what the relative has sold. <sup>26</sup> If the person has no one to redeem it, but then prospers

and finds sufficient means to do so,<sup>27</sup> the years since its sale shall be computed and the difference shall be refunded to the person to whom it was sold, and the property shall be returned.<sup>28</sup> But if there are not sufficient means to recover it, what was sold shall remain with the purchaser until the year of jubilee; in the jubilee it shall be released, and the property shall be returned.

<sup>29</sup> If anyone sells a dwelling house in a walled city, it may be redeemed until a year has elapsed since its sale; the right of redemption shall be one year.<sup>30</sup> If it is not redeemed before a full year has elapsed, a house that is in a walled city shall pass in perpetuity to the purchaser, throughout the generations; it shall not be released in the jubilee.<sup>31</sup> But houses in villages that have no walls around them shall be classed as open country; they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the jubilee.

<sup>33</sup> Such property as may be redeemed from the Levites—houses sold in a city belonging to them—shall be released in the jubilee; because the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the people of Israel.

<sup>34</sup> But the open land around their cities may not be sold; for that is their possession for all time.

<sup>35</sup> If any of your kin fall into difficulty and become dependent on you, you shall support them; they shall live with you as though resident aliens.<sup>36</sup> Do not take interest in advance or otherwise make a profit from them, but fear your God; let them live with you.<sup>37</sup> You shall not lend them your money at interest taken in advance, or provide them food at a profit.<sup>38</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.

<sup>39</sup> If any who are dependent on you become so impoverished that they sell themselves to you, you shall not make them serve as slaves.<sup>40</sup> They shall remain with you as hired or bound laborers. They shall serve with you until the year of the jubilee. <sup>41</sup> Then they and their children with them shall be free from your authority; they shall go back to their own family and return to their ancestral property. <sup>42</sup> For they are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves are sold. <sup>43</sup> You shall not rule over them with harshness, but shall fear your God. <sup>44</sup> As for the male and female slaves whom you may have, it is from the nations around you that you may acquire male and female slaves. <sup>45</sup> You may also acquire them from among the aliens residing with you, and from their families that are with you, who have been born in your land; and they may be your property. <sup>46</sup> You may keep them as a possession for your children after you, for them to inherit as property. These you may treat as slaves, but as for your fellow Israelites, no one shall rule over the other with harshness.

Mark 10:17-31 (NRSV)

The Rich Man

(Mt 19:16-30; Lk 18:18-30)

<sup>17</sup> As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" <sup>18</sup> Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. <sup>19</sup> You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.' " <sup>20</sup> He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth." <sup>21</sup> Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." <sup>22</sup> When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!"

<sup>24</sup> And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup> They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” <sup>27</sup> Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. <sup>31</sup> But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Psalm 45:1-6 (NRSV)

Ode for a Royal Wedding

To the leader: according to Lilies. Of the Korahites. A Maskil. A love song.

- <sup>1</sup> My heart overflows with a goodly theme;
I address my verses to the king;
my tongue is like the pen of a ready scribe.
- <sup>2</sup> You are the most handsome of men;
grace is poured upon your lips;
therefore God has blessed you forever.
- <sup>3</sup> Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one, in your glory and majesty.
- <sup>4</sup> In your majesty ride on victoriously for the cause of truth and to defend the right;
let your right hand teach you dread deeds.
- <sup>5</sup> Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies;
the peoples fall under you.
- <sup>6</sup> Your throne, O God, endures forever and ever.

Your royal scepter is a scepter of equity;

Proverbs 14:15–16 (NRSV)

- <sup>15</sup> The simple believe everything,
but the clever consider
their steps.
- <sup>16</sup> The wise are cautious and turn away from evil,
but the fool throws off restraint and is careless.

Leviticus 25:47–26:13 (NRSV)

<sup>47</sup> If resident aliens among you prosper, and if any of your kin fall into difficulty with one of them and sell themselves to an alien, or to a branch of the alien's family, <sup>48</sup> after they have sold themselves they shall have the right of redemption; one of their brothers may redeem them, <sup>49</sup> or their uncle or their uncle's son may redeem them,

or anyone of their family who is of their own flesh may redeem them; or if they prosper they may redeem themselves. <sup>50</sup> They shall compute with the purchaser
the total from the year when they sold themselves to the alien until the jubilee year; the price of the sale shall be applied to the number of years: the time they were with the owner shall be rated as the time of a hired laborer.
<sup>51</sup> If many years remain, they shall pay for their redemption
in proportion to the purchase price; <sup>52</sup> and if few years
remain until the jubilee year,
they shall compute thus:
according to the years
involved they shall make payment for their redemption.
<sup>53</sup> As a laborer hired by the year they shall be under the alien's authority, who shall not, however, rule with harshness over them in your sight. <sup>54</sup> And if they have not been redeemed in any of these ways, they and their children with them shall go free in the jubilee year. <sup>55</sup> For
to me the people of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

*Rewards for Obedience
(Deut 7:12–24; 28:1–14)*

26 You shall make for yourselves no idols and erect no carved images or pillars, and you shall not place figured stones in your land, to worship at them; for I am the LORD your God. <sup>2</sup>You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>If you follow my statutes and keep my commandments and observe them faithfully, <sup>4</sup>I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. <sup>5</sup>Your threshing shall overtake the vintage, and the vintage shall overtake the sowing; you shall eat your bread to the full, and live securely in your land. <sup>6</sup>And I will grant peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and no one shall make you afraid; I will remove dangerous animals from the land, and no sword shall go through your land. <sup>7</sup>You shall give chase to your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

<sup>8</sup>Five of you shall give chase to a hundred, and a hundred of you shall give chase to ten thousand; your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

<sup>9</sup>I will look with favor upon you and make you fruitful and multiply you; and I will maintain my covenant with you. <sup>10</sup>You shall eat old grain long stored, and you shall have to clear out the old to make way for the new. <sup>11</sup>I will place my dwelling in your midst, and I shall not abhor you. <sup>12</sup>And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be my people. <sup>13</sup>I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be their slaves no more; I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.

Mark 10:32-45 (NRSV)

*A Third Time Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection
(Mt 20:17–19; Lk 18:31–34)*

<sup>32</sup>They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them; they were amazed, and those who followed were afraid. He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them what was to happen to him, <sup>33</sup> saying, “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death; then they will hand him over to the Gentiles; <sup>34</sup> they will mock him, and spit upon him, and flog him, and kill him; and after three days he will rise again.”

The Request of James and John
(Mt 20:20–28)

<sup>35</sup> James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.” <sup>36</sup> And he said to them, “What is it you want me to do for you?” <sup>37</sup> And they said to him, “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.” <sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?” <sup>39</sup> They replied, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; <sup>40</sup> but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

<sup>41</sup> When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. <sup>42</sup> So Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.

<sup>43</sup> But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. <sup>45</sup> For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

<sup>7</sup> you love righteousness

among your ladies of
honor;
at your right hand stands
the queen in gold of Ophir.
10 Hear, O daughter, consider

11 and the king will desire your beauty.
Since he is your lord, bow

of the king.
16 In the place of ancestors
you, O king, shall have sons;
you will make them
princes in all the earth.
17 I will cause your name to

Leviticus 26:14-46 (NRSV)

Penalties for Disobedience (Deut 28:15–68)

<sup>14</sup> But if you will not obey me, and do not observe all these commandments, <sup>15</sup> if you spurn my statutes, and abhor my ordinances, so that you will not observe all my commandments, and you break my covenant, <sup>16</sup> I in turn will do this to you: I will bring terror on you; consumption and fever that waste the eyes and cause life to pine away. You shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. <sup>17</sup> I will set my face against you, and you shall be struck down by your enemies; your foes shall rule over you, and you shall flee though no one pursues you. <sup>18</sup> And if in spite of this you will not obey me, I will continue to punish you sevenfold for your sins. <sup>19</sup> I will break your proud glory, and I will make your sky like iron and your earth like copper. <sup>20</sup> Your strength shall be spent to no purpose: your land shall not yield its produce, and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.

<sup>21</sup> If you continue hostile to me, and will not obey me, I will continue to plague you sevenfold for your sins. <sup>22</sup> I will let loose wild animals against you, and they shall bereave you of your children and destroy your livestock; they shall make you few in number, and your roads shall be deserted.

<sup>23</sup> If in spite of these punishments you have not turned back to me, but continue hostile to me, <sup>24</sup> then I too will continue hostile to you: I myself will strike you sevenfold for your sins. <sup>25</sup> I will bring the sword against you, executing vengeance for the covenant; and if you withdraw within your cities, I will send pestilence among you, and you shall be delivered into enemy hands. <sup>26</sup> When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in a single oven, and they shall dole out your bread by weight; and though you eat, you shall not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup> But if, despite this, you disobey me, and continue hostile to me, <sup>28</sup> I will continue hostile to you in fury; I in turn will punish you myself sevenfold for your sins. <sup>29</sup> You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters. <sup>30</sup> I will destroy your high places and cut down your incense altars; I will heap your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols. I will abhor you. <sup>31</sup> I will lay your cities waste, will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your pleasing odors. <sup>32</sup> I will devastate the land, so that your enemies who come to settle in it shall be appalled at it. <sup>33</sup> And you I will scatter among the nations, and I will unsheathe the sword against you; your land shall be a desolation, and your cities a waste.

<sup>34</sup> Then the land shall enjoy its sabbath years as long as it lies desolate, while you are in the land of your enemies; then the land shall rest, and enjoy its sabbath years. <sup>35</sup> As long as it lies desolate, it shall have the rest it did not have on your sabbaths when you were living on it. <sup>36</sup> And as for those of you who survive, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a driven leaf shall put them to flight, and they shall flee as one flees from the sword, and they shall fall though no one pursues.

<sup>37</sup> They shall stumble over one another, as if to escape a sword, though no one pursues; and you shall have no power to stand against your enemies. <sup>38</sup> You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall devour you. <sup>39</sup> And those of you who survive shall languish in the land of your enemies because of their iniquities; also they shall languish because of the iniquities of their ancestors.

humbled and they make amends for their iniquity,<sup>42</sup> then will I remember my covenant with Jacob; I will remember also my covenant with Isaac and also my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.<sup>43</sup> For the land shall be deserted by them, and enjoy its sabbath years by lying desolate without them, while they shall make amends for their iniquity, because they dared to spurn my ordinances, and they abhorred my statutes.<sup>44</sup> Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not spurn them, or abhor them so as to destroy them utterly and break my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God;<sup>45</sup> but I will remember in their favor the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, to be their God: I am the LORD.

<sup>46</sup> These are the statutes and ordinances and laws that the LORD established between himself and the people of Israel on Mount Sinai through Moses.

Mark 10:46-52 (NRSV)

The Healing of Blind Bartimaeus

(Mt 20:29–34; Lk 18:35–43)

<sup>46</sup> They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.<sup>47</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”<sup>48</sup> Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”<sup>49</sup> Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.”<sup>50</sup> So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.<sup>51</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.”<sup>52</sup> Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

*God's Defense of His City and
People*

To the leader. Of the Korahites.
According to Alamo. A Song.

- 1 God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
- 2 Therefore we will not fear,
though the earth should change,
though the mountains shake in the heart of
the sea;
- 3 though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble with its tumult. Selah
- 4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.
- 5 God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be
moved;
God will help it when the morning dawns.
- 6 The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms
totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

- 7 The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Votive Offerings

- 1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: 2 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When a person makes an explicit vow to the LORD concerning the equivalent for a human being, 3 the equivalent for a male shall be: from twenty to sixty years of age the equivalent shall be fifty shekels of silver by the sanctuary shekel. <sup>4</sup> If the person is a female, the equivalent is thirty shekels. <sup>5</sup> If the age is from five to twenty years of age, the equivalent is twenty shekels for a male and ten shekels for a female. <sup>6</sup> If the age is from one month to five years, the equivalent for a male is five shekels of silver, and for a female the equivalent is three shekels of silver. <sup>7</sup> And if the person is sixty years old or over, then the equivalent for a male is fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels. <sup>8</sup> If any cannot afford the equivalent, they shall be brought before the priest and the priest shall assess them; the priest shall assess them according to what each one making a vow can afford.

<sup>9</sup> If it concerns an animal that may be brought as an offering to the LORD, any such that may be given to the LORD shall be holy. <sup>10</sup> Another shall not be exchanged or substituted for it, either good for bad or bad for good; and if one animal is substituted for another, both that one and its substitute shall be holy. <sup>11</sup> If it concerns any unclean animal that may not be brought as an offering to the LORD, the animal shall be presented before the priest. <sup>12</sup> The priest shall assess it: whether good or bad, according to the assessment of the priest, so it shall be. <sup>13</sup> But if it is to be redeemed, one-fifth must be added to the assessment.

<sup>14</sup> If a person consecrates a house to the LORD, the priest shall assess it: whether good or bad, as the priest assesses it, so it shall stand. <sup>15</sup> And if the one who consecrates the house wishes to redeem it, one-fifth shall be added to its assessed value, and it shall revert to the original owner.

compute the price for it according to the years that remain until the year of jubilee, and the assessment shall be reduced.<sup>19</sup> And if the one who consecrates the field wishes to redeem it, then one-fifth shall be added to its assessed value, and it shall revert to the original owner;<sup>20</sup> but if the field is not redeemed, or if it has been sold to someone else, it shall no longer be redeemable.

<sup>21</sup> But when the field is released in the jubilee, it shall be holy to the LORD as a devoted field; it becomes the priest's holding.<sup>22</sup> If someone consecrates to the LORD a field that has been purchased, which is not a part of the inherited landholding,<sup>23</sup> the priest shall compute for it the proportionate assessment up to the year of jubilee, and the assessment shall be paid as of that day, a sacred donation to the LORD.<sup>24</sup> In the year of jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom it was bought, whose holding the land is.<sup>25</sup> All assessments shall be by the sanctuary shekel:

twenty gerahs shall make a shekel.

<sup>26</sup> A firstling of animals, however, which as a firstling belongs to the LORD, cannot be consecrated by anyone; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.<sup>27</sup> If it is an unclean animal, it shall be ransomed at its assessment, with one-fifth added; if it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at its assessment.

<sup>28</sup> Nothing that a person owns that has been devoted to destruction for the LORD, be it human or animal, or inherited landholding, may be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.<sup>29</sup> No human beings who have been devoted to destruction can be ransomed; they shall be put to death.

<sup>30</sup> All tithes from the land, whether the seed from the ground or the fruit from the tree, are the LORD's; they are holy to the LORD.<sup>31</sup> If persons wish to redeem any of their tithes, they must add one-fifth to them.<sup>32</sup> All tithes of herd and flock, every tenth one that passes under the shepherd's staff, shall be holy to the LORD.

it is good or bad, or make substitution for it; if one makes substitution for it, then both it and the substitute shall be holy and cannot be redeemed.

<sup>34</sup>These are the commandments that the LORD gave to Moses for the people of Israel on Mount Sinai.

*Jesus' Triumphal
Entry into Jerusalem
(Mt 21:1-11; Lk 19:28-40
Jn 12:12-19)*

<sup>1</sup>When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples <sup>2</sup>and said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it.” <sup>3</sup>If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.’ ”

<sup>4</sup>They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, <sup>5</sup>some of the bystanders said to them,

“What are you doing, untying the colt?” <sup>6</sup>They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. <sup>7</sup>Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. <sup>8</sup>Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. <sup>9</sup>Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

“Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

<sup>10</sup>Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

<sup>11</sup>Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Numbers 1:1–54 (NRSV)

The First Census of Israel
(Cp 2 Sam 24:1–9; 1 Chr 21:1–6)

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying: <sup>2</sup> Take a census of the whole congregation of Israelites, in their clans, by ancestral houses, according to the number of names, every male individually; <sup>3</sup> from
twenty years old and upward,
everyone in Israel able to go to war. You and Aaron shall enroll them, company by company. <sup>4</sup> A man from each tribe shall be with you, each man the head of his ancestral house. <sup>5</sup> These are the names of the men who shall assist
you:

From Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur.

<sup>6</sup> From Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>7</sup> From Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab.

8 From Issachar, Nethanel
son of Zuar.

9 From Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon.

10 From the sons of Joseph:
from Ephraim, Elishama
son of Ammihud;
from Manasseh, Gamaliel
son of Pedahzur.

11 From Benjamin, Abidan
son of Gideoni.

12 From Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

13 From Asher, Pagiel son of Ochran.

14 From Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel.

15 From Naphtali, Ahira son
of Enan.

16 These were the ones chosen from the congregation, the leaders of their ancestral tribes, the heads of the divisions of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name, <sup>18</sup> and on the first day of the second month they assembled the whole congregation together.
They registered themselves in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names from twenty years old and upward,

individually, <sup>19</sup> as the LORD commanded Moses. So he enrolled them in the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>20</sup> The descendants of Reuben, Israel's firstborn,
their lineage, in their clans, by
their ancestral houses,
according to the number of names, individually, every male from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war: <sup>21</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Reuben were forty-six thousand five hundred.

<sup>22</sup> The descendants of Simeon, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, those of them that were numbered, according to the number of names, individually, every male from
twenty years old and upward,
everyone able to go to war:
<sup>23</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Simeon were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

<sup>24</sup> The descendants of Gad,
their lineage, in their clans, by
their ancestral houses,
according to the number of
the names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone
able to go to war: <sup>25</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Gad were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

<sup>26</sup> The descendants of Judah, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war: <sup>27</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Judah were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

descendants of Ephraim, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war: <sup>33</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand five hundred.

<sup>34</sup> The descendants of Manasseh, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war: <sup>35</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

<sup>36</sup> The descendants of Benjamin, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war: <sup>37</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Benjamin were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

go to war: <sup>39</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

<sup>40</sup> The descendants of Asher, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

<sup>41</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Asher were forty-one thousand five hundred.

<sup>42</sup> The descendants of Naphtali, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

<sup>43</sup> those enrolled of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

<sup>44</sup> These are those who were enrolled, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled with the help of the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each representing his ancestral house. <sup>45</sup> So the whole number of the Israelites, by their ancestral houses, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war in Israel— <sup>46</sup> their whole number was six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty. <sup>47</sup> The Levites, however, were not numbered by their ancestral tribe along with them.

<sup>48</sup> The LORD had said to Moses: <sup>49</sup> Only the tribe of Levi you shall not enroll, and you shall not take a census of them with the other Israelites.

<sup>50</sup> Rather you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the covenant, and over all its equipment, and over all that belongs to it; they are to carry the tabernacle and all its equipment, and they shall tend it, and shall camp around the tabernacle. <sup>51</sup> When the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And any outsider who comes near shall be put to death. <sup>52</sup> The other Israelites shall camp in their respective regimental camps, by companies; <sup>53</sup> but the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the covenant, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the Israelites; and the Levites shall perform the guard duty of the tabernacle of the covenant.

<sup>54</sup> The Israelites did so; they did just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

(Mt 21:18–19)

<sup>12</sup> On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry.

<sup>13</sup> Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see whether perhaps he would find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. <sup>14</sup> He said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

Jn 2:13–22)

<sup>15</sup> Then they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling and those who were buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves; <sup>16</sup> and he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple.

<sup>17</sup> He was teaching and saying, “Is it not written,

‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations’?

But you have made it a den of robbers.”

<sup>18</sup> And when the chief priests and the scribes heard it, they kept looking for a way to kill him; for they were afraid of him, because the whole crowd was spellbound by his teaching. <sup>19</sup> And when evening came, Jesus and his disciples went out of the city.

The Lesson from the Withered Fig Tree

(Mt 21:20–22)

<sup>20</sup> In the morning as they passed by, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. <sup>21</sup> Then Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered.”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup> Truly I tell you, if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and if you do not doubt in your heart, but believe that what you say will come to pass, it will be done for you.

<sup>24</sup> So I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

<sup>25</sup> “Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses.”

The Order of Encampment and Marching

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup> The Israelites shall camp each in their respective regiments, under ensigns by their ancestral houses; they shall camp facing the tent of meeting on every side. <sup>3</sup> Those to camp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the regimental encampment of Judah by companies. The leader of the people of Judah shall be Nahshon son of Amminadab,<sup>4</sup> with a company as enrolled of seventy-four thousand six hundred.<sup>5</sup> Those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar. The leader of the Issacharites shall be Nethanel son of Zuar,<sup>6</sup> with a company as enrolled of fifty-four thousand four hundred.<sup>7</sup> Then the tribe of Zebulun: The leader of the Zebulunites shall be Eliab son of Helon,<sup>8</sup> with a company as enrolled of fifty-seven thousand four hundred.<sup>9</sup> The total enrollment of the camp of Judah, by companies, is one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred. They shall set out first on the march.

<sup>10</sup> On the south side shall be the regimental encampment of Reuben by companies. The leader of the Reubenites shall be Elizur son of Shedeur,<sup>11</sup> with a company as enrolled of forty-six thousand five hundred.<sup>12</sup> And those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon. The leader of the Simeonites shall be Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai,<sup>13</sup> with a company as enrolled of fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

<sup>18</sup> On the west side shall be the regimental encampment of Ephraim by companies. The leader of the people of Ephraim shall be Elishama son of Ammihud,<sup>19</sup> with a company as enrolled of forty thousand five hundred.<sup>20</sup> Next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh. The leader of the people of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel son of Pedahzur,<sup>21</sup> with a company as enrolled of thirty-two thousand two hundred.<sup>22</sup> Then the tribe of Benjamin: The leader of the Benjaminites shall be Abidan son of Gideoni, <sup>23</sup> with a company as enrolled of thirty-five thousand four hundred.

<sup>24</sup> The total enrollment of the camp of Ephraim, by companies, is one hundred eight thousand one hundred. They shall set out third on the march.

<sup>27</sup> Those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher. The leader of the Asherites shall be Pagiel son of Ocran, <sup>28</sup> with a company as enrolled of forty-one thousand five hundred.

<sup>32</sup> This was the enrollment of the Israelites by their ancestral houses; the total enrollment in the camps by their companies was six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty. <sup>33</sup> Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, the Levites were not enrolled among the other Israelites.

<sup>34</sup> The Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses: They camped by regiments, and they set out the same way, everyone by clans, according to ancestral houses.

The Sons of Aaron (Lev 10:1-7)

3 This is the lineage of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. <sup>2</sup> These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar; <sup>3</sup> these are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he ordained to minister as priests. <sup>4</sup> Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered unholy fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the lifetime of their father Aaron.

The Duties of the Levites

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>6</sup> Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, so that they may assist him.

<sup>7</sup> They shall perform duties for him and for the whole congregation in front of the tent of meeting, doing service at the tabernacle; <sup>8</sup> they shall be in charge of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, and attend to the duties for the Israelites as they do service at the tabernacle.

<sup>9</sup> You shall give the Levites to Aaron and his descendants; they are unreservedly given to him from among the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup> But you shall make a register of Aaron and his descendants; it is they who shall attend to the priesthood, and any outsider who comes near shall be put to death.

Jesus' Authority Is Questioned
(Mt 21:23-27; Lk 20:1-8)

<sup>27</sup> Again they came to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to him <sup>28</sup> and said, "By what authority are you doing these things? Who gave you this authority to do them?" <sup>29</sup> Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things." <sup>30</sup> Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin? Answer me." <sup>31</sup> They argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' <sup>32</sup> But shall we say, 'Of human origin'?"—they were afraid of the crowd, for all regarded John as truly a prophet. <sup>33</sup> So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

Psalm 47:8-9 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> God is king over the nations;
God sits on his holy throne.

9 The princes of the peoples gather
as the people of the God
of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth
belong to God;
he is highly exalted.

Proverbs 14:26–27 (NRSV)

<sup>26</sup> In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence,
and one's children will have a refuge.

<sup>27</sup> The fear of the LORD is a
fountain of life,
so that one may avoid
the snares of death.

May 7

Numbers 3:11-51 (NRSV)

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>12</sup> I hereby accept the Levites from among the Israelites as substitutes for all the firstborn that open the womb among the Israelites.
The Levites shall be mine,

<sup>13</sup> for all the firstborn are mine; when I killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated for my own all the firstborn in Israel, both human and animal; they shall be mine. I am the LORD.

A Census of the Levites
(Cp Num 1:47–54)

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying: <sup>15</sup> Enroll the Levites by ancestral houses and by clans. You shall enroll every male from a month old and upward. <sup>16</sup> So Moses enrolled them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. <sup>17</sup> The following were the sons of Levi, by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>18</sup> These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their clans: Libni and Shimei. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Kohath by their clans: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
<sup>20</sup> The sons of Merari by their clans: Mahli and Mushi. These are the clans of the Levites, by
their ancestral houses.
<sup>21</sup> To Gershon belonged the clan of the Libnites and
the clan of the Shimeites;
these were the clans of the

Gershonites. <sup>22</sup> Their enrollment, counting all the males from a month old and upward, was seven thousand five hundred. <sup>23</sup> The clans of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle on the west, <sup>24</sup> with Eliasaph son of Lael as head of the ancestral house of the Gershonites.

<sup>25</sup> The responsibility of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting was to be the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting, <sup>26</sup> the hangings of the court, the screen for the entrance of the court that is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords—all the service pertaining to these.

the south side of the tabernacle, <sup>30</sup> with Elizaphan son of Uzziel as head of the ancestral house of the clans of the Kohathites. <sup>31</sup> Their responsibility was to be the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which the priests minister, and the screen—all the service pertaining to these. <sup>32</sup> Eleazar son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, and to have oversight of those who had charge of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup> To Merari belonged the clan of the Mahlites and the clan of the Mushites: these are the clans of Merari. <sup>34</sup> Their enrollment, counting all the males from a month old and upward, was six thousand two hundred. <sup>35</sup> The head of the ancestral house of the clans of Merari was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup> The responsibility assigned to the sons of Merari was to be the frames of the tabernacle, the bars, the pillars, the bases, and all their accessories—all the service pertaining to these;

<sup>37</sup> also the pillars of the court
all around, with their bases
and pegs and cords.

<sup>38</sup> Those who were to camp
in front of the tabernacle on the east—in front of the tent
of meeting toward the east—
were Moses and Aaron and Aaron's sons, having charge of the rites within the sanctuary,
whatever had to be done for the Israelites; and any outsider
who came near was to be put to death. <sup>39</sup> The total enrollment of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron enrolled at the commandment
of the LORD, by their clans, all the males from a month old and upward, was twenty-two thousand.

The Redemption of the Firstborn

<sup>40</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses: Enroll all the firstborn males of the Israelites, from a month old and upward, and count their names. <sup>41</sup> But you shall accept the Levites for me—I am the LORD—as substitutes for all the firstborn
among the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites as

substitutes for all the firstborn
among the livestock of the Israelites. <sup>42</sup> So Moses enrolled all the firstborn among the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him. <sup>43</sup> The total enrollment, all the firstborn males from a month old and upward, counting the number of names, was twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.

<sup>44</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>45</sup> Accept the Levites as substitutes for all the firstborn among the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for their livestock; and the Levites shall be mine. I am the LORD.

<sup>46</sup> As the price of redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the Israelites, over and above the number of the Levites, <sup>47</sup> you shall accept five shekels apiece, reckoning by the shekel of the sanctuary, a shekel of twenty gerahs.

<sup>48</sup> Give to Aaron and his sons
the money by which the excess number of them is redeemed. <sup>49</sup> So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the Levites;<sup>50</sup> from the firstborn of the Israelites he took the money, one thousand three hundred sixty-five shekels, reckoned by the shekel of the sanctuary;<sup>51</sup> and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

*The Parable of
the Wicked Tenants*
(Mt 21:33–46; Lk 20:9–19)

<sup>1</sup> Then he began to speak to them in parables. “A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a pit for the wine press, and built a watchtower; then he leased it to tenants and went to another country.<sup>2</sup> When the season came, he sent a slave to the tenants to collect from them his share of the produce of the vineyard.<sup>3</sup> But they seized him, and beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.<sup>4</sup> And again he sent another slave to them; this one they beat over the head and insulted.<sup>5</sup> Then he sent another, and that one they killed. And so it was with many others; some they beat, and others they killed.<sup>6</sup> He had still one other, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’<sup>7</sup> But those tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’<sup>8</sup> So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.<sup>9</sup> What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants and give the vineyard to others.<sup>10</sup> Have you not read this scripture:

‘The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone;

<sup>11</sup> this was the Lord’s doing,
and it is amazing in our eyes?’”

<sup>12</sup> When they realized that he had told this parable against them, they wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowd. So they left him and went away.

The Question about Paying Taxes

(Mt 22:15–22; Lk 20:20–26)

Herodians to trap him in what he said. <sup>14</sup> And they came and said to him, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality, but teach the way of God in accordance with truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not? <sup>15</sup> Should we pay them, or should we not?” But knowing their hypocrisy, he said to them, “Why are you putting me to the test? Bring me a denarius and let me see it.” <sup>16</sup> And they brought one. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” <sup>17</sup> Jesus said to them, “Give to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were utterly amazed at him.

The Glory and Strength of Zion

A Song. A Psalm of the Korahites.

<sup>1</sup> Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God. His holy mountain, <sup>2</sup> beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth,

Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King. <sup>3</sup> Within its citadels God has shown himself a sure defense. <sup>4</sup> Then the kings assembled, they came on together. <sup>5</sup> As soon as they saw it, they were astounded; they were in panic, they took to flight; <sup>6</sup> trembling took hold of them there, pains as of a woman in labor, <sup>7</sup> as when an east wind shatters the ships of Tarshish. <sup>8</sup> As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God, which God establishes forever. Selah

Proverbs 14:28–29 (NRSV)

<sup>28</sup> The glory of a king is a multitude of people; without people a prince is ruined. <sup>29</sup> Whoever is slow to anger has great understanding, but one who has a hasty

temper exalts folly.

Numbers 4:1-49 (NRSV)

The Kohathites

spread a blue cloth, and put on it the plates, the dishes for incense, the bowls, and the flagons for the drink offering; the regular bread also shall be on it; <sup>8</sup> then they shall spread over them a crimson cloth, and cover it with a covering of fine leather, and shall put its poles in place. <sup>9</sup> They shall take a blue cloth, and cover the lamp stand for the light, with its lamps, its snuffers, its trays, and all the vessels for oil with which it is supplied; <sup>10</sup> and they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of fine leather, and put it on the carrying frame. <sup>11</sup> Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of fine leather, and shall put its poles in place; <sup>12</sup> and they shall take all the utensils of the service that are used in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth, and cover them with a covering of fine leather, and put them on the carrying frame. <sup>13</sup> They shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it; <sup>14</sup> and they shall put on it all the utensils of the altar, which are used for the service there, the firepans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of fine leather, and shall put its poles in place.

<sup>15</sup> When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, as the camp sets out, after that the Kohathites shall come to carry these, but they must not touch the holy things, or they will die. These are the things of the tent of meeting that the Kohathites are to carry.

<sup>16</sup> Eleazar son of Aaron the priest shall have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, in the sanctuary and in its utensils.

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

<sup>18</sup> You must not let the tribe of the clans of the Kohathites be destroyed from among the Levites. <sup>19</sup> This is how you must deal with them in order that they may live and not die

when they come near to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each to a particular task or burden. <sup>20</sup> But the Kohathites must not go in to look on the holy things even for a moment; otherwise they will die.

The Gershonites and Merarites

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>22</sup> Take a census of the Gershonites also, by their ancestral houses and by their clans; <sup>23</sup> from thirty years old up to fifty years old you shall enroll them, all who qualify to do work in the tent of meeting.

<sup>24</sup> This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites, in serving and bearing burdens:

the equipment for their service; and they shall do all that needs to be done with regard to them.<sup>27</sup> All the service of the Gershonites shall be at the command of Aaron and his sons, in all that they are to carry, and in all that they have to do; and you shall assign to their charge all that they are to carry.<sup>28</sup> This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites relating to the tent of meeting, and their responsibilities are to be under the oversight of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.<sup>29</sup> As for the Merarites, you shall enroll them by their clans and their ancestral houses;<sup>30</sup> from thirty years old up to fifty years old you shall enroll them, everyone who qualifies to do the work of the tent of meeting.<sup>31</sup> This is what they are charged to carry, as the whole of their service in the tent of meeting: the frames of the tabernacle, with its bars, pillars, and bases,<sup>32</sup> and the pillars of the court all around with their bases, pegs, and cords, with all their equipment and all their related service; and you shall assign by name

the objects that they are required to carry.<sup>33</sup> This is the service of the clans of the Merarites, the whole of their service relating to the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Census of the Levites

<sup>34</sup> So Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation enrolled the Kohathites, by their clans and their ancestral houses,<sup>35</sup> from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting;<sup>36</sup> and their enrollment by clans was two thousand seven hundred fifty.<sup>37</sup> This was the enrollment of the clans of the Kohathites, all who served at the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

enrollment by their clans and their ancestral houses was two thousand six hundred thirty.

<sup>41</sup> This was the enrollment of the clans of the Gershonites, all who served at the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD.

<sup>42</sup> The enrollment of the clans of the Merarites, by their clans and their ancestral houses,

<sup>43</sup> from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting— <sup>44</sup> their enrollment by their clans was three thousand two hundred.

<sup>45</sup> This is the enrollment of the clans of the Merarites, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

<sup>46</sup> All those who were enrolled of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel enrolled, by their clans and their ancestral houses,

<sup>47</sup> from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens relating to the tent of meeting, <sup>48</sup> their enrollment was eight thousand five hundred eighty.

<sup>49</sup> According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses they were appointed to their several tasks of serving or carrying; thus they were enrolled by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

*The Question about
the Resurrection*

(Mt 22:23–33; Lk 20:27–40)

<sup>18</sup> Some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, saying, <sup>19</sup> “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no child, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. <sup>20</sup> There were seven brothers; the first married and, when he died, left no children; <sup>21</sup> and the second married the widow and died, leaving no children; and the third likewise; <sup>22</sup> none of the seven left children. Last of all the woman herself died. <sup>23</sup> In the resurrection whose wife will she be? For the seven had married her.”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to them, “Is not this the reason you are wrong, that you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God? <sup>25</sup> For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. <sup>26</sup> And as for the dead being raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the story about the bush, how God said to him, ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? <sup>27</sup> He is God not of the dead, but of the living; you are quite wrong.”

The First Commandment
(Mt 22:34–40; Lk 10:25–28)

<sup>28</sup> One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, “Which commandment is the first of all?” <sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, “The first is, ‘Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; <sup>30</sup> you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ <sup>31</sup> The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.” <sup>32</sup> Then the scribe said to him, “You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that ‘he is one, and besides him there is no other’; <sup>33</sup> and ‘to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,’ and ‘to love one’s neighbor as oneself,’—this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.” <sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” After that no one dared to ask him any question.

Psalm 48:9-14 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> We ponder your steadfast love, O God,
in the midst of your temple.
<sup>10</sup> Your name, O God, like your praise,
reaches to the ends of the earth.
Your right hand is filled with victory.
<sup>11</sup> Let Mount Zion be glad,

let the towns of Judah
rejoice
because of your judgments.

<sup>12</sup> Walk about Zion, go all around it,
count its towers,
<sup>13</sup> consider well its ramparts;
go through its citadels,
that you may tell the next
generation
<sup>14</sup> that this is God,
our God forever and ever.
He will be our guide
forever.

Proverbs 14:30–31 (NRSV)

<sup>30</sup> A tranquil mind gives life
to the flesh,
but passion makes the
bones rot.
<sup>31</sup> Those who oppress the poor insult their Maker,
but those who are kind
to the needy honor
him.

Numbers 5:1-31 (NRSV)

Unclean Persons

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying: <sup>2</sup> Command the Israelites to put out of the camp everyone who is leprous, or has a discharge,
and everyone who is unclean
through contact with a corpse;
<sup>3</sup> you shall put out both male and female, putting them outside the camp; they must not defile their camp, where I dwell among them. <sup>4</sup> The Israelites did so, putting them outside the camp; as the LORD had spoken to Moses, so the Israelites did.

Confession and Restitution

<sup>5</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying: <sup>6</sup> Speak to the Israelites: When a man or a woman wrongs another,
breaking faith with the LORD,
that person incurs guilt <sup>7</sup> and shall confess the sin that has been committed. The person shall make full restitution for
the wrong, adding one-fifth to it, and giving it to the one who was wronged. <sup>8</sup> If the injured party has no next of kin to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for wrong shall go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement with which atonement is made for the guilty party. <sup>9</sup> Among all the sacred donations of the Israelites, every gift that they bring to the priest shall be his. <sup>10</sup> The sacred donations of all are their own; whatever anyone gives to the priest shall be his.

Concerning an Unfaithful Wife

<sup>11</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>12</sup> Speak to the Israelites and say to them: If any man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him, <sup>13</sup> if a man has had intercourse with her but it is hidden from her husband, so that she is undetected though she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her since she was not caught in the act; <sup>14</sup> if a spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife who has defiled herself; or if a spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife, though she has not defiled herself; <sup>15</sup> then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. And he shall bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an ephah of barley flour. He shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

authority, be immune to this water of bitterness that brings the curse.<sup>20</sup> But if you have gone astray while under your husband's authority, if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has had intercourse with you,"<sup>21</sup> —let the priest make the woman take the oath of the curse and say to the woman—"the LORD make you an execration and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your uterus drop, your womb discharge;<sup>22</sup> now may this water that brings the curse enter your bowels and make your womb discharge, your uterus drop!" And the woman shall say, "Amen. Amen."

before the LORD and bring it to the altar;<sup>26</sup> and the priest shall take a handful of the grain offering, as its memorial portion, and turn it into smoke on the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water.<sup>27</sup> When he has made her drink the water, then, if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain, and her womb shall discharge, her uterus drop, and the woman shall become an execration among her people.<sup>28</sup> But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she shall be immune and be able to conceive children.

<sup>29</sup> This is the law in cases of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband's authority, goes astray and defiles herself,<sup>30</sup> or when a spirit of jealousy comes on a man and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall apply this entire law to her.<sup>31</sup> The man shall be free from iniquity, but the woman shall bear her iniquity.

The Question about David's Son

(Mt 22:41-46; Lk 20:41-44)

<sup>35</sup> While Jesus was teaching in the temple, he said, "How can the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David?"

<sup>36</sup> David himself, by the Holy Spirit, declared, "The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet." "

<sup>37</sup> David himself calls him Lord; so how can he be his son?" And the large crowd was listening to him with delight.

The Folly of Trust in Riches

To the leader. Of the Korahites. A

Psalm.

<sup>2</sup> both low and high, rich and poor together.
<sup>3</sup> My mouth shall speak wisdom; the meditation of my heart shall be understanding.

<sup>4</sup> I will incline my ear to a proverb;
I will solve my riddle to the music of the harp.
<sup>5</sup> Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of my persecutors surrounds me, <sup>6</sup> those who trust in their wealth and boast of the abundance of their riches?
<sup>7</sup> Truly, no ransom avails for one's life, there is no price one can give to God for it.
<sup>8</sup> For the ransom of life is costly, and can never suffice, <sup>9</sup> that one should live on forever and never see the grave.

<sup>33</sup> Wisdom is at home in the mind of one who has understanding, but it is not known in the heart of fools.

Numbers 6:1–7:9 (NRSV)

The Nazirites

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When either men or women make a special vow, the vow of a nazirite, to separate themselves to the LORD, <sup>3</sup> they shall separate themselves from wine and strong drink; they shall drink no wine vinegar or other vinegar, and shall not drink any grape juice or eat grapes, fresh or dried. <sup>4</sup> All their days as nazirites they shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, not even the seeds or the skins.

<sup>5</sup> All the days of their nazirite vow no razor shall come upon the head; until the time is completed for which they separate themselves to the LORD, they shall be holy;

they shall let the locks of the head grow long.

<sup>6</sup> All the days that they separate themselves to the LORD they shall not go near a corpse. <sup>7</sup> Even if their father or mother, brother or sister, should die, they may not defile themselves; because their consecration to God is upon the head. <sup>8</sup> All their days as nazirites they are holy to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> If someone dies very suddenly nearby, defiling the consecrated head, then they shall shave the head on the day of their cleansing; on the seventh day they shall shave it. <sup>10</sup> On the eighth day they shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting, <sup>11</sup> and the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for them, because they incurred guilt by reason of the corpse. They shall sanctify the head that same day, <sup>12</sup> and separate themselves to the LORD for their days as nazirites, and bring a male lamb a year old

as a guilt offering. The former time shall be void, because the consecrated head was defiled.

<sup>13</sup> This is the law for the nazirites when the time of their consecration has been completed: they shall be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting, <sup>14</sup> and they shall offer their gift to the LORD, one male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb a year old without blemish as a sin offering, one ram without blemish as an offering of well-being, <sup>15</sup> and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of choice flour mixed with oil and unleavened wafers spread with oil, with their grain offering and their drink offerings. <sup>16</sup> The priest shall present them before the LORD and offer their sin offering and burnt offering, <sup>17</sup> and shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest also shall make the accompanying grain offering and drink offering.

meeting, and shall take the hair from the consecrated head and put it on the fire under the sacrifice of well-being. <sup>19</sup> The priest shall take the shoulder of the ram, when it is boiled, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them in the palms of the nazirites, after they have shaved the consecrated head. <sup>20</sup> Then the priest shall elevate them as an elevation offering before the LORD; they are a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast that is elevated and the thigh that is offered. After that the nazirites may drink wine.

<sup>21</sup> This is the law for the nazirites who take a vow. Their offering to the LORD must be in accordance with the nazirite vow, apart from what else they can afford. In accordance with whatever vow they take, so they shall do, following the law for their consecration.

The Priestly Benediction

<sup>22</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>23</sup> Speak to

Aaron and his sons, saying,
Thus you shall bless the Israelites: You shall say to
them,

<sup>24</sup> The LORD bless you and keep you;
<sup>25</sup> the LORD make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you;
<sup>26</sup> the LORD lift up his countenance upon you,
and give you peace.
<sup>27</sup> So they shall put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.

Offerings of the Leaders

7 On the day when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed and consecrated it with all its furnishings, and had anointed and consecrated the altar with all its utensils, <sup>2</sup> the leaders of Israel, heads of their ancestral houses, the leaders of the tribes, who were over those who were enrolled, made offerings. <sup>3</sup> They brought their offerings before the LORD, six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; they presented them before the tabernacle.

<sup>5</sup> Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the tent of meeting, and give them to the Levites, to each according to his service. <sup>6</sup> So Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.
<sup>7</sup> Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the Gershonites, according to their service; <sup>8</sup> and four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the Merarites, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup> But to the Kohathites he gave none, because they were charged with the care of the holy things that had to be carried on the shoulders.

Jesus Denounces the Scribes

(Mt 23:1-7; Lk 20:45-47)

<sup>38</sup> As he taught, he said,
“Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! <sup>40</sup> They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

The Widow's Offering

(Lk 21:1-4)

<sup>41</sup> He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. <sup>42</sup> A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. <sup>43</sup> Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. <sup>44</sup> For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

Numbers 7:10-89 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup>The leaders also presented offerings for the dedication of the altar at the time when it was anointed;
the leaders presented their offering before the altar.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD said to Moses:
They shall present their offerings, one leader each day,
for the dedication of the altar.
<sup>12</sup>The one who presented his offering the first day was Nahshon son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah; <sup>13</sup>his offering was one silver plate
weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin
weighing seventy shekels,
according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; <sup>14</sup>one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>15</sup>one young bull,
one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; <sup>16</sup>one male goat for a sin offering; <sup>17</sup>and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

incense; <sup>27</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; <sup>28</sup> one male goat for a sin offering; <sup>29</sup> and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; <sup>38</sup> one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>39</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; <sup>40</sup> one male goat for a sin offering; <sup>41</sup> and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>47</sup> and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering; <sup>56</sup> one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>57</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; <sup>58</sup> one male goat for a sin offering; <sup>59</sup> and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

year old. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideon.

a grain offering; <sup>74</sup> one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>75</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; <sup>76</sup> one male goat for a sin offering; <sup>77</sup> and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ochrans.

time when it was anointed, from the leaders of Israel: twelve silver plates, twelve silver basins, twelve golden dishes, <sup>85</sup> each silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels and each basin seventy, all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary, <sup>86</sup> the twelve golden dishes, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece according to the shekel of the sanctuary, all the gold of the dishes being one hundred twenty shekels; <sup>87</sup> all the livestock for the burnt offering twelve bulls, twelve rams, twelve male lambs a year old, with their grain offering; and twelve male goats for a sin offering; <sup>88</sup> and all the livestock for the sacrifice of well-being twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication offering for the altar, after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup> When Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, he would hear the voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the covenant from between the two cherubim; thus it spoke to him.

The Destruction of the Temple Foretold
(Mt 24:1-8; Lk 21:5-11)

<sup>3</sup> When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, <sup>4</sup> “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?”

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. <sup>6</sup> Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. <sup>7</sup> When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still

The Seven Lamps

(Ex 25:31–40)

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying: <sup>2</sup> Speak to Aaron and say to him: When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand. <sup>3</sup> Aaron did so; he set up its lamps to give light in front of the lampstand, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>4</sup> Now this was how the lampstand was made, out of hammered work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was hammered work; according to the pattern that the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Consecration and Service of the Levites

<sup>5</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>6</sup> Take the Levites from among the Israelites and cleanse them. <sup>7</sup> Thus you shall do to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of purification on them, have them shave their whole body with a razor and wash their clothes, and so cleanse themselves. <sup>8</sup> Then let them take a young bull and its grain offering of choice flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull for a sin offering. <sup>9</sup> You shall bring the Levites before the tent of meeting, and assemble the whole congregation of the Israelites. <sup>10</sup> When you bring the Levites before the LORD, the Israelites shall lay their hands on the Levites, <sup>11</sup> and Aaron shall present the Levites

before the LORD as an elevation offering from the Israelites, that they may do the service of the LORD. <sup>12</sup> The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and he shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites. <sup>13</sup> Then you shall have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons, and you shall present them as an elevation offering to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the other Israelites, and the Levites shall be mine.

<sup>15</sup> Thereafter the Levites may go in to do service at the tent of meeting, once you have cleansed them and presented them as an elevation offering.

<sup>16</sup> For they are unreservedly given to me from among the Israelites; I have taken them for myself, in place of all that open the womb, the firstborn of all the Israelites. <sup>17</sup> For all the firstborn among the Israelites are mine, both human and animal. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I consecrated them for myself, <sup>18</sup> but I have taken the Levites

in place of all the firstborn
among the Israelites.

<sup>19</sup> Moreover, I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the Israelites, to do the service for the Israelites at the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the Israelites,
in order that there may be no
plague among the Israelites for coming too close to the sanctuary.

<sup>20</sup> Moses and Aaron and the whole congregation of the Israelites did with the Levites accordingly; the Israelites did with the Levites just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning them. <sup>21</sup> The Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes; then Aaron presented them as an elevation offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them. <sup>22</sup> Thereafter
the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting
in attendance on Aaron and his sons. As the LORD had commanded Moses

concerning the Levites, so they did with them.

<sup>23</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>24</sup> This applies to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall begin to do duty in the service of the tent of meeting; <sup>25</sup> and from the age of fifty years they shall retire from the duty of the service and serve no more. <sup>26</sup> They may assist their brothers in the tent of meeting in carrying out their duties, but they shall perform
no service. Thus you shall do with the Levites in assigning their duties.

The Passover at Sinai
(Ex 12:1–20)

9 The LORD spoke to Moses in
the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year
after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying: <sup>2</sup> Let the Israelites keep the passover at its appointed time. <sup>3</sup> On the fourteenth day of this month,
at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and all its regulations you shall keep it.

The Desolating Sacrilege

(Mt 24:15–28; Lk 21:20–24)

<sup>14</sup> “But when you see the desolating sacrilege set up where it ought not to be (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains; <sup>15</sup> the one on the housetop must not go down or enter the house to take anything away; <sup>16</sup> the one in the field must not turn back to get a coat. <sup>17</sup> Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days! <sup>18</sup> Pray that it may not be in winter. <sup>19</sup> For in those days there will be suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, no, and never will be.

<sup>20</sup> And if the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he has cut short those days. <sup>21</sup> And if anyone says to you at that time, ‘Look! Here is the Messiah!’ or ‘Look! There he is!’—do not believe it.

<sup>22</sup> False messiahs and false prophets will appear and produce signs and omens, to lead astray, if possible, the elect. <sup>23</sup> But be alert; I have already told you everything.

and the moon will not give its light,
<sup>25</sup> and the stars will be falling
from heaven,
and the powers in the
heavens will be shaken.
<sup>26</sup> Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’ with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup> Then

I will show the salvation
of God."

May 13

Numbers 9:4-23 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> So Moses told the Israelites that they should keep the passover. <sup>5</sup> They kept the passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai. Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the Israelites did. <sup>6</sup> Now there were certain people who were unclean through touching a corpse, so that they could not keep the passover on that day. They came before Moses and Aaron on that day, <sup>7</sup> and said to him, “Although we are unclean through touching a corpse, why must we be kept from presenting the LORD’s offering at its appointed time among the Israelites?” <sup>8</sup> Moses spoke to them, “Wait, so that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you.”

<sup>9</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>10</sup> Speak to the Israelites, saying: Anyone of you or your descendants who is unclean through touching a corpse, or is away on a journey, shall still keep the passover to the LORD. <sup>11</sup> In the second month on the fourteenth day, at twilight, they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>12</sup> They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break a bone of it; according to all the statute for the passover they shall keep it. <sup>13</sup> But anyone who is clean and is not on a journey, and yet refrains from keeping the passover, shall be cut off from the people for not presenting the LORD’s offering at its appointed time; such a one shall bear the consequences for the sin. <sup>14</sup> Any alien residing among you who wishes to keep the passover to the LORD shall do so according to the statute of the passover and according to its regulation; you shall have one statute for both the resident alien and the native.

The Cloud and the Fire

(Ex 13:21–22; 40:34–38)

<sup>15</sup> On the day the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the covenant; and from evening until morning it was over the tabernacle, having the appearance of fire. <sup>16</sup> It was always so: the cloud covered it by day and the appearance of fire by night. <sup>17</sup> Whenever the cloud lifted from over the tent, then the Israelites would set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the Israelites would camp. <sup>18</sup> At the command of the LORD the Israelites would set out, and at the command of the LORD they would camp. As long as the cloud rested over the tabernacle, they would remain in camp. <sup>19</sup> Even when the cloud continued over the tabernacle many days, the Israelites would keep the charge of the LORD, and would not set out. <sup>20</sup> Sometimes the cloud would remain a few days over the tabernacle, and according to the command of the LORD they would remain in camp; then according to the command of the LORD they would set out. <sup>21</sup> Sometimes the cloud would remain from evening until morning; and when the cloud lifted in the morning, they would set out, or if it continued for a day and a night, when the cloud lifted they would set out. <sup>22</sup> Whether it was two days, or a month, or a longer time, that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, resting upon it, the Israelites would remain in camp and would not set out; but when it lifted they would set out. <sup>23</sup> At the command of the LORD they would camp, and at the command of the LORD they would set out. They kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by Moses.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

(Mt 24:32–35; Lk 21:29–33)

<sup>28</sup> “From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup> So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

<sup>30</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. <sup>31</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

The Necessity for Watchfulness

(Mt 24:36–44; Lk 21:34–36)

<sup>32</sup> “But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. <sup>33</sup> Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. <sup>34</sup> It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. <sup>35</sup> Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, <sup>36</sup> or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. <sup>37</sup> And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.”

Prayer for Cleansing and Pardon

To the leader. A Psalm of David, when the prophet Nathan came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

- 1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.
- 2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
- 3 For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.
- 4 Against you, you alone, have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are justified in your sentence and blameless when you pass judgment.
- 5 Indeed, I was born guilty, a sinner when my mother conceived me.
- 6 You desire truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart.

<sup>7</sup> Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
wash me, and I shall be
whiter than snow.
<sup>8</sup> Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones that you
have crushed rejoice.
<sup>9</sup> Hide your face from my sins,
and blot out all my iniquities.

Proverbs 15:5–7 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> A fool despises a parent's instruction,
but the one who heeds
admonition is prudent.
<sup>6</sup> In the house of the righteous there is much treasure,
but trouble befalls the
income of the wicked.
<sup>7</sup> The lips of the wise spread
knowledge;
not so the minds of fools.

The Silver Trumpets

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses,
saying: <sup>2</sup> Make two silver trumpets; you shall make them of hammered work; and you shall use them for summoning the congregation,
and for breaking camp. <sup>3</sup> When both are blown, the whole congregation shall assemble before you at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>4</sup> But if only one is blown, then the leaders, the heads of the tribes of Israel, shall assemble before you. <sup>5</sup> When you blow
an alarm, the camps on the east side shall set out; <sup>6</sup> when you blow a second alarm, the camps on the south side shall set out. An alarm is to be blown whenever they are to set out. <sup>7</sup> But when the assembly is to be gathered,
you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. <sup>8</sup> The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; this shall be a perpetual institution for you throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup> When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you,
you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, so that you may be remembered before the LORD your God and be saved from your enemies. <sup>10</sup> Also on your days of rejoicing, at your appointed festivals, and at the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over your sacrifices of well-being; they shall serve as a reminder on your behalf before the LORD your God: I am the LORD your God.

Departure from Sinai

<sup>11</sup> In the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud lifted from over the tabernacle of the covenant. <sup>12</sup> Then the Israelites set out by stages from the wilderness of Sinai, and the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran. <sup>13</sup> They set out for the first time at the command of the LORD by Moses. <sup>14</sup> The standard of the camp of Judah set out first, company by company, and over the whole company was Nahshon son of Amminadab. <sup>15</sup> Over the company of the tribe of Issachar was Nethanel son of Zuar; <sup>16</sup> and over the company of the tribe of Zebulun was Eliab son of Helon.

<sup>17</sup> Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and the Merarites, who carried the tabernacle, set out. <sup>18</sup> Next the standard of the camp of Reuben set out, company by company; and over the whole company was Elizur son of Shedeur. <sup>19</sup> Over the company of the tribe of Simeon was Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, <sup>20</sup> and over the company of the tribe of Gad was Eliasaph son of Deuel.

<sup>21</sup> Then the Kohathites, who carried the holy things, set out; and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival. <sup>22</sup> Next the standard of the Ephraimite camp set out, company by company, and over the whole company was Elishama son of Ammihud. <sup>23</sup> Over the company of the tribe of Manasseh was Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, <sup>24</sup> and over the company of the tribe of Benjamin was Abidan son of Gideoni.

<sup>25</sup> Then the standard of the camp of Dan, acting as the rear guard of all the camps, set out, company by company, and over the whole company was Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.<sup>26</sup> Over the company of the tribe of Asher was Pagiël son of Ocran,<sup>27</sup> and over the company of the tribe of Naphtali was Ahira son of Enan.<sup>28</sup> This was the order of march of the Israelites, company by company, when they set out.

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us, and we will treat you well; for the LORD has promised good to Israel."

<sup>30</sup> But he said to him, "I will not go, but I will go back to my own land and to my kindred."

<sup>31</sup> He said, "Do not leave us, for you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will serve as eyes for us.

<sup>32</sup> Moreover, if you go with us, whatever good the LORD does for us, the same we will do for you."

<sup>33</sup> So they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey with the ark of the covenant of the LORD going before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them,<sup>34</sup> the cloud of the LORD being over them by day when they set out from the camp.

<sup>36</sup> And whenever it came to rest, he would say, "Return, O LORD of the ten thousand thousands of Israel."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

(Mt 26:1-5; Lk 22:1-2; Jn 11:45-53)

<sup>1</sup> It was two days before the Passover and the festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him;<sup>2</sup> for they said, "Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

(Mt 26:6-13; Jn 12:1-8)

woman came with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment of nard, and she broke open the jar and poured the ointment on his head.

<sup>4</sup> But some were there who said to one another in anger, “Why was the ointment wasted in this way?” <sup>5</sup> For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor.” And they scolded her. <sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, “Let her alone; why do you trouble her? She has performed a good service for me. <sup>7</sup> For you always have the poor with you, and you can show kindness to them whenever you wish; but you will not always have me. <sup>8</sup> She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for its burial. <sup>9</sup> Truly I tell you, wherever the good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus
(Mt 26:14–16; Lk 22:3–6)

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them. <sup>11</sup> When they heard it, they were greatly pleased, and promised to give him money. So he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

Psalm 51:10-19 (NRSV)

- <sup>10</sup> Create in me a clean heart,
O God,
and put a new and right
spirit within me.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not cast me away from
your presence,
and do not take your
holy spirit from me.
- <sup>12</sup> Restore to me the joy of
your salvation,
and sustain in me a willing spirit.
- <sup>13</sup> Then I will teach transgressors your
ways,
and sinners will return to
you.
- <sup>14</sup> Deliver me from bloodshed, O God,
O God of my salvation,
and my tongue will sing
aloud of your
deliverance.
- <sup>15</sup> O Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will declare your praise.

16 For you have no delight in sacrifice;
if I were to give a burnt offering, you would not be pleased.

17 The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

18 Do good to Zion in your good pleasure; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem,

19 then you will delight in right sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

Proverbs 15:8–10 (NRSV)

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, but he loves the one who pursues righteousness.

10 There is severe discipline for one who forsakes the way,

but one who hates a rebuke will die.

Complaining in the Desert

<sup>1</sup> Now when the people complained in the hearing of the LORD about their misfortunes, the LORD heard it and his anger was kindled. Then the fire of the LORD burned against them, and consumed some outlying parts of the camp. <sup>2</sup> But the people cried out to Moses; and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire abated. <sup>3</sup> So that place was called Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned against them.

<sup>4</sup> The rabble among them had a strong craving; and the Israelites also wept again, and said, "If only we had meat to eat!" <sup>5</sup> We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;<sup>6</sup> but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at.”

<sup>7</sup> Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its color was like the color of gum resin.<sup>8</sup> The people went around and gathered it, ground it in mills or beat it in mortars, then boiled it in pots and made cakes of it; and the taste of it was like the taste of cakes baked with oil.<sup>9</sup> When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna would fall with it.

<sup>10</sup> Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, all at the entrances of their tents. Then the LORD became very angry, and Moses was displeased.<sup>11</sup> So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why have I not found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me?<sup>12</sup> Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a sucking child,’ to the land that you promised on oath to their ancestors?

<sup>13</sup> Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they come weeping to me and say, ‘Give us meat to eat!’<sup>14</sup> I am not able to carry all this people alone, for they are too heavy for me.<sup>15</sup> If this is the way you are going to treat me, put me to death at once—if I have found favor in your sight—and do not let me see my misery.”

The Seventy Elders

<sup>16</sup> So the LORD said to Moses, “Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their place there with you.<sup>17</sup> I will come down and talk with you there; and I will take some of the spirit that is on you and put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people along with you so that you will not bear it all by yourself.<sup>18</sup> And say to the people: Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wailed in the hearing of the LORD, saying, 'If only we had meat to eat! Surely it was better for us in Egypt.' Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat. <sup>19</sup> You shall eat not only one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days, <sup>20</sup> but for a whole month—until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you—because you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and have wailed before him, saying, 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?' " <sup>21</sup> But Moses said, "The people I am with number six hundred thousand on foot; and you say, 'I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month!' <sup>22</sup> Are there enough flocks and herds to slaughter for them? Are there enough fish in the sea to catch for them?" <sup>23</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Is the LORD's power limited? Now you shall see whether my word will come true for you or not."

The Passover with the Disciples

Jn 13:21–30)

<sup>12</sup> On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?" <sup>13</sup> So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him, <sup>14</sup> and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks, Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' <sup>15</sup> He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there." <sup>16</sup> So the disciples set out and went to the city, and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

<sup>17</sup> When it was evening, he came with the twelve. <sup>18</sup> And when they had taken their places and were eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me." <sup>19</sup> They began to be distressed and to say to him one after another, "Surely, not I?" <sup>20</sup> He said to them, “It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the bowl with me.”<sup>21</sup> For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that one not to have been born.”

Judgment on the Deceitful

To the leader. A Maskil of David, when Doeg the Edomite came to Saul and said to him, “David has come to the house of Ahimelech.”

- <sup>1</sup> Why do you boast, O mighty one,
of mischief done against the godly?
All day long<sup>2</sup> you are plotting destruction.
Your tongue is like a sharp razor,
you worker of treachery.
- <sup>3</sup> You love evil more than good,
and lying more than speaking the truth.
Selah
- <sup>4</sup> You love all words that devour,
O deceitful tongue.
- <sup>5</sup> But God will break you down forever;

he will snatch and tear you from your tent;
he will uproot you from the land of the living.

Numbers 11:24-12:16 (NRSV)

- <sup>24</sup> So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. <sup>25</sup> Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again.

<sup>26</sup> Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup> And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp." <sup>28</sup> And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, "My lord Moses, stop them!" <sup>29</sup> But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit on them!" <sup>30</sup> And Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

The Quails

<sup>31</sup> Then a wind went out from the LORD, and it brought quails from the sea and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, about two cubits deep on the ground. <sup>32</sup> So the people worked all that day and night and all the next day, gathering the quails; the least anyone gathered was ten homers; and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp. <sup>33</sup> But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague. <sup>34</sup> So that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had the craving. <sup>35</sup> From Kibroth-hattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth.

Aaron and Miriam Jealous of Moses

12 While they were at Hazeroth, Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had indeed married a Cushite woman); <sup>2</sup> and they said, “Has the LORD spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?” And the LORD heard it. <sup>3</sup> Now the man Moses was very humble, more so than anyone else on the face of the earth. <sup>4</sup> Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting.” So the three of them came out. <sup>5</sup> Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the entrance of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward. <sup>6</sup> And he said, “Hear my words:

When there are prophets
among you,
I the LORD make myself
known to them in visions;
I speak to them in dreams.

<sup>7</sup> Not so with my servant
Moses;
he is entrusted with all
my house.

<sup>8</sup> With him I speak face to face—clearly, not in riddles;
and he beholds the form
of the LORD.

Why then were you not afraid
to speak against my servant Moses?” <sup>9</sup> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and he departed.

<sup>10</sup> When the cloud went away from over the tent,
Miriam had become leprous,
as white as snow. And Aaron turned towards Miriam and saw that she was leprous.

<sup>11</sup> Then Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, do not punish us
for a sin that we have so foolishly committed. <sup>12</sup> Do not let her be like one stillborn,
whose flesh is half consumed
when it comes out of its mother’s womb.” <sup>13</sup> And Moses cried to the LORD, “O God, please heal her.” <sup>14</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face,
would she not bear her shame
for seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp for seven days, and after that she may be brought in again.” <sup>15</sup> So Miriam was shut out of the camp for seven days; and the people did not set out on the march until Miriam had been brought in again. <sup>16</sup> After that the people set out from Hazeroth, and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Lord's Supper*
(Mt 26:26-29; Lk 22:14-23;

<sup>22</sup> While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body."

<sup>23</sup> Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. <sup>24</sup> He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many." <sup>25</sup> Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Peter's Denial Foretold
Jn 13:36-38)

<sup>26</sup> When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. <sup>27</sup> And Jesus said to them, "You will all become deserters; for it is written,

'I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.'

<sup>28</sup> But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee."

<sup>29</sup> Peter said to him, "Even though all become deserters, I will not." <sup>30</sup> Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, this day, this very night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." <sup>31</sup> But he said vehemently, "Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you." And all of them said the same.

Psalm 52:8-9 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> But I am like a green olive tree

Spies Sent into Canaan
(Deut 1:19–33)

to the command of the LORD, all of them leading men among the Israelites. <sup>4</sup> These were their names: From the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur; <sup>5</sup> from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori; <sup>6</sup> from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh; <sup>7</sup> from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph; <sup>8</sup> from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun; <sup>9</sup> from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu; <sup>10</sup> from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi; <sup>11</sup> from the tribe of Joseph (that is, from the tribe of Manasseh), Gaddi son of Susi; <sup>12</sup> from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli; <sup>13</sup> from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael; <sup>14</sup> from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi; <sup>15</sup> from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Machi. <sup>16</sup> These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses changed the name of Hoshea son of Nun to Joshua.

<sup>17</sup> Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up there into the Negeb, and go up into the hill country, <sup>18</sup> and see what the land is like, and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many, <sup>19</sup> and whether the land they live in is good or bad, and whether the towns that they live in are unwallled or fortified, <sup>20</sup> and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there are trees in it or not. Be bold, and bring some of the fruit of the land." Now it was the season of the first ripe grapes.

<sup>21</sup> So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near Lebo-hamath. <sup>22</sup> They went up into the Negeb, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the Anakites, were there. (Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) <sup>23</sup> And they came to the Wadi Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with a single cluster of grapes, and they carried it on a pole between two of them. They also brought some pomegranates and figs. <sup>24</sup> That place was called the Wadi Eshcol, because of the cluster that the Israelites cut down from there.

The Report of the Spies

<sup>25</sup> At the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land. <sup>26</sup> And they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the Israelites in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

<sup>27</sup> And they told him, "We came to the land to which you sent us; it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

<sup>28</sup> Yet the people who live in the land are strong, and the towns are fortified and very large; and besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there.

<sup>29</sup> The Amalekites live in the land of the Negeb; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the sea, and along the Jordan."

<sup>30</sup> But Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once and occupy it, for we are well able to overcome it." <sup>31</sup> Then the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against this people, for they are stronger than we."

<sup>32</sup> So they brought to the Israelites an unfavorable report of the land that they had spied out, saying, "The land that we have gone through as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are of great size. <sup>33</sup> There we saw the Nephilim (the Anakites come from the Nephilim); and to ourselves we seemed like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them."

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane
(Mt 26:36-46; Lk 22:39-46)

<sup>32</sup> They went to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray." <sup>33</sup> He took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be distressed and agitated. <sup>34</sup> And he said to them, "I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and keep awake." <sup>35</sup> And going a little farther, he threw himself on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. <sup>36</sup> He said, "Abba, Father, for you all things are possible; remove this cup from me; yet, not what I want, but what you want." <sup>37</sup> He came and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep awake one hour?" <sup>38</sup> Keep awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." <sup>39</sup> And again he went away and prayed, saying the same words. <sup>40</sup> And once more he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know what to say to him. <sup>41</sup> He came a third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Enough! The hour has come; the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup> Get up, let us be going. See, my betrayer is at hand."

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

Jn 18:1-11)

<sup>43</sup> Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived; and with him there was a crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. <sup>44</sup> Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard."

<sup>45</sup> So when he came, he went up to him at once and said, "Rabbi!" and kissed him.

<sup>46</sup> Then they laid hands on him and arrested him. <sup>47</sup> But one of those who stood near drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest, cutting off his ear. <sup>48</sup> Then Jesus said to them,

"Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as though I were a bandit?

<sup>49</sup> Day after day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. But let the scriptures be fulfilled."

<sup>50</sup> All of them deserted him and fled.

<sup>51</sup> A certain young man was following him, wearing nothing but a linen cloth. They caught hold of him, <sup>52</sup> but he left the linen cloth and ran off naked.

To the leader: according to Mahalath. A Maskil of David.

<sup>1</sup> Fools say in their hearts,
"There is no God."

They are corrupt, they

Numbers 14:1-25 (NRSV)

The People Rebel

<sup>1</sup> Then all the congregation raised a loud cry, and the people wept that night. <sup>2</sup> And all the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron; the whole congregation said to them, “Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness! <sup>3</sup> Why is the LORD bringing us into this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become booty; would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?”

<sup>4</sup> So they said to one another, “Let us choose a captain, and go back to Egypt.”

<sup>6</sup> And Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes <sup>7</sup> and said to all the congregation of the Israelites, “The land that we went through as spies is an exceedingly good land. <sup>8</sup> If the LORD is pleased with us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup> Only, do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they are no more than bread for us; their protection is removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them.” <sup>10</sup> But the whole congregation threatened to stone them.

Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting to all the Israelites.

<sup>11</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people despise me? And how long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them? <sup>12</sup> I will strike them with pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.”

*Moses Intercedes
for the People*

<sup>13</sup> But Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for in your might you brought up this people from among them, <sup>14</sup> and they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you, O LORD, are in the midst of this people; for you, O LORD, are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them and you go in front of them, in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup> Now if you kill this people all at one time, then the nations who have heard about you will say, <sup>16</sup> ‘It is because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land he swore to give them that he has slaughtered them in the wilderness.’ <sup>17</sup> And now, therefore, let the power of the LORD be great in the way that you promised when you spoke, saying,

<sup>18</sup> ‘The LORD is slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children to the third and the fourth generation.’

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said, “I do forgive, just as you have asked; <sup>21</sup> nevertheless—as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD— <sup>22</sup> none of the people who have seen my glory and the signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have tested me these ten times and have not obeyed my voice, <sup>23</sup> shall see the land that I swore to give to their ancestors; none of those who despised me shall see it. <sup>24</sup> But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me wholeheartedly, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it. <sup>25</sup> Now, since the Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the valleys, turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea.”

Mark 14:53-65 (NRSV)

Jesus before the Council
(Mt 26:57-68; Lk 22:66-71; Jn 18:12-14, 19-24)

<sup>57</sup> Some stood up and gave false testimony against him, saying, <sup>58</sup> “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another, not made with hands.’ ” <sup>59</sup> But even on this point their testimony did not agree.

<sup>60</sup> Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, “Have you no answer? What is it that they testify against you?” <sup>61</sup> But he was silent and did not answer. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

<sup>62</sup> Jesus said, “I am; and ‘you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power,’ and ‘coming with the clouds of heaven.’ ”

<sup>63</sup> Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, “Why do we still need witnesses? <sup>64</sup> You have heard his blasphemy! What is your decision?” All of them condemned him as deserving death. <sup>65</sup> Some began to spit on him, to blindfold him, and to strike him, saying to him, “Prophecy!” The guards also took him over and beat him.

Numbers 14:26-15:16 (NRSV)

*An Attempted Invasion is Repulsed
(Deut 1:41–45)*

<sup>26</sup> And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying:
<sup>27</sup> How long shall this wicked congregation complain against me? I have heard the complaints of the Israelites, which they complain against me. <sup>28</sup> Say to them, “As I live,” says the LORD, “I will do to you the very things I heard you say: <sup>29</sup> your dead bodies shall fall in this very wilderness; and of all your number, included in the census, from twenty years old and upward, who have complained against me, <sup>30</sup> not one of you shall come into the land in which I swore to settle you, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun. <sup>31</sup> But your little ones, who you said would become booty, I will bring in, and they shall know the land that you have despised. <sup>32</sup> But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup> And your children shall be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, and shall suffer for your faithlessness, until the last of your dead bodies lies in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup> According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day a year, you shall bear your iniquity, forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.”<sup>35</sup> I the LORD have spoken; surely I will do thus to all this wicked congregation gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die.

<sup>36</sup> And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report about the land—<sup>37</sup> the men who brought an unfavorable report about the land died by a plague before the LORD.<sup>38</sup> But Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh alone remained alive, of those men who went to spy out the land.

<sup>40</sup> They rose early in the morning and went up to the heights of the hill country, saying, “Here we are. We will go up to the place that the LORD has promised, for we have sinned.”<sup>41</sup> But Moses said, “Why do you continue to transgress the command of the LORD? That will not succeed.”<sup>42</sup> Do not go up, for the LORD is not with you; do not let yourselves be struck down before your enemies.

<sup>43</sup> For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will confront you there, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned back from following the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”<sup>44</sup> But they presumed to go up to the heights of the hill country, even though the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, had not left the camp.

<sup>45</sup> Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and defeated them, pursuing them as far as Hormah.

Various Offerings

15 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When you come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving you, <sup>3</sup> and you make an offering by fire to the LORD from the herd or from the flock—whether a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering or at your appointed festivals—to make a pleasing odor for the LORD, <sup>4</sup> then whoever presents such an offering to the LORD shall present also a grain offering, one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour, mixed with one-fourth of a hin of oil.

<sup>8</sup> When you offer a bull as a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as an offering of well-being to the LORD,

<sup>9</sup> then you shall present with the bull a grain offering, three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour, mixed with half a hin of oil, <sup>10</sup> and you shall present as a drink offering half a hin of wine, as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Thus it shall be done for each ox or ram, or for each of the male lambs or the kids.

<sup>12</sup> According to the number that you offer, so you shall do with each and every one.

<sup>13</sup> Every native Israelite shall do these things in this way, in presenting an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> An alien who lives with you, or who takes up permanent residence among you, and wishes to offer an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD, shall do as you do. <sup>15</sup> As for the assembly, there shall be for both you and the resident alien a single statute, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; you and the alien shall be alike before the LORD. <sup>16</sup> You and the alien who resides with you shall have the same law and the same ordinance.

Peter Denies Jesus

Jn 18:15–18, 25–27)

<sup>66</sup> While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant-girls of the high priest came by. <sup>67</sup> When she saw Peter warming himself, she stared at him and said, “You also were with Jesus, the man from Nazareth.”<sup>68</sup> But he denied it, saying, “I do not know or understand what you are talking about.” And he went out into the forecourt. Then the cock crowed.<sup>69</sup> And the servant-girl, on seeing him, began again to say to the bystanders, “This man is one of them.”<sup>70</sup> But again he denied it. Then after a little while the bystanders again said to Peter, “Certainly you are one of them; for you are a Galilean.”<sup>71</sup> But he began to curse, and he swore an oath, “I do not know this man you are talking about.”<sup>72</sup> At that moment the cock crowed for the second time. Then Peter remembered that Jesus had said to him, “Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Prayer for Vindication

To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David, when the Ziphites went and told Saul, “David is in hiding among us.”

- <sup>1</sup> Save me, O God, by your name,
and vindicate me by your might.

- <sup>2</sup> Hear my prayer, O God;

Numbers 15:17-41 (NRSV)

Moses, saying: <sup>18</sup> Speak to the Israelites and say to them: After you come into the land to which I am bringing you, <sup>19</sup> whenever you eat of the bread of the land, you shall present a donation to the LORD. <sup>20</sup> From your first batch of dough you shall present a loaf as a donation; you shall present it just as you present a donation from the threshing floor. <sup>21</sup> Throughout your generations you shall give to the LORD a donation from the first of your batch of dough.

<sup>22</sup> But if you unintentionally fail to observe all these commandments that the LORD has spoken to Moses— <sup>23</sup> everything that the LORD has commanded you by Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and thereafter, throughout your generations— <sup>24</sup> then if it was done unintentionally without the knowledge of the congregation, the whole congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD, together with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin

offering. <sup>25</sup> The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the Israelites, and they shall be forgiven; it was unintentional, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error. <sup>26</sup> All the congregation of the Israelites shall be forgiven, as well as the aliens residing among them, because the whole people was involved in the error.

<sup>27</sup> An individual who sins unintentionally shall present a female goat a year old for a sin offering. <sup>28</sup> And the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the one who commits an error, when it is unintentional, to make atonement for the person, who then shall be forgiven. <sup>29</sup> For both the native among the Israelites and the alien residing among them—you shall have the same law for anyone who acts in error. <sup>30</sup> But whoever acts high-handedly, whether a native or an alien, affronts the LORD, and shall be cut off from among the people. <sup>31</sup> Because of having despised the word of the LORD and broken his commandment, such a person shall be utterly cut off and bear the guilt.

*Penalty for Violating the Sabbath
(Ex 31:12–17)*

<sup>32</sup>When the Israelites were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the sabbath day. <sup>33</sup>Those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses, Aaron, and to the whole congregation. <sup>34</sup>They put him in custody, because it was not clear what should be done to him. <sup>35</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him outside the camp.” <sup>36</sup>The whole congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Fringes on Garments

<sup>37</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>38</sup>Speak to the Israelites, and tell them to make fringes on the corners of their garments throughout their generations and to put a blue cord on the fringe at each corner. <sup>39</sup>You have the fringe so that, when you see it, you will remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and not follow the lust of your own heart and your own eyes. <sup>40</sup>So you shall remember and do all my commandments, and you shall be holy to your God. <sup>41</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God.

Jesus before Pilate

13–16; Jn 18:28–38a)*

<sup>1</sup>As soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. <sup>2</sup>Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” He answered him, “You say so.” <sup>3</sup>Then the chief priests accused him of many things. <sup>4</sup>Pilate asked him again, “Have you no answer? See how many charges they bring against you.” <sup>5</sup>But Jesus made no further reply, so that Pilate was amazed.

Pilate Hands Jesus over to Be Crucified

(Mt 27:15–26; Lk 23:18–25; Jn 18:38b–19:16)

<sup>6</sup> Now at the festival he used to release a prisoner for them, anyone for whom they asked. <sup>7</sup> Now a man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection. <sup>8</sup> So the crowd came and began to ask Pilate to do for them according to his custom. <sup>9</sup> Then he answered them, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?” <sup>10</sup> For he realized that it was out of jealousy that the chief priests had handed him over. <sup>11</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead. <sup>12</sup> Pilate spoke to them again, “Then what do you wish me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?” <sup>13</sup> They shouted back, “Crucify him!” <sup>14</sup> Pilate asked them, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Crucify him!” <sup>15</sup> So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus
(Mt 27:27–31)

<sup>16</sup> Then the soldiers led him into the courtyard of the palace (that is, the governor’s headquarters); and they called together the whole cohort. <sup>17</sup> And they clothed him in a purple cloak; and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on him. <sup>18</sup> And they began saluting him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup> They struck his head with a reed, spat upon him, and knelt down in homage to him. <sup>20</sup> After mocking him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

The Crucifixion of Jesus
Jn 19:16b–27)

<sup>21</sup> They compelled a passer-by, who was coming in from the country, to carry his cross; it was Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus. <sup>22</sup> Then they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull). <sup>23</sup> And they offered him wine mixed with myrrh; but he did not take it. <sup>24</sup> And they crucified him, and divided his clothes among them, casting lots to decide what each should take.

Psalms 54:5-7 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> He will repay my enemies for their evil.

Numbers 16:1-40 (NRSV)

Revolt of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram

this: take censers, Korah and all your company, <sup>7</sup> and tomorrow put fire in them, and lay incense on them before the LORD; and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You Levites have gone too far!” <sup>8</sup> Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you Levites! <sup>9</sup> Is it too little for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to allow you to approach him in order to perform the duties of the LORD’s tabernacle, and to stand before the congregation and serve them? <sup>10</sup> He has allowed you to approach him, and all your brother Levites with you; yet you seek the priesthood as well!

<sup>11</sup> Therefore you and all your company have gathered together against the LORD. What is Aaron that you rail against him?”

<sup>12</sup> Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab; but they said, “We will not come! <sup>13</sup> Is it too little that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you must also lord it over us?

<sup>14</sup> It is clear you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Would you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come!”

<sup>15</sup> Moses was very angry and said to the LORD, “Pay no attention to their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, and I have not harmed any one of them.”

<sup>16</sup> And Moses said to Korah, “As for you and all your company, be present tomorrow before the LORD, you and they and Aaron; <sup>17</sup> and let each one of you take his censer, and put incense on it, and each one of you present his censer before the LORD, two hundred fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each his censer.” <sup>18</sup> So each man took his censer, and they put fire in the censers and laid incense on them, and they stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron. <sup>19</sup> Then Korah assembled the whole congregation against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole congregation.

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying:

<sup>21</sup> Separate yourselves from this congregation, so that I may consume them in a moment. <sup>22</sup> They fell on their faces, and said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one person sin and you become angry with the whole congregation?”

that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; it has not been of my own accord: <sup>29</sup> If these people die a natural death, or if a natural fate comes on them, then the LORD has not sent me. <sup>30</sup> But if the LORD creates something new, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up, with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup> As soon as he finished speaking all these words, the ground under them was split apart. <sup>32</sup> The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households—everyone who belonged to Korah and all their goods. <sup>33</sup> So they with all that belonged to them went down alive into Sheol; the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly. <sup>34</sup> All Israel around them fled at their outcry, for they said, “The earth will swallow us too!” <sup>35</sup> And fire came out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred fifty men offering the incense.

<sup>36</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>37</sup> Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to take the censers out of the blaze; then scatter the fire far and wide. <sup>38</sup> For the censers of these sinners have become holy at the cost of their lives. Make them into hammered plates as a covering for the altar, for they presented them before the LORD and they became holy. Thus they shall be a sign to the Israelites. <sup>39</sup> So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers that had been presented by those who were burned; and they were hammered out as a covering for the altar— <sup>40</sup> a reminder to the Israelites that no outsider, who is not of the descendants of Aaron, shall approach to offer incense before the LORD, so as not to become like Korah and his company—just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.

him they crucified two bandits, one on his right and one on his left. <sup>29</sup> Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads and saying, "Aha! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, <sup>30</sup> save yourself, and come down from the cross!" <sup>31</sup> In the same way the chief priests, along with the scribes, were also mocking him among themselves and saying, "He saved others; he cannot save himself. <sup>32</sup> Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now, so that we may see and believe." Those who were crucified with him also taunted him.

Complaint about a Friend's Treachery

To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear to my prayer, O God;
do not hide yourself
from my supplication.
- <sup>2</sup> Attend to me, and answer me;
I am troubled in my complaint.

I am distraught<sup>3</sup> by the noise of the enemy,
because of the clamor of
the wicked.

For they bring trouble
upon me,
and in anger they cherish
enmity against me.

4 My heart is in anguish
within me,
the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

5 Fear and trembling come
upon me,
and horror overwhelms
me.

6 And I say, "O that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest;

7 truly, I would flee far
away;
I would lodge in the wilderness; Selah

8 I would hurry to find a shelter for myself
from the raging wind and tempest."

9 Confuse, O Lord, confound
their speech;
for I see violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go around it
on its walls,

and iniquity and trouble
are within it;

11 ruin is in its midst;
oppression and fraud
do not depart from its marketplace.

Numbers 16:41–18:7 (NRSV)

<sup>41</sup> On the next day,
however, the whole congregation of the Israelites rebelled against Moses and against Aaron, saying, "You have killed the people of the LORD."<sup>42</sup> And when the congregation had assembled against them, Moses and Aaron turned toward the tent of meeting; the cloud had covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared.<sup>43</sup> Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting,<sup>44</sup> and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>45</sup> "Get away from this congregation, so that I may consume them in a moment." And they fell on their faces.<sup>46</sup> Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, put fire on it from the altar and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them. For wrath has gone out from the LORD; the plague has begun."<sup>47</sup> So Aaron took it as Moses had ordered, and ran into the middle of the assembly, where the plague had already begun among the people. He put on the incense, and made atonement for the people.<sup>48</sup> He stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stopped.<sup>49</sup> Those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the affair of Korah.<sup>50</sup> When the plague was stopped, Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

The Budding of Aaron's Rod

17 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:<sup>2</sup> Speak to the Israelites, and get twelve staffs from them, one for each ancestral house, from all the leaders of their ancestral houses. Write each man's name on his staff,<sup>3</sup> and write Aaron's name on the staff of Levi. For there shall be one staff for the head of each ancestral house.<sup>4</sup> Place them in the tent of meeting before the covenant, where I meet with you.<sup>5</sup> And the staff of the man whom I choose shall sprout; thus I will put a stop to the complaints of the Israelites that they continually make against you.<sup>6</sup> Moses spoke to the Israelites; and all their leaders gave him staffs, one for each leader, according to their ancestral houses, twelve staffs; and the staff of Aaron was among theirs.<sup>7</sup> So Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the tent of the covenant.

<sup>8</sup> When Moses went into the tent of the covenant on the next day, the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted. It put forth buds, produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds. <sup>9</sup> Then Moses brought out all the staffs from before the LORD to all the Israelites; and they looked, and each man took his staff. <sup>10</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, "Put back the staff of Aaron before the covenant, to be kept as a warning to rebels, so that you may make an end of their complaints against me, or else they will die." <sup>11</sup> Moses did so; just as the LORD commanded him, so he did.

<sup>12</sup> The Israelites said to Moses, "We are perishing; we are lost, all of us are lost!

<sup>13</sup> Everyone who approaches the tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all to perish?"

Responsibility of Priests and Levites

18 The LORD said to Aaron: You and your sons and your ancestral house with you shall bear responsibility for offenses connected with the sanctuary, while you and your sons alone shall bear responsibility for offenses connected with the priesthood. <sup>2</sup> So bring with you also your brothers of the tribe of Levi, your ancestral tribe, in order that they may be joined to you, and serve you while you and your sons with you are in front of the tent of the covenant. <sup>3</sup> They shall perform duties for you and for the whole tent. But they must not approach either the utensils of the sanctuary or the altar, otherwise both they and you will die. <sup>4</sup> They are attached to you in order to perform the duties of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; no outsider shall approach you. <sup>5</sup> You yourselves shall perform the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, so that wrath may never again come upon the Israelites. <sup>6</sup> It is I who now take your brother Levites from among the Israelites; they are now yours as a gift, dedicated to the LORD, to perform the service of the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup> But you and your sons with you shall diligently perform your priestly duties in all that concerns the altar and the area behind the curtain. I give your priesthood as a gift; any outsider who approaches shall be put to death.

Mark 15:33-47 (NRSV)

The Death of Jesus

Jn 19:28-30)

<sup>33</sup> When it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. <sup>34</sup> At three o'clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" <sup>35</sup> When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, "Listen, he is calling for Elijah." <sup>36</sup> And someone ran, filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down." <sup>37</sup> Then Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last. <sup>38</sup> And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. <sup>39</sup> Now when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was God's Son!"

<sup>40</sup> There were also women looking on from a distance; among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.

<sup>41</sup> These used to follow him and provided for him when he was in Galilee; and there were many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

The Burial of Jesus

Jn 19:38-42)

<sup>42</sup> When evening had come, and since it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, <sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the council, who was also himself waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>44</sup> Then Pilate wondered if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead for some time.

<sup>45</sup> When he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup> Then Joseph bought a linen cloth, and taking down the body, wrapped it in the linen cloth, and laid it in a tomb that had been hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. <sup>47</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where the body was laid.

Psalms 55:12-23 (NRSV)

<sup>12</sup> It is not enemies who taunt me—
I could bear that;
it is not adversaries who deal insolently with me—
I could hide from them.
<sup>13</sup> But it is you, my equal,
my companion, my familiar friend,
<sup>14</sup> with whom I kept pleasant company;
we walked in the house of God with the throng.
<sup>15</sup> Let death come upon them;
let them go down alive to Sheol;

<sup>16</sup> But I call upon God,

and the LORD will save me.
<sup>17</sup> Evening and morning and at noon
I utter my complaint and moan,
and he will hear my voice.
<sup>18</sup> He will redeem me unharmed
from the battle that I wage,
for many are arrayed against me.
<sup>19</sup> God, who is enthroned from of old, Selah
will hear, and will humble them—
because they do not change,
and do not fear God.

and violated a covenant with me <sup>21</sup> with speech smoother than butter,
but with a heart set on war;
with words that were softer than oil,
but in fact were drawn swords.
<sup>22</sup> Cast your burden on the LORD,

and he will sustain you;
he will never permit
the righteous to be moved.

- 23 But you, O God, will cast

shall not live out half their days.
But I will trust in you.

Numbers 18:8-32 (NRSV)

The Priests' Portion

<sup>8</sup>The LORD spoke to Aaron:
I have given you charge of the offerings made to me, all the holy gifts of the Israelites; I have given them to you and your sons as a priestly portion due you in perpetuity. <sup>9</sup>This shall be yours from the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs
that they render to me as a most holy thing, whether grain offering, sin offering, or guilt
offering, shall belong to you and your sons. <sup>10</sup>As a most holy thing you shall eat it;
every male may eat it; it shall be holy to you. <sup>11</sup>This also is yours: I have given to you,
together with your sons and daughters, as a perpetual due,
whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the elevation
offerings of the Israelites;
everyone who is clean in your house may eat them. <sup>12</sup>All the best of the oil and all the best of the wine and of the grain,
the choice produce that they give to the LORD, I have given to you. <sup>13</sup> The first fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house may eat of it.

<sup>14</sup> Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours. <sup>15</sup> The first issue of the womb of all creatures, human and animal, which is offered to the LORD, shall be yours; but the firstborn of human beings you shall redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem. <sup>16</sup> Their redemption price, reckoned from one month of age, you shall fix at five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary (that is, twenty gerahs). <sup>17</sup> But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall dash their blood on the altar, and shall turn their fat into smoke as an offering by fire for a pleasing odor to the LORD; <sup>18</sup> but their flesh shall be yours, just as the breast that is elevated and as the right thigh are yours. <sup>19</sup> All the holy offerings that the Israelites present to the LORD I have given to you, together with your sons and daughters, as a perpetual due; it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD for you and your descendants as well.

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said to Aaron: You shall have no allotment in their land, nor shall you have any share among them; I am your share and your possession among the Israelites.

<sup>21</sup> To the Levites I have given every tithe in Israel for a possession in return for the service that they perform, the service in the tent of meeting.

<sup>22</sup> From now on the Israelites shall no longer approach the tent of meeting, or else they will incur guilt and die. <sup>23</sup> But the Levites shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear responsibility for their own offenses; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations. But among the Israelites they shall have no allotment, <sup>24</sup> because I have given to the Levites as their portion the tithe of the Israelites, which they set apart as an offering to the LORD.

Therefore I have said of them that they shall have no allotment among the Israelites.

<sup>25</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>26</sup> You shall speak to the Levites, saying: When you receive from the Israelites the tithe that I have given you from them for your portion, you shall set apart an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe. <sup>27</sup> It shall be reckoned to you as your gift, the same as the grain of the threshing floor and the fullness of the wine press.

<sup>28</sup> Thus you also shall set apart an offering to the LORD from all the tithes that you receive from the Israelites; and from them you shall give the LORD's offering to the priest Aaron.

<sup>29</sup> Out of all the gifts to you, you shall set apart every offering due to the LORD; the best of all of them is the part to be consecrated. <sup>30</sup> Say also to them: When you have set apart the best of it, then the rest shall be reckoned to the Levites as produce of the threshing floor, and as produce of the wine press.

<sup>31</sup> You may eat it in any place,

you and your households; for it is your payment for your service in the tent of meeting.

<sup>32</sup> You shall incur no guilt by reason of it, when you have offered the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy gifts of the Israelites, on pain of death.

The Resurrection of Jesus
(Mt 28:1-10; Lk 24:1-12; Jn 20:1-10)

<sup>1</sup> When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him.

<sup>2</sup> And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. <sup>3</sup> They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

<sup>4</sup> When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. <sup>5</sup> As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. <sup>6</sup> But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. <sup>7</sup> But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.” <sup>8</sup> So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Trust in God under Persecution

To the leader: according to The Dove on Far-off Terebinths. Of David. A Miktam, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

<sup>1</sup> Be gracious to me, O God,
for people trample on me;
all day long foes oppress me;
<sup>2</sup> my enemies trample on me all day long,

for many fight against me.
O Most High, <sup>3</sup> when I am afraid,

<sup>5</sup> All day long they seek to injure my cause;
all their thoughts are against me for evil.
<sup>6</sup> They stir up strife, they lurk,
they watch my steps.
As they hoped to have my life,
<sup>7</sup> so repay them for their crime;
in wrath cast down the peoples, O God!
<sup>8</sup> You have kept count of my tossings;

Numbers 19:1-22 (NRSV)

Ceremony of the Red Heifer

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: <sup>2</sup> This is a statute of the law that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer without defect, in which there is no blemish and on which no yoke has been laid. <sup>3</sup> You shall give it to the priest Eleazar, and it shall be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence. <sup>4</sup> The priest Eleazar shall take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times towards the front of the tent of meeting. <sup>5</sup> Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight; its skin, its flesh, and its blood, with its dung, shall be burned. <sup>6</sup> The priest shall take cedarwood, hyssop, and crimson material, and throw them into the fire in which the heifer is burning. <sup>7</sup> Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterwards he may come into the camp; but the priest shall remain unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup> The one who burns the heifer shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water; he shall remain unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup> Then someone who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the Israelites for the water for cleansing. It is a purification offering. <sup>10</sup> The one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

This shall be a perpetual statute for the Israelites and for the alien residing among them. <sup>11</sup> Those who touch the dead body of any human being shall be unclean seven days.

<sup>12</sup> They shall purify themselves with the water on the third day and on the seventh day, and so be clean; but if they do not purify themselves on the third day and on the seventh day, they will not become clean. <sup>13</sup> All who touch a corpse, the body of a human being who has died, and do not purify themselves, defile the tabernacle of the LORD; such persons shall be cut off from Israel. Since water for cleansing was not dashed on them, they remain unclean; their uncleanness is still on them.

shall take some ashes of the burnt purification offering, and running water shall be added in a vessel; <sup>18</sup> then a clean person shall take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the furnishings, on the persons who were there, and on whoever touched the bone, the slain, the corpse, or the grave. <sup>19</sup> The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean ones on the third day and on the seventh day, thus purifying them on the seventh day. Then they shall wash their clothes and bathe themselves in water, and at evening they shall be clean. <sup>20</sup> Any who are unclean but do not purify themselves, those persons shall be cut off from the assembly, for they have defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. Since the water for cleansing has not been dashed on them, they are unclean.

<sup>22</sup> Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean, and anyone who touches it shall be unclean until evening.

THE LONGER ENDING OF MARK

*Jesus Appears to

<sup>14</sup> Later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were sitting at the table; and he upbraided them for their lack of faith and stubbornness, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation. <sup>16</sup> The one who believes and is baptized will be saved; but the one who does not believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup> And these signs will accompany those who believe: by using my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; <sup>18</sup> they will pick up snakes in their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

The Waters of Meribah
(Ex 17:1-7)

<sup>1</sup> The Israelites, the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh. Miriam died there, and was buried there.

<sup>3</sup> The people quarreled with Moses and said, "Would that we had died when our kindred died before the LORD!"
<sup>4</sup> Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die here? <sup>5</sup> Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to bring us to this wretched place? It is no place for grain, or figs, or vines, or pomegranates; and there is no water to drink.” <sup>6</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went away from the assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting; they fell on their faces, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them. <sup>7</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>8</sup> Take the staff, and assemble the congregation, you and your brother Aaron, and command the rock before their eyes to yield its water. Thus you shall bring water out of the rock for them; thus you shall provide drink for the congregation and their livestock.

<sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, “Listen, you rebels, shall we bring water for you out of this rock?” <sup>11</sup> Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff; water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their livestock drank. <sup>12</sup> But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust in me, to show my holiness before the eyes of the Israelites, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them.” <sup>13</sup> These are the waters of Meribah, where the people of Israel quarreled with the LORD, and by which he showed his holiness.

Passage through Edom Refused

<sup>14</sup> Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, “Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the adversity that has befallen us: <sup>15</sup> how our ancestors went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians oppressed us and our ancestors; <sup>16</sup> and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt; and here we are in Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory. <sup>17</sup> Now let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, or drink water from any well; we will go along the King's Highway, not turning aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory."

<sup>18</sup> But Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through, or we will come out with the sword against you." <sup>19</sup> The Israelites said to him, "We will stay on the highway; and if we drink of your water, we and our livestock, then we will pay for it. It is only a small matter; just let us pass through on foot." <sup>20</sup> But he said, "You shall not pass through." And Edom came out against them with a large force, heavily armed. <sup>21</sup> Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through their territory; so Israel turned away from them.

The Death of Aaron

the land that I have given to the Israelites, because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>27</sup> Moses did as the LORD had commanded; they went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole congregation. <sup>28</sup> Moses stripped Aaron of his vestments, and put them on his son Eleazar; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. <sup>29</sup> When all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, all the house of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

Dedication to Theophilus

<sup>1</sup> Since many have undertaken to set down an orderly account of the events that have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup> just as they were handed on to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word,<sup>3</sup> I too decided, after investigating everything carefully from the very first, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,<sup>4</sup> so that you may know the truth concerning the things about which you have been instructed.

The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

<sup>5</sup>In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.<sup>6</sup> Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord.<sup>7</sup> But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years.

*Praise and Assurance under Persecution
(Cp Ps 108:1–5)*

To the leader: Do Not Destroy. Of David. A Miktam, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

<sup>1</sup> Be merciful to me, O God,
be merciful to me,
for in you my soul takes
refuge;
in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge,
until the destroying storms pass by.

<sup>2</sup> I cry to God Most High,
to God who fulfills his purpose for me.

<sup>3</sup> He will send from heaven
and save me,
he will put to shame
those who trample on
me. Selah

The Bronze Serpent

<sup>1</sup> When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.

<sup>2</sup> Then Israel made a vow to the LORD and said, "If you will indeed give this people into our hands, then we will utterly destroy their towns." <sup>3</sup> The LORD listened to the voice of Israel, and handed over the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their towns; so the place was called Hormah.

<sup>4</sup> From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. <sup>5</sup> The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." <sup>6</sup> Then the LORD sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. <sup>7</sup> The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. <sup>8</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." <sup>9</sup> So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

The Journey to Moab

<sup>10</sup> The Israelites set out, and camped in Oboth. <sup>11</sup> They set out from Oboth, and camped at Iye-abarim, in the wilderness bordering Moab toward the sunrise. <sup>12</sup> From there they set out, and camped in the Wadi Zered. <sup>13</sup> From there they set out, and camped on the other side of the Arnon, in the wilderness that extends from the boundary of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.<sup>14</sup> Wherefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, “Waheb in Suphah and the wadis.

The Arnon<sup>15</sup> and the slopes of the wadis that extend to the seat of Ar, and lie along the border of Moab.”

<sup>16</sup> From there they continued to Beer; that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people together, and I will give them water.”<sup>17</sup> Then Israel sang this song:

“Spring up, O well!—Sing to it!—

<sup>18</sup> the well that the leaders sank, that the nobles of the people dug, with the scepter, with the staff.”

From the wilderness to Mattanah,<sup>19</sup> from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth,<sup>20</sup> and from Bamoth to the valley lying in the region of Moab by the top of Pisgah that overlooks the wasteland.

King Sihon Defeated

(Deut 2:26–37)

<sup>21</sup> Then Israel sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites, saying,<sup>22</sup> “Let me pass through your land; we will not turn aside into field or vineyard; we will not drink the water of any well; we will go by the King’s Highway until we have passed through your territory.”<sup>23</sup> But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel to the wilderness; he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.<sup>24</sup> Israel put him to the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as to the Ammonites; for the boundary of the Ammonites was strong.<sup>25</sup> Israel took all these towns, and Israel settled in all the towns of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.<sup>26</sup> For Heshbon was the city of King Sihon of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and captured all his land as far as the Arnon.<sup>27</sup> Therefore the ballad singers say,

“Come to Heshbon, let it be built;
let the city of Sihon be
established.

<sup>28</sup> For fire came out from Heshbon,
flame from the city of Sihon.
It devoured Ar of Moab,
and swallowed up the heights of the Arnon.

<sup>29</sup> Woe to you, O Moab!
You are undone, O
people of Chemosh!
He has made his sons
fugitives,
and his daughters
captives,
to an Amorite king,
Sihon.

<sup>30</sup> So their posterity perished
from Heshbon to Dibon,
and we laid waste until fire spread to Medeba.”

Luke 1:8-25 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> Once when he was serving as priest before God
and his section was on duty, <sup>9</sup> he was chosen by lot,
according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and offer incense. <sup>10</sup> Now at the time of the incense offering,

the whole assembly of the people was praying outside.

<sup>11</sup> Then there appeared to him
an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup> When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him. <sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John. <sup>14</sup> You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, <sup>15</sup> for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup> He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God.

<sup>17</sup> With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

<sup>18</sup> Zechariah said to the angel, “How will I know that this is so? For I am an old man, and my wife is getting on in years.”

<sup>19</sup> The angel replied, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.

<sup>20</sup> But now, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time, you will become mute, unable to speak, until the day these things occur.”

<sup>21</sup> Meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah, and wondered at his delay in the sanctuary. <sup>22</sup> When he did come out, he could not speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept motioning to them and remained unable to speak.

<sup>24</sup> After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion. She said, <sup>25</sup> “This is what the Lord has done for me when he looked favorably on me and took away the disgrace I have endured among my people.”

him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no

possession of his land.

Balak Summons Balaam
to Curse Israel

22 The Israelites set out, and camped in the plains of Moab across the Jordan from Jericho. <sup>2</sup> Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. <sup>3</sup> Moab
was in great dread of the people, because they were so numerous; Moab was overcome with fear of the people of Israel. <sup>4</sup> And Moab
said to the elders of Midian,
“This horde will now lick up all that is around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field.” Now Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.<sup>5</sup> He sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is on the Euphrates, in the land of Amaw, to summon him, saying, “A people has come out of Egypt; they have spread over the face of the earth, and they have settled next to me.<sup>6</sup> Come now, curse this people for me, since they are stronger than I; perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them from the land; for I know that whomever you bless is blessed, and whomever you curse is cursed.”

<sup>7</sup> So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and gave him Balak’s message.<sup>8</sup> He said to them, “Stay here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, just as the LORD speaks to me”; so the officials of Moab stayed with Balaam.<sup>9</sup> God came to Balaam and said, “Who are these men with you?”<sup>10</sup> Balaam said to God, “King Balak son of Zippor of Moab, has sent me this message:<sup>11</sup> ‘A people has come out of Egypt and has spread over the face of the earth; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to fight against them and drive them out.’ ”<sup>12</sup> God said to Balaam, “You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.”<sup>13</sup> So Balaam rose in the morning, and said to the officials of Balak, “Go to your own land, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”<sup>14</sup> So the officials of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, “Balaam refuses to come with us.”

<sup>15</sup> Once again Balak sent officials, more numerous and more distinguished than these.<sup>16</sup> They came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak son of Zippor: ‘Do not let anything hinder you from coming to me; <sup>17</sup> for I will surely do you great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do; come, curse this people for me.’ ”<sup>18</sup> But Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, “Although Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD my God, to do less or more. <sup>19</sup> You remain here, as the others did, so that I may learn what more the LORD may say to me.”

<sup>20</sup> That night God came to Balaam and said to him, “If the men have come to summon you, get up and go with them; but do only what I tell you to do.”

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin’s name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> And he came to her and said, “Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you.” <sup>29</sup> But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.

<sup>30</sup> The angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

<sup>31</sup> And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. <sup>33</sup> He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.” <sup>34</sup> Mary said to the angel, “How can this be, since I am a virgin?”

<sup>35</sup> The angel said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. <sup>36</sup> And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren.

<sup>37</sup> For nothing will be impossible with God.” <sup>38</sup> Then Mary said, “Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her.

Do you judge people

<sup>2</sup> No, in your hearts you

they err from their birth,

Numbers 22:21-41 (NRSV)

<sup>21</sup> So Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey,
and went with the officials of Moab.

*Balaam, the Donkey,
and the Angel*

<sup>22</sup> God's anger was kindled because he was going, and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the road as his adversary. Now he was riding on the donkey, and his two servants were with him. <sup>23</sup> The donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with a drawn sword in his hand; so the donkey turned off the road, and went into the field; and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn it back onto the road. <sup>24</sup> Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on either side. <sup>25</sup> When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, it scraped against the wall, and scraped Balaam's foot against the wall; so he struck it again. <sup>26</sup> Then the angel of the LORD went ahead, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left. <sup>27</sup> When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, it lay down under Balaam; and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff. <sup>28</sup> Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and it said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?" <sup>29</sup> Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have made a fool of me! I wish I had a sword in my hand! I would kill you right now!" <sup>30</sup> But the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I been in the habit of treating you this way?" And he said, "No."

<sup>31</sup> Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with his drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed down, falling on his face. <sup>32</sup> The angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? I have come out as an adversary, because your way is perverse before me. <sup>33</sup> The donkey saw me, and turned away from me these three times. If it had not turned away from me, surely just now I would have killed you and let it live." <sup>34</sup> Then Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know that you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now therefore, if it is displeasing to you, I will return home.”<sup>35</sup> The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men; but speak only what I tell you to speak.” So Balaam went on with the officials of Balak.

<sup>36</sup>When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at Ir-moab, on the boundary formed by the Arnon, at the farthest point of the boundary.<sup>37</sup> Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not send to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?”<sup>38</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “I have come to you now, but do I have power to say just anything? The word God puts in my mouth, that is what I must say.”<sup>39</sup> Then Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth.<sup>40</sup> Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent them to Balaam and to the officials who were with him.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup>In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country,<sup>40</sup> where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.<sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit<sup>42</sup> and exclaimed with a loud cry, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.<sup>43</sup> And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me?<sup>44</sup> For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy.<sup>45</sup> And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord.”

Mary’s Song of Praise

<sup>46</sup>And Mary said,
“My soul magnifies the
Lord,
<sup>47</sup>and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

48 for he has looked with favor on the lowliness
of his servant.
Surely, from now on all generations will call me
blessed;
49 for the Mighty One has done great things for
me,
and holy is his name.
50 His mercy is for those who fear him
from generation to
generation.
51 He has shown strength
with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the thoughts
of their hearts.
52 He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
and lifted up the lowly;
53 he has filled the hungry
with good things,
and sent the rich away
empty.
54 He has helped his servant
Israel,
in remembrance of his
mercy,
55 according to the promise
he made to our ancestors,

to Abraham and to his descendants forever.”

<sup>56</sup> And Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

Numbers 23:1-30 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me." <sup>2</sup> Balak did as Balaam had said; and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>3</sup> Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your burnt offerings while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me. Whatever he shows me I will tell you." And he went to a bare height.

<sup>4</sup> Then God met Balaam; and Balaam said to him, "I have arranged the seven altars, and have offered a bull and a ram on each altar." <sup>5</sup> The LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and this is what you must say." <sup>6</sup> So he returned to Balak, who was standing beside his burnt offerings with all the officials of Moab. <sup>7</sup> Then Balaam uttered his oracle, saying:

"Balak has brought me
from Aram,

the king of Moab from
the eastern mountains:
'Come, curse Jacob for me;
Come, denounce Israel!'

<sup>8</sup> How can I curse whom God has not cursed?
How can I denounce
those whom the LORD
has not denounced?
<sup>9</sup> For from the top of the crag I see him,
from the hills I behold
him;
Here is a people living
alone,
and not reckoning itself
among the nations!
<sup>10</sup> Who can count the dust of Jacob,
or number the dust-
cloud of Israel?
Let me die the death of the
upright,
and let my end be like
his!"

<sup>11</sup> Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse
my enemies, but now you have done nothing but bless them." <sup>12</sup> He answered, "Must I not take care to say what the LORD puts into my mouth?"

Balaam's Second Oracle

<sup>13</sup> So Balak said to him, "Come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only part of them, and shall not see them all; then curse them for me from there." <sup>14</sup> So he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah. He built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>15</sup> Balaam said to Balak, "Stand here beside your burnt offerings, while I meet the LORD over there." <sup>16</sup> The LORD met Balaam, put a word into his mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and this is what you shall say." <sup>17</sup> When he came to him, he was standing beside his burnt offerings with the officials of Moab. Balak said to him, "What has the LORD said?" <sup>18</sup> Then Balaam uttered his oracle, saying:

"Rise, Balak, and hear;
listen to me, O son of Zippor:

<sup>19</sup> God is not a human being,
that he should lie,
or a mortal, that he should change his mind.

Has he promised, and will
he not do it?

Has he spoken, and will
he not fulfill it?

<sup>20</sup> See, I received a command
to bless;

he has blessed, and I cannot revoke it.

<sup>21</sup> He has not beheld misfortune in Jacob;
nor has he seen trouble
in Israel.

The LORD their God is with
them,
acclaimed as a king
among them.

<sup>22</sup> God, who brings them out of Egypt,
is like the horns of a wild
ox for them.

<sup>23</sup> Surely there is no
enchantment against Jacob,
no divination against Israel;

now it shall be said of Jacob and Israel,
'See what God has done!'

<sup>24</sup> Look, a people rising up like a lioness,
and rousing itself like a lion!

It does not lie down until it has eaten the prey

and drunk the blood of the slain.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Balak said to Balaam, “Do not curse them at all, and do not bless them at all.” <sup>26</sup> But Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not tell you, ‘Whatever the LORD says, that is what I must do?’”

<sup>27</sup> So Balak said to Balaam, “Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.” <sup>28</sup> So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which overlooks the wasteland. <sup>29</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Build me seven altars
here, and prepare seven bulls
and seven rams for me.” <sup>30</sup> So Balak did as Balaam had said,
and offered a bull and a ram
on each altar.

The Birth of John the Baptist

<sup>57</sup> Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. <sup>58</sup> Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

<sup>59</sup> On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child,

and they were going to name
him Zechariah after his father.

<sup>60</sup> But his mother said, “No; he is to be called John.” <sup>61</sup> They said to her, “None of your relatives has this name.”

<sup>62</sup> Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him.

<sup>63</sup> He asked for a writing tablet
and wrote, “His name is John.”
And all of them were amazed.

<sup>64</sup> Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed,
and he began to speak,
praising God. <sup>65</sup> Fear came over all their neighbors, and all these things were talked about throughout the entire hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup> All who heard them pondered them
and said, “What then will this child become?” For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with
him.

Prayer for Deliverance from Enemies

To the leader: Do Not Destroy. Of David. A Miktam, when Saul ordered his house to be watched in order to kill him.

<sup>1</sup> Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;

protect me from those who rise up against
me.
2 Deliver me from those who work evil;
from the bloodthirsty
save me.
3 Even now they lie in wait
for my life;
the mighty stir up strife
against me.
For no transgression or sin
of mine, O LORD,
4 for no fault of mine, they run and make ready.
Rouse yourself, come to my help and see!
5 You, LORD God of hosts,
are God of Israel.
Awake to punish all the
nations;
spare none of those who
treacherously plot evil.
Selah
6 Each evening they come
back,
howling like dogs
and prowling about the
city.
7 There they are, bellowing
with their mouths,
with sharp words on
their lips—
for “Who,” they think,
“will hear us?”

8 But you laugh at them, O
LORD;
you hold all the nations
in derision.
9 O my strength, I will watch
for you;
for you, O God, are my
fortress.
10 My God in his steadfast love will meet me;
my God will let me look in triumph on my
enemies.
11 Do not kill them, or my people may forget;
make them totter by your power, and bring them down,
O Lord, our shield.
12 For the sin of their mouths,
the words of their lips,
let them be trapped in their pride.
For the cursing and lies
that they utter,
13 consume them in wrath;
consume them until they are no more.
Then it will be known to the ends of the earth
that God rules over Jacob. Selah

Proverbs 16:8–9 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> Better is a little with righteousness
than large income with injustice.

Balaam's Third Oracle

<sup>1</sup> Now Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, so he did not go, as at other times, to look for omens, but set his face toward the wilderness. <sup>2</sup> Balaam looked up and saw Israel camping tribe by tribe. Then the spirit of God came upon him, <sup>3</sup> and he uttered his oracle, saying:

“The oracle of Balaam son
of Beor,
the oracle of the man
whose eye is clear,

<sup>4</sup> the oracle of one who hears the words of
God,
who sees the vision of the Almighty,
who falls down, but with
eyes uncovered:
<sup>5</sup> how fair are your tents, O
Jacob,
your encampments, O
Israel!
<sup>6</sup> Like palm groves that stretch far away,
like gardens beside a
river,
like aloes that the LORD has planted,
like cedar trees beside
the waters.
<sup>7</sup> Water shall flow from his buckets,
and his seed shall have abundant water,
his king shall be higher than Agag,
and his kingdom shall be exalted.
<sup>8</sup> God who brings him out of Egypt,
is like the horns of a wild
ox for him;
he shall devour the nations
that are his foes
and break their bones.

He shall strike with his arrows.

<sup>9</sup> He crouched, he lay down
like a lion,
and like a lioness; who
will rouse him up?
Blessed is everyone who blesses you,
and cursed is everyone
who curses you.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Balak’s anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together.
Balak said to Balaam, “I summoned you to curse my enemies, but instead you have blessed them these three times. <sup>11</sup> Now be off with you!
Go home! I said, ‘I will reward
you richly,’ but the LORD has denied you any reward.”

<sup>12</sup> And Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not tell your messengers whom you sent to me, <sup>13</sup> ‘If Balak should give me his house full of silver and gold, I would not be able to go beyond the word of the LORD, to do either
good or bad of my own will;
what the LORD says, that is what I will say’? <sup>14</sup> So now, I am going to my people; let me advise you what this people will do to your people in days
to come.”

Balaam’s Fourth Oracle

<sup>15</sup> So he uttered his oracle,
saying:
“The oracle of Balaam son
of Beor,
the oracle of the man
whose eye is clear, <sup>16</sup> the oracle of one who
hears the words of
God,
and knows the knowledge of the Most High,
who sees the vision of the Almighty,
who falls down, but with
his eyes uncovered:
<sup>17</sup> I see him, but not now;
I behold him, but not near—
a star shall come out of Jacob,
and a scepter shall rise
out of Israel;
it shall crush the borderlands of Moab,
and the territory of all the Shethites.
<sup>18</sup> Edom will become a
possession,
Seir a possession of its
enemies,
while Israel does
valiantly.
<sup>19</sup> One out of Jacob shall rule,

and destroy the survivors
of Ir.”

<sup>20</sup> Then he looked on Amalek, and uttered his oracle, saying:

“First among the nations
was Amalek,
but its end is to perish
forever.”

<sup>21</sup> Then he looked on the Kenite, and uttered his oracle,
saying:

“Enduring is your dwelling place,
and your nest is set in
the rock;

<sup>22</sup> yet Kain is destined for
burning.
How long shall Asshur
take you away
captive?”

<sup>23</sup> Again he uttered his oracle, saying:

“Alas, who shall live when God does this?

<sup>24</sup> But ships shall come from Kittim
and shall afflict Asshur and Eber;
and he also shall perish
forever.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Balaam got up and went back to his place, and Balak also went his way.

Luke 1:67-80 (NRSV)

Zechariah’s Prophecy

<sup>67</sup> Then his father

Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke this prophecy:

<sup>68</sup> “Blessed be the Lord God
of Israel,

for he has looked favorably on his people
and redeemed them.

<sup>69</sup> He has raised up a mighty savior for us
in the house of his servant David,

<sup>70</sup> as he spoke through the mouth of his holy

prophets from of old, <sup>71</sup> that we would be saved
from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.

<sup>72</sup> Thus he has shown the mercy promised to our
ancestors,
and has remembered his
holy covenant,

<sup>73</sup> the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham,
to grant us <sup>74</sup> that we,
being rescued from the hands of our enemies,
might serve him without fear, <sup>75</sup> in holiness and
righteousness

before him all our days.
76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of
the Most High;
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his
ways,
77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people
by the forgiveness of their sins.
78 By the tender mercy of our God,
the dawn from on high
will break upon us, 79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

80 The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day he appeared publicly to Israel.

Psalms 59:14-17 (NRSV)

14 Each evening they come
back,
howling like dogs
and prowling about the
city.
15 They roam about for food,
and growl if they do not get their fill.

16 But I will sing of your might;
I will sing aloud of your steadfast love in the morning.
For you have been a fortress for me
and a refuge in the day
of my distress.
17 O my strength, I will sing
praises to you,
for you, O God, are my
fortress,
the God who shows me
steadfast love.

Numbers 25:1-18 (NRSV)

Worship of Baal of Peor

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people, and impale them in the sun before the LORD, in order that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel." <sup>5</sup> And Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Each of you shall kill any of your people who have yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor."

while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup> When Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he got up and left the congregation. Taking a spear in his hand, <sup>8</sup> he went after the Israelite man into the tent, and pierced the two of them, the Israelite and the woman, through the belly. So the plague was stopped among the people of Israel. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless those that died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>11</sup> "Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the Israelites by manifesting such zeal among them on my behalf that in my jealousy I did not consume the Israelites. <sup>12</sup> Therefore say, 'I hereby grant him my covenant of peace. <sup>13</sup> It shall be for him and for his descendants after him a covenant of perpetual priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made atonement for the Israelites.' "

was Zimri son of Salu, head of an ancestral house belonging to the Simeonites.<sup>15</sup> The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi daughter of Zur, who was the head of a clan, an ancestral house in Midian.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses,
<sup>17</sup>“Harass the Midianites, and defeat them; <sup>18</sup>for they have harassed you by the trickery with which they deceived you in the affair of Peor, and in the affair of Cozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midian, their sister; she was killed on the day of the plague that resulted from Peor.”

The Birth of Jesus

(Mt 1:18–25)

house and family of David.

<sup>5</sup> He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. <sup>6</sup> While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. <sup>7</sup> And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

<sup>8</sup> In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup> Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup> But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: <sup>11</sup> to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. <sup>12</sup> This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” <sup>13</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God

and saying,

<sup>14</sup> “Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace
among those whom he favors!”

<sup>15</sup> When the angels had left them and gone into heaven,
the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” <sup>16</sup> So they went with haste
and found Mary and Joseph,
and the child lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup> When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; <sup>18</sup> and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. <sup>19</sup> But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

A Census of the New Generation

<sup>1</sup> After the plague the LORD said to Moses and to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, <sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the whole congregation of the Israelites, from twenty years old and upward, by their ancestral houses, everyone in Israel able to go to war.” <sup>3</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying, <sup>4</sup> “Take a census of the people, from twenty years old and upward,” as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Israelites, who came out of the land of Egypt, were:

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Judah: Er and Onan; Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup> The descendants of Judah by their clans were: of Shelah, the clan of the Shelanites; of Perez, the clan of the Perezites; of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites.

were: of Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the clan of the Hamulites. <sup>22</sup> These are the clans of Judah: the number of those enrolled was seventy-six thousand five hundred.

<sup>26</sup> The descendants of Zebulun by their clans: of Sered, the clan of the Seredites; of Elon, the clan of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the clan of the Jahleelites. <sup>27</sup> These are the clans of the Zebulunites; the number of those enrolled was sixty thousand five hundred.

descendants of Gilead: of Iezer, the clan of the Iezerites; of Helek, the clan of the Helekites;<sup>31</sup> and of Asriel, the clan of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the clan of the Shechemites;<sup>32</sup> and of Shemida, the clan of the Shemidaites; and of Hopher, the clan of the Hopherites.

<sup>33</sup> Now Zelophehad son of Hopher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.<sup>34</sup> These are the clans of Manasseh; the number of those enrolled was fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

<sup>35</sup> These are the descendants of Ephraim according to their clans: of Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the clan of the Becherites; of Tahan, the clan of the Tahanites.<sup>36</sup> And these are the descendants of Shuthelah: of Eran, the clan of the Eranites.

<sup>37</sup> These are the clans of the Ephraimites: the number of those enrolled was thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the descendants of Joseph by their clans.

Jesus Is Named

<sup>21</sup> After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Jesus Is Presented in the Temple

<sup>22</sup> When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord<sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"),<sup>24</sup> and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him.<sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. <sup>27</sup> Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, <sup>28</sup> Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, <sup>29</sup> "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; <sup>30</sup> for my eyes have seen your salvation, <sup>31</sup> which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, <sup>32</sup> a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel." <sup>33</sup> And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. <sup>34</sup> Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed <sup>35</sup> so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

<sup>6</sup> God has promised in his sanctuary:
"With exultation I will divide up Shechem, and portion out the Vale of Succoth.
<sup>7</sup> Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet; Judah is my scepter.
<sup>8</sup> Moab is my washbasin; on Edom I hurl my shoe; over Philistia I shout in triumph."
<sup>9</sup> Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
<sup>10</sup> Have you not rejected us, O God?
You do not go out, O God, with our armies.
<sup>11</sup> O grant us help against the foe,
for human help is worthless.
<sup>12</sup> With God we shall do valiantly;
it is he who will tread down our foes.

Numbers 26:38-51 (NRSV)

forty-five thousand four hundred.

<sup>51</sup>This was the number of the Israelites enrolled: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred thirty.

Luke 2:36-40 (NRSV)

<sup>36</sup>There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, <sup>37</sup>then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. <sup>38</sup>At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

The Return to Nazareth

<sup>39</sup>When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. <sup>40</sup>The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Psalms 61:1-3 (NRSV)

Assurance of God's Protection

To the leader: with stringed instruments. Of David.

- 1 Hear my cry, O God;
listen to my prayer.
- 2 From the end of the earth I
call to you,
when my heart is faint.
Lead me to the rock
that is higher than I;
- 3 for you are my refuge,
a strong tower against
the enemy.

Proverbs 16:16-17 (NRSV)

- <sup>16</sup> How much better to get wisdom than gold!
To get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
- <sup>17</sup> The highway of the upright avoids evil; those who guard their way
preserve their lives.

Numbers 26:52-27:11 (NRSV)

<sup>52</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>53</sup>To these the land shall be apportioned for inheritance according to the number of names. <sup>54</sup>To a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance; every tribe shall be given its inheritance according to its enrollment.

<sup>55</sup>But the land shall be apportioned by lot; according to the names of their ancestral tribes they shall inherit.

<sup>56</sup>Their inheritance shall be apportioned according to lot between the larger and the smaller.

Mushites, the clan of the Korahites. Now Kohath was the father of Amram. <sup>59</sup>The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram: Aaron, Moses, and their sister Miriam. <sup>60</sup>To Aaron were born Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered unholy fire before the LORD. <sup>62</sup>The number of those enrolled was twenty-three thousand, every male one month old and upward; for they were not enrolled among the Israelites because there was no allotment given to them among the Israelites.

Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

The Daughters of Zelophehad

27 Then the daughters of Zelophehad came forward. Zelophehad was son of Hopher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh son of Joseph, a member of the Manassite clans. The names of his daughters were: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup> They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and all the congregation, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and they said, <sup>3</sup> “Our father died in the wilderness; he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah, but died for his own sin; and he had no sons. <sup>4</sup> Why should the name of our father be taken away from his clan because he had no son? Give to us a possession among our father’s brothers.”

are right in what they are saying; you shall indeed let them possess an inheritance among their father’s brothers and pass the inheritance of their father on to them. <sup>8</sup> You shall also say to the Israelites, “If a man dies, and has no son, then you shall pass his inheritance on to his daughter. <sup>9</sup> If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. <sup>10</sup> If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers. <sup>11</sup> And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the nearest kinsman of his clan, and he shall possess it. It shall be for the Israelites a statute and ordinance, as the LORD commanded Moses.”

Luke 2:41-52 (NRSV)

The Boy Jesus in the Temple

<sup>41</sup> Now every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the festival of the Passover. <sup>42</sup> And when he was twelve years old, they went up as usual for the festival. <sup>43</sup> When the festival was ended and they started to return, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. <sup>44</sup> Assuming that he was in the group of travelers, they went a day's journey. Then they started to look for him among their relatives and friends. <sup>45</sup> When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him. <sup>46</sup> After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. <sup>48</sup> When his parents saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been searching for you in great anxiety." <sup>49</sup> He said to them, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" <sup>50</sup> But they did not understand what he said to them. <sup>51</sup> Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor.

- <sup>4</sup> Let me abide in your tent forever,
find refuge under the shelter of your wings.
Selah
- <sup>5</sup> For you, O God, have heard my vows;
you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.
- <sup>6</sup> Prolong the life of the king;
may his years endure to all generations!
- <sup>7</sup> May he be enthroned forever before God;
appoint steadfast love and faithfulness to watch over him!
- <sup>8</sup> So I will always sing praises to your name,
as I pay my vows day after day.

- <sup>18</sup> Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

Numbers 27:12-28:15 (NRSV)

Joshua Appointed Moses' Successor (Deut 31:1–8)

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Go up this mountain of the Abarim range, and see the land that I have given to the Israelites. <sup>13</sup>When you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was, <sup>14</sup>because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin when the congregation quarreled with me. You did not show my holiness before their eyes at the waters.” (These are the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.) <sup>15</sup>Moses spoke to the LORD, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint someone over the congregation <sup>17</sup>who shall go out before them and come in before them, who shall lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep without a shepherd.” <sup>18</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand upon him; <sup>19</sup>have him stand before Eleazar the priest and all the congregation, and commission him in their sight. <sup>20</sup>You shall give him some of your authority, so that all the congregation of the Israelites may obey. <sup>21</sup>But he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the decision of the Urim before the LORD; at his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the Israelites with him, the whole congregation.” <sup>22</sup>So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation; <sup>23</sup>he laid his hands on him and commissioned him—as the LORD had directed through Moses.

Daily Offerings (Ex 29:38–46)

28 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup>Command the Israelites, and say to them: My offering, the food for my offerings by fire, my pleasing odor, you shall take care to offer to me at its appointed time.<sup>3</sup> And you shall say to them, This is the offering by fire that you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs a year old without blemish, daily, as a regular offering.<sup>4</sup> One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight;<sup>5</sup> also one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with one-fourth of a hin of beaten oil.<sup>6</sup> It is a regular burnt offering, ordained at Mount Sinai for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.<sup>7</sup> Its drink offering shall be one-fourth of a hin for each lamb; in the sanctuary you shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD.<sup>8</sup> The other lamb you shall offer at twilight with a grain offering and a drink offering like the one in the morning; you shall offer it as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Sabbath Offerings

<sup>9</sup> On the sabbath day: two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two-tenths of an ephah of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering—<sup>10</sup> this is the burnt offering for every sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

<sup>11</sup> At the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;<sup>12</sup> also three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; and two-tenths of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;<sup>13</sup> and one-tenth of choice flour mixed with oil as a grain offering for every lamb—a burnt offering of pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.<sup>14</sup> Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, one-third of a hin for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. <sup>15</sup> And there shall be one male goat for a sin offering to the LORD; it shall be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Luke 3:1-14 (NRSV)

The Proclamation of John the Baptist

(Mt 3:1-12; Mk 1:1-8; Jn 1:19-28)

<sup>1</sup> In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, <sup>2</sup> during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup> He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, <sup>4</sup> as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah,
“The voice of one crying
out in the wilderness:
‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.

and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth;
<sup>6</sup> and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’”

<sup>7</sup> John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup> Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our ancestor’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. <sup>9</sup> Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

<sup>10</sup> And the crowds asked him, “What then should we do?” <sup>11</sup> In reply he said to them, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.” <sup>12</sup> Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, “Teacher, what should we do?” <sup>13</sup> He said to them,

<sup>14</sup> Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what should we do?” He said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.”

Psalm 62:1-8 (NRSV)

Song of Trust in God Alone

To the leader: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> For God alone my soul waits in silence;
from him comes my salvation.

<sup>2</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall never be shaken.

<sup>3</sup> How long will you assail a person,
will you batter your victim, all of you,
as you would a leaning wall, a tottering fence?

<sup>4</sup> Their only plan is to bring down a person of prominence.
They take pleasure in falsehood;
they bless with their mouths,

but inwardly they curse.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> For God alone my soul waits in silence,
for my hope is from him.

<sup>6</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

<sup>7</sup> On God rests my deliverance and my honor;
my mighty rock, my refuge is in God.

<sup>8</sup> Trust in him at all times, O people;
pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us.

Selah

Proverbs 16:19–20 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> It is better to be of a lowly spirit among the poor than to divide the spoil with the proud.

<sup>20</sup> Those who are attentive to a matter will prosper, and happy are those who trust in the LORD.

Numbers 28:16-29:11 (NRSV)

Offerings at Passover

(Lev 23:5–14)

<sup>16</sup> On the fourteenth day of the first month there shall be a passover offering to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> And on the fifteenth day of this month is a festival; seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten. <sup>18</sup> On the first day there shall be a holy convocation. You shall not work at your occupations.

<sup>19</sup> You shall offer an offering by fire, a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old; see that they are without blemish. <sup>20</sup> Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah shall you offer for a bull, and two-tenths for a ram; <sup>21</sup> one-tenth shall you offer for each of the seven lambs; <sup>22</sup> also one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you. <sup>23</sup> You shall offer these in addition to the burnt offering of the morning, which belongs to the regular burnt offering. <sup>24</sup> In the same way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD; it shall be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. <sup>25</sup> And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.

Offerings at the Festival of Weeks

(Lev 23:15–22)

<sup>26</sup> On the day of the first fruits, when you offer a grain offering of new grain to the LORD at your festival of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.

<sup>27</sup> You shall offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old. <sup>28</sup> Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for one ram, <sup>29</sup> one-tenth for each of the seven lambs; <sup>30</sup> with one male goat, to make atonement for you. <sup>31</sup> In addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, you shall offer them and their drink offering.

They shall be without blemish.

*Offerings at the Festival of Trumpets
(Lev 23:23–25)*

29 On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. It is a day for you to blow the trumpets,<sup>2</sup> and you shall offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish.<sup>3</sup> Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of one ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,<sup>4</sup> and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;<sup>5</sup> with one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you.<sup>6</sup> These are in addition to the burnt offering of the new moon and its grain offering, and the regular burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to the ordinance for them, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

*Offerings on the Day of Atonement
(Lev 23:26–32)*

<sup>7</sup> On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation, and deny yourselves; you shall do no work.<sup>8</sup> You shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing odor: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old. They shall be without blemish.<sup>9</sup> Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,<sup>10</sup> one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;<sup>11</sup> with one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering of atonement, and the regular burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Luke 3:15-22 (NRSV)

<sup>15</sup> As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah,<sup>16</sup> John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. <sup>17</sup> His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>18</sup> So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people. <sup>19</sup> But Herod the ruler, who had been rebuked by him because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and because of all the evil things that Herod had done, <sup>20</sup> added to them all by shutting up John in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus

(Mt 3:13–17; Mk 1:9–11; Jn 1:29–34)

<sup>21</sup> Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, <sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.”

Psalm 62:9-12 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> Those of low estate are but a breath,

those of high estate are a delusion;
in the balances they go up;
they are together lighter
than a breath.

- <sup>10</sup> Put no confidence in extortion,
and set no vain hopes on robbery;
if riches increase, do not set your heart on them.
- <sup>11</sup> Once God has spoken;
twice have I heard this:
that power belongs to God,
<sup>12</sup> and steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord.
For you repay to all according to their work.

Proverbs 16:21–23 (NRSV)

- <sup>21</sup> The wise of heart is called perceptive,
and pleasant speech increases persuasiveness.
- <sup>22</sup> Wisdom is a fountain of life to one who has it,
but folly is the punishment of fools.
- <sup>23</sup> The mind of the wise makes their speech judicious,

and adds persuasiveness
to their lips.

Numbers 29:12-40 (NRSV)

Offerings at the Festival of Booths
(Lev 23:33-44)

<sup>12</sup> On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. You shall celebrate a festival to the LORD seven days. <sup>13</sup> You shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old. They shall be without blemish. <sup>14</sup> Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams, <sup>15</sup> and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs; <sup>16</sup> also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number; <sup>25</sup> also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>35</sup> On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly; you shall not work at your occupations. <sup>36</sup> You shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish, <sup>37</sup> and the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number; <sup>38</sup> also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

freewill offerings, as your burnt offerings, your grain offerings, your drink offerings, and your offerings of well-being.

<sup>40</sup> So Moses told the Israelites everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Ancestors of Jesus

(Gen 5:1–32; 11:10–26; Ruth 4:18–22; 1 Chr 1:1–4, 24–27, 34; 2:1–15; Mt 1:2–16)

<sup>23</sup> Jesus was about thirty years old when he began his work. He was the son (as was thought) of Joseph son of Heli, <sup>24</sup> son of Matthat, son of Levi, son of Melchi, son of Jannai, son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup> son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum, son of Esli, son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup> son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech, son of Joda, <sup>27</sup> son of Joanan, son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, son of Neri, <sup>28</sup> son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er,

Comfort and Assurance in God's Presence

A Psalm of David, when he was in the Wilderness of Judah.

<sup>1</sup> O God, you are my God, I seek you,
my soul thirsts for you;
my flesh faints for you,
as in a dry and weary land where there is no
water.

<sup>2</sup> So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary,
beholding your power
and glory.

<sup>3</sup> Because your steadfast
love is better than life,
my lips will praise you.

<sup>4</sup> So I will bless you as long as I live;
I will lift up my hands
and call on your name.

<sup>5</sup> My soul is satisfied as with a rich feast,
and my mouth praises
you with joyful lips

Proverbs 16:24 (NRSV)

honeycomb,
sweetness to the soul
and health to the body.

Numbers 30:1-31:24 (NRSV)

Vows Made by Women

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses said to the heads of the tribes of the Israelites: This is what the LORD has commanded. <sup>2</sup> When a man makes a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

<sup>3</sup> When a woman makes a vow to the LORD, or binds herself by a pledge, while within her father's house, in her youth, <sup>4</sup> and her father hears of her vow or her pledge by which she has bound herself, and says nothing to her; then all her vows shall stand, and any pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand. <sup>5</sup> But if her father expresses disapproval to her at the time that he hears of it, no vow of hers, and no pledge by which she has bound herself, shall stand; and the LORD will forgive her, because her father had expressed to her his disapproval.

<sup>6</sup> If she marries, while obligated by her vows or any thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself, <sup>7</sup> and her husband hears of it and says nothing to her at the time that he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand. <sup>8</sup> But if, at the time that her husband hears of it, he expresses disapproval to her, then he shall nullify the vow by which she was obligated, or the thoughtless utterance of her lips, by which she bound herself; and the LORD will forgive her. <sup>9</sup> (But every vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall be binding upon her.) <sup>10</sup> And if she made a vow in her husband's house, or bound herself by a pledge with an oath, <sup>11</sup> and her husband heard it and said nothing to her, and did not express disapproval to her, then all her vows shall stand, and any pledge by which she bound herself shall stand.

them at the time that he hears them, then whatever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning her pledge of herself, shall not stand. Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will forgive her. <sup>13</sup> Any vow or any binding oath to deny herself, her husband may allow to stand, or her husband may nullify. <sup>14</sup> But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he validates all her vows, or all her pledges, by which she is obligated; he has validated them, because he said nothing to her at the time that he heard of them. <sup>15</sup> But if he nullifies them some time after he has heard of them, then he shall bear her guilt.

<sup>16</sup> These are the statutes that the LORD commanded Moses concerning a husband and his wife, and a father and his daughter while she is still young and in her father's house.

War against Midian

31 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Avenge the Israelites on the Midianites; afterward

you shall be gathered to your people." <sup>3</sup> So Moses said to the people, "Arm some of your number for the war, so that they may go against Midian, to execute the LORD's vengeance on Midian. <sup>4</sup> You shall send a thousand from each of the tribes of Israel to the war."

<sup>5</sup> So out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe were conscripted, twelve thousand armed for battle.

<sup>6</sup> Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for sounding the alarm in his hand. <sup>7</sup> They did battle against Midian, as the LORD had commanded Moses, and killed every male. <sup>8</sup> They killed the kings of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian, in addition to others who were slain by them; and they also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword. <sup>9</sup> The Israelites took the women of Midian and their little ones captive; and they took all their cattle, their flocks, and all their goods as booty. <sup>10</sup> All their towns where they had settled, and all their encampments, they burned,<sup>11</sup> but they took all the spoil and all the booty, both people and animals.<sup>12</sup> Then they brought the captives and the booty and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the Israelites, at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Return from the War

<sup>13</sup> Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went to meet them outside the camp.<sup>14</sup> Moses became angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had come from service in the war.<sup>15</sup> Moses said to them, "Have you allowed all the women to live?"<sup>16</sup> These women here, on Balaam's advice, made the Israelites act treacherously against the LORD in the affair of Peor, so that the plague came among the congregation of the LORD.<sup>17</sup> Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man by sleeping with him.<sup>18</sup> But all the young girls who have not known a man by sleeping with him, keep alive for yourselves.<sup>19</sup> Camp outside the camp seven days; whoever of you has killed any person or touched a corpse, purify yourselves and your captives on the third and on the seventh day.<sup>20</sup> You shall purify every garment, every article of skin, everything made of goats' hair, and every article of wood."

<sup>21</sup> Eleazar the priest said to the troops who had gone to battle: "This is the statute of the law that the LORD has commanded Moses:<sup>22</sup> gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead—<sup>23</sup> everything that can withstand fire, shall be passed through fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless it shall also be purified with the water for purification; and whatever cannot withstand fire, shall be passed through the water.<sup>24</sup> You must wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; afterward you may come into the camp."

The Temptation of Jesus
(Mt 4:1–11; Mk 1:12–13)

4 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, <sup>2</sup>where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. <sup>3</sup>The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’”

<sup>5</sup>Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world.

<sup>6</sup>And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. <sup>7</sup>If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” <sup>8</sup>Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’”

<sup>9</sup>Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, <sup>10</sup>for it is written,

‘He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,’ <sup>11</sup>and

'On their hands they will
bear you up,
so that you will not dash
your foot against a
stone.' "

<sup>12</sup> Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.' " <sup>13</sup> When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

<sup>9</sup> But those who seek to shall go down into the

<sup>10</sup> they shall be given over to the power of the

they shall be prey for

Numbers 31:25-54 (NRSV)

Disposition of Captives and Booty

<sup>25</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>26</sup> "You and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the ancestral houses
of the congregation make an inventory of the booty captured, both human and animal. <sup>27</sup> Divide the booty
into two parts, between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation. <sup>28</sup> From the share of the warriors who went out to battle, set aside as tribute for the LORD, one item out of every five hundred, whether persons, oxen, donkeys, sheep, or goats.

<sup>29</sup> Take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to the LORD. <sup>30</sup> But from the Israelites' half you shall take one out of every fifty, whether persons, oxen, donkeys, sheep, or goats—all the animals—and give them to the Levites who have charge of the tabernacle of the LORD."

<sup>32</sup> The booty remaining from the spoil that the troops had taken totaled six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep, <sup>33</sup> seventy-two thousand oxen, <sup>34</sup> sixty-one thousand donkeys, <sup>35</sup> and thirty-two thousand persons in all, women who had not known a man by sleeping with him.

<sup>36</sup> The half-share, the portion of those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep and goats, <sup>37</sup> and the LORD's tribute of sheep and goats was six hundred seventy-five.

<sup>38</sup> The oxen were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two.

<sup>48</sup> Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, approached Moses, <sup>49</sup> and said to Moses, “Your servants have counted the warriors who are under our command, and not one of us is missing. <sup>50</sup> And we have brought the LORD’s offering, what each of us found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and pendants, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.” <sup>51</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all in the form of crafted articles. <sup>52</sup> And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels. <sup>53</sup> (The troops had all taken plunder for themselves.) <sup>54</sup> So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

The Beginning of the Galilean Ministry (Mt 4:17; Mk 1:14–15)

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. <sup>15</sup> He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

The Rejection of Jesus at Nazareth (Mt 13:54–58; Mk 6:1–6)

<sup>16</sup> When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, <sup>17</sup> and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

<sup>18</sup> “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives

and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

20 And he rolled up the scroll,
gave it back to the attendant,
and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. 21 Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." 22 All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" 23 He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb,
'Doctor, cure yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.'" 24 And he said,
"Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet's
hometown. 25 But the truth is,
there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah,
when the heaven was shut up
three years and six months,
and there was a severe famine
over all the land; 26 yet Elijah
was sent to none of them

except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon." 27 There were also many lepers in Israel
in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian." 28 When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage. 29 They got up,
drove him out of the town,
and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. 30 But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Prayer for Protection from Enemies

To the leader. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint;
preserve my life from the dread enemy.
- 2 Hide me from the secret
plots of the wicked,
from the scheming of
evildoers,
- 3 who whet their tongues
like swords,
who aim bitter words
like arrows,
- 4 shooting from ambush at
the blameless;

they shoot suddenly and
without fear.

<sup>5</sup> They hold fast to their evil
purpose;
they talk of laying snares
secretly,
thinking, “Who can see us?”

<sup>6</sup> Who can search out our crimes?

We have thought out a cunningly conceived
plot.”

For the human heart and mind are deep.

<sup>7</sup> But God will shoot his arrow at them;
they will be wounded
suddenly.

<sup>8</sup> Because of their tongue he will bring them to ruin;
all who see them will shake with horror.

<sup>9</sup> Then everyone will fear;
they will tell what God
has brought about,
and ponder what he has
done.

Numbers 32:1-42 (NRSV)

*Conquest and Division of Transjordan
(Deut 3:12–22)*

<sup>1</sup> Now the Reubenites and the Gadites owned a very great number of cattle. When they saw that the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead was a good place for cattle, <sup>2</sup> the Gadites and the Reubenites came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, <sup>3</sup> “Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon—<sup>4</sup> the land that the LORD subdued before the congregation of Israel—is a land for cattle; and your servants have cattle.” <sup>5</sup> They continued, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not make us cross the Jordan.”

<sup>6</sup> But Moses said to the Gadites and to the Reubenites, “Shall your brothers go to war while you sit here? <sup>7</sup> Why will you discourage the hearts of the Israelites from going over into the land that the LORD has given them? <sup>8</sup> Your fathers did this, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. <sup>9</sup> When they went up to the Wadi Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the hearts of the Israelites from going into the land that the LORD had given them. <sup>10</sup> The LORD’s anger was kindled on that day and he swore, saying, <sup>11</sup> ‘Surely none of the people who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not unreservedly followed me— <sup>12</sup> none except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they have unreservedly followed the LORD.’ <sup>13</sup> And the LORD’s anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD had disappeared. <sup>14</sup> And now you, a brood of sinners, have risen in place of your fathers, to increase the LORD’s fierce anger against Israel! <sup>15</sup> If you turn away from following him, he will again abandon them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people.”

<sup>16</sup> Then they came up to him and said, “We will build sheepfolds here for our flocks, and towns for our little ones, <sup>17</sup> but we will take up arms as a vanguard before the Israelites, until we have brought them to their place. Meanwhile our little ones will stay in the fortified towns because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup> We will not return to our homes until all the Israelites have obtained their inheritance. <sup>19</sup> We will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan to the east.”

<sup>25</sup> Then the Gadites and the Reubenites said to Moses, “Your servants will do as my lord commands.<sup>26</sup> Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock shall remain there in the towns of Gilead;<sup>27</sup> but your servants will cross over, everyone armed for war, to do battle for the LORD, just as my lord orders.”

Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the ancestral houses of the Israelite tribes.<sup>29</sup> And Moses said to them, “If the Gadites and the Reubenites, everyone armed for battle before the LORD, will cross over the Jordan with you and the land shall be subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession;<sup>30</sup> but if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.”<sup>31</sup> The Gadites and the Reubenites answered, “As the LORD has spoken to your servants, so we will do.<sup>32</sup> We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan.”

<sup>33</sup> Moses gave to them—to the Gadites and to the Reubenites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph—the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites and the kingdom of King Og of Bashan, the land and its towns, with the territories of the surrounding towns. <sup>34</sup> And the Gadites rebuilt Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, <sup>35</sup> Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup> Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep. <sup>37</sup> And the Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, <sup>38</sup> Nebo, and Baalmeon (some names being changed), and Sibmah; and they gave names to the towns that they rebuilt. <sup>39</sup> The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were there; <sup>40</sup> so Moses gave Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and he settled there. <sup>41</sup> Jair son of Manasseh went and captured their villages, and renamed them Havvoth-jair. <sup>42</sup> And Nobah went and captured Kenath and its villages, and renamed it Nobah after himself.

The Man with an Unclean Spirit

(Mk 1:21-28)

<sup>31</sup> He went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and was teaching them on the sabbath. <sup>32</sup> They were astounded at his teaching, because he spoke with authority. <sup>33</sup> In the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup> "Let us alone! What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." <sup>35</sup> But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down before them, he came out of him without having done him any harm. <sup>36</sup> They were all amazed and kept saying to one another, "What kind of utterance is this? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and out they come!" <sup>37</sup> And a report about him began to reach every place in the region.

Healings at Simon's House

(Mt 8:14-17; Mk 1:29-34)

<sup>38</sup> After leaving the synagogue he entered Simon's house. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked him about her. <sup>39</sup> Then he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. Immediately she got up and began to serve them.

<sup>40</sup> As the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various kinds of diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on each of them and cured them.

<sup>41</sup> Demons also came out of many, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

Jesus Preaches in the Synagogues

(Mt 4:23–25; Mk 1:35–39)

<sup>42</sup> At daybreak he departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowds were looking for him; and when they reached him, they wanted to prevent him from leaving them. <sup>43</sup> But he said to them, “I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for I was sent for this purpose.” <sup>44</sup> So he continued proclaiming the message in the synagogues of Judea.

The Stages of Israel's Journey from Egypt

<sup>1</sup> These are the stages by which the Israelites went out of the land of Egypt in military formation under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.<sup>2</sup> Moses wrote down their starting points, stage by stage, by command of the LORD; and these are their stages according to their starting places.<sup>3</sup> They set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the passover the Israelites went out boldly in the sight of all the Egyptians,<sup>4</sup> while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck down among them. The LORD executed judgments even against their gods.

came to Elim; at Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.<sup>10</sup> They set out from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.<sup>11</sup> They set out from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin.<sup>12</sup> They set out from the wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah.<sup>13</sup> They set out from Dophkah and camped at Alush.<sup>14</sup> They set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.<sup>15</sup> They set out from Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Sinai.<sup>16</sup> They set out from the wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth-hattaavah.<sup>17</sup> They set out from Kibroth-hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.<sup>18</sup> They set out from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.<sup>19</sup> They set out from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-perez.<sup>20</sup> They set out from Rimmon-perez and camped at Libnah.<sup>21</sup> They set out from Libnah and camped at Rissah.<sup>22</sup> They set out from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.<sup>23</sup> They set out from Kehelathah and camped

at Mount Shepher. <sup>24</sup> They set out from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah. <sup>25</sup> They set out from Haradah and camped at Makheloth. <sup>26</sup> They set out from Makheloth and camped at Tahath. <sup>27</sup> They set out from Tahath and camped at Terah. <sup>28</sup> They set out from Terah and camped at Mithkah. <sup>29</sup> They set out from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah. <sup>30</sup> They set out from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth. <sup>31</sup> They set out from Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan. <sup>32</sup> They set out from Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-haggidgad. <sup>33</sup> They set out from Hor-haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah. <sup>34</sup> They set out from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah. <sup>35</sup> They set out from Abronah and camped at Ezion-geber. <sup>36</sup> They set out from Ezion-geber and camped in the wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh). <sup>37</sup> They set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom.

<sup>38</sup> Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor at the command of the LORD and died there in the fortieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month. <sup>39</sup> Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

(Mt 4:18–22; Mk 1:16–20)

<sup>1</sup> Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, <sup>2</sup> he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup> He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. <sup>4</sup> When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” <sup>5</sup> Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” <sup>6</sup> When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break.

<sup>7</sup> So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup> But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

<sup>9</sup> For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken;

<sup>10</sup> and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people."

Thanksgiving for Earth's Bounty

To the leader. A Psalm of David. A Song.

- <sup>1</sup> Praise is due to you,
O God, in Zion;
and to you shall vows be performed,
<sup>2</sup> O you who answer
prayer!
To you all flesh shall come.
<sup>3</sup> When deeds of iniquity overwhelm us,

you forgive our transgressions.

- <sup>4</sup> Happy are those whom you choose and bring
near
to live in your courts.
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your
house,
your holy temple.

Numbers 33:40-34:29 (NRSV)

<sup>40</sup>The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the Israelites.

Directions for the Conquest of Canaan

<sup>50</sup>In the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>51</sup>Speak to the Israelites, and say to them: When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>52</sup>you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their figured stones, destroy all their cast images, and demolish all their high places. <sup>53</sup>You shall take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given you the land to possess. <sup>54</sup>You shall apportion the land by lot according to your clans; to a large one you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small one you shall give a small inheritance; the inheritance shall belong to the person on whom the lot falls; according to your ancestral tribes you shall inherit. <sup>55</sup>But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those whom you let remain shall be as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides; they shall trouble you in the land where you are settling. <sup>56</sup> And I will do to you as I thought to do to them.

The Boundaries of the Land

34 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>2</sup> Command the Israelites, and say to them: When you enter the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan, defined by its boundaries), <sup>3</sup> your south sector shall extend from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom. Your southern boundary shall begin from the end of the Dead Sea on the east; <sup>4</sup> your boundary shall turn south of the ascent of Akkrabbim, and cross to Zin, and its outer limit shall be south of Kadesh-barnea; then it shall go on to Hazar-addar, and cross to Azmon; <sup>5</sup> the boundary shall turn from Azmon to the Wadi of Egypt, and its termination shall be at the Sea.

<sup>6</sup> For the western boundary, you shall have the Great Sea and its coast; this shall be your western boundary.

<sup>10</sup> You shall mark out your eastern boundary from Hazar-enan to Shepham; <sup>11</sup> and the boundary shall continue down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the boundary shall go down, and reach the eastern slope of the sea of Chinnereth; <sup>12</sup> and the boundary shall go down to the Jordan, and its end shall be at the Dead Sea. This shall be your land with its boundaries all around.

<sup>13</sup> Moses commanded the Israelites, saying: This is the land that you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe; <sup>14</sup> for the tribe of the Reubenites by their ancestral houses and the tribe of the Gadites by their ancestral houses have taken their inheritance, and also the half-tribe of Manasseh; <sup>15</sup> the two tribes and the half-tribe have taken their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.

Tribal Leaders

Luke 5:12-16 (NRSV)

Jesus Cleanses a Leper
(Mt 8:1-4; Mk 1:40-45)

<sup>12</sup> Once, when he was in one of the cities, there was a man covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you choose, you can make me clean." <sup>13</sup> Then Jesus stretched out his hand, touched him, and said, "I do choose. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy left him. <sup>14</sup> And he ordered him to tell no one. "Go," he said, "and show yourself to the priest, and, as Moses commanded, make an offering for your cleansing, for a testimony to them." <sup>15</sup> But now more than ever the word about Jesus spread abroad;

many crowds would gather to hear him and to be cured of their diseases. <sup>16</sup> But he would withdraw to deserted places and pray.

Psalms 65:5-13 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> By awesome deeds you answer us with deliverance, O God of our salvation;
you are the hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the farthest seas.

<sup>6</sup> By your strength you established the mountains;
you are girded with might.
<sup>7</sup> You silence the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
the tumult of the peoples.

<sup>8</sup> Those who live at earth's farthest bounds are awed by your signs;
you make the gateways of the morning and the evening shout for joy.

<sup>9</sup> You visit the earth and water it,
you greatly enrich it;

the river of God is full of water;
you provide the people with grain,
for so you have prepared it.

<sup>10</sup> You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges,
softening it with showers,
and blessing its growth.
<sup>11</sup> You crown the year with your bounty;
your wagon tracks overflow with richness.
<sup>12</sup> The pastures of the wilderness overflow,
the hills gird themselves with joy, <sup>13</sup> the meadows clothe themselves with flocks,
the valleys deck themselves with grain,
they shout and sing together for joy.

Numbers 35:1-34 (NRSV)

Cities for the Levites

<sup>2</sup> Command the Israelites to give, from the inheritance that they possess, towns for the Levites to live in; you shall also give to the Levites pasture lands surrounding the towns.

<sup>6</sup> The towns that you give to the Levites shall include the six cities of refuge, where you shall permit a slayer to flee, and in addition to them you shall give forty-two towns.

<sup>7</sup> The towns that you give to the Levites shall total forty-eight, with their pasture lands.

<sup>8</sup> And as for the towns that you shall give from the possession of the Israelites, from the larger tribes you shall take many, and from the smaller tribes you shall take few; each, in proportion to the inheritance that it obtains, shall give of its towns to the Levites.

Cities of Refuge

(Deut 19:1–13; Josh 20:1–9)

<sup>9</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: <sup>10</sup> Speak to the Israelites, and say to them:

When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

<sup>11</sup> then you shall select cities to be cities of refuge for you, so that a slayer who kills a person without intent may flee there.

<sup>12</sup> The cities shall be for you a refuge from the avenger, so that the slayer may not die until there is a trial before the congregation.

<sup>13</sup> The cities that you designate shall be six cities of refuge for you: <sup>14</sup> you shall designate three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan, to be cities of refuge. <sup>15</sup> These six cities shall serve as refuge for the Israelites, for the resident or transient alien among them, so that anyone who kills a person without intent may flee there.

*Concerning Murder
and Blood Revenge*

<sup>16</sup> But anyone who strikes another with an iron object, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death. <sup>17</sup> Or anyone who strikes another with a stone in hand that could cause death, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death. <sup>18</sup> Or anyone who strikes another with a weapon of wood in hand that could cause death, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death. <sup>19</sup> The avenger of blood is the one who shall put the murderer to death; when they meet, the avenger of blood shall execute the sentence.

<sup>20</sup> Likewise, if someone pushes another from hatred, or hurls something at another, lying in wait, and death ensues, <sup>21</sup> or in enmity strikes another with the hand, and death ensues, then the one who struck the blow shall be put to death; that person is a murderer; the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when they meet.

<sup>22</sup> But if someone pushes another suddenly without enmity, or hurls any object without lying in wait, <sup>23</sup> or, while handling any stone that could cause death, unintentionally drops it on another and death ensues, though they were not enemies, and no harm was intended, <sup>24</sup> then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood, in accordance with these ordinances; <sup>25</sup> and the congregation shall rescue the slayer from the avenger of blood. Then the congregation shall send the slayer back to the original city of refuge. The slayer shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

<sup>30</sup> If anyone kills another, the murderer shall be put to death on the evidence of witnesses; but no one shall be put to death on the testimony of a single witness.

<sup>31</sup> Moreover you shall accept no ransom for the life of a murderer who is subject to the death penalty; a murderer must be put to death. <sup>32</sup> Nor shall you accept ransom for one who has fled to a city of refuge, enabling the fugitive to return to live in the land before the death of the high priest. <sup>33</sup> You shall not pollute the land in which you live; for blood pollutes the land, and no expiation can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of the one who shed it. <sup>34</sup> You shall not defile the land in which you live, in which I also dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the Israelites.

Luke 5:17-28 (NRSV)

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

(Mt 9:2-8; Mk 2:1-12)

<sup>17</sup> One day, while he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting near by (they had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem); and the power of the Lord was with him to heal. <sup>18</sup> Just then some men came, carrying a paralyzed man on a bed. They were trying to bring him in and lay him before Jesus; <sup>19</sup> but finding no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the middle of the crowd in front of Jesus. <sup>20</sup> When he saw their faith, he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven you." <sup>21</sup> Then the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, “Who is this who is speaking blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”<sup>22</sup> When Jesus perceived their questionings, he answered them, “Why do you raise such questions in your hearts?<sup>23</sup> Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Stand up and walk’?<sup>24</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the one who was paralyzed—“I say to you, stand up and take your bed and go to your home.”<sup>25</sup> Immediately he stood up before them, took what he had been lying on, and went to his home, glorifying God.<sup>26</sup> Amazement seized all of them, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, “We have seen strange things today.”

Jesus Calls Levi

(Mt 9:9–13; Mk 2:13–17)

<sup>27</sup> After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, “Follow me.”<sup>28</sup> And he got up, left everything, and followed him.

Praise for God’s Goodness to Israel

To the leader. A Song. A Psalm.

- 1 Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;
- 2 sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise.
- 3 Say to God, “How awesome are your deeds! Because of your great power, your enemies cringe before you.
- 4 All the earth worships you; they sing praises to you, sing praises to your name.” Selah
- 5 Come and see what God has done: he is awesome in his deeds among mortals.
- 6 He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot.
- 7 There we rejoiced in him, who rules by his might forever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations—

let the rebellious not exalt themselves.

Marriage of Female Heirs

<sup>1</sup> The heads of the ancestral houses of the clans of the descendants of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, of the Josephite clans, came forward and spoke in the presence of Moses and the leaders, the heads of the ancestral houses of the Israelites; <sup>2</sup> they said, “The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance

by lot to the Israelites; and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters. <sup>3</sup> But if they are married into another Israelite tribe, then their inheritance
will be taken from the inheritance of our ancestors
and added to the inheritance
of the tribe into which they marry; so it will be taken away from the allotted portion of our inheritance. <sup>4</sup> And when the jubilee of the Israelites comes, then their inheritance
will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they have married; and their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our ancestral tribe.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Moses commanded the Israelites according to the word of the LORD, saying, “The descendants of the tribe of Joseph are right in what they are saying. <sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD commands concerning
the daughters of Zelophehad, ‘Let them marry whom they think best; only it must be into a clan of their father's tribe that they are married,<sup>7</sup> so that no inheritance of the Israelites shall be transferred from one tribe to another; for all Israelites shall retain the inheritance of their ancestral tribes.<sup>8</sup> Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the Israelites shall marry one from the clan of her father's tribe, so that all Israelites may continue to possess their ancestral inheritance.<sup>9</sup> No inheritance shall be transferred from one tribe to another; for each of the tribes of the Israelites shall retain its own inheritance.' "

<sup>10</sup>The daughters of Zelophehad did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>11</sup>Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, married sons of their father's brothers.<sup>12</sup> They were married into the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father's clan.

<sup>13</sup>These are the commandments and the ordinances that the LORD commanded through Moses to the Israelites in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Luke 5:29-39 (NRSV)

<sup>29</sup>Then Levi gave a great banquet for him in his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others sitting at the table with them.

<sup>30</sup>The Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>31</sup>Jesus answered, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick;<sup>32</sup> I have come to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance."

The Question about Fasting

(Mt 9:14–17; Mk 2:18–22)

<sup>33</sup>Then they said to him, "John's disciples, like the disciples of the Pharisees, frequently fast and pray, but your disciples eat and drink.'"

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to them, "You cannot make wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you?<sup>35</sup> The days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.”<sup>36</sup> He also told them a parable: “No one tears a piece from a new garment and sews it on an old garment; otherwise the new will be torn, and the piece from the new will not match the old.”<sup>37</sup> And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the new wine will burst the skins and will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.<sup>38</sup> But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins.<sup>39</sup> And no one after drinking old wine desires new wine, but says, ‘The old is good.’ ”

Psalms 66:8-20 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> Bless our God, O peoples, let the sound of his praise be heard, <sup>9</sup> who has kept us among the living,
and has not let our feet
slip.
<sup>10</sup> For you, O God, have tested us;
you have tried us as
silver is tried.
<sup>11</sup> You brought us into the
net;
you laid burdens on our backs;

<sup>12</sup> you let people ride over
our heads;
we went through fire
and through water;
yet you have brought us
out to a spacious place.
<sup>13</sup> I will come into your house
with burnt offerings;
I will pay you my vows,
<sup>14</sup> those that my lips uttered
and my mouth promised
when I was in trouble.
<sup>15</sup> I will offer to you burnt offerings of fatlings,
with the smoke of the sacrifice of rams;
I will make an offering of bulls and goats.

Selah

<sup>16</sup> Come and hear, all you who fear God,
and I will tell what he has done for me.
<sup>17</sup> I cried aloud to him,
and he was extolled with my tongue.
<sup>18</sup> If I had cherished iniquity
in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened.
<sup>19</sup> But truly God has listened;
he has given heed to the words of my prayer.
<sup>20</sup> Blessed be God,

because he has not rejected my prayer
or removed his steadfast

Deuteronomy 1:1–46 (NRSV)

Events at Horeb Recalled

<sup>1</sup> These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel
beyond the Jordan—in the wilderness, on the plain opposite Suph, between Paran
and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Di-zahab. <sup>2</sup> (By the way of Mount Seir it takes eleven days to reach Kadesh-barnea
from Horeb.) <sup>3</sup> In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the Israelites just as the LORD had commanded him to speak to them. <sup>4</sup> This was after he had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei. <sup>5</sup> Beyond the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to expound this law

as follows:

<sup>6</sup> The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, “You have stayed long enough at this mountain. <sup>7</sup> Resume your journey, and go into the hill country of the Amorites as well as into the neighboring regions—the Arabah, the hill country, the Shephelah, the Negeb, and the seacoast—the land of the Canaanites and the Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.
<sup>8</sup> See, I have set the land before you; go in and take possession of the land that I swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them.”

Appointment of Tribal Leaders
(Ex 18:13–27)

<sup>9</sup> At that time I said to you, “I am unable by myself to bear you.” <sup>10</sup> The LORD your God has multiplied you, so that today you are as numerous as the stars of heaven. <sup>11</sup> May the LORD, the God of your ancestors, increase you a thousand times more and bless you, as he has promised you! <sup>12</sup> But how can I bear the heavy burden of your disputes all by myself? <sup>13</sup> Choose for each of your tribes individuals who are wise, discerning, and reputable to be your leaders.” <sup>14</sup> You answered me, “The plan you have proposed is a good one.” <sup>15</sup> So I took the leaders of your tribes, wise and reputable individuals, and installed them as leaders over you, commanders of thousands, commanders of hundreds, commanders of fifties, commanders of tens, and officials, throughout your tribes. <sup>16</sup> I charged your judges at that time: “Give the members of your community a fair hearing, and judge rightly between one person and another, whether citizen or resident alien. <sup>17</sup> You must not be partial in judging: hear out the small and the great alike; you shall not be intimidated by anyone, for the judgment is God’s. Any case that is too hard for you, bring to me, and I will hear it.” <sup>18</sup> So I charged you at that time with all the things that you should do.

Israel’s Refusal to Enter the Land
(Num 13:1–33)

<sup>19</sup> Then, just as the LORD our God had ordered us, we set out from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness that you saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, until we reached Kadesh-barnea. <sup>20</sup> I said to you, “You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. <sup>21</sup> See, the LORD your God has given the land to you; go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you; do not fear or be dismayed.”

<sup>22</sup> All of you came to me and said, “Let us send men ahead of us to explore the land for us and bring back a report to us regarding the route by which we should go up and the cities we will come to.”<sup>23</sup> The plan seemed good to me, and I selected twelve of you, one from each tribe.

<sup>24</sup> They set out and went up into the hill country, and when they reached the Valley of Eshcol they spied it out<sup>25</sup> and gathered some of the land’s produce, which they brought down to us. They brought back a report to us, and said, “It is a good land that the LORD our God is giving us.”

<sup>26</sup> But you were unwilling to go up. You rebelled against the command of the LORD your God; <sup>27</sup> you grumbled in your tents and said, “It is because the LORD hates us that he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to hand us over to the Amorites to destroy us.

<sup>28</sup> Where are we headed? Our kindred have made our hearts melt by reporting, ‘The people are stronger and taller than we; the cities are large and fortified up to heaven! We actually saw there the offspring of the Anakim!’ ” <sup>29</sup> I said to you, “Have no dread or fear of them.” <sup>30</sup> The LORD your God, who goes before you, is the one who will fight for you, just as he did for you in Egypt before your very eyes,<sup>31</sup> and in the wilderness, where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, just as one carries a child, all the way that you traveled until you reached this place.<sup>32</sup> But in spite of this, you have no trust in the LORD your God,<sup>33</sup> who goes before you on the way to seek out a place for you to camp, in fire by night, and in the cloud by day, to show you the route you should take.”

*The Penalty for Israel’s Rebellion
(Num 14:20–45)*

<sup>34</sup> When the LORD heard your words, he was wrathful and swore:<sup>35</sup> “Not one of these—not one of this evil generation—shall see the good land that I swore to give to your ancestors,<sup>36</sup> except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He shall see it, and to him and to his descendants I will give the land on which he set foot, because of his complete fidelity to the LORD.”<sup>37</sup> Even with me the LORD was angry on your account, saying, “You also shall not enter there.

<sup>38</sup> Joshua son of Nun, your assistant, shall enter there; encourage him, for he is the one who will secure Israel's possession of it. <sup>39</sup> And as for your little ones, who you thought would become booty, your children, who today do not yet know right from wrong, they shall enter there; to them I will give it, and they shall take possession of it. <sup>40</sup> But as for you, journey back into the wilderness, in the direction of the Red Sea."

<sup>41</sup> You answered me, "We have sinned against the LORD! We are ready to go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us." So all of you strapped on your battle gear, and thought it easy to go up into the hill country. <sup>42</sup> The LORD said to me, "Say to them, 'Do not go up and do not fight, for I am not in the midst of you; otherwise you will be defeated by your enemies.' "

<sup>43</sup> Although I told you, you would not listen. You rebelled against the command of the LORD and presumptuously went up into the hill country.

<sup>44</sup> The Amorites who lived in that hill country then came out against you and chased you as bees do. They beat you down in Seir as far as Hormah. <sup>45</sup> When you returned and wept before the LORD, the LORD would neither heed your voice nor pay you any attention.

about the Sabbath

(Mt 12:1-8; Mk 2:23-28)

<sup>2</sup> But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup> He entered the house of God and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and gave some to his companions?" <sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, “The Son of Man is lord of the sabbath.”

*The Man with
a Withered Hand*
(Mt 12:9–14; Mk 3:1–6)

<sup>6</sup> On another sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there whose right hand was withered. <sup>7</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees watched him to see whether he would cure on the sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against him. <sup>8</sup> Even though he knew what they were thinking, he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Come and stand here.” He got up and stood there. <sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you, is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to destroy it?” <sup>10</sup> After looking around at all of them, he said to him, “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was restored. <sup>11</sup> But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Deuteronomy 2:1–37 (NRSV)

we [the Israelites] journeyed back into the wilderness, in the direction of the Red Sea, as the LORD had told me and skirted Mount Seir for many days. <sup>2</sup> Then the LORD said to me: <sup>3</sup> “You have been skirting this hill country long enough. Head north, <sup>4</sup> and charge the people as follows: You are about to pass through the territory of your kindred, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so, be very careful <sup>5</sup> not to engage in battle with them, for I will not give you even so much as a foot’s length of their land, since I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession. <sup>6</sup> You shall purchase food from them for money, so that you may eat; and you shall also buy water from them for money, so that you may drink. <sup>7</sup> Surely the LORD your God has blessed you in all your undertakings; he knows your going through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.” <sup>8</sup> So we passed by our kin, the descendants of Esau who live in Seir, leaving behind the route of the Arabah, and leaving behind Elath and Ezion-geber.

When we had headed out along the route of the wilderness of Moab, <sup>9</sup> the LORD said to me: “Do not harass Moab or engage them in battle, for I will not give you any of its land as a possession, since I have given Ar as a possession to the descendants of Lot.” <sup>10</sup> (The Emim—a large and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim—had formerly inhabited it. <sup>11</sup> Like the Anakim, they are usually reckoned as Rephaim, though the Moabites call them Emim. <sup>12</sup> Moreover, the Horim had formerly inhabited Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them, destroying them and settling in their place, as Israel has done in the land that the LORD gave them as a possession.) <sup>13</sup> “Now then, proceed to cross over the Wadi Zered.”

So we crossed over the Wadi Zered. <sup>14</sup> And the length of time we had traveled from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the Wadi Zered was thirty-eight years, until the entire generation of warriors had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn concerning them. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, the LORD’s own hand was against them, to root them out from the camp, until all had perished.

<sup>16</sup> Just as soon as all the warriors had died off from among the people, <sup>17</sup> the LORD spoke to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> “Today you are going to cross the boundary of Moab at Ar.

<sup>19</sup> When you approach the frontier of the Ammonites, do not harass them or engage them in battle, for I will not give the land of the Ammonites to you as a possession, because I have given it to the descendants of Lot.” <sup>20</sup> (It also is usually reckoned as a land of Rephaim. Rephaim formerly inhabited it, though the Ammonites call them Zamzummim, <sup>21</sup> a strong and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim. But the LORD destroyed them from before the Ammonites so that they could dispossess them and settle in their place. <sup>22</sup> He did the same for the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, by destroying the Horim before them so that they could dispossess them and settle in their place even to this day.

<sup>24</sup> “Proceed on your journey and cross the Wadi Arnon. See, I have handed over to you King Sihon the Amorite of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to take possession by engaging him in battle. <sup>25</sup> This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples everywhere under heaven; when they hear report of you, they will tremble and be in anguish because of you.”

Defeat of King Sihon
(Num 21:21–32)

<sup>26</sup> So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to King Sihon of Heshbon with the following terms of peace: <sup>27</sup> “If you let me pass through your land, I will travel only along the road; I will turn aside neither to the right nor to the left. <sup>28</sup> You shall sell me food for money, so that I may eat, and supply me water for money, so that I may drink. Only allow me to pass through on foot— <sup>29</sup> just as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir have done for me and likewise the Moabites who live in Ar—until I cross the Jordan into the land that the LORD our God is giving us.”

<sup>30</sup> But King Sihon of Heshbon was not willing to let us pass through, for the LORD your God had hardened his spirit and made his heart defiant in order to hand him over to you, as he has now done.

<sup>31</sup> The LORD said to me, “See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin now to take possession of his land.” <sup>32</sup> So when Sihon came out against us, he and all his people for battle at Jahaz, <sup>33</sup> the LORD our God gave him over to us; and we struck him down, along with his offspring and all his people. <sup>34</sup> At that time we captured all his towns, and in each town we utterly destroyed men, women, and children. We left not a single survivor. <sup>35</sup> Only the livestock we kept as spoil for ourselves, as well as the plunder of the towns that we had captured. <sup>36</sup> From Aroer on the edge of the Wadi Arnon (including the town that is in the wadi itself) as far as Gilead, there was no citadel too high for us. The LORD our God gave everything to us. <sup>37</sup> You did not encroach, however, on the land of the Ammonites, avoiding the whole upper region of the Wadi Jabbok as well as the towns of the hill country, just as the LORD our God had charged.

Deuteronomy 3:1–29 (NRSV)

Defeat of King Og
(Num 21:33–35)

When we headed up the road to Bashan, King Og of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, for battle at Edrei. <sup>2</sup> The LORD said to me, “Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you, along with his people and his land. Do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.” <sup>3</sup> So the LORD our God also handed over to us King Og of Bashan and all his people. We struck him down until not a single survivor was left. <sup>4</sup> At that time we captured all his towns; there was no citadel that we did not take from them—sixty towns, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>5</sup> All these were fortress towns with high walls, double gates, and bars, besides a great many villages. <sup>6</sup> And we utterly destroyed them, as we had done to King Sihon of Heshbon, in each city utterly destroying men, women, and children. <sup>7</sup> But all the livestock and the plunder of the towns we kept as spoil for ourselves.

was left of the remnant of the Rephaim. In fact his bed, an iron bed, can still be seen in Rabbah of the Ammonites. By the common cubit it is nine cubits long and four cubits wide.) <sup>12</sup> As for the land that we took possession of at that time, I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites the territory north of Aroer, that is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, as well as half the hill country of Gilead with its towns, <sup>13</sup> and I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, Og's kingdom. (The whole region of Argob: all that portion of Bashan used to be called a land of Rephaim; <sup>14</sup> Jair the Manassite acquired the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and he named them—that is, Bashan—after himself, Havvoth-jair, as it is to this day.) <sup>15</sup> To Machir I gave Gilead. <sup>16</sup> And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead as far as the Wadi Arnon, with the middle of the wadi as a boundary, and up to the Jabbok, the wadi being boundary of the Ammonites;

<sup>17</sup> the Arabah also, with the Jordan and its banks, from Chinnereth down to the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea,
with the lower slopes of Pisgah on the east.

<sup>18</sup> At that time, I charged you as follows: “Although the LORD your God has given you this land to occupy, all your troops shall cross over armed as the vanguard of your Israelite kin. <sup>19</sup> Only your wives, your children, and your livestock—I know that you have much livestock—shall stay behind in the towns that I have given to you. <sup>20</sup> When the LORD gives rest to your kindred, as to you, and they too have occupied the land that the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan, then each of you may return to the property that I have given to you.” <sup>21</sup> And I charged Joshua as well at that time, saying: “Your own eyes have seen everything that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so the LORD will do to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross.
<sup>22</sup> Do not fear them, for it is the LORD your God who fights

for you.”

*Moses Views Canaan
from Pisgah*

<sup>23</sup> At that time, too, I entreated the LORD, saying:
<sup>24</sup> “O Lord GOD, you have only begun to show your servant
your greatness and your might; what god in heaven or on earth can perform deeds
and mighty acts like yours!
<sup>25</sup> Let me cross over to see the good land beyond the Jordan,
that good hill country and the Lebanon.” <sup>26</sup> But the LORD was angry with me on your account and would not heed
me. The LORD said to me, “Enough from you! Never speak to me of this matter again! <sup>27</sup> Go up to the top of Pisgah and look around you to the west, to the north, to the south, and to the east. Look well, for you shall not cross over this Jordan. <sup>28</sup> But charge Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, because it is he who shall cross over at the head of this people and who shall secure their possession of the land that you will see.”

<sup>29</sup> So we remained in the valley opposite Beth-peor.

Blessings and Woes

(Mt 5:1-12)

<sup>20</sup> Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup> “Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> “Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. <sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> “But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

<sup>25</sup> “Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,

for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> “Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

Love for Enemies

(Mt 5:43-48)

<sup>27</sup> “But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,

<sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.

<sup>29</sup> If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.

<sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. <sup>31</sup> Do to others as you would have them do to you.

<sup>32</sup> “If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup> If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup> If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again.<sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.<sup>36</sup> Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Judging Others

(Mt 7:1–5)

<sup>37</sup> “Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven;<sup>38</sup> give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.”

Deuteronomy 4:1–20 (NRSV)

Moses Commands Obedience

So now, Israel, give heed to the statutes and ordinances that I am teaching you to observe, so that you may live to enter and occupy the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. <sup>2</sup> You must neither add anything to what I command you nor take away anything from it, but keep the commandments of the LORD your God with which I am charging you. <sup>3</sup> You have seen for yourselves what the LORD did with regard to the Baal of Peor—how the LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor, <sup>4</sup> while those of you who held fast to the LORD your God are all alive today.

<sup>5</sup> See, just as the LORD my God has charged me, I now teach you statutes and ordinances for you to observe in the land that you are about to enter and occupy. <sup>6</sup> You must observe them diligently, for this will show your wisdom and discernment to the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and discerning people!” <sup>7</sup> For what other great nation has a god so near to it as the LORD our God is whenever we call to him? <sup>8</sup> And what other great nation has statutes and ordinances as just as this entire law that I am setting before you today?

<sup>9</sup> But take care and watch yourselves closely, so as neither to forget the things that your eyes have seen nor to let them slip from your mind all the days of your life; make them known to your children and your children's children—<sup>10</sup> how you once stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, "Assemble the people for me, and I will let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me as long as they live on the earth, and may teach their children so";<sup>11</sup> you approached and stood at the foot of the mountain while the mountain was blazing up to the very heavens, shrouded in dark clouds.<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form; there was only a voice.<sup>13</sup> He declared to you his covenant, which he charged you to observe, that is, the ten commandments; and he wrote them on two stone tablets.<sup>14</sup> And the LORD charged me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances for you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy.<sup>15</sup> Since you saw no form when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire, take care and watch yourselves closely,<sup>16</sup> so that you do not act corruptly by making an idol for yourselves, in the form of any figure—the likeness of male or female,<sup>17</sup> the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air,<sup>18</sup> the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth.<sup>19</sup> And when you look up to the heavens and see the sun, the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, do not be led astray and bow down to them and serve them, things that the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples everywhere under heaven.<sup>20</sup> But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron-smelter, out of Egypt, to become a people of his very own possession, as you are now.

Luke 6:39-49 (NRSV)

<sup>39</sup> He also told them a parable: "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit?"<sup>40</sup> A disciple is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully qualified will be like the teacher. <sup>41</sup> Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye? <sup>42</sup> Or how can you say to your neighbor, 'Friend, let me take out the speck in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit
(Mt 7:15–20)

The Two Foundations
(Mt 7:21–27)

<sup>46</sup> "Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I tell you? <sup>47</sup> I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them. <sup>48</sup> That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built. <sup>49</sup> But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the river burst against it, immediately it fell, and great was the ruin of that house."

Psalm 68:7-18 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> O God, when you went out before your people, when you marched through the wilderness, Selah
<sup>8</sup> the earth quaked, the heavens poured down rain at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
<sup>9</sup> Rain in abundance, O God, you showered abroad;

you restored your heritage when it
languished;
10 your flock found a dwelling
in it;
in your goodness, O God,
you provided for the needy.
11 The Lord gives the
command;
great is the company of those who bore the tidings:
12 “The kings of the armies,
they flee, they flee!”
The women at home
divide the spoil, 13 though they stay among
the sheepfolds—
the wings of a dove
covered with silver,
its pinions with green
gold.
14 When the Almighty
scattered kings there,
snow fell on Zalmon.
15 O mighty mountain,
mountain of Bashan;
O many-peaked
mountain, mountain of Bashan!
16 Why do you look with envy, O many-peaked
mountain,

at the mount that God
desired for his abode,
where the LORD will reside forever?
17 With mighty chariotry,
twice ten thousand,
thousands upon
thousands,
the Lord came from Sinai
into the holy place.
18 You ascended the high mount,
leading captives in your train
and receiving gifts from
people,
even from those who rebel against the LORD God’s abiding there.

Proverbs 17:12–13 (NRSV)

12 Better to meet a she-bear robbed of its cubs
than to confront a fool
immersed in folly.
13 Evil will not depart from the house
of one who returns evil
for good.

Deuteronomy 4:21–49 (NRSV)

<sup>21</sup>The LORD was angry with me because of you, and he vowed that I should not cross the Jordan and that I should not enter the good land that the LORD your God is giving for your possession. <sup>22</sup>For I am going to die in this land without crossing over the Jordan, but you are going to cross over to take possession of that good land. <sup>23</sup>So be careful not to forget the covenant that the LORD your God made with you, and not to make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything that the LORD your God has forbidden you. <sup>24</sup>For the LORD your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.

<sup>25</sup>When you have had children and children's children, and become complacent in the land, if you act corruptly by making an idol in the form of anything, thus doing what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, and provoking him to anger, <sup>26</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that you will soon utterly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to occupy; you will not live long on it, but will be utterly destroyed.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD will scatter you among the peoples; only a few of you will be left among the nations where the LORD will lead you. <sup>28</sup>There you will serve other gods made by human hands, objects of wood and stone that neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

<sup>29</sup>From there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find him if you search after him with all your heart and soul. <sup>30</sup>In your distress, when all these things have happened to you in time to come, you will return to the LORD your God and heed him.

<sup>31</sup>Because the LORD your God is a merciful God, he will neither abandon you nor destroy you; he will not forget the covenant with your ancestors that he swore to them.

<sup>32</sup>For ask now about former ages, long before your own, ever since the day that

God created human beings on the earth; ask from one end of heaven to the other: has anything so great as this ever happened or has its like ever been heard of? <sup>33</sup> Has any people ever heard the voice of a god speaking out of a fire, as you have heard, and lived?

<sup>34</sup> Or has any god ever attempted to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by terrifying displays of power, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? <sup>35</sup> To you it was shown so that you would acknowledge that the LORD is God; there is no other besides him. <sup>36</sup> From heaven he made you hear his voice to discipline you. On earth he showed you his great fire, while you heard his words coming out of the fire. <sup>37</sup> And because he loved your ancestors, he chose their descendants after them. He brought you out of Egypt with his own presence, by his great power, <sup>38</sup> driving out before you nations greater and mightier than yourselves, to bring you in, giving you their land for a possession, as it is still today. <sup>39</sup> So acknowledge today and take to heart that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other. <sup>40</sup> Keep his statutes and his commandments, which I am commanding you today for your own well-being and that of your descendants after you, so that you may long remain in the land that the LORD your God is giving you for all time.

*Cities of Refuge
East of the Jordan*

<sup>41</sup> Then Moses set apart on the east side of the Jordan three cities <sup>42</sup> to which a homicide could flee, someone who unintentionally kills another person, the two not having been at enmity before; the homicide could flee to one of these cities and live: <sup>43</sup> Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland belonging to the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead belonging to the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan belonging to the Manassites.

Transition to the Second Address

<sup>44</sup> This is the law that Moses set before the Israelites. <sup>45</sup> These are the decrees and the statutes and ordinances that Moses spoke to the Israelites when they had come out of Egypt, <sup>46</sup> beyond the Jordan in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned at Heshbon, whom Moses and the Israelites defeated when they came out of Egypt. <sup>47</sup> They occupied his land and the land of King Og of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites on the eastern side of the Jordan: <sup>48</sup> from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, as far as Mount Sirion (that is, Hermon), <sup>49</sup> together with all the Arabah on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

*Jesus Heals
a Centurion's Servant
(Mt 8:5-13)*

Capernaum. <sup>2</sup> A centurion there had a slave whom he valued highly, and who was ill and close to death. <sup>3</sup> When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, asking him to come and heal his slave. <sup>4</sup> When they came to Jesus, they appealed to him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy of having you do this for him, <sup>5</sup> for he loves our people, and it is he who built our synagogue for us." <sup>6</sup> And Jesus went with them, but when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; <sup>7</sup> therefore I did not presume to come to you. But only speak the word, and let my servant be healed. <sup>8</sup> For I also am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and the slave does it." <sup>9</sup> When Jesus heard this he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, he said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith.”

<sup>10</sup> When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

Psalms 68:19-31 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up; God is our salvation.

Selah

<sup>20</sup> Our God is a God of salvation, and to God, the Lord, belongs escape from death.

<sup>21</sup> But God will shatter the heads of his enemies, the hairy crown of those who walk in their guilty ways.

<sup>22</sup> The Lord said, “I will bring them back from Bashan, I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, <sup>23</sup> so that you may bathe your feet in blood, so that the tongues of your dogs may have their share from the foe.”

the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary—

<sup>26</sup> “Bless God in the great congregation, the LORD, O you who are of Israel’s fountain!”

<sup>27</sup> There is Benjamin, the least of them, in the lead, the princes of Judah in a body, the princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup> Summon your might, O God; show your strength, O God, as you have done for us before.

<sup>29</sup> Because of your temple at Jerusalem kings bear gifts to you.

<sup>30</sup> Rebuke the wild animals that live among the reeds, the herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples. Trample under foot those who lust after tribute; scatter the peoples who delight in war.

Deuteronomy 5:1–31 (NRSV)

The Ten Commandments
(Ex 20:1–17)

Moses convened all Israel,
and said to them:

Hear, O Israel, the statutes
and ordinances that I am addressing to you today; you shall learn them and observe them diligently. <sup>2</sup> The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb. <sup>3</sup> Not with our ancestors did the LORD make this covenant, but with us,

who are all of us here alive
today. <sup>4</sup> The LORD spoke with you face to face at the mountain, out of the fire. <sup>5</sup> (At that time I was standing between the LORD and you to declare to you the words of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:

<sup>6</sup> I am the LORD your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; <sup>7</sup> you shall have no
other gods before me.

<sup>8</sup> You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

<sup>9</sup> You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and fourth generation of those who reject me, <sup>10</sup> but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>11</sup> You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

<sup>12</sup> Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.

<sup>13</sup> Six days you shall labor and do all your work. <sup>14</sup> But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you.

<sup>15</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup> Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God commanded you, so that your days may be long and that it may go well with you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Neither shall you desire your neighbor's house, or field, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Moses the Mediator of God's Will

(Ex 20:18–21)

<sup>22</sup> These words the LORD spoke with a loud voice to your whole assembly at the mountain, out of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, and he added no more. He wrote them on two stone tablets, and gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup> When you heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you approached me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders; <sup>24</sup> and you said, “Look, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the fire. Today we have seen that God may speak to someone and the person may still live. <sup>25</sup> So now why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer, we shall die. <sup>26</sup> For who is there of all flesh that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of fire, as we have, and remained alive? <sup>27</sup> Go near, you yourself, and hear all that the LORD our God will say. Then tell us everything that the LORD our God tells you, and we will listen and do it.”

<sup>28</sup> The LORD heard your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: “I have heard the words of this people, which they have spoken to you; they are right in all that they have spoken. <sup>29</sup> If only they had such a mind as this, to fear me and to keep all my commandments always, so that it might go well with them and with their children forever! <sup>30</sup> Go say to them,

‘Return to your tents.’ <sup>31</sup> But you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandments, the statutes and the ordinances, that you shall teach them, so that they may do them in the land that I am giving them to possess.”

Luke 7:11-23 (NRSV)

Jesus Raises the Widow's Son at Nain

<sup>11</sup> Soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. <sup>12</sup> As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town. <sup>13</sup> When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, “Do not weep.” <sup>14</sup> Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, “Young man, I say to you, rise!” <sup>15</sup> The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. <sup>16</sup> Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has risen among us!” and “God has looked favorably on his people!”<sup>17</sup> This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

*Messengers from John the Baptist
(Mt 11:2–19)*

<sup>18</sup> The disciples of John reported all these things to him. So John summoned two of his disciples<sup>19</sup> and sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?”<sup>20</sup> When the men had come to him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?’ ”<sup>21</sup> Jesus had just then cured many people of diseases, plagues, and evil spirits, and had given sight to many who were blind.

<sup>22</sup> And he answered them, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have good news brought to them.”<sup>23</sup> And

blested is anyone who takes no offense at me.”

<sup>16</sup> Why should fools have a price in hand
to buy wisdom, when they have no mind to learn?

June 20

Deuteronomy 5:32–6:25
(NRSV)

<sup>32</sup>You must therefore be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn to the right or to the left. <sup>33</sup>You must follow exactly the path that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live, and that it may go well with you, and that you may live long in the land that you are to possess.

The Great Commandment

6 Now this is the commandment—the statutes and the ordinances—that the LORD your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy, <sup>2</sup> so that you and your children and your children’s children may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life, and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long. <sup>3</sup> Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you.

<sup>4</sup> Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone. <sup>5</sup> You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. <sup>6</sup> Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. <sup>7</sup> Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. <sup>8</sup> Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, <sup>9</sup> and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Caution against Disobedience

<sup>10</sup> When the LORD your God has brought you into the land that he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you—a land with fine, large cities that you did not build,

<sup>11</sup> houses filled with all sorts of goods that you did not fill, hewn cisterns that you did not hew, vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant—and when you have eaten your fill, <sup>12</sup> take care that you do not forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. <sup>13</sup> The LORD your God you shall fear; him you shall serve, and by his name alone you shall swear. <sup>14</sup> Do not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who are all around you, <sup>15</sup> because the LORD your God, who is present with you, is a jealous God. The anger of the LORD your God would be kindled against you and he would destroy you from the face of the earth.

may go in and occupy the good land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give you, <sup>19</sup> thrusting out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has promised.

<sup>20</sup> When your children ask you in time to come, “What is the meaning of the decrees and the statutes and the ordinances that the LORD our God has commanded you?” <sup>21</sup> then you shall say to your children, “We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>22</sup> The LORD displayed before our eyes great and awesome signs and wonders against Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his household. <sup>23</sup> He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land that he promised on oath to our ancestors. <sup>24</sup> Then the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our lasting good, so as to keep us alive, as is now the case. <sup>25</sup> If we diligently observe this entire commandment before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, we will be in the right.”

Luke 7:24-35 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup>When John’s messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

<sup>25</sup>What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who put on fine clothing and live in luxury are in royal palaces. <sup>26</sup>What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is the one about whom it is written,

<sup>28</sup>I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.” <sup>29</sup>(And all the people who heard this, including the tax collectors, acknowledged the justice of God, because they had been baptized with John’s baptism. <sup>30</sup>But by refusing to be baptized by him, the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected God’s purpose for themselves.)

<sup>31</sup>“To what then will I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? <sup>32</sup>They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another,

‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not weep.’

<sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon’; <sup>34</sup>the Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ <sup>35</sup>Nevertheless, wisdom is vindicated by all her children.”

69:1-13 (NRSV)

Prayer for Deliverance from Persecution

To the leader: according to Lilies. Of David.

<sup>1</sup> Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my neck.
<sup>2</sup> I sink in deep mire,

where there is no
    foothold;
I have come into deep
    waters,
    and the flood sweeps
    over me.
3 I am weary with my crying;
    my throat is parched.
My eyes grow dim
    with waiting for my God.
4 More in number than the hairs of my head
    are those who hate me
    without cause;
many are those who would
    destroy me,
    my enemies who accuse
    me falsely.
What I did not steal
    must I now restore?
5 O God, you know my folly;
    the wrongs I have done
    are not hidden from
    you.
6 Do not let those who hope in you be put to shame
    because of me,
    O Lord God of hosts;
do not let those who seek
    you be dishonored
    because of me,
    O God of Israel.
7 It is for your sake that I have borne reproach,

    that shame has covered
    my face.
8 I have become a stranger
    to my kindred,
    an alien to my mother's
    children.
9 It is zeal for your house
    that has consumed me;
    the insults of those who insult you have fallen
    on me.
10 When I humbled my soul
    with fasting,
    they insulted me for doing so.
11 When I made sackcloth my clothing,
    I became a byword to
    them.
12 I am the subject of gossip
    for those who sit in the gate,
    and the drunkards make
    songs about me.
13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD.
    At an acceptable time, O
    God,
    in the abundance of your steadfast love, answer
    me.
With your faithful help

Deuteronomy 7:1–26 (NRSV)

A Chosen People

(Ex 34:10–16)

When the LORD your God brings you into the land that you are about to enter and occupy, and he clears away many nations before you—the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations mightier and more numerous than you—<sup>2</sup> and when the LORD your God gives them over to you and you defeat them, then you must utterly destroy them. Make no covenant with them and show them no mercy.<sup>3</sup> Do not intermarry with them, giving your daughters to their sons or taking their daughters for your sons,<sup>4</sup> for that would turn away your children from following me, to serve other gods. Then the anger of the LORD would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly.<sup>5</sup> But this is how you must deal with them: break down their altars, smash their pillars, hew down their sacred poles, and burn their idols with fire.<sup>6</sup> For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on earth to be his people, his treasured possession.

<sup>7</sup> It was not because you were more numerous than any other people that the LORD set his heart on you and chose you—for you were the fewest of all peoples.<sup>8</sup> It was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath that he swore to your ancestors, that the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.<sup>9</sup> Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful

God who maintains covenant loyalty with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations,<sup>10</sup> and who repays in their own person those who reject him. He does not delay but repays in their own person those who reject him.<sup>11</sup> Therefore, observe diligently the commandment—the statutes and the ordinances—that I am commanding you today.

Blessings for Obedience
(Lev 26:1–13; Deut 28:1–14)

<sup>12</sup> If you heed these ordinances, by diligently observing them, the LORD your God will maintain with you the covenant loyalty that he swore to your ancestors;<sup>13</sup> he will love you, bless you, and multiply you; he will bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock, in the land that he swore to your ancestors to give you.<sup>14</sup> You shall be the most blessed of peoples, with neither sterility nor barrenness among you or your livestock.<sup>15</sup> The LORD will turn away from you every illness; all the dread diseases of Egypt that you experienced, he will not inflict on you, but he will lay them on all who hate you.<sup>16</sup> You shall devour all the peoples that the LORD your God is giving over to you, showing them no pity; you shall not serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup> If you say to yourself, “These nations are more numerous than I; how can I dispossess them?”<sup>18</sup> do not be afraid of them. Just remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt,<sup>19</sup> the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs and wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.

<sup>20</sup> Moreover, the LORD your God will send the pestilence against them, until even the survivors and the fugitives are destroyed.<sup>21</sup> Have no dread of them, for the LORD your God, who is present with you, is a great and awesome God.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you will not be able to make a quick end of them, otherwise the wild animals would become too numerous for you. <sup>23</sup> But the LORD your God will give them over to you, and throw them into great panic, until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup> He will hand their kings over to you and you shall blot out their name from under heaven; no one will be able to stand against you, until you have destroyed them. <sup>25</sup> The images of their gods you shall burn with fire. Do not covet the silver or the gold that is on them and take it for yourself, because you could be ensnared by it; for it is abhorrent to the LORD your God. <sup>26</sup> Do not bring an abhorrent thing into your house, or you will be set apart for destruction like it. You must utterly detest and abhor it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Luke 7:36-50 (NRSV)

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

<sup>36</sup> One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table. <sup>37</sup> And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. <sup>38</sup> She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment. <sup>39</sup> Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him—that she is a sinner." <sup>40</sup> Jesus spoke up and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." "Teacher," he replied, "speak." <sup>41</sup> "A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup> When they could not pay, he canceled the debts for both of them. Now which of them will love him more?" <sup>43</sup> Simon answered, "I suppose the one for whom he canceled the greater debt." And Jesus said to him, "You have judged rightly.”<sup>44</sup> Then turning toward the woman, he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.”<sup>45</sup> You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet.<sup>46</sup> You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.<sup>47</sup> Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.”<sup>48</sup> Then he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”<sup>49</sup> But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”<sup>50</sup> And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Deuteronomy 8:1–20 (NRSV)

A Warning Not to Forget God in Prosperity

This entire commandment that I command you today you must diligently observe, so that you may live and increase, and go in and occupy the land that the LORD promised on oath to your ancestors. <sup>2</sup> Remember the long way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commandments. <sup>3</sup> He humbled you by letting you hunger, then by feeding you with manna, with which neither you nor your ancestors were acquainted, in order to make you understand that one does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> The clothes on your back did not wear out and your feet did not swell these forty years. <sup>5</sup> Know then in your heart that as a parent disciplines a child so the LORD your God disciplines you. <sup>6</sup> Therefore keep the commandments of the LORD your God, by walking in his ways and by fearing him. <sup>7</sup> For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, <sup>8</sup> a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, <sup>9</sup> a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. <sup>10</sup> You shall eat your fill and bless the LORD your God for the good land that he has given you.

by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today. <sup>12</sup> When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them, <sup>13</sup> and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, <sup>14</sup> then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, <sup>15</sup> who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, <sup>16</sup> and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good. <sup>17</sup> Do not say to yourself, “My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.” <sup>18</sup> But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today. <sup>19</sup> If you do forget the LORD your God and follow other gods to serve and worship them, I solemnly warn you today that you shall surely perish. <sup>20</sup> Like the nations that the LORD is destroying before you, so shall you perish, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Luke 8:1-3 (NRSV)

Some Women

Accompany Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Soon afterwards he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him, <sup>2</sup> as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, <sup>3</sup> and Joanna, the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their resources.

Psalm 69:19-31 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> You know the insults I receive,

and my shame and dishonor;
my foes are all known to
you.
20 Insults have broken my
heart,
so that I am in despair.
I looked for pity, but there was none;
and for comforters, but I found none.
21 They gave me poison for
food,
and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to
drink.
22 Let their table be a trap for
them,
a snare for their allies.
23 Let their eyes be darkened
so that they cannot see,
and make their loins
tremble continually.
24 Pour out your indignation
upon them,
and let your burning
anger overtake them.
25 May their camp be a desolation;
let no one live in their tents.
26 For they persecute those whom you have struck
down,

and those whom you
have wounded, they attack still more.
27 Add guilt to their guilt;
may they have no
acquittal from you.
28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living;
let them not be enrolled
among the righteous.
29 But I am lowly and in pain;
let your salvation, O God,
protect me.
30 I will praise the name of God with a song;
I will magnify him with
thanksgiving.
31 This will please the LORD
more than an ox
or a bull with horns and hoofs.

Proverbs 17:22 (NRSV)

22 A cheerful heart is a good medicine,
but a downcast spirit
dries up the bones.

Deuteronomy 9:1–10:5 (NRSV)

*The Consequences of Rebelling against God
(Ex 32:1–35)*

Hear, O Israel! You are about to cross the Jordan today, to go in and dispossess nations larger and mightier than you, great cities, fortified to the heavens,<sup>2</sup> a strong and tall people, the offspring of the Anakim, whom you know. You have heard it said of them, “Who can stand up to the Anakim?”<sup>3</sup> Know then today that the LORD your God is the one who crosses over before you as a devouring fire; he will defeat them and subdue them before you, so that you may dispossess and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has promised you.

<sup>4</sup> When the LORD your God thrusts them out before you, do not say to yourself, “It is because of my righteousness that the LORD has brought me in to occupy this land”; it is rather because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is dispossessing them before you.<sup>5</sup> It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to occupy their land; but because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God is dispossessing them before you, in order to fulfill the promise that the LORD made on oath to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

<sup>6</sup> Know, then, that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to occupy because of your righteousness; for you are a stubborn people.

<sup>7</sup> Remember and do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; you have been rebellious against the LORD from the day you came out of the land of Egypt until you came to this place.

<sup>8</sup> Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that he was ready to destroy you.<sup>9</sup> When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD made with you, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water. <sup>10</sup> And the LORD gave me the two stone tablets written with the finger of God; on them were all the words that the LORD had spoken to you at the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup> At the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant. <sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to me, "Get up, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you have brought from Egypt have acted corruptly. They have been quick to turn from the way that I commanded them; they have cast an image for themselves." <sup>13</sup> Furthermore the LORD said to me, "I have seen that this people is indeed a stubborn people. <sup>14</sup> Let me alone that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and more numerous than they."

<sup>15</sup> So I turned and went down from the mountain, while the mountain was ablaze; the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup> Then I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God, by casting for yourselves an image of a calf; you had been quick to turn from the way that the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup> So I took hold of the two tablets and flung them from my two hands, smashing them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup> Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin you had committed, provoking the LORD by doing what was evil in his sight. <sup>19</sup> For I was afraid that the anger that the LORD bore against you was so fierce that he would destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also. <sup>20</sup> The LORD was so angry with Aaron that he was ready to destroy him, but I interceded also on behalf of Aaron at that same time. <sup>21</sup> Then I took the sinful thing you had made, the calf, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it thoroughly, until it was reduced to dust; and I threw the dust of it into the stream that runs down the mountain.

<sup>22</sup> At Taberah also, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath. <sup>23</sup> And when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, “Go up and occupy the land that I have given you,” you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God, neither trusting him nor obeying him.

<sup>24</sup> You have been rebellious against the LORD as long as he has known you.

<sup>25</sup> Throughout the forty days and forty nights that I lay prostrate before the LORD when the LORD intended to destroy you, <sup>26</sup> I prayed to the LORD and said, “Lord GOD, do not destroy the people who are your very own possession, whom you redeemed in your greatness, whom you brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup> Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; pay no attention to the stubbornness of this people, their wickedness and their sin, <sup>28</sup> otherwise the land from which you have brought us might say, ‘Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land that he promised them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to let them die in the wilderness.’ <sup>29</sup> For they are the people of your very own possession, whom you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm.”

The Second Pair of Tablets
(Ex 34:1–9)

10 At that time the LORD said to me, “Carve out two tablets of stone like the former ones, and come up to me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood. <sup>2</sup> I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you smashed, and you shall put them in the ark.” <sup>3</sup> So I made an ark of acacia wood, cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hand. <sup>4</sup> Then he wrote on the tablets the same words as before, the ten commandments that the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.<sup>5</sup> So I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark that I had made; and there they are, as the LORD commanded me.

Luke 8:4-15 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Sower
(Mt 13:1-9; Mk 4:1-9)

<sup>4</sup>When a great crowd gathered and people from town after town came to him, he said in a parable:<sup>5</sup> “A sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell on the path and was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it up.<sup>6</sup> Some fell on the rock; and as it grew up, it withered for lack of moisture.<sup>7</sup> Some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew with it and choked it.<sup>8</sup> Some fell into good soil, and when it grew, it produced a hundredfold.” As he said this, he called out, “Let anyone with ears to hear listen!”

The Purpose of the Parables
(Mt 13:10-17; Mk 4:10-12)

<sup>9</sup>Then his disciples asked him what this parable meant.
<sup>10</sup>He said, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to others I speak in parables, so that ‘looking they may not perceive,

and listening they may not understand.’

The Parable of the Sower Explained

(Mt 13:18-23; Mk 4:13-20)

<sup>11</sup>“Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.
<sup>12</sup>The ones on the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.<sup>13</sup> The ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe only for a while and in a time of testing fall away.
<sup>14</sup>As for what fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear; but as they go on their way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature.<sup>15</sup> But as for that in the good soil, these are the ones who, when they hear the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance.

Psalms 69:32-36 (NRSV)

<sup>32</sup> Let the oppressed see it and be glad;
you who seek God, let your hearts revive.

<sup>33</sup> For the LORD hears the
needy,
and does not despise his own that are in bonds.

<sup>34</sup> Let heaven and earth
praise him,
the seas and everything
that moves in them.

<sup>35</sup> For God will save Zion
and rebuild the cities of Judah;
and his servants shall live
there and possess it;

<sup>36</sup> the children of his servants shall inherit it,
and those who love his name shall live in it.

Proverbs 17:23 (NRSV)

<sup>23</sup> The wicked accept a concealed bribe
to pervert the ways of
justice.

Deuteronomy 10:6-22 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> (The Israelites journeyed from Beeroth-bene-jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; his son Eleazar succeeded him as priest. <sup>7</sup> From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah,
a land with flowing streams.

<sup>8</sup> At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore Levi has no allotment or inheritance with his kindred; the LORD is his inheritance, as the LORD your God promised him.)

<sup>10</sup> I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights, as I had done the first time. And once again the LORD listened to me. The LORD was unwilling to destroy you. <sup>11</sup> The LORD said to me, "Get up, go on your journey at the head of the people, that they may go in and occupy the land that I swore to their ancestors to give them.”

The Essence of the Law

<sup>12</sup> So now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you? Only to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup> and to keep the commandments of the LORD your God and his decrees that I am commanding you today, for your own well-being.

<sup>14</sup> Although heaven and the heaven of heavens belong to the LORD your God, the earth with all that is in it, <sup>15</sup> yet the LORD set his heart in love on your ancestors alone and chose you, their descendants after them, out of all the peoples, as it is today.

<sup>16j</sup> Circumcise, then, the foreskin of your heart, and do not be stubborn any longer.

<sup>17</sup> For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe, <sup>18</sup> who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing. <sup>19</sup> You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> You shall fear the LORD your God; him alone you shall worship; to him you shall hold fast, and by his name you shall swear. <sup>21</sup> He is your praise; he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things that your own eyes have seen. <sup>22</sup> Your ancestors went down to Egypt seventy persons; and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in heaven.

A Lamp under a Jar

(Mk 4:21-25)

<sup>16</sup> “No one after lighting a lamp hides it under a jar, or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light.

how you listen; for to those who have, more will be given;
and from those who do not have, even what they seem to have will be taken away.”

The True Kindred of Jesus
(Mt 12:46–50; Mk 3:31–35)

<sup>19</sup> Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him
because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup> And he was told, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you.”

<sup>21</sup> But he said to them, “My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.”

*Prayer for Deliverance
from Enemies*
(Ps 40:13-17)

To the leader. Of David, for the memorial offering.

<sup>1</sup> Be pleased, O God, to deliver me.

O LORD, make haste to help me!

<sup>2</sup> Let those be put to shame
and confusion
who seek my life.

Let those be turned back
and brought to dishonor

who desire to hurt me.
<sup>3</sup> Let those who say, “Aha, Aha!”

turn back because of their shame.

<sup>4</sup> Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in
you.

Let those who love your salvation
say evermore, “God is great!”

<sup>5</sup> But I am poor and needy;
hasten to me, O God!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, do not delay!

Deuteronomy 11:1-32 (NRSV)

Rewards for Oedience

You shall love the LORD your God, therefore, and keep his charge, his decrees, his ordinances, and his commandments always.

<sup>2</sup> Remember today that it was not your children (who have not known or seen the discipline of the LORD your God), but it is you who must acknowledge his greatness, his mighty hand and his outstretched arm, <sup>3</sup> his signs and his deeds that he did in Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to all his land; <sup>4</sup> what he did to the Egyptian army, to their horses and chariots, how he made the water of the Red Sea flow over them as they pursued you, so that the LORD has destroyed them to this day; <sup>5</sup> what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place; <sup>6</sup> and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab son of Reuben, how in the midst of all Israel the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households, their tents, and every living being in their company; <sup>7</sup> for it is your own eyes that have seen every great deed that the LORD did.

<sup>8</sup> Keep, then, this entire commandment that I am commanding you today, so that you may have strength to go in and occupy the land that you are crossing over to occupy, <sup>9</sup> and so that you may live long in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup> For the land that you are about to enter to occupy is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you sow your seed and irrigate by foot like a vegetable garden. <sup>11</sup> But the land that you are crossing over to occupy is a land of hills and valleys, watered by rain from the sky, <sup>12</sup> a land that the LORD your God looks after. The eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

<sup>13</sup> If you will only heed his every commandment that I am commanding you today— loving the LORD your God, and serving him with all your heart and with all your soul— <sup>14</sup> then he will give the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the later rain, and you will gather in your grain, your wine, and your oil; <sup>15</sup> and he will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you will eat your fill. <sup>16</sup> Take care, or you will be seduced into turning away, serving other gods and worshiping them, <sup>17</sup> for then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you and he will shut up the heavens, so that there will be no rain and the land will yield no fruit; then you will perish quickly off the good land that the LORD is giving you.

<sup>18</sup> You shall put these words of mine in your heart and soul, and you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and fix them as an emblem on your forehead. <sup>19</sup> Teach them to your children, talking about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. <sup>20</sup> Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, <sup>21</sup> so that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give them, as long as the heavens are above the earth.

<sup>22</sup> If you will diligently observe this entire commandment that I am commanding you, loving the LORD your God, walking in all his ways, and holding fast to him, <sup>23</sup> then the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations larger and mightier than yourselves. <sup>24</sup> Every place on which you set foot shall be yours; your territory shall extend from the wilderness to the Lebanon and from the River, the river Euphrates, to the Western Sea. <sup>25</sup> No one will be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put the fear and dread of you on all the land on which you set foot, as he promised you.

<sup>26</sup> See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse: <sup>27</sup> the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today;<sup>28</sup> and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn from the way that I am commanding you today, to follow other gods that you have not known.

<sup>29</sup>When the LORD your God has brought you into the land that you are entering to occupy, you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

<sup>30</sup>As you know, they are beyond the Jordan, some distance to the west, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, beside the oak of Moreh.

<sup>31</sup>When you cross the Jordan to go in to occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and when you occupy it and live in it,<sup>32</sup> you must diligently observe all the statutes and ordinances that I am setting before you today.

Luke 8:22-25 (NRSV)

Jesus Calms a Storm
(Mt 8:23-27; Mk 4:35-41)

<sup>22</sup>One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, “Let us go across to the other side of the lake.”

So they put out,<sup>23</sup> and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A windstorm swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger.

<sup>24</sup>They went to him and woke him up, shouting, “Master, Master, we are perishing!” And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm.<sup>25</sup> He said to them, “Where is your faith?” They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, “Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?”

Protection and Help*

- <sup>1</sup> In you, O LORD, I take refuge;

- <sup>2</sup> In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me;
incline your ear to me and save me.
- <sup>3</sup> Be to me a rock of refuge,

a strong fortress, to save
me,
for you are my rock and
my fortress.

<sup>4</sup> Rescue me, O my God,
from the hand of the
wicked,
from the grasp of the unjust and cruel.

<sup>5</sup> For you, O Lord, are my hope,
my trust, O LORD, from
my youth.

Pagan Shrines to Be Destroyed

These are the statutes and ordinances that you must diligently observe in the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you to occupy all the days that you live on the earth.

donations, your votive gifts, your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and flocks.<sup>7</sup> And you shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your households together, rejoicing in all the undertakings in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>8</sup>You shall not act as we are acting here today, all of us according to our own desires,<sup>9</sup> for you have not yet come into the rest and the possession that the LORD your God is giving you.<sup>10</sup> When you cross over the Jordan and live in the land that the LORD your God is allotting to you, and when he gives you rest from your enemies all around so that you live in safety,<sup>11</sup> then you shall bring everything that I command you to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and your donations, and all your choice votive gifts that you vow to the LORD.<sup>12</sup> And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you together with your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, and the Levites who reside in your towns (since they have no allotment or inheritance with you).

A Prescribed Place of Worship

<sup>13</sup>Take care that you do not offer your burnt offerings at any place you happen to see.<sup>14</sup> But only at the place that the LORD will choose in one of your tribes—there you shall offer your burnt offerings and there you shall do everything I command you.

<sup>15</sup>Yet whenever you desire you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your towns, according to the blessing that the LORD your God has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as they would of gazelle or deer.<sup>16</sup> The blood, however, you must not eat; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.<sup>17</sup> Nor may you eat within your towns the tithe of your grain, your wine, and your oil, the firstlings of your herds and your flocks, any of your votive gifts that you vow, your freewill offerings, or your donations;

<sup>18</sup> these you shall eat in the presence of the LORD your God at the place that the LORD your God will choose, you together with your son and your daughter, your male and female slaves, and the Levites resident in your towns, rejoicing in the presence of the LORD your God in all your undertakings. <sup>19</sup> Take care that you do not neglect the Levite as long as you live in your land.

<sup>20</sup> When the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he has promised you, and you say, "I am going to eat some meat," because you wish to eat meat, you may eat meat whenever you have the desire.

<sup>21</sup> If the place where the LORD your God will choose to put his name is too far from you, and you slaughter as I have commanded you any of your herd or flock that the LORD has given you, then you may eat within your towns whenever you desire. <sup>22</sup> Indeed, just as gazelle or deer is eaten, so you may eat it; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it.

the life, and you shall not eat the life with the meat. <sup>24</sup> Do not eat it; you shall pour it out on the ground like water. <sup>25</sup> Do not eat it, so that all may go well with you and your children after you, because you do what is right in the sight of the LORD. <sup>26</sup> But the sacred donations that are due from you, and your votive gifts, you shall bring to the place that the LORD will choose. <sup>27</sup> You shall present your burnt offerings, both the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; the blood of your other sacrifices shall be poured out beside the altar of the LORD your God, but the meat you may eat.

<sup>28</sup> Be careful to obey all these words that I command you today, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, because you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Warning against Idolatry

<sup>29</sup> When the LORD your God has cut off before you the nations whom you are about to enter to dispossess them, when you have dispossessed them and live in their land,<sup>30</sup> take care that you are not snared into imitating them, after they have been destroyed before you: do not inquire concerning their gods, saying, “How did these nations worship their gods? I also want to do the same.”<sup>31</sup> You must not do the same for the LORD your God, because every abhorrent thing that the LORD hates they have done for their gods. They would even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.<sup>32</sup> You must diligently observe everything that I command you; do not add to it or take anything from it.

Luke 8:26-39 (NRSV)

*Jesus Heals the Gerasene Demoniac
(Mt 8:28–9:1; Mk 5:1–20)*

<sup>26</sup> Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.<sup>27</sup> As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs.<sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me” —<sup>29</sup> for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.)

<sup>30</sup> Jesus then asked him, “What is your name?” He said, “Legion”; for many demons had entered him.<sup>31</sup> They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

<sup>32</sup> Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission.<sup>33</sup> Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

<sup>34</sup> When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country.<sup>35</sup> Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup> Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. <sup>37</sup> Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. <sup>38</sup> The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup> “Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.” So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

<sup>7</sup> I have been like a portent to many,
but you are my strong
refuge.
<sup>8</sup> My mouth is filled with your praise,
and with your glory all
day long.

<sup>9</sup> Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
do not forsake me when
my strength is spent.
<sup>10</sup> For my enemies speak concerning me,
and those who watch for my life consult together.
<sup>11</sup> They say, “Pursue and seize that person
whom God has forsaken,
for there is no one to deliver.”
<sup>12</sup> O God, do not be far from
me;
O my God, make haste to
help me!
<sup>13</sup> Let my accusers be put to shame and consumed;
let those who seek to hurt me
be covered with scorn
and disgrace.
<sup>14</sup> But I will hope continually,
and will praise you yet
more and more.
<sup>15</sup> My mouth will tell of your righteous acts,
of your deeds of
salvation all day long,
though their number is past my knowledge.

<sup>16</sup> I will come praising the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD,
I will praise your righteousness, yours
alone.

Proverbs 17:27–28 (NRSV)

<sup>27</sup> One who spares words is knowledgeable;
one who is cool in spirit
has understanding.
<sup>28</sup> Even fools who keep silent
are considered wise;
when they close their lips,
they are deemed intelligent.

Deuteronomy 13:1-14:27
(NRSV)

If prophets or those who divine by dreams appear
among you and promise you omens or portents, <sup>2</sup> and the omens or the portents
declared by them take place,
and they say, “Let us follow other gods” (whom you have not known) “and let us serve them,” <sup>3</sup> you must not heed

the words of those prophets or those who divine by dreams; for the LORD your God
is testing you, to know whether you indeed love the LORD your God with all your heart and soul. <sup>4</sup> The LORD your God you shall follow, him alone you shall fear, his commandments you shall keep, his voice you shall obey,
him you shall serve, and to him you shall hold fast. <sup>5</sup> But those prophets or those who divine by dreams shall be put to death for having spoken treason against the LORD your God—who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery—to turn you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

<sup>6</sup> If anyone secretly entices
you—even if it is your brother,
your father’s son or your mother’s son, or your own son
or daughter, or the wife you embrace, or your most intimate friend—saying, “Let us go worship other gods,”

whom neither you nor your ancestors have known,<sup>7</sup> any of the gods of the peoples that are around you, whether near you or far away from you, from one end of the earth to the other,<sup>8</sup> you must not yield to or heed any such persons. Show them no pity or compassion and do not shield them.<sup>9</sup> But you shall surely kill them; your own hand shall be first against them to execute them, and afterwards the hand of all the people.<sup>10</sup> Stone them to death for trying to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.<sup>11</sup> Then all Israel shall hear and be afraid, and never again do any such wickedness.

<sup>12</sup> If you hear it said about one of the towns that the LORD your God is giving you to live in,<sup>13</sup> that scoundrels from among you have gone out and led the inhabitants of the town astray, saying, "Let us go and worship other gods," whom you have not known,<sup>14</sup> then you shall inquire and make a thorough investigation. If the charge is established that such an abhorrent thing has been done among you,<sup>15</sup> you shall put the inhabitants of that town to the sword, utterly destroying it and everything in it—even putting its livestock to the sword.<sup>16</sup> All of its spoil you shall gather into its public square; then burn the town and all its spoil with fire, as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It shall remain a perpetual ruin, never to be rebuilt.<sup>17</sup> Do not let anything devoted to destruction stick to your hand, so that the LORD may turn from his fierce anger and show you compassion, and in his compassion multiply you, as he swore to your ancestors,<sup>18</sup> if you obey the voice of the LORD your God by keeping all his commandments that I am commanding you today, doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Pagan Practices Forbidden

14 You are children of the LORD your God. You must not lacerate yourselves or shave your forelocks for the dead.<sup>2</sup> For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; it is you the LORD has chosen out of all the peoples on earth to be his people, his treasured possession.

Clean and Unclean Foods
(Lev 11:1–47)

<sup>9</sup>Of all that live in water you may eat these: whatever has fins and scales you may eat. <sup>10</sup>And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.

<sup>21</sup>You shall not eat anything that dies of itself; you may give it to aliens residing in your towns for them to eat, or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a people holy to the LORD your God.

You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

Regulations concerning Tithes

<sup>22</sup>Set apart a tithe of all the yield of your seed that is brought in yearly from the field. <sup>23</sup> In the presence of the LORD your God, in the place that he will choose as a dwelling for his name, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, your wine, and your oil, as well as the firstlings of your herd and flock, so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. <sup>24</sup> But if, when the LORD your God has blessed you, the distance is so great that you are unable to transport it, because the place where the LORD your God will choose to set his name is too far away from you, <sup>25</sup> then you may turn it into money. With the money secure in hand, go to the place that the LORD your God will choose; <sup>26</sup> spend the money for whatever you wish—oxen, sheep, wine, strong drink, or whatever you desire. And you shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your household rejoicing together. <sup>27</sup> As for the Levites resident in your towns, do not neglect them, because they have no allotment or inheritance with you.

Luke 8:40-56 (NRSV)

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed
(Mt 9:18–26; Mk 5:21–43)

<sup>40</sup> Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. <sup>41</sup> Just then there came a man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup> for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, who was dying.

As he went, the crowds pressed in on him. <sup>43</sup> Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her. <sup>44</sup> She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped. <sup>45</sup> Then Jesus asked, "Who touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you." <sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; for I noticed that power had gone out from me." <sup>47</sup> When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. <sup>48</sup> He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace.”

<sup>49</sup> While he was still speaking, someone came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer.” <sup>50</sup> When Jesus heard this, he replied, “Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be saved.” <sup>51</sup> When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter, John, and James, and the child’s father and mother. <sup>52</sup> They were all weeping and wailing for her; but he said, “Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping.”

<sup>55</sup> Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then he directed them to give her something to eat. <sup>56</sup> Her parents were astounded; but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

Psalm 71:17-24 (NRSV)

<sup>17</sup> O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.

<sup>18</sup> So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to all the generations to come.

Your power <sup>19</sup> and your righteousness, O God, reach the high heavens. You who have done great things,

O God, who is like you?

<sup>20</sup> You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again; from the depths of the earth you will bring me up again.

<sup>21</sup> You will increase my honor, and comfort me once again.

<sup>22</sup> I will also praise you with the harp

for your faithfulness, O
my God;

I will sing praises to you
with the lyre,

O Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> My lips will shout for joy
when I sing praises to
you;

my soul also, which you have rescued.

<sup>24</sup> All day long my tongue will talk of your righteous
help,

for those who tried to do me harm
have been put to shame,
and disgraced.

Proverbs 18:1 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> The one who lives alone
is self-indulgent,
showing contempt for all who have sound
judgment.

June 28

Deuteronomy 14:28-15:23
(NRSV)

<sup>28</sup> Every third year you shall bring out the full tithe of your produce for that year, and store it within your towns; <sup>29</sup> the Levites, because they have no allotment or inheritance with you, as well as the resident aliens, the orphans, and the widows in your towns, may come and eat their fill so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work that you undertake.

*Laws concerning the Sabbatical Year
(Ex 21:1–11; Lev 25:1–7)*

15 Every seventh year you shall grant a remission of debts. <sup>2</sup> And this is the manner of the remission: every creditor shall remit the claim that is held against a neighbor,
not exacting it of a neighbor
who is a member of the community, because the LORD's remission has been proclaimed. <sup>3</sup> Of a foreigner
you may exact it, but you must remit your claim on whatever any member of your community owes you. <sup>4</sup> There will, however, be no one in need among you, because the LORD is sure to bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as a possession to occupy, <sup>5</sup> if only you will obey the LORD your God by diligently observing this entire commandment that I command you today. <sup>6</sup> When the LORD your God has blessed you, as he promised you, you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

<sup>7</sup> If there is among you anyone in need, a member of your community in any of your towns within the land that the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hard-hearted or tight-fisted toward your needy neighbor. <sup>8</sup> You should rather open your hand, willingly lending enough to meet the need, whatever it may be. <sup>9</sup> Be careful that you do not entertain a mean thought, thinking, "The seventh year, the year of remission, is near," and therefore view your needy neighbor with hostility and give nothing; your neighbor might cry to the LORD against you, and you would incur guilt.

<sup>10</sup> Give liberally and be ungrudging when you do so, for on this account the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake. <sup>11</sup> Since there will never cease to be some in need on the earth, I therefore command you, "Open your hand to the poor and needy neighbor in your land."

<sup>12</sup> If a member of your community, whether a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and works for you six years, in the seventh year you shall set that person free. <sup>13</sup> And when you send a male slave out from you a free person, you shall not send him out empty-handed. <sup>14</sup> Provide liberally out of your flock, your threshing floor, and your wine press, thus giving to him some of the bounty with which the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>15</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; for this reason I lay this command upon you today.

<sup>16</sup> But if he says to you, “I will not go out from you,” because he loves you and your household, since he is well off with you, <sup>17</sup> then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his earlobe into the door, and he shall be your slave forever.

You shall do the same with regard to your female slave.

<sup>18</sup> Do not consider it a hardship when you send them out from you free persons, because for six years they have given you services worth the wages of hired laborers; and the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

The Firstborn of Livestock

<sup>19</sup> Every firstling male born of your herd and flock you shall consecrate to the LORD your God; you shall not do work with your firstling ox nor shear the firstling of your flock. <sup>20</sup> You shall eat it, you together with your household, in the presence of the LORD your God year by year at the place that the LORD will choose. <sup>21</sup> But if it has any defect—any serious defect, such as lameness or blindness—you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God; <sup>22</sup> within your towns you may eat it, the unclean and the clean alike, as you would a gazelle or deer. <sup>23</sup> Its blood, however, you must not eat; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.

The Mission of the Twelve (Mt 10:5–15)

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, <sup>2</sup> and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. <sup>3</sup> He said to them, “Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money—not even an extra tunic. <sup>4</sup> Whatever house you enter, stay there, and leave from there. <sup>5</sup> Wherever they do not welcome you, as you are leaving that town shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.” <sup>6</sup> They departed and went through the villages, bringing the good news and curing diseases everywhere.

Psalm 72:1-14 (NRSV)

Prayer for Guidance and Support for the King

Of Solomon.

1 Give the king your justice,
O God,
and your righteousness
to a king's son.

2 May he judge your people
with righteousness,
and your poor with
justice.

3 May the mountains yield prosperity for the
people,
and the hills, in
righteousness.

4 May he defend the cause of the poor of the
people,
give deliverance to the
needy,
and crush the oppressor.

5 May he live while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon,
throughout all
generations.

6 May he be like rain that falls on the mown
grass,
like showers that water
the earth.

7 In his days may righteousness flourish

and peace abound, until
the moon is no more.

8 May he have dominion
from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

9 May his foes bow down
before him,
and his enemies lick the dust.

10 May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles
render him tribute,
may the kings of Sheba
and Seba
bring gifts.

11 May all kings fall down
before him,
all nations give him
service.

12 For he delivers the needy
when they call,
the poor and those who have no helper.

13 He has pity on the weak
and the needy,
and saves the lives of the
needy.

14 From oppression and violence he redeems
their life;
and precious is their blood in his sight.

Proverbs 18:2–3 (NRSV)

<sup>2</sup> A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing
personal opinion.

<sup>3</sup> When wickedness comes,
contempt comes also;
and with dishonor comes disgrace.

Deuteronomy 16:1-22 (NRSV)

The Passover Reviewed
(Ex 12:1–20; 23:14–19; 34:18–26)

Observe the month of Abib by keeping the passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>You shall offer the passover sacrifice to the LORD your God, from the flock and the herd, at the place that the LORD will choose as a dwelling for his name. <sup>3</sup>You must not eat with it anything leavened. For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it—the bread of affliction—because you came out of the land of Egypt in great haste, so that all the days of your life you may remember the day of your departure from the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup>No leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory for seven days; and none of the meat of what you slaughter on the evening of the first day shall remain until morning. <sup>5</sup>You are not permitted to offer the passover sacrifice within any of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>6</sup>But at the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name, only there shall you offer the passover sacrifice, in the evening at sunset, the time of day when you departed from Egypt. <sup>7</sup>You shall cook it and eat it at the place that the LORD your God will choose; the next morning you may go back to your tents. <sup>8</sup>For six days you shall continue to eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly for the LORD your God, when you shall do no work.

The Festival of Weeks Reviewed

(Ex 34:22; Lev 23:15–21;
Num 28:26–31)

<sup>9</sup> You shall count seven weeks; begin to count the seven weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain. <sup>10</sup> Then you shall keep the festival of weeks to the LORD your God, contributing a freewill offering in proportion to the blessing that you have received from the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup> Rejoice before the LORD your God—you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, the Levites resident in your towns, as well as the strangers, the orphans, and the widows who are among you—at the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. <sup>12</sup> Remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and diligently observe these statutes.

The Festival of Booths Reviewed

(Lev 23:33–43; Num 29:12–40)

<sup>13</sup> You shall keep the festival of booths for seven days, when you have gathered in the produce from your threshing floor and your wine press. <sup>14</sup> Rejoice during your festival, you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, as well as the Levites, the strangers, the orphans, and the widows resident in your towns.

<sup>15</sup> Seven days you shall keep the festival to the LORD your God at the place that the LORD will choose; for the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all your undertakings, and you shall surely celebrate.

<sup>16</sup> Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose: at the festival of unleavened bread, at the festival of weeks, and at the festival of booths. They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed; <sup>17</sup> all shall give as they are able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.

Municipal Judges and Officers

<sup>18</sup> You shall appoint judges and officials throughout your tribes, in all your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, and they shall render just decisions for the people.

<sup>19</sup>You must not distort justice; you must not show partiality; and you must not accept bribes, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of those who are in the right. <sup>20</sup>Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue, so that you may live and occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Forbidden Forms of Worship

<sup>21</sup>You shall not plant any tree as a sacred pole beside the altar that you make for the LORD your God; <sup>22</sup>nor shall you set up a stone pillar—things that the LORD your God hates.

Luke 9:7-17 (NRSV)

Herod's Perplexity

(Mt 14:1-12; Mk 6:14-29)

<sup>7</sup>Now Herod the ruler heard about all that had taken place, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead, <sup>8</sup>by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the ancient prophets had arisen. <sup>9</sup>Herod said, "John I beheaded; but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he tried to see him.

Feeding the Five Thousand

(Mt 14:13-21; Mk 6:30-44;

Jn 6:1-15)

<sup>10</sup>On their return the apostles told Jesus all they had done. He took them with him and withdrew privately to a city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>When the crowds found out about it, they followed him; and he welcomed them, and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed to be cured.

<sup>12</sup>The day was drawing to a close, and the twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place." <sup>13</sup>But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." <sup>14</sup>For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." <sup>15</sup>They did so and made them all sit down. <sup>16</sup> And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. <sup>17</sup> And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Psalms 72:15-20 (NRSV)

<sup>15</sup> Long may he live!
    May gold of Sheba be given to him.
    May prayer be made for him continually,
    and blessings invoked for
        him all day long.
<sup>16</sup> May there be abundance
    of grain in the land;
    may it wave on the tops
        of the mountains;
    may its fruit be like Lebanon;
    and may people blossom
        in the cities
    like the grass of the field.
<sup>17</sup> May his name endure
    forever,
    his fame continue as long as the sun.
    May all nations be blessed
        in him;

    may they pronounce him
        happy.

<sup>18</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
    who alone does
        wondrous things.

<sup>19</sup> Blessed be his glorious name forever;
    may his glory fill the
        whole earth.
    Amen and Amen.

<sup>20</sup> The prayers of David son of Jesse are ended.

Proverbs 18:4-5 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> The words of the mouth
    are deep waters;
    the fountain of wisdom
        is a gushing stream.
<sup>5</sup> It is not right to be partial to the guilty,
    or to subvert the
        innocent in judgment.

Deuteronomy 17:1-20 (NRSV)

You must not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has a defect, anything seriously wrong; for that is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup> If there is found among you, in one of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, a man or woman who does what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, and transgresses his covenant <sup>3</sup> by going to serve other gods and worshiping them—whether the sun or the moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have forbidden— <sup>4</sup> and if it is reported to you or you hear of it, and you make a thorough inquiry, and the charge is proved true that such an abhorrent thing has occurred in Israel, <sup>5</sup> then you shall bring out to your gates that man or that woman who has committed this crime and you shall stone the man or woman to death. <sup>6</sup> On the evidence of two or three witnesses the death sentence shall be executed; a person must not be put to death on the evidence of only one witness. <sup>7</sup> The hands of the witnesses shall be the first raised against the person to execute the death penalty, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Legal Decisions by Priests and Judges

<sup>8</sup> If a judicial decision is too difficult for you to make between one kind of bloodshed and another, one kind of legal right and another, or one kind of assault and another—any such matters of dispute in your towns—then you shall immediately go up to the place that the LORD your God will choose, <sup>9</sup> where you shall consult with the levitical priests and the judge who is in office in those days; they shall announce to you the decision in the case. <sup>10</sup> Carry out exactly the decision that they announce to you from the place that the LORD will choose, diligently observing everything they instruct you.

<sup>11</sup> You must carry out fully the law that they interpret for you or the ruling that they announce to you; do not turn aside from the decision that they announce to you, either to the right or to the left. <sup>12</sup> As for anyone who presumes to disobey the priest appointed to minister there to the LORD your God, or the judge, that person shall die. So you shall purge the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup> All the people will hear and be afraid, and will not act presumptuously again.

Limitations of Royal Authority

<sup>14</sup> When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and have taken possession of it and settled in it, and you say, "I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me," <sup>15</sup> you may indeed set over you a king whom the LORD your God will choose. One of your own community you may set as king over you; you are not permitted to put a foreigner over you, who is not of your own community.

<sup>16</sup> Even so, he must not acquire many horses for himself, or return the people to Egypt in order to acquire more horses, since the LORD has said to you, "You must never return that way again." <sup>17</sup> And he must not acquire many wives for himself, or else his heart will turn away; also silver and gold he must not acquire in great quantity for himself. <sup>18</sup> When he has taken the throne of his kingdom, he shall have a copy of this law written for him in the presence of the levitical priests. <sup>19</sup> It shall remain with him and he shall read in it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, diligently observing all the words of this law and these statutes, <sup>20</sup> neither exalting himself above other members of the community nor turning aside from the commandment, either to the right or to the left, so that he and his descendants may reign long over his kingdom in Israel.

Peter's Declaration about Jesus

(Mt 16:13-20; Mk 8:27-30)

<sup>18</sup> Once when Jesus was praying alone, with only the disciples near him, he asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”<sup>19</sup> They answered, “John the Baptist; but others, Elijah; and still others, that one of the ancient prophets has arisen.”<sup>20</sup> He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered, “The Messiah of God.”

*Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection
(Mt 16:24–28; Mk 8:31–9:1)*

<sup>21</sup> He sternly ordered and commanded them not to tell anyone,<sup>22</sup> saying, “The Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.”

<sup>23</sup> Then he said to them all, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.

<sup>24</sup> For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will save it.<sup>25</sup> What does it profit them if they gain the whole world, but lose or forfeit themselves?<sup>26</sup> Those who are ashamed of me and of my words, of them the Son of Man will be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.<sup>27</sup> But truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.”

Psalm 73:1-20 (NRSV)

Plea for Relief from Oppressors

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 Truly God is good to the upright,
to those who are pure in heart.
- 2 But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
my steps had nearly slipped.
- 3 For I was envious of the arrogant;
I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- 4 For they have no pain;
their bodies are sound and sleek.
- 5 They are not in trouble as others are;
they are not plagued like other people.
- 6 Therefore pride is their necklace;
violence covers them like a garment.
- 7 Their eyes swell out with fatness;

their hearts overflow
with follies.
8 They scoff and speak with
malice;
loftily they threaten oppression.
9 They set their mouths
against heaven,
and their tongues range
over the earth.
10 Therefore the people turn
and praise them,
and find no fault in them.
11 And they say, "How can God know?
Is there knowledge in the Most High?"
12 Such are the wicked;
always at ease, they
increase in riches.
13 All in vain I have kept my heart clean
and washed my hands in
innocence.
14 For all day long I have been plagued,
and am punished every
morning.
15 If I had said, "I will talk on
in this way,"
I would have been untrue to the circle of your children.
16 But when I thought how to understand this,

it seemed to me a wearisome task,
17 until I went into the sanctuary of God;
then I perceived their
end.
18 Truly you set them in slippery places;
you make them fall to
ruin.
19 How they are destroyed in a moment,
swept away utterly by terrors!
20 They are like a dream
when one awakes;
on awaking you despise
their phantoms.

Proverbs 18:6–7 (NRSV)

6 A fool's lips bring strife,
and a fool's mouth
invites a flogging.
7 The mouths of fools are
their ruin,
and their lips a snare to
themselves.

Deuteronomy 18:1-19:14 (NRSV)

Privileges of Priests and Levites

The levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no allotment or inheritance within Israel. They may eat the sacrifices that are the LORD's portion<sup>2</sup> but they shall have no inheritance among the other members of the community; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.

<sup>3</sup> This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those offering a sacrifice, whether an ox or a sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the two jowls, and the stomach.<sup>4</sup> The first fruits of your grain, your wine, and your oil, as well as the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.<sup>5</sup> For the LORD your God has chosen Levi out of all your tribes, to stand and minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for all time.

<sup>6</sup> If a Levite leaves any of your towns, from wherever he has been residing in Israel, and comes to the place that the LORD will choose (and he may come whenever he wishes),<sup>7</sup> then he may minister in the name of the LORD his God, like all his fellow-Levites who stand to minister there before the LORD.<sup>8</sup> They shall have equal portions to eat, even though they have income from the sale of family possessions.

Child-Sacrifice, Divination, and Magic Prohibited

<sup>9</sup> When you come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you must not learn to imitate the abhorrent practices of those nations.<sup>10</sup> No one shall be found among you who makes a son or daughter pass through fire, or who practices divination, or is a soothsayer, or an augur, or a sorcerer,<sup>11</sup> or one who casts spells, or who consults ghosts or spirits, or who seeks oracles from the dead.<sup>12</sup> For whoever does these things is abhorrent to the LORD; it is because of such abhorrent practices that the LORD your God is driving them out before you. <sup>13</sup> You must remain completely loyal to the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup> Although these nations that you are about to dispossess do give heed to soothsayers and diviners, as for you, the LORD your God does not permit you to do so.

A New Prophet Like Moses

<sup>15</sup> The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. <sup>16</sup> This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: “If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.” <sup>17</sup> Then the LORD replied to me: “They are right in what they have said. <sup>18</sup> I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. <sup>19</sup> Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. <sup>20</sup> But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak—that prophet shall die.” <sup>21</sup> You may say to yourself, “How can we recognize a word that the LORD has not spoken?” <sup>22</sup> If a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD but the thing does not take place or prove true, it is a word that the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; do not be frightened by it.

Laws concerning the Cities of Refuge

(Num 35:9–28; Josh 20:1–9)

19 When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you have dispossessed them and settled in their towns and in their houses, <sup>2</sup> you shall set apart three cities in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess. <sup>3</sup> You shall calculate the distances and divide into three regions the land that the LORD your God gives you as a possession, so that any homicide can flee to one of them.

<sup>4</sup> Now this is the case of a homicide who might flee there and live, that is, someone who has killed another person unintentionally when the two had not been at enmity before: <sup>5</sup> Suppose someone goes into the forest with another to cut wood, and when one of them swings the ax to cut down a tree, the head slips from the handle and strikes the other person who then dies; the killer may flee to one of these cities and live.

<sup>6</sup> But if the distance is too great, the avenger of blood in hot anger might pursue and overtake and put the killer to death, although a death sentence was not deserved, since the two had not been at enmity before. <sup>7</sup> Therefore I command you: You shall set apart three cities.

<sup>8</sup> If the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he swore to your ancestors—and he will give you all the land that he promised your ancestors to give you, <sup>9</sup> provided you diligently observe this entire commandment that I command you today, by loving the LORD your God and walking always in his ways—then you shall add three more cities to these three, <sup>10</sup> so that the blood of an innocent person may not be shed in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, thereby bringing bloodguilt upon you.

<sup>11</sup> But if someone at enmity with another lies in wait and attacks and takes the life of that person, and flees into one of these cities, <sup>12</sup> then the elders of the killer's city shall send to have the culprit taken from there and handed over to the avenger of blood to be put to death. <sup>13</sup> Show no pity; you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, so that it may go well with you.

Property Boundaries

<sup>14</sup> You must not move your neighbor's boundary marker, set up by former generations, on the property that will be allotted to you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Luke 9:28-36 (NRSV)

The Transfiguration

(Mt 17:1-8; Mk 9:2-8;

2 Pet 1:16-18)

<sup>28</sup> Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. <sup>30</sup> Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. <sup>31</sup> They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup> Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. <sup>33</sup> Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he said. <sup>34</sup> While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. <sup>35</sup> Then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!” <sup>36</sup> When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Psalms 73:21-28 (NRSV)

<sup>21</sup> When my soul was embittered,
when I was pricked in heart,
<sup>22</sup> I was stupid and ignorant;
I was like a brute beast toward you.
<sup>23</sup> Nevertheless I am continually with you;
you hold my right hand.
<sup>24</sup> You guide me with your counsel,
and afterward you will receive me with honor.
<sup>25</sup> Whom have I in heaven but you?
And there is nothing on earth that I desire other than you.
<sup>26</sup> My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

<sup>27</sup> Indeed, those who are far from you will perish;
you put an end to those who are false to you.
<sup>28</sup> But for me it is good to be near God;
I have made the Lord
GOD my refuge,
to tell of all your works.

Proverbs 18:8 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> The words of a whisperer
are like delicious
morsels;
they go down into the inner parts of the body.

July 2

Deuteronomy 19:15-20:20
(NRSV)

Law concerning Witnesses

<sup>15</sup> A single witness shall not suffice to convict a person of any crime or wrongdoing in connection with any offense that may be committed. Only on the evidence of two or three witnesses shall a charge
be sustained. <sup>16</sup> If a malicious

witness comes forward to accuse someone of wrongdoing, <sup>17</sup> then both parties to the dispute shall appear before the LORD,
before the priests and the judges who are in office in those days, <sup>18</sup> and the judges shall make a thorough inquiry.
If the witness is a false
witness, having testified falsely against another, <sup>19</sup> then you shall do to the false
witness just as the false witness had meant to do to the other. So you shall purge the evil from your midst. <sup>20</sup> The rest shall hear and be afraid,
and a crime such as this shall never again be committed
among you. <sup>21</sup> Show no pity:
life for life, eye for eye, tooth
for tooth, hand for hand, foot
for foot.

Rules of Warfare

20 When you go out to war against your enemies, and see horses and chariots, an army
larger than your own, you shall not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God is with you,
who brought you up from the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> Before you engage in battle, the priest

shall come forward and speak to the troops,<sup>3</sup> and shall say to them: “Hear, O Israel! Today you are drawing near to do battle against your enemies.

Do not lose heart, or be afraid, or panic, or be in dread of them;<sup>4</sup> for it is the LORD your God who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to give you victory.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the officials shall address the troops, saying, “Has anyone built a new house but not dedicated it? He should go back to his house, or he might die in the battle and another dedicate it.<sup>6</sup> Has anyone planted a vineyard but not yet enjoyed its fruit? He should go back to his house, or he might die in the battle and another be first to enjoy its fruit.<sup>7</sup> Has anyone become engaged to a woman but not yet married her? He should go back to his house, or he might die in the battle and another marry her.”<sup>8</sup> The officials shall continue to address the troops, saying, “Is anyone afraid or disheartened? He should go back to his house, or he might cause the heart of his comrades to melt like his own.”<sup>9</sup> When the officials have finished addressing the troops, then the commanders shall take charge of them.

<sup>10</sup> When you draw near to a town to fight against it, offer it terms of peace.<sup>11</sup> If it accepts your terms of peace and surrenders to you, then all the people in it shall serve you at forced labor.<sup>12</sup> If it does not submit to you peacefully, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it;<sup>13</sup> and when the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall put all its males to the sword.

<sup>14</sup> You may, however, take as your booty the women, the children, livestock, and everything else in the town, all its spoil. You may enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you.<sup>15</sup> Thus you shall treat all the towns that are very far from you, which are not towns of the nations here.<sup>16</sup> But as for the towns of these peoples that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, you must not let anything that breathes remain alive.<sup>17</sup> You shall annihilate them—the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites—just as the LORD your God has commanded,<sup>18</sup> so that they may not teach you to do all the abhorrent things that they do for their gods, and you thus sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup> If you besiege a town for a long time, making war against it in order to take it, you must not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them. Although you may take food from them, you must not cut them down. Are trees in the field human beings that they should come under siege from you? <sup>20</sup> You may destroy only the trees that you know do not produce food; you may cut them down for use in building siegeworks against the town that makes war with you, until it falls.

Luke 9:37-50 (NRSV)

Jesus Heals a

Boy with a Demon

(Mt 17:14–21; Mk 9:14–29)

<sup>37</sup> On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. <sup>38</sup> Just then a man from the crowd shouted, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child.” <sup>39</sup> Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. <sup>40</sup> I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.” <sup>41</sup> Jesus answered, “You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.” <sup>42</sup> While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup> And all were astounded at the greatness of God.

Jesus Again Foretells His Death
(Mt 17:22–23; Mk 9:30–32)

While everyone was amazed at all that he was doing, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup> “Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands.” <sup>45</sup> But they did not understand this saying; its meaning was concealed from them, so that they could not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

True Greatness

(Mt 18:1–5; Mk 9:33–37)

<sup>46</sup> An argument arose among them as to which one of them was the greatest.
<sup>47</sup> But Jesus, aware of their inner thoughts, took a little child and put it by his side, <sup>48</sup> and said to them, “Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me; for the least among all of you is the greatest.”

Another Exorcist

(Mk 9:38–41)

<sup>49</sup> John answered, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us.”
<sup>50</sup> But Jesus said to him, “Do not stop him; for whoever is not against you is for you.”

Psalm 74:1-11 (NRSV)

Plea for Help in Time of National Humiliation

A Maskil of Asaph.

Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?

- <sup>2</sup> Remember your congregation, which you acquired long ago, which you redeemed to be the tribe of your heritage.
Remember Mount Zion, where you came to dwell.
- <sup>3</sup> Direct your steps to the perpetual ruins; the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary.
- <sup>4</sup> Your foes have roared within your holy place; they set up their emblems there.
- <sup>5</sup> At the upper entrance they hacked the wooden trellis with axes.
- <sup>6</sup> And then, with hatchets and hammers, they smashed all its carved work.
- <sup>7</sup> They set your sanctuary on fire; they desecrated the dwelling place of your name, bringing it to the ground.

- 8 They said to themselves,
 “We will utterly subdue them”;
 they burned all the meeting places of God
 in the land.
- 9 We do not see our emblems;
 there is no longer any
 prophet,
 and there is no one among us who knows
 how long.
- 10 How long, O God, is the foe to scoff?
 Is the enemy to revile
 your name forever?
- 11 Why do you hold back your
 hand;
 why do you keep your hand in your bosom?

Proverbs 18:9–10 (NRSV)

- 9 One who is slack in work
 is close kin to a vandal.
- 10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
 the righteous run into it
 and are safe.

Deuteronomy 21:1-23 (NRSV)

Law concerning Murder by Persons Unknown

<sup>1</sup> If, in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess, a body is found lying in open country, and it is not known who struck the person down, <sup>2</sup> then your elders and your judges shall come out to measure the distances to the towns that are near the body.
<sup>3</sup> The elders of the town nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked, one that has not pulled in the yoke; <sup>4</sup> the elders
 of that town shall bring the heifer down to a wadi with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer’s neck
 there in the wadi. <sup>5</sup> Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to him and to pronounce blessings in the name of the LORD, and by their decision all cases of dispute
 and assault shall be settled.

<sup>6</sup> All the elders of that town nearest the body shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the wadi, <sup>7</sup> and they shall declare: "Our hands did not shed this blood, nor were we witnesses to it. <sup>8</sup> Absolve, O LORD, your people Israel, whom you redeemed; do not let the guilt of innocent blood remain in the midst of your people Israel." Then they will be absolved of bloodguilt. <sup>9</sup> So you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, because you must do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Female Captives

<sup>10</sup> When you go out to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take them captive, <sup>11</sup> suppose you see among the captives a beautiful woman whom you desire and want to marry, <sup>12</sup> and so you bring her home to your house: she shall shave her head, pare her nails, <sup>13</sup> discard her captive's garb, and shall remain in your house a full month, mourning for her father and mother; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. <sup>14</sup> But if you are not satisfied with her, you shall let her go free and not sell her for money. You must not treat her as a slave, since you have dishonored her.

The Right of the Firstborn

<sup>15</sup> If a man has two wives, one of them loved and the other disliked, and if both the loved and the disliked have borne him sons, the firstborn being the son of the one who is disliked, <sup>16</sup> then on the day when he wills his possessions to his sons, he is not permitted to treat the son of the loved as the firstborn in preference to the son of the disliked, who is the firstborn. <sup>17</sup> He must acknowledge as firstborn the son of the one who is disliked, giving him a double portion of all that he has; since he is the first issue of his virility, the right of the firstborn is his.

Rebellious Children

<sup>18</sup> If someone has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father and mother, who does not heed them when they discipline him,<sup>19</sup> then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his town at the gate of that place.<sup>20</sup> They shall say to the elders of his town, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a glutton and a drunkard."<sup>21</sup> Then all the men of the town shall stone him to death. So you shall purge the evil from your midst; and all Israel will hear, and be afraid.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>22</sup> When someone is convicted of a crime punishable by death and is executed, and you hang him on a tree,<sup>23</sup> his corpse must not remain all night upon the tree; you shall bury him that same day, for anyone hung on a tree is under God's curse. You must not defile the land that the LORD your God is giving you for possession.

A Samaritan Village

Refuses to Receive Jesus

<sup>51</sup> When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem.<sup>52</sup> And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him;<sup>53</sup> but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.<sup>54</sup> When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"<sup>55</sup> But he turned and rebuked them.<sup>56</sup> Then they went on to another village.

Would-Be Followers of Jesus

(Mt 8:18-22)

<sup>57</sup> As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."<sup>58</sup> And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."<sup>59</sup> To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."<sup>60</sup> But

Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”

<sup>61</sup> Another said, “I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.” <sup>62</sup> Jesus said to him, “No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Psalm 74:12-23 (NRSV)

<sup>12</sup> Yet God my King is from of old, working salvation in the earth.

<sup>13</sup> You divided the sea by your might;
you broke the heads of the dragons in the waters.

<sup>14</sup> You crushed the heads of Leviathan;
you gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

<sup>15</sup> You cut openings for springs and torrents;
you dried up ever-flowing streams.

<sup>16</sup> Yours is the day, yours also the night;
you established the luminaries and the sun.

<sup>17</sup> You have fixed all the bounds of the earth;
you made summer and winter.

<sup>18</sup> Remember this, O LORD,
how the enemy scoffs,
and an impious people
reviles your name.

<sup>19</sup> Do not deliver the soul of your dove to the wild animals;
do not forget the life of your poor forever.

<sup>20</sup> Have regard for your covenant,
for the dark places of the land are full of the haunts of violence.

<sup>21</sup> Do not let the downtrodden be put to shame;
let the poor and needy praise your name.

<sup>22</sup> Rise up, O God, plead your cause;
remember how the impious scoff at you all day long.

<sup>23</sup> Do not forget the clamor of your foes,
the uproar of your adversaries that goes up continually.

Proverbs 18:11–12 (NRSV)

<sup>11</sup> The wealth of the rich is their strong city;
in their imagination it is like a high wall.

<sup>12</sup> Before destruction one's heart is haughty,
but humility goes before
honor.

Deuteronomy 22:1-30 (NRSV)

You shall not watch your neighbor's ox or sheep straying away and ignore them; you shall take them back to their owner. <sup>2</sup> If the owner does not reside near you or you do not know who the owner is, you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until the owner claims it; then you shall return it. <sup>3</sup> You shall do the same with a neighbor's donkey; you shall do the same with a neighbor's garment; and you shall do the same with anything else that your neighbor loses and you find. You may not withhold your help.

<sup>4</sup> You shall not see your neighbor's donkey or ox fallen on the road and ignore it; you shall help to lift it up.

<sup>5</sup> A woman shall not wear a man's apparel, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment; for whoever does such things is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

<sup>6</sup> If you come on a bird's nest, in any tree or on the ground, with fledglings or eggs, with the mother sitting on the fledglings or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young. <sup>7</sup> Let the mother go, taking only the young for yourself, in order that it may go well with you and you may live long.

<sup>8</sup> When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof; otherwise you might have bloodguilt on your house, if anyone should fall from it.

<sup>9</sup> You shall not sow your vineyard with a second kind of seed, or the whole yield will have to be forfeited, both the crop that you have sown and the yield of the vineyard itself.

Laws concerning Sexual Relations

<sup>13</sup> Suppose a man marries a woman, but after going in to her, he dislikes her <sup>14</sup> and makes up charges against her, slandering her by saying, "I married this woman; but when I lay with her, I did not find evidence of her virginity."

<sup>15</sup> The father of the young woman and her mother shall then submit the evidence of the young woman's virginity to the elders of the city at the gate. <sup>16</sup> The father of the young woman shall say to the elders: "I gave my daughter in marriage to this man but he dislikes her; <sup>17</sup> now he has made up charges against her, saying, 'I did not find evidence of your daughter's virginity.' But here is the evidence of my daughter's virginity." Then they shall spread out the cloth before the elders of the town.

<sup>18</sup> The elders of that town shall take the man and punish him;

<sup>19</sup> they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver

(which they shall give to the young woman's father)

because he has slandered a virgin of Israel. She shall remain his wife; he shall not be permitted to divorce her as long as he lives.

<sup>20</sup> If, however, this charge is true, that evidence of the young woman's virginity was not found, <sup>21</sup> then they shall bring the young woman out to the entrance of her father's house and the men of her town shall stone her to death, because she committed a disgraceful act in Israel by prostituting herself in her father's house. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

<sup>22</sup> If a man is caught lying with the wife of another man, both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman

as well as the woman. So you shall purge the evil from Israel.

<sup>23</sup> If there is a young woman, a virgin already engaged to be married, and a man meets her in the town and lies with her, <sup>24</sup> you shall bring both of them to the gate of that town and stone them to death, the young woman because she did not cry for help in the town and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

<sup>30</sup> A man shall not marry his father's wife, thereby violating his father's rights.

The Mission of the Seventy

<sup>1</sup> After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. <sup>2</sup> He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. <sup>3</sup> Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. <sup>4</sup> Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. <sup>5</sup> Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' <sup>6</sup> And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.

<sup>7</sup> Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the laborer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. <sup>8</sup> Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; <sup>9</sup> cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' <sup>10</sup> But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>11</sup> 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.' <sup>12</sup> I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

Psalms 75:1-5 (NRSV)

Thanksgiving for God's Wondrous Deeds

To the leader: Do Not Destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

<sup>1</sup> We give thanks to you, O
God;
we give thanks; your name is near.

People tell of your
wondrous deeds.

<sup>2</sup> At the set time that I appoint

I will judge with equity.

<sup>3</sup> When the earth totters,
with all its inhabitants,
it is I who keep its pillars
steady. Selah

<sup>4</sup> I say to the boastful, "Do not boast,"

and to the wicked, "Do
not lift up your horn;

<sup>5</sup> do not lift up your horn on
high,
or speak with insolent
neck."

Proverbs 18:13 (NRSV)

<sup>13</sup> If one gives answer before hearing,
it is folly and shame.

July 5

Deuteronomy 23:1-24:13
(NRSV)

Those Excluded from the Assembly

No one whose testicles are crushed or whose penis is cut off shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Those born of an illicit union shall not be admitted to the assembly of the LORD. Even to the tenth generation, none of their descendants shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> No Ammonite or Moabite shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD. Even to the tenth generation, none of their descendants shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD, <sup>4</sup> because they did not meet you with food and water on your journey out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam son of Beor, from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.

<sup>5</sup> (Yet the LORD your God refused to heed Balaam; the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loved you.) <sup>6</sup> You shall never promote their welfare or their prosperity as long as you live.

<sup>7</sup> You shall not abhor any of the Edomites, for they are your kin. You shall not abhor any of the Egyptians, because you were an alien residing in their land. <sup>8</sup> The children of the third generation that are born to them may be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

Sanitary, Ritual, and Humanitarian Precepts

<sup>9</sup> When you are encamped against your enemies you shall guard against any impropriety.

<sup>10</sup> If one of you becomes unclean because of a nocturnal emission, then he shall go outside the camp; he must not come within the camp. <sup>11</sup> When evening comes, he shall wash himself with water, and when the sun has set, he may come back into the camp.

<sup>12</sup> You shall have a designated area outside the camp to which you shall go.

<sup>13</sup> With your utensils you shall have a trowel; when you relieve yourself outside, you shall dig a hole with it and then cover up your excrement.

<sup>14</sup> Because the LORD your God travels along with your camp, to save you and to hand over your enemies to you, therefore your camp must be holy, so that he may not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you.

<sup>15</sup>Slaves who have escaped to you from their owners shall not be given back to them.

<sup>16</sup>They shall reside with you, in your midst, in any place they choose in any one of your towns, wherever they please; you shall not oppress them.

<sup>17</sup>None of the daughters of Israel shall be a temple prostitute; none of the sons of Israel shall be a temple prostitute. <sup>18</sup>You shall not bring the fee of a prostitute or the wages of a male prostitute into the house of the LORD your God in payment for any vow, for both of these are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>You shall not charge interest on loans to another Israelite, interest on money, interest on provisions, interest on anything that is lent. <sup>20</sup>On loans to a foreigner you may charge interest, but on loans to another Israelite you may not charge interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your undertakings in the land that you are about to enter and possess.

<sup>21</sup>If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not postpone fulfilling it; for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and you would incur guilt. <sup>22</sup>But if you refrain from vowing, you will not incur guilt. <sup>23</sup>Whatever your lips utter you must diligently perform, just as you have freely vowed to the LORD your God with your own mouth.

<sup>24</sup>If you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, as many as you wish, but you shall not put any in a container.

<sup>25</sup>If you go into your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck the ears with your hand, but you shall not put a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.

Laws concerning Marriage and Divorce

24 Suppose a man enters into marriage with a woman, but she does not please him because he finds something objectionable about her, and so he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house; she then leaves his house<sup>2</sup> and goes off to become another man's wife.<sup>3</sup> Then suppose the second man dislikes her, writes her a bill of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house (or the second man who married her dies);<sup>4</sup> her first husband, who sent her away, is not permitted to take her again to be his wife after she has been defiled; for that would be abhorrent to the LORD, and you shall not bring guilt on the land that the LORD your God is giving you as a possession.

Miscellaneous Laws

<sup>5</sup> When a man is newly married, he shall not go out with the army or be charged with any related duty. He shall be free at home one year, to be happy with the wife whom he has married.

<sup>6</sup> No one shall take a mill or an upper millstone in pledge, for that would be taking a life in pledge.

enslaving or selling the Israelite, then that kidnaper shall die. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

<sup>8</sup> Guard against an outbreak of a leprous skin disease by being very careful; you shall carefully observe whatever the levitical priests instruct you, just as I have commanded them.

<sup>9</sup> Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on your journey out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> When you make your neighbor a loan of any kind, you shall not go into the house to take the pledge.<sup>11</sup> You shall wait outside, while the person to whom you are making the loan brings the pledge out to you.<sup>12</sup> If the person is poor, you shall not sleep in the garment given you as the pledge.<sup>13</sup> You shall give the pledge back by sunset, so that your neighbor may sleep in the cloak and bless you; and it will be to your credit before the LORD your God.

Luke 10:13–24 (NRSV)

Woes to Unrepentant Cities

(Mt 11:20–24)

Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup> But at the judgment it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon than for you. <sup>15</sup> And you, Capernaum,

will you be exalted to heaven?

No, you will be brought down to Hades.

<sup>16</sup> “Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.”

The Return of the Seventy

<sup>17</sup> The seventy returned with joy, saying, “Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!” <sup>18</sup> He said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. <sup>19</sup> See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. <sup>20</sup> Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

Jesus Rejoices

(Mt 11:25–27)

<sup>21</sup> At that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. <sup>22</sup> All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

<sup>23</sup> Then turning to the disciples, Jesus said to them privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!

<sup>24</sup> For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.”

Psalm 75:6-10 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up;

7 but it is God who executes
judgment,
putting down one and
lifting up another.

8 For in the hand of the LORD
there is a cup
with foaming wine, well
mixed;
he will pour a draught
from it,
and all the wicked of the earth
shall drain it down to the dregs.

9 But I will rejoice forever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 All the horns of the wicked
I will cut off,
but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Proverbs 18:14–15 (NRSV)

14 The human spirit will endure sickness;
but a broken spirit—who
can bear?

15 An intelligent mind
acquires knowledge,
and the ear of the wise
seeks knowledge.

July 6

Deuteronomy 24:14-25:19 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup>You shall not withhold the wages of poor and needy laborers, whether other Israelites or aliens who reside
in your land in one of your towns. <sup>15</sup>You shall pay them
their wages daily before sunset, because they are poor
and their livelihood depends on them; otherwise they might cry to the LORD against
you, and you would incur guilt.

<sup>16</sup>Parents shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their parents; only for their own crimes may persons be put to death.

<sup>17</sup>You shall not deprive a resident alien or an orphan of justice; you shall not take a widow's garment in pledge.

<sup>18</sup>Remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I command
you to do this.

<sup>19</sup>When you reap your harvest in your field and forget

a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be left for the alien, the orphan, and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your undertakings.

<sup>20</sup> When you beat your olive trees, do not strip what is left; it shall be for the alien, the orphan, and the widow.

<sup>21</sup> When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, do not glean what is left; it shall be for the alien, the orphan, and the widow. <sup>22</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this.

25 Suppose two persons have a dispute and enter into litigation, and the judges decide between them, declaring one to be in the right and the other to be in the wrong. <sup>2</sup> If the one in the wrong deserves to be flogged, the judge shall make that person lie down and be beaten in his presence with the number of lashes proportionate to the offense. <sup>3</sup> Forty lashes may be given but not more; if more lashes than these are given, your neighbor will be degraded in your sight.

Levirate Marriage

<sup>5</sup> When brothers reside together, and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the deceased shall not be married outside the family to a stranger. Her husband's brother shall go in to her, taking her in marriage, and performing the duty of a husband's brother to her, <sup>6</sup> and the firstborn whom she bears shall succeed to the name of the deceased brother, so that his name may not be blotted out of Israel. <sup>7</sup> But if the man has no desire to marry his brother's widow, then his brother's widow shall go up to the elders at the gate and say, "My husband's brother refuses to perpetuate his brother's name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me." <sup>8</sup> Then the elders of his town shall summon him and speak to him. If he persists, saying, "I have no desire to marry her,"

Various Commands

<sup>13</sup> You shall not have in your bag two kinds of weights, large and small.<sup>14</sup> You shall not have in your house two kinds of measures, large and small.<sup>15</sup> You shall have only a full and honest weight; you shall have only a full and honest measure, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.<sup>16</sup> For all who do such things, all who act dishonestly, are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

<sup>17</sup> Remember what Amalek did to you on your journey out of Egypt,<sup>18</sup> how he attacked you on the way, when you were faint and weary, and struck down all who lagged behind you; he did not fear God.<sup>19</sup> Therefore when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies on every hand, in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; do not forget.

Luke 10:25-37 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

(Mt 22:34-40; Mk 12:28-34)

<sup>25</sup> Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"<sup>26</sup> He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?"<sup>27</sup> He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."<sup>28</sup> And he said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.”

<sup>29</sup> But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” <sup>30</sup> Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup> Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup> So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup> But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. <sup>34</sup> He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup> The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.’ <sup>36</sup> Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?” <sup>37</sup> He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

Israel’s God—Judge of All the Earth

To the leader: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

- 1 In Judah God is known,
his name is great in Israel.
- 2 His abode has been established in Salem,
his dwelling place in Zion.
- 3 There he broke the flashing arrows,
the shield, the sword,
and the weapons of
war. Selah
- 4 Glorious are you, more majestic
than the everlasting
mountains.
- 5 The stouthearted were

was able to lift a hand.
- 6 At your rebuke, O God of

Deuteronomy 26:1-19 (NRSV)

First Fruits and Tithes

When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and

you possess it, and settle in it, <sup>2</sup> you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest
from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. <sup>3</sup> You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, “Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us.” <sup>4</sup> When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before
the altar of the LORD your God, <sup>5</sup> you shall make this response before the LORD your God: “A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous.
<sup>6</sup> When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, <sup>7</sup> we cried to the LORD, the God
of our ancestors; the LORD
heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. <sup>8</sup>The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; <sup>9</sup>and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me.” You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup>Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

<sup>12</sup>When you have finished paying all the tithe of your produce in the third year (which is the year of the tithe), giving it to the Levites, the aliens, the orphans, and the widows, so that they may eat their fill within your towns, <sup>13</sup>then you shall say before the LORD your God: “I have removed the sacred portion from the house, and I have given it to the Levites, the resident aliens, the orphans, and the widows, in accordance with your entire commandment that you commanded me; I have neither transgressed nor forgotten any of your commandments: <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten of it while in mourning; I have not removed any of it while I was unclean; and I have not offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God, doing just as you commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel and the ground that you have given us, as you swore to our ancestors—a land flowing with milk and honey.”

Concluding Exhortation

<sup>16</sup>This very day the LORD your God is commanding you to observe these statutes and ordinances; so observe them diligently with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup>Today you have obtained the LORD’s agreement: to be your God; and for you to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, and his ordinances, and to obey him.

<sup>18</sup> Today the LORD has obtained your agreement: to be his treasured people, as he promised you, and to keep his commandments; <sup>19</sup> for him to set you high above all nations that he has made, in praise and in fame and in honor; and for you to be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised.

Jesus Visits Martha and Mary

<sup>38</sup> Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. <sup>39</sup> She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. <sup>40</sup> But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me." <sup>41</sup> But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; <sup>42</sup> there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

Psalm 76:8-12 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> From the heavens you uttered judgment; the earth feared and was still <sup>9</sup> when God rose up to establish judgment, to save all the oppressed of the earth. Selah
<sup>10</sup> Human wrath serves only to praise you, when you bind the last bit of your wrath around you.
<sup>11</sup> Make vows to the LORD your God, and perform them; let all who are around him bring gifts to the one who is awesome, <sup>12</sup> who cuts off the spirit of princes, who inspires fear in the kings of the earth.

The Inscribed Stones and Altar on Mount Ebal

Then Moses and the elders of Israel charged all the people as follows: Keep the entire commandment that I am commanding you today. <sup>2</sup> On the day that you cross over the Jordan into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you shall set up large stones and cover them with plaster. <sup>3</sup> You shall write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over, to enter the land that the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you. <sup>4</sup> So when you have crossed over the Jordan, you shall set up these stones, about which I am commanding you today, on Mount Ebal, and you shall cover them with plaster. <sup>5</sup> And you shall build an altar there to the LORD your God, an altar of stones on which you have not used an iron tool. <sup>6</sup> You must build the altar of the LORD your God of unhewn stones. Then offer up burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God, <sup>7</sup> make sacrifices of well-being, and eat them there, rejoicing before the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup> You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very clearly.

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses and the levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying: Keep silence and hear, O Israel! This very day you have become the people of the LORD your God.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore obey the LORD your God, observing his commandments and his statutes that I am commanding you today.

Twelve Curses

<sup>11</sup> The same day Moses charged the people as follows: <sup>12</sup> When you have crossed over the Jordan, these shall stand on Mount Gerizim for the blessing of the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. <sup>13</sup> And these shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup> Then the Levites

shall declare in a loud voice to all the Israelites:

<sup>15</sup> “Cursed be anyone who makes an idol or casts an image, anything abhorrent to the LORD, the work of an artisan, and sets it up in secret.” All the people shall respond, saying, “Amen!”

<sup>16</sup> “Cursed be anyone who dishonors father or mother.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

<sup>17</sup> “Cursed be anyone who moves a neighbor’s boundary marker.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

<sup>18</sup> “Cursed be anyone who misleads a blind person on the road.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

<sup>19</sup> “Cursed be anyone who deprives the alien, the orphan, and the widow of justice.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.”

All the people shall say, “Amen!”

<sup>23</sup> “Cursed be anyone who lies with his mother-in-law.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

<sup>24</sup> “Cursed be anyone who strikes down a neighbor in secret.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

<sup>25</sup> “Cursed be anyone who takes a bribe to shed innocent blood.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

<sup>26</sup> “Cursed be anyone who does not uphold the words of this law by observing them.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

The Lord’s Prayer

(Mt 6:9–15)

<sup>1</sup> He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.” <sup>2</sup> He said to them,

“When you pray, say:

Father, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

3 Give us each day our daily bread.
4 And forgive us our sins,
for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to
us.
And do not bring us to
the time of trial.”

Perseverance in Prayer
(Mt 7:7–11)

5 And he said to them,
“Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; <sup>6</sup> for a friend of mine
has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.’ <sup>7</sup> And he answers from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.’ <sup>8</sup> I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.
<sup>9</sup> “So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.
<sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. <sup>11</sup> Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish?

<sup>12</sup> Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will
the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask
him!”

God’s Mighty Deeds Recalled

To the leader: according to Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A Psalm.

1 I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, that he may hear me.
2 In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord;
in the night my hand is stretched out without wearying;
my soul refuses to be comforted.
3 I think of God, and I moan;
I meditate, and my spirit
faints. Selah
4 You keep my eyelids from closing;

I am so troubled that I
cannot speak.
5 I consider the days of old,
and remember the years
of long ago.
6 I commune with my heart
in the night;
I meditate and search my spirit:
7 “Will the Lord spurn
forever,
and never again be favorable?
8 Has his steadfast love
ceased forever?
Are his promises at an end for all time?
9 Has God forgotten to be
gracious?
Has he in anger shut up his compassion?”
Selah
10 And I say, “It is my grief
that the right hand of the Most High has changed.”
11 I will call to mind the deeds of the LORD;
I will remember your wonders of old.
12 I will meditate on all your work,
and muse on your mighty deeds.
13 Your way, O God, is holy.

What god is so great as our God?

14 You are the God who works wonders;
you have displayed your might among the
peoples.

Deuteronomy 28:1-44 (NRSV)

Blessings for Obedience
(Lev 26:1–13; Deut 7:12–24)

If you will only obey the LORD your God, by diligently observing all his commandments that I am commanding you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth; <sup>2</sup> all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, if you obey the LORD your God:

<sup>3</sup> Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.

<sup>4</sup> Blessed shall be the fruit of your womb, the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your livestock, both the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before you; they shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways. <sup>8</sup> The LORD will command the blessing upon you in your barns, and in all that you undertake; he will bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD will establish you as his holy people, as he has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in his ways.

<sup>10</sup> All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will make you abound in prosperity, in the fruit of your womb, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give you. <sup>12</sup> The LORD will open for you his rich storehouse, the heavens, to give the rain of your land in its season and to bless all your undertakings. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. <sup>13</sup> The LORD will make you the head, and not the tail;

you shall be only at the top, and not at the bottom—if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today, by diligently observing them, <sup>14</sup> and if you do not turn aside from any of the words that I am commanding you today, either to the right or to the left, following other gods to serve them.

Warnings against Disobedience

(Ex 9:8–12; Lev 26:14–46)

<sup>15</sup> But if you will not obey the LORD your God by diligently observing all his commandments and decrees, which I am commanding you today, then all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you:

<sup>16</sup> Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.

<sup>18</sup> Cursed shall be the fruit of your womb, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock.

<sup>19</sup> Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD will send upon you disaster, panic, and frustration in everything you attempt to do, until you are destroyed and perish quickly, on account of the evil of your deeds, because you have forsaken me. <sup>21</sup> The LORD will make the pestilence cling to you until it has consumed you off the land that you are entering to possess. <sup>22</sup> The LORD will afflict you with consumption, fever, inflammation, with fiery heat and drought, and with blight and mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish. <sup>23</sup> The sky over your head shall be bronze, and the earth under you iron. <sup>24</sup> The LORD will change the rain of your land into powder, and only dust shall come down upon you from the sky until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you shall go out against them one way and flee before them seven ways. You shall become an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup> Your corpses shall be food for every bird of the air and animal of the earth, and there shall be no one to frighten them away. <sup>27</sup> The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt, with ulcers, scurvy, and itch, of which you cannot be healed. <sup>28</sup> The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness, and confusion of mind; <sup>29</sup> you shall grope about at noon as blind people grope

in darkness, but you shall be unable to find your way; and you shall be continually abused and robbed, without anyone to help. <sup>30</sup> You shall become engaged to a woman, but another man shall lie with her. You shall build a house, but not live in it. You shall plant a vineyard, but not enjoy its fruit. <sup>31</sup> Your ox shall be butchered before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it. Your donkey shall be stolen in front of you, and shall not be restored to you. Your sheep shall be given to your enemies, without anyone to help you. <sup>32</sup> Your sons and daughters shall be given to another people, while you look on; you will strain your eyes looking for them all day but be powerless to do anything. <sup>33</sup> A people whom you do not know shall eat up the fruit of your ground and of all your labors; you shall be continually abused and crushed, <sup>34</sup> and driven mad by the sight that your eyes shall see. <sup>35</sup> The LORD will strike you on the knees and on the legs with grievous boils of which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head. <sup>36</sup> The LORD will bring you, and the king whom you set over you, to a nation that neither you nor your ancestors have known, where you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone. <sup>37</sup> You shall become an object of horror, a proverb, and a byword among all the peoples where the LORD will lead you.

<sup>44</sup> They shall lend to you but you shall not lend to them; they shall be the head and you shall be the tail.

Luke 11:14-22 (NRSV)

Jesus and Beelzebul

(Mt 12:22–32; Mk 3:19b–30)

<sup>14</sup> Now he was casting out a demon that was mute; when the demon had gone out, the one who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were amazed. <sup>15</sup> But some of them said, “He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons.” <sup>16</sup> Others, to test him, kept demanding from him a sign from heaven. <sup>17</sup> But he knew what they were thinking and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself becomes a desert, and house falls on house. <sup>18</sup> If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? —for you say that I cast out the demons by Beelzebul. <sup>19</sup> Now if I cast out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your exorcists cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. <sup>20</sup> But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out the demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

<sup>16</sup> When the waters saw you, O God, when the waters saw you, they were afraid; the very deep trembled.
<sup>18</sup> The crash of your thunder was in the whirlwind; your lightnings lit up the world; the earth trembled and shook.
<sup>19</sup> Your way was through the sea, your path, through the mighty waters;

yet your footprints were unseen.

Deuteronomy 28:45-68 (NRSV)

<sup>45</sup> All these curses shall come upon you, pursuing and overtaking you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the LORD your God,
by observing the commandments and the decrees that he commanded
you. <sup>46</sup> They shall be among you and your descendants as a sign and a portent forever.

<sup>47</sup> Because you did not serve the LORD your God

joyfully and with gladness of heart for the abundance of everything, <sup>48</sup> therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and lack of everything. He will put an iron yoke on your neck until he has destroyed you. <sup>49</sup> The LORD will bring a nation from far away,
from the end of the earth, to swoop down on you like an eagle, a nation whose language you do not understand, <sup>50</sup> a grim-faced nation showing no respect to the old or favor to the young.
<sup>51</sup> It shall consume the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your ground until you are destroyed, leaving you neither grain, wine, and oil, nor the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock, until it has made you perish. <sup>52</sup> It shall besiege you in all your towns
until your high and fortified
walls, in which you trusted,
come down throughout your land; it shall besiege you in all your towns throughout the land that the LORD your God has given you. <sup>53</sup> In the desperate straits to which the enemy siege reduces you, you will eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your own sons and daughters whom the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>54</sup> Even the most refined and gentle of men among you will begrudge food to his own brother, to the wife whom he embraces, and to the last of his remaining children, <sup>55</sup> giving to none of them any of the flesh of his children whom he is eating, because nothing else remains to him, in the desperate straits to which the enemy siege will reduce you in all your towns. <sup>56</sup> She who is the most refined and gentle among you, so gentle and refined that she does not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground, will begrudge food to the husband whom she embraces, to her own son, and to her own daughter, <sup>57</sup> begrudging even the afterbirth that comes out from between her thighs, and the children that she bears, because she is eating them in secret for lack of anything else, in the desperate straits to which the enemy siege will reduce you in your towns.

<sup>58</sup> If you do not diligently observe all the words of this law that are written in this book, fearing this glorious and awesome name, the LORD your God, <sup>59</sup> then the LORD will overwhelm both you and your offspring with severe and lasting afflictions and grievous and lasting maladies. <sup>60</sup> He will bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were in dread, and they shall cling to you. <sup>61</sup> Every other malady and affliction, even though not recorded in the book of this law, the LORD will inflict on you until you are destroyed. <sup>62</sup> Although once you were as numerous as the stars in heaven, you shall be left few in number, because you did not obey the LORD your God. <sup>63</sup> And just as the LORD took delight in making you prosperous and numerous, so the LORD will take delight in bringing you to ruin and destruction; you shall be plucked off the land that you are entering to possess. <sup>64</sup> The LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone, which neither you nor your ancestors have known.

<sup>65</sup> Among those nations you shall find no ease, no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a languishing spirit. <sup>66</sup> Your life shall hang in doubt before you; night and day you shall be in dread, with no assurance of your life. <sup>67</sup> In the morning you shall say, "If only it were evening!" and at evening you shall say, "If only it were morning!"—because of the dread that your heart shall feel and the sights that your eyes shall see. <sup>68</sup> The LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt, by a route that I promised you would never see again; and there you shall offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer.

<sup>23</sup> Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

The Return of the Unclean Spirit

(Mt 12:43–45)

<sup>24</sup> "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it wanders through waterless regions looking for a resting place, but not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' <sup>25</sup> When it comes, it finds it swept and put in order. <sup>26</sup> Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there; and the last state of that person is worse than the first."

True Blessedness

<sup>27</sup> While he was saying this, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts that nursed you!" <sup>28</sup> But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it!"

The Sign of Jonah

(Mt 12:38–42)

<sup>29</sup> When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, "This generation is an evil generation; it asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup> For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be to this generation. <sup>31</sup> The queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and see, something greater than Solomon is here! <sup>32</sup> The people of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and see, something greater than Jonah is here!

The Light of the Body
(Mt 6:22–23)

<sup>33</sup> “No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar, but on the lampstand so that those who enter may see the light. <sup>34</sup> Your eye is the lamp of your body. If your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light; but if it is not healthy, your body is full of darkness. <sup>35</sup> Therefore consider whether the light in you is not darkness. <sup>36</sup> If then your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, it will be as full of light as when a lamp gives you light with its rays.”

Psalm 78:1-22 (NRSV)

God's Goodness and Israel's Ingratitude

A Maskil of Asaph.

- 1 Give ear, O my people, to my teaching;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
- 2 I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings from of old,
3 things that we have heard and known,
that our ancestors have told us.
- 4 We will not hide them from their children;
we will tell to the coming generation
the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might,
and the wonders that he has done.
- 5 He established a decree in Jacob,
and appointed a law in Israel,
which he commanded our ancestors
to teach to their children;

6 that the next generation
might know them,
the children yet unborn,
and rise up and tell them
to their children,
7 so that they should set their hope in God,
and not forget the works
of God,
but keep his
commandments;
8 and that they should not be like their ancestors,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose heart
was not steadfast,
whose spirit was not faithful to God.
9 The Ephraimites, armed with the bow,
turned back on the day
of battle.
10 They did not keep God's
covenant,
but refused to walk
according to his law.
11 They forgot what he had
done,
and the miracles that he had shown them.
12 In the sight of their ancestors he worked marvels

in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.
13 He divided the sea and let them pass through it,
and made the waters
stand like a heap.
14 In the daytime he led them
with a cloud,
and all night long with a fiery light.
15 He split rocks open in the wilderness,
and gave them drink
abundantly as from the deep.
16 He made streams come out of the rock,
and caused waters to
flow down like rivers.
17 Yet they sinned still more against him,
rebellious against the Most High in the desert.
18 They tested God in their
heart
by demanding the food
they craved.
19 They spoke against God,
saying,
"Can God spread a table
in the wilderness?
20 Even though he struck the rock so that water gushed out

and torrents overflowed,
can he also give bread,
or provide meat for his
people?"

- <sup>21</sup> Therefore, when the LORD
heard, he was full of rage;
a fire was kindled against Jacob,
his anger mounted
against Israel,
<sup>22</sup> because they had no faith
in God,
and did not trust his saving power.

These are the words of the covenant that the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant that he had made with them at Horeb.

*The Covenant
Renewed in Moab*

<sup>2</sup> Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all
his servants and to all his land, <sup>3</sup> the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders. <sup>4</sup> But to this day the LORD has not given you a mind
to understand, or eyes to see,
or ears to hear. <sup>5</sup> I have led you
forty years in the wilderness.
The clothes on your back have not worn out, and the sandals on your feet have not worn out; <sup>6</sup> you have not eaten
bread, and you have not drunk wine or strong drink—so that you may know that I am the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup> When you came to this place, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out against us
for battle, but we defeated

them. <sup>8</sup> We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore diligently observe the words of this covenant, in order that you may succeed in everything that you do.

<sup>10</sup> You stand assembled today, all of you, before the LORD your God—the leaders of your tribes, your elders, and your officials, all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup> your children, your women, and the aliens who are in your camp, both those who cut your wood and those who draw your water— <sup>12</sup> to enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, sworn by an oath, which the LORD your God is making with you today; <sup>13</sup> in order that he may establish you today as his people, and that he may be your God, as he promised you and as he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>14</sup> I am making this covenant, sworn by an oath, not only with you who stand here with us today before the LORD our God, <sup>15</sup> but also with those who are not here with us today. <sup>16</sup> You know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed. <sup>17</sup> You have seen their detestable things, the filthy idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold, that were among them. <sup>18</sup> It may be that there is among you a man or woman, or a family or tribe, whose heart is already turning away from the LORD our God to serve the gods of those nations. It may be that there is among you a root sprouting poisonous and bitter growth. <sup>19</sup> All who hear the words of this oath and bless themselves, thinking in their hearts, “We are safe even though we go our own stubborn ways” (thus bringing disaster on moist and dry alike)— <sup>20</sup> the LORD will be unwilling to pardon them, for the LORD’s anger and passion will smoke against them. All the curses written in this book will descend on them, and the LORD will blot out their names from under heaven. <sup>21</sup> The LORD will single them out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law.

<sup>22</sup> The next generation, your children who rise up after you, as well as the foreigner who comes from a distant country, will see the devastation of that land and the afflictions with which the LORD has afflicted it—<sup>23</sup> all its soil burned out by sulfur and salt, nothing planted, nothing sprouting, unable to support any vegetation, like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD destroyed in his fierce anger—<sup>24</sup> they and indeed all the nations will wonder, “Why has the LORD done thus to this land? What caused this great display of anger?”<sup>25</sup> They will conclude, “It is because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.<sup>26</sup> They turned and served other gods, worshiping them, gods whom they had not known and whom he had not allotted to them;<sup>27</sup> so the anger of the LORD was kindled against that land, bringing on it every curse written in this book.<sup>28</sup> The LORD uprooted them from their land in anger, fury, and great wrath, and cast them into another land, as is now the case.”<sup>29</sup> The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the revealed things belong to us and to our children forever, to observe all the words of this law.

Jesus Denounces

Pharisees and Lawyers

<sup>37</sup> While he was speaking, a Pharisee invited him to dine with him; so he went in and took his place at the table.

<sup>38</sup> The Pharisee was amazed to see that he did not first wash before dinner.<sup>39</sup> Then the Lord said to him, “Now you

Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.<sup>40</sup> You fools! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?

<sup>41</sup> So give for alms those things that are within; and see, everything will be clean for you.

<sup>42</sup> “But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and herbs of all kinds, and neglect justice and the love of God; it is these you ought to have practiced, without neglecting the others.

<sup>43</sup> Woe to you Pharisees! For you love to have the seat of honor in the synagogues and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup> Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without realizing it."

<sup>45</sup> One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, when you say these things, you insult us too." <sup>46</sup> And he said, "Woe also to you lawyers! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not lift a finger to ease them. <sup>47</sup> Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets whom your ancestors killed. <sup>48</sup> So you are witnesses and approve of the deeds of your ancestors; for they killed them, and you build their tombs. <sup>49</sup> Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,' <sup>50</sup> so that this generation may be charged with the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world, <sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be charged against this generation. <sup>52</sup> Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering."

<sup>53</sup> When he went outside, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile toward him and to cross-examine him about many things, <sup>54</sup> lying in wait for him, to catch him in something he might say.

Psalm 78:23-31 (NRSV)

<sup>23</sup> Yet he commanded the skies above,
and opened the doors of heaven;
<sup>24</sup> he rained down on them manna to eat,
and gave them the grain of heaven.
<sup>25</sup> Mortals ate of the bread of angels;

he sent them food in abundance.
<sup>26</sup> He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens,
and by his power he led
out the south wind;
<sup>27</sup> he rained flesh upon them
like dust,
winged birds like the
sand of the seas;
<sup>28</sup> he let them fall within their camp,
all around their
dwellings.
<sup>29</sup> And they ate and were well filled,
for he gave them what
they craved.
<sup>30</sup> But before they had satisfied their craving,
while the food was still in
their mouths,
<sup>31</sup> the anger of God rose against them
and he killed the strongest of them,
and laid low the flower
of Israel.

<sup>1</sup> Better the poor walking in integrity
than one perverse of speech who is a fool.

<sup>2</sup> Desire without knowledge
is not good,
and one who moves too

rages against the LORD.

Deuteronomy 30:1-20 (NRSV)

God's Fidelity Assured
When all these things have happened to you, the blessings and the curses that I have set before you, if you call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you, <sup>2</sup> and return to the LORD your God,
and you and your children
obey him with all your heart and with all your soul, just as I am commanding you today, <sup>3</sup> then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes and have compassion on you,
gathering you again from all the peoples among whom the LORD your God has scattered you. <sup>4</sup> Even if you are exiled to the ends of the world, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there he will bring you back. <sup>5</sup> The LORD your God will bring you into the land that your ancestors possessed, and you will possess it; he will make you more prosperous and numerous than your ancestors.

<sup>6</sup> Moreover, the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, in order that you may live. <sup>7</sup> The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on the adversaries who took advantage of you. <sup>8</sup> Then you shall again obey the LORD, observing all his commandments that I am commanding you today, <sup>9</sup> and the LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, <sup>10</sup> when you obey the LORD your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Exhortation to Choose Life

<sup>11</sup> Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. <sup>12</sup> It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?"

<sup>13</sup> Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, "Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?" <sup>14</sup> No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

<sup>15</sup> See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. <sup>16</sup> If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. <sup>17</sup> But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, <sup>18</sup> I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. <sup>19</sup> I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, <sup>20</sup> loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Luke 12:1-7 (NRSV)

A Warning against Hypocrisy

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile, when the crowd gathered by the thousands, so that they trampled on one another, he began to speak first to his disciples, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, that is, their hypocrisy.

<sup>2</sup> Nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. <sup>3</sup> Therefore whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the housetops.

Exhortation to Fearless Confession

(Mt 10:26–33)

<sup>4</sup> “I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more. <sup>5</sup> But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! <sup>6</sup> Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten in God’s sight.

<sup>7</sup> But even the hairs of your head are all counted. Do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Psalms 78:32-39 (NRSV)

<sup>32</sup> In spite of all this they still sinned;
they did not believe in
his wonders.
<sup>33</sup> So he made their days
vanish like a breath,
and their years in terror.
<sup>34</sup> When he killed them, they sought for him;
they repented and
sought God earnestly.
<sup>35</sup> They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God their redeemer.
<sup>36</sup> But they flattered him with
their mouths;
they lied to him with
their tongues.
<sup>37</sup> Their heart was not steadfast toward him;
they were not true to his
covenant.
<sup>38</sup> Yet he, being compassionate,
forgave their iniquity,
and did not destroy
them;
often he restrained his
anger,

and did not stir up all his
wrath.

<sup>39</sup> He remembered that they were but flesh,
a wind that passes and does not come again.

Proverbs 19:4-5 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> Wealth brings many friends,
but the poor are left friendless.

unpunished, and a liar
will not escape.

Deuteronomy 31:1-29 (NRSV)

*Joshua Becomes Moses' Successor
(Num 27:12-23)*

When Moses had finished
speaking all these words to all Israel, <sup>2</sup> he said to them: "I am now one hundred twenty years old. I am no longer able to get about, and the LORD has told me, 'You shall not cross
over this Jordan.'<sup>3</sup> The LORD your God himself will cross over before you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua also will cross over before you, as the LORD promised. <sup>4</sup>The LORD will do to them as he did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when he destroyed them. <sup>5</sup>The LORD will give them over to you and you shall deal with them in full accord with the command that I have given to you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and bold; have no fear or dread of them, because it is the LORD your God who goes with you; he will not fail you or forsake you.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel: “Be strong and bold, for you are the one who will go with this people into the land that the LORD has sworn to their ancestors to give them; and you will put them in possession of it. <sup>8</sup>It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.”

The Law to Be Read Every Seventh Year

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses wrote down this law, and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Moses commanded them: “Every seventh year, in the scheduled year of remission, during the festival of booths, <sup>11</sup>when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. <sup>12</sup>Assemble the people—men, women, and children, as well as the aliens residing in your towns—so that they may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God and to observe diligently all the words of this law, <sup>13</sup>and so that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.”

Moses and Joshua Receive God’s Charge

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Your time to die is near; call

Joshua and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting,<sup>15</sup> and the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud; the pillar of cloud stood at the entrance to the tent.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Soon you will lie down with your ancestors. Then this people will begin to prostitute themselves to the foreign gods in their midst, the gods of the land into which they are going; they will forsake me, breaking my covenant that I have made with them.”<sup>17</sup> My anger will be kindled against them in that day. I will forsake them and hide my face from them; they will become easy prey, and many terrible troubles will come upon them. In that day they will say, ‘Have not these troubles come upon us because our God is not in our midst?’<sup>18</sup> On that day I will surely hide my face on account of all the evil they have done by turning to other gods.

Israelites; put it in their mouths, in order that this song may be a witness for me against the Israelites.<sup>20</sup> For when I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I promised on oath to their ancestors, and they have eaten their fill and grown fat, they will turn to other gods and serve them, despising me and breaking my covenant.<sup>21</sup> And when many terrible troubles come upon them, this song will confront them as a witness, because it will not be lost from the mouths of their descendants. For I know what they are inclined to do even now, before I have brought them into the land that I promised them on oath.”<sup>22</sup> That very day Moses wrote this song and taught it to the Israelites.

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD commissioned Joshua son of Nun and said, “Be strong and bold, for you shall bring the Israelites into the land that I promised them; I will be with you.”

<sup>24</sup>When Moses had finished writing down in a book the words of this law to the very end, <sup>25</sup> Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, <sup>26</sup> "Take this book of the law and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God; let it remain there as a witness against you. <sup>27</sup> For I know well how rebellious and stubborn you are. If you already have been so rebellious toward the LORD while I am still alive among you, how much more after my death! <sup>28</sup> Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officials, so that I may recite these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them. <sup>29</sup> For I know that after my death you will surely act corruptly, turning aside from the way that I have commanded you. In time to come trouble will befall you, because you will do what is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger through the work of your hands."

<sup>8</sup> "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God; <sup>9</sup> but whoever denies me before others will be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup> And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>11</sup> When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, do not worry about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say; <sup>12</sup> for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that very hour what you ought to say."

Psalms 78:40-55 (NRSV)

- <sup>40</sup> How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the desert!
- <sup>41</sup> They tested God again and again, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>42</sup> They did not keep in mind his power,

or the day when he redeemed them from
the foe;
43 when he displayed his signs in Egypt,
and his miracles in the fields of Zoan.
44 He turned their rivers to
blood,
so that they could not
drink of their streams.
45 He sent among them
swarms of flies, which devoured them,
and frogs, which
destroyed them.
46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar,
and the fruit of their labor to the locust.
47 He destroyed their vines
with hail,
and their sycamores with
frost.
48 He gave over their cattle to
the hail,
and their flocks to
thunderbolts.
49 He let loose on them his fierce anger,
wrath, indignation, and distress,
a company of destroying
angels.

50 He made a path for his
anger;
he did not spare them
from death,
but gave their lives over
to the plague.
51 He struck all the firstborn
in Egypt,
the first issue of their strength in the tents of Ham.
52 Then he led out his people
like sheep,
and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
53 He led them in safety, so that they were not afraid;
but the sea
overwhelmed their
enemies.
54 And he brought them to
his holy hill,
to the mountain that his right hand had won.
55 He drove out nations
before them;
he apportioned them for a possession
and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

July 14

Deuteronomy 31:30-32:27 (NRSV)

The Song of Moses

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses recited the words of this song, to the very end, in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

32 Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak;
let the earth hear the
words of my mouth.
<sup>2</sup> May my teaching drop like
the rain,
my speech condense like
the dew;
like gentle rain on grass,

like showers on new growth.

<sup>3</sup> For I will proclaim the name of the LORD;
ascribe greatness to our
God!
<sup>4</sup> The Rock, his work is
perfect,
and all his ways are just.
A faithful God, without deceit,
just and upright is he;
<sup>5</sup> yet his degenerate children have dealt falsely with
him,
a perverse and crooked
generation.
<sup>6</sup> Do you thus repay the
LORD,
O foolish and senseless
people?
Is not he your father, who created you,
who made you and
established you?
<sup>7</sup> Remember the days of old,
consider the years long past;
ask your father, and he will inform you;
your elders, and they will tell you.
<sup>8</sup> When the Most High apportioned the
nations,

when he divided
humankind,
he fixed the boundaries of
the peoples
according to the number of the gods;
9 the LORD's own portion
was his people,
Jacob his allotted share.
10 He sustained him in a desert land,
in a howling wilderness
waste;
he shielded him, cared for
him,
guarded him as the apple
of his eye.
11 As an eagle stirs up its nest,
and hovers over its young;
as it spreads its wings,
takes them up,
and bears them aloft on
its pinions,
12 the LORD alone guided him;
no foreign god was with
him.
13 He set him atop the heights of the land,
and fed him with
produce of the field;
he nursed him with honey
from the crags,
with oil from flinty rock;

14 curds from the herd, and milk from the flock,
with fat of lambs and rams;
Bashan bulls and goats,
together with the choicest wheat—
you drank fine wine from
the blood of grapes.
15 Jacob ate his fill; Jeshurun grew fat, and kicked.
You grew fat, bloated,
and gorged!
He abandoned God who made him,
and scoffed at the Rock
of his salvation.
16 They made him jealous
with strange gods,
with abhorrent things
they provoked him.
17 They sacrificed to demons,
not God,
to deities they had never
known,
to new ones recently arrived,
whom your ancestors
had not feared.
18 You were unmindful of the Rock that bore you;
you forgot the God who gave you birth.

19 The LORD saw it, and was jealous;
he spurned his sons and daughters.
20 He said: I will hide my face
from them,
I will see what their end
will be;
for they are a perverse
generation,
children in whom there
is no faithfulness.
21 They made me jealous
with what is no god, provoked me with their
idols.
So I will make them jealous
with what is no people, provoke them with a foolish nation.
22 For a fire is kindled by my
anger,
and burns to the depths
of Sheol;
it devours the earth and its
increase,
and sets on fire the foundations of the
mountains.
23 I will heap disasters upon
them,
spend my arrows against
them:
24 wasting hunger,
burning consumption,

bitter pestilence.
The teeth of beasts I will send against them,
with venom of things
crawling in the dust.
25 In the street the sword
shall bereave,
and in the chambers
terror,
for young man and woman
alike,
nursing child and old
gray head.
26 I thought to scatter them
and blot out the memory of them from
humankind;
27 but I feared provocation by
the enemy,
for their adversaries
might misunderstand
and say, "Our hand is triumphant;
it was not the LORD who did all this."

Luke 12:13-34 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Rich Fool

<sup>13</sup> Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." <sup>14</sup> But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator
over you?" <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.”<sup>16</sup> Then he told them a parable: “The land of a rich man produced abundantly.<sup>17</sup> And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’<sup>18</sup> Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.’<sup>19</sup> And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.’<sup>20</sup> But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’<sup>21</sup> So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

Do Not Worry

<sup>22</sup> He said to his disciples, “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear.<sup>23</sup> For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.<sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds!<sup>25</sup> And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life?<sup>26</sup> If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest?<sup>27</sup> Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.<sup>28</sup> But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith!<sup>29</sup> And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying.<sup>30</sup> For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.<sup>31</sup> Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.<sup>32</sup> “Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.<sup>33</sup> Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.<sup>34</sup> For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Psalm 78:56-59 (NRSV)

<sup>56</sup> Yet they tested the Most High God,
and rebelled against him.
They did not observe his decrees,
<sup>57</sup> but turned away and were faithless like their ancestors;
they twisted like a treacherous bow.
<sup>58</sup> For they provoked him to anger with their high places;
they moved him to jealousy with their idols.
<sup>59</sup> When God heard, he was full of wrath,
and he utterly rejected Israel.

Proverbs 19:8–9 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> To get wisdom is to love oneself;
to keep understanding is to prosper.
<sup>9</sup> A false witness will not go unpunished,
and the liar will perish.

July 15

Deuteronomy 32:28-52 (NRSV)

<sup>28</sup> They are a nation void of sense;
there is no understanding in them.
<sup>29</sup> If they were wise, they would understand this;
they would discern what the end would be.
<sup>30</sup> How could one have routed a thousand,
and two put a myriad to flight,
unless their Rock had sold them,
the LORD had given them up?

31 Indeed their rock is not like our Rock;
our enemies are fools.
32 Their vine comes from the vinestock of Sodom,
from the vineyards of Gomorrah;
their grapes are grapes of poison,
their clusters are bitter;
33 their wine is the poison of serpents,
the cruel venom of asps.
34 Is not this laid up in store
with me,
sealed up in my
treasuries?
35 Vengeance is mine, and recompense,
for the time when their foot shall slip;
because the day of their calamity is at hand,
their doom comes swiftly.
36 Indeed the LORD will vindicate his people,
have compassion on his
servants,
when he sees that their
power is gone,
neither bond nor free
remaining.
37 Then he will say: Where are their gods,

the rock in which they
took refuge,
38 who ate the fat of their sacrifices,
and drank the wine of
their libations?
Let them rise up and help
you,
let them be your
protection!
39 See now that I, even I, am
he;
there is no god besides
me.
I kill and I make alive;
I wound and I heal;
and no one can deliver
from my hand.
40 For I lift up my hand to
heaven,
and swear: As I live
forever,
41 when I whet my flashing
sword,
and my hand takes hold
on judgment;
I will take vengeance on
my adversaries,
and will repay those who hate me.
42 I will make my arrows
drunk with blood,
and my sword shall devour flesh—

with the blood of the slain
and the captives,
from the long-haired
enemy.

<sup>43</sup> Praise, O heavens, his
people,
worship him, all you
gods!

For he will avenge the blood of his children,
and take vengeance on
his adversaries;
he will repay those who hate him,
and cleanse the land for
his people.

<sup>44</sup> Moses came and recited
all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua son of Nun.

<sup>45</sup> When Moses had finished reciting all these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup> he said to them:
“Take to heart all the words
that I am giving in witness against you today; give them
as a command to your children, so that they may diligently observe all the words of this law. <sup>47</sup> This is no trifling matter for you, but rather your very life; through it you may live long in the land
that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.”

Moses' Death Foretold

<sup>48</sup> On that very day the LORD addressed Moses as follows: <sup>49</sup> “Ascend this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, across from Jericho, and view the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites for a possession; <sup>50</sup> you shall die there on the mountain that you ascend and shall be gathered to your kin,
as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his kin; <sup>51</sup> because both of you broke faith with me
among the Israelites at the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the wilderness of Zin, by failing to maintain my holiness
among the Israelites.
<sup>52</sup> Although you may view the land from a distance, you shall not enter it—the land that I am giving to the Israelites.”

Luke 12:35-48 (NRSV)

Watchful Slaves

<sup>35</sup> “Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; <sup>36</sup> be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks.<sup>37</sup> Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them.<sup>38</sup> If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

<sup>39</sup>“But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.”<sup>40</sup> You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

*The Faithful or the Unfaithful Slave
(Mt 24:45–51)*

<sup>41</sup>Peter said, “Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?”<sup>42</sup> And the Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and prudent manager whom his master will put in charge of his slaves, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?”<sup>43</sup> Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives.<sup>44</sup> Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.<sup>45</sup> But if that slave says to himself, ‘My master is delayed in coming,’ and if he begins to beat the other slaves, men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk,<sup>46</sup> the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and put him with the unfaithful.<sup>47</sup> That slave who knew what his master wanted, but did not prepare himself or do what was wanted, will receive a severe beating.<sup>48</sup> But the one who did not know and did what deserved a beating will receive a light beating. From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded.

<sup>60</sup> He abandoned his dwelling at Shiloh,
the tent where he dwelt
among mortals,
<sup>61</sup> and delivered his power to captivity,

his glory to the hand of
the foe.

- 62 He gave his people to the
sword,
and vented his wrath on
his heritage.
- 63 Fire devoured their young men,
and their girls had no
marriage song.
- 64 Their priests fell by the
sword,
and their widows made
no lamentation.

Proverbs 19:10–12 (NRSV)

- 10 It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury,
much less for a slave to rule over princes.
- 11 Those with good sense are
slow to anger,
and it is their glory to overlook an offense.
- 12 A king's anger is like the growling of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

Deuteronomy 33:1-17 (NRSV)
Moses' Final Blessing on Israel

This is the blessing with which Moses, the man of God,
blessed the Israelites before his death. <sup>2</sup> He said:

The LORD came from Sinai,
and dawned from Seir
upon us;
he shone forth from Mount Paran.

With him were myriads of holy ones;
at his right, a host of his own.

- <sup>3</sup> Indeed, O favorite among
peoples,
all his holy ones were in
your charge;
they marched at your heels,
accepted direction from
you.

- <sup>4</sup> Moses charged us with the
law,
as a possession for the assembly of Jacob.

- <sup>5</sup> There arose a king in Jeshurun,
when the leaders of the people assembled—

the united tribes of Israel.
6 May Reuben live, and not die out,
even though his numbers
are few.
7 And this he said of Judah:
O LORD, give heed to Judah,
and bring him to his
people;
strengthen his hands for
him,
and be a help against his
adversaries.
8 And of Levi he said:
Give to Levi your Thummim,
and your Urim to your loyal one,
whom you tested at Massah,
with whom you
contended at the waters of Meribah;
9 who said of his father and mother,
“I regard them not”;
he ignored his kin,
and did not acknowledge
his children.
For they observed your
word,
and kept your covenant.
10 They teach Jacob your ordinances,

and Israel your law;
they place incense before
you,
and whole burnt
offerings on your altar.
11 Bless, O LORD, his substance,
and accept the work of
his hands;
crush the loins of his
adversaries,
of those that hate him,
so that they do not rise
again.
12 Of Benjamin he said:
The beloved of the LORD
rests in safety—
the High God surrounds
him all day long—
the beloved rests
between his shoulders.
13 And of Joseph he said:
Blessed by the LORD be his
land,
with the choice gifts of heaven above,
and of the deep that lies beneath;
14 with the choice fruits of the sun,
and the rich yield of the months;
15 with the finest produce of the ancient mountains,

and the abundance of
the everlasting hills;
<sup>16</sup> with the choice gifts of the earth and its fullness,
and the favor of the one who dwells on Sinai.

Let these come on the head of Joseph,
on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

<sup>17</sup> A firstborn bull—majesty is
his!

His horns are the horns
of a wild ox;
with them he gores the
peoples,
driving them to the ends
of the earth;
such are the myriads of Ephraim,
such the thousands of Manasseh.

Luke 12:49-59 (NRSV)

Jesus the Cause of Division
(Mt 10:34–39)

<sup>49</sup> “I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! <sup>50</sup> I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed!

<sup>51</sup> Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! <sup>52</sup> From now on five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three; <sup>53</sup> they will be divided:

father against son
and son against father,
mother against daughter and daughter against
mother,
mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law
and daughter-in-law
against mother-in-
law.”

Interpreting the Time
(Mt 16:1–4)

<sup>54</sup> He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, ‘It is going to rain’; and so it happens. <sup>55</sup> And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat’; and it happens. <sup>56</sup> You hypocrites!
You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky,
but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

Settling with Your Opponent

<sup>57</sup> “And why do you not judge
for yourselves what is right?

<sup>58</sup> Thus, when you go with your accuser before a magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle the case, or you may be dragged before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you in prison. <sup>59</sup> I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny.”

Psalm 78:65-69 (NRSV)

<sup>65</sup> Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
like a warrior shouting because of wine.
<sup>66</sup> He put his adversaries to rout;
he put them to everlasting disgrace.
<sup>67</sup> He rejected the tent of Joseph,
he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;
<sup>68</sup> but he chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion, which he loves.
<sup>69</sup> He built his sanctuary like the high heavens,
like the earth, which he has founded forever.

<sup>13</sup> A stupid child is ruin to a father,
and a wife’s quarreling is a continual dripping of rain.
<sup>14</sup> House and wealth are inherited from parents,
but a prudent wife is from the LORD.

July 17

Deuteronomy 33:18-29 (NRSV)

<sup>18</sup> And of Zebulun he said:
Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out;
and Issachar, in your tents.
<sup>19</sup> They call peoples to the mountain;
there they offer the right sacrifices;
for they suck the affluence of the seas
and the hidden treasures of the sand.
<sup>20</sup> And of Gad he said:

- Blessed be the enlargement of Gad!
 Gad lives like a lion;
 he tears at arm and scalp.
- 21 He chose the best for himself,
 for there a commander's allotment was reserved;
 he came at the head of the
 people,
 he executed the justice
 of the LORD,
 and his ordinances for Israel.
- 22 And of Dan he said:
 Dan is a lion's whelp
 that leaps forth from Bashan.
- 23 And of Naphtali he said:
 O Naphtali, sated with favor,
 full of the blessing of the
 LORD,
 possess the west and the south.
- 24 And of Asher he said:
 Most blessed of sons be Asher;
 may he be the favorite of
 his brothers,
 and may he dip his foot
 in oil.
- 25 Your bars are iron and bronze;
 and as your days, so is
 your strength.
- 26 There is none like God, O
 Jeshurun,
 who rides through the
 heavens to your help,
 majestic through the skies.
- 27 He subdues the ancient
 gods,
 shatters the forces of
 old;
 he drove out the enemy
 before you,
 and said, "Destroy!"
- 28 So Israel lives in safety,
 untroubled is Jacob's
 abode
 in a land of grain and wine,
 where the heavens drop down dew.
- 29 Happy are you, O Israel!
 Who is like you,
 a people saved by the
 LORD,
 the shield of your help,
 and the sword of your triumph!
 Your enemies shall come
 fawning to you,
 and you shall tread on
 their backs.

Luke 13:1-9 (NRSV)

Repent or Perish

<sup>1</sup> At that very time there were some present who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup> He asked them, “Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? <sup>3</sup> No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. <sup>4</sup> Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup> No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.”

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

<sup>6</sup> Then he told this parable: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. <sup>7</sup> So he said to the gardener, ‘See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?’

<sup>8</sup> He replied, ‘Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. <sup>9</sup> If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.’ ”

<sup>70</sup> He chose his servant
David,
and took him from the
sheepfolds;
<sup>71</sup> from tending the nursing ewes he brought him
to be the shepherd of his people Jacob,
of Israel, his inheritance.
<sup>72</sup> With upright heart he tended them,
and guided them with skillful hand.

Proverbs 19:15–16 (NRSV)

<sup>15</sup> Laziness brings on deep sleep;
an idle person will suffer
hunger.
<sup>16</sup> Those who keep the commandment will
live;
those who are heedless
of their ways will die.

Deuteronomy 34:1-Joshua 1:18 (NRSV)

Moses Dies and Is Buried in the Land of Moab

Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the LORD showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, <sup>2</sup> all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, <sup>3</sup> the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. <sup>4</sup> The LORD said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” <sup>5</sup> Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab, at the LORD’s command. <sup>6</sup> He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. <sup>7</sup> Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. <sup>8</sup> The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup> Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face. <sup>11</sup> He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, <sup>12</sup> and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua 1:1–18 (NRSV)

God's Commission to Joshua

After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spoke to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' assistant, saying, <sup>2</sup> "My servant Moses is dead. Now proceed to cross the Jordan, you and all this people, into the land that I am giving to them, to the Israelites. <sup>3</sup> Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given to you, as I promised to Moses. <sup>4</sup> From the wilderness and the Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, to the Great Sea in the west shall be your territory. <sup>5</sup> No one shall be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you. <sup>6</sup> Be strong and courageous; for you shall put this people in possession of the land that I swore to their ancestors to give them. <sup>7</sup> Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to act in accordance with all the law that my servant Moses commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, so that you may be successful wherever you go. <sup>8</sup> This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth; you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to act in accordance with all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall be successful. <sup>9</sup> I hereby command you: Be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

Preparations for the Invasion

<sup>10</sup> Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, <sup>11</sup> "Pass through the camp, and command the people: 'Prepare your provisions; for in three days you are to cross over the Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess.' "

<sup>12</sup> To the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh Joshua said, <sup>13</sup> "Remember the word that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is providing you a place of rest, and will give you this land.’<sup>14</sup> Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land that Moses gave you beyond the Jordan. But all the warriors among you shall cross over armed before your kindred and shall help them,<sup>15</sup> until the LORD gives rest to your kindred as well as to you, and they too take possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to your own land and take possession of it, the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan to the east.”

<sup>16</sup> They answered Joshua: “All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.<sup>17</sup> Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses!<sup>18</sup> Whoever rebels against your orders and disobeys your words, whatever you command, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous.”

Jesus Heals a Crippled Woman

<sup>10</sup> Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.<sup>11</sup> And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight.<sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, you are set free from your ailment.”<sup>13</sup> When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God.<sup>14</sup> But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, “There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.”<sup>15</sup> But the Lord answered him and said, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water?<sup>16</sup> And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?”

<sup>17</sup> When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

(Mt 13:31–32; Mk 4:30–32)

<sup>18</sup> He said therefore, “What is the kingdom of God like? And to what should I compare it? <sup>19</sup> It is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in the garden; it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches.”

The Parable of the Yeast
(Mt 13:33)

<sup>20</sup> And again he said, “To what should I compare the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup> It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”

Psalm 79:1-8 (NRSV)

Plea for Mercy for Jerusalem

A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> O God, the nations have come into your inheritance;

they have defiled your holy temple;
they have laid Jerusalem in ruins.

<sup>2</sup> They have given the bodies of your servants to the birds of the air for food,
the flesh of your faithful to the wild animals of the earth.

<sup>3</sup> They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.

<sup>4</sup> We have become a taunt to our neighbors, mocked and derided by those around us.

<sup>5</sup> How long, O LORD? Will you be angry forever?
Will your jealous wrath burn like fire?

<sup>6</sup> Pour out your anger on the nations that do not know you, and on the kingdoms that do not call on your name.

<sup>7</sup> For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his habitation.

8 Do not remember against us the iniquities of our ancestors;
let your compassion come speedily to meet us,
for we are brought very low.

Proverbs 19:17 (NRSV)

17 Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the LORD, and will be repaid in full.

Spies Sent to Jericho
(Heb 11:31)

Then Joshua son of Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." So they went, and entered the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and spent the night there. <sup>2</sup>The king of Jericho was told, "Some Israelites have come here tonight to search out the land." <sup>3</sup>Then the king of Jericho sent orders to Rahab, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who entered your house, for they have come only to search out the whole land." <sup>4</sup>But the woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said, "True, the men came to me, but I did not know where they came from." <sup>5</sup>And when it was time to close the gate at dark, the men went out. Where the men went I do not know. Pursue them quickly, for you can overtake them." <sup>6</sup>She had, however, brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax that she had laid out on the roof. <sup>7</sup>So the men pursued them on the way to the Jordan as far as the fords. As soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

<sup>8</sup>Before they went to sleep, she came up to them on the roof <sup>9</sup>and said to the men: "I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that dread of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt in fear before you. <sup>10</sup> For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup> As soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no courage left in any of us because of you. The LORD your God is indeed God in heaven above and on earth below. <sup>12</sup> Now then, since I have dealt kindly with you, swear to me by the LORD that you in turn will deal kindly with my family. Give me a sign of good faith <sup>13</sup> that you will spare my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death.”

<sup>14</sup> The men said to her, “Our life for yours! If you do not tell this business of ours, then we will deal kindly and faithfully with you when the LORD gives us the land.”

<sup>15</sup> Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the outer side of the city wall and she resided within the wall itself. <sup>16</sup> She said to them, “Go toward the hill country, so that the pursuers may not come upon you. Hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned; then afterward you may go your way.” <sup>17</sup> The men said to her, “We will be released from this oath that you have made us swear to you <sup>18</sup> if we invade the land and you do not tie this crimson cord in the window through which you let us down, and you do not gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers, and all your family. <sup>19</sup> If any of you go out of the doors of your house into the street, they shall be responsible for their own death, and we shall be innocent; but if a hand is laid upon any who are with you in the house, we shall bear the responsibility for their death. <sup>20</sup> But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be released from this oath that you made us swear to you.” <sup>21</sup> She said, “According to your words, so be it.” She sent them away and they departed. Then she tied the crimson cord in the window.

<sup>22</sup> They departed and went into the hill country and stayed there three days, until the pursuers returned. The pursuers had searched all along the way and found nothing. <sup>23</sup> Then the two men came down again from the hill country. They crossed over, came to Joshua son of Nun, and told him all that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup> They said to Joshua, “Truly the LORD has given all the land into our hands; moreover all the inhabitants of the land melt in fear before us.”

Luke 13:22-35 (NRSV)

The Narrow Door

(Mt 7:13–14)

<sup>22</sup> Jesus went through one town and village after another, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> Someone asked him, “Lord, will only a few be saved?” He said to them, <sup>24</sup> “Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. <sup>25</sup> When once the owner of the house has got up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, ‘Lord, open to us,’ then in reply he will say to you, ‘I do not know where you come from.’ <sup>26</sup> Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’ <sup>27</sup> But he will say, ‘I do not know where you come from; go away from me, all you evildoers!’ <sup>28</sup> There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrown out. <sup>29</sup> Then people will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup> Indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

The Lament over Jerusalem

(Mt 23:37–39)

<sup>31</sup> At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.” <sup>32</sup> He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. <sup>33</sup> Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.' <sup>34</sup> Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! <sup>35</sup> See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.' "

Psalm 79:9-13 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> Help us, O God of our salvation,
for the glory of your name;
deliver us, and forgive our sins,
for your name's sake.
<sup>10</sup> Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of your servants

be known among the nations before our eyes.

<sup>11</sup> Let the groans of the prisoners come before you;
according to your great power preserve those doomed to die.

<sup>12</sup> Return sevenfold into the bosom of our neighbors
the taunts with which they taunted you, O Lord!

<sup>13</sup> Then we your people, the flock of your pasture,
will give thanks to you forever;
from generation to generation we will recount your praise.

Proverbs 19:18-19 (NRSV)

<sup>18</sup> Discipline your children while there is hope;
do not set your heart on their destruction.
<sup>19</sup> A violent tempered person will pay the penalty;
if you effect a rescue, you will only have to do it again.

Joshua 3:1-17 (NRSV)

Israel Crosses the Jordan

Early in the morning Joshua rose and set out from Shittim with all the Israelites, and they came to the Jordan. They camped there before crossing over. <sup>2</sup>At the end of three days the officers went through the camp <sup>3</sup>and commanded the people, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God being carried by the levitical priests, then you shall set out from your place. Follow it, <sup>4</sup>so that you may know the way you should go, for you have not passed this way before. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, a distance of about two thousand cubits; do not come any nearer to it.” <sup>5</sup>Then Joshua said to the people, “Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you.” <sup>6</sup>To the priests Joshua said, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass on in front of the people.” So they took up the ark of the covenant and went in front of the people.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that I will be with you as I was with Moses. <sup>8</sup>You are the one who shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.’” <sup>9</sup>Joshua then said to the Israelites, “Draw near and hear the words of the LORD your God.” <sup>10</sup>Joshua said, “By this you shall know that among you is the living God who without fail will drive out from before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites: <sup>11</sup>the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going to pass before you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>So now select twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe. <sup>13</sup>When the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan flowing from above shall be cut off; they shall stand in a single heap.”

<sup>14</sup> When the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, the priests bearing the ark of the covenant were in front of the people. <sup>15</sup> Now the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest. So when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the edge of the water, <sup>16</sup> the waters flowing from above stood still, rising up in a single heap far off at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan, while those flowing toward the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people crossed over opposite Jericho. <sup>17</sup> While all Israel were crossing over on dry ground, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, until the entire nation finished crossing over the Jordan.

Jesus Heals the

Man with Dropsy

<sup>1</sup> On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

<sup>2</sup> Just then, in front of him, there was a man who had dropsy. <sup>3</sup> And Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees, “Is it lawful to cure people on the sabbath, or not?” <sup>4</sup> But they were silent. So Jesus took him and healed him, and sent him away. <sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, “If one of you has a child or an ox that has fallen into a well, will you not immediately pull it out on a sabbath day?” <sup>6</sup> And they could not reply to this.

Prayer for Israel's Restoration

To the leader: on Lilies, a Covenant.

Of Asaph. A Psalm.

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock!
You who are enthroned upon the cherubim,
shine forth
- <sup>2</sup> before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh.
Stir up your might,

and come to save us!
3 Restore us, O God;
let your face shine, that
we may be saved.
4 O LORD God of hosts,
how long will you be angry with your
people's prayers?
5 You have fed them with the bread of tears,
and given them tears to drink in full measure.
6 You make us the scorn of our neighbors;
our enemies laugh
among themselves.
7 Restore us, O God of hosts;
let your face shine, that
we may be saved.
8 You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out the
nations and planted it.
9 You cleared the ground for
it;
it took deep root and
filled the land.
10 The mountains were covered with its shade,
the mighty cedars with
its branches;
11 it sent out its branches to
the sea,
and its shoots to the River.

12 Why then have you broken down its walls,
so that all who pass
along the way pluck its fruit?
13 The boar from the forest
ravages it,
and all that move in the field feed on it.

Proverbs 19:20–21 (NRSV)

20 Listen to advice and accept
instruction,
that you may gain
wisdom for the future.
21 The human mind may devise many plans,
but it is the purpose of the LORD that will be established.

Joshua 4:1-24 (NRSV)

Twelve Stones Set Up at Gilgal
When the entire nation
had finished crossing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua: <sup>2</sup>“Select twelve men from the people, one from each tribe,<sup>3</sup> and command them, ‘Take twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet stood, carry them over with you, and lay them down in the place where you camp tonight.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> Then Joshua summoned the twelve men from the Israelites, whom he had appointed, one from each tribe. <sup>5</sup> Joshua said to them, “Pass on before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, one for each of the tribes of the Israelites,<sup>6</sup> so that this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come, ‘What do those stones mean to you?’ <sup>7</sup> then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off in front of the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the Israelites a memorial forever.”

took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, as the LORD told Joshua, carried them over with them to the place where they camped, and laid them down there.

<sup>9</sup> (Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.)

<sup>10</sup> The priests who bore the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan, until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to tell the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people crossed over in haste.

<sup>11</sup> As soon as all the people had finished crossing over, the ark of the LORD, and the priests, crossed over in front of the people. <sup>12</sup> The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the Israelites, as Moses had ordered them. <sup>13</sup> About forty thousand armed for war crossed over before the LORD to the plains of Jericho for battle.

<sup>14</sup> On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they stood in awe of him, as they had stood in awe of Moses, all the days of his life.

<sup>18</sup> When the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests’ feet touched dry ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks, as before.

<sup>19</sup> The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho. <sup>20</sup> Those twelve stones, which they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal, <sup>21</sup> saying to the Israelites, “When your children ask their parents in time to come,

‘What do these stones mean?’ <sup>22</sup> then you shall let your children know, ‘Israel crossed over the Jordan here on dry ground.’ <sup>23</sup> For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up for us until we crossed over, <sup>24</sup> so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, and so that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”

Humility and Hospitality

<sup>7</sup> When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable.

<sup>8</sup> “When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; <sup>9</sup> and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, ‘Give this person your place,’ and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. <sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. <sup>11</sup> For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup> He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. <sup>13</sup> But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. <sup>14</sup> And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

*The Parable of
the Great Dinner
(Mt 22:1-14)*

<sup>15</sup> One of the dinner guests, on hearing this, said to him, "Blessed is anyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!" <sup>16</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Someone gave a great dinner and invited many. <sup>17</sup> At the time for the dinner he sent his slave to say to those who had been invited, 'Come; for everything is ready now.'

<sup>18</sup> But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land, and I must go out and see it; please accept my regrets.' <sup>19</sup> Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please accept my regrets.'

<sup>20</sup> Another said, 'I have just been married, and therefore I cannot come.' <sup>21</sup> So the slave returned and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.' <sup>22</sup> And the slave said, 'Sir, what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.' <sup>23</sup> Then the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the roads and lanes, and compel people to come in, so that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup> For I tell you, none of those who were invited will taste my dinner.' "

Psalms 80:14-19 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> Turn again, O God of hosts;
look down from heaven,
and see;
have regard for this vine, <sup>15</sup> the stock that your right hand planted.
<sup>16</sup> They have burned it with fire, they have cut it
down;
may they perish at the rebuke of your
countenance.
<sup>17</sup> But let your hand be upon the one at your right
hand,
the one whom you made
strong for yourself.
<sup>18</sup> Then we will never turn back from you;
give us life, and we will
call on your name.
<sup>19</sup> Restore us, O LORD God of hosts;
let your face shine, that
we may be saved.

Proverbs 19:22–23 (NRSV)

<sup>22</sup> What is desirable in a person is loyalty,
and it is better to be poor than a liar.

indeed;

filled with it one rests secure and suffers no
harm.

Joshua 5:1-15 (NRSV)

The New Generation Circumcised

5 When all the kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan for the Israelites until they had crossed over, their hearts melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them, because of the Israelites.

<sup>2</sup> At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites a second time.” <sup>3</sup> So Joshua made flint knives, and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath-haaraloth. <sup>4</sup> This is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the males of the people who came out of Egypt, all the warriors, had died during the journey through the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> Although all the people who came out had been circumcised, yet all the people born on the journey through the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt had not been circumcised. <sup>6</sup> For the Israelites traveled forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, the warriors who came out of Egypt, perished, not having listened to the voice of the LORD. To them the LORD swore that he would not let them see the land that he had sworn to their ancestors to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup> So it was their children, whom he raised up in their place, that Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

<sup>8</sup> When the circumcising of all the nation was done, they remained in their places in the camp until they were healed.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away from you the disgrace of Egypt." And so that place is called Gilgal to this day.

The Passover at Gilgal

(Heb 11:30)

<sup>10</sup> While the Israelites were camped in Gilgal they kept the passover in the evening on the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup> On the day after the passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. <sup>12</sup> The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

Joshua's Vision

<sup>13</sup> Once when Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing before him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you one of us, or one of our adversaries?" <sup>14</sup> He replied, "Neither; but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and he said to him, "What do you command your servant, my lord?" <sup>15</sup> The commander of the army of the LORD said to Joshua, "Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy." And Joshua did so.

Luke 14:25-35 (NRSV)

The Cost of Discipleship
(Mt 10:34-39)

<sup>25</sup> Now large crowds were traveling with him; and he turned and said to them, <sup>26</sup> "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup> Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. <sup>28</sup> For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? <sup>29</sup> Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, <sup>30</sup> saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' <sup>31</sup> Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. <sup>33</sup> So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

About Salt

(Mt 5:13; Mk 9:50)

<sup>34</sup> "Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? <sup>35</sup> It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; they throw it away. Let anyone with ears to hear listen!"

God's Appeal to Stubborn Israel

To the leader: according to The Gittith. Of Asaph.

- 1 Sing aloud to God our strength;
shout for joy to the God of Jacob.
- 2 Raise a song, sound the tambourine,
the sweet lyre with the harp.
- 3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon,

at the full moon, on our festal day.

<sup>4</sup> For it is a statute for Israel,
an ordinance of the God
of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> He made it a decree in Joseph,
when he went out over the land of Egypt.

I hear a voice I had not
known:

<sup>6</sup> “I relieved your shoulder
of the burden;
your hands were freed
from the basket.

<sup>7</sup> In distress you called, and I rescued you;

I answered you in the secret place of thunder;

I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

Joshua 6:1-27 (NRSV)

Jericho Taken and Destroyed

Now Jericho was shut up inside and out because of the Israelites; no one came out and no one went in. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have handed Jericho over to you,
along with its king and soldiers. <sup>3</sup>You shall march around the city, all the warriors circling the city once.
Thus you shall do for six days,
<sup>4</sup>with seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams’ horns
before the ark. On the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, the priests blowing the trumpets.
<sup>5</sup>When they make a long blast
with the ram’s horn, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people
shall shout with a great shout;
and the wall of the city will fall
down flat, and all the people shall charge straight ahead.”

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark
of the covenant, and have seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark of the LORD."

<sup>7</sup> To the people he said, "Go forward and march around the city; have the armed men pass on before the ark of the LORD."

<sup>8</sup> As Joshua had commanded the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD went forward, blowing the trumpets, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD following them. <sup>9</sup> And the armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets; the rear guard came after the ark, while the trumpets blew continually.

<sup>10</sup> To the people Joshua gave this command: "You shall not shout or let your voice be heard, nor shall you utter a word, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout."

<sup>11</sup> So the ark of the LORD went around the city, circling it once; and they came into the camp, and spent the night in the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Then Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD passed on, blowing the trumpets continually. The armed men went before them, and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets blew continually.

<sup>14</sup> On the second day they marched around the city once and then returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

<sup>15</sup> On the seventh day they rose early, at dawn, and marched around the city in the same manner seven times. It was only on that day that they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup> And at the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city."

<sup>17</sup> The city and all that is in it shall be devoted to the LORD for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall live because she hid the messengers we sent. <sup>18</sup> As for you, keep away from the things devoted to destruction, so as not to covet and take any of the devoted things and make the camp of Israel an object for destruction, bringing trouble upon it.<sup>19</sup> But all silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are sacred to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD.”<sup>20</sup> So the people shouted, and the trumpets were blown. As soon as the people heard the sound of the trumpets, they raised a great shout, and the wall fell down flat; so the people charged straight ahead into the city and captured it.

<sup>21</sup> Then they devoted to destruction by the edge of the sword all in the city, both men and women, young and old, oxen, sheep, and donkeys.

<sup>22</sup> Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the prostitute’s house, and bring the woman out of it and all who belong to her, as you swore to her.”<sup>23</sup> So the young men who had been spies went in and brought Rahab out, along with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all who belonged to her—they brought all her kindred out—and set them outside the camp of Israel.<sup>24</sup> They burned down the city, and everything in it; only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.<sup>25</sup> But Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, Joshua spared. Her family has lived in Israel ever since. For she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>26</sup> Joshua then pronounced this oath, saying,

“Cursed before the LORD be anyone who tries to build this city—this Jericho!

At the cost of his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest he shall set up its gates!”

<sup>27</sup> So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep (Mt 18:10-14)

<sup>1</sup> Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him.<sup>2</sup> And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

<sup>3</sup> So he told them this parable: <sup>4</sup> “Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? <sup>5</sup> When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. <sup>6</sup> And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’ <sup>7</sup> Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

<sup>8</sup> “Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup> When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’ <sup>10</sup> Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

Psalm 81:8-16 (NRSV)

<sup>8</sup> Hear, O my people, while I admonish you;
O Israel, if you would but listen to me!
<sup>9</sup> There shall be no strange god among you;
you shall not bow down to a foreign god.
<sup>10</sup> I am the LORD your God,
who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.
<sup>11</sup> “But my people did not listen to my voice;
Israel would not submit to me.
<sup>12</sup> So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts,
to follow their own counsels.
<sup>13</sup> O that my people would listen to me,
that Israel would walk in my ways!
<sup>14</sup> Then I would quickly subdue their enemies,
and turn my hand against their foes.

- <sup>15</sup> Those who hate the LORD
would cringe before
him,
and their doom would
last forever.
- <sup>16</sup> I would feed you with the finest of the wheat,
and with honey from the rock I would satisfy
you.”

their father and chase
away their mother
are children who cause
shame and bring reproach.

Joshua 7:1-26 (NRSV)

*The Sin of Achan
and Its Punishment*

7 But the Israelites broke faith in regard to the devoted things: Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things; and the

anger of the LORD burned
against the Israelites.

<sup>2</sup> Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, “Go up and spy out the land.” And the men went up and spied out Ai.
<sup>3</sup> Then they returned to Joshua and said to him, “Not all the people need go up; about two or three thousand men should go up and attack Ai. Since they are so few, do not make the whole people toil up there.”
<sup>4</sup> So about three thousand of the people went up there; and they fled before the men of Ai.
<sup>5</sup> The men of Ai killed about thirty-six of them, chasing them from outside the gate as far as Shebarim and killing them on the slope. The hearts of the people melted and turned to water.

<sup>6</sup> Then Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the ground
on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.
<sup>7</sup> Joshua said, “Ah, Lord GOD!
Why have you brought this people across the Jordan at all,
to hand us over to the Amorites so as to destroy us?

Would that we had been content to settle beyond the Jordan! <sup>8</sup> O Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has turned their backs to their enemies!
<sup>9</sup> The Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and surround us,
and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will you do for your great name?"

<sup>10</sup> The LORD said to Joshua,
"Stand up! Why have you fallen upon your face? <sup>11</sup> Israel has sinned; they have transgressed my covenant that I imposed on them. They have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, they have acted deceitfully, and they have put them among their own belongings.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore the Israelites are unable to stand before their enemies; they turn their backs
to their enemies, because they have become a thing devoted for destruction themselves. I will be with you no more,
unless you destroy the devoted things from among
you. <sup>13</sup> Proceed to sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow; for

thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "There are devoted things among you, O Israel;
you will be unable to stand
before your enemies until you take away the devoted things from among you." <sup>14</sup> In the morning therefore you shall come forward tribe by tribe.
The tribe that the LORD takes shall come near by clans, the clan that the LORD takes shall come near by households, and the household that the LORD takes shall come near one by
one. <sup>15</sup> And the one who is taken as having the devoted things shall be burned with fire, together with all that he has, for having transgressed
the covenant of the LORD, and for having done an outrageous thing in Israel.' "

<sup>16</sup> So Joshua rose early in the morning, and brought Israel near tribe by tribe, and
the tribe of Judah was taken.
<sup>17</sup> He brought near the clans of Judah, and the clan of the Zerahites was taken; and he brought near the clan of the Zerahites, family by family, and Zabdi was taken. <sup>18</sup> And he brought near his household
one by one, and Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. <sup>19</sup> Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD God of Israel and make confession to him. Tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me." <sup>20</sup> And Achan answered Joshua, "It is true; I am the one who sinned against the LORD God of Israel. This is what I did: <sup>21</sup> when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted them and took them. They now lie hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

<sup>22</sup> So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and there it was, hidden in his tent with the silver underneath. <sup>23</sup> They took them out of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites; and they spread them out before the LORD. <sup>24</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan son of Zerah, with the silver, the mantle, and the bar of gold, with his sons and daughters, with his oxen, donkeys, and sheep, and his tent and all that he had; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup> Joshua said, "Why did you bring trouble on us? The LORD is bringing trouble on you today." And all Israel stoned him to death; they burned them with fire, cast stones on them, <sup>26</sup> and raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from his burning anger. Therefore that place to this day is called the Valley of Achor.

The Parable of the Prodigal and His Brother

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons. <sup>12</sup> The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them. <sup>13</sup> A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. <sup>14</sup> When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need.<sup>15</sup> So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs.<sup>16</sup> He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything.<sup>17</sup> But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger!<sup>18</sup> I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you;<sup>19</sup> I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands." '

<sup>20</sup> So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.<sup>21</sup> Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

<sup>22</sup> But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

<sup>23</sup> And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate;<sup>24</sup> for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup> "Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.<sup>26</sup> He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on.<sup>27</sup> He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.'<sup>28</sup> Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him.<sup>29</sup> But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends.'<sup>30</sup> But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!'

<sup>31</sup> Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

<sup>32</sup> But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.' "

Joshua 8:1-9:2 (NRSV)

Ai Captured by a Stratagem and Destroyed

- 8 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear or be dismayed; take all the fighting men with you, and go up now to Ai. See, I have handed over to you the king of Ai with his people, his city, and his land.
- <sup>2</sup> You shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king; only its spoil and its livestock you may take as booty for yourselves. Set an ambush against the city, behind it.”

<sup>3</sup> So Joshua and all the fighting men set out to go up against Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand warriors and sent them out by night <sup>4</sup> with the command, “You shall lie in ambush against the city, behind it; do not go very far from the city, but all of you stay alert. <sup>5</sup> I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. When they come out against us, as before, we shall flee from them. <sup>6</sup> They will come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, ‘They are fleeing from us, as before.’ While we flee from them, <sup>7</sup> you shall rise up from the ambush and seize the city; for the LORD your God will give it into your hand. <sup>8</sup> And when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire, doing as the LORD has ordered; see, I have commanded you.” <sup>9</sup> So Joshua sent them out; and they went to the place of ambush, and lay between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai; but Joshua spent that night in the camp.

<sup>10</sup> In the morning Joshua rose early and mustered the people, and went up, with the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. <sup>11</sup> All the fighting men who were with him went up, and drew near before the city, and camped on the north side of Ai, with a ravine between them and Ai.

<sup>12</sup> Taking about five thousand men, he set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city. <sup>13</sup> So they stationed the forces, the main encampment that was north of the city and its rear guard west of the city. But Joshua spent that night in the valley.

<sup>14</sup> When the king of Ai saw this, he and all his people, the inhabitants of the city, hurried out early in the morning to the meeting place facing the Arabah to meet Israel in battle; but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

<sup>15</sup> And Joshua and all Israel made a pretense of being beaten before them, and fled in the direction of the wilderness. <sup>16</sup> So all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and as they pursued Joshua they were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup> There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel; they left the city open, and pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the sword that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out the sword that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup> As soon as he stretched out his hand, the troops in ambush rose quickly out of their place and rushed forward. They entered the city, took it, and at once set the city on fire.

<sup>20</sup> So when the men of Ai looked back, the smoke of the city was rising to the sky. They had no power to flee this way or that, for the people who fled to the wilderness turned back against the pursuers.

<sup>21</sup> When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city was rising, then they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

<sup>22</sup> And the others came out from the city against them; so they were surrounded by Israelites, some on one side, and some on the other; and Israel struck them down until no one was left who survived or escaped. <sup>23</sup> But the king of Ai was taken alive and brought to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup> When Israel had finished slaughtering all the inhabitants of Ai in the open wilderness where they pursued them, and when all of them to the very last had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai, and attacked it with the edge of the sword. <sup>25</sup> The total of those who fell that day, both men and women, was twelve thousand—all the people of Ai. <sup>26</sup> For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the sword, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>27</sup> Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as their booty, according to the word of the LORD that he had issued to Joshua. <sup>28</sup> So Joshua burned Ai, and made it forever a heap of ruins, as it is to this day. <sup>29</sup> And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; and at sunset Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, threw it down at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised over it a great heap of stones, which stands there to this day.

Joshua Renews the Covenant
(Cp Deut 27:4–5)

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>31</sup> just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, “an altar of unhewn stones, on which no iron tool has been used”; and they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed offerings of well-being. <sup>32</sup> And there, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written. <sup>33</sup> All Israel, alien as well as citizen, with their elders and officers and their judges, stood on opposite sides of the ark in front of the levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel. <sup>34</sup> And afterward he read all the words of the law, blessings and curses, according to all that is written in the book of the law. <sup>35</sup> There was not a word of all that Moses commanded that Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the aliens who resided among them.

The Gibeonites Save Themselves by Trickery

9 Now when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hill country and in the lowland all along the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites—heard of this, <sup>2</sup> they gathered together with one accord to fight Joshua and Israel.

The Parable of the Dishonest Manager

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. <sup>2</sup> So he summoned him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.’ <sup>3</sup> Then the manager said to himself, ‘What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.’ <sup>5</sup> So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ <sup>6</sup> He answered, ‘A hundred jugs of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.’ <sup>7</sup> Then he asked another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He replied, ‘A hundred containers of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill and make it eighty.’ <sup>8</sup> And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. <sup>9</sup> And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

<sup>3</sup> But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, <sup>4</sup> they on their part acted with cunning: they went and prepared provisions, and took worn-out sacks for their donkeys, and wineskins, worn-out and torn and mended, <sup>5</sup> with worn-out, patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes; and all their provisions were dry and moldy. <sup>6</sup> They went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the Israelites, “We have come from a far country; so now make a treaty with us.” <sup>7</sup> But the Israelites said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you live among us; then how can we make a treaty with you?” <sup>8</sup> They said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” And Joshua said to them, “Who are you? And where do you come from?” <sup>9</sup> They said to him, “Your servants have come from a very far country, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard a report of him, of all that he did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup> and of all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, King Sihon of Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan who lived in Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup> So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, ‘Take provisions in your hand for the journey; go to meet them, and say to them, “We are your servants; come now, make a treaty with us.”’ <sup>12</sup> Here is our bread; it was still warm when we took it from our houses as our food for the journey, on the day we set out to come to you, but now, see, it is dry and moldy; <sup>13</sup> these wineskins were new when we filled them, and see, they are burst; and these garments and sandals of ours are worn out from the very long journey.” <sup>14</sup> So the leaders partook of their provisions, and did not ask direction from the LORD. <sup>15</sup> And Joshua made peace with them, guaranteeing their lives by a treaty; and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath to them.

<sup>16</sup> But when three days had passed after they had made a treaty with them, they heard that they were their neighbors and were living among them.

<sup>17</sup> So the Israelites set out and reached their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.

<sup>18</sup> But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then all the congregation murmured against the leaders.

<sup>19</sup> But all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we must not touch them. <sup>20</sup> This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, so that wrath may not come upon us, because of the oath that we swore to them." <sup>21</sup> The leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became hewers of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the leaders had decided concerning them.

you deceive us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' while in fact you are living among us?

<sup>23</sup> Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you shall always be slaves, hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God."

<sup>24</sup> They answered Joshua, "Because it was told to your servants for a certainty that the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you; so we were in great fear for our lives because of you, and did this thing. <sup>25</sup> And now we are in your hand: do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us." <sup>26</sup> This is what he did for them: he saved them from the Israelites; and they did not kill them. <sup>27</sup> But on that day Joshua made them hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to continue to this day, in the place that he should choose.

The Sun Stands Still

10 When King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, <sup>2</sup> he became greatly frightened, because Gibeon was a large city, like one of the royal cities, and was larger than Ai, and all its men were warriors. <sup>3</sup> So King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem sent a message to King Hoham of Hebron, to King Piram of Jarmuth, to King Japhia of Lachish, and to King Debir of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup> “Come up and help me, and let us attack Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the Israelites.” <sup>5</sup> Then the five kings of the Amorites—the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon—gathered their forces, and went up with all their armies and camped against Gibeon, and made war against it.

<sup>6</sup> And the Gibeonites sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, “Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites who live in the hill country are gathered against us.” <sup>7</sup> So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the fighting force with him, all the mighty warriors. <sup>8</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have handed them over to you; not one of them shall stand before you.” <sup>9</sup> So Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched up all night from Gilgal. <sup>10</sup> And the LORD threw them into a panic before Israel, who inflicted a great slaughter on them at Gibeon, chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah. <sup>11</sup> As they fled before Israel, while they were going down the slope of Beth-horon, the LORD threw down huge stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died; there were more who died because of the hailstones than the Israelites killed with the sword.

Luke 16:10–18 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> “Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. <sup>11</sup> If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? <sup>12</sup> And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? <sup>13</sup> No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

The Law and the Kingdom of God

<sup>14</sup> The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all this, and they ridiculed him. <sup>15</sup> So he said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of others; but God knows your hearts; for what is prized by human beings is an abomination in the sight of God.

<sup>16</sup> “The law and the prophets were in effect until John came; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone tries to enter it by force. <sup>17</sup> But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one stroke of a letter in the law to be dropped.

Prayer for Judgment on Israel’s Foes

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> O God, do not keep silence;
do not hold your peace or be still, O God!
<sup>2</sup> Even now your enemies are in tumult;
those who hate you have raised their heads.
<sup>3</sup> They lay crafty plans against your people;

they consult together
against those you protect.

4 They say, “Come, let us wipe them out as a nation;
let the name of Israel be remembered no
more.”

5 They conspire with one accord;
against you they make a
covenant—

6 the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites,

Moab and the Hagrites,
7 Gebal and Ammon and Amalek,

Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

Joshua 10:12-43 (NRSV)

12 On the day when the LORD gave the Amorites over to the Israelites, Joshua spoke to the LORD; and he said in the sight of Israel,

“Sun, stand still at Gibeon,
and Moon, in the valley of Aijalon.”

13 And the sun stood still, and
the moon stopped,
until the nation took vengeance on their
enemies.

Is this not written in the Book of Jashar? The sun stopped in midheaven, and did not hurry
to set for about a whole day.

14 There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD heeded a human voice; for the LORD fought for Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Five Kings Defeated

<sup>17</sup> And it was told Joshua, “The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah.” <sup>18</sup> Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them; <sup>19</sup> but do not stay there yourselves; pursue your enemies, and attack them from the rear. Do not let them enter their towns, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand.” <sup>20</sup> When Joshua and the Israelites had finished inflicting a very great slaughter on them, until they were wiped out, and when the survivors had entered into the fortified towns, <sup>21</sup> all the people returned safe to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah; no one dared to speak against any of the Israelites.

me from the cave.” <sup>23</sup> They did so, and brought the five kings out to him from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup> When they brought the kings out to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the Israelites, and said to the chiefs of the warriors who had gone with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” Then they came near and put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup> And Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and courageous; for thus the LORD will do to all the enemies against whom you fight.” <sup>26</sup> Afterward Joshua struck them down and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees. And they hung on the trees until evening. <sup>27</sup> At sunset Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves; they set large stones against the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

<sup>28</sup> Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed every person in it; he left no one remaining. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup> Then Joshua passed on from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup> The LORD gave it also and its king into the hand of Israel; and he struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it; he left no one remaining in it; and he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup> Next Joshua passed on from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and laid siege to it, and assaulted it. <sup>32</sup> The LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it, as he had done to Libnah.

<sup>33</sup> Then King Horam of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, leaving him no survivors.

<sup>34</sup> From Lachish Joshua passed on with all Israel to Eglon; and they laid siege to it, and assaulted it; <sup>35</sup> and they took it that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword; and every person in it he utterly destroyed that day, as he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup> Then Joshua went up with all Israel from Eglon to Hebron; they assaulted it, <sup>37</sup> and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and its king and its towns, and every person in it; he left no one remaining, just as he had done to Eglon, and utterly destroyed it with every person in it.

<sup>38</sup> Then Joshua, with all Israel, turned back to Debir and assaulted it, <sup>39</sup> and he took it with its king and all its towns; they struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed every person in it; he left no one remaining; just as he had done to Hebron, and, as he had done to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and its king.

<sup>40</sup> So Joshua defeated the whole land, the hill country and the Negeb and the lowland and the slopes, and all their kings; he left no one remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded. <sup>41</sup> And Joshua defeated them from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, as far as Gibeon. <sup>42</sup> Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup> Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19</sup> “There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. <sup>20</sup> And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, <sup>21</sup> who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. <sup>22</sup> The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. <sup>23</sup> In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. <sup>24</sup> He called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.’ <sup>25</sup> But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. <sup>26</sup> Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.’ <sup>27</sup> He said, ‘Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father’s house— <sup>28</sup> for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.’ <sup>29</sup> Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.’ <sup>30</sup> He said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ <sup>31</sup> He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.”

The United Kings of Northern Canaan Defeated

When King Jabin of Hazor heard of this, he sent to King Jobab of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,<sup>2</sup> and to the kings who were in the northern hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in Naphtod on the west,<sup>3</sup> to the Canaanites in the east and the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.<sup>4</sup> They came out, with all their troops, a great army, in number like the sand on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.<sup>5</sup> All these kings joined their forces, and came and camped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will hand over all of them, slain, to Israel; you shall hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire."

<sup>7</sup> So Joshua came suddenly upon them with all his fighting force, by the waters of Merom, and fell upon them.

<sup>8</sup> And the LORD handed them over to Israel, who attacked them and chased them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim, and eastward as far as the valley of Mizpeh. They struck them down, until they had left no one remaining.<sup>9</sup> And Joshua did to them as the LORD commanded him; he hamstrung their horses, and burned their chariots with fire.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck its king down with the sword. Before that time Hazor was the head of all those kingdoms.<sup>11</sup> And they put to the sword all who were in it, utterly destroying them; there was no one left who breathed, and he burned Hazor with fire.<sup>12</sup> And all the towns of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took, and struck them with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.<sup>13</sup> But Israel burned none of the towns that stood on mounds except Hazor, which Joshua did burn.<sup>14</sup> All the spoil of these towns, and the livestock, the Israelites took for their booty; but all the people they struck down with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, and they did not leave any who breathed.<sup>15</sup> As the LORD had commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Summary of Joshua's Conquests

<sup>16</sup> So Joshua took all that land: the hill country and all the Negeb and all the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland,<sup>17</sup> from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He took all their kings, struck them down, and put them to death.<sup>18</sup> Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.<sup>19</sup> There was not a town that made peace with the Israelites, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon; all were taken in battle.<sup>20</sup> For it was the LORD's doing to harden their hearts so that they would come against Israel in battle, in order that they might be utterly destroyed, and might receive no mercy, but be exterminated, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

to their tribal allotments. And the land had rest from war.

Some Sayings of Jesus

(Mt 18:6–9; Mk 9:42–48)

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said to his disciples, “Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to anyone by whom they come! <sup>2</sup> It would be better for you if a millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea than for you to cause one of these little ones to stumble. <sup>3</sup> Be on your guard! If another disciple sins, you must rebuke the offender, and if there is repentance, you must forgive. <sup>4</sup> And if the same person sins against you seven times a day, and turns back to you seven times and says, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive.”

<sup>6</sup> The Lord replied, “If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.

<sup>7</sup> “Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field,

‘Come here at once and take your place at the table’?

<sup>8</sup> Would you not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink’? <sup>9</sup> Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? <sup>10</sup> So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, ‘We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!’”

The Kings Conquered by Moses
(Cp Num 21:21–35)

Now these are the kings of the land, whom the Israelites defeated, whose land they occupied beyond the Jordan
toward the east, from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon, with all the Arabah

eastward: <sup>2</sup> King Sihon of the Amorites who lived at Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and from the middle of the valley as far as the river Jabbok, the boundary of the Ammonites, that is, half of Gilead, <sup>3</sup> and the Arabah to the Sea of Chinneroth eastward, and in the direction of Beth-jeshimoth, to the sea
of the Arabah, the Dead Sea,
southward to the foot of the slopes of Pisgah; <sup>4</sup> and King Og of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei <sup>5</sup> and ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah and all Bashan to the boundary of the Geshurites
and the Maacathites, and over half of Gilead to the boundary of King Sihon of Heshbon.

Jesus Cleanses Ten Lepers

<sup>11</sup> On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, <sup>13</sup> they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” <sup>14</sup> When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. <sup>15</sup> Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. <sup>16</sup> He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup> Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? <sup>18</sup> Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" <sup>19</sup> Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom
(Gen 6:5–8:22; 19:12–14)

<sup>20</sup> Once Jesus was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, "The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed; <sup>21</sup> nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There it is!' For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among you."

<sup>22</sup> Then he said to the disciples, "The days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

<sup>23</sup> They will say to you, 'Look

there!' or 'Look here!' Do not go, do not set off in pursuit.

<sup>24</sup> For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day.

<sup>25</sup> But first he must endure much suffering and be rejected by this generation.

Psalm 84:5-12 (NRSV)

Joshua 13:1-33 (NRSV)

The Parts of Canaan Still Unconquered

Now Joshua was old and advanced in years; and the LORD said to him, “You are old and advanced in years, and very much of the land still remains to be possessed. <sup>2</sup>This is the land that still remains:
all the regions of the Philistines, and all those of the Geshurites <sup>3</sup>(from the Shihor,
which is east of Egypt,
northward to the boundary of Ekron, it is reckoned as Canaanite; there are five rulers of the Philistines, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron), and those of the Avvim <sup>4</sup>in the south; all the land of the Canaanites,
and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites, <sup>5</sup>and the land of the Gebalites,
and all Lebanon, toward the east, from Baal-gad below
Mount Hermon to Lebo-hamath, <sup>6</sup>all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon

to Misrephoth-maim, even all the Sidonians. I will myself drive them out from before the Israelites; only allot the land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.<sup>7</sup> Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.”

*The Territory
East of the Jordan*

<sup>8</sup>With the other half-tribe of Manasseh the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:<sup>9</sup> from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and the town that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland from Medeba as far as Dibon;<sup>10</sup> and all the cities of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the boundary of the Ammonites;<sup>11</sup> and Gilead, and the region of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah;<sup>12</sup> all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the survivors of the Rephaim); these Moses had defeated and driven out.<sup>13</sup> Yet the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites; but Geshur and Maacath live within Israel to this day.

<sup>14</sup>To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD God of Israel are their inheritance, as he said to them.

The Territory of Reuben

<sup>15</sup>Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the Reubenites according to their clans.<sup>16</sup> Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and the town that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland by Medeba;<sup>17</sup> with Heshbon, and all its towns that are in the tableland; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,<sup>18</sup> and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,<sup>19</sup> and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar on the hill of the valley,<sup>20</sup> and Beth-peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,<sup>21</sup> that is, all the towns of the tableland, and all the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated with the leaders of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, as princes of Sihon, who lived in the land.<sup>22</sup> Along with the rest of those they put to death, the Israelites also put to the sword Balaam son of Beor, who practiced divination.<sup>23</sup> And the border of the Reubenites was the Jordan and its banks. This was the inheritance of the Reubenites according to their families, with their towns and villages.

The Territory of Gad

<sup>24</sup> Moses gave an inheritance also to the tribe of the Gadites, according to their families.<sup>25</sup> Their territory was Jazer, and all the towns of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is east of Rabbah,<sup>26</sup> and from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir,<sup>27</sup> and in the valley Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon, the Jordan and its banks, as far as the lower end of the Sea of Chinnereth, eastward beyond the Jordan.<sup>28</sup> This is the inheritance of the Gadites according to their clans, with their towns and villages.

The Territory of the Half-Tribe of Manasseh (East)

<sup>29</sup> Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; it was allotted to the half-tribe of the Manassites according to their families.<sup>30</sup> Their territory extended from Mahanaim, through all Bashan, the whole kingdom of King Og of Bashan, and all the settlements of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty towns,<sup>31</sup> and half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the towns of the kingdom of Og in Bashan; these were allotted to the people of Machir son of Manasseh according to their clans—for half the Machirites.<sup>32</sup> These are the inheritances that Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan east of Jericho. <sup>33</sup> But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said to them.

Luke 17:26-37 (NRSV)

<sup>26</sup> Just as it was in the days of Noah, so too it will be in the days of the Son of Man.

<sup>27</sup> They were eating and drinking, and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed all of them.

<sup>28</sup> Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot: they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building, <sup>29</sup> but on the day that Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed all of them <sup>30</sup> —it will be like that on the day that the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup> On that day, anyone on the housetop who has belongings in the house must not come down to take them away; and likewise anyone in the field must not turn back. <sup>32</sup> Remember Lot's wife. <sup>33</sup> Those who try to make their life secure will lose it, but those who lose their life will keep it. <sup>34</sup> I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other left. <sup>35</sup> There will be two women grinding meal together; one will be taken and the other left." <sup>37</sup> Then they asked him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather."

you turned from your hot anger.
- 4 Restore us again, O God of
our salvation,
and put away your indignation toward us.

- <sup>5</sup> Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you prolong your anger to all generations?
- <sup>6</sup> Will you not revive us again,
so that your people may rejoice in you?
- <sup>7</sup> Show us your steadfast love, O LORD,
and grant us your salvation.

The Distribution of Territory West of the Jordan

These are the inheritances that the Israelites received in the land of Canaan, which the priest Eleazar, and Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites distributed to them. <sup>2</sup> Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded Moses for the nine and one-half tribes. <sup>3</sup> For Moses had given an inheritance to the two and one-half tribes beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. <sup>4</sup> For the people of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; and no portion was given to the Levites in the land, but only towns to live in, with their pasture lands for their flocks and herds. <sup>5</sup> The Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses; they allotted the land.

Hebron Allotted to Caleb

<sup>6</sup> Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal; and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Kadesh-barnea concerning you and me. <sup>7</sup> I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him an honest report. <sup>8</sup> But my companions who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God. <sup>9</sup> And Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and your children forever, because you have wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God.' <sup>10</sup> And now, as you see, the LORD has kept me alive, as he said, these forty-five years since the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel was journeying through the wilderness; and here I am today, eighty-five years old. <sup>11</sup> I am still as strong today as I was on the day that Moses sent me; my strength now is as my strength was then, for war, and for going and coming. <sup>12</sup> So now give me this hill country of which the LORD spoke on that day; for you heard on that day how the Anakim were there, with great fortified cities; it may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as the LORD said."

<sup>13</sup> Then Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. <sup>14</sup> So Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholeheartedly followed the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup> Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba; this Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

The Parable of the Widow and the Unjust Judge

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. <sup>2</sup> He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. <sup>3</sup> In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' <sup>4</sup> For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.’ ” <sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says. <sup>7</sup> And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

Psalms 85:8-13 (NRSV)

- <sup>8</sup> Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for he will speak peace
to his people,

who turn to him in their hearts.
- <sup>9</sup> Surely his salvation is at hand for those who
fear him,
that his glory may dwell
in our land.
- <sup>10</sup> Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet;
righteousness and peace
will kiss each other.
- <sup>11</sup> Faithfulness will spring up
from the ground,
and righteousness will look down from the sky.

- <sup>12</sup> The LORD will give what is

Joshua 15:1-12 (NRSV)

The Territory of Judah

The lot for the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families reached southward to the boundary of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin at the farthest south. <sup>2</sup> And their south boundary ran from the end of the Dead Sea, from the bay that faces southward; <sup>3</sup> it goes out southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, passes along to Zin, and goes up south of Kadesh-barnea, along by Hezron, up to Addar, makes a turn to Karka, <sup>4</sup> passes along to Azmon, goes out by the Wadi of Egypt, and comes to its end at the sea. This shall be your south boundary. <sup>5</sup> And the east boundary is the Dead Sea, to the mouth of the Jordan. And the boundary on the north side runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan; <sup>6</sup> and the boundary goes up to Beth-hoglah, and passes along north of Beth-arabah; and the boundary goes up to the Stone of Bohan, Reuben's son; <sup>7</sup> and the boundary goes up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, turning toward Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley; and the boundary passes along to the waters of En-shemesh, and ends at En-rogel; <sup>8</sup> then the boundary goes up by the valley of the son of Hinnom at the southern slope of the Jebusites (that is, Jerusalem); and the boundary goes up to the top of the mountain that lies over against the valley of Hinnom, on the west, at the northern end of the valley of Rephaim; <sup>9</sup> then the boundary extends from the top of the mountain to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, and from there to the towns of Mount Ephron; then the boundary bends around to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim); <sup>10</sup> and the boundary circles west of Baalah to Mount Seir, passes along to the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), and goes down to Beth-shemesh, and passes along by Timnah; <sup>11</sup> the boundary goes out to the slope of the hill north of Ekron, then the boundary bends around to Shikkeron, and passes along to Mount Baalah, and goes out to Jabneel; then the boundary comes to an end at the sea. <sup>12</sup> And the west boundary was the Mediterranean with its coast. This is the boundary surrounding the people of Judah according to their families.

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

<sup>9</sup> He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: <sup>10</sup> “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.’ <sup>13</sup> But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Jesus Blesses Little Children
(Mt 19:13–15; Mk 10:13-16)

<sup>15</sup> People were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they sternly ordered them not to do it.

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus called for them and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. <sup>17</sup> Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.”

Supplication for Help against Enemies

A Prayer of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Incline your ear, O LORD,
and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
- <sup>2</sup> Preserve my life, for I am devoted to you;
save your servant who
trusts in you.
You are my God; <sup>3</sup> be gracious to me, O Lord,
for to you do I cry all day
long.
- <sup>4</sup> Gladden the soul of your servant,
for to you, O Lord, I lift
up my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> For you, O Lord, are good
and forgiving,
abounding in steadfast
love to all who call on
you.

6 Give ear, O LORD, to my
prayer;
listen to my cry of
supplication.
7 In the day of my trouble I
call on you,
for you will answer me.

Caleb Occupies His Portion

(Judg 1:11–15)

13 According to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, he gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh a portion among the people of Judah, Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak). 14 And Caleb drove out from there
the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi,
the descendants of Anak.
15 From there he went up against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir
formerly was Kiriath-sepher.
16 And Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife.”
17 Othniel son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife. 18 When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?” 19 She said to him, “Give me a present; since you have set me
in the land of the Negeb, give me springs of water as well.”
So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

The Towns of Judah

<sup>45</sup>Ekron, with its dependencies and its villages; <sup>46</sup>from Ekron to the sea, all that were near Ashdod, with their villages.

<sup>63</sup> But the people of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so the Jebusites live with the people of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

The Rich Ruler

(Mt 19:16–30; Mk 10:17–31)

<sup>18</sup> A certain ruler asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” <sup>19</sup> Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; Honor your father and mother.’ ” <sup>21</sup> He replied, “I have kept all these since my youth.” <sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “There is still one thing lacking. Sell all that you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” <sup>23</sup> But when he heard this, he became sad; for he was very rich. <sup>24</sup> Jesus looked at him and said, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!*

<sup>25</sup> Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup> Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>27</sup> He replied, “What is impossible for mortals is possible for God.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Peter said, “Look, we have left our homes and followed you.” <sup>29</sup> And he said to them, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God,<sup>30</sup> who will not get back very much more in this age, and in the age to come eternal life.”

Psalms 86:8-17 (NRSV)

8 There is none like you among the gods, O Lord,
nor are there any works like yours.

9 All the nations you have made shall come and bow down before you, O Lord,
and shall glorify your name.

10 For you are great and do wondrous things;
you alone are God.

11 Teach me your way, O LORD,
that I may walk in your truth;
give me an undivided heart to revere your name.

12 I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart,
and I will glorify your name forever.

13 For great is your steadfast love toward me;

you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

14 O God, the insolent rise up against me;
a band of ruffians seeks my life,
and they do not set you before them.

15 But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

16 Turn to me and be gracious to me;
give your strength to your servant;
save the child of your serving girl.

17 Show me a sign of your favor,
so that those who hate me may see it and be put to shame,
because you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Joshua 16:1-17:18 (NRSV)

The Territory of Ephraim

The allotment of the Josephites went from the Jordan by Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, into the wilderness, going up from Jericho into the hill country to Bethel; <sup>2</sup> then going from Bethel to Luz, it passes along to Ataroth, the territory of the Archites; <sup>3</sup> then it goes down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, as far as the territory of Lower Beth-horon, then to Gezer, and it ends at the sea.

<sup>4</sup> The Josephites—
Manasseh and Ephraim—
received their inheritance.

<sup>5</sup> The territory of the Ephraimites by their families was as follows: the boundary of their inheritance on the east was Ataroth-addar as far as Upper Beth-horon, <sup>6</sup> and the boundary goes from there to the sea; on the north is Michmethath; then on the east the boundary makes a turn toward Taanath-shiloh, and passes along beyond it on the east to Janoah, <sup>7</sup> then it goes down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, and touches Jericho, ending at the Jordan. <sup>8</sup> From Tappuah the boundary goes westward to the Wadi Kanah, and ends at the sea. Such is the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites by their families, <sup>9</sup> together with the towns that were set apart for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites, all those towns with their villages. <sup>10</sup> They did not, however, drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer: so the Canaanites have lived within Ephraim to this day but have been made to do forced labor.

The Other Half-Tribe of Manasseh (West)

17 Then allotment was made to the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a warrior. <sup>2</sup> And allotments were made to the rest of the tribe of Manasseh, by their families, Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hephher, and Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, by their families.

<sup>3</sup> Now Zelophehad son of Hephher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh had no sons, but only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>4</sup> They came before the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun and the leaders, and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance along with our male kin." So according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the kinsmen of their father. <sup>5</sup> Thus there fell to Manasseh ten portions, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead was allotted to the rest of the Manassites.

<sup>8</sup> The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah on the boundary of Manasseh belonged to the Ephraimites.

<sup>9</sup> Then the boundary went down to the Wadi Kanah. The towns here, to the south of the wadi, among the towns of Manasseh, belong to Ephraim. Then the boundary of Manasseh goes along the north side of the wadi and ends at the sea. <sup>10</sup> The land to the south is Ephraim's and that to the north is Manasseh's, with the sea forming its boundary; on the north Asher is reached, and on the east Issachar. <sup>11</sup> Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of En-dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages (the third is Naphath). <sup>12</sup> Yet the Manassites could not take possession of those towns; but the Canaanites continued to live in that land. <sup>13</sup> But when the Israelites grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

The Tribe of Joseph Protests

<sup>14</sup> The tribe of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why have you given me but one lot and one portion as an inheritance, since we are a numerous people, whom all along the LORD has blessed?” <sup>15</sup> And Joshua said to them, “If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest, and clear ground there for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.” <sup>16</sup> The tribe of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us; yet all the Canaanites who live in the plain have chariots of iron, both those in Beth-shean and its villages and those in the Valley of Jezreel.” <sup>17</sup> Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, “You are indeed a numerous people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot only, <sup>18</sup> but the hill country shall be yours, for though it is a forest, you shall clear it and possess it to its farthest borders; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong.”

Luke 18:31–43 (NRSV)

A Third Time Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection
(Mt 20:17–19; Mk 10:32–34)

<sup>31</sup> Then he took the twelve aside and said to them, “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup> For he will be handed over to the Gentiles;

and he will be mocked and insulted and spat upon.

<sup>33</sup> After they have flogged him,
they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise again.”

<sup>34</sup> But they understood nothing about all these things; in fact,
what he said was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar Near Jericho

(Mt 20:29–34; Mk 10:46–52)

<sup>35</sup> As he approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. <sup>36</sup> When he heard a crowd going by, he asked what was happening.

<sup>37</sup> They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

<sup>38</sup> Then he shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” <sup>39</sup> Those who were in front sternly ordered him to be quiet; but he shouted even more loudly, “Son of David,
have mercy on me!” <sup>40</sup> Jesus stood still and ordered the man to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him, <sup>41</sup> “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, let me see again.” <sup>42</sup> Jesus said
to him, “Receive your sight;

your faith has saved you.”

<sup>43</sup> Immediately he regained his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, praised God.

Joshua 18:1-28 (NRSV)

The Territories of the Remaining Tribes

18 Then the whole congregation of the Israelites assembled at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there. The land lay subdued before them.

<sup>2</sup> There remained among the Israelites seven tribes whose inheritance had not yet been apportioned. <sup>3</sup> So Joshua said to the Israelites, “How long will you be slack about going in and taking possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you? <sup>4</sup> Provide three men from each tribe, and I will send them out that they may begin to go throughout the land, writing a description of it with a view to their inheritances. Then come back to me. <sup>5</sup> They shall divide it into seven portions, Judah continuing in its territory on the south, and the house of Joseph in their territory on the north. <sup>6</sup> You shall describe the land in seven divisions and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. <sup>7</sup> The Levites have no portion among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their heritage; and Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

<sup>8</sup> So the men started on their way; and Joshua charged those who went to write the description of the land, saying, “Go throughout the land and write a description of it, and come back to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.” <sup>9</sup> So the men went and traversed the land and set down in a book a description of it by towns in seven divisions; then they came back to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh, <sup>10</sup> and Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD; and there Joshua apportioned the land to the Israelites, to each a portion.

The Territory of Benjamin

<sup>11</sup> The lot of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families came up, and the territory allotted to it fell between the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Joseph. <sup>12</sup> On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan; then the boundary goes up to the slope of Jericho on the north, then up through the hill country westward; and it ends at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

<sup>13</sup> From there the boundary passes along southward in the direction of Luz, to the slope of Luz (that is, Bethel), then the boundary goes down to Ataroth-addar, on the mountain that lies south of Lower Beth-horon. <sup>14</sup> Then the boundary goes in another direction, turning on the western side southward from the mountain that lies to the south, opposite Beth-horon, and it ends at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a town belonging to the tribe of Judah. This forms the western side. <sup>15</sup> The southern side begins at the outskirts of Kiriath-jearim; and the boundary goes from there to Ephron, to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah; <sup>16</sup> then the boundary goes down to the border of the mountain that overlooks the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is at the north end of the valley of Rephaim; and it then goes down the valley of Hinnom, south of the slope of the Jebusites, and downward to En-rogel; <sup>17</sup> then it bends in a northerly direction going on to En-shemesh, and from there goes to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim; then it goes down to the Stone of Bohan, Reuben's son; <sup>18</sup> and passing on to the north of the slope of Beth-arabah it goes down to the Arabah; <sup>19</sup> then the boundary passes on to the north of the slope of Beth-hoglah; and the boundary ends at the northern bay of the Dead Sea, at the south end of the Jordan: this is the southern border. <sup>20</sup> The Jordan forms its boundary on the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, according to its families, boundary by boundary all around.

Jesus and Zacchaeus

<sup>1</sup> He entered Jericho and was passing through it. <sup>2</sup> A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. <sup>3</sup> He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. <sup>4</sup> So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today.” <sup>6</sup> So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. <sup>7</sup> All who saw it began to grumble and said, “He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.” <sup>8</sup> Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.” <sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.”

Psalm 87:4-7 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> Among those who know me I mention Rahab and Babylon; Philistia too, and Tyre, with Ethiopia—
“This one was born there,” they say.
<sup>5</sup> And of Zion it shall be said, “This one and that one were born in it”;
for the Most High himself will establish it.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD records, as he registers the peoples, “This one was born there.” Selah
<sup>7</sup> Singers and dancers alike say, “All my springs are in you.”

Joshua 19:1-31 (NRSV)

The Territory of Simeon

The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of Simeon, according to its families; its inheritance lay within the inheritance of the tribe of Judah. <sup>2</sup> It had for its inheritance Beer-sheba, Sheba, Moladah, <sup>3</sup> Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem, <sup>4</sup> Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, <sup>5</sup> Ziklag, Bethmarcaboth, Hazar-susah, <sup>6</sup> Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhem—thirteen towns with their villages; <sup>7</sup> Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan—four towns with their villages; <sup>8</sup> together with all the villages all around these towns as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the Negeb. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon according to its families. <sup>9</sup> The inheritance of the tribe of Simeon formed part of the territory of Judah; because the portion of the tribe of Judah was too large for them, the tribe of Simeon obtained an inheritance within their inheritance.

The Territory of Zebulun

<sup>10</sup> The third lot came up for the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families. The boundary of its inheritance reached as far as Sarid; <sup>11</sup> then its boundary goes up westward, and on to Maralah, and touches Dabbesheth, then the wadi that is east of Jokneam;

<sup>12</sup> from Sarid it goes in the other direction eastward toward the sunrise to the boundary of Chisloth-tabor; from there it goes to Daberath, then up to Japhia; <sup>13</sup> from there it passes along on the east toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin, and going on to Rimmon it bends toward Neah; <sup>14</sup> then on the north the boundary makes a turn to Hannathon, and it ends at the valley of Iphtah-el; <sup>15</sup> and Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem—twelve towns with their villages. <sup>16</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families—these towns with their villages.

The Territory of Issachar

shemesh, and its boundary ends at the Jordan—sixteen towns with their villages.

The Territory of Asher

<sup>24</sup> The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher according to its families. <sup>25</sup> Its boundary included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph, <sup>26</sup> Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal; on the west it touches Carmel and Shihor-libnath, <sup>27</sup> then it turns eastward, goes to Beth-dagon, and touches Zebulun and the valley of Iphtah-el northward to Beth-emek and Neiel; then it continues in the north to Cabul, <sup>28</sup> Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, as far as Great Sidon; <sup>29</sup> then the boundary turns to Ramah, reaching to the fortified city of Tyre; then the boundary turns to Hosah, and it ends at the sea; Mahalab, Achzib, <sup>30</sup> Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob—twenty-two towns with their villages. <sup>31</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of Asher according to its families—these towns with their villages.

Luke 19:11–27 (NRSV)

The Parable of the Ten Pounds
(Mt 25:14–30)

<sup>11</sup> As they were listening to this, he went on to tell a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately. <sup>12</sup> So he said, “A nobleman went to a distant country to get royal power for himself and then return. <sup>13</sup> He summoned ten of his slaves, and gave them ten pounds, and said to them, ‘Do business with these until I come back.’

<sup>14</sup> But the citizens of his country hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to rule over us.’ <sup>15</sup> When he returned, having received royal power, he ordered these slaves, to whom he had given the money, to be summoned so that he might find out what they had gained by trading.

<sup>16</sup> The first came forward and said, ‘Lord, your pound has made ten more pounds.’ <sup>17</sup> He said to him, ‘Well done, good slave! Because you have been trustworthy in a very small thing, take charge of ten cities.’ <sup>18</sup> Then the second came, saying, ‘Lord, your pound has made five pounds.’

<sup>19</sup> He said to him, ‘And you, rule over five cities.’ <sup>20</sup> Then the other came, saying, ‘Lord, here is your pound. I wrapped it up in a piece of cloth, <sup>21</sup> for I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh man; you take what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.’

<sup>22</sup> He said to him, ‘I will judge you by your own words, you wicked slave! You knew, did you, that I was a harsh man, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow?’ <sup>23</sup> Why then did you not put my money into the bank? Then when I returned, I could have collected it with interest.’

<sup>24</sup> He said to the bystanders, ‘Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds.’ <sup>25</sup> (And they said to him, ‘Lord, he has ten pounds!’) <sup>26</sup> ‘I tell you, to all those who have, more will be given; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. <sup>27</sup> But as for these enemies of mine

who did not want me to be king over them—bring them
here and slaughter them in my presence.’ ”

Prayer for Help in Despondency

A Song. A Psalm of the Korahites. To the leader: according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

1 O LORD, God of my
salvation,
when, at night, I cry out
in your presence,
2 let my prayer come before
you;
incline your ear to my cry.
3 For my soul is full of troubles,
and my life draws near to Sheol.
4 I am counted among those who go down to the Pit;
I am like those who have no help,
5 like those forsaken among
the dead,
like the slain that lie in
the grave,
like those whom you
remember no more,

for they are cut off from your hand.

6 You have put me in the depths of the Pit,
in the regions dark and
deep.
7 Your wrath lies heavy upon
me,
and you overwhelm me
with all your waves.
Selah
8 You have caused my companions to shun
me;
you have made me a thing of horror to
them.
I am shut in so that I cannot escape;
9 my eye grows dim
through sorrow.
Every day I call on you, O
LORD;
I spread out my hands to
you.
10 Do you work wonders for
the dead?
Do the shades rise up to praise you? Selah
11 Is your steadfast love
declared in the grave,
or your faithfulness in Abaddon?

Joshua 19:32–20:9 (NRSV)

The Territory of Naphtali

<sup>32</sup> The sixth lot came out for the tribe of Naphtali, for the tribe of Naphtali, according to its families. <sup>33</sup> And its boundary ran from Heleph, from the oak in Zaananim, and Adami-nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; and it ended at the Jordan; <sup>34</sup> then the boundary turns westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goes from there to Hukkok, touching Zebulun at the south, and Asher on the west, and Judah on the east at the Jordan. <sup>35</sup> The fortified towns are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, <sup>36</sup> Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, <sup>37</sup> Kedesh, Edrei, En-hazor, <sup>38</sup> Iron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh—nineteen towns with their villages. <sup>39</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali according to its families—the towns with their villages.

Dan, after their ancestor Dan.
<sup>48</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, according to their families—these towns with their villages.

Joshua's Inheritance

<sup>49</sup> When they had finished distributing the several territories of the land as inheritances, the Israelites gave an inheritance among them to Joshua son of Nun.
<sup>50</sup> By command of the LORD they gave him the town that he asked for, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim; he rebuilt the town, and settled in it.

<sup>51</sup> These are the inheritances that the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites distributed by lot at Shiloh before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

The Cities of Refuge

20 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Say to the Israelites, ‘Appoint the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses, <sup>3</sup> so that anyone who kills a person without intent or by mistake may flee there; they shall be for you a refuge from the avenger of blood. <sup>4</sup> The slayer shall flee to one of these cities and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and explain the case to the elders of that city; then the fugitive shall be taken into the city, and given a place, and shall remain with them. <sup>5</sup> And if the avenger of blood is in pursuit, they shall not give up the slayer, because the neighbor was killed by mistake, there having been no enmity between them before. <sup>6</sup> The slayer shall remain in that city until there is a trial before the congregation, until the death of the one who is high priest at the time: then the slayer may return home, to the town in which the deed was done.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.
<sup>8</sup> And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they appointed Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland, from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup> These were the cities designated for all the Israelites, and for the aliens residing among them, that anyone who killed a person without intent could flee there, so as not to die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until there was a trial before the congregation.

Luke 19:28-40 (NRSV)

Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem

(Mt 21:1-11; Mk 11:1-11;
Jn 12:12-19)

<sup>28</sup> After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying, “Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup> If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it.’ ”

<sup>32</sup> So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. <sup>33</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying the colt?” <sup>34</sup> They said, “The Lord needs it.” <sup>35</sup> Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it.

<sup>36</sup> As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. <sup>37</sup> As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, <sup>38</sup> saying,

“Blessed is the king who comes in the name
of the Lord!

Peace in heaven,
and glory in the highest
heaven!”

<sup>39</sup> Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, order your disciples to stop.”

<sup>40</sup> He answered, “I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.”

Psalm 88:13-18 (NRSV)

<sup>12</sup> Are your wonders known in the darkness,
or your saving help in the land of forgetfulness?
<sup>13</sup> But I, O LORD, cry out to
you;
in the morning my prayer
comes before you.
<sup>14</sup> O LORD, why do you cast
me off?
Why do you hide your face from me?
<sup>15</sup> Wretched and close to death from my youth
up,
I suffer your terrors; I am desperate.
<sup>16</sup> Your wrath has swept over
me;
your dread assaults
destroy me.
<sup>17</sup> They surround me like a flood all day long;
from all sides they close
in on me.
<sup>18</sup> You have caused friend
and neighbor to shun
me;
my companions are in
darkness.

Cities Allotted to the Levites
(1 Chr 6:54–81)

21 Then the heads of the families of the Levites came to the priest Eleazar and to Joshua son of Nun and to the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites; <sup>2</sup> they said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, “The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given towns to live
in, along with their pasture lands for our livestock.” <sup>3</sup> So by command of the LORD the Israelites gave to the Levites
the following towns and

pasture lands out of their inheritance.

<sup>4</sup> The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. So those Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received by lot thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.

<sup>5</sup> The rest of the Kohathites received by lot ten towns from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>6</sup> The Gershonites received by lot thirteen towns from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>7</sup> The Merarites according to their families received twelve towns from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zebulun.

<sup>8</sup> These towns and their pasture lands the Israelites gave by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>9</sup> Out of the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Simeon they gave the following towns

mentioned by name, <sup>10</sup> which went to the descendants of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites who belonged to the Levites, since the lot fell to them first. <sup>11</sup> They gave them Kiriath-arba (Arba being the father of Anak), that is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, along with the pasture lands around it. <sup>12</sup> But the fields of the town and its villages had been given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his holding.

four towns. <sup>19</sup> The towns of the descendants of Aaron—the priests—were thirteen in all, with their pasture lands.

<sup>20</sup> As to the rest of the Kohathites belonging to the Kohathite families of the Levites, the towns allotted to them were out of the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>21</sup> To them were given Shechem, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasture lands,

of Manasseh: Taanach with its pasture lands, and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands—two towns. <sup>26</sup> The towns of the families of the rest of the Kohathites were ten in all, with their pasture lands.

were given out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, and Beeshterah with its pasture lands—two towns.

<sup>32</sup> Out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Hammoth-dor with its pasture lands, and Kartan with its pasture lands—three towns.

<sup>34</sup> To the rest of the Levites—the Merarite families—were given out of the tribe of Zebulun: Jokneam with its pasture lands, Kartah with its pasture lands,

<sup>41</sup> The towns of the Levites within the holdings of the Israelites were in all forty-eight towns with their pasture lands. <sup>42</sup> Each of these towns had its pasture lands around it; so it was with all these towns.

Luke 19:41–48 (NRSV)

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

<sup>41</sup> As he came near and saw the city, he wept over it,

<sup>42</sup> saying, “If you, even you, had only recognized on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

<sup>43</sup> Indeed, the days will come upon you, when your enemies will set up ramparts around you and surround you, and hem you in on every side.

<sup>44</sup> They will crush you to the ground, you and your children within you, and they will not leave within you one stone upon another; because you did not recognize the time of your visitation from God.”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

(Mt 21:12–17; Mk 11:15–19; Jn 2:12–25)

<sup>45</sup> Then he entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling things there; <sup>46</sup> and he said, “It is written,

‘My house shall be a house of prayer’;
but you have made it a den of robbers.”

<sup>47</sup> Every day he was teaching in the temple. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people kept looking for a way to kill him;

<sup>48</sup>but they did not find anything they could do, for all the people were spellbound
by what they heard.

<sup>43</sup> Thus the LORD gave to Israel all the land that he swore to their ancestors that he would give them; and
having taken possession of it,
they settled there. <sup>44</sup> And the LORD gave them rest on every side just as he had sworn to their ancestors; not one of all their enemies had withstood

them, for the LORD had given all their enemies into their hands. <sup>45</sup> Not one of all the good promises that the LORD had made to the house of Israel had failed; all came to pass.

The Eastern Tribes Return to Their Territory

22 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, <sup>2</sup> and said to them, “You have observed all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed me in all that I have commanded you; <sup>3</sup> you have not forsaken your kindred these many days, down to this day, but have been careful to keep the charge of the LORD your God. <sup>4</sup> And now the LORD your God has given rest to your kindred, as he promised them; therefore turn and go to your tents in the land where your possession lies, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>5</sup> Take good care to observe the commandment and instruction that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments, and to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.” <sup>6</sup> So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

<sup>7</sup> Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan; but to the other half Joshua had given a possession beside their fellow Israelites in the land west of the Jordan. And when Joshua sent them away to their tents and blessed them, <sup>8</sup> he said to them, “Go back to your tents with much wealth, and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and with a great quantity of clothing; divide the spoil of your enemies with your kindred.” <sup>9</sup> So the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, parting from the Israelites at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, their own land of which they had taken possession by command of the LORD through Moses.

*A Memorial Altar
East of the Jordan*

<sup>10</sup> When they came to the region near the Jordan that lies in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar of great size.

<sup>11</sup> The Israelites heard that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had built an altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region near the Jordan, on the side that belongs to the Israelites. <sup>12</sup> And when the people of Israel heard of it, the whole assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh, to make war against them.

<sup>13</sup> Then the Israelites sent the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, <sup>14</sup> and with him ten chiefs, one from each of the tribal families of Israel, every one of them the head of a family among the clans of Israel. <sup>15</sup> They came to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they said to them, <sup>16</sup> "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, 'What is this treachery that you have committed against the God of Israel in turning away today from following the LORD, by building yourselves an altar today in rebellion against the LORD?'"

<sup>17</sup> Have we not had enough of the sin at Peor from which even yet we have not cleansed ourselves, and for which a plague came upon the congregation of the LORD, <sup>18</sup> that you must turn away today from following the LORD! If you rebel against the LORD today, he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow. <sup>19</sup> But now, if your land is unclean, cross over into the LORD's land where the LORD's tabernacle now stands, and take for yourselves a possession among us; only do not rebel against the LORD, or rebel against us by building yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God.

break faith in the matter of the devoted things, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish alone for his iniquity! ”

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

(Mt 21:23–27; Mk 11:27–33)

<sup>1</sup> One day, as he was teaching the people in the temple and telling the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came with the elders <sup>2</sup> and said to him, “Tell us, by what authority are you doing these things? Who is it who gave you this authority?” <sup>3</sup> He answered them, “I will also ask you a question, and you tell me: <sup>4</sup> Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?” <sup>5</sup> They discussed it with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’” <sup>6</sup> But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ all the people will stone us; for they are convinced that John was a prophet.” <sup>7</sup> So they answered that they did not know where it came from. <sup>8</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Joshua 22:21-34 (NRSV)

<sup>21</sup> Then the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh said in answer to the heads of the families of Israel, <sup>22</sup> “The LORD, God of gods! The LORD, God of gods! He knows; and let Israel itself know! If it was in rebellion or in breach of faith toward the LORD, do not spare us today <sup>23</sup> for building an altar to turn away from following the LORD; or if we did so to offer burnt offerings or grain offerings or offerings of well-being on it, may the LORD himself take vengeance. <sup>24</sup> No! We did it from fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, ‘What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?’ <sup>25</sup> For the LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, you Reubenites and Gadites; you have no portion in the LORD.’ So your children might make our children cease to worship the LORD. <sup>26</sup> Therefore we said, ‘Let us now build an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice, <sup>27</sup> but to be a witness between us and you, and between the generations after us, that we do perform the service of the LORD in his presence with our burnt offerings and sacrifices and offerings of well-being; so that your children may never say to our children in time to come, “You have no portion in the LORD.”’ <sup>28</sup> And we thought, If this should be said to us or to our descendants in time to come, we could say, 'Look at this copy of the altar of the LORD, which our ancestors made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifice, but to be a witness between us and you.'

<sup>29</sup> Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn away this day from following the LORD by building an altar for burnt offering, grain offering, or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle!"

<sup>30</sup> When the priest Phinehas and the chiefs of the congregation, the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites spoke, they were satisfied.

<sup>31</sup> The priest Phinehas son of Eleazar said to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites, "Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD; now you have saved the Israelites from the hand of the LORD."

<sup>32</sup> Then the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar and the chiefs returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites in the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the Israelites, and brought back word to them. <sup>33</sup> The report pleased the Israelites; and the Israelites blessed God and spoke no more of making war against them, to destroy the land where the Reubenites and the Gadites were settled.

<sup>34</sup> The Reubenites and the Gadites called the altar Witness; "For," said they, "it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

*The Parable of
the Wicked Tenants*
(Mt 21:33-46; Mk 12:1-12)

<sup>9</sup> He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, and leased it to tenants, and went to another country for a long time. <sup>10</sup> When the season came, he sent a slave to the tenants in order that they might give him his share of the produce of the vineyard; but the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

that one also they beat and insulted and sent away empty-handed.<sup>12</sup> And he sent still a third; this one also they wounded and threw out.

<sup>13</sup> Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.'<sup>14</sup> But when the tenants saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, 'This is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours.'<sup>15</sup> So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?<sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others." When they heard this, they said, "Heaven forbid!"<sup>17</sup> But he looked at them and said, "What then does this text mean:

'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone'?

<sup>18</sup> Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls."<sup>19</sup> When the scribes and chief priests realized that he had told this parable against them, they wanted to lay hands on him at that very hour, but they feared the people.

The Question about Paying Taxes

(Mt 22:15–22; Mk 12:13–17)

<sup>20</sup> So they watched him and sent spies who pretended to be honest, in order to trap him by what he said, so as to hand him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor.

<sup>21</sup> So they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are right in what you say and teach, and you show deference to no one, but teach the way of God in accordance with truth."<sup>22</sup> Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?"<sup>23</sup> But he perceived their craftiness and said to them,<sup>24</sup> "Show me a denarius. Whose head and whose title does it bear?"

They said, "The emperor's."

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, "Then give to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's."

<sup>26</sup> And they were not able in the presence of the people to trap him by what he said; and being amazed by his answer, they became silent.

Joshua Exhorts the People

A long time afterward,
when the LORD had given rest
to Israel from all their enemies
all around, and Joshua was old
and well advanced in years, <sup>2</sup> Joshua summoned all Israel,
their elders and heads, their judges and officers, and said to them, "I am now old and well advanced in years; <sup>3</sup> and you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake, for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you. <sup>4</sup> I have allotted to you as an inheritance for your tribes
those nations that remain,
along with all the nations that I have already cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west. <sup>5</sup> The LORD your God will push them back before you, and drive them out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you. <sup>6</sup> Therefore be very steadfast to observe and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, turning aside from it neither to the right nor to the left, <sup>7</sup> so that you may not be mixed with these nations left here among you, or make mention of the names of their gods, or swear by them, or serve them, or bow yourselves down to them, <sup>8</sup> but hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day. <sup>9</sup> For the LORD has driven out before you great and strong nations; and as for you, no one has been able to withstand you to this day. <sup>10</sup> One of you puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD your God who fights for you, as he promised you. <sup>11</sup> Be very careful, therefore, to love the LORD your God. <sup>12</sup> For if you turn back, and join the survivors of these nations left here among you, and intermarry with them, so that you marry their women and they yours, <sup>13</sup> know assuredly that the LORD your God will not continue to drive out these nations before you; but they shall be a snare and a trap for you, a scourge on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land that the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup> “And now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and you know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not one thing has failed of all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you; all have come to pass for you, not one of them has failed.

<sup>15</sup> But just as all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you have been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the bad things, until he has destroyed you from this good land that the LORD your God has given you. <sup>16</sup> If you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which he enjoined on you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land that he has given to you.”

*The Question about
the Resurrection*

(Mt 22:23–33; Mk 12:18–27)

<sup>27</sup> Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him <sup>28</sup> and asked him a question, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. <sup>29</sup> Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; <sup>30</sup> then the second <sup>31</sup> and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. <sup>32</sup> Finally the woman also died. <sup>33</sup> In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.” <sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; <sup>35</sup> but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. <sup>36</sup> Indeed they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup> And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. <sup>38</sup> Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.”

<sup>39</sup> Then some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, you have spoken well.” <sup>40</sup> For they no longer dared to ask him another question.

Psalms 89:19-37 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> Then you spoke in a vision to your faithful one, and said:
“I have set the crown on one who is mighty, I have exalted one chosen from the people.
<sup>20</sup> I have found my servant David;
with my holy oil I have anointed him;
<sup>21</sup> my hand shall always remain with him;

my arm also shall strengthen him.
22 The enemy shall not outwit
him,
the wicked shall not humble him.
23 I will crush his foes before
him
and strike down those who hate him.
24 My faithfulness and steadfast love shall be
with him;
and in my name his horn
shall be exalted.
25 I will set his hand on the sea
and his right hand on the rivers.
26 He shall cry to me, 'You are my Father,
my God, and the Rock of my salvation!'
27 I will make him the firstborn,
the highest of the kings
of the earth.
28 Forever I will keep my steadfast love for him,
and my covenant with
him will stand firm.
29 I will establish his line
forever,
and his throne as long as the heavens endure.

30 If his children forsake my
law
and do not walk
according to my
ordinances,
31 if they violate my statutes and do not keep my
commandments,
32 then I will punish their transgression with the rod
and their iniquity with scourges;
33 but I will not remove from him my steadfast love,
or be false to my
faithfulness.
34 I will not violate my
covenant,
or alter the word that went forth from my
lips.
35 Once and for all I have sworn by my holiness;
I will not lie to David.
36 His line shall continue

*The Tribes Renew the Covenant
(Cp Ex 24:9–18)*

Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup> And Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Long ago your ancestors—Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor—lived beyond the Euphrates and served other gods. <sup>3</sup> Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan and made his offspring many. I gave him Isaac; <sup>4</sup> and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau the hill country of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt. <sup>5</sup> Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt with what I did in its midst; and afterwards I brought you out. <sup>6</sup> When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your ancestors with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea. <sup>7</sup> When they cried out to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and made the sea come upon them and cover them; and your eyes saw what I did to Egypt. Afterwards you lived in the wilderness a long time. <sup>8</sup> Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the other side of the Jordan; they fought with you, and I handed them over to you, and you took possession of their land, and I destroyed them before you. <sup>9</sup> Then King Balak son of Zippor of Moab, set out to fight against Israel. He sent and invited Balaam son of Beor to curse you, <sup>10</sup> but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you; so I rescued you out of his hand.

<sup>11</sup> When you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho, the citizens of Jericho fought against you, and also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I handed them over to you. <sup>12</sup> I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove out before you the two kings of the Amorites; it was not by your sword or by your bow. <sup>13</sup> I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and towns that you had not built, and you live in them; you eat the fruit of vineyards and oliveyards that you did not plant.

<sup>14</sup> “Now therefore revere the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. <sup>15</sup> Now if you are unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region

beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the people answered, “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup> for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed; <sup>18</sup> and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God.”

<sup>19</sup> But Joshua said to the people, “You cannot serve the LORD, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins. <sup>20</sup> If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good.” <sup>21</sup> And the people said to Joshua,

“No, we will serve the LORD!”

<sup>22</sup> Then Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him.” And they said, “We are witnesses.” <sup>23</sup> He said, “Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.” <sup>24</sup> The people said to Joshua, “The LORD our God we will serve, and him we will obey.” <sup>25</sup> So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem. <sup>26</sup> Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a large stone, and set it up there under the oak in the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>27</sup> Joshua said to all the people, “See, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD that he spoke to us; therefore it shall be a witness against you, if you deal falsely with your God.” <sup>28</sup> So Joshua sent the people away to their inheritances.

Death of Joshua and Eleazar

<sup>29</sup> After these things Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred ten years old. <sup>30</sup> They buried him in his own inheritance at Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup> Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the work that the LORD did for Israel.

<sup>32</sup> The bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem, in the portion of ground that Jacob had bought from the children of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred pieces of money; it became an inheritance of the descendants of Joseph.

<sup>33</sup> Eleazar son of Aaron died; and they buried him at Gibeah, the town of his son Phinehas, which had been given him in the hill country of Ephraim.

*Israel's Failure to Complete the Conquest of Canaan
(Josh 15:13–19)*

15 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites inquired of the LORD, “Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?” <sup>2</sup> The LORD said, “Judah shall go up. I hereby give the land into his hand.” <sup>3</sup> Judah said to his brother Simeon, “Come up with me into the territory allotted to me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; then I too will go with you into the territory allotted to you.” So Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup> Then Judah went up and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand;

and they defeated ten thousand of them at Bezek.

<sup>5</sup> They came upon Adoni-bezek at Bezek, and fought against him, and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

<sup>6</sup> Adoni-bezek fled; but they pursued him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes. <sup>7</sup> Adoni-bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to pick up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has paid me back.” They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup> Then the people of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it. They put it to the sword and set the city on fire.

<sup>9</sup> Afterward the people of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, in the Negeb, and in the lowland.

<sup>10</sup> Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (the name of Hebron was formerly Kiriath-arba); and they defeated Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai.

<sup>11</sup> From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir (the name of Debir was formerly Kiriath-sepher).

<sup>12</sup> Then Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and takes it, I will give him my daughter Achsah as wife.”

<sup>14</sup> When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”

<sup>15</sup> She said to him, “Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me also Gulloth-mayim.” So Caleb gave her Upper Gulloth and Lower Gulloth.

The Widow’s Offering (Mk 12:41–44)

<sup>1</sup> He looked up and saw rich people putting their gifts into the treasury; <sup>2</sup> he also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. <sup>3</sup> He said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them; <sup>4</sup> for all of them have contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on.”

Psalm 89:46–52 (NRSV)

<sup>46</sup> How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself forever?
How long will your wrath burn like fire?

<sup>47</sup> Remember how short my time is—
for what vanity you have created all mortals!

<sup>48</sup> Who can live and never see death?
Who can escape the power of Sheol?

<sup>49</sup> Lord, where is your steadfast love of old,
which by your faithfulness you swore to David?

<sup>50</sup> Remember, O Lord, how your servant is taunted;
how I bear in my bosom the insults of the peoples,

<sup>51</sup> with which your enemies taunt, O LORD,
with which they taunted the footsteps of your anointed.

<sup>52</sup> Blessed be the LORD forever.
Amen and Amen.

Proverbs 21:5–7 (NRSV)

- <sup>5</sup> The plans of the diligent lead surely to
abundance,
but everyone who is hasty comes only to want.
- <sup>6</sup> The getting of treasures by a lying tongue
is a fleeting vapor and a snare of death.
- <sup>7</sup> The violence of the wicked
will sweep them away,
because they refuse to do what is just.

Judges 1:16–36 (NRSV)

<sup>16</sup>The descendants of Hobab the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up with the people of Judah from the city of palms into the wilderness of Judah, which lies in the Negeb near Arad. Then they went and settled with the Amalekites. <sup>17</sup>Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they defeated the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and devoted it to destruction. So the city was called Hormah. <sup>18</sup>Judah took Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory. <sup>19</sup>The LORD was with Judah, and he took possession of the hill country, but could not drive out the inhabitants of the plain, because they had chariots of iron. <sup>20</sup>Hebron was given to Caleb, as Moses had said; and he drove out from it the three sons of Anak. <sup>21</sup>But the Benjaminites did not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived in Jerusalem among the Benjaminites to this day.

<sup>22</sup>The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel; and the LORD was with them. <sup>23</sup>The house of Joseph sent out spies to Bethel (the name of the city was formerly Luz). <sup>24</sup>When the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, "Show us the way into the city, and we will deal kindly with you." <sup>25</sup>So he showed them the way into the city; and they put the city to the sword, but they let the man and all his family go. <sup>26</sup>So the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and named it Luz; that is its name to this day.

<sup>27</sup> Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Bethshean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; but the Canaanites continued to live in that land.

<sup>28</sup> When Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not in fact drive them out.

<sup>29</sup> And Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived among them in Gezer.

<sup>30</sup> Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor.

<sup>31</sup> Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob; <sup>32</sup> but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

<sup>33</sup> Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Bethshemesh, or the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; nevertheless the inhabitants of Bethshemesh and of Beth-anath became subject to forced labor for them.

<sup>34</sup> The Amorites pressed the Danites back into the hill country; they did not allow them to come down to the plain. <sup>35</sup> The Amorites continued to live in Har-heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, but the hand of the house of Joseph rested heavily on them, and they became subject to forced labor. <sup>36</sup> The border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward.

The Destruction of the Temple Foretold (Mt 24:1–2; Mk 13:1–2)

<sup>5</sup> When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said,

<sup>6</sup> “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.”

Signs and Persecutions

(Mt 24:3–14; Mk 13:3–13)

“Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?”

<sup>8</sup> And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them.

<sup>9</sup> “When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.”

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; <sup>11</sup> there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> “But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. <sup>13</sup> This will give you an opportunity to testify. <sup>14</sup> So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; <sup>15</sup> for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict.

<sup>16</sup> You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death.

<sup>17</sup> You will be hated by all because of my name. <sup>18</sup> But not a hair of your head will perish. <sup>19</sup> By your endurance you will gain your souls.

The Destruction of Jerusalem Foretold

(Mt 24:15–28; Mk 13:14–23)

<sup>20</sup> “When you see

Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near.

<sup>21</sup> Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those inside the city must leave it, and those out in the country must not enter it;

those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress on the earth and wrath against this people;
<sup>24</sup> they will fall by the edge of the sword and be taken away as captives among all nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled on by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Coming of the Son of Man
(Mt 24:29–31; Mk 13:24–27)

<sup>25</sup> “There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. <sup>26</sup> People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup> Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in a cloud’ with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup> Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

Psalm 90:1-17 (NRSV)

God’s Eternity and Human Frailty

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

- 1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.
- 2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
- 3 You turn us back to dust, and say, “Turn back, you mortals.”
- 4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.
- 5 You sweep them away; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning;
- 6 in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.
- 7 For we are consumed by your anger; by your wrath we are overwhelmed.

8 You have set our iniquities
before you,
our secret sins in the light of your
countenance.

9 For all our days pass away
under your wrath;
our years come to an end like a sigh.

10 The days of our life are seventy years,
or perhaps eighty, if we are strong;
even then their span is only toil and trouble;
they are soon gone, and
we fly away.

11 Who considers the power of your anger?
Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due
you.

12 So teach us to count our days
that we may gain a wise
heart.

13 Turn, O LORD! How long?
Have compassion on your servants!

14 Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast
love,
so that we may rejoice
and be glad all our
days.

15 Make us glad as many days
as you have afflicted
us,
and as many years as we have seen evil.

16 Let your work be manifest
to your servants,
and your glorious power
to their children.

17 Let the favor of the Lord
our God be upon us,
and prosper for us the work of our hands—
O prosper the work of our hands!

Proverbs 21:8–10 (NRSV)

8 The way of the guilty is
crooked,
but the conduct of the pure is right.

9 It is better to live in a corner of the housetop
than in a house shared with a contentious
wife.

10 The souls of the wicked desire evil;
their neighbors find no
mercy in their eyes.

Israel's Disobedience

2 Now the angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, "I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you into the land that I had promised to your ancestors. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you. <sup>2</sup> For your part, do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land; tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed my command. See what you have done! <sup>3</sup> So now I say, I will not drive them out before you; but they shall become adversaries to you, and their gods shall be a snare to you." <sup>4</sup> When the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the Israelites, the people lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>5</sup> So they named that place Bochim, and there they sacrificed to the LORD.

Death of Joshua
(Josh 24:29–31)

<sup>6</sup> When Joshua dismissed the people, the Israelites all went to their own inheritances to take possession of the land. <sup>7</sup> The people worshiped the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work that the LORD had done for Israel. <sup>8</sup> Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred ten years. <sup>9</sup> So they buried him within the bounds of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Luke 21:29-36 (NRSV)

The Lesson of the Fig Tree
(Mt 24:32–35; Mk 13:28–31)

<sup>29</sup> Then he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees; <sup>30</sup> as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. <sup>31</sup> So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. <sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Exhortation to Watch

(Mt 24:36–44; Mk 13:32–37)

<sup>34</sup> “Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, <sup>35</sup> like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup> Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

Psalm 91:1-16 (NRSV)

Assurance of God’s Protection

<sup>1</sup> You who live in the shelter of the Most High,
who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, <sup>2</sup> will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress;
my God, in whom I trust.”
<sup>3</sup> For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence;

<sup>4</sup> he will cover you with his pinions,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.

<sup>5</sup> You will not fear the terror of the night,
or the arrow that flies by day, <sup>6</sup> or the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
or the destruction that wastes at noonday.
<sup>7</sup> A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.
<sup>8</sup> You will only look with your eyes
and see the punishment of the wicked.
<sup>9</sup> Because you have made the LORD your refuge,
the Most High your dwelling place, <sup>10</sup> no evil shall befall you,
no scourge come near your tent.
<sup>11</sup> For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

12 On their hands they will
bear you up,
so that you will not dash
your foot against a
stone.

13 You will tread on the lion
and the adder,
the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.

14 Those who love me, I will
deliver;
I will protect those who know my name.

15 When they call to me, I will answer them;
I will be with them in
trouble,
I will rescue them and
honor them.

16 With long life I will satisfy
them,
and show them my
salvation.

Proverbs 21:11–12 (NRSV)

11 When a scoffer is punished, the simple
become wiser;
when the wise are instructed, they
increase in knowledge.

12 The Righteous One observes the house of the wicked; he casts

the wicked down to ruin.

August

Judges 2:10–23 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> Moreover, that whole generation was gathered to their ancestors, and another generation grew up after them, who did not know the LORD or the work that he had done for Israel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness

<sup>11</sup> Then the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and worshiped the Baals; <sup>12</sup> and they abandoned
the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt;
they followed other gods,
from among the gods of the peoples who were all around them, and bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>13</sup> They abandoned the LORD, and worshiped Baal and the Astartes.<sup>14</sup> So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them over to plunderers who plundered them, and he sold them into the power of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies.<sup>15</sup> Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them to bring misfortune, as the LORD had warned them and sworn to them; and they were in great distress.

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD raised up judges, who delivered them out of the power of those who plundered them.<sup>17</sup> Yet they did not listen even to their judges; for they lusted after other gods and bowed down to them. They soon turned aside from the way in which their ancestors had walked, who had obeyed the commandments of the LORD; they did not follow their example.<sup>18</sup> Whenever the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge, and he delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD would be moved to pity by their groaning because of those who persecuted and oppressed them.<sup>19</sup> But whenever the judge died, they would relapse and behave worse than their ancestors, following other gods, worshiping them and bowing down to them. They would not drop any of their practices or their stubborn ways.<sup>20</sup> So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he said, "Because this people have transgressed my covenant that I commanded their ancestors, and have not obeyed my voice,<sup>21</sup> I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died."<sup>22</sup> In order to test Israel, whether or not they would take care to walk in the way of the LORD as their ancestors did,<sup>23</sup> the LORD had left those nations, not driving them out at once, and had not handed them over to Joshua.

Luke 21:37-22:13 (NRSV)

<sup>37</sup> Every day he was teaching in the temple, and at night he would go out and spend the night on the Mount of Olives, as it was called.

<sup>38</sup> And all the people would get up early in the morning to listen to him in the temple.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

10–11; Jn 11:45–53)

22 Now the festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was near. <sup>2</sup> The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to put Jesus to death, for they were afraid of the people.

<sup>3</sup> Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve; <sup>4</sup> he went away and conferred with the chief priests and officers of the temple police about how he might betray him to them.

<sup>5</sup> They were greatly pleased and agreed to give him money.

<sup>6</sup> So he consented and began to look for an opportunity to betray him to them when no crowd was present.

The Preparation of the Passover

(Mt 26:17–19; Mk 14:12–16)

<sup>7</sup> Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us that we may eat it.” <sup>9</sup> They asked him, “Where do you want us to make preparations for it?” <sup>10</sup> “Listen,” he said to them, “when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house he enters <sup>11</sup> and say to the owner of the house, ‘The teacher asks you, “Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’” <sup>12</sup> He will show you a large room upstairs, already furnished. Make preparations for us there.” <sup>13</sup> So they went and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

Psalm 92:1-15 (NRSV)

Thanksgiving for Vindication

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath Day.

<sup>1</sup> It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praises to your name, O Most High; <sup>2</sup> to declare your steadfast love in the morning,

and your faithfulness by
night,
3 to the music of the lute
and the harp,
to the melody of the lyre.
4 For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your
work;
at the works of your hands I sing for joy.
5 How great are your works,
O LORD!
Your thoughts are very
deep!
6 The dullard cannot know,
the stupid cannot
understand this:
7 though the wicked sprout
like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they are doomed to destruction forever,
8 but you, O LORD, are on high forever.
9 For your enemies, O LORD,
for your enemies shall perish;
all evildoers shall be
scattered.
10 But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox;
you have poured over
me fresh oil.

11 My eyes have seen the downfall of my
enemies;
my ears have heard the doom of my evil
assailants.
12 The righteous flourish like
the palm tree,
and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
13 They are planted in the house of the LORD;
they flourish in the courts of our God.
14 In old age they still produce fruit;
they are always green
and full of sap,
15 showing that the LORD is
upright;
he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness
in him.

Proverbs 21:13 (NRSV)

13 If you close your ear to the cry of the poor,
you will cry out and not be heard.

Judges 3:1–31 (NRSV)

Nations Remaining in the Land

3 Now these are the nations that the LORD left to test all those in Israel who had no experience of any war in Canaan <sup>2</sup> (it was only that successive generations of Israelites might know war, to teach those who had no experience of it before): <sup>3</sup> the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon as far as Lebo-hamath. <sup>4</sup> They were for the testing of Israel, to know whether Israel would obey the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their ancestors by Moses. <sup>5</sup> So the Israelites lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; <sup>6</sup> and they took their daughters as wives for themselves, and their own daughters they gave to their sons; and they worshiped their gods.

Othniel

<sup>7</sup> The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, forgetting the LORD their God, and worshiping the Baals and the Asherahs. <sup>8</sup> Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram-naharaim; and the Israelites served Cushan-rishathaim eight years. <sup>9</sup> But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the Israelites, who delivered them, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. <sup>10</sup> The spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel; he went out to war, and the LORD gave King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim. <sup>11</sup> So the land had rest forty years. Then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

LORD; and the LORD strengthened King Eglon of Moab against Israel, because they had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> In alliance with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, he went and defeated Israel; and they took possession of the city of palms. <sup>14</sup> So the Israelites served King Eglon of Moab eighteen years.

<sup>15</sup> But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The Israelites sent tribute by him to King Eglon of Moab. <sup>16</sup> Ehud made for himself a sword with two edges, a cubit in length; and he fastened it on his right thigh under his clothes.

<sup>17</sup> Then he presented the tribute to King Eglon of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

<sup>18</sup> When Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent the people who carried the tribute on their way. <sup>19</sup> But he himself turned back at the sculptured stones near Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." So the king said, "Silence!" and all his attendants went out from his presence. <sup>20</sup> Ehud came to him, while he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber, and said, "I have a message from God for you." So he rose from his seat. <sup>21</sup> Then Ehud reached with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into Eglon's belly; <sup>22</sup> the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the dirt came out.

<sup>23</sup> Then Ehud went out into the vestibule, and closed the doors of the roof chamber on him, and locked them.

<sup>24</sup> After he had gone, the servants came. When they saw that the doors of the roof chamber were locked, they thought, "He must be relieving himself in the cool chamber."

<sup>25</sup> So they waited until they were embarrassed. When he still did not open the doors of the roof chamber, they took the key and opened them. There was their lord lying dead on the floor.

the sculptured stones, and escaped to Seirah.<sup>27</sup> When he arrived, he sounded the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites went down with him from the hill country, having him at their head.<sup>28</sup> He said to them, "Follow after me; for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hand." So they went down after him, and seized the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and allowed no one to cross over.<sup>29</sup> At that time they killed about ten thousand of the Moabites, all strong, able-bodied men; no one escaped.<sup>30</sup> So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.

Shamgar

<sup>31</sup> After him came Shamgar son of Anath, who killed six hundred of the Philistines with an oxgoad. He too delivered Israel.

*The Institution of the Lord's Supper
(Mt 26:20–30; Mk 14:17–26;
Jn 13:21–30)*

<sup>14</sup> When the hour came, he took his place at the table, and the apostles with him.<sup>15</sup> He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;<sup>16</sup> for I tell you, I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."<sup>17</sup> Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves;<sup>18</sup> for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."<sup>19</sup> Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."<sup>20</sup> And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood."<sup>21</sup> But see, the one who betrays me is with me, and his hand is on the table.<sup>22</sup> For the Son of Man is going as it has been determined, but woe to that one by whom he is betrayed!"<sup>23</sup> Then they began to ask one another which one of them it could be who would do this.

The Majesty of God's Rule

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD is king, he is robed in majesty;
the LORD is robed, he is
girded with strength.
He has established the world; it shall never be
moved;
<sup>2</sup> your throne is established from of
old;
you are from everlasting.
<sup>3</sup> The floods have lifted up,
O LORD,
the floods have lifted up
their voice;
the floods lift up their roaring.
<sup>4</sup> More majestic than the thunders of mighty
waters,
more majestic than the
waves of the sea,
majestic on high is the
LORD!
<sup>5</sup> Your decrees are very sure;
holiness befits your
house,
O LORD, forevermore.

Deborah and Barak

- 4 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died. <sup>2</sup> So the LORD sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Haroshethha-goiim. <sup>3</sup> Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help;
for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years.

<sup>4</sup> At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. <sup>5</sup> She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgment.

<sup>6</sup> She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, “The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you, ‘Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun. <sup>7</sup> I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin’s army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go.” <sup>9</sup> And she said, “I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the road on which you are going will not lead to your glory, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup> Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and ten thousand warriors went up behind him; and Deborah went up with him.

<sup>11</sup> Now Heber the Kenite had separated from the other Kenites, that is, the descendants of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had encamped as far away as Elon-bezaananim, which is near Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup> When Sisera was told that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor,

<sup>13</sup> Sisera called out all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the troops who were with him, from Harosheth-ha-goiim to the Wadi Kishon. <sup>14</sup> Then Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this is the day on which the LORD has given Sisera into your hand. The LORD is indeed going out before you.” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand warriors following him. <sup>15</sup> And the LORD threw Sisera and all his chariots and all his army into a panic before Barak; Sisera got down from his chariot and fled away on foot,<sup>16</sup> while Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth-ha-goiim. All the army of Sisera fell by the sword; no one was left.

<sup>17</sup> Now Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of Jael wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between King Jabin of Hazor and the clan of Heber the Kenite.

<sup>18</sup> Jael came out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; have no fear.” So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug. <sup>19</sup> Then he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty.” So she opened a skin of milk and gave him a drink and covered him. <sup>20</sup> He said to her, “Stand at the entrance of the tent, and if anybody comes and asks you, ‘Is anyone here?’ say, ‘No.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> But Jael wife of Heber took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, until it went down into the ground—he was lying fast asleep from weariness—

and he died. <sup>22</sup> Then, as Barak came in pursuit of Sisera, Jael went out to meet him, and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking.” So he went into her tent; and there was Sisera lying dead, with the tent peg in his temple.

<sup>23</sup> So on that day God subdued King Jabin of Canaan before the Israelites. <sup>24</sup> Then the hand of the Israelites bore harder and harder on King Jabin of Canaan, until they destroyed King Jabin of Canaan.

The Dispute about Greatness

<sup>24</sup> A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest. <sup>25</sup> But he said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. <sup>26</sup> But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves. <sup>27</sup> For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.

<sup>28</sup> “You are those who have stood by me in my trials; <sup>29</sup> and I confer on you, just as my Father has conferred on me, a kingdom, <sup>30</sup> so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

(Mt 26:31–35; Mk 14:27–31;
Jn 13:36–38)

<sup>31</sup> “Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, <sup>32</sup> but I have prayed for you that your own faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.” <sup>33</sup> And he said to him, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death!” <sup>34</sup> Jesus said, “I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, until you have denied three times that you know me.”

*God the Avenger
of the Righteous*

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, you God of vengeance,

you God of vengeance,
shine forth!

<sup>2</sup> Rise up, O judge of the earth;

give to the proud what they deserve!

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, how long shall the wicked,

how long shall the wicked exult?

<sup>4</sup> They pour out their arrogant words;

all the evildoers boast.

<sup>5</sup> They crush your people, O LORD,

and afflict your heritage.

<sup>6</sup> They kill the widow and the stranger,

they murder the orphan,

<sup>7</sup> and they say, “The LORD does not see;

the God of Jacob does not perceive.”

<sup>8</sup> Understand, O dullest of the people;

fools, when will you be wise?

<sup>9</sup> He who planted the ear, does he not hear?

He who formed the eye, does he not see?

<sup>10</sup> He who disciplines the nations,

he who teaches knowledge to humankind,

does he not chastise?
11 The LORD knows our thoughts,
that they are but an empty breath.
12 Happy are those whom you discipline, O LORD,
and whom you teach out

The Song of Deborah

Then Deborah and Barak
son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:
2 “When locks are long in Israel,
when the people offer
themselves willingly—bless the LORD!
3 “Hear, O kings; give ear, O
princes;
to the LORD I will sing, I will make melody to the LORD, the God of Israel.
4 “LORD, when you went out
from Seir,
when you marched from
the region of Edom,
the earth trembled,
and the heavens poured,
the clouds indeed
poured water.
5 The mountains quaked
before the LORD, the
One of Sinai,
before the LORD, the God
of Israel.
6 “In the days of Shamgar
son of Anath,
in the days of Jael,
caravans ceased
and travelers kept to the byways.
7 The peasantry prospered
in Israel,
they grew fat on plunder,

because you arose,
Deborah,
arose as a mother in Israel.
8 When new gods were chosen,
then war was in the gates.
Was shield or spear to be seen
among forty thousand in Israel?
9 My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel
who offered themselves
willingly among the
people.
Bless the LORD.
10 "Tell of it, you who ride on white donkeys,
you who sit on rich
carpets
and you who walk by the
way.
11 To the sound of musicians
at the watering places,
there they repeat the
triumphs of the LORD,
the triumphs of his
peasantry in Israel.
"Then down to the gates marched the people of
the LORD.
12 "Awake, awake, Deborah!

Awake, awake, utter a song!
Arise, Barak, lead away
your captives,
O son of Abinoam.
13 Then down marched the remnant of the noble;
the people of the LORD
marched down for him
against the mighty.
14 From Ephraim they set out into the valley,
following you, Benjamin,
with your kin;
from Machir marched down the commanders,
and from Zebulun those who bear the marshal's
staff;
15 the chiefs of Issachar came with Deborah,
and Issachar faithful to Barak;
into the valley they
rushed out at his heels.
Among the clans of Reuben
there were great
searchings of heart.
16 Why did you tarry among
the sheepfolds,
to hear the piping for the flocks?

Among the clans of Reuben
there were great
searchings of heart.
17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan;
and Dan, why did he
abide with the ships?
Asher sat still at the coast
of the sea,
settling down by his landings.
18 Zebulun is a people that scorned death;
Naphtali too, on the heights of the field.
19 "The kings came, they fought;
then fought the kings of Canaan,
at Taanach, by the waters
of Megiddo;
they got no spoils of
silver.
20 The stars fought from
heaven,
from their courses they fought against Sisera.
21 The torrent Kishon swept them away,
the onrushing torrent,
the torrent Kishon.
March on, my soul, with
might!

22 "Then loud beat the horses' hoofs
with the galloping,
galloping of his steeds.
23 "Curse Meroz, says the angel of the LORD,
curse bitterly its inhabitants,
because they did not come
to the help of the LORD,
to the help of the LORD
against the mighty.
24 "Most blessed of women
be Jael,
the wife of Heber the Kenite,
of tent-dwelling women
most blessed.
25 He asked water and she gave him milk,
she brought him curds in
a lordly bowl.
26 She put her hand to the tent peg
and her right hand to the workmen's mallet;
she struck Sisera a blow,
she crushed his head,
she shattered and
pierced his temple.
27 He sank, he fell,
he lay still at her feet;
at her feet he sank, he fell;
where he sank, there he fell dead.

28 “Out of the window she peered,
the mother of Sisera
gazed through the
lattice:
‘Why is his chariot so long
in coming?
Why tarry the hoofbeats
of his chariots?’
29 Her wisest ladies make
answer,
indeed, she answers the question herself:
30 ‘Are they not finding and dividing the spoil?—
A girl or two for every man;
spoil of dyed stuffs for Sisera,
spoil of dyed stuffs
embroidered,
two pieces of dyed work
embroidered for my neck as spoil?’
31 “So perish all your enemies, O LORD!
But may your friends be like the sun as it rises in its might.” And the land had rest forty years.

Luke 22:35-38 (NRSV)
Purse, Bag, and Sword

35 He said to them, “When I sent you out without a purse,
bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?” They said, “No, not a thing.” 36 He said to them, “But now, the one who has a purse must take it, and likewise a bag. And the one who has no sword must sell his cloak and buy one. 37 For I tell you, this scripture must be fulfilled in me, ‘And he was counted among the lawless’;
and indeed what is written about me is being fulfilled.” 38 They said, “Lord, look, here are two swords.” He replied, “It is enough.”

Psalm 94:14-23 (NRSV)

14 For the LORD will not forsake his people;
he will not abandon his heritage;
15 for justice will return to
the righteous,
and all the upright in
heart will follow it.
16 Who rises up for me
against the wicked?
Who stands up for me
against evildoers?
17 If the LORD had not been my help,

my soul would soon have lived in the land of silence.

<sup>18</sup> When I thought, “My foot is slipping,”
your steadfast love, O
LORD, held me up.

<sup>19</sup> When the cares of my heart are many,
your consolations cheer
my soul.

<sup>20</sup> Can wicked rulers be allied with you,
those who contrive
mischief by statute?

<sup>21</sup> They band together against the life of the
righteous,
and condemn the
innocent to death.

<sup>22</sup> But the LORD has become my stronghold,
and my God the rock of my refuge.

<sup>23</sup> He will repay them for their iniquity
and wipe them out for their wickedness;
the LORD our God will wipe them out.

Judges 6:1–32
(NRSV)

The Midianite Oppression

The Israelites did what
was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hand of Midian seven years. <sup>2</sup>The hand of Midian prevailed over Israel; and because of Midian the Israelites provided for themselves hiding places in the mountains, caves and strongholds. <sup>3</sup>For whenever the Israelites put in seed, the Midianites and the Amalekites
and the people of the east
would come up against them.
<sup>4</sup>They would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the land, as far as the neighborhood of Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel, and no sheep or ox or donkey.

<sup>5</sup> For they and their livestock would come up, and they would even bring their tents, as thick as locusts; neither they nor their camels could be counted; so they wasted the land as they came in. <sup>6</sup> Thus Israel was greatly impoverished because of Midian; and the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help.

<sup>7</sup> When the Israelites cried to the LORD on account of the Midianites, <sup>8</sup> the LORD sent a prophet to the Israelites; and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I led you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of slavery; <sup>9</sup> and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you, and gave you their land; <sup>10</sup> and I said to you, 'I am the LORD your God; you shall not pay reverence to the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you live.' But you have not given heed to my voice."

The Call of Gideon

<sup>11</sup> Now the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press, to hide it from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup> The angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty warrior." <sup>13</sup> Gideon answered him, "But sir, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all his wonderful deeds that our ancestors recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has cast us off, and given us into the hand of Midian." <sup>14</sup> Then the LORD turned to him and said, "Go in this might of yours and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian; I hereby commission you." <sup>15</sup> He responded, "But sir, how can I deliver Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family." <sup>16</sup> The LORD said to him, "But I will be with you, and you shall strike down the Midianites, every one of them." <sup>17</sup> Then he said to him, "If now I have found favor with you, then show me a sign that it is you who speak with me."<sup>18</sup> Do not depart from here until I come to you, and bring out my present, and set it before you." And he said, "I will stay until you return."

<sup>19</sup> So Gideon went into his house and prepared a kid, and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour; the meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot, and brought them to him under the oak and presented them.<sup>20</sup> The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and put them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so.<sup>21</sup> Then the angel of the LORD reached out the tip of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.<sup>22</sup> Then Gideon perceived that it was the angel of the LORD; and Gideon said, "Help me, Lord GOD! For I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face."<sup>23</sup> But the LORD said to him, "Peace be to you; do not fear, you shall not die."<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it, The LORD is peace. To this day it still stands at Ophrah, which belongs to the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup> That night the LORD said to him, "Take your father's bull, the second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, and cut down the sacred pole that is beside it;<sup>26</sup> and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of the stronghold here, in proper order; then take the second bull, and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the sacred pole that you shall cut down."<sup>27</sup> So Gideon took ten of his servants, and did as the LORD had told him; but because he was too afraid of his family and the townspeople to do it by day, he did it by night.

Gideon Destroys the Altar of Baal

altar of Baal was broken down, and the sacred pole beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar that had been built.<sup>29</sup> So they said to one another, "Who has done this?" After searching and inquiring, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash did it."

<sup>30</sup> Then the townspeople said to Joash, "Bring out your son, so that he may die, for he has pulled down the altar of Baal and cut down the sacred pole beside it."<sup>31</sup> But Joash said to all who were arrayed against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you defend his cause? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because his altar has been pulled down."<sup>32</sup> Therefore on that day Gideon was called Jerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend against him," because he pulled down his altar.

Luke 22:39-53 (NRSV)

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

(Mt 26:36-46; Mk 14:32-42; Jn 18:1)

<sup>39</sup> He came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him.

<sup>40</sup> When he reached the place, he said to them, "Pray that you may not come into the time of trial."<sup>41</sup>

Then he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, knelt down, and prayed,<sup>42</sup> "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me; yet, not my will but yours be done." [[<sup>43</sup> Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and gave him strength.

<sup>44</sup> In his anguish he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.]]<sup>45</sup> When he got up from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping because of grief,<sup>46</sup> and he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you may not come into the time of trial."

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

(Mt 26:47-56; Mk 14:43-52;

Jn 18:1-11)

<sup>47</sup> While he was still speaking, suddenly a crowd came, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him; <sup>48</sup> but Jesus said to him, “Judas, is it with a kiss that you are betraying the Son of Man?” <sup>49</sup> When those who were around him saw what was coming, they asked, “Lord, should we strike with the sword?” <sup>50</sup> Then one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup> But Jesus said, “No more of this!” And he touched his ear and healed him. <sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple police, and the elders who had come for him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a bandit?” <sup>53</sup> When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness!”

Psalms 95:1-11 (NRSV)

A Call to Worship and Obedience

<sup>1</sup> O come, let us sing to the LORD;
let us make a joyful noise
to the rock of our
salvation!
<sup>2</sup> Let us come into his presence with
thanksgiving;

let us make a joyful noise
to him with songs of praise!
<sup>3</sup> For the LORD is a great God,
and a great King above
all gods.
<sup>4</sup> In his hand are the depths
of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his also.
<sup>5</sup> The sea is his, for he made
it,
and the dry land, which
his hands have formed.
<sup>6</sup> O come, let us worship and bow down,
let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
<sup>7</sup> For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his
hand.
O that today you would listen to his voice!
<sup>8</sup> Do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah,
as on the day at Massah
in the wilderness,
<sup>9</sup> when your ancestors
tested me,
and put me to the proof,
though they had seen
my work.

<sup>10</sup> For forty years I loathed that generation
and said, “They are a people whose hearts
go astray,
and they do not regard
my ways.”

<sup>11</sup> Therefore in my anger I swore,
“They shall not enter my rest.”

Proverbs 21:21–22 (NRSV)

<sup>21</sup> Whoever pursues righteousness and kindness
will find life and honor.

<sup>22</sup> One wise person went up against a city of warriors
and brought down the stronghold in which they trusted.

Judges 6:33–40 (NRSV)

<sup>33</sup> Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east came together, and crossing the Jordan they encamped in the Valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup> But the spirit of the LORD took possession of Gideon; and he sounded the trumpet, and the Abiezrites

were called out to follow him.
<sup>35</sup> He sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, and they too were called out to follow him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them.

The Sign of the Fleece

<sup>36</sup> Then Gideon said to God, “In order to see whether you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said, <sup>37</sup> I am going to lay a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew
on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said.” <sup>38</sup> And it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water.
<sup>39</sup> Then Gideon said to God,
“Do not let your anger burn against me, let me speak one more time; let me, please, make trial with the fleece just once more; let it be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew.”

<sup>40</sup> And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew.

Peter Denies Jesus

(Mt 25:69–75; Mk 14:66–72;

Jn 18:15–18, 25–27)

<sup>54</sup> Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest’s house. But Peter was following at a distance. <sup>55</sup> When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them. <sup>56</sup> Then a servant-girl, seeing him in the firelight, stared at him and said, “This man also was with him.” <sup>57</sup> But he denied it, saying, “Woman, I do not know him.” <sup>58</sup> A little later someone else, on seeing him, said, “You also are one of them.” But Peter said, “Man, I am not!” <sup>59</sup> Then about an hour later still another kept insisting, “Surely this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean.” <sup>60</sup> But Peter said, “Man, I do not know what you are talking about!” At that moment, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed.

<sup>61</sup> The Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, “Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times.”

<sup>62</sup> And he went out and wept bitterly.

The Mocking and Beating of Jesus

(Mt 26:67–68; Mk 14:65)

<sup>63</sup> Now the men who were holding Jesus began to mock him and beat him; <sup>64</sup> they also blindfolded him and kept asking him, “Prophecy! Who is it that struck you?” <sup>65</sup> They kept heaping many other insults on him.

Jesus before the Council

(Mt 26:57–68; Mk 14:61–64;

Jn 18:12–14, 19–24)

<sup>66</sup> When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together, and they brought him to their council. <sup>67</sup> They said, “If you are the Messiah, tell us.” He replied, "If I tell you, you will not believe;<sup>68</sup> and if I question you, you will not answer.

<sup>69</sup> But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

<sup>70</sup> All of them asked, "Are you, then, the Son of God?" He said to them, "You say that I am."

<sup>71</sup> Then they said, "What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips!"

Praise to God Who Comes in Judgment

(1 Chr 16:23-33)

<sup>1</sup> O sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth.

<sup>2</sup> Sing to the LORD, bless his name;
tell of his salvation from day to day.

<sup>3</sup> Declare his glory among the nations,
his marvelous works among all the peoples.

<sup>4</sup> For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
he is to be revered above all gods.

<sup>5</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are idols,

but the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>6</sup> Honor and majesty are before him;
strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

<sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name;
bring an offering, and come into his courts.

<sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in holy splendor;
tremble before him, all the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Say among the nations,
"The LORD is king!
The world is firmly established;
it shall never be moved.
He will judge the peoples with equity."

<sup>11</sup> Let the heavens be glad,
and let the earth rejoice;
let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
let the field exult, and everything in it.

Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy

before the LORD; for he is coming,
for he is coming to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with his truth.

Judges 7:1–25 (NRSV)

Gideon Surprises and Routs the Midianites

Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the troops that were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Midian was north of them,

below the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, “The troops with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand. Israel would only take the credit away from me, saying, ‘My own hand has delivered me.’” <sup>3</sup> Now therefore proclaim this in the hearing of the troops, ‘Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return home.’” Thus Gideon sifted them out; twenty-two thousand returned, and ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Gideon, “The troops are still too many; take them down to the water and I will sift them out for you there. When I say, ‘This one shall go with you,’ he shall go with you; and when I say, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.” <sup>5</sup> So he brought the troops down to the water; and the LORD said to Gideon, “All those who lap the water with their tongues, as a dog laps, you shall put to one side; all those who kneel down to drink, putting their hands to their mouths, you shall put to the other side.” <sup>6</sup> The number of those that lapped was three hundred; but all the rest of the troops knelt down to drink water. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred that lapped I will deliver you, and give the Midianites into your hand. Let all the others go to their homes." <sup>8</sup> So he took the jars of the troops from their hands, and their trumpets; and he sent all the rest of Israel back to their own tents, but retained the three hundred. The camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup> That same night the LORD said to him, "Get up, attack the camp; for I have given it into your hand. <sup>10</sup> But if you fear to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah; <sup>11</sup> and you shall hear what they say, and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to attack the camp." Then he went down with his servant Purah to the outposts of the armed men that were in the camp. <sup>12</sup> The Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the east lay along the valley as thick as locusts; and their camels were without number, countless as the sand on the seashore. <sup>13</sup> When Gideon arrived, there was a man telling a dream to his comrade; and he said, "I had a dream, and in it a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell; it turned upside down, and the tent collapsed." <sup>14</sup> And his comrade answered, "This is no other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel; into his hand God has given Midian and all the army."

<sup>15</sup> When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped; and he returned to the camp of Israel, and said, "Get up; for the LORD has given the army of Midian into your hand."

<sup>16</sup> After he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and put trumpets into the hands of all of them, and empty jars, with torches inside the jars, <sup>17</sup> he said to them, "Look at me, and do the same; when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do. <sup>18</sup> When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets around the whole camp, and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!' "

<sup>19</sup> So Gideon and the hundred who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch; and they blew the trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands. <sup>20</sup> So the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars, holding in their left hands the torches, and in their right hands the trumpets to blow; and they cried, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!" <sup>21</sup> Every man stood in his place all around the camp, and all the men in camp ran; they cried out and fled. <sup>22</sup> When they blew the three hundred trumpets, the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath. <sup>23</sup> And the men of Israel were called out from Naphtali and from Asher and from all

Manasseh, and they pursued after the Midianites.

<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters against them, as far as Beth-barah, and also the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they seized the waters as far as Beth-barah, and also the Jordan. <sup>25</sup> They captured the two captains of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the wine press of Zeeb, as they pursued the Midianites. They brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

Jesus before Pilate

(Mt 27:1-2, 11-14; Mk 15:1-5;

Jn 18:28-38)

<sup>1</sup> Then the assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate. <sup>2</sup> They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king." <sup>3</sup> Then Pilate asked him,

“Are you the king of the Jews?” He answered, “You say so.”<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find no basis for an accusation against this man.”<sup>5</sup> But they were insistent and said, “He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place.”

Jesus before Herod

<sup>6</sup> When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.<sup>7</sup> And when he learned that he was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him off to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time.<sup>8</sup> When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see him perform some sign.<sup>9</sup> He questioned him at some length, but Jesus gave him no answer.<sup>10</sup> The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him.<sup>11</sup> Even Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then he put an elegant robe on him, and sent him back to Pilate.<sup>12</sup> That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies.

The Glory of God’s Reign

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD is king! Let the earth rejoice;
let the many coastlands be glad!
- <sup>2</sup> Clouds and thick darkness are all around him;
righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
- <sup>3</sup> Fire goes before him,
and consumes his adversaries on every side.
- <sup>4</sup> His lightnings light up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- <sup>5</sup> The mountains melt like wax before the LORD,
before the Lord of all the earth.
- <sup>6</sup> The heavens proclaim his righteousness;
and all the peoples behold his glory.
- <sup>7</sup> All worshipers of images are put to shame,

those who make their boast in worthless
idols;
all gods bow down
before him.

8 Zion hears and is glad,
and the towns of Judah
rejoice,

because of your judgments, O God.

9 For you, O LORD, are most high over all the earth;
you are exalted far above
all gods.

10 The LORD loves those who hate evil;
he guards the lives of his faithful;
he rescues them from
the hand of the
wicked.

11 Light dawns for the
righteous,
and joy for the upright in

Gideon's Triumph and Vengeance

Then the Ephraimites said to him, “What have you done to us, not to call us when you went to fight against the Midianites?” And they upbraided him violently. <sup>2</sup> So he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? <sup>3</sup> God has given into your hands the captains of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; what have I been able to do in comparison with you?” When he said this, their anger against him subsided.

<sup>4</sup> Then Gideon came to the Jordan and crossed over, he and the three hundred who were with him, exhausted and famished. <sup>5</sup> So he said to the people of Succoth, "Please give some loaves of bread to my followers, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian." <sup>6</sup> But the officials of Succoth said, "Do you already have in your possession the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna, that we should give bread to your army?"

<sup>7</sup> Gideon replied, "Well then, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will trample your flesh on the thorns of the wilderness and on briers."

<sup>8</sup> From there he went up to Penuel, and made the same request of them; and the people of Penuel answered him as the people of Succoth had answered. <sup>9</sup> So he said to the people of Penuel, "When I come back victorious, I will break down this tower."

<sup>10</sup> Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the people of the east; for one hundred twenty thousand men bearing arms had fallen.

<sup>11</sup> So Gideon went up by the caravan route east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the army; for the army was off its guard. <sup>12</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued them and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and threw all the army into a panic.

<sup>13</sup> When Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres, <sup>14</sup> he caught a young man, one of the people of Succoth, and questioned him; and he listed for him the officials and elders of Succoth, seventy-seven people. <sup>15</sup> Then he came to the people of Succoth, and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Do you already have in your possession the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna, that we should give bread to your troops who are exhausted?' " <sup>16</sup> So he took the elders of the city and he took thorns of the wilderness and briers and with them he trampled the people of Succoth. <sup>17</sup> He also broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

Jesus Sentenced to Death

(Mt 27:15–26; Mk 15:6–15;

Jn 18:38b–19:16a)

together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, <sup>14</sup> and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and here I have examined him in your presence and have not found this man guilty of any of your charges against him.

<sup>15</sup> Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Indeed, he has done nothing to deserve death. <sup>16</sup> I will therefore have him flogged and release him.”

<sup>18</sup> Then they all shouted out together, “Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!” <sup>19</sup> (This was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder.) <sup>20</sup> Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again; <sup>21</sup> but they kept shouting, “Crucify, crucify him!” <sup>22</sup> A third time he said to them, “Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no ground for the sentence of death; I will therefore have him flogged and then release him.” <sup>23</sup> But they kept urgently demanding with loud shouts that he should be crucified; and their voices prevailed. <sup>24</sup> So Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted. <sup>25</sup> He released the man they asked for, the one who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over as they wished.

Praise the Judge of the World

A Psalm.

- <sup>1</sup> O sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done marvelous things.
His right hand and his holy arm
have gotten him victory.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD has made known his victory;
he has revealed his vindication in the sight of the nations.
- <sup>3</sup> He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness

to the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth
have seen
the victory of our God.

4 Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth;
break forth into joyous
song and sing praises.

5 Sing praises to the LORD
with the lyre,
with the lyre and the sound of melody.

6 With trumpets and the sound of the horn
make a joyful noise
before the King, the
LORD.

7 Let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
the world and those who live in it.

8 Let the floods clap their
hands;
let the hills sing together
for joy

9 at the presence of the LORD, for he is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world
with righteousness,
and the peoples with equity.

Judges 8:18–32 (NRSV)

<sup>18</sup> Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What about the men whom you killed at Tabor?” They answered, “As you are, so were they, every one of them; they resembled the sons of a king.” <sup>19</sup> And he replied, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother; as the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you.” <sup>20</sup> So he said to Jether his firstborn, “Go kill them!” But the boy did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a boy. <sup>21</sup> Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “You come and kill us; for as the man is, so is his strength.” So Gideon proceeded to kill Zebah and Zalmunna; and he took the crescents that were on the necks of their camels.

Gideon’s Idolatry

<sup>22</sup> Then the Israelites said to Gideon, “Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson also; for you have delivered us out of the hand of Midian.”

<sup>23</sup> Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you.” <sup>24</sup> Then Gideon said to them, “Let me make a request of you; each of you give me an earring he has taken as booty.” (For the enemy had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.) <sup>25</sup> “We will willingly give them,” they answered. So they spread a garment, and each threw into it an earring he had taken as booty. <sup>26</sup> The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold (apart from the crescents and the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian, and the collars that were on the necks of their camels). <sup>27</sup> Gideon made an ephod of it and put it in his town, in Ophrah; and all Israel prostituted themselves to it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and to his family.

<sup>28</sup> So Midian was subdued before the Israelites, and they lifted up their heads no more. So the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

Death of Gideon

<sup>29</sup> Jerubbaal son of Joash went to live in his own house.

<sup>30</sup> Now Gideon had seventy sons, his own offspring, for he had many wives. <sup>31</sup> His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.

<sup>32</sup> Then Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash at Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

The Crucifixion of Jesus

(Mt 27:32–44; Mk 15:21–32;

Jn 19:16b–24)

<sup>26</sup> As they led him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus.<sup>27</sup> A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him.<sup>28</sup> But Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.<sup>29</sup> For the days are surely coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.’<sup>30</sup> Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us’; and to the hills, ‘Cover us.’<sup>31</sup> For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

<sup>32</sup>Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him.<sup>33</sup> When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[<sup>34</sup>Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.”]] And they cast lots to divide his clothing.<sup>35</sup> And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!”<sup>36</sup> The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine,<sup>37</sup> and saying, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!”<sup>38</sup> There was also an inscription over him, “This is the King of the Jews.”<sup>39</sup> One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, “Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!”<sup>40</sup> But the other rebuked him, saying, “Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?<sup>41</sup> And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.”<sup>42</sup> Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”<sup>43</sup> He replied, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

Judges 8:33–9:21 (NRSV)

<sup>33</sup> As soon as Gideon died, the Israelites relapsed and prostituted themselves with the Baals, making Baal-berith their god. <sup>34</sup> The Israelites did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies on every side; <sup>35</sup> and they did not exhibit loyalty to the house of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in return for all the good that he had done to Israel.

Abimelech Attempts to Establish a Monarchy

9 Now Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's kinsfolk and said to them and to the whole clan of his mother's family, <sup>2</sup> "Say in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem, 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal rule over you, or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh."

<sup>3</sup> So his mother's kinsfolk spoke all these words on his behalf in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem; and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." <sup>4</sup> They gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the temple of Baal-berith with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless fellows, who followed him.

<sup>5</sup> He went to his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone; but Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, for he hid himself.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the lords of Shechem and all Beth-millo came together, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar at Shechem.

The Parable of the Trees

<sup>7</sup> When it was told to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and cried aloud and said to them, "Listen to me, you lords of Shechem, so that God may listen to you.

<sup>8</sup> The trees once went out to anoint a king over themselves.

So they said to the olive tree,

'Reign over us.'

<sup>9</sup> The olive tree answered them,

'Shall I stop producing my rich oil

by which gods and mortals are honored,

and go to sway over the trees?'

<sup>10</sup> Then the trees said to the fig tree,

'You come and reign over us.'

<sup>11</sup> But the fig tree answered them,

'Shall I stop producing my sweetness

and my delicious fruit,

and go to sway over the trees?'

<sup>12</sup> Then the trees said to the vine,

'You come and reign over us.'

<sup>13</sup> But the vine said to them,

'Shall I stop producing my wine

that cheers gods and mortals,

and go to sway over the trees?'

14 So all the trees said to the bramble,
‘You come and reign
over us.’
15 And the bramble said to the trees,
‘If in good faith you are anointing me king over
you,
then come and take refuge
in my shade;
but if not, let fire come out of the bramble
and devour the cedars of Lebanon.’

16 “Now therefore, if you
acted in good faith and honor
when you made Abimelech
king, and if you have dealt well
with Jerubbaal and his house,
and have done to him as his actions deserved—<sup>17</sup> for my father fought for you, and risked his life, and rescued you
from the hand of Midian;
<sup>18</sup> but you have risen up against my father’s house this day, and have killed his sons,
seventy men on one stone,
and have made Abimelech,
the son of his slave woman,
king over the lords of Shechem, because he is your kinsman—<sup>19</sup> if, I say, you have
acted in good faith and honor

with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you; <sup>20</sup> but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech,
and devour the lords of Shechem, and Beth-millo; and let fire come out from the lords of Shechem, and from Beth-millo, and devour Abimelech.” <sup>21</sup> Then Jotham ran away and fled, going to Beer, where he remained for fear of his brother Abimelech.

The Death of Jesus

(Mt 27:45–56; Mk 15:33–41;

Jn 19:25–30)

<sup>44</sup> It was now about noon,
and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, <sup>45</sup> while the sun’s light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two.
<sup>46</sup> Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.” Having said this, he breathed his last. <sup>47</sup> When the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said, “Certainly this man was innocent.” <sup>48</sup> And when all the crowds who had gathered
there for this spectacle saw

what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts. <sup>49</sup> But all his acquaintances, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

<sup>50</sup> Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph, who, though a member of the council, <sup>51</sup> had not agreed to their plan and action. He came from the Jewish town of Arimathea, and he was waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God. <sup>52</sup> This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>53</sup> Then he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid it in a rock-hewn tomb where no one had ever been laid. <sup>54</sup> It was the day of Preparation, and the sabbath was beginning. <sup>55</sup> The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how his body was laid. <sup>56</sup> Then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments.

On the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

Judges 9:22–57 (NRSV)

The Downfall of Abimelech

<sup>22</sup> Abimelech ruled over Israel three years. <sup>23</sup> But God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem; and the lords of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech. <sup>24</sup> This happened so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be avenged and their blood be laid on their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and on the lords of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers. <sup>25</sup> So, out of hostility to him, the lords of Shechem set ambushes on the mountain tops. They robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>26</sup> When Gaal son of Ebed moved into Shechem with his kinsfolk, the lords of Shechem put confidence in him. <sup>27</sup> They went out into the field and gathered the grapes from their vineyards, trod them, and celebrated. Then they went into the temple of their god, ate and drank, and ridiculed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup> Gaal son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Did not the son of Jerubbaal and Zebul his officer serve the men of Hamor father of Shechem? Why then should we serve him? <sup>29</sup> If only this people were under my command! Then I would remove Abimelech; I would say to him, ‘Increase your army, and come out.’ ”

<sup>30</sup> When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, his anger

was kindled.<sup>31</sup> He sent messengers to Abimelech at Arumah, saying, "Look, Gaal son of Ebed and his kinsfolk have come to Shechem, and they are stirring up the city against you."<sup>32</sup> Now therefore, go by night, you and the troops that are with you, and lie in wait in the fields.<sup>33</sup> Then early in the morning, as soon as the sun rises, get up and rush on the city; and when he and the troops that are with him come out against you, you may deal with them as best you can."

<sup>34</sup> So Abimelech and all the troops with him got up by night and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

<sup>35</sup> When Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city, Abimelech and the troops with him rose from the ambush.

<sup>36</sup> And when Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the mountain tops!" And Zebul said to him, "The shadows on the mountains look like people to you."<sup>37</sup> Gaal spoke again and said, "Look, people are coming down from Tabbur-erez, and one company is coming from the direction of Elon-meonenim."<sup>38</sup> Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your boast now, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Are not these the troops you made light of? Go out now and fight with them."<sup>39</sup> So Gaal went out at the head of the lords of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.<sup>40</sup> Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him. Many fell wounded, up to the entrance of the gate.<sup>41</sup> So Abimelech resided at Arumah; and Zebul drove out Gaal and his kinsfolk, so that they could not live on at Shechem.

<sup>42</sup> On the following day the people went out into the fields. When Abimelech was told,<sup>43</sup> he took his troops and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the fields. When he looked and saw the people coming out of the city, he rose against them and killed them.

<sup>44</sup> Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, while the two companies rushed on all who were in the fields and killed them.

<sup>45</sup> Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city, and killed the people that were in it; and he razed the city and sowed it with salt.

<sup>46</sup> When all the lords of the Tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered the stronghold of the temple of El-berith.

<sup>47</sup> Abimelech was told that all the lords of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together. <sup>48</sup> So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the troops that were with him. Abimelech took an ax in his hand, cut down a bundle of brushwood, and took it up and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the troops with him, "What you have seen me do, do quickly, as I have done." <sup>49</sup> So every one of the troops cut down a bundle and following Abimelech put it against the stronghold, and they set the stronghold on fire over them, so that all the people of the Tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup> Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it. <sup>51</sup> But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women and all the lords of the city fled to it and shut themselves in; and they went to the roof of the tower.

<sup>54</sup> Immediately he called to the young man who carried his armor and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, so people will not say about me, 'A woman killed him.'" So the young man thrust him through, and he died. <sup>55</sup> When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home. <sup>56</sup> Thus God repaid Abimelech for the crime he committed against his father in killing his seventy brothers; <sup>57</sup> and God also made all the wickedness of the people of Shechem fall back on their heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal.

(Mt 28:1-10; Mk 16:1-8; Jn 20:1-10)

<sup>1</sup> But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared.

<sup>5</sup> The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen.

<sup>6</sup> Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." <sup>8</sup> Then they remembered his words, <sup>9</sup> and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. <sup>10</sup> Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. <sup>11</sup> But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

<sup>12</sup> But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Judges 10:1–18 (NRSV)

Tola and Jair

After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, who lived at Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim, rose to deliver Israel. <sup>2</sup> He judged Israel twenty-three years. Then he died, and was buried at Shamir.

<sup>3</sup> After him came Jair the Gileadite, who judged Israel twenty-two years. <sup>4</sup> He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys; and they had thirty towns, which are in the land of Gilead, and are called Havvoth-jair to this day. <sup>5</sup> Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.

Oppression by the Ammonites

<sup>6</sup> The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, worshiping the Baals and the Astartes, the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines. Thus they abandoned the LORD, and did not worship him. <sup>7</sup> So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites, <sup>8</sup> and they crushed and oppressed the Israelites that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. <sup>9</sup> The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah and against Benjamin and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was greatly distressed.

<sup>10</sup> So the Israelites cried to the LORD, saying, “We have sinned against you, because we have abandoned our God and have worshiped the Baals.” <sup>11</sup> And the LORD said to the Israelites, “Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the Ammonites and from the Philistines? <sup>12</sup> The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand. <sup>13</sup> Yet you have abandoned me and worshiped other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more. <sup>14</sup> Go and cry to the gods whom you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress.” <sup>15</sup> And the Israelites said to the LORD, “We have sinned; do to us whatever seems good to you; but deliver us this day!” <sup>16</sup> So they put away the foreign gods from among them and worshiped the LORD; and he could no longer bear to see Israel suffer.

<sup>17</sup> Then the Ammonites were called to arms, and they encamped in Gilead; and the Israelites came together, and they encamped at Mizpah.

<sup>18</sup> The commanders of the people of Gilead said to one another, “Who will begin the fight against the Ammonites? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

The Walk to Emmaus

(Mk 16:12-13)

<sup>13</sup> Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup> and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. <sup>15</sup> While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, <sup>16</sup> but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. <sup>17</sup> And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad. <sup>18</sup> Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?”

<sup>19</sup> He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, <sup>20</sup> and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. <sup>21</sup> But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. <sup>22</sup> Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, <sup>23</sup> and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive.

<sup>24</sup> Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.” <sup>25</sup> Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! <sup>26</sup> Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?”

<sup>27</sup> Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

<sup>28</sup> As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. <sup>29</sup> But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup> When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

<sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. <sup>32</sup> They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” <sup>33</sup> That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. <sup>34</sup> They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!”

Judges 11:1–28 (NRSV)

Jephthah

Now Jephthah the Gileadite, the son of a prostitute, was a mighty warrior. Gilead was the father of Jephthah. <sup>2</sup> Gilead's wife also bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah away, saying to him, "You shall not inherit anything in our father's house; for you are the son of another woman." <sup>3</sup> Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Outlaws collected around Jephthah and went raiding with him.

<sup>4</sup> After a time the Ammonites made war against Israel. <sup>5</sup> And when the Ammonites made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup> They said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, so that we may fight with the Ammonites."

<sup>7</sup> But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Are you not the very ones who rejected me and drove me out of my father's house? So why do you come to me now when you are in trouble?" <sup>8</sup> The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Nevertheless, we have now turned back to you, so that you may go with us and fight with the Ammonites, and become head over us, over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

<sup>9</sup> Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight with the Ammonites, and the LORD gives them over to me, I will be your head." <sup>10</sup> And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be witness between us; we will surely do as you say."<sup>11</sup> So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah.

<sup>12</sup> Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites and said, "What is there between you and me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?"<sup>13</sup> The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel, on coming from Egypt, took away my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; now therefore restore it peaceably."<sup>14</sup> Once again Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites<sup>15</sup> and said to him: "Thus says Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites,<sup>16</sup> but when they came up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.<sup>17</sup> Israel then sent messengers to the king of

Edom, saying, 'Let us pass through your land'; but the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained at Kadesh.<sup>18</sup> Then they journeyed through the wilderness, went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, arrived on the east side of the land of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab.<sup>19</sup> Israel then sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, 'Let us pass through your land to our country.'<sup>20</sup> But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel.<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them; so Israel occupied all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.<sup>22</sup> They occupied all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan. <sup>23</sup> So now the LORD, the God of Israel, has conquered the Amorites for the benefit of his people Israel. Do you intend to take their place? <sup>24</sup> Should you not possess what your god Chemosh gives you to possess? And should we not be the ones to possess everything that the LORD our God has conquered for our benefit? <sup>25</sup> Now are you any better than King Balak son of Zippor of Moab? Did he ever enter into conflict with Israel, or did he ever go to war with them? <sup>26</sup> While Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the towns that are along the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time? <sup>27</sup> It is not I who have sinned against you, but you are the one who does me wrong by making war on me. Let the LORD, who is judge, decide today for the Israelites or for the Ammonites.” <sup>28</sup> But the king of the Ammonites did not heed

the message that Jephthah sent him.

Luke 24:35-53 (NRSV)

<sup>35</sup> Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples (Jn 20:19–23; Acts 1:3–5; 1 Cor 15:5)

<sup>36</sup> While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” <sup>37</sup> They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. <sup>38</sup> He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup> Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” <sup>40</sup> And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. <sup>41</sup> While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” <sup>42</sup> They gave him a piece of broiled fish, <sup>43</sup> and he took it and ate in their presence.

<sup>44</sup> Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.”

<sup>45</sup> Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, <sup>46</sup> and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup> and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

The Ascension of Jesus
(Mk 16:19–20; Acts 1:9)

<sup>50</sup> Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. <sup>51</sup> While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup> And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; <sup>53</sup> and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Jephthah's Vow

<sup>29</sup> Then the spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh. He passed on to Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed on to the Ammonites. <sup>30</sup> And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If you will give the Ammonites into my hand, <sup>31</sup> then whoever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return victorious from the Ammonites, shall be the LORD's, to be offered up by me as a burnt offering." <sup>32</sup> So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them; and the LORD gave them into his hand. <sup>33</sup> He inflicted a massive defeat on them from Aroer to the neighborhood of Minnith, twenty towns, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the Ammonites were subdued before the people of Israel.

Jephthah's Daughter

<sup>34</sup> Then Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah; and there was his daughter coming out to meet him with timbrels and with dancing. She was his only child; he had no son or daughter except her. <sup>35</sup> When he saw her, he tore his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low; you have become the cause of great trouble to me. For I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot take back my vow." <sup>36</sup> She said to him, "My father, if you have opened your mouth to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, now that the LORD has given you vengeance against your enemies, the Ammonites." <sup>37</sup> And she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: Grant me two months, so that I may go and wander on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, my companions and I." <sup>38</sup> "Go," he said and sent her away for two months. So she departed, she and her companions, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains.

<sup>39</sup> At the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to the vow he had made. She had never slept with a man. So there arose an Israelite custom that <sup>40</sup> for four days every year the daughters of Israel would go out to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Intertribal Dissension

12 The men of Ephraim were called to arms, and they crossed to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down over you!” <sup>2</sup> Jephthah said to them, “My people and I were engaged in conflict with the Ammonites who oppressed us severely. But when I called you, you did not deliver me from their hand. <sup>3</sup> When I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hand, and crossed over against the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day, to fight against me?”

<sup>4</sup> Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, “You are fugitives from Ephraim, you Gileadites—in the heart of Ephraim and Manasseh.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. Whenever one of the fugitives of Ephraim said, “Let me go over,” the men of Gilead would say to him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” When he said, “No,” <sup>6</sup> they said to him, “Then say Shibboleth,” and he said, “Sibboleth,” for he could not pronounce it right. Then they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites fell at that time.

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in his town in Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

<sup>8</sup> After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup> He had thirty sons. He gave his thirty daughters in marriage outside his clan and brought in thirty young women from outside for his sons. He judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup> Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

<sup>11</sup> After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years.

<sup>12</sup> Then Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

<sup>13</sup> After him Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. <sup>14</sup> He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys; he judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup> Then Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

John 1:1-18 (NRSV)

The Word Became Flesh
(Gen 1:1-2:4a)

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

<sup>2</sup> He was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup> All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being <sup>4</sup> in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. <sup>5</sup> The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

<sup>6</sup> There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. <sup>7</sup> He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him.

<sup>8</sup> He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. <sup>9</sup> The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

<sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. <sup>11</sup> He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him.

<sup>12</sup> But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, <sup>13</sup> who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

<sup>14</sup> And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. <sup>15</sup> (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' ") <sup>16</sup> From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. <sup>17</sup> The law

indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God. It is God
the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

The Birth of Samson
(Cp Num 6:1–21)

13 The Israelites again did
what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

<sup>2</sup> There was a certain man of Zorah, of the tribe of the Danites, whose name was Manoah. His wife was barren, having borne no children.

<sup>3</sup> And the angel of the LORD

appeared to the woman and said to her, "Although you are barren, having borne no children, you shall conceive and bear a son." <sup>4</sup> Now be careful not to drink wine or strong drink, or to eat anything unclean, <sup>5</sup> for you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor is to come on his head, for the boy shall be a nazirite to God from birth. It is he who shall begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines." <sup>6</sup> Then the woman came and told her husband, "A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like that of an angel of God, most awe-inspiring; I did not ask him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name; <sup>7</sup> but he said to me, 'You shall conceive and bear a son. So then drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for the boy shall be a nazirite to God from birth to the day of his death.' "

<sup>8</sup> Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, "O LORD, I pray, let the man of God whom you sent come to us again and teach us what we are to do concerning the boy who will be born." <sup>9</sup> God listened to Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her. <sup>10</sup> So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, "The man who came to me the other day has appeared to me." <sup>11</sup> Manoah got up and followed his wife, and came to the man and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to this woman?" And he said, "I am." <sup>12</sup> Then Manoah said, "Now when your words come true, what is to be the boy's rule of life; what is he to do?" <sup>13</sup> The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Let the woman give heed to all that I said to her. <sup>14</sup> She may not eat of anything that comes from the vine. She is not to drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing. She is to observe everything that I commanded her."

<sup>15</sup> Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Allow us to detain you, and prepare a kid for you." <sup>16</sup> The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "If you detain me, I will not eat your food; but if you want to prepare a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.)

<sup>17</sup> Then Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that we may honor you when your words come true?” <sup>18</sup> But the angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask my name? It is too wonderful.”

<sup>19</sup> So Manoah took the kid with the grain offering, and offered it on the rock to the LORD, to him who works wonders. <sup>20</sup> When the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar while Manoah and his wife looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> The angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah realized that it was the angel of the LORD. <sup>22</sup> And Manoah said to his wife, “We shall surely die, for we have seen God.” <sup>23</sup> But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering at our hands, or shown us all these things, or now announced to us such things as these.”

<sup>24</sup> The woman bore a son, and named him Samson. The boy grew, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>25</sup> The spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

(Mt 3:1-12; Mk 1:1-8; Lk 3:1-20)

<sup>19</sup> This is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?” <sup>20</sup> He confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, “I am not the Messiah.” <sup>21</sup> And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not.” “Are you the prophet?” He answered, “No.” <sup>22</sup> Then they said to him, “Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?” <sup>23</sup> He said,

“I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness,

‘Make straight the way of the Lord,’ ”

as the prophet Isaiah said.

<sup>24</sup> Now they had been sent from the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup> They asked him, “Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?” <sup>26</sup> John answered
them, “I baptize with water.
Among you stands one whom you do not know, <sup>27</sup> the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal.” <sup>28</sup> This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.

Prayer to the Eternal King for Help

A prayer of one afflicted, when faint
and pleading before the LORD.

<sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, O LORD;
let my cry come to you.
<sup>2</sup> Do not hide your face from
me
in the day of my distress.
Incline your ear to me;
answer me speedily in
the day when I call.
<sup>3</sup> For my days pass away like smoke,
and my bones burn like a furnace.

<sup>4</sup> My heart is stricken and withered like grass;
I am too wasted to eat
my bread.
<sup>5</sup> Because of my loud groaning
my bones cling to my skin.
<sup>6</sup> I am like an owl of the
wilderness,
like a little owl of the waste places.
<sup>7</sup> I lie awake;
I am like a lonely bird on
the housetop.
<sup>8</sup> All day long my enemies
taunt me;
those who deride me use
my name for a curse.
<sup>9</sup> For I eat ashes like bread,
and mingle tears with my
drink,
<sup>10</sup> because of your indignation and anger;
for you have lifted me up
and thrown me aside.
<sup>11</sup> My days are like an evening shadow;
I wither away like grass.
<sup>12</sup> But you, O LORD, are enthroned forever;
your name endures to all
generations.
<sup>13</sup> You will rise up and have compassion on Zion,

for it is time to favor it;
the appointed time has come.

- 14 For your servants hold its stones dear,
and have pity on its dust.
- 15 The nations will fear the
name of the LORD,
and all the kings of the earth your glory.
- 16 For the LORD will build up
Zion;
he will appear in his
glory.
- 17 He will regard the prayer
of the destitute,
and will not despise their
prayer.

Samson's Marriage

Once Samson went down to Timnah, and at Timnah he saw a Philistine woman. <sup>2</sup> Then he came up, and told his father and mother, "I saw a Philistine woman at Timnah; now get her for me as my wife." <sup>3</sup> But his father and mother said to him, "Is there not a woman among your kin, or among all our people, that you must go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, because she pleases me." <sup>4</sup> His father and mother did not know that this was from the LORD; for he was seeking a pretext to act against the Philistines. At that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Then Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah. When he came to the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion roared at him.

on him, and he tore the lion apart barehanded as one might tear apart a kid. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.<sup>7</sup> Then he went down and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson.<sup>8</sup> After a while he returned to marry her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey.<sup>9</sup> He scraped it out into his hands, and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the carcass of the lion.

<sup>10</sup> His father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there as the young men were accustomed to do.

<sup>11</sup> When the people saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

<sup>12</sup> Samson said to them, "Let me now put a riddle to you. If you can explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments."<sup>13</sup> But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments." So they said to him, "Ask your riddle; let us hear it."<sup>14</sup> He said to them,

"Out of the eater came something to eat.

Out of the strong came something sweet."

But for three days they could not explain the riddle.

<sup>15</sup> On the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, "Coax your husband to explain the riddle to us, or we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us here to impoverish us?"<sup>16</sup> So Samson's wife wept before him, saying, "You hate me; you do not really love me. You have asked a riddle of my people, but you have not explained it to me." He said to her, "Look, I have not told my father or my mother. Why should I tell you?"<sup>17</sup> She wept before him the seven days that their feast lasted; and because she nagged him, on the seventh day he told her. Then she explained the riddle to her people.<sup>18</sup> The men of the town said to him on the seventh day before the sun

went down,

“What is sweeter than honey?

What is stronger than a
lion?”

And he said to them,

“If you had not plowed
with my heifer,
you would not have found out my riddle.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and he went down to Ashkelon. He killed thirty men of the town, took their spoil, and gave the festal
garments to those who had explained the riddle. In hot anger he went back to his father’s house. <sup>20</sup> And Samson’s wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

The Lamb of God

(Mt 3:13–17; Mk 1:9–11; Lk 3:21–22)

<sup>29</sup> The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, “Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup> This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me
because he was before me.’

<sup>31</sup> I myself did not know him;

but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.”

<sup>32</sup> And John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. <sup>33</sup> I myself
did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>34</sup> And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.”

The First Disciples of Jesus

<sup>35</sup> The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, <sup>36</sup> and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!” <sup>37</sup> The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup> When Jesus turned and saw them
following, he said to them,
“What are you looking for?”
They said to him, “Rabbi”
(which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” <sup>39</sup> He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying,

and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon.

<sup>40</sup> One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. <sup>41</sup> He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). <sup>42</sup> He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

Samson Defeats the Philistines

After a while, at the time of the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, bringing along a kid. He said, "I want to go into my wife's room." But her father would not allow him to go in.<sup>2</sup> Her father said, "I was sure that you had rejected her; so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister prettier than she? Why not take her instead?"<sup>3</sup> Samson said to them, "This time, when I do mischief to the Philistines, I will be without blame."<sup>4</sup> So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took some torches; and he turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.<sup>5</sup> When he had set fire to the torches, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.<sup>6</sup> Then the Philistines asked, "Who has done this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken Samson's wife and given her to his companion." So the Philistines came up, and burned her and her father.<sup>7</sup> Samson said to them, "If this is what you do, I swear I will not stop until I have taken revenge on you."<sup>8</sup> He struck them down hip and thigh with great slaughter; and he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

<sup>9</sup> Then the Philistines came up and encamped in Judah, and made a raid on Lehi.<sup>10</sup> The men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he did to us."<sup>11</sup> Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and they said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then have you done to us?" He replied, "As they did to me, so I have done to them."<sup>12</sup> They said to him, "We have come down to bind you, so that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines." Samson answered them, "Swear to me that you yourselves will not attack me."<sup>13</sup> They said to him, "No, we will only bind you and give you into their hands; we will not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.<sup>14</sup> When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him; and the spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that has caught fire, and his bonds melted off his hands. <sup>15</sup> Then he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached down and took it, and with it he killed a thousand men. <sup>16</sup> And Samson said,

“With the jawbone of a donkey,
heaps upon heaps,
with the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men.”

<sup>17</sup> When he had finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone; and that place was called Ramath-lehi.

<sup>18</sup> By then he was very thirsty, and he called on the LORD, saying, “You have granted this great victory by the hand of your servant. Am I now to die of thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?” <sup>19</sup> So God split open the hollow place that is at Lehi, and water came from it. When he drank, his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore it was named En-hakkore, which is at Lehi to this day. <sup>20</sup> And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Samson and Delilah

16 Once Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute and went in to her. <sup>2</sup> The Gazites were told, “Samson has come here.” So they circled around and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate. They kept quiet all night, thinking, “Let us wait until the light of the morning; then we will kill him.” <sup>3</sup> But Samson lay only until midnight. Then at midnight he rose up, took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that is in front of Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> After this he fell in love with a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. <sup>5</sup> The lords of the Philistines came to her and said to her, “Coax him, and find out what makes his strength so great, and how we may overpower him, so that we may bind him in order to subdue him; and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.”<sup>6</sup> So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me what makes your strength so great, and how you could be bound, so that one could subdue you.”<sup>7</sup> Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings that are not dried out, then I shall become weak, and be like anyone else.”<sup>8</sup> Then the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not dried out, and she bound him with them.<sup>9</sup> While men were lying in wait in an inner chamber, she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he snapped the bowstrings, as a strand of fiber snaps when it touches the fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

*Jesus Calls Philip
and Nathanael*

<sup>43</sup> The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”<sup>44</sup> Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of

Andrew and Peter.<sup>45</sup> Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.”<sup>46</sup> Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

<sup>47</sup> When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, “Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!”

<sup>48</sup> Nathanael asked him, “Where did you get to know me?” Jesus answered, “I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.”<sup>49</sup> Nathanael replied, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”<sup>50</sup> Jesus answered, “Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.”<sup>51</sup> And he said to him, “Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.”

<sup>25</sup> Long ago you laid the foundation of the

<sup>26</sup> They will perish, but you

Judges 16:10–31 (NRSV)

<sup>10</sup> Then Delilah said to Samson, “You have mocked me and told me lies; please tell me how you could be bound.” <sup>11</sup> He said to her, “If they bind me with new ropes
that have not been used, then I shall become weak, and be like anyone else.” <sup>12</sup> So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” (The men lying in wait were in an inner chamber.) But he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup> Then Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies;
tell me how you could be bound.” He said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and make it tight with the pin, then I shall become weak, and be like anyone else.”<sup>14</sup> So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web, and made them tight with the pin. Then she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled away the pin, the loom, and the web.

<sup>15</sup> Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me three times now and have not told me what makes your strength so great.”<sup>16</sup> Finally, after she had nagged him with her words day after day, and pestered him, he was tired to death.<sup>17</sup> So he told her his whole secret, and said to her, “A razor has never come upon my head; for I have been a nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If my head were shaved, then my strength would leave me; I would become weak, and be like anyone else.”

secret, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, “This time come up, for he has told his whole secret to me.” Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hands.<sup>19</sup> She let him fall asleep on her lap; and she called a man, and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. He began to weaken, and his strength left him.

<sup>20</sup> Then she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” When he awoke from his sleep, he thought, “I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had left him.<sup>21</sup> So the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles; and he ground at the mill in the prison.<sup>22</sup> But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

Samson’s Death

<sup>23</sup> Now the lords of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon, and to rejoice; for they said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand." <sup>24</sup> When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, "Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the ravager of our country, who has killed many of us." <sup>25</sup> And when their hearts were merry, they said, "Call Samson, and let him entertain us." So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. They made him stand between the pillars; <sup>26</sup> and Samson said to the attendant who held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, so that I may lean against them." <sup>27</sup> Now the house was full of men and women; all the lords of the Philistines were there, and on the roof there were about three thousand men and women, who looked on while Samson performed.

<sup>28</sup> Then Samson called to the LORD and said, "Lord GOD, remember me and strengthen me only this once, O God, so that with this one act of revenge I may pay back the Philistines for my two eyes."

<sup>29</sup> And Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and he leaned his weight against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other. <sup>30</sup> Then Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines." He strained with all his might; and the house fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So those he killed at his death were more than those he had killed during his life. <sup>31</sup> Then his brothers and all his family came down and took him and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.

The Wedding at Cana

<sup>1</sup> On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. <sup>2</sup> Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. <sup>3</sup> When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." <sup>4</sup> And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.”<sup>5</sup> His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”<sup>6</sup> Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim.<sup>8</sup> He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.” So they took it.<sup>9</sup> When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom<sup>10</sup> and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.”<sup>11</sup> Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

<sup>2</sup> Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and do not forget all his benefits—<sup>3</sup> who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your
diseases,
<sup>4</sup> who redeems your life
from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and
mercy,
<sup>5</sup> who satisfies you with good as long as you live
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
<sup>6</sup> The LORD works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.
<sup>7</sup> He made known his ways
to Moses,
his acts to the people of Israel.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD is merciful and
gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast
love.
<sup>9</sup> He will not always accuse, nor will he keep his anger forever.

<sup>10</sup> He does not deal with us
according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.

<sup>11</sup> For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love toward those who
fear him;

<sup>12</sup> as far as the east is from the west,
so far he removes our transgressions from us.

Judges 17:1–18:21 (NRSV)

Micah and the Levite

There was a man in the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah. <sup>2</sup> He said to his mother, “The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and even spoke it in my hearing,—

that silver is in my possession;
I took it; but now I will return
it to you.” And his mother said, “May my son be blessed by the LORD!” <sup>3</sup> Then he returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother;
and his mother said, “I consecrate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make an idol of cast metal.” <sup>4</sup> So when he returned the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave it to the silversmith, who made it into an idol of cast metal; and it was in the house of Micah.
<sup>5</sup> This man Micah had a shrine,
and he made an ephod and teraphim, and installed one of his sons, who became his priest. <sup>6</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel; all the people did what was right in their own eyes.

<sup>7</sup> Now there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the clan of Judah. He was a Levite residing there. <sup>8</sup> This man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah, to live

wherever he could find a place. He came to the house of Micah in the hill country of Ephraim to carry on his work.<sup>9</sup> Micah said to him, "From where do you come?" He replied, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to live wherever I can find a place."<sup>10</sup> Then Micah said to him, "Stay with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, a set of clothes, and your living."<sup>11</sup> The Levite agreed to stay with the man; and the young man became to him like one of his sons.<sup>12</sup> So Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.<sup>13</sup> Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, because the Levite has become my priest."

The Migration of Dan

18 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking for itself a territory to live in; for until then no territory among the tribes of Israel had been allotted to them.<sup>2</sup> So the Danites sent five valiant men from the whole number of their clan, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to explore it; and they said to them, "Go, explore the land." When they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they stayed there.<sup>3</sup> While they were at Micah's house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite; so they went over and asked him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?"<sup>4</sup> He said to them, "Micah did such and such for me, and he hired me, and I have become his priest."<sup>5</sup> Then they said to him, "Inquire of God that we may know whether the mission we are undertaking will succeed."<sup>6</sup> The priest replied, "Go in peace. The mission you are on is under the eye of the LORD."

<sup>7</sup> The five men went on, and when they came to Laish, they observed the people who were there living securely, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting, lacking nothing on earth, and possessing wealth. Furthermore, they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with Aram.<sup>8</sup> When they came to their kinsfolk at Zorah and Eshtaol, they said to them, “What do you report?”<sup>9</sup> They said, “Come, let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and it is very good. Will you do nothing? Do not be slow to go, but enter in and possess the land.<sup>10</sup> When you go, you will come to an unsuspecting people. The land is broad—God has indeed given it into your hands—a place where there is no lack of anything on earth.”

<sup>11</sup> Six hundred men of the Danite clan, armed with weapons of war, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol,<sup>12</sup> and went up and encamped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. On this account that place is called Mahaneh-dan to this day; it is west of Kiriath-jearim.<sup>13</sup> From there they passed on to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

<sup>14</sup> Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land

(that is, Laish) said to their comrades, “Do you know that in these buildings there are an ephod, teraphim, and an idol of cast metal? Now therefore consider what you will do.”

<sup>15</sup> So they turned in that direction and came to the house of the young Levite, at the home of Micah, and greeted him.<sup>16</sup> While the six hundred men of the Danites, armed with their weapons of war, stood by the entrance of the gate,<sup>17</sup> the five men who had gone to spy out the land proceeded to enter and take the idol of cast metal, the ephod, and the teraphim. The priest was standing by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.<sup>18</sup> When the men went into Micah’s house and took the idol of cast metal, the ephod, and the teraphim, the priest said to them, “What are you doing?”<sup>19</sup> They said to him, “Keep quiet! Put your hand over your mouth, and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one person, or to be priest to a tribe and clan in Israel?”<sup>20</sup> Then the priest accepted the offer. He took the ephod, the teraphim, and the idol, and went along with the people.

<sup>21</sup> So they resumed their journey, putting the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple
(Mt 21:12–17; Mk 11:15–19;
Lk 19:45–48)

<sup>13</sup> The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. <sup>15</sup> Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. <sup>16</sup> He told those who were selling the doves, “Take these things out of here! Stop making my

Father’s house a marketplace!” <sup>17</sup> His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your house will consume me.” <sup>18</sup> The Jews then said to him, “What sign can you show us for doing this?” <sup>19</sup> Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

<sup>20</sup> The Jews then said, “This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?” <sup>21</sup> But he was speaking of the temple of his body. <sup>22</sup> After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

<sup>23</sup> When he was in Jerusalem during the Passover festival, many believed in his name because they saw the signs that he was doing. <sup>24</sup> But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people <sup>25</sup> and needed no one to testify about anyone; for he himself knew what was in everyone.

Psalms 103:13-22 (NRSV)

13 As a father has compassion
for his children,
so the LORD has compassion for those who fear him.
14 For he knows how we were made;
he remembers that we are dust.
15 As for mortals, their days
are like grass;
they flourish like a flower
of the field;
16 for the wind passes over it,
and it is gone,
and its place knows it no
more.
17 But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to
everlasting
on those who fear him,
and his righteousness to
children's children,
18 to those who keep his
covenant
and remember to do his
commandments.
19 The LORD has established his throne in the
heavens,
and his kingdom rules
over all.

20 Bless the LORD, O you his
angels,
you mighty ones who do
his bidding,
obedient to his spoken
word.
21 Bless the LORD, all his
hosts,
his ministers that do his will.
22 Bless the LORD, all his works,
in all places of his
dominion.
Bless the LORD, O my soul.

Judges 18:22-31 (NRSV)

22 When they were some distance from the home of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house were called out, and they overtook the Danites.<sup>23</sup> They shouted to the Danites, who turned around and said to Micah, “What is the matter that you come with such a company?”<sup>24</sup> He replied, “You take my gods that I made, and the priest, and go away, and what have I left? How then can you ask me, ‘What is the matter?’”<sup>25</sup> And the Danites said to him, “You had better not let your voice be heard among us or else hot-tempered fellows will attack you, and you will lose your life and the lives of your household.”<sup>26</sup> Then the Danites went their way. When Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his home.

The Danites Settle in Laish

<sup>27</sup> The Danites, having taken what Micah had made, and the priest who belonged to him, came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, put them to the sword, and burned down the city.<sup>28</sup> There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with Aram. It was in the valley that belongs to Beth-rehob. They rebuilt the city, and lived in it.<sup>29</sup> They named the city Dan, after their ancestor Dan, who was born to Israel; but the name of the city was formerly Laish.<sup>30</sup> Then the Danites set up the idol for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the time the land went into captivity.<sup>31</sup> So they maintained as their own Micah’s idol that he had made, as long as the house of God was at Shiloh.

Nicodemus Visits Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews.<sup>2</sup> He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.”<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.”

<sup>4</sup> Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?"

<sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit.

<sup>6</sup> What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup> Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' <sup>8</sup> The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." <sup>9</sup> Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" <sup>10</sup> Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

<sup>11</sup> "Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. <sup>12</sup> If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? <sup>13</sup> No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man.

<sup>14</sup> And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup> that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

Judges 19:1–30 (NRSV)

The Levite's Concubine

19 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite, residing in the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, took to himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah. <sup>2</sup> But his concubine became angry with him, and she went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there some four months.

<sup>3</sup> Then her husband set out after her, to speak tenderly to her and bring her back. He had with him his servant and a couple of donkeys. When he reached her father's house, the girl's father saw him and came with joy to meet him.

<sup>4</sup> His father-in-law, the girl's father, made him stay, and he remained with him three days; so they ate and drank, and he stayed there. <sup>5</sup> On the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to go; but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Fortify yourself with a bit of food, and after that you may go." <sup>6</sup> So the two men sat and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Why not spend the night and enjoy yourself?" <sup>7</sup> When the man got up to go, his father-in-law kept urging him until he spent the night there again. <sup>8</sup> On the fifth day he got up early in the morning to leave; and the girl's father said, "Fortify yourself." So they lingered until the day declined, and the two of them ate and drank.

<sup>9</sup> When the man with his concubine and his servant got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Look, the day has worn on until it is almost evening. Spend the night. See, the day has drawn to a close. Spend the night here and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow you can get up early in the morning for your journey, and go home."

<sup>10</sup> But the man would not spend the night; he got up and departed, and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). He had with him a couple of saddled donkeys, and his concubine was with him. <sup>11</sup> When they were near Jebus, the day was far spent, and the servant said to his master, "Come now, let us turn aside to this city of the Jebusites, and spend the night in it." <sup>12</sup> But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel; but we will continue on to Gibeah." <sup>13</sup> Then he said to his servant, "Come, let us try to reach one of these places, and spend the night at Gibeah or at Ramah." <sup>14</sup> So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. <sup>15</sup> They turned aside there, to go in and spend the night at Gibeah. He went in and sat down in the open square of the city, but no one took them in to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup> Then at evening there was an old man coming from his work in the field. The man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was residing in Gibeah. (The people of the place were Benjaminites.)

<sup>17</sup> When the old man looked up and saw the wayfarer in the open square of the city, he said, "Where are you going and where do you come from?" <sup>18</sup> He answered him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, from which I come. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; and I am going to my home. Nobody has offered to take me in.

<sup>19</sup> We your servants have straw and fodder for our donkeys, with bread and wine for me and the woman and the young man along with us. We need nothing more.”

<sup>20</sup>The old man said, “Peace be to you. I will care for all your wants; only do not spend the night in the square.” <sup>21</sup> So he brought him into his house, and fed the donkeys; they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Gibeah’s Crime

<sup>22</sup> While they were enjoying themselves, the men of the city, a perverse lot, surrounded the house, and started pounding on the door. They said to the old man, the master of the house, “Bring out the man who came into your house, so that we may have intercourse with him.”

<sup>23</sup> And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. Since this man is my guest, do not do this vile thing.

<sup>24</sup> Here are my virgin daughter and his concubine; let me bring them out now. Ravish them and do whatever you want to them; but against this man do not do such a vile thing.” <sup>25</sup> But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine, and put her out to them. They wantonly raped her, and abused her all through the night until the morning. And as the dawn began to break, they let her go. <sup>26</sup> As morning appeared, the woman came and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her master was, until it was light.

<sup>27</sup> In the morning her master got up, opened the doors of the house, and when he went out to go on his way, there was his concubine lying at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

<sup>28</sup> “Get up,” he said to her, “we are going.” But there was no answer. Then he put her on the donkey; and the man set out for his home. <sup>29</sup> When he had entered his house, he took a knife, and grasping his concubine he cut her into twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel. <sup>30</sup> Then he commanded the men whom he sent, saying, “Thus shall you say to all the Israelites, ‘Has such a thing ever happened since the day that the Israelites came up from the land of Egypt until this day? Consider it, take counsel, and speak out.’ ”

John 3:16-21 (NRSV)

Judges 20:1–48 (NRSV)

The Other Tribes Attack Benjamin

Then all the Israelites came out, from Dan to Beer-sheba,
including the land of Gilead,
and the congregation

assembled in one body before the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>The chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot-soldiers bearing arms. <sup>3</sup>(Now the Benjaminites heard that the people of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the Israelites said, "Tell us, how did this criminal act come about?" <sup>4</sup>The Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered, "I came to Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night. <sup>5</sup>The lords of Gibeah rose up against me, and surrounded the house at night. They intended to kill me, and they raped my concubine until she died. <sup>6</sup>Then I took my concubine and cut her into pieces, and sent her throughout the whole extent of Israel's territory; for they have committed a vile outrage in Israel. <sup>7</sup>So now, you Israelites, all of you, give your advice and counsel here."

<sup>8</sup>All the people got up as one, saying, "We will not any of us go to our tents, nor will any of us return to our houses.

<sup>9</sup>But now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot. <sup>10</sup>We will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to bring provisions for the troops, who are going to repay Gibeah of Benjamin for all the disgrace that they have done in Israel."

<sup>12</sup>The tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What crime is this that has been committed among you?"

<sup>13</sup>Now then, hand over those scoundrels in Gibeah, so that we may put them to death, and purge the evil from Israel." But the Benjaminites would not listen to their kinsfolk, the Israelites. <sup>14</sup>The Benjaminites came together out of the towns to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the Israelites. <sup>15</sup>On that day the Benjaminites mustered twenty-six thousand armed men from their towns, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah.

<sup>16</sup> Of all this force, there were seven hundred picked men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair, and not miss. <sup>17</sup> And the Israelites, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand armed men, all of them warriors.

<sup>18</sup> The Israelites proceeded to go up to Bethel, where they inquired of God, "Which of us shall go up first to battle against the Benjaminites?" And the LORD answered, "Judah shall go up first."

<sup>19</sup> Then the Israelites got up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

<sup>20</sup> The Israelites went out to battle against Benjamin; and the Israelites drew up the battle line against them at Gibeah. <sup>21</sup> The Benjaminites came out of Gibeah, and struck down on that day twenty-two thousand of the Israelites. <sup>23</sup> The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until the evening; and they inquired of the LORD, "Shall we again draw near to battle against our kinsfolk the Benjaminites?" And the LORD said, "Go up against them."

<sup>22</sup> The Israelites took courage, and again formed the battle line in the same place where they had formed it on the first day.

<sup>25</sup> Benjamin moved out against them from Gibeah the second day, and struck down eighteen thousand of the Israelites, all of them armed men. <sup>26</sup> Then all the Israelites, the whole army, went back to Bethel and wept, sitting there before the LORD; they fasted that day until evening. Then they offered burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being before the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> And the Israelites inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup> and Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, "Shall we go out once more to battle against our kinsfolk the Benjaminites, or shall we desist?" The LORD answered, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into your hand."

<sup>29</sup> So Israel stationed men in ambush around Gibeah. <sup>30</sup> Then the Israelites went up against the Benjaminites on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as before. <sup>31</sup> When the Benjaminites went out against the army, they were drawn away from the city. As before they began to inflict casualties on the troops, along the main roads, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, as well as in the open country, killing about thirty men of Israel. <sup>32</sup> The Benjaminites thought, “They are being routed before us, as previously.” But the Israelites said, “Let us retreat and draw them away from the city toward the roads.” <sup>33</sup> The main body of the Israelites drew back its battle line to Baaltamar, while those Israelites who were in ambush rushed out of their place west of Geba. <sup>34</sup> There came against Gibeah ten thousand picked men out of all Israel, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjaminites did not realize that disaster was close upon them.

<sup>35</sup> The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel; and the Israelites destroyed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin that day, all of them armed.

<sup>36</sup> Then the Benjaminites saw that they were defeated. The Israelites gave ground to Benjamin, because they trusted to the troops in ambush that they had stationed against Gibeah. <sup>37</sup> The troops in ambush rushed quickly upon Gibeah. Then they put the whole city to the sword. <sup>38</sup> Now the agreement between the main body of Israel and the men in ambush was that when they sent up a cloud of smoke out of the city <sup>39</sup> the main body of Israel should turn in battle. But Benjamin had begun to inflict casualties on the Israelites, killing about thirty of them; so they thought, “Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle.” <sup>40</sup> But when the cloud, a column of smoke, began to rise out of the city, the Benjaminites looked behind them—and there was the whole city going up in smoke toward the sky! <sup>41</sup> Then the main body of Israel turned, and the Benjaminites were dismayed, for they saw that disaster was close upon them.

<sup>42</sup> Therefore they turned away from the Israelites in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the city were slaughtering them in between. <sup>43</sup> Cutting down the Benjaminites, they pursued them from Nohah and trod them down as far as a place east of Gibeah.

<sup>44</sup> Eighteen thousand Benjaminites fell, all of them courageous fighters. <sup>45</sup> When they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, five thousand of them were cut down on the main roads, and they were pursued as far as Gidom, and two thousand of them were slain. <sup>46</sup> So all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand arms-bearing men, all of them courageous fighters. <sup>47</sup> But six hundred turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and remained at the rock of Rimmon for four months. <sup>48</sup> Meanwhile, the Israelites turned back against the Benjaminites, and put them to the sword—the city, the people, the animals, and all that remained. Also the remaining towns they set on fire.

Jesus and John the Baptist

<sup>22</sup> After this Jesus and his disciples went into the Judean countryside, and he spent some time there with them and baptized. <sup>23</sup> John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim because water was abundant there; and people kept coming and were being baptized <sup>24</sup> — John, of course, had not yet been thrown into prison.

<sup>26</sup> They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, the one who was with you across the Jordan, to whom you testified, here he is baptizing, and all are going to him." <sup>27</sup> John answered, "No one can receive anything except what has been given from heaven.

Judges 21:1-25 (NRSV)

The Benjaminites Saved from Extinction

21 Now the Israelites had sworn at Mizpah, “No one of us shall give his daughter in marriage to Benjamin.”<sup>2</sup> And the people came to Bethel, and sat there until evening before God, and they lifted up their voices and wept bitterly.

<sup>3</sup> They said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, why has it come to pass that today there should be one tribe lacking in Israel?”

<sup>4</sup> On the next day, the people got up early, and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Israelites said, “Which of all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?” For a solemn oath had been taken concerning whoever did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, “That one shall be put to death.”

<sup>6</sup> But the Israelites had compassion for Benjamin their kin, and said, “One tribe is cut off from Israel this day.”<sup>7</sup> What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them any of our daughters as wives?”

<sup>8</sup> Then they said, “Is there anyone from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah?” It turned out that no one from Jabesh-gilead had come to the camp, to the assembly.<sup>9</sup> For when the roll was called among the people, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there.<sup>10</sup> So the congregation sent twelve thousand soldiers there and commanded them, “Go, put the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead to the sword, including the women and the little ones.

<sup>11</sup> This is what you shall do; every male and every woman that has lain with a male you shall devote to destruction.”

<sup>12</sup> And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had never slept with a man and brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup> Then the whole congregation sent word to the Benjaminites who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.

<sup>14</sup> Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead; but they did not suffice for them.

<sup>15</sup> The people had compassion on Benjamin because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> So the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since there are no women left in Benjamin?"

<sup>17</sup> And they said, "There must be heirs for the survivors of Benjamin, in order that a tribe may not be blotted out from Israel. <sup>18</sup> Yet we cannot give any of our daughters to them as wives." For the Israelites had sworn, "Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to Benjamin."

<sup>19</sup> So they said, "Look, the yearly festival of the LORD is taking place at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah." <sup>20</sup> And they instructed the Benjaminites, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, <sup>21</sup> and watch; when the young women of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards and each of you carry off a wife for himself from the young women of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup> Then if their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, 'Be generous and allow us to have them; because we did not capture in battle a wife for each man. But neither did you incur guilt by giving your daughters to them.' " <sup>23</sup> The Benjaminites did so; they took wives for each of them from the dancers whom they abducted. Then they went and returned to their territory, and rebuilt the towns, and lived in them. <sup>24</sup> So the Israelites departed from there at that time by tribes and families, and they went out from there to their own territories.

<sup>25</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel; all the people did what was right in their own eyes.

Ruth 1:1–22 (NRSV)

Elimelech's Family Goes to Moab

In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons.

<sup>2</sup>The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there.

<sup>3</sup>But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons. <sup>4</sup>These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years, <sup>5</sup>both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

Naomi and Her Moabite Daughters-in-Law

<sup>6</sup>Then she started to return with her daughters-in-law from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had considered his people and given them food. <sup>7</sup>So she set out from the place where she had been living, she and her two daughters-in-law, and they went on their way to go back to the land of Judah. <sup>8</sup>But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back each of you to your mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me. <sup>9</sup>The LORD grant that you may find security, each of you in the house of your husband." Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud. <sup>10</sup>They said to her, "No, we will return with you to your people." <sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?" <sup>12</sup>Turn back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought there was hope for me, even if I should have a husband tonight and bear sons, <sup>13</sup> would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from marrying? No, my daughters, it has been far more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the LORD has turned against me.” <sup>14</sup> Then they wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

<sup>15</sup> So she said, “See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law.” <sup>16</sup> But Ruth said,

“Do not press me to leave you

or to turn back from following you!

Where you go, I will go;
where you lodge, I will lodge;

your people shall be my people,
and your God my God.

<sup>17</sup> Where you die, I will die—
there will I be buried.

May the LORD do thus and so to me,
and more as well,
if even death parts me
from you!”

<sup>18</sup> When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

<sup>19</sup> So the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they came to Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them; and the women said, “Is this Naomi?” <sup>20</sup> She said to them, “Call me no longer Naomi, call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt bitterly with me.

but the LORD has brought me back empty;
why call me Naomi
when the LORD has dealt harshly with me,
and the Almighty has brought calamity upon me?”

<sup>22</sup> So Naomi returned together with Ruth the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, who came back with her from the country of Moab. They came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

John 4:4-30 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> But he had to go through Samaria. <sup>5</sup> So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.<sup>6</sup> Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

<sup>7</sup> A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."

<sup>8</sup> (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.)<sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.)<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."<sup>11</sup>

The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?"<sup>12</sup> Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?"<sup>13</sup> Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again,<sup>14</sup> but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life."<sup>15</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back."<sup>17</sup> The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband';<sup>18</sup> for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!"<sup>19</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet."<sup>20</sup> Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem."<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem."<sup>22</sup> You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.<sup>23</sup> But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him.<sup>24</sup> God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”<sup>25</sup> The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming” (who is called Christ). “When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.”<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who is speaking to you.”

<sup>27</sup> Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, “What do you want?” or, “Why are you speaking with her?”<sup>28</sup> Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people,<sup>29</sup> “Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?”<sup>30</sup> They left the city and were on their way to him.

Ruth Meets Boaz

Now Naomi had a kinsman on her husband's side, a prominent rich man, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz. <sup>2</sup> And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain, behind someone in whose sight I may find favor." She said to her, "Go, my daughter." <sup>3</sup> So she went. She came and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. As it happened, she came to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech. <sup>4</sup> Just then Boaz came from Bethlehem. He said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you." They answered, "The LORD bless you." <sup>5</sup> Then

Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "To whom does this young woman belong?" <sup>6</sup> The servant who was in charge of the reapers answered, "She is the Moabite who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab." <sup>7</sup> She said, 'Please, let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the reapers.' So she came, and she has been on her feet from early this morning until now, without resting even for a moment."

<sup>8</sup> Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women. <sup>9</sup> Keep your eyes on the field that is being reaped, and follow behind them. I have ordered the young men not to bother you. If you get thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn." <sup>10</sup> Then she fell prostrate, with her face to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner?" <sup>11</sup> But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD reward you for your deeds, and may you have a full reward from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge!"

<sup>13</sup> Then she said, "May I continue to find favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your servant, even though I am not one of your servants."

<sup>14</sup> At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come here, and eat some of this bread, and dip your morsel in the sour wine." So she sat beside the reapers, and he heaped up for her some parched grain. She ate until she was satisfied, and she had some left over. <sup>15</sup> When she got up to glean, Boaz instructed his young men, "Let her glean even among the standing sheaves, and do not reproach her. <sup>16</sup> You must also pull out some handfuls for her from the bundles, and leave them for her to glean, and do not rebuke her."

<sup>17</sup> So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley. <sup>18</sup> She picked it up and came into the town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gleaned. Then she took out and gave her what was left over after she herself had been satisfied.

<sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz." <sup>20</sup> Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he by the LORD, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!" Naomi also said to her, "The man is a relative of ours, one of our nearest kin."

<sup>21</sup> Then Ruth the Moabite said, "He even said to me, 'Stay close by my servants, until they have finished all my harvest.’”<sup>22</sup> Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, “It is better, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, otherwise you might be bothered in another field.”

<sup>23</sup> So she stayed close to the young women of Boaz, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth and Boaz at the Threshing Floor

3 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you.”<sup>2</sup> Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.<sup>3</sup> Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.<sup>4</sup> When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down;

and he will tell you what to do.”<sup>5</sup> She said to her, “All that you tell me I will do.”

<sup>6</sup> So she went down to the threshing floor and did just as her mother-in-law had instructed her.

John 4:31-42 (NRSV)

<sup>31</sup> Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, eat something.”<sup>32</sup> But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”<sup>33</sup> So the disciples said to one another, “Surely no one has brought him something to eat?”<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work.”<sup>35</sup> Do you not say, ‘Four months more, then comes the harvest’? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting.<sup>36</sup> The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.<sup>37</sup> For here the saying holds true, ‘One sows and another reaps.’<sup>38</sup> I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

<sup>39</sup> Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I have ever done.” <sup>40</sup> So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.

<sup>41</sup> And many more believed because of his word. <sup>42</sup> They said to the woman, “It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world.”

<sup>8</sup> He is mindful of his covenant forever,
of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations, <sup>9</sup> the covenant that he made with Abraham,
his sworn promise to Isaac,
<sup>10</sup> which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant,
<sup>11</sup> saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan

as your portion for an inheritance.”

<sup>12</sup> When they were few in number,
of little account, and strangers in it, <sup>13</sup> wandering from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people, <sup>14</sup> he allowed no one to oppress them;
he rebuked kings on their account, <sup>15</sup> saying, “Do not touch my anointed ones;
do my prophets no harm.”

<sup>26</sup> Do not be one of those who give pledges,
who become surety for debts.
<sup>27</sup> If you have nothing with which to pay,
why should your bed be taken from under you?

Sept. 9

Ruth 3:7–4:22 (NRSV)

<sup>7</sup> When Boaz had eaten and drunk, and he was in a contented mood, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. Then she came stealthily and uncovered his feet, and lay down. <sup>8</sup> At midnight the man was startled, and turned over, and there, lying at his feet, was a woman! <sup>9</sup> He said, “Who are you?” And she answered, “I am Ruth, your servant; spread your cloak over your servant, for you are next-of-kin.” <sup>10</sup> He said, “May you be blessed by the LORD, my daughter; this last instance of your loyalty is better than the first; you have not gone after young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>11</sup> And now, my daughter, do not be afraid, I will do for you all that you ask, for all the assembly of my people know that you are a worthy woman. <sup>12</sup> But now, though it is true that I am a near kinsman, there is another kinsman more closely related than I. <sup>13</sup> Remain this night, and in the morning, if he will act as next-of-kin for you, good; let him do it. If he is not willing to act as next-of-kin for you, then, as the LORD lives, I will act as next-of-kin for you. Lie down until the morning.”

<sup>14</sup> So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before one person could recognize another; for he said, “It must not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.” <sup>15</sup> Then he said, “Bring the cloak you are wearing and hold it out.” So she held it, and he measured out six measures of barley, and put it on her back; then he went into the city. <sup>16</sup> She came to her mother-in-law, who said, “How did things go with you, my daughter?” Then she told her all that the man had done for her, <sup>17</sup> saying, “He gave me these six measures of barley, for he said, ‘Do not go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’ ” <sup>18</sup> She replied, “Wait, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out, for the man will not rest, but will settle the matter today.”

The Marriage of Boaz and Ruth

4 No sooner had Boaz gone up to the gate and sat down there than the next-of-kin, of whom Boaz had spoken, came passing by. So Boaz said, "Come over, friend; sit down here." And he went over and sat down. <sup>2</sup> Then Boaz took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here"; so they sat down. <sup>3</sup> He then said to the next-of-kin, "Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that belonged to our kinsman Elimelech. <sup>4</sup> So I thought I would tell you of it, and say: Buy it in the presence of those sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not, tell me, so that I may know; for there is no one prior to you to redeem it, and I come after you." So he said, "I will redeem it." <sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said, "The day you acquire the field from the hand of Naomi, you are also acquiring Ruth the Moabite, the widow of the dead man, to maintain the dead man's name on his inheritance." <sup>6</sup> At this, the next-of-kin said, "I cannot redeem it for myself without damaging my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption yourself, for I cannot redeem it."

<sup>7</sup> Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging: to confirm a transaction, the one took off a sandal and gave it to the other; this was the manner of attesting in Israel. <sup>8</sup> So when the next-of-kin said to Boaz, "Acquire it for yourself," he took off his sandal. <sup>9</sup> Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "Today you are witnesses that I have acquired from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon. <sup>10</sup> I have also acquired Ruth the Moabite, the wife of Mahlon, to be my wife, to maintain the dead man's name on his inheritance, in order that the name of the dead may not be cut off from his kindred and from the gate of his native place; today you are witnesses." <sup>11</sup> Then all the people who were at the gate, along with the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you produce children in Ephrathah and bestow a name in Bethlehem; <sup>12</sup>and, through the children that the LORD will give you by this young woman, may your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah."

The Genealogy of David
(Matt 1:2–6)

<sup>13</sup>So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD made her conceive, and she bore a son. <sup>14</sup>Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! <sup>15</sup>He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him." <sup>16</sup>Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. <sup>17</sup>The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

<sup>18</sup>Now these are the descendants of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron, <sup>19</sup>Hezron of Ram, Ram of Amminadab, <sup>20</sup>Amminadab of Nahshon, Nahshon of Salmon, <sup>21</sup>Salmon of Boaz, Boaz of Obed, <sup>22</sup>Obed of Jesse, and Jesse of David.

Jesus Returns to Galilee

<sup>43</sup>When the two days were over, he went from that place to Galilee <sup>44</sup>(for Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in the prophet's own country). <sup>45</sup>When he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, since they had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the festival; for they too had gone to the festival.

Psalm 105:16-26 (NRSV)

<sup>16</sup> When he summoned famine against the
land,
and broke every staff of
bread,
<sup>17</sup> he had sent a man ahead
of them,
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
<sup>18</sup> His feet were hurt with fetters,
his neck was put in a collar of iron;
<sup>19</sup> until what he had said
came to pass,
the word of the LORD
kept testing him.
<sup>20</sup> The king sent and released
him;
the ruler of the peoples
set him free.
<sup>21</sup> He made him lord of his
house,
and ruler of all his possessions,
<sup>22</sup> to instruct his officials at his pleasure,
and to teach his elders
wisdom.
<sup>23</sup> Then Israel came to Egypt;
Jacob lived as an alien in the land of Ham.
<sup>24</sup> And the LORD made his people very fruitful,

and made them stronger
than their foes,
<sup>25</sup> whose hearts he then turned to hate his
people,
to deal craftily with his
servants.
<sup>26</sup> He sent his servant Moses,
and Aaron whom he had chosen.

<sup>28</sup> Do not remove the ancient landmark
that your ancestors set
up.
<sup>29</sup> Do you see those who are skillful in their work?
They will serve kings;
they will not serve
common people.

1 Samuel 1:1-23 (NRSV)

Samuel's Birth and Dedication

There was a certain man of Ramathaim, a Zuphite from the hill country of Ephraim,
whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham son of Elihu son of Tohu son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. <sup>2</sup> He had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

<sup>3</sup> Now this man used to go up year by year from his town to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; <sup>5</sup> but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>6</sup> Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>7</sup> So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. <sup>8</sup> Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?"

<sup>9</sup> After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. <sup>10</sup> She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly. <sup>11</sup> She made this vow: "O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head."

woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD. <sup>16</sup> Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time.” <sup>17</sup> Then Eli answered, “Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him.” <sup>18</sup> And she said, “Let your servant find favor in your sight.” Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer.

<sup>19</sup> They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. <sup>20</sup> In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, “I have asked him of the LORD.”

for she said to her husband, “As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, that he may appear in the presence of the LORD, and remain there forever; I will offer him as a nazirite for all time.” <sup>23</sup> Her husband Elkanah said to her, “Do what seems best to you, wait until you have weaned him; only—may the LORD establish his word.” So the woman remained and nursed her son, until she weaned him.

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

<sup>46</sup> Then he came again to Cana in Galilee where he had changed the water into wine. Now there was a royal official whose son lay ill in Capernaum. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. <sup>48</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe.” <sup>49</sup> The official said to him, “Sir, come down before my little boy dies.” <sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, “Go; your son will live.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and started on his way. <sup>51</sup> As he was going down, his slaves met him and told him that his child was alive. <sup>52</sup> So he asked them the hour when he began to recover, and they said to him, “Yesterday at one in the afternoon the fever left him.” <sup>53</sup> The father realized that this was the hour when Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” So he himself believed, along with his whole household. <sup>54</sup> Now this was the second sign that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

<sup>27</sup> They performed his signs
among them,
and miracles in the land
of Ham.
<sup>28</sup> He sent darkness, and made the land dark;
they rebelled against his
words.
<sup>29</sup> He turned their waters
into blood,
and caused their fish to die.
<sup>30</sup> Their land swarmed with frogs,

even in the chambers of
their kings.
<sup>31</sup> He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
and gnats throughout
their country.
<sup>32</sup> He gave them hail for rain,
and lightning that flashed through their
land.
<sup>33</sup> He struck their vines and
fig trees,
and shattered the trees
of their country.
<sup>34</sup> He spoke, and the locusts came,
and young locusts
without number;
<sup>35</sup> they devoured all the vegetation in their
land,
and ate up the fruit of their ground.
<sup>36</sup> He struck down all the
firstborn in their land,
the first issue of all their
strength.

Proverbs 23:1-3 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> When you sit down to eat
with a ruler,
observe carefully what is
before you,
<sup>2</sup> and put a knife to your throat

if you have a big appetite.

- <sup>3</sup> Do not desire the ruler's delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Sept. 11

1 Samuel 1:24-2:21 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine. She brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh; and the child was young. <sup>25</sup> Then they slaughtered the bull, and they brought the child to Eli. <sup>26</sup> And she said, "Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here in your presence, praying to the LORD. <sup>27</sup> For this child I prayed; and the LORD has granted me the petition that I made to him. <sup>28</sup> Therefore I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he is given to the LORD."

She left him there for the
LORD.

Hannah's Prayer (Cp Lk 1:46-55)

- 2 Hannah prayed and said,
"My heart exults in the
LORD;
my strength is exalted in
my God.
My mouth derides my
enemies,
because I rejoice in my victory.
- <sup>2</sup> "There is no Holy One like
the LORD,
no one besides you;
there is no Rock like our
God.
- <sup>3</sup> Talk no more so very proudly,
let not arrogance come
from your mouth;
for the LORD is a God of
knowledge,
and by him actions are weighed.
- <sup>4</sup> The bows of the mighty
are broken,
but the feeble gird on
strength.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who were full have hired themselves out
for bread,

but those who were hungry are fat with spoil.

The barren has borne
seven,
but she who has many children is forlorn.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD kills and brings to
life;
he brings down to Sheol
and raises up.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD makes poor and makes rich;
he brings low, he also exalts.

<sup>8</sup> He raises up the poor from
the dust;
he lifts the needy from
the ash heap,
to make them sit with
princes
and inherit a seat of
honor.

For the pillars of the earth
are the LORD's,
and on them he has set
the world.

<sup>9</sup> "He will guard the feet of his faithful ones,
but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness;
for not by might does
one prevail.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD! His adversaries shall be shattered;

the Most High will thunder in heaven.
The LORD will judge the
ends of the earth;
he will give strength to
his king,
and exalt the power of
his anointed."

Eli's Wicked Sons

<sup>11</sup> Then Elkanah went home to Ramah, while the boy remained to minister to the LORD, in the presence of the priest Eli.

<sup>12</sup> Now the sons of Eli were scoundrels; they had no regard for the LORD <sup>13</sup> or for the duties of the priests to the people. When anyone offered sacrifice, the priest's servant
would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand, <sup>14</sup> and he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron,
or pot; all that the fork
brought up the priest would take for himself. This is what they did at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, before the fat
was burned, the priest's servant would come and say
to the one who was sacrificing,

“Give meat for the priest to roast; for he will not accept boiled meat from you, but only raw.”<sup>16</sup> And if the man said to him, “Let them burn the fat first, and then take whatever you wish,” he would say, “No, you must give it now; if not, I will take it by force.”<sup>17</sup> Thus the sin of the young men was very great in the sight of the LORD; for they treated the offerings of the LORD with contempt.

The Child Samuel at Shiloh

<sup>21</sup> And the LORD took note of Hannah; she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy

Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

John 5:1-18 (NRSV)

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup> After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes.<sup>3</sup> In these lay many invalids—blind, lame, and paralyzed.<sup>5</sup> One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, “Do you want to be made well?”<sup>7</sup> The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me.”<sup>8</sup> Jesus said to him, “Stand up, take your mat and walk.”<sup>9</sup> At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk.

Now that day was a sabbath.<sup>10</sup> So the Jews said to the man who had been cured,

“It is the sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your mat.” <sup>11</sup> But he answered them, “The man who made me well said to me, ‘Take up your mat and walk.’ ” <sup>12</sup> They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Take it up and walk?’ ” <sup>13</sup> Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had disappeared in the crowd that was there. <sup>14</sup> Later Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, “See, you have been made well! Do not sin any more, so that nothing worse happens to you.” <sup>15</sup> The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. <sup>16</sup> Therefore the Jews started persecuting Jesus, because he was doing such things on the sabbath. <sup>17</sup> But Jesus answered them, “My Father is still working, and I also am working.” <sup>18</sup> For this reason the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because he was not only breaking the sabbath, but was also calling God his own Father, thereby making himself equal to God.

Psalm 105:37-45 (NRSV)

<sup>37</sup> Then he brought Israel out with silver and gold,
and there was no one among their tribes who stumbled.
<sup>38</sup> Egypt was glad when they departed,
for dread of them had fallen upon it.
<sup>39</sup> He spread a cloud for a covering,
and fire to give light by
night.
<sup>40</sup> They asked, and he brought quails,
and gave them food
from heaven in
abundance.
<sup>41</sup> He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
it flowed through the desert like a river.
<sup>42</sup> For he remembered his holy promise,
and Abraham, his
servant.
<sup>43</sup> So he brought his people
out with joy,
his chosen ones with singing.
<sup>44</sup> He gave them the lands of
the nations,

and they took possession of the wealth of the peoples, <sup>45</sup> that they might keep his statutes
and observe his laws.
Praise the LORD!

Proverbs 23:4–5 (NRSV)

<sup>4</sup> Do not wear yourself out to get rich;
be wise enough to desist.
<sup>5</sup> When your eyes light upon it, it is gone;
for suddenly it takes
wings to itself,
flying like an eagle
toward heaven.

Sept. 12

1 Samuel 2:22-3:18 (NRSV)

Prophecy against Eli's Household

<sup>22</sup> Now Eli was very old. He heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>23</sup> He said to them, “Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all these people.

<sup>24</sup> No, my sons; it is not a good report that I hear the people of the LORD spreading abroad.

<sup>25</sup> If one person sins against another, someone can intercede for the sinner with the LORD; but if someone sins against the LORD, who can make intercession?” But they would not listen to the voice of their father; for it was the will of the LORD to kill them.

<sup>26</sup> Now the boy Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the LORD and with the people.

<sup>27</sup> A man of God came to Eli and said to him, “Thus the LORD has said, ‘I revealed myself to the family of your ancestor in Egypt when they were slaves to the house of Pharaoh. <sup>28</sup> I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to offer incense, to wear an ephod before me; and I gave to the family of your ancestor
all my offerings by fire from the people of Israel. <sup>29</sup> Why then look with greedy eye at my sacrifices and my offerings

that I commanded, and honor your sons more than me by fattening yourselves on the choicest parts of every offering of my people Israel?’

<sup>30</sup> Therefore the LORD the God of Israel declares: ‘I promised that your family and the family of your ancestor should go in and out before me forever’; but now the LORD declares: ‘Far be it from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be treated with contempt.’ <sup>31</sup> See, a time is coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your ancestor’s family, so that no one in your family will live to old age. <sup>32</sup> Then in distress you will look with greedy eye on all the prosperity that shall be bestowed upon Israel; and no one in your family shall ever live to old age. <sup>33</sup> The only one of you whom I shall not cut off from my altar shall be spared to weep out his eyes and grieve his heart; all the members of your household shall die by the sword. <sup>34</sup> The fate of your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, shall be the sign to you—both of them shall die on the same day. <sup>35</sup> I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind. I will build him a sure house, and he shall go in and out before my anointed one forever. <sup>36</sup> Everyone who is left in your family shall come to implore him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread, and shall say, Please put me in one of the priest’s places, that I may eat a morsel of bread.’ ”

Samuel’s Calling and Prophetic Activity

3 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

<sup>2</sup> At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; <sup>3</sup> the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. <sup>4</sup> Then the LORD called, “Samuel! Samuel!” and he said, “Here I am!” <sup>5</sup> and ran to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call; lie down again.”

So he went and lay down.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD called again, “Samuel!” Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, my son; lie down again.” <sup>7</sup>Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD called Samuel again,
a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said,
“Here I am, for you called me.”
Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore Eli said to Samuel,
“Go, lie down; and if he calls
you, you shall say, ‘Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup>Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.” <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Samuel, “See,
I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears
of anyone who hears of it tingle. <sup>12</sup>On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house,

from beginning to end. <sup>13</sup>For I have told him that I am about
to punish his house forever,
for the iniquity that he knew,
because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them. <sup>14</sup>Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever.”

<sup>15</sup>Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. <sup>16</sup>But Eli called Samuel and said,
“Samuel, my son.” He said, “Here I am.” <sup>17</sup>Eli said, “What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you.” <sup>18</sup>So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, “It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him.”

John 5:19-23 (NRSV)

The Authority of the Son

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing on his own, but only
what he sees the Father doing;

for whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise.<sup>20</sup> The Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing; and he will show him greater works than these, so that you will be astonished.

<sup>21</sup> Indeed, just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever he wishes.<sup>22</sup> The Father judges no one but has given all judgment to the Son,<sup>23</sup> so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

Psalms 106:1-2 (NRSV)

A Confession of Israel's Sins

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD!
O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.
- <sup>2</sup> Who can utter the mighty doings of the LORD, or declare all his praise?

Proverbs 23:6-8 (NRSV)

- <sup>6</sup> Do not eat the bread of the stingy; do not desire their delicacies;

- <sup>7</sup> for like a hair in the throat, so are they.
“Eat and drink!” they say to you; but they do not mean it.

Sept. 13

1 Samuel 3:19-4:22 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.<sup>20</sup> And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD.<sup>21</sup> The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

4<sup>1</sup> And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

The Ark of God Captured

In those days the Philistines mustered for war against Israel, and Israel went out to battle against them; they encamped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines encamped at Aphek. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines drew up in line against Israel, and when the battle was joined, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men on the field of battle. <sup>3</sup>When the troops came to the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD put us to rout today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD here from Shiloh, so that he may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies." <sup>4</sup>So the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned on the cherubim. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>5</sup>When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel gave a mighty shout, so that the earth resounded. <sup>6</sup>When the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, they said, "What does this great shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" When they learned that the ark of the LORD had come to the camp, <sup>7</sup>the Philistines were afraid; for they said, "Gods have come into the camp." They also said, "Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before. <sup>8</sup>Woe to us! Who can deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with every sort of plague in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup>Take courage, and be men, O Philistines, in order not to become slaves to the Hebrews as they have been to you; be men and fight."

<sup>10</sup>So the Philistines fought; Israel was defeated, and they fled, everyone to his home. There was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers. <sup>11</sup>The ark of God was captured; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Death of Eli

<sup>12</sup>A man of Benjamin ran from the battle line, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn and with earth upon his head. <sup>13</sup>When he arrived, Eli was sitting upon his seat by the road watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man came into the city and told the news, all the city cried out.

<sup>14</sup> When Eli heard the sound of the outcry, he said, “What is this uproar?” Then the man came quickly and told Eli.

<sup>15</sup> Now Eli was ninety-eight years old and his eyes were set, so that he could not see.

<sup>16</sup> The man said to Eli, “I have just come from the battle; I fled from the battle today.” He said, “How did it go, my son?”

<sup>17</sup> The messenger replied, “Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has also been a great slaughter among the troops; your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured.” <sup>18</sup> When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.

<sup>19</sup> Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant, about to give birth. When she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed and gave birth; for her labor pains overwhelmed her.

<sup>20</sup> As she was about to die, the women attending her said to her, “Do not be afraid, for you have borne a son.” But she did not answer or give heed.

<sup>21</sup> She named the child Ichabod, meaning, “The glory has departed from Israel,” because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup> She said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured.”

John 5:24-38 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life.

<sup>25</sup> “Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

<sup>26</sup> For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself; <sup>27</sup> and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup> Do not be astonished at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice <sup>29</sup> and will come out—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.

Witnesses to Jesus

<sup>30</sup> “I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek to do not my own will but the will of him who sent me.

<sup>31</sup> “If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true.

<sup>32</sup> There is another who testifies on my behalf, and I know that his testimony to me is true. <sup>33</sup> You sent messengers to John, and he testified to the truth. <sup>34</sup> Not that I accept such human testimony, but I say these things so that you may be saved. <sup>35</sup> He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. <sup>36</sup> But I have a testimony greater than John’s. The works that the Father has given me to complete, the very works that I am doing, testify on my behalf that the Father has sent me. <sup>37</sup> And the Father who sent me has himself testified on my behalf. You have never heard his voice or seen his form, <sup>38</sup> and you do not have his word abiding in you, because you do not believe him whom he has sent.

<sup>3</sup> Happy are those who observe justice, who do righteousness at all times.

<sup>4</sup> Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people; help me when you deliver them;

<sup>5</sup> that I may see the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory in your heritage.

Proverbs 23:9–11 (NRSV)

<sup>9</sup> Do not speak in the hearing of a fool,

who will only despise the wisdom of your words.
<sup>10</sup> Do not remove an ancient
landmark
or encroach on the fields
of orphans, <sup>11</sup> for their redeemer is strong;
he will plead their cause
against you.

Sept. 14

1 Samuel 5:1-6:12 (NRSV)

The Philistines and the Ark

When the Philistines captured the ark of God, they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod; <sup>2</sup> then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon and placed it beside Dagon. <sup>3</sup> When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and put him back in his place. <sup>4</sup> But when they rose early on the next morning, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD, and the head of Dagon and both his hands were lying cut off upon the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left to him. <sup>5</sup> This is why the priests of Dagon and all who enter the house of Dagon do not step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

<sup>6</sup> The hand of the LORD was heavy upon the people of Ashdod, and he terrified and struck them with tumors, both in Ashdod and in its territory. <sup>7</sup> And when the inhabitants of Ashdod saw how things were, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us; for his hand is heavy on us and on our god Dagon." <sup>8</sup> So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" The inhabitants of Gath replied, "Let the ark of God be moved on to us." So they moved the ark of the God of Israel to Gath. <sup>9</sup> But after they had brought it to Gath, the hand of the LORD was against the city, causing a very great panic; he struck the inhabitants of the city, both young and old, so that tumors broke out on them.<sup>10</sup> So they sent the ark of the God of Israel to Ekron. But when the ark of God came to Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "Why have they brought around to us the ark of the God of Israel to kill us and our people?"<sup>11</sup> They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, that it may not kill us and our people." For there was a deathly panic throughout the whole city. The hand of God was very heavy there;<sup>12</sup> those who did not die were stricken with tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

The Ark Returned to Israel

6 The ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.<sup>2</sup> Then the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us what we should send with it to its place."<sup>3</sup> They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty, but by all means return him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed and will be ransomed; will not his hand then turn from you?"<sup>4</sup> And they said, "What is the guilt offering that we shall return to him?" They answered, "Five gold tumors and five gold mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines; for the same plague was upon all of you and upon your lords."<sup>5</sup> So you must make images of your tumors and images of your mice that ravage the land, and give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps he will lighten his hand on you and your gods and your land.<sup>6</sup> Why should you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? After he had made fools of them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?<sup>7</sup> Now then, get ready a new cart and two milch cows that have never borne a yoke, and yoke the cows to the cart, but take their calves home, away from them.

<sup>8</sup> Take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart, and put in a box at its side the figures of gold, which you are returning to him as a guilt offering. Then send it off, and let it go its way. <sup>9</sup> And watch; if it goes up on the way to its own land, to Beth-shemesh, then it is he who has done us this great harm; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance.”

<sup>10</sup> The men did so; they took two milch cows and yoked them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. <sup>11</sup> They put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the gold mice and the images of their tumors. <sup>12</sup> The cows went straight in the direction of Beth-shemesh along one highway, lowing as they went; they turned neither to the right nor to the left, and the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the border of Beth-shemesh.

John 5:39-47 (NRSV)

<sup>39</sup> “You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that testify on my behalf. <sup>40</sup> Yet you refuse to come to me to have life. <sup>41</sup> I do not accept glory from human beings. <sup>42</sup> But I know that you do not have the love of God in you. <sup>43</sup> I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not accept me; if another comes in his own name, you will accept him. <sup>44</sup> How can you believe when you accept glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the one who alone is God? <sup>45</sup> Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father; your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope. <sup>46</sup> If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me. <sup>47</sup> But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?”

Psalm 106:6-12 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> Both we and our ancestors have sinned; we have committed iniquity, have done wickedly.
<sup>7</sup> Our ancestors, when they were in Egypt,

did not consider your wonderful works;
they did not remember the
abundance of your
steadfast love,
but rebelled against the Most High at the Red Sea.

8 Yet he saved them for his name's sake,
so that he might make known his mighty power.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea,
and it became dry;
he led them through the deep as through a desert.

10 So he saved them from the hand of the foe,
and delivered them from
the hand of the enemy.

11 The waters covered their
adversaries;
not one of them was left.

12 Then they believed his
words;
they sang his praise.

Proverbs 23:12 (NRSV)

12 Apply your mind to instruction
and your ear to words of
knowledge.

Sept. 15

1 Samuel 6:13-7:17 (NRSV)

<sup>13</sup> Now the people of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley.

When they looked up and saw the ark, they went with rejoicing to meet it. <sup>14</sup> The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh, and stopped there. A large stone was there; so they split up the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was beside it, in which were the gold objects, and set them upon the large stone.

Then the people of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and presented sacrifices on that day to the LORD. <sup>16</sup> When the five lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned that day to Ekron.

<sup>17</sup> These are the gold tumors, which the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

<sup>18</sup> also the gold mice,

according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and unwallled villages. The great stone, beside which they set down the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh.

The Ark at Kiriath-jearim

<sup>19</sup>The descendants of Jeconiah did not rejoice with the people of Beth-shemesh when they greeted the ark of the LORD; and he killed seventy men of them. The people mourned because the LORD had made a great slaughter among the people. <sup>20</sup>Then the people of Beth-shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? To whom shall he go so that we may be rid of him?" <sup>21</sup>So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to you."

7 <sup>1</sup>And the people of Kiriath-jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD, and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill. They consecrated his son, Eleazar, to have charge of the ark of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>From the day that the ark was lodged at Kiriath-jearim, a long time passed, some twenty years, and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

Samuel as Judge

<sup>3</sup>Then Samuel said to all the house of Israel, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Astartes from among you. Direct your heart to the LORD, and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines." <sup>4</sup>So Israel put away the Baals and the Astartes, and they served the LORD only.

<sup>5</sup>Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you." <sup>6</sup>So they gathered at Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD. They fasted that day, and said, "We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel judged the people of Israel at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> When the Philistines heard that the people of Israel had gathered at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the people of Israel heard of it they were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup> The people of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, and pray that he may save us from the hand of the Philistines.” <sup>9</sup> So Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD; Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup> As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to attack Israel; but the LORD thundered with a mighty voice that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion; and they were routed before Israel. <sup>11</sup> And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them down as far as beyond Beth-car.

<sup>12</sup> Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Jeshanah, and named it Ebenezer; for he said, “Thus far the LORD has helped us.” <sup>13</sup> So the Philistines were subdued and did not again enter the territory of Israel; the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. <sup>14</sup> The towns that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup> Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>16</sup> He went on a circuit year by year to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all these places. <sup>17</sup> Then he would come back to Ramah, for his home was there; he administered justice there to Israel, and built there an altar to the LORD.

John 6:1-15 (NRSV)

Feeding the Five Thousand
(Mt 14:13–21; Mk 6:30–44;
Lk 9:10–17)

<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup> A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. <sup>3</sup> Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. <sup>4</sup> Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. <sup>5</sup> When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, “Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?” <sup>6</sup> He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. <sup>7</sup> Philip answered him, “Six months’ wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.” <sup>8</sup> One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to him, <sup>9</sup> “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?” <sup>10</sup> Jesus said, “Make the people sit down.” Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. <sup>11</sup> Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup> When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, “Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.” <sup>13</sup> So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. <sup>14</sup> When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, “This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.”

<sup>15</sup> When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

Psalm 106:13-23 (NRSV)

- <sup>13</sup> But they soon forgot his works;
they did not wait for his counsel.
- <sup>14</sup> But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness,
and put God to the test in the desert;
- <sup>15</sup> he gave them what they asked,
but sent a wasting disease among them.
- <sup>16</sup> They were jealous of Moses in the camp,

and of Aaron, the holy
 one of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
 and covered the faction
 of Abiram.

18 Fire also broke out in their company;
 the flame burned up the
 wicked.

19 They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast
 image.

20 They exchanged the glory
 of God
 for the image of an ox
 that eats grass.

21 They forgot God, their Savior,
 who had done great things in Egypt,

22 wondrous works in the land of Ham,
 and awesome deeds by
 the Red Sea.

23 Therefore he said he would destroy them—
 had not Moses, his chosen one,
 stood in the breach before
 him,
 to turn away his wrath
 from destroying them.

Proverbs 23:13–14 (NRSV)

Sept. 16

1 Samuel 8:1-22 (NRSV)

Israel Demands a King

When Samuel became old,
 he made his sons judges over Israel. <sup>2</sup>The name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah;
 they were judges in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>Yet his sons did not follow in his ways, but turned aside after gain; they took bribes and perverted justice.

<sup>4</sup>Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, <sup>5</sup>and said to him, “You are old and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us,
 then, a king to govern us, like other nations.” <sup>6</sup>But the thing

displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to govern us." Samuel prayed to the LORD,<sup>7</sup> and the LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them."<sup>8</sup> Just as they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so also they are doing to you.<sup>9</sup> Now then, listen to their voice; only—you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them."

<sup>10</sup> So Samuel reported all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king.<sup>11</sup> He said, "These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots;<sup>12</sup> and he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots.<sup>13</sup> He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.<sup>14</sup> He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his courtiers.<sup>15</sup> He will take one-tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and his courtiers.<sup>16</sup> He will take your male and female slaves, and the best of your cattle and donkeys, and put them to his work.<sup>17</sup> He will take one-tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves.<sup>18</sup> And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the LORD will not answer you in that day."

Israel's Request for a King Granted

<sup>19</sup> But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; they said, "No! but we are determined to have a king over us,<sup>20</sup> so that we also may be like other nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles.”<sup>21</sup> When Samuel had heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the ears of the LORD.<sup>22</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice and set a king over them.” Samuel then said to the people of Israel, “Each of you return home.”

John 6:16-21 (NRSV)

Jesus Walks on the Water
(Mt 14:22-33; Mk 6:45-52)

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup> got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. <sup>18</sup> The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. <sup>19</sup> When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. <sup>20</sup> But he said to them, “It is I; do not be afraid.” <sup>21</sup> Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

Psalm 106:24-31 (NRSV)

<sup>24</sup> Then they despised the pleasant land,
having no faith in his promise.
<sup>25</sup> They grumbled in their tents,
and did not obey the voice of the LORD.
<sup>26</sup> Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would make them fall in the wilderness, <sup>27</sup> and would disperse their descendants among the nations, scattering them over the lands.
<sup>28</sup> Then they attached themselves to the Baal of Peor,
and ate sacrifices offered to the dead;
<sup>29</sup> they provoked the LORD to anger with their deeds,
and a plague broke out among them.
<sup>30</sup> Then Phinehas stood up and interceded,
and the plague was stopped.

<sup>31</sup> And that has been reckoned to him as righteousness from generation to generation forever.

Proverbs 23:15–16 (NRSV)

<sup>15</sup> My child, if your heart is wise,
my heart too will be glad.
<sup>16</sup> My soul will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

Sept. 17

1 Samuel 9:1-27 (NRSV)

Saul Chosen to Be King

9 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish son of Abiel son of Zeror son of Becorath son of Aphiah, a Benjaminite, a man of wealth. <sup>2</sup> He had a son whose name was Saul, a handsome young man. There was not a man among the people of Israel more handsome than he; he stood head and shoulders above everyone else.

<sup>3</sup> Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, had strayed. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the boys with you; go and look for the donkeys." <sup>4</sup> He passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of Benjamin, but they did not find them.

<sup>5</sup> When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to the boy who was with him, "Let us turn back, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and worry about us."

<sup>6</sup> But he said to him, "There is a man of God in this town; he is a man held in honor.

Whatever he says always comes true. Let us go there now; perhaps he will tell us about the journey on which we have set out." <sup>7</sup> Then Saul replied to the boy, "But if we go, what can we bring the man? For the bread in our sacks is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What have we?"<sup>8</sup> The boy answered Saul again, "Here, I have with me a quarter shekel of silver; I will give it to the man of God, to tell us our way."<sup>9</sup> (Formerly in Israel, anyone who went to inquire of God would say, "Come, let us go to the seer"; for the one who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)<sup>10</sup> Saul said to the boy, "Good; come, let us go." So they went to the town where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup> As they went up the hill to the town, they met some girls coming out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"<sup>12</sup> They answered, "Yes, there he is just ahead of you. Hurry; he has come just now to the town, because the people have a sacrifice today at the shrine."<sup>13</sup> As soon as you enter the town, you will find him, before he goes up to the shrine to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, since he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those eat who are invited. Now go up, for you will meet him immediately."<sup>14</sup> So they went up to the town. As they were entering the town, they saw Samuel coming out toward them on his way up to the shrine.

<sup>15</sup> Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed to Samuel:<sup>16</sup> "Tomorrow about this time I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be ruler over my people Israel. He shall save my people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen the suffering of my people, because their outcry has come to me."<sup>17</sup> When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, "Here is the man of whom I spoke to you. He it is who shall rule over my people."<sup>18</sup> Then Saul approached Samuel inside the gate, and said, "Tell me, please, where is the house of the seer?"<sup>19</sup> Samuel answered Saul, "I am the seer; go up before me to the shrine, for today you shall eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is on your mind."<sup>20</sup> As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, give no further thought to them, for they have been found. And on whom is all Israel's desire fixed, if not on you and on all your ancestral house?" <sup>21</sup> Saul answered, "I am only a Benjaminite, from the least of the tribes of Israel, and my family is the humblest of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Why then have you spoken to me in this way?"

<sup>22</sup> Then Samuel took Saul and his servant-boy and brought them into the hall, and gave them a place at the head of those who had been invited, of whom there were about thirty. <sup>23</sup> And Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion I gave you, the one I asked you to put aside." <sup>24</sup> The cook took up the thigh and what went with it and set them before Saul. Samuel said, "See, what was kept is set before you. Eat; for it is set before you at the appointed time, so that you might eat with the guests."

So Saul ate with Samuel that day. <sup>25</sup> When they came down from the shrine into the town, a bed was spread for Saul on the roof, and he lay down to sleep. <sup>26</sup> Then at the break of dawn Samuel called to Saul upon the roof, "Get up, so that I may send you on your way." Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.

Samuel Anoints Saul

<sup>27</sup> As they were going down to the outskirts of the town, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the boy to go on before us, and when he has passed on, stop here yourself for a while, that I may make known to you the word of God."

John 6:22-29 (NRSV)

The Bread from Heaven

<sup>22</sup> The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw that there had been only one boat there. They also saw that Jesus had not got into the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone. <sup>23</sup> Then some boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup> So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" <sup>26</sup> Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. <sup>27</sup> Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal."

<sup>28</sup> Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" <sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

Psalms 106:32-46 (NRSV)

<sup>32</sup> They angered the LORD at the waters of Meribah, and it went ill with Moses on their account;

<sup>33</sup> for they made his spirit bitter, and he spoke words that were rash.

<sup>34</sup> They did not destroy the peoples, as the LORD commanded them, <sup>35</sup> but they mingled with the nations and learned to do as they did.

<sup>38</sup> they poured out innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood.

<sup>40</sup> Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he abhorred his heritage;

<sup>41</sup> he gave them into the hand of the nations,

so that those who hated
them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies oppressed
them,
and they were brought into subjection under their power.

43 Many times he delivered
them,
but they were rebellious
in their purposes,
and were brought low
through their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their distress
when he heard their cry.

45 For their sake he remembered his
covenant,
and showed compassion
according to the
abundance of his
steadfast love.

46 He caused them to be pitied
by all who held them
captive.

Proverbs 23:17–18 (NRSV)

17 Do not let your heart envy
sinners,
but always continue in the fear of the LORD.

18 Surely there is a future,

and your hope will not be cut off.

1 Samuel 10:1-27 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> Samuel took a vial of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him; he said, “The LORD has anointed you ruler over his people Israel. You shall reign over the people of the LORD and you will save them from the hand of their enemies all around. Now this shall be the sign to you that the LORD has anointed you ruler over his heritage: <sup>2</sup>When you depart
from me today you will meet two men by Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; they will say to you,
‘The donkeys that you went to seek are found, and now your father has stopped worrying about them and is worrying about you, saying: What shall I do about my son?’ <sup>3</sup>Then you shall go on from there further
and come to the oak of Tabor;

three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine. <sup>4</sup>They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall accept from them. <sup>5</sup>After that you shall come to Gibeath-elohim, at the place where the Philistine garrison is; there, as you come to the town, you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the shrine with harp, tambourine, flute, and lyre playing in front of them; they will be in a prophetic frenzy. <sup>6</sup>Then the spirit of the LORD will possess you, and you will be in a prophetic frenzy along with them and be turned into a different person. <sup>7</sup>Now when these signs meet you, do whatever you see fit to do, for God is with you. <sup>8</sup>And you shall go down to Gilgal ahead of me; then I will come down to you to present burnt offerings and offer sacrifices of well-being. Seven days you shall wait, until I come to you and show you what you shall do.”

Saul Prophecies

<sup>9</sup>As he turned away to leave Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all these signs were fulfilled that day. <sup>10</sup>When they were going from there to Gibeah, a band of prophets met him; and the spirit of God possessed him, and he fell into a prophetic frenzy along with them. <sup>11</sup>When all who knew him before saw how he prophesied with the prophets, the people said to one another, “What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?” <sup>12</sup>A man of the place answered, “And who is their father?” Therefore it became a proverb, “Is Saul also among the prophets?” <sup>13</sup>When his prophetic frenzy had ended, he went home. <sup>14</sup>Saul’s uncle said to him and to the boy, “Where did you go?” And he replied, “To seek the donkeys; and when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel.” <sup>15</sup>Saul’s uncle said, “Tell me what Samuel said to you.” <sup>16</sup>Saul said to his uncle, “He told us that the donkeys had been found.” But about the matter of the kingship, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him anything.

Saul Proclaimed King

<sup>17</sup> Samuel summoned the people to the LORD at Mizpah <sup>18</sup> and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.' <sup>19</sup> But today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said, 'No! but set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans."

<sup>20</sup> Then Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot. <sup>21</sup> He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of the Matrites was taken by lot. Finally he brought the family of the Matrites near man by man, and Saul the son of Kish was taken by lot. But when they sought him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup> So they inquired again of the LORD, "Did the man come here?" and the LORD said, "See, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

<sup>23</sup> Then they ran and brought him from there. When he took his stand among the people, he was head and shoulders taller than any of them.

<sup>24</sup> Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the one whom the LORD has chosen? There is no one like him among all the people." And all the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>25</sup> Samuel told the people the rights and duties of the kingship; and he wrote them in a book and laid it up before the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people back to their homes. <sup>26</sup> Saul also went to his home at Gibeah, and with him went warriors whose hearts God had touched. <sup>27</sup> But some worthless fellows said, "How can this man save us?" They despised him and brought him no present. But he held his peace.

Now Nahash, king of the Ammonites, had been grievously oppressing the Gadites and the Reubenites. He would gouge out the right eye of each of them and would not grant Israel a deliverer. No one was left of the Israelites across the Jordan whose right eye Nahash, king of the Ammonites, had not gouged out. But there were seven thousand men who had escaped from the Ammonites and had entered Jabesh-gilead.

John 6:30-42 (NRSV)

<sup>30</sup> So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing?" <sup>31</sup> Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' " <sup>32</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup> For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." <sup>34</sup> They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

<sup>36</sup> But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. <sup>37</sup> Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away; <sup>38</sup> for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. <sup>39</sup> And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. <sup>40</sup> This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day."

<sup>41</sup> Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."

<sup>42</sup> They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

Psalm 106:47-48 (NRSV)

<sup>47</sup> Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from
among the nations,
that we may give thanks to your holy name
and glory in your praise.
<sup>48</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to
everlasting.
And let all the people say,
“Amen.”
Praise the LORD!

Proverbs 23:19–21 (NRSV)

<sup>19</sup> Hear, my child, and be wise,
and direct your mind in
the way.
<sup>20</sup> Do not be among winebibbers,
or among gluttonous
eaters of meat;
<sup>21</sup> for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe
them with rags.

Saul Defeats the Ammonites

About a month later, Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabeshgilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you.” <sup>2</sup> But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “On this condition I will make a treaty with you, namely that I gouge out everyone’s right eye, and thus put disgrace upon all Israel.” <sup>3</sup> The elders of Jabesh said to him, “Give us seven days’ respite that we may send messengers through all the territory of Israel. Then,
if there is no one to save us,
we will give ourselves up to you.” <sup>4</sup> When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, they reported the matter in the hearing of the people; and all the people wept aloud.

<sup>5</sup> Now Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen; and Saul said, “What is the matter with the people, that they are weeping?” So they told him the message from the inhabitants of Jabesh. <sup>6</sup> And the spirit of God came upon Saul in power when he heard these words, and his anger was greatly kindled. <sup>7</sup> He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by messengers, saying, "Whoever does not come out after Saul and Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen!" Then the dread of the LORD fell upon the people, and they came out as one. <sup>8</sup> When he mustered them at Bezek, those from Israel were three hundred thousand, and those from Judah seventy thousand. <sup>9</sup> They said to the messengers who had come, "Thus shall you say to the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead: 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.' " When the messengers came and told the inhabitants of Jabesh, they rejoiced. <sup>10</sup> So the inhabitants of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will give ourselves up to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you." <sup>11</sup> The next day Saul put the people in three companies. At the morning watch they came into the camp and cut down the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

<sup>12</sup> The people said to Samuel, "Who is it that said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Give them to us so that we may put them to death." <sup>13</sup> But Saul said, "No one shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has brought deliverance to Israel."

<sup>14</sup> Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and there renew the kingship." <sup>15</sup> So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they sacrificed offerings of well-being before the LORD, and there Saul and all the Israelites rejoiced greatly.

John 6:43-52 (NRSV)

<sup>43</sup> Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. <sup>44</sup> No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day.<sup>45</sup> It is written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by God.’

Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me.<sup>46</sup> Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father.

<sup>47</sup> Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life.<sup>48</sup> I am the bread of life.

<sup>49</sup> Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.<sup>50</sup> This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.<sup>51</sup> I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

<sup>52</sup> The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

*Thanksgiving for Deliverance
from Many Troubles*

<sup>1</sup> O give thanks to the LORD,

for his steadfast love

<sup>2</sup> Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,

1 Samuel 12:1-25 (NRSV)

Samuel's Farewell Address

Samuel said to all Israel, “I have listened to you in all that you have said to me, and have set a king over you.<sup>2</sup> See, it is the king who leads you now; I am old and gray, but my sons are with you. I have led you from my youth until this day.

<sup>3</sup> Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? Testify against me and I will restore it to you.” <sup>4</sup> They said, “You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from the hand of anyone.” <sup>5</sup> He said to them, “The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand.” And they said, “He is witness.”

<sup>6</sup> Samuel said to the people, “The LORD is witness, who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your ancestors up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore take your stand, so that I may enter into judgment with you before the LORD, and I will declare to you all the saving deeds of the LORD that he performed for you and for your ancestors.

<sup>8</sup> When Jacob went into Egypt and the Egyptians oppressed them, then your ancestors cried to the LORD and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your ancestors out of Egypt, and settled them in this place. <sup>9</sup> But they forgot the LORD their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of King Jabin of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup> Then they cried to the LORD, and said, ‘We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served the Baals and the Astartes; but now rescue us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.’ <sup>11</sup> And the LORD sent Jerubbaal and Barak, and Jephthah, and Samson, and rescued you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you lived in safety. <sup>12</sup> But when you saw that King Nahash of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us,’ though the LORD your God was your king. <sup>13</sup> See, here is the king whom you have chosen, for whom you have asked; see, the LORD has set a king over you. <sup>14</sup> If you will fear the LORD and serve him and heed his voice and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God, it will be well; <sup>15</sup> but if you will not heed the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you and your king. <sup>16</sup> Now therefore take your stand and see this great thing that the LORD will do before your eyes. <sup>17</sup> Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call upon the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain; and you shall know and see that the wickedness that you have done in the sight of the LORD is great in demanding a king for yourselves.” <sup>18</sup> So Samuel called upon the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

<sup>19</sup> All the people said to Samuel, “Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of demanding a king for ourselves.” <sup>20</sup> And Samuel said to the people, “Do not be afraid; you have done all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart; <sup>21</sup> and do not turn aside after useless things that cannot profit or save, for they are useless. <sup>22</sup> For the LORD will not cast away his people, for his great name’s sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people for himself. <sup>23</sup> Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; and I will instruct you in the good and the right way. <sup>24</sup> Only fear the LORD, and serve him faithfully with all your heart; for consider what great things he has done for you. <sup>25</sup> But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king.”

John 6:53-71 (NRSV)

<sup>53</sup> So Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.<sup>54</sup> Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day;<sup>55</sup> for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink.

<sup>56</sup> Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them.<sup>57</sup> Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me.<sup>58</sup> This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

<sup>59</sup> He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

The Words of Eternal Life

<sup>60</sup> When many of his disciples heard it, they said, “This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?”<sup>61</sup> But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, “Does this offend you?<sup>62</sup> Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?”<sup>63</sup> It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life.<sup>64</sup> But among you there are some who do not believe.”

For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him.

<sup>65</sup> And he said, “For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father.”

<sup>66</sup> Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him.<sup>67</sup> So Jesus asked the twelve, “Do you also wish to go away?”<sup>68</sup> Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life.<sup>69</sup> We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.”<sup>70</sup> Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve? Yet one of you is a devil.”<sup>71</sup> He was speaking of Judas son of Simon Iscariot, for he, though one of the twelve, was going to betray him.

Psalms 107:4-32 (NRSV)

4 Some wandered in desert wastes,
finding no way to an inhabited town;
5 hungry and thirsty,
their soul fainted within them.
6 Then they cried to the LORD
in their trouble,
and he delivered them
from their distress;
7 he led them by a straight way,
until they reached an inhabited town.
8 Let them thank the LORD
for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works
to humankind.
9 For he satisfies the thirsty,
and the hungry he fills
with good things.
10 Some sat in darkness and
in gloom,
prisoners in misery and
in irons,
11 for they had rebelled
against the words of God,
and spurned the counsel
of the Most High.
12 Their hearts were bowed down with hard labor;

they fell down, with no
one to help.
13 Then they cried to the LORD
in their trouble,
and he saved them from
their distress;
14 he brought them out of darkness and gloom,
and broke their bonds
asunder.
15 Let them thank the LORD
for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works
to humankind.
16 For he shatters the doors
of bronze,
and cuts in two the bars
of iron.
17 Some were sick through their sinful ways,
and because of their iniquities endured
affliction;
18 they loathed any kind of
food,
and they drew near to
the gates of death.
19 Then they cried to the LORD
in their trouble,
and he saved them from
their distress;
20 he sent out his word and healed them,
and delivered them from
destruction.

21 Let them thank the LORD
for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works
to humankind.
22 And let them offer
thanksgiving sacrifices,
and tell of his deeds with songs of joy.
23 Some went down to the sea in ships,
doing business on the
mighty waters;
24 they saw the deeds of the
LORD,
his wondrous works in the deep.
25 For he commanded and raised the stormy
wind,
which lifted up the
waves of the sea.
26 They mounted up to heaven, they went down to the depths;
their courage melted
away in their calamity;
27 they reeled and staggered
like drunkards,
and were at their wits'
end.
28 Then they cried to the LORD
in their trouble,
and he brought them out
from their distress;
29 he made the storm be still,

and the waves of the sea
were hushed.
30 Then they were glad because they had quiet,
and he brought them to
their desired haven.
31 Let them thank the LORD
for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works
to humankind.
32 Let them extol him in the congregation of the
people,
and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

it;

and understanding.

Sept. 21

1 Samuel 13:1-23 (NRSV)

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

Saul was <sup>1</sup>... years old when he began to reign; and he reigned ... and two years over Israel.

<sup>2</sup> Saul chose three thousand out of Israel; two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin; the rest of the people he sent home to their tents. <sup>3</sup> Jonathan defeated the garrison of the Philistines that was at Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!" <sup>4</sup> When all Israel heard that Saul had defeated the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel had become odious to the Philistines, the people were called out to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>1</sup> In a few Greek manuscripts the numbers are missing. Other ancient authorities say he was 30 yrs old and reigned for 40.

<sup>5</sup> The Philistines mustered to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and troops like the sand on the seashore in multitude; they came up and encamped at Michmash, to the east of Beth-aven. <sup>6</sup> When the Israelites saw that they were in distress (for the troops were hard pressed), the people hid themselves in caves and in holes and in rocks and in tombs and in cisterns. <sup>7</sup> Some Hebrews crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

<sup>8</sup> He waited seven days, the time appointed by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people began to slip away from Saul. <sup>9</sup> So Saul said, "Bring the burnt offering here to me, and the offerings of well-being." And he offered the burnt offering. <sup>10</sup> As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel arrived; and Saul went out to meet him and salute him. <sup>11</sup> Samuel said, "What have you done?" Saul replied,

“When I saw that the people were slipping away from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines were mustering at Michmash, <sup>12</sup> I said, ‘Now the Philistines will come down upon me at Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favor of the LORD’; so I forced myself, and offered the burnt offering.” <sup>13</sup> Samuel said to Saul, “You have done foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which he commanded you. The LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever, <sup>14</sup> but now your kingdom will not continue; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart; and the LORD has appointed him to be ruler over his people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.” <sup>15</sup> And Samuel left and went on his way from Gilgal. The rest of the people followed Saul to join the army; they went up from Gilgal toward Gibeah of Benjamin.

Preparations for Battle

Saul counted the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

<sup>16</sup> Saul, his son Jonathan, and the people who were present with them stayed in Geba of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped at Michmash.

<sup>17</sup> And raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies; one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual, <sup>18</sup> another company turned toward Beth-horon, and another company turned toward the mountain that looks down upon the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup> Now there was no smith to be found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, “The Hebrews must not make swords or spears for themselves”; <sup>20</sup> so all the Israelites went down to the Philistines to sharpen their plowshares, mattocks, axes, or sickles; <sup>21</sup> The charge was two-thirds of a shekel for the plowshares and for the mattocks, and one-third of a shekel for sharpening the axes and for setting the goads. <sup>22</sup> So on the day of the battle neither sword nor spear was to be found in the possession of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

Jonathan Surprises and Routs the Philistines

<sup>23</sup> Now a garrison of the Philistines had gone out to the pass of Michmash.

John 7:1-13 (NRSV)

The Unbelief of Jesus' Brothers

<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus went about in Galilee. He did not wish to go about in Judea because the Jews were looking for an opportunity to kill him. <sup>2</sup> Now the Jewish festival of Booths was near. <sup>3</sup> So his brothers said to him, "Leave here and go to Judea so that your disciples also may see the works you are doing; <sup>4</sup> for no one who wants to be widely known acts in secret. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." <sup>5</sup> (For not even his brothers believed in him.) <sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always here. <sup>7</sup> The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify against it that its works are evil. <sup>8</sup> Go to the festival yourselves. I am not going to this festival, for my time has not yet fully come." <sup>9</sup> After saying this, he remained in Galilee.

Jesus at the Festival of Booths

<sup>10</sup> But after his brothers had gone to the festival, then he also went, not publicly but as it were in secret. <sup>11</sup> The Jews were looking for him at the festival and saying, "Where is he?" <sup>12</sup> And there was considerable complaining about him among the crowds. While some were saying, "He is a good man," others were saying, "No, he is deceiving the crowd." <sup>13</sup> Yet no one would speak openly about him for fear of the Jews.

Psalm 107:33-43 (NRSV)

<sup>33</sup> He turns rivers into a desert, springs of water into
thirsty ground,
<sup>34</sup> a fruitful land into a salty
waste,

because of the wickedness of its
inhabitants.
35 He turns a desert into pools of water,
a parched land into
springs of water.
36 And there he lets the hungry live,
and they establish a town to live in;
37 they sow fields, and plant
vineyards,
and get a fruitful yield.
38 By his blessing they
multiply greatly,
and he does not let their cattle decrease.
39 When they are diminished
and brought low
through oppression,
trouble, and sorrow,
40 he pours contempt on
princes
and makes them wander
in trackless wastes;
41 but he raises up the needy
out of distress,
and makes their families
like flocks.
42 The upright see it and are glad;
and all wickedness stops
its mouth.

43 Let those who are wise give heed to these things,
and consider the steadfast love of the
LORD.

1 Samuel 14:1-23 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup> One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man who carried his armor, "Come,
let us go over to the Philistine
garrison on the other side."
But he did not tell his father.

<sup>2</sup> Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that is at Migron; the troops that were
with him were about six hundred men, <sup>3</sup> along with Ahijah son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, son of Phinehas son of Eli, the priest

of the LORD in Shiloh, carrying an ephod. Now the people did not know that Jonathan had gone. <sup>4</sup> In the pass, by which Jonathan tried to go over to the Philistine garrison, there was a rocky crag on one side and a rocky crag on the other; the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup> One crag rose on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba.

<sup>6</sup> Jonathan said to the young man who carried his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will act for us; for nothing can hinder the LORD from saving by many or by few." <sup>7</sup> His armor-bearer said to him, "Do all that your mind inclines to. I am with you; as your mind is, so is mine."

<sup>8</sup> Then Jonathan said, "Now we will cross over to those men and will show ourselves to them. <sup>9</sup> If they say to us, 'Wait until we come to you,' then we will stand still in our place, and we will not go up to them.

<sup>10</sup> But if they say, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up; for the LORD has given them into our hand. That will be the sign for us." <sup>11</sup> So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, "Look, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves." <sup>12</sup> The men of the garrison hailed Jonathan and his armor-bearer, saying, "Come up to us, and we will show you something." Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Come up after me; for the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel." <sup>13</sup> Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer following after him. The Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer, coming after him, killed them. <sup>14</sup> In that first slaughter Jonathan and his armor-bearer killed about twenty men within an area about half a furrow long in an acre of land. <sup>15</sup> There was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison and even the raiders trembled; the earth quaked;

and it became a very great panic.

<sup>16</sup> Saul's lookouts in Gibeah of Benjamin were watching as the multitude was surging back and forth. <sup>17</sup> Then Saul said to the troops that were with him, "Call the roll and see who has gone from us." When they had called the roll, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there. <sup>18</sup> Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For at that time the ark of God went with the Israelites. <sup>19</sup> While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the camp of the Philistines increased more and more; and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand." <sup>20</sup> Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and went into the battle; and every sword was against the other, so that there was very great confusion. <sup>21</sup> Now the Hebrews who previously had been with the Philistines and had gone up with them into the camp turned and joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup> Likewise, when all the Israelites who had gone into hiding in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they too followed closely after them in the battle. <sup>23</sup> So the LORD gave Israel the victory that day.

The battle passed beyond Beth-aven, and the troops with Saul numbered altogether about ten thousand men. The battle spread out over the hill country of Ephraim.

John 7:14-30 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> About the middle of the festival Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach.

<sup>15</sup> The Jews were astonished at it, saying, "How does this man have such learning, when he has never been taught?"

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not mine but his who sent me. <sup>17</sup> Anyone who resolves to do the will of God will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own. <sup>18</sup> Those who speak on their own seek their own glory; but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and there is nothing false in him.

<sup>19</sup> “Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why are you looking for an opportunity to kill me?” <sup>20</sup> The crowd answered, “You have a demon! Who is trying to kill you?” <sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, “I performed one work, and all of you are astonished. <sup>22</sup> Moses gave you circumcision (it is, of course, not from Moses, but from the patriarchs), and you circumcise a man on the sabbath. <sup>23</sup> If a man receives circumcision on the sabbath in order that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because I healed a man’s whole body on the sabbath? <sup>24</sup> Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.”

Is This the Christ?

<sup>25</sup> Now some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, “Is not this the man whom they are trying to kill? <sup>26</sup> And here he is, speaking openly, but they say nothing to him! Can it be that the authorities really know that this is the Messiah? <sup>27</sup> Yet we know where this man is from; but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from.” <sup>28</sup> Then Jesus cried out as he was teaching in the temple, “You know me, and you know where I am from. I have not come on my own. But the one who sent me is true, and you do not know him. <sup>29</sup> I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me.” <sup>30</sup> Then they tried to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>31</sup> Yet many in the crowd believed in him and were saying, “When the Messiah comes, will he do more signs than this man has done?”

Saul's Rash Oath

24 Now Saul committed a very rash act on that day. He had laid an oath on the troops, saying, "Cursed be anyone who eats food before it is evening and I have been avenged on my enemies." So none of the troops tasted
food. 25 All the troops came upon a honeycomb; and there was honey on the ground.

26 When the troops came upon the honeycomb, the honey
was dripping out; but they did not put their hands to their mouths, for they feared the oath. 27 But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the troops with the oath; so he extended the staff that was in his hand, and dipped the tip of it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes brightened. 28 Then one of the soldiers said, "Your father strictly charged the troops with an oath, saying,
'Cursed be anyone who eats food this day.' And so the troops are faint." 29 Then

Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land; see how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

<sup>30</sup> How much better if today the troops had eaten freely of the spoil taken from their enemies; for now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great."

<sup>31</sup> After they had struck down the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon, the troops were very faint; <sup>32</sup> so the troops flew upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the troops ate them with the blood.

<sup>33</sup> Then it was reported to Saul, "Look, the troops are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood." And he said, "You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone before me here."

<sup>34</sup> Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the troops, and say to them, 'Let all bring their oxen or their sheep, and slaughter them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.' " So all of the troops brought their oxen with them that night, and slaughtered them there. <sup>35</sup> And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

Jonathan in Danger of Death

<sup>36</sup> Then Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and despoil them until the morning light; let us not leave one of them." They said, "Do whatever seems good to you." But the priest said, "Let us draw near to God here." <sup>37</sup> So Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into the hand of Israel?" But he did not answer him that day. <sup>38</sup> Saul said, "Come here, all you leaders of the people; and let us find out how this sin has arisen today. <sup>39</sup> For as the LORD lives who saves Israel, even if it is in my son Jonathan, he shall surely die!" But there was no one among all the people who answered him. <sup>40</sup> He said to all Israel, "You shall be on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side." The people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you." <sup>41</sup> Then Saul said, "O LORD God of Israel, why have you not answered your servant today? If this guilt is in me or in my son Jonathan, O LORD God of Israel, give Urim; but if this guilt is in your people Israel, give Thummim.” And Jonathan and Saul were indicated by the lot, but the people were cleared.

<sup>42</sup> Then Saul said, “Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan.” And Jonathan was taken.

<sup>43</sup> Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” Jonathan told him, “I tasted a little honey with the tip of the staff that was in my hand; here I am, I will die.” <sup>44</sup> Saul said, “God do so to me and more also; you shall surely die, Jonathan!”

<sup>45</sup> Then the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great victory in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground; for he has worked with God today.” So the people ransomed Jonathan, and he did not die. <sup>46</sup> Then Saul withdrew from pursuing the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.

Saul's Continuing Wars

<sup>47</sup> When Saul had taken the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side—against Moab, against the Ammonites, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; wherever he turned he routed them. <sup>48</sup> He did valiantly, and struck down the Amalekites, and rescued Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them.

<sup>49</sup> Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn was Merab, and the name of the younger, Michal. <sup>50</sup> The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner son of Ner, Saul's uncle; <sup>51</sup> Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup> There was hard fighting against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any strong or valiant warrior, he took him into his service.

*Officers Are Sent
to Arrest Jesus*

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering such things about him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent temple police to arrest him. <sup>33</sup> Jesus then said, “I will be with you a little while longer, and then I am going to him who sent me.” <sup>34</sup> You will search for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come.” <sup>35</sup> The Jews said to one another, “Where does this man intend to go that we will not find him? Does he intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? <sup>36</sup> What does he mean by saying, ‘You will search for me and you will not find me’ and ‘Where I am, you cannot come’?”

1 Samuel 15:1-35 (NRSV)

*Saul Defeats the Amalekites
but Sparing Their King*

Samuel said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you
king over his people Israel;
now therefore listen to the words of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> Thus says
the LORD of hosts, ‘I will punish the Amalekites for what they did in opposing the Israelites
when they came up out of Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Now go and attack
Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have; do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, child and infant, ox
and sheep, camel and donkey.’”

<sup>4</sup> So Saul summoned the people, and numbered them
in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers, and ten thousand soldiers of Judah. <sup>5</sup> Saul came to the city of the Amalekites and lay in wait in the valley. <sup>6</sup> Saul said to the Kenites, "Go! Leave! Withdraw from among the Amalekites, or I will destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the people of Israel when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites withdrew from the Amalekites. <sup>7</sup> Saul defeated the Amalekites, from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt. <sup>8</sup> He took King Agag of the Amalekites alive, but utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. <sup>9</sup> Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep and of the cattle and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was valuable, and would not utterly destroy them; all that was despised and worthless they utterly destroyed.

Saul Rejected as King

<sup>10</sup> The word of the LORD came to Samuel: <sup>11</sup> "I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned back from following me, and has not carried out my commands." Samuel was angry; and he cried out to the LORD all night. <sup>12</sup> Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, and Samuel was told, "Saul went to Carmel, where he set up a monument for himself, and on returning he passed on down to Gilgal." <sup>13</sup> When Samuel came to Saul, Saul said to him, "May you be blessed by the LORD; I have carried out the command of the LORD." <sup>14</sup> But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears, and the lowing of cattle that I hear?" <sup>15</sup> Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the cattle, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; but the rest we have utterly destroyed." <sup>16</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stop! I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." He replied, "Speak."

<sup>17</sup> Samuel said, "Though you are little in your own eyes, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

<sup>18</sup> And the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.' <sup>19</sup> Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do what was evil in the sight of the LORD?" <sup>20</sup> Saul said to Samuel, "I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, I have gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, I have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup> But from the spoil the people took sheep and cattle, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal." <sup>22</sup> And Samuel said,

    "Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obedience to the voice of the LORD? Surely, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed than the fat of rams.

and stubbornness is like iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king."

<sup>24</sup> Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, I pray, pardon my sin, and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD." <sup>26</sup> Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

<sup>27</sup> As Samuel turned to go away, Saul caught hold of the hem of his robe, and it tore.

<sup>28</sup> And Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this very day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you. <sup>29</sup> Moreover the Glory of Israel will not recant or change his mind; for he is not a mortal, that he should change his mind."

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul said, "I have sinned; yet honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God.”<sup>31</sup> So Samuel turned back after Saul; and Saul worshiped the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said, “Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me.” And Agag came to him haltingly. Agag said, “Surely this is the bitterness of death.”<sup>33</sup> But Samuel said,

“As your sword has made women childless, so your mother shall be childless among women.”

And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup> Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul.

<sup>35</sup> Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD was sorry that he had made Saul king over Israel.

Jesus was standing there, he cried out, “Let anyone who is thirsty come to me,<sup>38</sup> and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, ‘Out of the believer’s heart shall flow rivers of living water.’ ”<sup>39</sup> Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Division among the People

<sup>40</sup> When they heard these words, some in the crowd said, “This is really the prophet.”<sup>41</sup> Others said, “This is the Messiah.” But some asked, “Surely the Messiah does not come from Galilee, does he?”<sup>42</sup> Has not the scripture said that the Messiah is descended from David and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?”

<sup>43</sup> So there was a division in the crowd because of him.

<sup>44</sup> Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.

*Prayer for Vindication
and Vengeance*

To the leader. Of David. A Psalm.

- 1 Do not be silent, O God of my praise.
- 2 For wicked and deceitful mouths are opened against me, speaking against me with lying tongues.
- 3 They beset me with words of hate, and attack me without cause.
- 4 In return for my love they accuse me, even while I make prayer for them.
- 5 So they reward me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
- 6 They say, “Appoint a wicked man against him; let an accuser stand on his right.
- 7 When he is tried, let him be found guilty; let his prayer be counted as sin.
- 8 May his days be few; may another seize his position.
- 9 May his children be orphans,

and his wife a widow.
10 May his children wander
about and beg;
may they be driven out of the ruins they inhabit.
11 May the creditor seize all
that he has;
may strangers plunder
the fruits of his toil.
12 May there be no one to do
him a kindness,
nor anyone to pity his
orphaned children.
13 May his posterity be cut
off;
may his name be blotted
out in the second
generation.
14 May the iniquity of his father be remembered
before the LORD,
and do not let the sin of his mother be blotted
out.
15 Let them be before the LORD continually,
and may his memory be
cut off from the earth.
16 For he did not remember to show kindness,
but pursued the poor
and needy
and the brokenhearted
to their death.

17 He loved to curse; let curses come on him.
He did not like blessing;
may it be far from him.
18 He clothed himself with cursing as his coat,
may it soak into his body
like water,
like oil into his bones.
19 May it be like a garment that he wraps around
himself,
like a belt that he wears
every day.”
20 May that be the reward of my accusers from the LORD,
of those who speak evil

act on my behalf for your
name’s sake;

Sept. 25

1 Samuel 16:1-23 (NRSV)

David Anointed as King

The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul? I have rejected him from being king over Israel. Fill your horn with oil and set out; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons." <sup>2</sup> Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me." And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'" <sup>3</sup> Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me the one whom I name to you."

<sup>4</sup> Samuel did what the LORD commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?" <sup>5</sup> He said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD; sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup> When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, "Surely the LORD's anointed is now before the LORD." <sup>7</sup> But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the LORD does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart."

<sup>8</sup> Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

<sup>10</sup> Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, and Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen any of these." <sup>11</sup> Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all your sons here?" And he said, "There remains yet the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here."

<sup>12</sup> He sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. The LORD said, "Rise and anoint him; for this is the one." <sup>13</sup> Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the presence of his brothers; and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. Samuel then set out and went to Ramah.

David Plays the Lyre for Saul

<sup>14</sup> Now the spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him. <sup>15</sup> And Saul's servants said to him, "See now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you." <sup>16</sup> Let our lord now command the servants who attend you to look for someone who is skillful in playing the lyre; and when the evil spirit from God is upon you, he will play it, and you will feel better." <sup>17</sup> So Saul said to his servants, "Provide for me someone who can play well, and bring him to me."

<sup>18</sup> One of the young men answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skillful in playing, a man of valor, a warrior, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence; and the LORD is with him." <sup>19</sup> So Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me your son David who is with the sheep." <sup>20</sup> Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a kid, and sent them by his son David to Saul. <sup>21</sup> And David came to Saul, and entered his service. Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer. <sup>22</sup> Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David remain in my service, for he has found favor in my sight." <sup>23</sup> And whenever the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, David took the lyre and played it with his hand, and Saul would be relieved and feel better, and the evil spirit would depart from him.

The Woman Caught in Adultery

<sup>1</sup> while Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. <sup>2</sup> Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him and he sat down and began to teach them. <sup>3</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before all of them, <sup>4</sup> they said to him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. <sup>5</sup> Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?” <sup>6</sup> They said this to test him, so that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. <sup>7</sup> When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” <sup>8</sup> And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground. <sup>9</sup> When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. <sup>10</sup> Jesus straightened up and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?” <sup>11</sup> She said, “No one, sir.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again.”]]

David and Goliath

Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; they were gathered at

Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim. <sup>2</sup> Saul and the Israelites gathered and
encamped in the valley of Elah, and formed ranks against the Philistines. <sup>3</sup> The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with a valley between them. <sup>4</sup> And there came out from the camp of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. <sup>5</sup> He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze. <sup>6</sup> He had greaves of bronze on his legs
and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and his shield-bearer went before him. <sup>8</sup> He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. <sup>9</sup> If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us.” <sup>10</sup> And the Philistine said, “Today I defy the ranks of Israel! Give me a man, that we may fight together.” <sup>11</sup> When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

<sup>12</sup> Now David was the son of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, named Jesse, who had eight sons. In the days of Saul the man was already old and advanced in years. <sup>13</sup> The three eldest sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle; the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. <sup>14</sup> David was the youngest; the three eldest followed Saul, <sup>15</sup> but David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father’s sheep at Bethlehem. <sup>16</sup> For forty days the Philistine came forward and took his stand, morning and evening.

<sup>17</sup> Jesse said to his son David, “Take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers; <sup>18</sup> also take these ten cheeses to the commander of their thousand. See how your brothers fare, and bring some token from them.”

<sup>19</sup> Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. <sup>20</sup> David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, took the provisions, and went as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the encampment as the army was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry. <sup>21</sup> Israel and the Philistines drew up for battle, army against army. <sup>22</sup> David left the things in charge of the keeper of the baggage, ran to the ranks, and went and greeted his brothers. <sup>23</sup> As he talked with them, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke the same words as before. And David heard him.

<sup>24</sup> All the Israelites, when they saw the man, fled from him and were very much afraid. <sup>25</sup> The Israelites said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel. The king will greatly enrich the man who kills him, and will give him his daughter and make his family free in Israel."

<sup>26</sup> David said to the men who stood by him, "What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?" <sup>27</sup> The people answered him in the same way, "So shall it be done for the man who kills him."

<sup>28</sup> His eldest brother Eliab heard him talking to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David. He said, "Why have you come down? With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption and the evil of your heart; for you have come down just to see the battle." <sup>29</sup> David said, "What have I done now? It was only a question." <sup>30</sup> He turned away from him toward another and spoke in the same way; and the people answered him again as before.

<sup>31</sup> When the words that David spoke were heard, they repeated them before Saul; and he sent for him. <sup>32</sup> David said to Saul, "Let no one's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." <sup>33</sup> Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth." <sup>34</sup> But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, <sup>35</sup> I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it." <sup>36</sup> Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.”<sup>37</sup> David said, “The LORD, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” So Saul said to David, “Go, and may the LORD be with you!”

<sup>38</sup> Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail.<sup>39</sup> David strapped Saul’s sword over the armor, and he tried in vain to walk, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, “I cannot walk with these; for I am not used to them.” So David removed them.<sup>40</sup> Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the wadi, and put them in his shepherd’s bag, in the pouch; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

Jesus the Light of the World

<sup>12</sup> Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.”

<sup>13</sup> Then the Pharisees said to him, “You are testifying on your own behalf; your testimony is not valid.”<sup>14</sup> Jesus answered, “Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid because I know where I have come from and where I am going, but you do not know where I come from or where I am going.”<sup>15</sup> You judge by human standards; I judge no one.<sup>16</sup> Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is valid; for it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father who sent me.<sup>17</sup> In your law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is valid.<sup>18</sup> I testify on my own behalf, and the Father who sent me testifies on my behalf.”<sup>19</sup> Then they said to him, “Where is your Father?” Jesus answered, “You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also.”<sup>20</sup> He spoke these words while he was teaching in the treasury of the temple, but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

<sup>41</sup> The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. <sup>42</sup> When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance. <sup>43</sup> The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?”
And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup> The Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.” <sup>45</sup> But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts,
the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.
<sup>46</sup> This very day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,<sup>47</sup> and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD's and he will give you into our hand."

<sup>48</sup>When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

<sup>49</sup>David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

<sup>50</sup>So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, striking down the Philistine and killing him; there was no sword in David's hand.

<sup>51</sup>Then David ran and stood over the Philistine; he grasped his sword, drew it out of its sheath, and killed him; then he cut off his head with it.

When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.<sup>52</sup> The troops of Israel and Judah rose up with a shout and pursued the Philistines as far as Gath and the gates of Ekron, so that the wounded Philistines fell on the way from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron.<sup>53</sup> The Israelites came back from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.<sup>54</sup> David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent.

<sup>55</sup>When Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?" Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."<sup>56</sup> The king said, "Inquire whose son the stripling is."<sup>57</sup> On David's return from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.<sup>58</sup> Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

Jonathan's Covenant with David

18 When David had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

<sup>2</sup> Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father's house. <sup>3</sup> Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>4</sup> Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that he was wearing, and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his belt.

Is that what he means by saying, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?" <sup>23</sup> He said to them, "You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world. <sup>24</sup> I told you that you would die in your sins, for you will die in your sins unless you believe that I am he."

Sept. 28

1 Samuel 18:5-30 (NRSV)

<sup>5</sup> David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; as a result, Saul set him over the army. And all the people, even the servants of Saul, approved.

<sup>6</sup> As they were coming home, when David returned from killing the Philistine, the women came out of all the towns of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with songs of joy, and with musical instruments. <sup>7</sup> And the women sang to one another as they made merry,

“Saul has killed his thousands,
and David his ten
thousands.”

<sup>8</sup> Saul was very angry, for this saying displeased him. He said, “They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands; what more can he have but the kingdom?” <sup>9</sup> So Saul eyed David from that day on.

Saul Tries to Kill David

<sup>10</sup> The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; <sup>11</sup> and Saul threw the spear, for he thought, “I will pin David to the wall.” But David eluded him twice.

<sup>12</sup> Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul. <sup>13</sup> So Saul removed him from his presence, and made him a commander of a thousand; and David marched out and came in, leading the army. <sup>14</sup> David had success in all his undertakings; for the LORD was with him. <sup>15</sup> When Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him. <sup>16</sup> But all Israel and Judah loved David; for it was he who marched out and came in leading them.

David Marries Michal

<sup>17</sup> Then Saul said to David, “Here is my elder daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife; only be valiant for me and fight the LORD’s battles.”

For Saul thought, "I will not raise a hand against him; let the Philistines deal with him."

<sup>18</sup> David said to Saul, "Who am I and who are my kinsfolk, my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?" <sup>19</sup> But at the time when Saul's daughter Merab should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

<sup>20</sup> Now Saul's daughter Michal loved David. Saul was told, and the thing pleased him. <sup>21</sup> Saul thought, "Let me give her to him that she may be a snare for him and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "You shall now be my son-in-law." <sup>22</sup> Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David in private and say, 'See, the king is delighted with you, and all his servants love you; now then, become the king's son-in-law.'" <sup>23</sup> So Saul's servants reported these words to David in private. And David said, "Does it seem to you a little thing to become the king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and of no repute?" <sup>24</sup> The servants of Saul told him, "This is what David said." <sup>25</sup> Then Saul said, "Thus shall you say to David, 'The king desires no marriage present except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that he may be avenged on the king's enemies.'" Now Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>26</sup> When his servants told David these words, David was well pleased to be the king's son-in-law. Before the time had expired, <sup>27</sup> David rose and went, along with his men, and killed one hundred of the Philistines; and David brought their foreskins, which were given in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. Saul gave him his daughter Michal as a wife. <sup>28</sup> But when Saul realized that the LORD was with David, and that Saul's daughter Michal loved him, <sup>29</sup> Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul was David's enemy from that time forward.

<sup>30</sup> Then the commanders of the Philistines came out to battle; and as often as they came out, David had more success than all the servants of Saul, so that his fame became very great.

John 8:25-30 (NRSV)

<sup>25</sup> They said to him, “Who are you?” Jesus said to them, “Why do I speak to you at all?

<sup>26</sup> I have much to say about you and much to condemn; but the one who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from him.” <sup>27</sup> They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father. <sup>28</sup> So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will realize that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own, but I speak these things as the Father instructed me.” <sup>29</sup> And the one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what is pleasing to him.” <sup>30</sup> As he was saying these things, many believed in him.

Sept. 29

1 Samuel 19:1-24 (NRSV)

Jonathan Intercedes for David

Saul spoke with his son Jonathan and with all his servants about killing David. But Saul's son Jonathan took great delight in David.

<sup>2</sup> Jonathan told David, "My father Saul is trying to kill you; therefore be on guard tomorrow morning; stay in a secret place and hide yourself.

<sup>3</sup> I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak to my father about you; if I learn anything I will tell you."

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul, saying to him, "The king should not sin against his servant David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his deeds have been of good service to you; <sup>5</sup> for he took his life in his hand when he attacked the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and rejoiced; why then will you sin against an innocent person by killing

David without cause?" <sup>6</sup> Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan; Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."

<sup>7</sup> So Jonathan called David and related all these things to him. Jonathan then brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.

Michal Helps David Escape from Saul

<sup>8</sup> Again there was war, and David went out to fight the Philistines. He launched a heavy attack on them, so that they fled before him. <sup>9</sup> Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand, while David was playing music. <sup>10</sup> Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear; but he eluded Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped that night.

<sup>11</sup> Saul sent messengers to David's house to keep watch over him, planning to kill him in the morning. David's wife Michal told him, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed."

<sup>12</sup> So Michal let David down through the window; he fled away and escaped.<sup>13</sup> Michal took an idol and laid it on the bed; she put a net of goats' hair on its head, and covered it with the clothes.<sup>14</sup> When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."<sup>15</sup> Then Saul sent the messengers to see David for themselves. He said, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him."<sup>16</sup> When the messengers came in, the idol was in the bed, with the covering of goats' hair on its head.<sup>17</sup> Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this, and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go; why should I kill you?' "

David Joins Samuel in Ramah

<sup>18</sup> Now David fled and escaped; he came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. He and Samuel went and settled at Naioth.<sup>19</sup> Saul was told, "David is at Naioth in Ramah."<sup>20</sup> Then Saul sent messengers to take David. When they saw the company of the prophets in a frenzy, with Samuel standing in charge of them, the spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also fell into a prophetic frenzy.<sup>21</sup> When Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they also fell into a frenzy. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also fell into a frenzy.<sup>22</sup> Then he himself went to Ramah. He came to the great well that is in Secu; he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" And someone said, "They are at Naioth in Ramah."<sup>23</sup> He went there, toward Naioth in Ramah; and the spirit of God came upon him. As he was going, he fell into a prophetic frenzy, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.<sup>24</sup> He too stripped off his clothes, and he too fell into a frenzy before Samuel. He lay naked all that day and all that night. Therefore it is said, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

True Disciples

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word,

you are truly my disciples;
<sup>32</sup>and you will know the truth,
and the truth will make you free.”<sup>33</sup> They answered him,
“We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, ‘You will be made free’?”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them,
“Very truly, I tell you,
everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin.”<sup>35</sup> The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever.<sup>36</sup> So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.

1 Samuel 20:1-34 (NRSV)

The Friendship of David and Jonathan

David fled from Naioth in Ramah. He came before Jonathan and said, "What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin against your father that he is trying to take my life?" <sup>2</sup> He said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. My father does nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me; and why should my father hide this from me? Never!" <sup>3</sup> But David also swore, "Your father knows well that you like me; and he thinks, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, or he will be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, there is but a step between me and death."

<sup>4</sup> Then Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you." <sup>5</sup> David said to Jonathan, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at the meal; but let me go, so that I may hide in the field until the third evening. <sup>6</sup> If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.' <sup>7</sup> If he says, 'Good!' it will be well with your servant; but if he is angry, then know that evil has been determined by him. <sup>8</sup> Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a sacred covenant with you. But if there is guilt in me, kill me yourself; why should you bring me to your father?" <sup>9</sup> Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! If I knew that it was decided by my father that evil should come upon you, would I not tell you?" <sup>10</sup> Then David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?" <sup>11</sup> Jonathan replied to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." So they both went out into the field. <sup>12</sup> Jonathan said to David, "By the LORD, the God of Israel! When I have sounded out my father, about this time tomorrow, or on the third day, if he is well disposed toward David, shall I not then send and disclose it to you? <sup>13</sup> But if my father intends to do you harm, the LORD do so to Jonathan, and more also, if I do not disclose it to you, and send you away, so that you may go in safety. May the LORD be with you, as he has been with my father. <sup>14</sup> If I am still alive, show me the faithful love of the LORD; but if I die, <sup>15</sup> never cut off your faithful love from my house, even if the LORD were to cut off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.”

<sup>16</sup> Thus Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “May the LORD seek out the enemies of David.” <sup>17</sup> Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him; for he loved him as he loved his own life.

<sup>18</sup> Jonathan said to him, “Tomorrow is the new moon; you will be missed, because your place will be empty. <sup>19</sup> On the day after tomorrow, you shall go a long way down; go to the place where you hid yourself earlier, and remain beside the stone there. <sup>20</sup> I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I shot at a mark. <sup>21</sup> Then I will send the boy, saying, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I say to the boy, ‘Look, the arrows are on this side of you, collect them,’ then you are to come, for, as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no danger. <sup>22</sup> But if I say to the young man, ‘Look, the arrows are beyond you,’ then go; for the LORD has sent you away. <sup>23</sup> As for the matter about which you and I have spoken, the LORD is witness between you and me forever.”

<sup>24</sup> So David hid himself in the field. When the new moon came, the king sat at the feast to eat. <sup>25</sup> The king sat upon his seat, as at other times, upon the seat by the wall. Jonathan stood, while Abner sat by Saul’s side; but David’s place was empty.

<sup>26</sup> Saul did not say anything that day; for he thought, “Something has befallen him; he is not clean, surely he is not clean.” <sup>27</sup> But on the second day, the day after the new moon, David’s place was empty. And Saul said to his son Jonathan, “Why has the son of Jesse not come to the feast, either yesterday or today?" <sup>28</sup> Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem; <sup>29</sup> he said, 'Let me go; for our family is holding a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. So now, if I have found favor in your sight, let me get away, and see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan. He said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? <sup>31</sup> For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the earth, neither you nor your kingdom shall be established. Now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die."

<sup>32</sup> Then Jonathan answered his father Saul, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" <sup>33</sup> But Saul threw his spear at him to strike him; so Jonathan knew that it was the decision of his father to put David to death. <sup>34</sup> Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger and ate no food on the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, and because his father had disgraced him.

John 8:37-59 (NRSV)

<sup>37</sup> I know that you are descendants of Abraham; yet you look for an opportunity to kill me, because there is no place in you for my word. <sup>38</sup> I declare what I have seen in the Father's presence; as for you, you should do what you have heard from the Father."

Jesus and Abraham

<sup>39</sup> They answered him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, <sup>40</sup> but now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. <sup>41</sup> You are indeed doing what your father does." They said to him, "We are not illegitimate children; we have one father, God himself."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now I am here. I did not come on my own, but he sent me. <sup>43</sup> Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot accept my word. <sup>44</sup> You are from your father the devil, and you choose to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies. <sup>45</sup> But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. <sup>46</sup> Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? <sup>47</sup> Whoever is from God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear them is that you are not from God."

<sup>48</sup> The Jews answered him, "Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?" <sup>49</sup> Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup> Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is one who seeks it and he is the judge. <sup>51</sup> Very truly, I tell you, whoever keeps my word will never see death."

<sup>52</sup> The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and so did the prophets; yet you say, 'Whoever keeps my word will never taste death.' <sup>53</sup> Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets also died. Who do you claim to be?" <sup>54</sup> Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, he of whom you say, 'He is our God,' <sup>55</sup> though you do not know him. But I know him; if I would say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him and I keep his word. <sup>56</sup> Your ancestor Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day; he saw it and was glad." <sup>57</sup> Then the Jews said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?" <sup>58</sup> Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, before Abraham was, I am." <sup>59</sup> So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple.

Does not he who keeps

1 Samuel 20:35–21:15 (NRSV)

<sup>35</sup> In the morning Jonathan went out into the field to the appointment with David, and with him was a little boy. <sup>36</sup> He said to the boy, “Run and find the arrows that I shoot.” As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup> When the boy came to the place where Jonathan’s arrow had fallen, Jonathan called after the boy
and said, “Is the arrow not beyond you?” <sup>38</sup> Jonathan called after the boy, “Hurry, be quick, do not linger.” So Jonathan’s boy gathered up the arrows and came to his master. <sup>39</sup> But the boy knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the arrangement.
<sup>40</sup> Jonathan gave his weapons
to the boy and said to him, “Go and carry them to the city.”<sup>41</sup> As soon as the boy had gone, David rose from beside the stone heap and prostrated himself with his face to the ground. He bowed three times, and they kissed each other, and wept with each other; David wept the more.

<sup>42</sup> Then Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, since both of us have sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD shall be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants, forever.’ ” He got up and left; and Jonathan went into the city.

David and the Holy Bread

21 David came to Nob to the priest Ahimelech. Ahimelech came trembling to meet David, and said to him, “Why are you alone, and no one with you?”<sup>2</sup> David said to the priest Ahimelech, “The king has charged me with a matter, and said to me, ‘No one must know anything of the matter about which I send you, and with which I have charged you.’ I have made an appointment with the young men for such and such a place.

<sup>3</sup> Now then, what have you at hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever is here.”

<sup>4</sup> The priest answered David, “I have no ordinary bread at hand, only holy bread—provided that the young men have kept themselves from women.”<sup>5</sup> David answered the priest, “Indeed women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition; the vessels of the young men are holy even when it is a common journey; how much more today will their vessels be holy?”<sup>6</sup> So the priest gave him the holy bread; for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence, which is removed from before the LORD, to be replaced by hot bread on the day it is taken away.

<sup>7</sup> Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul’s shepherds.

<sup>8</sup> David said to Ahimelech, “Is there no spear or sword here with you? I did not bring my sword or my weapons with me, because the king’s business required haste.”<sup>9</sup> The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you will take that, take it, for there is none here except that one." David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

David Flees to Gath

<sup>10</sup> David rose and fled that day from Saul; he went to King Achish of Gath. <sup>11</sup> The servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, 'Saul has killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?"

<sup>12</sup> David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of King Achish of Gath. <sup>13</sup> So he changed his behavior before them; he pretended to be mad when in their presence. He scratched marks on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle run down his beard. <sup>14</sup> Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is mad; why then have you brought him to me?" <sup>15</sup> Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

John 9:1-13 (NRSV)

A Man Born Blind Receives Sight

<sup>1</sup> As he walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. <sup>2</sup> His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" <sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God's works might be revealed in him. <sup>4</sup> We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. <sup>5</sup> As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." <sup>6</sup> When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man's eyes, <sup>7</sup> saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see. <sup>8</sup> The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?”

<sup>9</sup> Some were saying, “It is he.” Others were saying, “No, but it is someone like him.” He kept saying, “I am the man.” <sup>10</sup> But they kept asking him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”

<sup>11</sup> He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ Then I went and washed and received my sight.” <sup>12</sup> They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.”

The Pharisees Investigate the Healing

<sup>13</sup> They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind.

<sup>5</sup> It is well with those who deal generously and lend, who conduct their affairs with justice.
<sup>6</sup> For the righteous will never be moved; they will be remembered forever.
<sup>7</sup> They are not afraid of evil tidings;

their hearts are firm, secure in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> Their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid; in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.
<sup>9</sup> They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor; their righteousness endures forever; their horn is exalted in honor.
<sup>10</sup> The wicked see it and are angry; they gnash their teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.

Proverbs 24:13–14 (NRSV)

<sup>13</sup> My child, eat honey, for it is good, and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.

1 Samuel 22:1-23 (NRSV)

David and His Followers at Adullam

<sup>1</sup> David left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; when his brothers and all his father's house heard of it, they went down there to him. <sup>2</sup> Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him; and he became captain over them. Those who were with him numbered about four hundred.

<sup>3</sup> David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab. He said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come to you, until I know what God will do for me." <sup>4</sup> He left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold. <sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold; leave, and go into the land of Judah." So David left, and went into the forest of Hereth.

Saul Slaughters the Priests at Nob

<sup>6</sup> Saul heard that David and those who were with him had been located. Saul was sitting at Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him. <sup>7</sup> Saul said to his servants who stood around him, "Hear now, you Benjaminites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?" <sup>8</sup> Is that why all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a league with the son of Jesse, none of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as he is doing today." <sup>9</sup> Doeg the Edomite, who was in charge of Saul's servants, answered, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech son of Ahitub; <sup>10</sup> he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup> The king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and for all his father's house, the priests who were at Nob; and all of them came to the king. <sup>12</sup> Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." He answered, "Here I am, my lord." <sup>13</sup> Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by giving him bread and a sword, and by inquiring of God for him, so that he has risen against me, to lie in wait, as he is doing today?"

<sup>14</sup> Then Ahimelech answered the king, "Who among all your servants is so faithful as David? He is the king's son-in-law, and is quick to do your bidding, and is honored in your house. <sup>15</sup> Is today the first time that I have inquired of God for him? By no means! Do not let the king impute anything to his servant or to any member of my father's house; for your servant has known nothing of all this, much or little." <sup>16</sup> The king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house." <sup>17</sup> The king said to the guard who stood around him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David; they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king would not raise their hand to attack the priests of the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Then the king said to Doeg, "You, Doeg, turn and attack the priests." Doeg the Edomite turned and attacked the priests; on that day he killed eighty-five who wore the linen ephod. <sup>19</sup> Nob, the city of the priests, he put to the sword; men and women, children and infants, oxen, donkeys, and sheep, he put to the sword.

<sup>22</sup> David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible for the lives of all your father's house. <sup>23</sup> Stay with me, and do not be afraid; for the one who seeks my life seeks your life; you will be safe with me."

John 9:14-41 (NRSV)

<sup>14</sup> Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see."

<sup>16</sup> Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?" And they were divided. <sup>17</sup> So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened." He said, "He is a prophet."

<sup>18</sup> The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight <sup>19</sup> and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" <sup>20</sup> His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup> but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself." <sup>22</sup> His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup> Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

<sup>24</sup> So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner." <sup>25</sup> He answered, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see." <sup>26</sup> They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" <sup>27</sup> He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?" <sup>28</sup> Then they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. <sup>29</sup> We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from." <sup>30</sup> The man answered, "Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes.

<sup>31</sup> We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will.

<sup>32</sup> Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind. <sup>33</sup> If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." <sup>34</sup> They answered him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?" And they drove him out.

Spiritual Blindness

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

<sup>36</sup> He answered, "And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him." <sup>37</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." <sup>38</sup> He said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped him. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind."

<sup>40</sup> Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not blind, are we?" <sup>41</sup> Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains.

God the Helper of the Needy

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD!

Praise, O servants of the LORD;
praise the name of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Blessed be the name of the LORD
from this time on and forevermore.

<sup>3</sup> From the rising of the sun
to its setting
the name of the LORD is to be praised.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD is high above all nations,
and his glory above the heavens.

<sup>5</sup> Who is like the LORD our God,
who is seated on high,

<sup>6</sup> who looks far down
on the heavens and the earth?

7 He raises the poor from
the dust,
and lifts the needy from
the ash heap,
8 to make them sit with
princes,
with the princes of his
people.
9 He gives the barren

Praise the LORD!

1 Samuel 23:1-29 (NRSV)

David Saves the City of Keilah

<sup>1</sup> Now they told David, “The Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and are robbing the threshing floors.” <sup>2</sup> David inquired of the LORD, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” The LORD said to David, “Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah.” <sup>3</sup> But David’s men said to him, “Look, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?” <sup>4</sup> Then David inquired of the LORD again. The LORD answered him, “Yes, go down to Keilah; for I will give the Philistines into your hand.” <sup>5</sup> So David and his men went to Keilah, fought with the Philistines, brought away their livestock, and dealt them a heavy defeat. Thus David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah.

<sup>6</sup> When Abiathar son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand. <sup>7</sup> Now it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, "God has given him into my hand; for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars."<sup>8</sup> Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.<sup>9</sup> When David learned that Saul was plotting evil against him, he said to the priest Abiathar, "Bring the ephod here."<sup>10</sup> David said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, your servant has heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account."<sup>11</sup> And now, will Saul come down as your servant has heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech you, tell your servant." The LORD said, "He will come down."<sup>12</sup> Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?" The LORD said, "They will surrender you."<sup>13</sup> Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, set out and left Keilah; they wandered wherever they could go. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up the expedition.<sup>14</sup> David remained in the strongholds in the wilderness, in the hill country of the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but the LORD did not give him into his hand.

David Eludes Saul in the Wilderness

<sup>15</sup> David was in the Wilderness of Ziph at Horesh when he learned that Saul had come out to seek his life.

<sup>16</sup> Saul's son Jonathan set out and came to David at Horesh; there he strengthened his hand through the LORD.<sup>17</sup> He said to him, "Do not be afraid; for the hand of my father Saul shall not find you; you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be second to you; my father Saul also knows that this is so."

<sup>18</sup> Then the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.

<sup>19</sup> Then some Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, "David is hiding among us in the strongholds of Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon."<sup>20</sup> Now, O king, whenever you wish to come down, do so; and our part will be to surrender him into the king's hand." <sup>21</sup> Saul said, "May you be blessed by the LORD for showing me compassion! <sup>22</sup> Go and make sure once more; find out exactly where he is, and who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning. <sup>23</sup> Look around and learn all the hiding places where he lurks, and come back to me with sure information. Then I will go with you; and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah." <sup>24</sup> So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul.

David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon. <sup>25</sup> Saul and his men went to search for him. When David was told, he went down to the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he pursued David into the wilderness of Maon. <sup>26</sup> Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. David was hurrying to get away from Saul, while Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them. <sup>27</sup> Then a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come; for the Philistines have made a raid on the land." <sup>28</sup> So Saul stopped pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; therefore that place was called the Rock of Escape. <sup>29</sup> David then went up from there, and lived in the strongholds of En-gedi.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

<sup>1</sup> "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. <sup>2</sup> The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup> The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup> When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. <sup>5</sup> They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

<sup>7</sup> So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. <sup>8</sup> All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them.

<sup>9</sup> I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. <sup>10</sup> The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

*God’s Wonders at the Exodus
(Cp Ex 14:1–31)*

<sup>1</sup> When Israel went out from Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
<sup>2</sup> Judah became God’s

Israel his dominion.
<sup>3</sup> The sea looked and fled;
Jordan turned back.
<sup>4</sup> The mountains skipped like the hills like lambs.

<sup>5</sup> Why is it, O sea, that you

O Jordan, that you turn
back?

<sup>6</sup> O mountains, that you skip like rams?

O hills, like lambs?

<sup>7</sup> Tremble, O earth, at the

at the presence of the God of Jacob,

and turn away his anger
from them.

<sup>19</sup> Do not fret because of
evildoers.

<sup>20</sup> Do not envy the wicked;
for the evil have no future;
the lamp of the wicked

1 Samuel 24:1-22 (NRSV)

David Spares Saul's Life

<sup>1</sup> When Saul returned from following the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the wilderness of En-gedi." <sup>2</sup> Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to look for David and his men in the direction of the Rocks of the Wild Goats. <sup>3</sup> He came to the sheepfolds beside the road, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost parts of the cave.

<sup>4</sup> The men of David said to him, "Here is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'I will give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it seems good to you.'" Then David went and stealthily cut off a corner of Saul's cloak.

<sup>5</sup> Afterward David was stricken to the heart because he had cut off a corner of Saul's cloak.

<sup>6</sup> He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to raise my hand against him; for he is the LORD's anointed." <sup>7</sup> So David scolded his men severely and did not permit them to attack Saul. Then Saul got up and left the cave, and went on his way.

<sup>8</sup> Afterwards David also rose up and went out of the cave and called after Saul, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.

<sup>9</sup> David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of those who say, 'David seeks to do you harm'?" <sup>10</sup> This very day your eyes have seen how the LORD gave you into my hand in the cave; and some urged me to kill you, but I spared you. I said, 'I will not raise my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.' <sup>11</sup> See, my father, see the corner of your cloak in my hand; for by the fact that I cut off the corner of your cloak, and did not kill you, you may know for certain that there is no wrong or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you are hunting me to take my life. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD judge between me and you! May the LORD avenge me on you; but my hand shall not be against you. <sup>13</sup> As the ancient proverb says, 'Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness'; but my hand shall not be against you. <sup>14</sup> Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A single flea? <sup>15</sup> May the LORD therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you. May he see to it, and plead my cause, and vindicate me against you."

<sup>16</sup> When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" Saul lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>17</sup> He said to David, "You are more righteous than I; for you have repaid me good, whereas I have repaid you evil. <sup>18</sup> Today you have explained how you have dealt well with me, in that you did not kill me when the LORD put me into your hands. <sup>19</sup> For who has ever found an enemy, and sent the enemy safely away? So may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day. <sup>20</sup> Now I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. <sup>21</sup> Swear to me therefore by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not wipe out my name from my father's house." <sup>22</sup> So David swore this to Saul. Then Saul went home; but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

John 10:11-21 (NRSV)

<sup>11</sup> "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup> The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. <sup>13</sup> The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. <sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, <sup>15</sup> just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. <sup>17</sup> For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. <sup>18</sup> No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”

<sup>19</sup> Again the Jews were divided because of these words. <sup>20</sup> Many of them were saying, “He has a demon and is out of his mind. Why listen to him?” <sup>21</sup> Others were saying, “These are not the words of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

Psalms 115:1-10 (NRSV)

The Impotence of Idols and the Greatness of God

<sup>1</sup> Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness.
<sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say,
“Where is their God?”

<sup>3</sup> Our God is in the heavens;
he does whatever he pleases.
<sup>4</sup> Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.
<sup>5</sup> They have mouths, but do not speak;
eyes, but do not see.
<sup>6</sup> They have ears, but do not hear;
noses, but do not smell.
<sup>7</sup> They have hands, but do not feel;
feet, but do not walk;
they make no sound in their throats.
<sup>8</sup> Those who make them are like them;
so are all who trust in them.
<sup>9</sup> O Israel, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.
<sup>10</sup> O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.

Proverbs 24:21–22 (NRSV)

<sup>21</sup> My child, fear the LORD and the king,
and do not disobey either of them;

<sup>22</sup> for disaster comes from them suddenly,
and who knows the ruin that both can bring?

1 Samuel 25:1-44 (NRSV)

Death of Samuel

<sup>1</sup> Now Samuel died; and all Israel assembled and mourned for him. They buried him at his home in Ramah.

Then David got up and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

David and the Wife of Nabal

<sup>2</sup> There was a man in Maon, whose property was in Carmel. The man was very rich; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup> Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. The woman was clever and beautiful, but the man was surly and mean;

he was a Calebite. <sup>4</sup> David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. <sup>5</sup> So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. <sup>6</sup> Thus you shall salute him: 'Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.' <sup>7</sup> I hear that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us, and we did them no harm, and they missed nothing, all the time they were in Carmel. <sup>8</sup> Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your sight; for we have come on a feast day. Please give whatever you have at hand to your servants and to your son David.' "

<sup>9</sup> When David's young men came, they said all this to Nabal in the name of David; and then they waited. <sup>10</sup> But Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who are breaking away from their masters. <sup>11</sup> Shall I take my bread and my water and the meat that I have butchered for my shearers, and give it to men who come from I do not know where?" <sup>12</sup> So David's young men turned away, and came back and told him all this. <sup>13</sup> David said to his men, "Every man strap on his sword!" And every one of them strapped on his sword; David also strapped on his sword; and about four hundred men went up after David, while two hundred remained with the baggage.

<sup>14</sup> But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he shouted insults at them. <sup>15</sup> Yet the men were very good to us, and we suffered no harm, and we never missed anything when we were in the fields, as long as we were with them; <sup>16</sup> they were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore know this and consider what you should do; for evil has been decided against our master and against all his house; he is so ill-natured that no one can speak to him."

<sup>18</sup> Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves, two skins of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five measures of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs. She loaded them on donkeys <sup>19</sup> and said to her young men, "Go on ahead of me; I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

<sup>20</sup> As she rode on the donkey and came down under cover of the mountain, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them. <sup>21</sup> Now David had said, "Surely it was in vain that I protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; but he has returned me evil for good.

<sup>22</sup> God do so to David and more also, if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him."

feet and said, "Upon me alone, my lord, be the guilt; please let your servant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your servant. <sup>25</sup> My lord, do not take seriously this ill-natured fellow, Nabal; for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I, your servant, did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.

<sup>26</sup> "Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, since the LORD has restrained you from bloodguilt and from taking vengeance with your own hand, now let your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord be like Nabal.

<sup>27</sup> And now let this present that your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord. <sup>28</sup> Please forgive the trespass of your servant; for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD; and evil shall not be found in you so long as you live. <sup>29</sup> If anyone should rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living under the care of the LORD your God; but the lives of your enemies he shall sling out as from the hollow of a sling. <sup>30</sup> When the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you prince over Israel, <sup>31</sup> my lord shall have no cause of grief, or pangs of conscience, for having shed blood without cause or for having saved himself. And when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant."

<sup>32</sup> David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you to meet me today! <sup>33</sup> Blessed be your good sense, and blessed be you, who have kept me today from bloodguilt and from avenging myself by my own hand! <sup>34</sup> For as surely as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, truly by morning there would not have been left to Nabal so much as one male."

her hand what she had brought him; he said to her, "Go up to your house in peace; see, I have heeded your voice, and I have granted your petition."

<sup>36</sup> Abigail came to Nabal; he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; so she told him nothing at all until the morning light.

<sup>37</sup> In the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him; he became like a stone.

<sup>38</sup> About ten days later the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.

<sup>39</sup> When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD who has judged the case of Nabal's insult to me, and has kept back his servant from evil; the LORD has returned the evildoing of Nabal upon his own head." Then David sent and wooed Abigail, to make her his wife. <sup>40</sup> When David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, "David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife."

<sup>41</sup> She rose and bowed down, with her face to the ground, and said, "Your servant is a slave to wash the feet of the servants of my lord." <sup>42</sup> Abigail got up hurriedly and rode away on a donkey; her five maids attended her. She went after the messengers of David and became his wife.

<sup>43</sup> David also married Ahinoam of Jezreel; both of them became his wives. <sup>44</sup> Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

Jesus Is Rejected by the Jews

<sup>22</sup> At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, <sup>23</sup> and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. <sup>24</sup> So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe.

The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me;

<sup>26</sup> but you do not believe,

because you do not belong to my sheep.<sup>27</sup> My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me.<sup>28</sup> I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand.
<sup>29</sup> What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand.

Psalms 115:11-18 (NRSV)

- <sup>11</sup> You who fear the LORD,
trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.
- <sup>12</sup> The LORD has been mindful
of us; he will bless us;
he will bless the house of Israel;
he will bless the house of Aaron;
- <sup>13</sup> he will bless those who
fear the LORD,
both small and great.
- <sup>14</sup> May the LORD give you
increase,
both you and your
children.
- <sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by the LORD,
who made heaven and
earth.

- <sup>16</sup> The heavens are the LORD's
heavens,
but the earth he has given to human beings.
- <sup>17</sup> The dead do not praise the LORD,
nor do any that go down
into silence.
- <sup>18</sup> But we will bless the LORD

Further Sayings of the Wise

- <sup>23</sup> These also are sayings of
the wise:
Partiality in judging is not
good.
- <sup>24</sup> Whoever says to the wicked, "You are innocent,"
will be cursed by peoples, abhorred by
nations;
- <sup>25</sup> but those who rebuke the wicked will have delight,
and a good blessing will come upon them.

1 Samuel 26:1-25 (NRSV)

David Spares Saul's Life a Second Time

<sup>1</sup> Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "David is in hiding on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon." <sup>2</sup> So Saul rose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, with three thousand chosen men of Israel, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph. <sup>3</sup> Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon beside the road. But David remained in the wilderness. When he learned that Saul had come after him into the wilderness, <sup>4</sup> David sent out spies, and learned that Saul had indeed arrived. <sup>5</sup> Then David set out and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, with Abner son of Ner, the commander of his army. Saul was lying within the encampment, while the army was encamped around him.

<sup>6</sup> Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?" Abishai said, "I will go down with you." <sup>7</sup> So David and Abishai went to the army by night; there Saul lay sleeping within the encampment, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the army lay around him. <sup>8</sup> Abishai said to David, "God has given your enemy into your hand today; now therefore let me pin him to the ground with one stroke of the spear; I will not strike him twice." <sup>9</sup> But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who can raise his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?" <sup>10</sup> David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him down; or his day will come to die; or he will go down into battle and perish. <sup>11</sup> The LORD forbid that I should raise my hand against the LORD's anointed; but now take the spear that is at his head, and the water jar, and let us go." <sup>12</sup> So David took the spear that was at Saul's head and the water jar, and they went away. No one saw it, or knew it, nor did anyone awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.

<sup>13</sup> Then David went over to the other side, and stood on top of a hill far away, with a great distance between them.

<sup>14</sup> David called to the army and to Abner son of Ner, saying, "Abner! Will you not answer?" Then Abner replied, "Who are you that calls to the king?"

<sup>15</sup> David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king. <sup>16</sup> This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD's anointed. See now, where is the king's spear, or the water jar that was at his head?"

<sup>17</sup> Saul recognized David's voice, and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king." <sup>18</sup> And he added, "Why does my lord pursue his servant? For what have I done? What guilt is on my hands? <sup>19</sup> Now therefore let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is the LORD who has stirred you up against me, may he accept an offering; but if it is mortals, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out today from my share in the heritage of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the ground, away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to seek a single flea, like one who hunts a partridge in the mountains."

<sup>21</sup> Then Saul said, "I have done wrong; come back, my son David, for I will never harm you again, because my life was precious in your sight today; I have been a fool, and have made a great mistake."

LORD gave you into my hand today, but I would not raise my hand against the LORD's anointed.<sup>24</sup> As your life was precious today in my sight, so may my life be precious in the sight of the LORD, and may he rescue me from all tribulation."<sup>25</sup> Then Saul said to David, "Blessed be you, my son David! You will do many things and will succeed in them." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

John 10:30-42 (NRSV)

<sup>30</sup> The Father and I are one."

<sup>31</sup> The Jews took up stones again to stone him. <sup>32</sup> Jesus replied, "I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these are you going to stone me?"<sup>33</sup> The Jews answered, "It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you, but for blasphemy, because you, though only a human being, are making yourself God."

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, you are gods'?<sup>35</sup> If those to whom the word of God came were called 'gods'—and the scripture cannot be annulled—

<sup>36</sup> can you say that the one whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world is blaspheming because I said, 'I am God's Son'?<sup>37</sup> If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me.<sup>38</sup> But if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father."<sup>39</sup> Then they tried to arrest him again, but he escaped from their hands.

<sup>40</sup> He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing earlier, and he remained there. <sup>41</sup> Many came to him, and they were saying, "John performed no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true."<sup>42</sup> And many believed in him there.

*Thanksgiving for Recovery
from Illness*

<sup>1</sup> I love the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my supplications.

<sup>2</sup> Because he inclined his ear
to me,
therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
<sup>3</sup> The snares of death
encompassed me;
the pangs of Sheol laid
hold on me;
I suffered distress and anguish.
<sup>4</sup> Then I called on the name
of the LORD:
“O LORD, I pray, save my
life!”
<sup>5</sup> Gracious is the LORD, and
righteous;
our God is merciful.

1 Samuel 27:1-28:25 (NRSV)

*David Serves
King Achish of Gath*

<sup>1</sup> David said in his heart, “I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul; there is nothing better for me than to escape to the land of the Philistines; then Saul will despair of seeking me any longer within the borders of Israel, and I shall escape out of his hand.” <sup>2</sup> So David set out and went over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to King Achish son of Maoch of Gath. <sup>3</sup> David stayed with Achish at Gath, he and his troops, every man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal’s widow. <sup>4</sup> When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer sought for him.

<sup>5</sup> Then David said to Achish, “If I have found favor in your sight, let a place be given me in one of the country towns, so that I may live there; for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?” <sup>6</sup> So that day Achish gave him Ziklag; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day. <sup>7</sup> The length of time that David lived in the country of the Philistines was one year and four months.

<sup>8</sup> Now David and his men went up and made raids on the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for these were the landed settlements from Telam on the way to Shur and on to the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> David struck the land, leaving neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing, and came back to Achish. <sup>10</sup> When Achish asked, "Against whom have you made a raid today?" David would say, "Against the Negeb of Judah," or "Against the Negeb of the Jerahmeelites," or, "Against the Negeb of the Kenites." <sup>11</sup> David left neither man nor woman alive to be brought back to Gath, thinking, "They might tell about us, and say, 'David has done so and so.'" Such was his practice all the time he lived in the country of the Philistines. <sup>12</sup> Achish trusted David, thinking, "He has made himself utterly abhorrent to his people Israel; therefore he shall always be my servant."

28 In those days the Philistines gathered their forces for war, to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, "You know, of course, that you and your men are to go out with me in the army." <sup>2</sup> David said to Achish, "Very well, then you shall know what your servant can do." Achish said to David, "Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life."

Saul Consults a Medium
(Cp Deut 18:9–14)

<sup>3</sup> Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. Saul had expelled the mediums and the wizards from the land. <sup>4</sup> The Philistines assembled, and came and encamped at Shunem. Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilboa. <sup>5</sup> When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. <sup>6</sup> When Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, not by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets. <sup>7</sup> Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, so that I may go to her and inquire of her." His servants said to him, "There is a medium at Endor."

<sup>8</sup> So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes and went there, he and two men with him. They came to the woman by night. And he said, "Consult a spirit for me, and bring up for me the one whom I name to you." <sup>9</sup> The woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the wizards from the land. Why then are you laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?" <sup>10</sup> But Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing." <sup>11</sup> Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He answered, "Bring up Samuel for me." <sup>12</sup> When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!" <sup>13</sup> The king said to her, "Have no fear; what do you see?" The woman said to Saul, "I see a divine being coming up out of the ground." <sup>14</sup> He said to her, "What is his appearance?" She said, "An old man is coming up; he is wrapped in a robe." So Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.

<sup>15</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered, "I am in great distress, for the Philistines are warring against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams; so I have summoned you to tell me what I should do."

<sup>16</sup> Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from you and become your enemy?" <sup>17</sup> The LORD has done to you just as he spoke by me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, David. <sup>18</sup> Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD, and did not carry out his fierce wrath against Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you today.

<sup>19</sup> Moreover the LORD will give Israel along with you into the hands of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me; the LORD will also give the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.”

<sup>20</sup> Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, filled with fear because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night. <sup>21</sup> The woman came to Saul, and when she saw that he was terrified, she said to him, “Your servant has listened to you; I have taken my life in my hand, and have listened to what you have said to me. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, you also listen to your servant; let me set a morsel of bread before you. Eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way.” <sup>23</sup> He refused, and said, “I will not eat.” But his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he listened to their words. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup> Now the woman had a fattened calf in the house. She quickly slaughtered it, and she took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened cakes. <sup>25</sup> She put them before Saul and his servants, and they

ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

The Death of Lazarus

<sup>2</sup> Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. <sup>3</sup> So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.” <sup>4</sup> But when Jesus heard it, he said, “This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” <sup>5</sup> Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, <sup>6</sup> after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

<sup>7</sup> Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.” <sup>8</sup> The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?” <sup>9</sup> Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world. <sup>10</sup> But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them.”

<sup>11</sup> After saying this, he told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him.” <sup>12</sup> The disciples said to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right.” <sup>13</sup> Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep. <sup>14</sup> Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup> For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

<sup>16</sup> Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

Jesus the Resurrection and the Life

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

<sup>18</sup> Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, <sup>19</sup> and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. <sup>20</sup> When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home.

<sup>21</sup> Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

<sup>22</sup> But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him.” <sup>23</sup> Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” <sup>24</sup> Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.” <sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life.

Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, <sup>26</sup> and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

Do you believe this?” <sup>27</sup> She said to him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.”

Jesus Weeps

<sup>28</sup> When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.” <sup>29</sup> And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him.

Psalms 116:6-14 (NRSV)

<sup>6</sup> The LORD protects the
simple;
when I was brought low,
he saved me.

<sup>7</sup> Return, O my soul, to your
rest,
for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

<sup>8</sup> For you have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling.

<sup>9</sup> I walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.

<sup>10</sup> I kept my faith, even when I said,
“I am greatly afflicted”;
<sup>11</sup> I said in my consternation,
“Everyone is a liar.”

<sup>12</sup> What shall I return to the LORD
for all his bounty to me?

<sup>13</sup> I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of
the LORD,

<sup>14</sup> I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his
people.

1 Samuel 29:1-30:20 (NRSV)

The Philistines Reject David

<sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek, while the Israelites were encamped by the fountain that is in Jezreel. <sup>2</sup> As the lords of the Philistines were passing on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were passing on in the rear with Achish, <sup>3</sup> the commanders of the Philistines said, “What are these Hebrews doing here?” Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, “Is this not David, the servant of King Saul of Israel, who has been with me now for days and years? Since he deserted to me I have found no fault in him to this day.” <sup>4</sup> But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him; and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Send the man back, so that he may return to the place that you have assigned to him; he shall not go down with us to battle, or else he may become an adversary to us in the battle. For how could this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of the men here?"<sup>5</sup> Is this not David, of whom they sing to one another in dances, 'Saul has killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?"

<sup>6</sup> Then Achish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been honest, and to me it seems right that you should march out and in with me in the campaign; for I have found nothing wrong in you from the day of your coming to me until today. Nevertheless the lords do not approve of you."<sup>7</sup> So go back now; and go peaceably; do nothing to displease the lords of the Philistines."<sup>8</sup> David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant from the day I entered your service until now, that I should not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"<sup>9</sup> Achish replied to David, "I know that you are as blameless in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless, the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'<sup>10</sup> Now then rise early in the morning, you and the servants of your lord who came with you, and go to the place that I appointed for you. As for the evil report, do not take it to heart, for you have done well before me. Start early in the morning, and leave as soon as you have light."<sup>11</sup> So David set out with his men early in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David Avenges the Destruction of Ziklag

30 Now when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negeb and on Ziklag. They had attacked

Ziklag, burned it down, <sup>2</sup> and taken captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great; they killed none of them, but carried them off, and went their way. <sup>3</sup> When David and his men came to the city, they found it burned down, and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive. <sup>4</sup> Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept, until they had no more strength to weep. <sup>5</sup> David's two wives also had been taken captive, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel. <sup>6</sup> David was in great danger; for the people spoke of stoning him, because all the people were bitter in spirit for their sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup> David said to the priest Abiathar son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David. <sup>8</sup> David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue this band? Shall I overtake them?" He answered him, "Pursue; for you shall surely overtake and shall surely rescue." <sup>9</sup> So David set out, he and the six hundred men who were with him. They came to the Wadi Besor, where those stayed who were left behind. <sup>10</sup> But David went on with the pursuit, he and four hundred men; two hundred stayed behind, too exhausted to cross the Wadi Besor.

<sup>11</sup> In the open country they found an Egyptian, and brought him to David. They gave him bread and he ate; they gave him water to drink; <sup>12</sup> they also gave him a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit revived; for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights. <sup>13</sup> Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong? Where are you from?" He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite. My master left me behind because I fell sick three days ago. <sup>14</sup> We had made a raid on the Negeb of the Cherethites and on that which belongs to Judah and on the Negeb of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag down." <sup>15</sup> David said to him, “Will you take me down to this raiding party?” He said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me, or hand me over to my master, and I will take you down to them.”

<sup>16</sup> When he had taken him down, they were spread out all over the ground, eating and drinking and dancing, because of the great amount of spoil they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup> David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not one of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who mounted camels and fled. <sup>18</sup> David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup> Nothing was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything that had been taken; David brought back everything.

<sup>20</sup> David also captured all the flocks and herds, which were driven ahead of the other cattle; people said, “This is David’s spoil.”

John 11:30-54 (NRSV)

<sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. <sup>31</sup> The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

<sup>32</sup> When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” <sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. <sup>34</sup> He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” <sup>35</sup> Jesus began to weep. <sup>36</sup> So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” <sup>37</sup> But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Jesus Raises Lazarus to Life

<sup>38</sup> Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” <sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” <sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. <sup>42</sup> I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” <sup>43</sup> When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” <sup>44</sup> The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

(Mt 26:1–5; Mk 14:1–2; Lk 22:1–2)

<sup>45</sup> Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him. <sup>46</sup> But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what he had done. <sup>47</sup> So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council, and said, “What are we to do? This man is performing many signs. <sup>48</sup> If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation.” <sup>49</sup> But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all! <sup>50</sup> You do not understand that it is better for you to have one man die for the people than to have the whole nation destroyed.” <sup>51</sup> He did not say this on his own, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation, <sup>52</sup> and not for the nation only, but to gather into one the dispersed children of God. <sup>53</sup> So from that day on they planned to put him to death.

<sup>54</sup> Jesus therefore no longer walked about openly among the Jews, but went from there to a town called Ephraim in the region near the wilderness; and he remained there with the disciples.

<sup>21</sup> Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow
David, and who had been left at the Wadi Besor. They went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. When David drew near to the people he saluted them.

<sup>22</sup> Then all the corrupt and worthless fellows among the men who had gone with David said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except that each man may take his wife and children, and leave." <sup>23</sup> But David said, "You shall not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us; he has preserved us and handed over to us the raiding party that attacked us. <sup>24</sup> Who would listen to you in this matter? For the share of the one who goes down into the battle shall be the same as the share of the one who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike." <sup>25</sup> From that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel; it continues to the present day.

<sup>26</sup> When David came to Ziklag, he sent part of the spoil to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, "Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD"; <sup>27</sup> it was for those in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negeb, in Jattir, <sup>28</sup> in Aroer, in Siphmoth, in Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup> in Racal, in the towns of the Jerahmeelites, in the towns of the Kenites, <sup>30</sup> in Hormah, in Bor-ashan, in Athach, <sup>31</sup> in Hebron, all the places where David and his men had roamed.

The Death of Saul and His Sons
(1 Chr 10:1–14)

31 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and many fell on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup> The battle pressed hard upon Saul; the archers found him, and he was badly wounded by them. <sup>4</sup> Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, so that these uncircumcised may not come and thrust me through, and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer was unwilling; for he was terrified. So Saul took his own sword and fell upon it. <sup>5</sup> When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword and died with him. <sup>6</sup> So Saul and his three sons and his armor-bearer and all his men died together on the same day. <sup>7</sup> When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and those beyond the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their towns and fled; and the Philistines came and occupied them.

<sup>8</sup> The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They cut off his head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to the houses of their idols and to the people. <sup>10</sup> They put his armor in the temple of Astarte; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan. <sup>11</sup> But when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all the valiant men set out, traveled all night long, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan. They came to Jabesh and burned them there. <sup>13</sup> Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

John 11:55-12:8 (NRSV)

<sup>55</sup> Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup> They were looking for Jesus and were asking one another as they stood in the temple, "What do you think? Surely he will not come to the festival, will he?" <sup>57</sup> Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who knew where Jesus was should let them know, so that they might arrest him.

Mary Anoints Jesus
(Mt 26:6-13; Mk 14:3-9)

12 Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup> There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. <sup>3</sup> Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

<sup>4</sup> But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said,

<sup>5</sup> “Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?” <sup>6</sup> (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) <sup>7</sup> Jesus said, “Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. <sup>8</sup> You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.”

Psalms 118:1-7 (NRSV)

October 10

2 Samuel 1:1-16 (NRSV)

David Mourns for Saul and Jonathan

<sup>1</sup> After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, David remained two days in Ziklag. <sup>2</sup> On the third day, a man came from Saul's camp, with his clothes torn and dirt on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground and did obeisance. <sup>3</sup> David said to him, "Where have you come from?" He said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel." <sup>4</sup> David said to him, "How did things go? Tell me!" He answered, "The army fled from the battle, but also many of the army fell and died; and Saul and his son Jonathan also died." <sup>5</sup> Then David asked the young man who was reporting to him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan died?" <sup>6</sup> The young man reporting to him said, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa; and there was Saul leaning on his spear, while the chariots and the horsemen drew close to him. <sup>7</sup> When he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. I answered, 'Here sir.' <sup>8</sup> And he said to me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.' <sup>9</sup> He said to me, 'Come, stand over me and kill me; for convulsions have seized me, and yet my life still lingers.' <sup>10</sup> So I stood over him, and killed him, for I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. I took the crown that was on his head and the armlet that was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

<sup>11</sup> Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them; and all the men who were with him did the same. <sup>12</sup> They mourned and wept, and fasted until evening for Saul and for his son Jonathan, and for the army of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

<sup>13</sup> David said to the young man who had reported to him, "Where do you come from?" He answered, "I am the son of a resident alien, an Amalekite." <sup>14</sup> David said to him, "Were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?" <sup>15</sup> Then David called one of the young men and said, "Come here and strike him down." So he struck him down and he died.

<sup>16</sup> David said to him, "Your blood be on your head; for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have killed the LORD's anointed.' "

John 12:9-19 (NRSV)

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

<sup>9</sup> When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup> So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death as well, <sup>11</sup> since it was on account of him that many of the Jews were deserting and were believing in Jesus.

Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem

(Mt 21:1-11; Mk 11:1-11;
Lk 19:28-40)

<sup>12</sup> The next day the great crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, shouting,

"Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who
comes in the name of
the Lord—
the King of Israel!"

<sup>14</sup> Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it; as it is written:

<sup>15</sup> "Do not be afraid,
daughter of Zion.
Look, your king is coming,
sitting on a donkey's
colt!"

<sup>16</sup> His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written of him and had been done to him. <sup>17</sup> So the crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify.<sup>18</sup> It was also because they heard that he had performed this sign that the crowd went to meet him.<sup>19</sup> The Pharisees then said to one another, “You see, you can do nothing. Look, the world has gone after him!”
